STADIUM INAUGURAL

Brigham Young University will enter a new football era this year when the Cougars move into a new stadium. Located on the northwest end of the campus, the stadium is on a site just east of Canyon Road, roughly half a mile north of the old stadium site.

One of the finest structures of its kind ever built in the Intermountain West, the all-steel stadium is being built at a cost of $1,500,000. Initial seating capacity will be 26,812, although ultimately it can be expanded to 45,000 seats as the need arises.

Inaugural game in the new stadium is scheduled for the night of Oct. 2, when the Cougars host New Mexico, the WAC's defending champions.

The top surface of the giant, steel stadium will be finished like the deck of a battleship. The main stands on the west side of the field will extend 69 rows between the goal posts and seat approximately 16,800 fans. The stands on the west side will extend 51 rows and hold approximately 10,000.

Towering above the west stands will be a 100-seat press box. The enclosed press section will contain two main decks which overhang a special visitors' box. An elevator, which will not be in operation until the 1965 season, will serve the pressbox for the movement of heavy equipment (television cameras, typewriters, radio gear, etc.)

A more detailed report on the stadium will be published prior to the first game, Oct. 2.

ON THE FRONT PAGE — Coach Tom Hudspeth and senior end Dick Wood.

PRESS NOTES

PRESS PASSES — Requests for working passes should be made directly to the sports information director a week prior to the game. Women are not allowed in the press box, and the area is reserved for those actually covering the game. Drivers and others who may accompany those covering the game will be asked to sit elsewhere. Comp seats will be made available, if the requests are made well in advance of the game.

SERVICES — Complete game statistics—lineups, play-by-play, scoring and yardage reports—will be supplied at the half and at the end of the game.

UNIFORMS — The Cougars will wear royal blue uniforms at home and white uniforms on the road.

TOM HUDSPETH

One visit with 33-year old Tommy Hudspeth is enough to convince a person BYU's new head coach is one of the fraternity's new breed; young, aggressive, the executive-type dedicated to success. Tom knows what he wants to accomplish and how he wants to accomplish it. Time, he feels, is the one thing needed most to bring all the vital ingredients together.

While he has assumed an enormous task—one that has no end of challenge—Tom has known his share of success in the field of football.

Born Tommy J. Hudspeth in Cherryvale, Kans., on Sept. 14, 1931, he attended high school in Afton, Okla., where he was a member of Oklahoma's all-state team. Enrolling at University of Tulsa, where he was to captain the freshman and varsity teams, Tom emerged as a standout performer in the school's golden era of football. He played quarterback and defensive halfback. Tulsa was the number one team in total offense in 1951, and in 1950 and again in '51 they were conference champions.

A regular during all three years at Tulsa, Tom capped his playing career by captaining the Hurricanes in the 1953 Gator Bowl. It was while he was playing ball at Tulsa that he was coached by Darrell Royal and Jack Mitchell, then coaches at the Oklahoma school.

Besides his football accomplishments, Hudspeth served as president of his senior class. He graduated from Tulsa in 1953 with a B.A. degree in physical education. He has 36 hours toward his master's degree in counseling.

The same year he graduated, Tom coached at Norman High School, and was then commissioned in the U.S. Air Force where he was to spend the next two years. Discharged as a first lieutenant in 1955, he coached Tulsa Central to a 6-2-1 record, and the following year was appointed freshman coach at Tulsa under Bobby Dobbs. He was to continue as an assistant to Dobbs until he joined the staff at BYU.

In 1961 Dobbs was named head coach of the Calgary Stampede, and Tom went with him as a 28-year old assistant. The Stampede were contenders for the three years Tom was with them.

On Sept. 20, 1953, Tommy married the former Ruth Ann Sandmire. They have two sons; Max (9) and Phil (6).

COACHING STAFF

CHRIS APOSTOL (UTAH STATE '50)

A member of the Cougar staff since 1959, Chris Apostol is in charge of the defensive backs. He started his career at Bingham High (Utah) where he was an all-state tackle and student body president.

A guard in his college days at Utah State, Chris joined the staff at Ogden High, where he was to coach from 1950 to 1959. His coaching record as head coach at Ogden was 44-13-2, and his last team at Ogden won the state championship (11-0 record and seven shutouts).

