It's been a while since BYU's football team experienced a "re-building" year, but, with some big shoes to fill, this year's squad could easily face that situation.

Gone from the seventh-ranked team of 1983 are consensus All-Americans Steve Young and Gordon Hudson, plus nine other starters. Hardest hit was the offense, where the entire backfield of Young, Casey Tiumalu, Eddie Stinnett and Waymon Hamilton were graduated. In addition, three of the four main receivers from last year (Hudson, Mike Eddo and Kirk Pendleton) have gone.

Defensively, the Cougars have six starters returning but must find replacements for All-WAC performers Todd Shell (linebacker), Brandon Flint (defensive end) and Jon Young (defensive back). Two other starters in the defensive backfield, Greg Peterson and Blake Jensen, were lost to graduation.

Here's a position-by-position look at the Cougars this year.

Quarterback: This is the biggest question mark. Two juniors, Robbie Bosco and Blaine Fowler, appear to be the frontrunners after spring practice. Bosco backed up Young last year and looked good when he played. Fowler backed up Young two years ago and also looked impressive. Because of his game experience, Bosco may have a slight edge going into fall practice.

Runningbacks: They are young and somewhat untested. Sophomore Lakei Heimuli appears to have the inside track at the fullback position. He saw limited playing time with the varsity last year. Battling with Heimuli for the fullback job is Thor Salanoa, a sophomore who was converted from a defensive back to fullback last spring. At the halfback slot, Kelly Smith, a converted receiver, and Vai Sikahema, a junior, will be battling for the starting nod.

Receivers: Senior Adam Haysbert and Glen Kozlowski, a junior, are the two receivers who saw lots of playing time last year. They'll be joined by sophomore Mark Bellini, who redshirted last year, and Richard Orr, also a redshirt. At tight end, Adam Haysbert had three touchdown receptions in 1983. He will be an integral part of this year's receiving corps.

senior David Mills is the only player with any real varsity experience.

Offensive line: Looks solid with four starters returning. Senior Trevor Matich will start at center, with Craig Garrick and Robert Anae probable starters at guard. At tackle, Louis Wong, Dave Wright and Scott Robinson should see lots of playing time.

Defensive line: The Cougars look strong here, with senior starters Brad Smith (nose tackle) and Jim Herrmann (defensive end) returning. Larry Hamilton, also a senior, was a regular on the line and will likely share time with Shawn Knight at the other defensive end slot.

Linebackers: Perhaps the most solid area on the team. Three of the four starters return. Juniors Leon White, honorable mention All-WAC last year, Cary Whittingham and Kurt Gouveia will join senior Marv Allen as probable starters. David Neff, a senior, also will see plenty of action.

Defensive backs: Second-team

All-WAC safety Kyle Morrell is the only returning starter. But Mark Allen, a senior cornerback, started in several games last year while filling in for an injured Greg Peterson. Several players are battling for the other two open spots, but Rob Lendenko and Steve Haymond appeared to have the edge coming out of spring practice.

Punting/kicking: These chores will be handled again by senior Lee Johnson. He averaged 50 yards per punt last year and was the Cougars' leading scorer. Pete Rossi and Gary Webster are a couple of capable kickers who could fill in if the need arises.

