COACHING STAFF

TOM HUDSPETH

"You've got to crawl before you learn to walk," Tommy Hudspeth told B.Y.U.'s followers soon after he was named head coach over a year and a half ago. And after one season with the Cougars, it would appear B.Y.U.'s football program is headed in the right direction. Admittedly, the Cougars are far from the goal Tommy has in mind for B.Y.U. football, but it is evident he has added materially to the program.

But the road ahead is loaded with challenge, and the 34-year old Kansas product is displaying the vigorous approach and dedication that has marked him as one of the "comers" in the coaching profession.

Born in Cherryvale, Kans., on Sept. 14, 1931, Tommy J. Hudspeth attended high school in Afton, Okla., where he won all-state honors. He enrolled at University of Tulsa, where he was captain of the freshman football team. Tom emerged as a standout player in Tulsa's golden era of football. He played quarterback and defensive halfback on the Hurricane team that led the nation in total offense in 1951. A regular for three years at Tulsa, Tommy played a major role in the Hurricanes' conference championship conquests in 1950 and 1951.

As a senior he capped his career at Tulsa by captaining the Hurricanes in the 1953 Gator Bowl. It was during his undergraduate days at Tulsa that Hudspeth was coached by Darrell Royal (Texas) and Jack Mitchell (Kansas), who were then coaches at the Oklahoma school.

A leader off the field as well, Tommy served as president of his senior class. He graduated from Tulsa in 1953 with a B.A. degree in physical education. He has 36 hours toward his master's degree in counseling.

Tommy began his coaching career at Norman High School soon after graduation. There followed a two-year stint in the U.S. Air Force as a commissioned officer. Discharged as a first lieutenant in 1955, he resumed high school coaching, this time at Tulsa Central. His team at Central posted a 6-2-1 record, and the following year he was appointed freshman coach at Tulsa under Bobby Dobbs.

In 1961 Dobbs was named head coach of the Calgary Stampede, and Tom, then an old-timer of 28, went with him as an assistant. The Stampede were conference contenders for the three years he was with them.

Tommy married the former Ruth Ann Sandmire in 1953. They have two sons: Max (10) and Phil (6).

COACHING STAFF

CHRIS APOSTOL (UTAH STATE '50)

The senior member of the staff in terms of service at B.Y.U., Chris joined B.Y.U.'s football staff in 1959. Chris' assignment is with the Cougars' defensive backs.

Apostol launched his athletic career at Bingham High School (Utah) where he was to win all-state honors and serve as student body president. He enrolled at Utah State where he played as a lineman.

Following his graduation from Utah State in 1950, he joined the staff at Ogden High where he coached for nine seasons. His record as head football coach was 44-13-2, and his last team at Ogden won the state class A title (11-0 record and seven shutouts).

Chris is married to the former Marva Funk, and they have five children: Kristine, Konn, Kip, Kurt and Kami.

LAVELL EDWARDS (UTAH STATE '52)

A native of Provo, and a former all-state football player from Orem, LaVell Edwards enrolled at Utah State. His football record at the Logan school included two years as varsity captain and two years as an all-conference lineman (center and linebacker).

Following graduation in 1952, he was called into the Army for two years at Fort Mead, Maryland. He returned to Utah in 1954 to coach at Granite High School in Salt Lake City. He joined the staff at B.Y.U. in 1961, and his present assignment is defensive line coach.

LaVell is married to the former Patti Covey, and they have three children: Ann (9), John (7), and James (3).

FRANK FABRIS (TULSA '53)

A teammate of Hudspeth's at Tulsa, Frank joined B.Y.U.'s football staff a year ago last spring. The offensive line is his main football assignment.

Born in Macon, Ga. 34 years ago, Fabris proved to be a gifted athlete, and he added hard work to this gift. At Tulsa he was a defensive end, winning all-conference mention and playing in the Gator Bowl.

Moving into the high school coaching ranks following graduation, Frank achieved phenomenal success. His record at Vidalia, Ga., was 19-1; Cartersville, 8-2; and Rossville, 55-12-3. In 1962 his Rossville team had a 10-0 record and captured the state AA title. Frank was subsequently named coach of the year in Georgia.

Frank is married to the former Bettye Jane Hendrix, and they have two sons: Robert (11) and Jon (7).