Chris is married to the former Marva Funk, and they have five children; Kristine, Konn, Kip, Kurt, and Kami.

LAVELL EDWARDS (UTAH STATE '52)

An all-conference lineman and team captain at USU for two years, Edwards was born in Provo. He attended Lincoln High (Orem), then became one of Utah State's outstanding ball players (center and line-backer).

Called into the Army following graduation in 1952, he coached at Fort Mead (Maryland), then came back to Utah in 1954 to coach at Granite High (Salt Lake City). He joined the staff at BYU in 1961, where he is now defensive line coach.

LaVell is married to the former Patti Covey, and they have three children; Ann (8), John (6), and James (2).

FRANK FABRIS (TULSA '53)

The newest member of the varsity staff, Frank came to BYU this spring as one of Hudspeth's assistant coaches. A teammate of Tom's at Tulsa, Frank was born in Macon, Ga., April 6, 1931.

At Tulsa he was a defensive end, winning all-conference mention. Since joining the coaching ranks he has enjoyed phenomenal success; 19-1 record at Vidalia, 8-2 record at Cartersville; and 55-12-3 record at Rossville (all Georgia schools). In 1962 his Rossville team had a 10-0 record and captured the state AA title. Frank was named coach of the year in Georgia.

Frank is married to the former Bettye Jane Hendrix, and they have two sons; Robert (10) and Jon (7).

COACHING STAFF

EARL LINDLEY (UTAH STATE '54)

Offensive backfield coach for the Cougars is Earl Lindley, another Utah State football great, who came to BYU from Idaho Falls High School in 1961.

Born in Wellsville, Utah, Earl was an all-stater at South Cache, before enrolling at USU. Besides winning all-conference honors as a halfback in 1953, Earl was the nation's leading scorer. Following graduation in 1954, Lindley played four years of pro ball with the Edmonton Eskimos in the Canadian loop. An injury shortened his pro career and in 1958 he was named head coach at Idaho Falls.

Earl is married to the former Marilyn Jensen, and they have four children; Gregory (10), Teresa (8), Lance (3), and Corey (2 months).

GLEN TUCKETT (UTAH '53)

Resuming duties as freshman coach this fall, Glen Tuckett joined the BYU staff in 1959 as baseball coach, a post he still commands. Glen came to BYU from West High (Salt Lake City) where his teams had an 18-12 record.

A native of Murray, Utah, Glen was an all-state fullback at Murray. He signed a pro baseball contract after graduation, but continued his schooling at Utah, and graduated in 1953.

Glen's baseball teams have been the most successful in BYU history, and his freshman football teams won titles in '59, '60, and '61.

He is married to the former Josephine Whittaker, and they have two daughters; Alison (4) and Shannon (2).

WAYNE STARTIN (BYU '59)

Joining the staff this year as assistant freshman coach, Wayne Startin was quarterback for the Cougars in 1956-57-58. He quarterbacked the team that defeated Utah in 1958.

Another native of Murray, Utah, Wayne was an all-state quarterback as a junior and senior. He called signals for the Cougars for three years and captained the team his senior year.

Wayne launched his coaching career at Olympus High (1959-1962), then took the reins at the new Skyline High School which opened its doors in 1962.

Startin is married to the former Janice Nelson, and they have three children; Bryant (8), Judith (7), and Nancy (5).

ROD KIMBALL, TRAINER

Practically an institution at BYU, Rod Kimball is one of the most popular persons on campus. Rod has spent more than 25 years as the athletic trainer for the Cougars. You can tape a lot of ankles, patch up a lot of players, and heal countless wounds in a quarter of a century, and that is just what Rod has done.

Besides overseeing the training needs of the teams, Rod dispenses humor, wisdom and other morale-sustaining qualities along with the usual physical therapy.

A native of Jordan, Utah, Rod was an outstanding athlete and student leader. He won letters at Utah State and BYU before joining the Cougars as athletic trainer.

GAME BROADCASTS

Again this year radio station KSL of Salt Lake City will carry live, play-by-play accounts of all Brigham Young University ball games. Linn Rockwood will serve as anchor man with Tom Bradshaw as color man. KSL is located at 1160 on the dial, and is a 50,000-watt clear channel station.