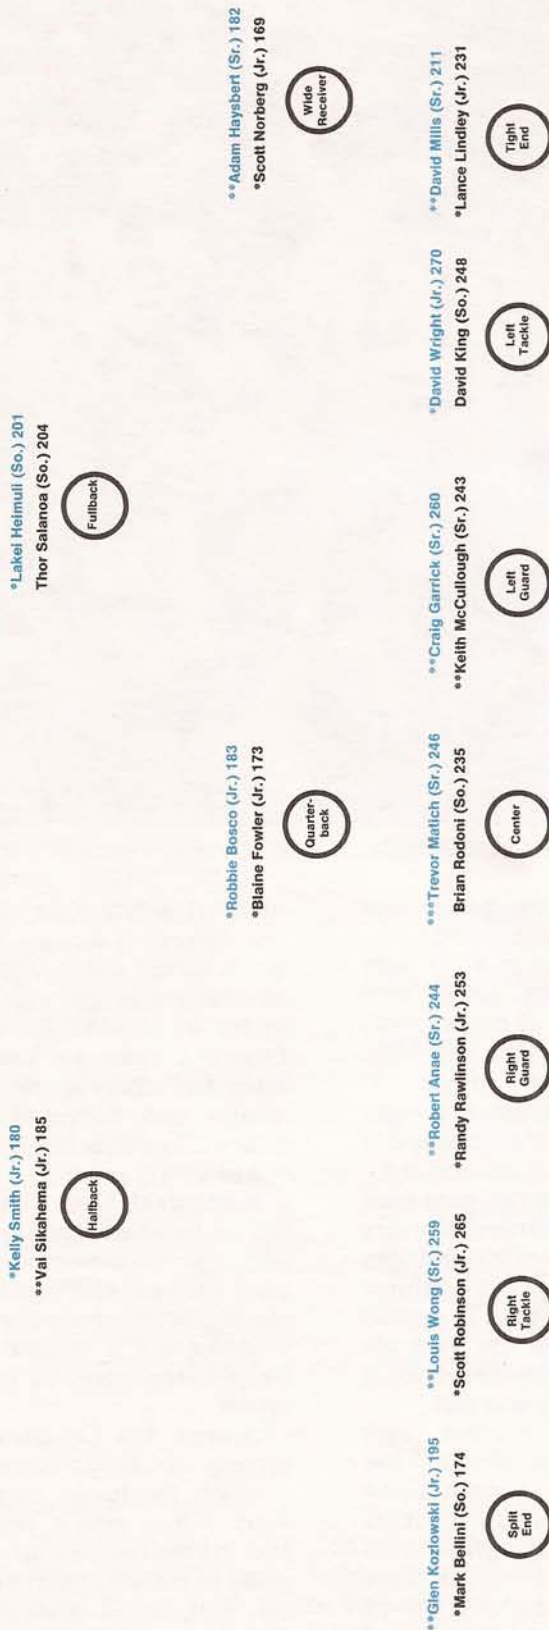

Overall, the Cougars should be strong if they remain healthy through the tough early schedule. Also, it may take a few games for the inexperienced players, especially at the skill positions, to develop. But, as is always the case, Coach LaVell Edwards' team will probably be in the thick of the WAC race.

Players to Watch

Glen Kozlowski

Split End
6-2, 195, Junior
Carlsbad, California

"Koz," as he is called by his teammates, has the ability to make the difficult catch. He caught 29 passes in each of his first two years. In 1983, he scored 32 points and amassed 532 yards of receiving. He sat out the '82 season.

Craig Garrick

Offensive Guard
6-5, 260, Senior
Provo, Utah

Despite problems with his knees, Garrick has developed into one of the best offensive linemen the Cougars have produced. He was voted second team All-WAC in '83 and voted a co-captain by his teammates this year.

Kyle Morrell

Weak Safety
6-2, 179, Senior
Bountiful, Utah

His quickness and hard hitting make him a valuable defensive back. He had 76 tackles and three interceptions last year and was voted second team All-WAC. Also, he was voted a co-captain for this fall.

Jim Herrmann

Defensive End
6-5½, 250, Senior
Hartland, Wisconsin

He is regarded among the best in the nation at his position. He has the size and mobility to be a standout this fall. Quarterbacks saw plenty of him in '83, as he led the team with 46 "hurries" and 16 sacks.

Adam Haysbert

Wide Receiver
6-0, 182, Senior
San Mateo, California

Adam has excellent speed and good hands. In '83, he caught 11 passes for 167 yards, including a number of timely catches in key drives. He worked into the receiving rotation late in the year after Mike Eddo's injury.

