MEMO TO PRESS

PRESS PASSES — Requests for working passes should be made directly to Sports Publicity Office a week prior to the game. Women are not allowed in the press box, and the area is reserved for those actually covering the game. Drivers, and others who may accompany those covering the game will be asked to sit elsewhere. Comp seats will be made available, if the requests are made in advance.

PRESS BOX — The new BYU press box, which is located at the top of the east stands, is just inside the main entrance to the stadium. A parking area just north of the main gates is reserved for working press, and passes will be supplied by request.

BROADCASTING BOOTHS — Four radio booths are available, including one reserved for the visiting station which is designated the official station by the visiting team.

SERVICES — Complete game statistics—lineups, play-by-play, scoring and yardage reports—will be supplied at the end of the game.

UNIFORMS — The Cougars will wear royal blue uniforms at home and white uniforms on the road.

TALLY STEVENS

Now in his second year as head coach, Tally Stevens is one of the most respected men in the coaching profession. He became the Y's eighth head football coach nearly two years ago replacing Harold W. Kopp, who resigned. Tally, as heir apparent, was the popular choice to take over the helm.

In many respects Stevens is a model coach. He has a warm, commanding personality, the vigor and vitality of an executive, and a good knowledge and grasp of football. He is conscious of human relations in all areas, and has the unqualified support of his staff and players.

A native of Evanston, Wyoming, Tally launched his playing career at the University of Utah. He played one season with the Redskins, then entered the service where he played ball with the Fourth Air Force. Returning to Utah, Tally developed into an all-conference end on Ike Armstrong's post-war teams.

Following graduation in 1949, Tally spent his freshman coaching year at Morgan High School in Utah. From Morgan he moved to East High in Salt Lake City, where he enjoyed phenomenal success. In his last four years at East his teams rolled up an unbelievable 33-3-1 record, plus three Class "A" state football championships. His overall record within the high school ranks is a glossy 49-11-3.

When Harold W. Kopp was appointed head coach at BYU in 1956, Tally was his first appointment as the staff's senior assistant, a position he held until he was named new head coach on January 1, 1959.

Stevens is 36-years old and he and his wife, Phyllis, have two girls and a boy; Terry Lee, 10; Sandy, 8; and Tally, Jr., 5.

DIXON-APOSTOL

OWEN DIXON, ASSISTANT

Senior member of the BYU staff in terms of length of service at Brigham Young University is Owen Dixon, the plucky, hard-nosed coach who directs much of the Cougar's line play. Owen who is charged with the team's defensive line play, was captain and all-conference guard on the BYU team following World War II.

A native of Provo, Dixon is still regarded as one of the finest linemen the school has produced. Winning honors before and after stint in the service, he was respected for his play throughout the conference.

Owen graduated from BYU in 1946 and that fall joined the coaching staff at B.Y. High school in Provo. A constant threat in every campaign, his team won the regional title in 1952. Advancing to the state playoffs, the team was defeated for the state title by one point.

CHRIS APOSTOL, ASSISTANT

Chris J. Apostol, who will be concentrating on offense, is another of the new assistants added to the staff by Coach Stevens. Chris was formerly head coach at Ogden High School where his team won 11 straight victories in 1958 to win the Class "A" championship.

A native of Bingham, Utah, Apostol won all-state honors in football, lettered in basketball and baseball, and was studentbody president at Bingham before enrolling at Utah State University in 1946.

Chris was a member of Aggie varsity line for three seasons, and joined the Ogden High athletic staff in 1950. He succeeded Cluff Snow as head football coach in 1953. His overall prep record is 44 wins, 13 losses and two ties, including four league championships.

ROLLINS-MITCHELL

CARL ROLLINS, ASSISTANT

One of the new members of the staff, Carl Rollins has been assigned to work with the Cougar backfield. He came to BYU from Sheridan High School in Wyoming, where his team won both football and basketball championships for the school.

Considered as one of Wyoming's finest contributions to the field of coaching, Rollins is also a great organizer. He organized and for four years served as president of the Wyoming Coaches' Association, and also directed Wyoming's Coaching Clinic.

Born in Lyman Wyoming, Carl attended the University of Wyoming, where he captained the Cowboy's first championship football team in 1949. He obtained the M.A. degree in education administration at Wyoming in 1950.

In three and a half years spent in the Corps of Army Engineers he advanced from private to captain. He spent 20 months of foreign service in Burma and India.