THE OUTLOOK

This year's football team is without doubt one of the thinnest units the Cougars have had in recent years. There are only a dozen or so lettermen returning from last year's club which slumped to a disappointing 2-8 season record in 1963. Indeed, Coach Tom Hudspeth may find himself scrounging for material with which to get his rebuilding program in its initial phase.

Over and above the obvious deficits the Cougars face, the team will be learning its third offensive formation in a period of less than a year. BYU started the '63 campaign with the single-wing, then mid-way through the season changed to a Y-formation. Hudspeth, who took over in January of this year, will fit the squad to a regular T-formation with variations.

Despite the rather sparse pickings, the outlook isn't hopeless. There are a few bright spots that offer encouragement, if not for this season, for the future.

In scanning the roster and depth chart, it is evident the Cougars will be shifting a little of the weight to the sophomores. There's a good chance three or four of the starting positions will be manned by sophomores, all of whom are good prospects.

Another factor that lends a little color to the picture is the team's morale. Spring practice found the club teachable and in high spirits, anxious to get the football machine in motion. Though starting from scratch, they measured up to Hudspeth's expectations.

If any one player can be labeled as the key to this year's club, it has to be sophomore quarterback Virgil Carter. Carter has yet to taste the full force of varsity action, but he is even now shouldering much of the responsibility at this key position. He is a fine all-around signal caller, has a better than average passing arm, and can run with the ball. He set yardage and scoring records as freshman quarterback last fall. Coaches would sooner not start sophomores, but in Carter's case there may not be much choice. Backing Carter is Bob Marshall, a junior who displayed real poise in the spring game.

Even though the talent is spread rather thin (only 45 players are being invited back this fall), several fine ball players should emerge as worthy of special recognition. Center Glenn Shea, for one, should rate with the best in the league or in the area. Tackle Dennis Brewster, all 250 pounds of him, will match any in the league. Besides Carter, sophomores who merit mention are end Bob Allphin, wingback Curg Belcher, center Mel Olson, tailback Kent Oborn, and the Ogden brothers, Steve and John.

"We may not bury anybody this fall," says Hudspeth in summary, "but we'll bruise a few."

TEAM ANALYSIS

TEAM SIZE: Generally, team size will be very good in 1964. The tackles, especially, will be large, and the other positions will measure well.

TEAM SPEED: Only average, at best. There will be a few fast backs, but no one with blazing speed of the real scatback variety.

FORMATION: Variable T-formation with four or five basic series. Will try to get an even 50-50 division with running and passing game.

WEAKNESS: Plain lack of numbers will hurt Cougars, who are cut very thin this season. Guard positions are particularly thin, and quarterback spot is also a soft spot.

STRENGTHS: May be hard to find in '64 team, although the club is firm at center, there are an adequate number of ends, and the fullback position may prove adequate.

CONSENSUS: Quite naturally, Hudspeth's first season will be a building year. Aside from a promise to hit hard and hustle, something they proved they could do in the spring game, the Cougars have little in their favor this season.

BY POSITION

ENDS: Despite depth (five lettermen) flankers may be on a par with '63. This could be one of better line positions.

TACKLES: Cougars have two good ones in Dennis Brewster and Monte Jones, but not enough depth. Weaker.

GUARDS: Judged the weakest spot in the line, will be leaning on Barry Corchnoy and Bill Marriott.

CENTERS: Could be strongest spot with regular Glenn Shea getting support from Mel Olson, one of better sophomores.

QUARTERBACKS: Junior Bob Marshall and sophomore Virgil Carter will shoulder 90% of chores here. Inexperienced and unproven.

TAILBACKS: Good all-around tailback yet to come forth, so may elect to go with newcomers.

WINGBACKS: Weak enough that Cougars will be using comparative newcomers.

FULLBACKS: Strongest of backfield positions. Will go with sophomores Austin McNaughton and John Ogden, senior Mike Jacobsen.

No. 1 - OREGON

Sept. 19 - 1:30 at Eugene

Oregon quarterback Bob Berry rolls out.