Trevor Matich

Center
6-4½, 246, Senior
Sacramento, California

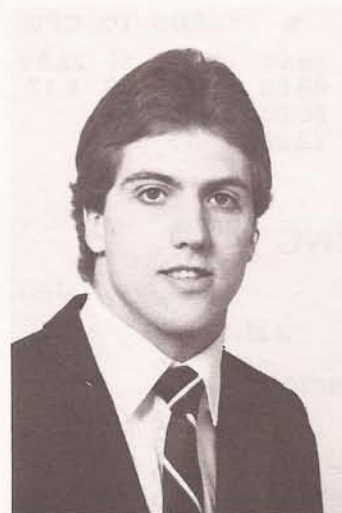

The center position will be one of BYU's strong points because of Matich, a three-year letterman. He ranks among the best in the region at his position.

Coaches

LaVell Edwards, Head Coach

105-37-1
13th Year
(Utah State '52)

Best time to call Coach Edwards: 10 a.m.

When LaVell Edwards took over the reins of BYU's football program 13 years ago, not even the most optimistic fans around Provo dreamed the Cougars would accomplish what they have done under his direction.

The 53-year-old coach-churchman-husband-father-grandfather-author-teacher-doctor has taken BYU from a team that had won the Western Athletic Conference trophy only one time in history to a team that hasn't relinquished it in eight years. Since Edwards' appointment, the Cougars have made eight bowl appearances.

A look at the 1983 season is a good example of how LaVell, as he is called by almost everyone, has established himself as one of America's premier coaches. The Cougars finished the season with an 11-1 record and a seventh-place ranking in the polls. They won their eighth consecutive WAC championship by going undefeated (7-0) in conference play. Twice they beat opponents who finished the season ranked in the top 20. And a last-second trick pass gave BYU its third Holiday Bowl win in the last four years.

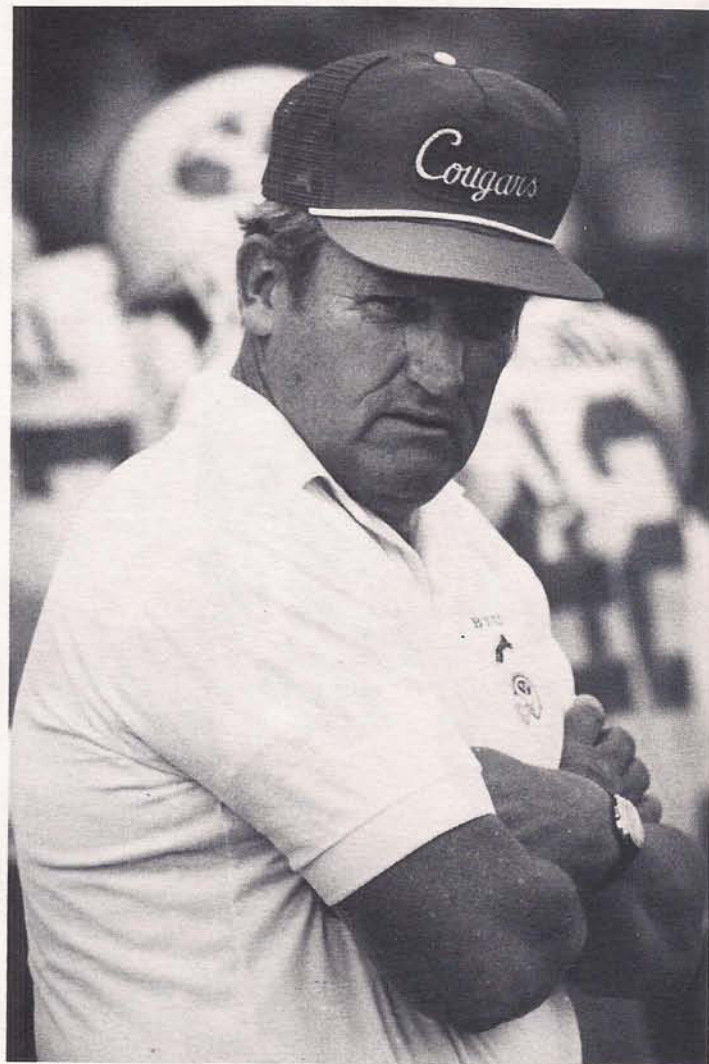

It was also during 1983 that Edwards passed the 100-victory milestone of his career. His 105-37-1 record (.734) ranks seventh among the nation's active coaches. And BYU is tied with Nebraska in winning more games (51) over the last five years than any other Division I school in the country.