HAL MITCHELL, ASSISTANT

Hal Mitchell, 29-year-old Californian who captained UCLA'S 1951 football team, joined the Cougar staff in 1959 as varsity coach. He will also direct the freshman football team again this year.

Last year Hal resigned his coaching job at William S. Hart High School in Newhall, Calif., where his 1958 team won 11 straight before they were defeated in the semi-finals of the CIF "AA" playoffs.

A gifted player with outstanding leadership abilities, Mitchell captained his high school, college and service teams during his career as a player. He was unanimous choice as a lineman on the All-Coast selections in 1951, also captained the UCLA rugby team.

TUCKETT-KIMBALL

GLEN TUCKETT

Latest addition to the BYU football staff is Glen Tuckett, a lively, personable gent who also serves the University as head baseball coach. Glen joined the staff a year ago, taking leave at West High in Salt Lake City where he was head baseball and football coach.

A graduate of the University of Utah, and a veteran of professional baseball, Glen played five seasons in the Western International League, plus five years with the Salt Lake Bees while a member of the Pioneer loop.

A native of Murray, where he was an all-state athlete, Glen coached at West High for six years. His teams always placed among the top in the state in the baseball standings.

Last spring in his first season with the Cougars he guided them to second place in the division race.

ROD KIMBALL, TRAINER

Veteran member of the staff is Trainer Rod Kimball, who has served all but one of the last 22 years in this position. Long in experience and know-how, Rod is among the most popular men on campus.

A native of Jordan, Utah, Rod was an outstanding athlete and student leader at Jordan High. He won letters in two sports at Utah State and BYU in his college days, and in 1937 he was chosen as trainer for Cougar teams. Since then he has traveled countless miles with BYU teams, conditioning athletes and attending their ills.

THE OUTLOOK

Approached from any angle by any objective observer, the 1960 football prospectus at BYU looks the same—an uphill battle by a game-but-gutted brigade. A pessimistic appraisal, to be sure; but a candid one that is incontrovertible when viewed in detail.

Gone from last year's team (3-7 season record) are 21 lettermen, 16 of whom were three-year lettermen and nine of whom were front line regulars who formed the heart of the '59 club. Included in this group were the first and second team guards on both sides of the line. All the above losses came through the usual avenues; graduation, pro contract in the Canadian league, mission calls, injuries, and a few academic fatalities.

What we have left, then, is a holdover group consisting of two returning regulars, a half dozen second stringers from '59, and a pretty fair supply of sophomores from last year's freshman team (3-1 season record).

With the possible exception of one spot in the line, center, the team will be weaker in every position. While the first unit may be compared favorably with those of the past, the depth of the squad is thin and untried. In fact, in nearly every phase of the game the Cougars will cast a smaller shadow.

Head coach Tally Stevens, now in his second year at the football helm, will be pinning his hopes on the development of his sophomores, a dedicated group of regulars, and a smother-running offense to lead the Cougars out of the woods this season.

Faced with a major rebuilding program, Stevens will be looking to his sophomores for help. There's a good chance two or three may be in the lineup when the campaign opens against Cal Poly. The consistent play of several sophomores during spring drills gave hint of this. Mike Conrad, a gritty guard from California, may take over at right guard, and Tom Stolworthy could be a soph starter at fullback. Lineman Mike Brady also looks like another comer, and halfback Bill Wright will be pressing veteran Ron Jacobsen at left half.

BYU's backfield will probably be made up of Bud Belnap, an all-around player, at quarterback; Jacobsen at left half; Jack Gifford, leading scorer from last year, at wingback; and either Stolworthy or Dick Darling at fullback.

Injuries to any key personnel would really put the Cougars in the sock, unless some of the newcomers ripen on the varsity vine ahead of schedule.

In summation: We've got a right to sing the blues.

 RIGHT HALFBACK: Jack Gifford (second unit), Paul Allen (reserve)
 FULLBACKS: Eddie Young (second unit)
 TOTAL: Two regulars, six second stringers, and nine reserves.
 Regulars in bold face.

EVALUATION

QUARTERBACK—WEAKER: Bud Belnap, a regular, will have to carry the big load here. Ron Startin graduated, Jack Jordan left school, and Gary Dunn signed with Canadian pros. Sophomores Eldon Fortie and Ron Dike lack experience.

RIGHT HALF—WEAKER: Jack Gifford a top back who scored 32 points in '59, an excellent front line player. Speedster Paul Allen will be top reserve.