Location	Eugene, Oregon
Enrollment	10,000
President	Dr. Arthur S. Flemming
Conference	AAUW
School Colors	Green and Yellow
Nickname	Ducks
Stadium, Capacity	Hayward Field (24,500)
System	Spread-T
Head Coach	Len Casanova (Santa Clara '27)
Athletic Director	Leo Harris
Telephone Exchange	DI 2-1411
Sports Information	Hal Childs
1963 Record	8-3 (Sun Bowl)
Series History	First game

THE OUTLOOK

A 21-14 victory over SMU in the Sun Bowl, the Ducks plan to pick up where they left off last season. With quarterback Bob Berry back calling the signals it's very possible they will.

LEN CASANOVA

A total of 18 lettermen returning. New backfield talent needed, but starting line has lettermen from end to end. If Oregon can come up with good receivers for Berry's passes, it will be a tough team to ground.

Very likely the toughest team BYU will face in '64.

No. 2 - ARIZONA

Sept. 26 - 8 p.m. at Tucson

Full house at Arizona Stadium in Tucson.

Location	Tucson (250,000)
Enrollment	18,000
President	Dr. Richard A. Harvill
Conference	Western Athletic
School Colors	Cardinal Red and Navy Blue
Nickname	Wildcats
Stadium, Capacity	Arizona (29,000)
System	Pro-Set, I, T-Formations
Head Coach	Jim LaRue (Duke '45)
Athletic Director	M. R. "Dick" Clausen
Telephone Exchange	Area Code 602 MA 4-8181
Sports Information	Frank W. Soltys
1963 Record	5-5 (tie for second)
Series History	3-1-1, Arizona

THE OUTLOOK

Critics are taking a second look at Arizona this year, and for good reason. The Wildcats have augmented their offense, and they have the personnel to go with it. There are a total of 25 lettermen returning, plus good help from the sophomores and transfers.

JIM LaRUE

Indeed, there is enough depth in the LaRue camp to move into the platoon system.

Arizona boasts all-around strength that should see them passing more, playing a more wide-open game.

No. 3 - NEW MEXICO

Oct. 2 - 8 p.m. at Provo

Aerial view of portion of NMU campus.

Location Albuquerque (300,000)
 Enrollment 10,000
 President Dr. Tom L. Popejoy
 Conference Western Athletic
 School Colors Cherry and Silver
 Nickname Lobos, Wolfpack
 Stadium, Capacity University (30,000)
 System Wing-T
 Head Coach Bill Weeks (Iowa State '51)
 Athletic Director Pete McDavid
 Telephone Exchange Area Code 505 243-8611
 Sports Information George McFadden
 1963 Record 6-4 (first)
 Series History 7-5-1, New Mexico

THE OUTLOOK

Conference champions in '62 and '63, New Mexico should be good—again—in 1964. The Lobos are favored to repeat as WAC pigskin kings.

Included among the 18 returning lettermen are three players who won All-WAC honors last year: tackle Wayne Tvrdik, guard Jack Abendschan, and tailback Joe Harris.

Key could be quarterback Stan Quintana, a junior who was regular last year. Harris will spark the ground game.

BILL WEEKS

No. 4 - COLORADO STATE

Oct. 10 - 8 p.m. at Fort Collins

Colorado State's Plant Science Building.

Location Fort Collins
 Enrollment 9,600
 President Dr. William E. Morgan
 Conference Independent
 School Colors Green and Gold
 Nickname Rams or Aggies
 Stadium, Capacity Colorado Field (14,000)
 System Wing-T
 Head Coach Milo "Mike" Lude (Hillsdale '47)
 Athletic Director Robert "Bob" Davis (Utah '30)
 Telephone Exchange Area Code 303 491-6208
 Sports Information Dick Smelser
 1963 Record 3-7
 Series History 17-10-2, Colorado State

THE OUTLOOK

Rams are bouncing back after all-losing seasons in '61 and '62. There will be 18 lettermen returning, most of them seasoned players.

Weak spot in the past has been at end, but this situation should improve. A good supply of halfbacks also in the fold, though quarterbacks are inexperienced.

If the Rams can shore up their defense and improve their passing attack, they will definitely be stronger in Mike Lude's third year at CSU.

MIKE LUDE

No. 5 - PACIFIC

Oct. 17 - 1:30 at Provo

Chris Machadeo (42) tackled by BYU's Robinson.