COACHING STAFF

EARL LINDLEY (UTAH STATE '54)

Another member of the coaching staff to come from Utah State is Earl Lindley, offensive backfield coach for the Cougars. Earl, a native of Wellsville, Utah, came to B.Y.U. from Idaho Falls High School in 1961.

An all-stater from South Cache High School in northern Utah, Earl enrolled at Utah State. An all-conference halfback in 1953, Lindley was the nation's leading scorer the same year.

Launching a playing career with the pros following his USU graduation in 1954, Lindley played four years with the Edmonton Eskimos in the Canadian League. But an injury shortened his career in the pro ranks, and in 1958 he took over as head coach at Idaho Falls.

Earl is married to the former Marilyn Jensen, and they have four children: Greg (11), Teresa (9), Lance (4) and Corey (1).

WAYNE STARTIN (BYU '59)

The newest member of the staff, Startin joined the football staff a year ago. His main chore with the Cougars is that of freshman coach, although he will also handle some scouting assignments.

A native of Murray, Utah, Wayne was judged one of the finest quarterbacks the state has ever had. He was all-state as a junior and senior.

In 1956-57-58 he quarterbacked the Cougars, and one of the highlights of his career was a fourth-quarter touchdown pass that defeated Utah in 1958.

Wayne began his coaching career at Olympus High (1959-62), then took over as football coach at Skyline High School in Salt Lake City before coming to B.Y.U.

Wayne is married to the former Janice Nelson, and they have four children: Bryant (10), Judith (8), Nancy (6), and Jill (1).

STAFF

ROD KIMBALL, TRAINER

A kind of patriarch of athletic teams at B.Y.U., Rod Kimball has spent more than 26 years in his assignment as team trainer. As the father figure for the Cougars, Rod's duties range from cut man to moulder of team morale.

Besides being one of the most popular men on campus, Rod is perhaps the most traveled man in Provo. Besides the usual game junkets with the teams, Rod has been to Europe four times, South America twice, and Hawaii once.

A native of Jordan Utah, Rod was an outstanding athlete and student leader in college. He is a former LDS bishop, and he and his wife, LaNeve, have 12 living children.

GAME BROADCASTS

For the 15th consecutive year Radio KSL in Salt Lake City will carry all of B.Y.U.'s football and basketball games. Broadcasting the live, play-by-play of the game will be announcer Paul James, veteran sportscaster in the Mountain area.

KSL is a 50,000-watt, clear channel station designated as the only official station to carry B.Y.U.'s games. The station is located at 1160 on the radio dial.

James, who is one of the better known television and radio sportscasters in the West, recently joined the KSL, KSL-TV staff after more than ten years with another Salt Lake City station.

A graduate of the University of Utah, where he attended on a four-year Rotary Scholarship, James majored in speech and English.

KSL's studios are located on Social Hall Ave. in downtown Salt Lake City.

THE STADIUM

It will take a long time for the newness to wear off B.Y.U.'s new football stadium which was inaugurated at the first home game of the 1964 season. Over 33,000 fans were on hand the night of Oct. 2, 1964 to watch the Cougars contest New Mexico in the inaugural game. The Lobo won, 26-14.

Built at a cost in excess of $1,500,000, the all-steel stadium has 26,812 permanent seats. Temporary bleachers will permit crowds in the neighborhood of 30,000.

Ground was broken for the stadium in October, 1963, and a year later the structure had been completed and was ready for use. Total area involved in the stadium project is 36.5 acres, over 20 acres of which is being developed for parking facilities.

Chair seats have been installed in the West stands, and there are 4,758 chair seats in all. The towering stadium lights are nearly 16 stories high. When the six stands of lights are turned on, roughly 576,000 watts of light are directed on the playing field.

The playing field is circled by a rubberized asphalt track, one of the finest anywhere in the country. The all-weather track is composed of 30 percent rubber and 70 percent asphalt.

The structure, which will serve for activities other than football, contains dressing rooms for the players, rest rooms, concession areas, storage areas, etc.

Aside from the towering lights, the most conspicuous part of the stadium is the press box. The first level of the press box will serve sportswriters, statisticians, wire services and public address. The second level will house radio broadcasters, telecasters, scouts and movie cameramen.