LEFT HALF—MUCH WEAKER: Four top players in this position are gone, but Y has a good first stringer in Ron Jacobsen. Bill Wright, a promising sophomore, will push Jake, but depth is paper thin.

FULLBACK—WEAKER: Leading ground gainer, LeGrande Young, graduated. Eddie Young, a two-year letterman, and sophomore Dick Darling shared spot in spring drills. But top candidate is sophomore Tom Stolworthy who has service ball experience.

ENDS—WEAKER: Both starters, Tom Cole and Fred Leavitt, graduated. However, there is some support for first two units, very thin thereafter. This is one position that could improve as season progresses.

GUARDS—MUCH WEAKER: First and second string guards on both sides (Dennis, Eckel, Christley and Putnum; all three-year lettermen) graduated. Starters Steve Sullivan (a junior) and Mike Conrad (a sophomore) will hold the wall, but little in way of depth or experience behind them.

TACKLES—WEAKER: Gone are Kapele, Barrus and Bennion. But good first string material in veteran Wes Vorwaller and Ron Nielsen. Two good but inexperienced sophomores, Merrill Johnson and Martin Seneca, plus Dick Bair, lend some support.

CENTERS—SAME OR STRONGER: Old reliable, Dick Magoffin, will anchor this position, backed by letterman Steve Dangerfield. Mike Brady was stand-out last fall, but he may be moved to guard.

THREE-DEEP

(As of end of spring practice)

LEFT END: LeRoy Overstreet, Larry Harrison, Gene Frantz

LEFT GUARDS: Steve Sullivan, Roger DuPaix, Howard Homan

CENTER: Dick Magoffin, Steve Dangerfeld, Mike Brady

RIGHT GUARDS: Mike Conrad, Art Brown, Wayland Sheppard

RIGHT TACKLES: Ron Nielson, Merrill Johnson, Dick Bair

QUARTERBACKS: Bud Belnap, Eldon Fortie, Ron Dike

LEFT HALFBACKS: Ron Jacobsen, Bill Wright, Bruce Samples

RIGHT HALFBACKS: Jack Gifford, Paul Allen, Dion Frazier

FULLBACKS: Dick Darling, Tom Stolworthy, Eddie Young

(Lettermen in bold type)

OPPONENTS

No. 1 -- CALIFORNIA POLY

Sept. 16 — 8:30 in Provo

Location San Luis Obispo, California
Enrollment 5,000
Nickname Mustangs
Colors Green and Gold
Conference California Collegiate Athletic Assn.
Stadium 9,000
System Pro-type T-formation
Head Coach Leroy B. Hughes (Oregon '31)
Athletic Publicist John R. Healey

OUTLOOK — One of the real powers of the CCAA, the Mustangs expect to field a comparatively green squad this fall. Despite some experience problems, particularly in the line, Coach Roy Hughes should have a traditionally tough club. One player to watch is Carl Bowser, a 215-pound fullback who had an 8.2 per carry average last year.

SERIES HISTORY — This will be the first meeting of the two schools on the gridiron. But an indication of Cal Poly's power may be found in another CCAA member, Fresno State. FSC holds a 3-1 series edge over BYU in football.

No. 2 -- SAN JOSE STATE

Sept. 23 — 8 p.m. in San Jose

Location San Jose, California
Enrollment 14,500 (approximately)
Nickname Spartans
Colors Gold and White
Conference Independent in football
Stadium Spartan Stadium (18,155)
System Wing-T
Head Coach Bob Titchenal (San Jose '41)
Athletic Publicist Art Johnson

OUTLOOK — Inexperience may hurt, produce soft spots in some positions. A passing team that ranks among the leaders in this department, Spartans will use this as main weapon. They are improving running game, too. Team will undoubtedly improve as season progresses.

SERIES HISTORY — Tussels on gridiron between these two teams date back to 1946. But the Spartans have a perfect record over the Cougars with 6-0 mark in six tries. Last meeting was close 28-25 decision in 1953.

OPPONENTS

No. 3 -- COLORADO STATE

Oct. 1 — 8 p.m. in Fort Collins

Location Fort Collins, Colorado
Enrollment 6,000
Nickname Aggies, Rams
Colors Green and Gold
Conference Mountain States (Skyline)
Stadium Colorado Field (14,000)
System Split-T
Head Coach Don "Tuffy" Mullison (CSU '49)
Athletic Publicist Dick Smelser

OUTLOOK — Loss of 20 lettermen may drop Rams in standings, but rookies could compensate for loss. Enough veterans for good first unit, but depth falls off thereafter. Top individuals include end Duane Knox and halfback Myron Pearson. Could finish strong in first division.