Location Stockton, Calif. (90,000)
 Enrollment 1900
 President Dr. Robert Burns
 Conference Independent
 School Colors Orange and Black
 Nickname Tigers, Bengals
 Stadium, Capacity Memorial (36,000)
 System Slot-T
 Head Coach Don Campora
 Athletic Director Paul Stagg
 Telephone Exchange Area Code 209 HO 4-1292
 Sports Information Ron Reina
 1963 Record 2-8-0
 Series History 3-0-0, Pacific

THE OUTLOOK

Pacific launches a rebuilding program under new coach "Tony" Campora, who will of necessity be looking to sophomores for help.

Last year Pacific suited up 22 players who had never played in a varsity game. They are a year older now.

Running Pacific's Slot-T will be Tom Strain, a junior quarterback who showed very well in Bengals' last four games. Cameron Doyle looks like the best of running backs.

Bengals should improve on '63 record.

DON CAMPORA

No. 6 - TEXAS WESTERN

Oct. 24 - 8 p.m. at El Paso

Aerial view of Texas Western campus.

Location El Paso
 Enrollment 6,200
 President Dr. Joseph M. Ray
 Conference Independent
 School Colors Orange and White
 Nickname Miners
 Stadium, Capacity Sun Bowl (30,000)
 System Unbalanced I-Formation
 Head Coach Warren Harper (Austin '55)
 Athletic Director George McCarty
 Telephone Exchange 532-8921
 Sports Information Eddie Mullens
 1963 Record 3-7
 Series History 1-0, Texas Western

THE OUTLOOK

Dubbed as one of the most exciting teams in Texas Western history, the Miners expect to be even better with unbalanced I-formation.

Much of the team's strength is found in group of 26 returning lettermen. Add to these a host of sophomores from outstanding freshman team, and you have an idea of personnel.

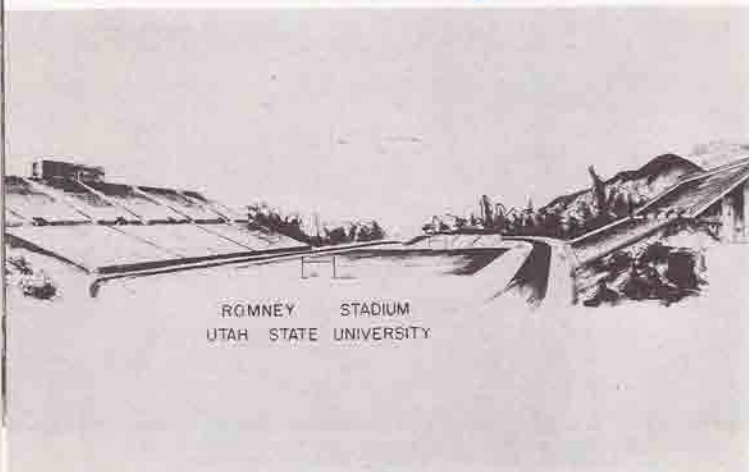

The Miners appear to have more size, speed and experience than they did a year ago. It should be one of their better years.

WARREN HARPER

No. 7 - UTAH STATE

Oct. 31 - 1:30 p.m. at Provo
(Homecoming)

Artist's drawing of planned stadium expansion.

Location	Logan (21,000)
Enrollment	6,300
President	Dr. Daryl Chase
Conference	Independent
School Colors	Navy Blue and White
Nickname	Aggies, Utags
Stadium, Capacity	Romney Stadium (15,000)
System	I-Formation
Head Coach	Tony Knap (Idaho '39)
Athletic Director	Frank Williams (USU '48)
Telephone Exchange	Area Code 801 SK 2-4100
1963 Record	8-2
Series History	23-13-3, Utah State

THE OUTLOOK

Last year's I-formation was tailored to passing of Bill Munson, but will be geared to running game in the season ahead, Knap says.

This means the Aggies are ready to take advantage of great ball carriers like Darell Steele, Don Holder and Marv Kendrick.