THE OUTLOOK

Stated briefly in Tommy Hudspeth's own words, the Cougars are expected to be, "generally improved, but face a tougher schedule." This summation may, or may not, mean B.Y.U. will improve on the 3-6-1 record of last year, Hudspeth's first at the Cougar helm. The Mountain Cats are being dogged by too many uncertainties that could send them in a change of direction.

A quick look at the schedule indicates B.Y.U. will be bucking a curious slate this fall. Of five conference games on tap, four will be played away from home. Utah, a team the Cougars have always had trouble with, is the only WAC draw at home this season. In addition, the Cougars will face Oregon and Utah State on the road.

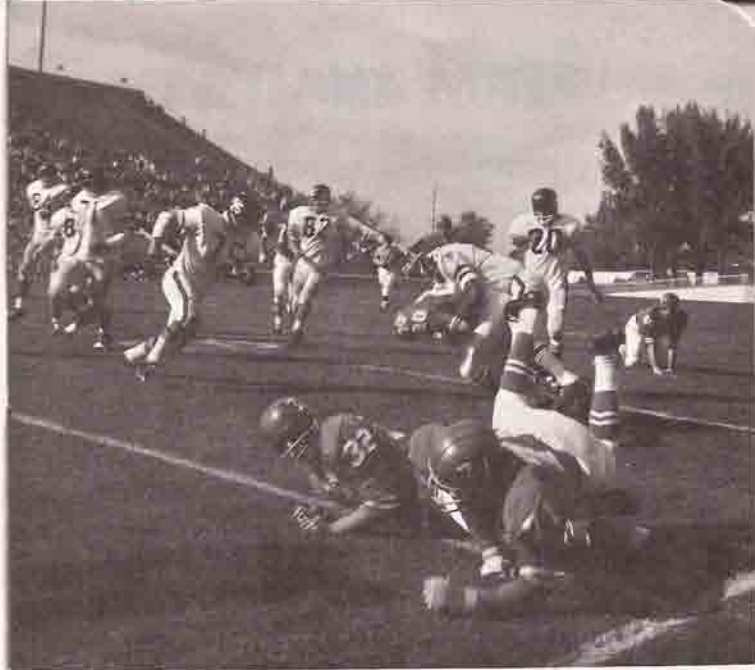

At the conclusion of the '64 campaign, it was apparent to Hudspeth and members of his staff that some stockpiling would be necessary for the seasons ahead. Consequently the coaching staff took to the recruiting trail in an effort to find some talent with which to beef up the team. The result was about 15 new players, the biggest cache of transfers in the school's history. Some of the newcomers came to B.Y.U. with service ball credentials, most of them from the San Diego Marines. Others, like Glen Gardner, the junior college All-American lineman from Dixie College, came from two-year schools.

Spring practice provided the Cougars with an opportunity to blend in the new talent with the 20 or so returning lettermen from the 1964 squad. The returnees from last fall, of course, will have to carry the load, but the newcomers will fit into vital areas where help is needed.

Of those positions found wanting, the tackle slots seem the most vulnerable. There are only two returning lettermen, Monte Jones and Dennis Brewster. Both are top-rated tackles, but proven reserve strength is missing. The ends, too, are shy experienced personnel with only two lettermen from last year's squad returning. There are three lettermen listed among the guard candidates.

If any single thing can be singled out as the Cougars' main shortcoming it is experience. There are only two seniors in the entire backfield (tailback Kent Nance and fullback Henry Nawahine). Of the nine returning lettermen in the backfield, seven are juniors.

However, the players who put the "go" in last year's offense are, for the most part, all returning. Virgil Carter, the starting quarterback in all of the Cougars' games last year as a sophomore, should be a little stronger, a little more poised this fall. Last year Carter was ranked 13th in the nation and second in the WAC in total offense (1,542 yards rushing and passing).

Kent Oborn (20) is finally nailed in game with Pacific. John Ogden (32) and Bill Wanosisik (71) are Cougar blockers.

Another great back who won his spurs as a sophomore is fullback John Ogden, the WAC's leading rusher with 770 yards. Ogden and tailback Kent Oborn both placed relatively high in the NCAA figures last year. Oborn gained some recognition for his punt and kickoff returns.

Before the season is very old, the Cougars should be hearing from newcomers such as John Greene, the fine wingback from San Diego City College; quarterback Barney Williams; split end Phil Odle; plus a few of the better sophomore prospects.