SERIES HISTORY — The Aggies hold the series lead by a comfortable margin, 16-7-2, in clashes dating back to 1922. BYU edged Rams in 14-13 upset last fall in Provo, after taking a 6-32 loss the previous year at Fort Collins that robbed them of at least a share of '58 title.

No. 4 -- UTAH

Oct. 7 — 8:30 p.m. in Salt Lake City

Location Salt Lake City, Utah
Enrollment Over 10,000
Nickname Utes, Redskins
Colors Cardinal and White
Conference Mountain States (Skyline)
Stadium University Stadium (30,000)
System Multiple-T
Head Coach Ray Nagel (UCLA '50)
Athletic Publicist Harry R. James

OUTLOOK — Despite loss of 14 lettermen (8 starters), Utes should be stronger than last year. Nagel has had two fine frosh clubs in a row, and now they are ready to take over. Will have good strong line, some explosive backs. Ray sees good defense, takes "wait and see" stand on offense.

SERIES HISTORY — Who can believe it! Utah has 29-2-4 lead in series history; BYU won in 1942 and again in 1958. But Utes won last year, 20-8, and should be favored again this fall. One of the most lopsided series in college history.

OPPONENTS

No. 5 -- ARIZONA STATE

Oct. 15 — 1:30 p.m. in Provo

(Homecoming)

Location Tempe, Arizona
Enrollment 12,000
Nickname Sun Devils
Colors Maroon and Gold
Conference Border
Stadium Sun Devil Stadium (30,000)
System Multiple Offense
Head Coach Krank Kush (Michigan State '53)
Athletic Publicist Dick Stitt

OUTLOOK — ASU could be toughest team BYU will meet this fall. Coach Kush has 22 lettermen returning, although the Sun Devils profess a weakness at ends and fullback. Line looks solid, and the quarterbacking is improving. This is a rough club for the Cougars to draw for homecoming.

SERIES HISTORY — BYU won the first two games of the series in 1935 and 1948, but Arizona State at Tempe has been in command ever since, winning last six in a row. Last year at Tempe the Cougars dropped an 8-27 decision.

No. 6 -- MONTANA

Oct. 22 — 1:30 p.m. in Missoula

Location Missoula, Montana
Enrollment 4,000 (approximate)
Nickname Grizzlies, Silvertips
Colors Copper, Silver and Gold
Conference Mountain States (Skyline)
Stadium Dornblaser Field (10,000)
System Multiple (emphasis on single wing)
Head Coach Ray Jenkins (Colorado '42)
Athletic Publicist Bob Gilluly

OUTLOOK — After two thin seasons, things should improve for Grizzlies in '60. Coach Jenkins has 21 lettermen returning, and can see a general improvement in nearly every phase of the game. The Silvertips could start moving up this year.

SERIES HISTORY — Only win in two seasons of campaigning came against BYU last fall, a 0-12 blanking that stunned the Cougars. Brigham Young holds the edge, however, with an 8-5-0 mark for 13 games between the two schools. The '59 score was the only shutout of the series.

OPPONENTS

No. 7 -- UTAH STATE

Oct. 29 — 1:30 p.m. in Logan

Location Logan, Utah
Enrollment 5,200
Nickname Aggies
Colors Navy Blue and White
Conference Mountain States (Skyline)
Stadium Romney Stadium (9,500)
System Split-T
Head Coach John Ralston (California '51)
Athletic Publicist Karl W. Klages (Idaho '52)

OUTLOOK — If any team looks like a dark horse, it's Utah State. Aggies, while still weak in some spots, appear capable of a first division finish. Main assets are team balance and overall team speed. With 20 lettermen back, the Aggie machine may be ready to move.

SERIES HISTORY — The Cougars blanked Utah State, 18-0, last fall to edge closer in series race. USU holds a 19-13-3 lead in series that started in 1922. Game trophy between the two schools is the Old Wagon Wheel, which has been in Provo since 1957.