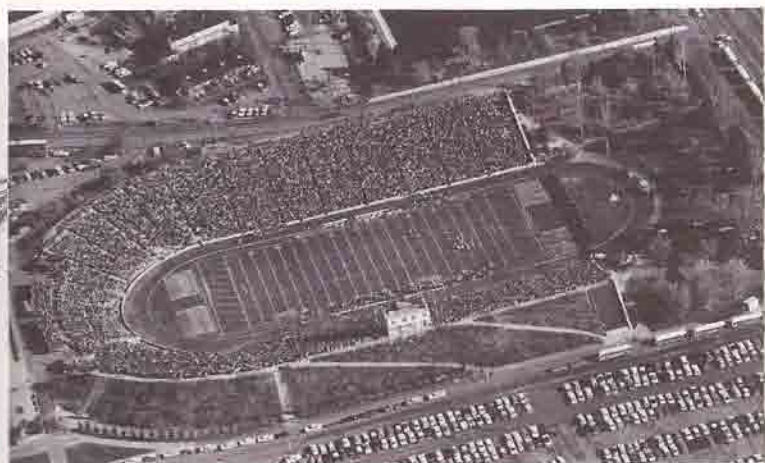

USU is at least two men deep in each position with a total of 26 returning lettermen. If a strong quarterback emerges, the Aggies will be headed for another great season.

TONY KNAP

No. 8 - UTAH

Nov. 7 - 1:30 at Salt Lake City

Aerial view of Ute Stadium.

Location	Salt Lake City (200,000)
Enrollment	17,732
President	Dr. James C. Fletcher
Conference	Western Athletic
School Colors	Crimson and White
Nickname	Utes, Redskins
Stadium, Capacity	Ute Stadium (30,000)
System	Multiple-T
Head Coach	Ray Nagel (UCLA '50)
Athletic Director	James R. "Bud" Jack
Telephone Exchange	Area Code 801 322-6445
Sports Information	Harry James
1963 Record	4-6 (tie for second)
Series History	33-2-4, Utah

THE OUTLOOK

Experience and plenty of personnel will put the Utes among the contenders this year. Despite a few positions where the Redskins are potentially soft, they may be stronger in '64.

Leading a group of 23 returning lettermen is All-American candidate at end, Roy Jefferson. Not too far behind is excellent fullback, senior Allen Jacobs.

Without Hertzfeldt, the Ute passing game won't be as strong. Running game, however, should make up for it.

RAY NAGEL

No. 9 - WESTERN MICHIGAN

Nov. 14 - 1:30 p.m. at Provo

French Hall on the campus at Kalamazoo.

Location Kalamazoo, Michigan
 Enrollment 13,000
 Conference Mid-American
 School Colors Brown and Gold
 Nickname Broncos
 Stadium, Capacity Waldo Stadium (15,000)
 System Wing-T
 Head Coach Bill Doolittle
 Athletic Director Mitchell "Mike" Gray
 Sports Information Bob Culp
 1963 Record 2-7
 Series History 1-0, Western Michigan

THE OUTLOOK

Coach Bill Doolittle can claim a total of 22 returning lettermen from last year, including a group of eight of the '63 starters.

Installation of a new system seemed to work well during spring practice, although there are questions concerning certain line positions.

Quarterbacks Troy Allen and Bob Radlinski can run and pass with the best in the Mid-West.

Outlook at Kalamazoo appears much brighter in the season ahead.

BILL DOOLITTLE

No. 10 - WYOMING

Nov. 21 - 1:30 at Provo

Cowboy wingback Garry Mclean snags pass.

Location Laramie (19,000)
 Enrollment 5,364
 President Dr. John T. Fey
 Conference Western Athletic
 School Colors Brown and Gold
 Nickname Cowboys, Pokes
 Stadium, Capacity Memorial Stadium (20,000)
 System Flip-Flop T-Formation
 Head Coach Lloyd Eaton (Black Hills '40)
 Athletic Director Glenn J. Jacoby
 Telephone Exchange Area Code 307 742-2010
 Sports Information Bill Young
 1963 Record 6-4 (fourth)
 Series History 17-14-3, Wyoming

THE OUTLOOK

Not quite as experienced as the '63 squad, the Cowboys are never the less stocked with 26 returning lettermen. Says Coach Lloyd Eaton: "We should be a better ball club this season because of our increased experience, depth and infusion of fine new talent from the freshman team. Our offense should be better with increased running power and more effective passing, and the defense should be stout."

Player to watch: junior quarterback Tom Wilkinson.