Speed, especially in the backfield, is one of the Cougars' major needs at this writing. A little more zip in the backfield would give the team even more offensive punch. Last year B.Y.U. ranked 22nd in the nation in total offense, averaging more than 300 yards per game.

Knee operations resulting from injuries last fall may cost B.Y.U. the services of two great linemen, offensive center Glenn Shea and linebacker Mel Olson. Any further injuries to a team as raw and inexperienced as this could put the Cougars in a hole this fall.

For more detailed information on the players, check the following pages, and the player supplement which will be added to the brochure in early September.

TEAM ANALYSIS

TEAM SIZE: Linemen will be a little bigger than last year, especially at tackle. The backs will be about average, centers and ends the same.

TEAM SPEED: Once again, only average, at best. No blazing speed in the backfield. This could be one of the club's shortcomings.

FORMATION: Slot-T, wing formation with inside, outside belly series. The Cougars would like to get 50-50 split in running and passing game. Last year they threw an average of 20 passes a game.

DEFENSE: Hudspeth and staff will use the monster defense with squirming secondary.

WEAKNESS: Pure inexperience; lots of newcomers in form of transfers and sophomores, only a handful of seniors available. No schedule breaks in 1965 with four of five league games on the road.

STRENGTHS: Some great personnel in Virgil Carter, John Ogden, Dennis Brewster. Defensive game should be stronger this fall. Potential strength in newcomers.

CONSENSUS: Hudspeth's season should be another step forward; if not a giant stride, a measurable one. His teams are noted for their hit and hustle.

BY POSITION

ENDS: One of the Cougars' weaker positions in recent years, still thin. Split end Phil Odle could be top receiver of Carter passes. About the same.

TACKLES: Dennis Brewster and Monte Jones only returning lettermen, but reserve strength a question mark. Newcomers like Glen Gardner will help, and this position has good size. About the same.

GUARDS: Grant Wilson, Bill Mitton and Bill Wanosik are only returning lettermen. Transfer Dave Duran will help, but this isn't one of B.Y.U.'s stronger positions. Weaker.

CENTERS: Excellent potential here until Mel Olson and Glen Shea were sidelined. Gordon Jennings, a former end, will handle offensive chores. Weaker.

QUARTERBACKS: Virgil Carter will be backstopped by transfer Barney Williams, with only sophomore help behind them. Although paper thin, this spot should be a bit stronger.

TAILBACKS: Good backs in Kent Oborn and Kent Nance. All the reserve strength is first-year help, however. About the same as last year.

WINGBACKS: Steve Ogden is returning lettermen, and will be pushed by transfer John Greene. Reserve strength untested. Position should be stronger.

FULLBACKS: John Ogden was tops in league last year, will be backed by letterman Henry Nawahine. Only sophomores behind them, so position should be about the same.

Directing this year's Marching Band, which has 96 marching members and 110 total members, will be directors Richard E. Ballou and Grant C. Elkington.

Drum major for the 1965 season is James Bague, a senior music major from Riverside, Calif. Solo majorette is Karen Welch a freshman physical education major from Murray, Utah. Arrangers for the band numbers are Ralph G. Laycock, Robert Campbell, John Ward, and Larry Bastian.

The four Brighamettes who perform with the band are Sharleen Stone, Anne Breinholt, Barbara Mills, and Linda Miller.

No. 1 - ARIZONA STATE

Sept. 18 - 8 p.m. at Tempe

Capacity crowd at Sun Devil Stadium (40,000).

Location (Population)	Tempe, Ariz. (45,000)
Enrollment	18,500
Conference	Western Athletic
Nickname	Sun Devils
Colors	Maroon and Gold
Stadium (Capacity)	Sun Devil (40,000)
System	Multiple-T
President	Dr. G. Homer Durham
Athletic Director	Clyde B. Smith
Head Coach (School, Year)	Frank Kush (Michigan State, 1953)
Sports Publicist	Dick Mullins
1964 Record	8-2
League Finish	Did not qualify for title: 0-2
Series with B.Y.U.	7-2-0, Ariz. St.
Widest margin of victory over B.Y.U.	47-6, 1952

THE OUTLOOK

The same problems that faced Coach Frank Kush in '64—youth and inexperience—are evident this season. Now, however, the Sun Devils are without quarterback John Torok, second in the nation in total offense (2,226).