Edwards also had the opportunity to coach in three bowl games last year. Besides the Holiday Bowl, he was the head coach of the victorious West squads in both the Hula and Japan Bowls. Two of his BYU standouts, quarterback Steve Young and tight end Gordon Hudson, were voted consensus All-Americans.

A 1952 graduate of Utah State, Edwards has added to his academic honors a master's degree from the University of Utah (1960) and an Ed.D. from BYU (1978). His attitude toward education is contagious in that three of his assistants have gone on to attain doctorates.

The offensive philosophy practiced by Coach Edwards is one of high-powered offense and rugged defense. Under his guidance, BYU has led the nation in passing six times (1976, '77, '79, '80, '81 and '83), scoring (1979) and total offense (1979, '80 and '83).

In 1979, LaVell was recognized as national Coach-of-the-Year by two organizations: the Bobby Dodd Award Board and the Churchmen's Hall of Fame. Four times (1972, '79, '80 and '83) he has been selected WAC Coach-of-the-Year, and four times he has been Kodak District Eight Coach-of-the-Year (1974, '77, '79, '80). Some of the post-season bowl games he has coached include the Hula Bowl (twice), the Blue-Gray Classic (twice), the East-West Shrine Game, the Japan Bowl and the Coaches' All-America Game.

Born in Orem, Utah, LaVell was raised not far from BYU's stadium. He graduated from Lincoln High School in Orem and attended Utah State, where he was a three-year letterman and captain of the football team. Twice he earned all-conference honors at center for the Aggies.

At USU he met his wife-to-be, Patti Covey. LaVell entered the Army, where he played on two service football teams, Fort Lee, Va., in 1952 and Fort Mead, Md., in 1953 as a player-coach with a 6-3 record.

His first coaching job was secured at Granite High School in Salt Lake City, where he coached from 1954-61 before joining Hal Mitchell's BYU staff in 1962. LaVell succeeded Tommy Hudspeth as head coach in 1972.

Edwards has coached more years, won more games and had a better winning percentage than any coach in Cougar football history. He is an active member of the College Football Association. His wife, Patti, writes an occasional column for the (Provo) Daily Herald.

LaVell's Career Highlights

1972—LaVell Edwards, defensive coordinator for the Cougars, is named head coach in January ... a member of the BYU staff since 1962 ... Halfback Pete VanValkenburg wins NCAA rushing title with a 138.6 yards per game average ... the Cougars also lead the league in defense against the rush.

1973—In LaVell's second season the Cougars begin to move offensively ... Quarterback Gary Sheide is runner-up in NCAA passing, and number three in total offense ... teammate Jay Miller leads the nation in pass receiving (100 receptions for 1,181 yards) ... as a team the Cougars are second in the nation in passing, eighth in total offense ... Miller sets an NCAA record for most pass receptions (22) in one game (record still stands).

1974—Team ranks high in two NCAA statistical categories; seventh in passing offense, fourth in rushing defense ... Individually, Gary Sheide is runner-up in passing for the second year in a row (to Steve Bartkowski of California, this time) ... Gary's career completion percentage is fourth on all-time list ... Bartkowski's final pass completion edged Sheide (182-181) for title.

1975—A year of adjustment, the Cougars faltered through the first part of the season, then won six of last eight games ... Gifford Nielsen, a sophomore reserve, came off the bench in the fourth game (New Mexico) to spark come-from-behind victory ... Giff set WAC record with 10-of-12 passing in that game ... was starter thereafter ... Cougars were 10th as a team in passing.