No. 8 -- NEW MEXICO

Nov. 5 — 1:30 p.m. in Provo

Location Albuquerque, New Mexico
Enrollment 7,500
Nickname Lobos, Wolfpack
Colors Cherry and Silver
Conference Mountain States (Skyline)
Stadium University Stadium (30,000)
(Completed in 1960)
System Wing-T
Head Coach Bill Weeks (Iowa '51)
Athletic Publicist George McFadden

OUTLOOK — Completely new with new coach, new assistants, and new stadium. Only 13 lettermen on hand, but good help coming from undefeated frosh team. Billy Brown, the Skyline's leading ground gainer, will spark running game. Lobos have finished well in two previous seasons, and could again in '60.

SERIES HISTORY — A 6-19 loss to the Lobos in Albuquerque last fall evened the standings at 4-4-1. The series started with 0-34 BYU defeat in 1951, and it has been touch and go since then. Cougars cost NMU a share in title with upset in '58.

OPPONENTS

No. 9 -- DENVER

Nov. 12 — 1:30 p.m. in Denver

Location Denver, Colorado
Enrollment 6,000
Nickname Pioneers, Hilltoppers
Colors Crimson and Gold
Conference Mountain States (Skyline)
Stadium D.U. Stadium (27,500)
System Wing-T
Head Coach John Roning (Minnesota '35)
Athletic Publicist Donald R. Smith

OUTLOOK — Success or failure depends on response of freshmen, plus the emergence of a passing quarterback. Only 12 lettermen are returning, so replacements seem to be a key here. Coach John Roning faces a large building program, but may get the needed help from the sophomores.

SERIES HISTORY — The Pioneers added another win to series record last year in Provo, 14-7, thus taking a 15-6-0 lead in series. The Cats won in 1957 and 1958. Series started in 1933, and the D.U. teams have twice scored more than 50 points a game.

No. 10 -- WYOMING

Nov. 19 — 1:30 p.m. in Provo

Location Laramie, Wyoming
Enrollment 4,000 (approximate)
Nickname Cowboys
Colors Brown and Yellow
Conference Mountain States (Skyline)
Stadium War Memorial (18,000)
System Multiple
Head Coach Robert Devaney (Alma '39)
Athletic Publicist Bill Young

OUTLOOK — Top choice to repeat as Skyline champion in 1960, the Cowboys haven't any serious problems, save it be a quarterback to replace Jim Walden. With 24 lettermen and qualified help from sophomores and transfers, the 'Pokes appear to be off and running well ahead of the pack.

SERIES HISTORY — Until last season the Cougars had been able to hold their own against Wyoming in 30-games series. But Cowboy win, 21-6, edged the Laramie gang ahead, 14-13-3, in series race. Wyoming hasn't been defeated by BYU team since 1948.

OPPONENTS

No. 11 -- HAWAII

Nov. 25 — in Honolulu

Location Honolulu, Hawaii
Enrollment 6,400 (coed)
Nickname Rainbows
Colors Green and White
Conference Independent
Stadium Honolulu Stadium (24,000)
System Modified T
Head Coach Henry B. Vasconellos (San Jose '41)

OUTLOOK — Preliminary reports say the Rainbows lack depth and experience for nine-game schedule. Gone are team's top rusher, passer, receiver and scorer plus quartet of best linemen. Another club facing a building year.

SERIES HISTORY — Here's a three-game series that is spread out over 30 years. Rainbows won the first two (49-13 in 1930, and 39-7 in 1950) while the Y's only victory over Hawaii was fairly recent 20-7 win in 1951. This will be the Cougars second game in Honolulu.

THE SCHOOL . . .

(Information on the following pages is designed to give a general picture of the University and the area in which it is located.)

LOCATION

Brigham Young University, which is located on 500 acres in the northeast section of Provo, is in the heart of Utah Valley. Provo is the third largest city in Utah. When joined with Orem, (the city to the immediate north) it is classified by the federal government as a "standard metropolitan statistical area." That is, it has a twin city population of at least 50,000. Latest figures released by the government list the population of Provo-Orem area as 106,777 persons, more than half of whom reside within the central cities. Utah Valley is bordered on the west by Utah Lake, on the north by 14,000-foot Mt. Timpanogos, and the east by the Wasatch Mountain Range. Population within the Valley is over 115,000.