Although thin in ASU's long suit, running backs, Kush has All-America candidate in halfback Ben Hawkins. Should be stronger defensively.

ASU finished with 8-2 mark last year, losing only to a pair of WAC teams. May be hard-pressed to win eight, unless youth comes through, but it may not take much to fire up the Sun Devils.

No. 2 - KANSAS STATE

Sept. 24 - 8 p.m. at Provo

Kansas State's proposed 35,000-seat stadium.

Location (Population)	Manhattan, Kansas (23,000)
Enrollment	10,000
Conference	Big Eight Conference
Nickname	Wildcats
Colors	Royal Purple and White
Stadium (Capacity)	22,500
System	T-formation with variations
President	Dr. James A. McCain
Athletic Director	H. B. (Bebe) Lee
Head Coach (School, Year)	Doug Weaver (Michigan State, '53)
Sports Publicist	Paul DeWeese
1964 Record	3-7-0
League Finish	3-4, tie for 5th
Series with B.Y.U.	2-0-0, Kansas State
Widest margin of victory over B.Y.U.	36-7, 1957

THE OUTLOOK

The Wildcats will be depending on performance of sophomores, the largest group of first-year varsity players in school's history. Consequently, the Weavers may be hurting, especially on offense where only three starters are returning.

Defensively, the team will be well anchored by eight defensive regulars, including tackle Willie Jones (6-4, 225) and end Bill Matan (6-4, 231). The latter was all-Big Eight last year.

With new personnel aboard, it may take a little time to get balanced performance, but KSU was 3-4 in Big Eight play last year.

Series with B.Y.U.	1-0-0, Oregon
Widest margin of victory over B.Y.U.	20-13, 1964

THE OUTLOOK

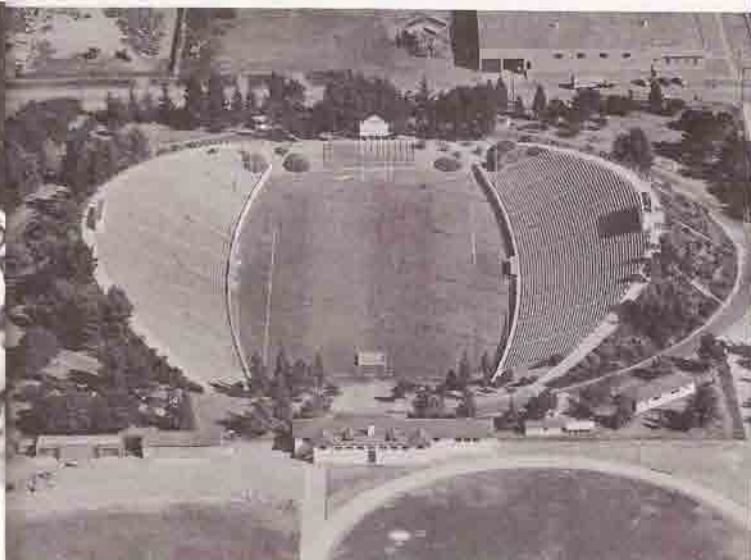

One of the better teams on the Pacific Coast last year, Oregon appears headed for an even more successful season in '65. Returning are 25 lettermen, including 17 starters from the offensive and defensive units.

Outstanding players are end Ray Palm, voted the outstanding lineman the Cougars faced last year, and center-linebacker Dave Tobey.

If a replacement can be found for quarterback Bob Berry, the Ducks will be on their way. Mike Brundage, who subbed behind Berry, is the leading quarterback candidate.

Series with B.Y.U.	8-0-0, San Jose
Widest margin of victory over B.Y.U.	40-21, 1949