1976—Gifford Nielsen places fourth in NCAA passing (18.8) with only one-tenth completion separating him from Jack Thompson (Washington State) in second place ... but he was second in total offense behind Tommy Kramer (Rice) ... As a team, the Cougars were first in passing, sixth in total offense and eighth in NCAA scoring (424.4 total, 307.8 in passing and 31.9 scoring) Nielsen voted first-team All-America.

1977—Nielsen unexpectedly exits scene with injury in fourth game (Oregon State) and Marc Wilson takes over ... by the end of the season the two have combined for 40 TD passes, 3,585 yards passing and a .605 completion percentage ... Wilson finished eighth in passing and third in total offense ... as a team the Cougars led the nation in passing (341.6), were second in scoring (39.4) and third in total offense (470.2) in final NCAA figures ... BYU's 341.6 yards per game was third highest in history, and 41 TDs second ... surprisingly, the Cougars also topped the nation in "take-aways" with a total of 56 defensive (interceptions and opponents' fumbles recovered) takes.

1978—Both Wilson and sophomore quarterback Jim McMahon see action in 10 games as they share quarterback duties ... Wilson was injured in third game of season ... Although neither is mentioned in NCAA statistics, the Cougars are eighth in passing, fourth in NCAA fumble recoveries ... Cougars finish with WAC title, third straight 9-win season and a bowl bid to Holiday I.

1979—With two all-conference quarterbacks to choose from (Wilson in 1977, McMahon in 1978), the Cougars elect to redshirt junior McMahon in favor of senior Wilson ... upset over Texas A&M starts 11-game win streak ... Marc leads the nation in total offense (325.5) and is fourth in passing efficiency (147.1) ... Wilson finishes senior year as consensus All-America with 10 NCAA records to his credit ... As a team the Cougars lead the nation in four categories; passing (368.3), total offense (521.4), scoring (40.6) and kickoff returns (26.3) ... also, the Cougars were 11th in scoring defense (11.4) and sixth in punting (40.1) ... BYU was first Division I team to pass for more than 4,000 yards in sea son ... LaVell receives the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award.

1980—For the second year in a row the Cougars post an 11-win season. Also, for the second consecutive season BYU leads the nation in three major statistical categories; total offense (535.0), scoring (46.7) and passing (409.8). Quarterback Jim McMahon, who was named to the Kodak All-America team along with offensive tackle Nick Eyre, had an amazing season. Jim became the first NCAA Division I player to pass for more than 4,000 yards (4,571 to be exact), and he set or tied a total of 26 NCAA records, most of them total offense and passing. Among the marks: the highest passing efficiency ever (a 176.9 that topped the previous high of 172.6 by Jerry Rhome in 1964). McMahon also led the nation in total offense (385.6 yards per game, compared to 277.0 for runner-up Mark Hermann). However, the Cougars had a poor start, losing to New Mexico (25-21) in the season opener.

1981—Another 11-win season for the Cougars, who finished with an 11-2 record, sixth WAC championship and 38-36 win over Washington State in Holiday Bowl IV ... Cougars ranked eighth in wire service poll before 17-game win streak came to an end ... BYU led nation in passing for the third consecutive year, also tops in NCAA scoring for third consecutive year ... McMahon claims All-America honors, finishes his career with 71 NCAA records (plus Davey O'Brien Trophy) and sets all-time high in career passing efficiency (156.9) ... LaVell coached the West team to a victory in the Hula Bowl ... also coached in the Japan Bowl ... at the end of the season, Edwards' career coaching record (86-32-1) was ranked among the top ten in the nation.

1982—Cougars' first season in expanded BYU Stadium which was enlarged to permanent seating of over 65,000 ... but drop opener, 39-38 thriller, to Air Force ... overcoming league loss, the Cougars win an unprecedented seventh straight WAC football championship (7-1) ... Gordon Hudson named consensus All-America ... BYU third in nation in total offense ... Cougars lose to Ohio State in Holiday Bowl V ... Edwards joins nation's top 10 most successful active coaches.