Joseph Smith Memorial Building

TRAVEL

Provo is 45 miles south of Salt Lake City, the state capitol which has a population of 250,000. When new freeways now under construction are completed, the commuting time between Provo and Salt Lake City will be cut to about 50 minutes. Ogden, the second largest city in Utah, is 35 miles north of Salt Lake City. In road miles Provo is 680 miles from Corvallis; 860 from Eugene; 690 from Pullman; 560 from Albuquerque; 760 from Tucson; 630 from Tempe; 465 from Denver; 700 from San Francisco and Los Angeles; and 400 from Boise (all approximate figures). Three air lines service the proximity of Provo, plus two bus lines and two railroads.

INDUSTRY

A combination of agriculture and industry support the Valley's economy. The county ranks first in the state in production of apples, pears, plums, prunes, strawberries, cherries, apricots and other crops. Utah County also leads in Grade A milk production. The largest industry in the county, however, is U.S. Steel's Columbia-Geneva Steel Division, which is located on a 1502-acre site near Utah Lake. Geneva employs an estimated 5,000 workers in the Valley.

FOUNDING

BYU was founded by Brigham Young as an academy in October 16, 1875 under the leadership of Karl G. Maeser. In 1903 the school became a university. It is owned and operated by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (commonly called Mormon). It is the headquarters of the Church's widespread educational system.

New Library Building (under construction)

CURRICULUM

Today BYU is the largest church related university in the nation. A liberal arts, vocational and scientific curriculum is offered by 11 colleges and the graduate school. They are College of Biological and Agricultural Sciences, College of Business, College of Education, College of Family Living, College of Fine Arts, General College, College of Humanities and Social Sciences, College of Nursing, College of Physical and Engineering Sciences, College of Physical Education, College of Religious Instruction, and the Graduate School. An Air Force ROTC Detachment is also functioning on campus. Doctoral programs are available in 11 departments, and an Honors Program will begin with the 1960-61 school year. BYU uses the semester system.

FACTS ABOUT BYU

FACULTY

BYU is staffed with over 500 faculty members who have obtained degrees from universities located in 35 states and seven foreign countries. More than 45 per cent possess doctoral degrees, one per cent have law degrees, and 40 percent have master's credentials.

ENROLLMENT

Total daytime enrollment for 1959-60 was 11,842; this is more than double the enrollment of ten years ago. Expected enrollment should reach 15,000 by 1965, and 22,000 by 1970. Fifty-five per cent of the students come from outside Utah, including the 50 states and 45 foreign countries. Membership in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is not required for admission, although at the present time 95 per cent of the students are members. The other five per cent, as a condition of the continuance as students are required to abide by the same standards of morality and integrity.

New Administration Building (under construction)

TUITION

Yearly tuition and fees total $260 for both in-state and out-of-state students. Room and board costs $580 per year, and the total cost (estimated) for the school year is $1,000, which includes moderate personal expenses.

CAMPUS

The University campus major is located on a hill overlooking Provo and Utah Valley. There are 35 academic buildings, 13 service buildings, 40 residence halls, and 330 temporary family apartment units on campus. In addition there is an Alpine campus in Provo Canyon, a dairy farm, a poultry farm, and an agricultural farm.

FACTS ABOUT BYU

ATHLETICS

BYU's Department of Athletics is a part of the College of Physical Education under Dean Milton F. Hartvigsen. With the exception of swimming, teams are represented in every sport. The school's intramural program offers basketball, football, badminton, golf, handball, horseshoes, softball, table tennis, tennis, volleyball, wrestling, swimming, skiing and track. The intramural program is financed by student fees.

Helaman Halls (men's residence)

FACILITIES

Hub of most athletic activity on campus is the George Albert Smith fieldhouse and its 28,950 square-foot extension. The original building houses a main floor (seating capacity 10,800), two large auxiliary gyms, wrestling room, boxing room, therapy room, weight lifting area, steam room, squash courts, handball courts, four class rooms plus numerous offices for coaches and faculty, and the usual shower and locker rooms. The extension, which was opened in January of this year, provides a huge indoor area and an extension of an indoor track. The indoor track offers a 120-yard straightaway, and several meets were held indoors this spring. The area is also used by physical education groups. BYU's track in the stadium is one of the best in the entire West, and facilities for field events, too, are modern and well preserved.

A modern baseball diamond, which was inaugurated three years ago, is located just north of the football stadium. In addition to the above facilities, the general athletic area includes 24 tennis courts, 8 softball diamonds, an outdoor basketball area, a pitch and putt course for golf, large football areas for practice and playing, horseshoe pits, and hard-top games area.