THE OUTLOOK

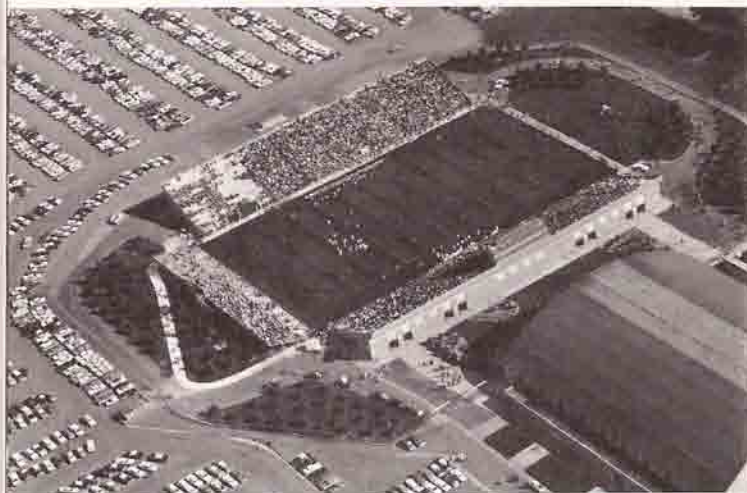

Tops among the independents in the West, the Spartans figure to improve in '65, especially with quarterback Ken Berry rifling the passes.

There is a good supply of returning lettermen, plus several outstanding transfers. They will have good depth in most positions, and defensively they are sure to be tougher. Lineman to watch is Brent Berry, 245-pound tackle already drafted by the Rams.

New coach Harry Anderson will guide Spartans through rugged schedule.

No. 5 - WYOMING

Oct. 23 - 1:30 p.m. at Laramie

The Cowboys' Memorial Stadium in Laramie.

Location (Population)	Laramie (19,000)
Enrollment	6,200
Conference	Western Athletic Conference

System	Unbalanced line, multiple T
President	Dr. John T. Fey
Athletic Director	Glenn J. Jacoby
Head Coach (School, Year)	Lloyd Eaton (Black Hills, '40)
Sports Publicist	Bill Young
1964 Record	6-2-2
League Finish	2-2 (2nd)
Series with B.Y.U.	18-14-3, Wyoming
Widest margin of victory over B.Y.U.	48-0, 1950

THE OUTLOOK

Judged by most experts as the team to beat in the WAC, Wyoming looks to be a better all-around club than last year's unit. A total of 22 lettermen are returning, and Eaton will have the best backfield depth in his tenure at Wyoming.

Quarterback Tom Wilkinson will be throwing passes again, and five of top six rushers from '64 will be running the ball.

"Overall," says Eaton, "we have good depth and experience, good speed, good passing and good running." He could have added a good schedule. Wyoming will meet Air Force, Army and USC, besides WAC opponents.

No. 6 - UTAH STATE

USU tailback Eric Maughan scoots for good gain.

System	Multiple I
President	Dr. Daryl Chase
Athletic Director	Frank "Buss" Williams
Head Coach (School, Year)	Tony Knap (Idaho, '39)
Sports Publicist	Harvey Kirkpatrick
1964 Record	5-4-1
Series with B.Y.U.	23-14-3, Utah State
Widest margin of victory over B.Y.U.	40-0, 1923

THE OUTLOOK

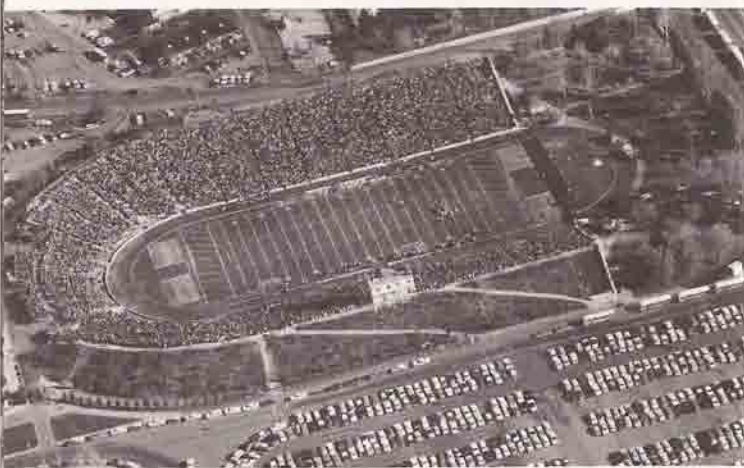

"If everything goes like we're thinking," says Coach Knap, "we could have a team that could beat anyone, providing we shake the rash of injuries that has plagued us the past two seasons."

Optimism springs from the fact the Utahs have two good quarterbacks, Ron Edwards and Rudy Curinga, plus the usual explosive backfield. Top ball carrier will be Roy Shivers, outstanding tailback.

Although 22 lettermen from '64 squad are not returning, the Aggies will not be shy talent. Knap will have a fine crop of junior college transfers, plus a large group of former freshman stars.