1983—Another 11-win season ... Holiday Bowl victory over Missouri leads to No. seven ranking in the final polls—highest ever for a BYU team ... Cougars wrap up eighth consecutive WAC championship with a perfect 7-0 conference record ... after losing opener to Baylor, BYU wins final 11 games ... once again, BYU leads nation in passing and total offense and is second in scoring ... quarterback Steve Young and tight end Gordon Hudson are both consensus All-Americans ... Edwards surpasses the 100-victory mark in his career.

Coaching Staff

Norman Chow (Utah '68)

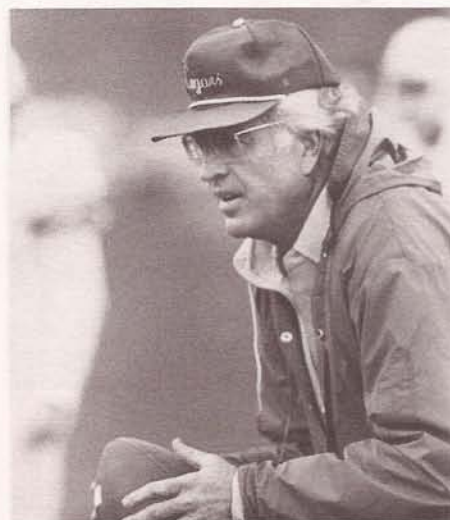

Recruiting Coordinator, Receivers

Chow has been a full-time member of the Cougar coaching staff for the past nine years. His main responsibilities include coaching the receivers and coordinating BYU's recruiting. While Chow has been involved with recruiting, BYU has enjoyed some of its finest recruiting campaigns. During games, Chow usually helps call the offensive plays from the press box.

Previous to joining the BYU coaching staff, Norm coached for two years as a graduate assistant. He was graduated from Punahou High, Honolulu, Hawaii, ('64) being named "Athlete of the Year." He then went to the University of Utah, where he achieved All-WAC honors as an offensive guard (1967-68). He was also honorable mention All-America. A career in the Canadian Football League was cut short after one year because of a knee injury. He then was head coach for three years at Hawaii's Waialua High School.

Chow has received a master's degree in special education from the University of Utah and a doctorate in educational psychology from BYU in 1979. Norm and his wife, Diane, have a son, Carter, 10; a daughter, Maile, 8; and a son, Cameron, 4.

Dick Felt (BYU '58)

Assistant Head Coach, Defensive Coordinator

After an outstanding college career at BYU and a seven-year stint in professional football, Dick Felt returned to his alma mater in 1967 to become a coach. He is entering his 18th year on the staff. Felt's current responsibilities include being assistant head coach and defensive coordinator with emphasis on coaching defensive backs.

Dick lettered in five sports at Lehi High school in Utah and was an all-state football player. He went to BYU where, as a sophomore, he came off the bench to score a record four touchdowns in one quarter in a game with San Jose State. He won all-conference honors as a senior. After graduating in 1958, he played for Bolling Air Force Base (1958-60) and was all-service and MVP in the Air Force (1960). He was commissioned a first lieutenant. Felt was signed by the New York Titans and played two seasons with them (1960-61), the second year attaining all-pro second team honors as a defensive back. He was traded to the Boston Patriots and was all-pro in 1962. He played in the first two AFL all-star games. He left pro ball in 1966 and came to BYU in 1967.

Dick is married to Dayleen LaVon Hobson of Boise, Idaho, and they have four children: Karen 23; Curtis, 20; Kristie, 17; and Nancy, 14.

Roger French (Minnesota '56)

Offensive Coordinator, Head Offensive Line

Roger French is entering his sixth season as an assistant coach for BYU. He serves as offensive coordinator and coach of the offensive line. Roger joined Edwards' staff in 1980 and has since helped produce seven All-WAC offensive linemen and one of the best passing attacks in college football.