No. 7 - UTAH

Nov. 6 - 1:30 p.m. at Provo
(Homecoming)

Aerial view of sellout crowd at Ute stadium.

Location (Population)	Salt Lake City (393,892)
Enrollment	18,000 (estimated)
Conference	Western Athletic Conference
Nickname	Utes Redskins
Colors	Crimson and White
Stadium	Ute Stadium (30,000)
System	Multiple-T
President	Dr. James C. Fletcher
Athletic Director	James R. "Bud" Jack
Head Coach (School, Year)	Ray Nagel (UCLA '50)
Sports Publicist	Harry James
1964 Record	8-2
League Finish	Tie for first
Series with B.Y.U.	34-2-4, Utah

THE OUTLOOK

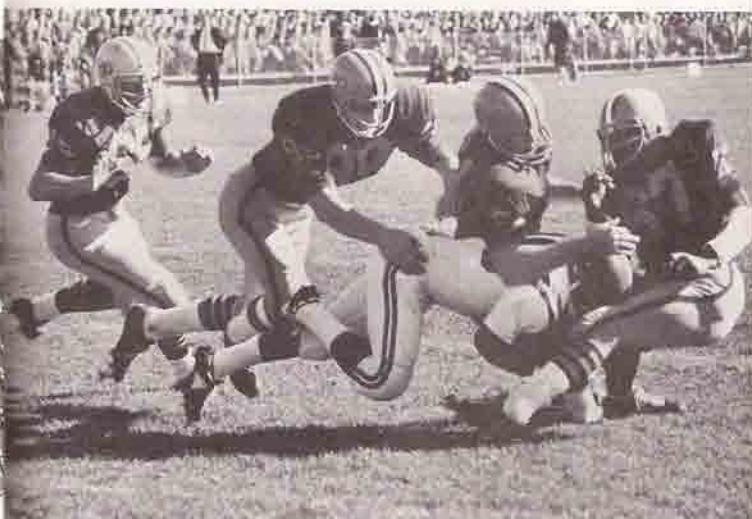

Despite the loss of 19 lettermen from Liberty Bowl championship squad, Coach Ray Nagel will have a total of 25 returning lettermen. There will be some help from junior college transfers, plus some able assistance from the freshman ranks.

Duplicating last year's record (9-2, the best in the school's history) may be something else. In any event, the Redskins must be considered among the WAC contenders again this fall.

Standouts include quarterback Richard Groth (granted an additional year of eligibility) halfback Ben Woodson, center Pat McKissick, and freshman quarterback Jack Gehrke.

No. 8 - COLORADO STATE

Nov. 13 - 1:30 p.m. at Provo

CSU defenders stop ball carrier in 1964 game.

Location (Population)	Fort Collins (33,000)
Enrollment	11,900 (Est., Fall 1965)
Conference	Independent
Nickname	Rams or Aggies
Colors	Green and Gold
Stadium (Capacity)	Colorado Field (14,000)
System	Winged-T
President	Dr. W. E. Morgan
Athletic Director	Jim Williams
Head Coach (School, Year)	Milo R. "Mike" Lude (Hillsdale, Mich., '47)
Sports Publicist	Dick Smelser
1964 Record	5-6
Series with B.Y.U.	18-10-2, Colo. St.
Widest margin of victory over B.Y.U.	35-0, 1955

THE OUTLOOK

Under Mike Lude the Rams have continued to climb upward, finishing their last campaign with a 5-6 record. Now, with a total of 17 players returning from the starting offensive and defensive units, the Aggies can expect to be a little stronger.

But the Ram chief points out that experienced depth is lacking and "we will have to work hard to develop adequate depth from untested material. Our overall team defense and the rushing attack should be our strongest points."

Guard-lineback Jim Foster is the team's outstanding lineman, while Jess Willis, an elusive halfback, could be one of the better backs in the Rockies.

THE OUTLOOK

An aerial photograph of a large, oval-shaped outdoor stadium, likely a football ground, filled with a massive crowd of spectators. The pitch is visible in the center, marked with a large checkered pattern. The stands are densely packed with people, and the surrounding area appears to be a mix of open land and some buildings in the distance.

THE OUTLOOK

But the Lobos have quarterback Stan Quintana returning (1,249 yards total offense last year). Quintana was WAC player of the year last year.