Before coming to BYU, Roger coached at Minnesota and Wisconsin for 14 years. His responsibilities at Minnesota included coaching the offensive line and tight ends. He was also defensive coordinator and line coach. Born in Minneapolis, French played linebacker, tight end and fullback at the University of Minnesota. He graduated in 1956.

He obtained a master's degree and played some pro ball with the Philadelphia Eagles and the Cleveland Browns. He began coaching at Memphis State, where he was defensive coordinator. In 1962, MSU finished second in the nation defensively. He has coached several All-American linemen in his career, and more than 30 have gone on to play pro ball.

Roger and his wife, Dody, have two daughters, Kathy and Gail.

Mike Holmgren (USC '70)

Quarterbacks

Mike Holmgren, quarterback coach, is entering his third year as a member of the BYU staff. He came to BYU from San Francisco State, where he was quarterback coach and offensive coordinator in 1981. Previously, Holmgren had been a successful high school coach in California (Oak Grove High, 1975-80; Sacred Heart High, 1972-74; and Lincoln High, 1971).

Mike prepped at Lincoln High in San Francisco, where he was all-city, San Francisco Player-of-the-Year and All-Northern California. In a California prep all-star game, Holmgren was the starting quarterback, while Jim Plunkett had to play defensive end on the same team. He also was all-city in basketball.

From 1966-69 he played quarterback at USC with the likes of O.J. Simpson, Ron Yary, Clarence Davis and John Vella. He survived several cuts with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1970 and later tried out with the New York Jets.

Born 6/15/48, Mike is married to the former Kathy Bowman, and they have four daughters: twins Jenny and Calla, 11; Emily, 7; and Gretchen, 3.

Mel Jay Olson (BYU '70)

Academic Coordinator, Offensive Line

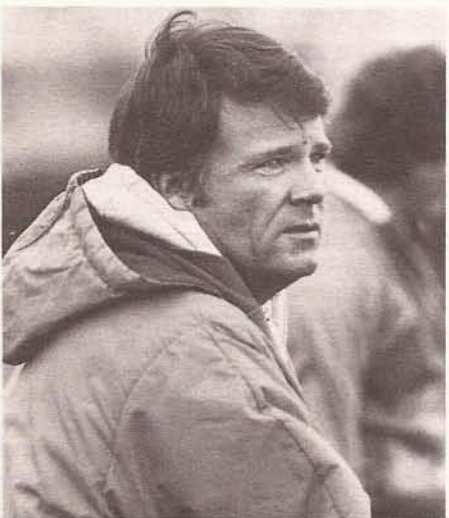

Mel Olson joined BYU's coaching staff 15 years ago, shortly after he finished his playing career at BYU. He works with the offensive line, mainly concentrating on the centers. This year, he also has been named academic coordinator. While coaching the jayvees several years ago, his teams were undefeated three seasons.

Born Jan. 20, 1945, in Afton, Wyo., Mel was all-state fullback and linebacker at Star Valley High for two years (1962-63). He enrolled at BYU and played center and linebacker as a freshman. He was a member of BYU's first WAC championship team (1965) and played well before accepting a mission call to Texas (1967-69). Returning to BYU he earned all-WAC and All-America honors his senior year. He was voted to the second team on the 15-year All-WAC football team.

Mel earned his Ed.D. at BYU in 1980, majoring in physical education and minoring in health education. His dissertation was "The Construction and Evaluation of a Coaching Education Curriculum."

He is married to the former Susan Taylor of Provo. They have five children: Michael, 13; Kristen, 11; Melissa, 9; Tresa, 5; and Chad, 2.

Jim Paronto (Adams State '65)

Inside Linebackers

After serving as part-time coach at BYU for two seasons, Jim Paronto was made an assistant coach in charge of inside linebackers in 1982.

He came to Provo to work on an advanced degree after serving as head football coach and athletic director at Adams State (Colorado). He received a master's degree from Adams State (1966) and an Ed.D. from BYU last year in athletic administration with a supporting field in organizational behavior. His dissertation was "Micro-computer Coding of Football Players' Non-verbal Behavior and Competitive Predictability Patterns."

A native of Spur, Tex., he attended several schools (Pepperdine, Southwest Texas State and Texas-El Paso) before graduating from Adams State in 1965. He was an all-conference quarterback his senior year. Jim is a former academic All-American, a member of Phi Beta Kappa and one of the Outstanding Young Men of America in 1977. In 1980, he was NAIA District Seven Coach-of-the-Year and was Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference Coach-of-the-Year in 1973.

Jim is a member of the Provo Kiwanis Club. He and his wife, Rita, have three children: Jami, 16; Kris, 13; and Mike, 11.

Lance Reynolds (BYU '80)

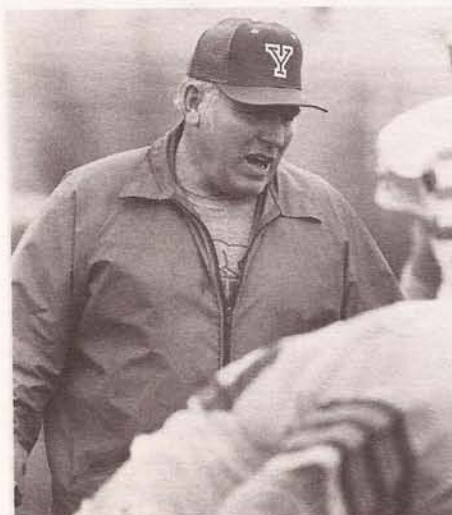

Running Backs, Jayvee Coordinator

Lance is the newest addition to BYU's staff, coming on board last year to coach the runningbacks and coordinate the jayvee program. He came to BYU after successful coaching jobs at Ricks College (Rexburg, Ida.) and Snow College (Ephraim, Utah).

He was assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Ricks. A Salt Lake native, Lance was all-state at Granite High School for two years. He came to BYU and played offensive tackle and guard before leaving on an LDS mission to Seattle, Wash., after his sophomore year. When he returned, he earned all-WAC honors as offensive tackle and played in the East-West Shrine game and the Senior Bowl. He played one season with the Pittsburgh Steelers and Philadelphia Eagles.

Lance and his wife, Leslie, have two children; Brittany, 6; and Lance Jr., 2.

Tom Ramage (Utah State '57)

Special Teams Coordinator/Defensive Line

It was 12 years ago when Tom Ramage joined the Cougar coaching staff after coaching in the junior college ranks. Since Ramage joined BYU, the Cougars have traditionally ranked high in the WAC in defense against the rush.

Tom came to BYU from Dixie College in St. George, Utah, where he was head coach for two seasons (13-7 overall). He was born in Price, Utah, and enrolled at Utah State, where he won All-Skyline Conference honors as tackle in 1956 and lettered in wrestling four years. He began his coaching career at Bear River, Utah, then returned to USU, where he served as assistant and obtained his M.S. degree (1962). For the next four years, Tom was line coach of the Aggies under Tony Knap.

He left Logan in 1965 to serve as chief assistant and defensive coordinator at Weber State under Sark Arslanian. In 1971 he took the head job at Dixie College. Sandwiched into his stay at Weber, he served as a commissioned officer in the Army and was discharged as a captain in 1967.

Tom and his wife, Winona, have six children: John, 25; Lorrie, 23; Rochelle, 21; Sherrie, 19; Dedra, 16; and Cory, 8.

Ken Schmidt (Utah '64)

Outside Linebackers

Ken Schmidt, after a successful high school and junior college coaching career, joined the BYU staff in 1982. He is responsible for coaching the outside linebackers.

A Murray, Utah, native, Schmidt enrolled in the University of Utah, where he was an offensive center and linebacker under Coach Ray Nagel. He was graduated in 1964 and, in 1969, obtained his M.S. degree from Utah.

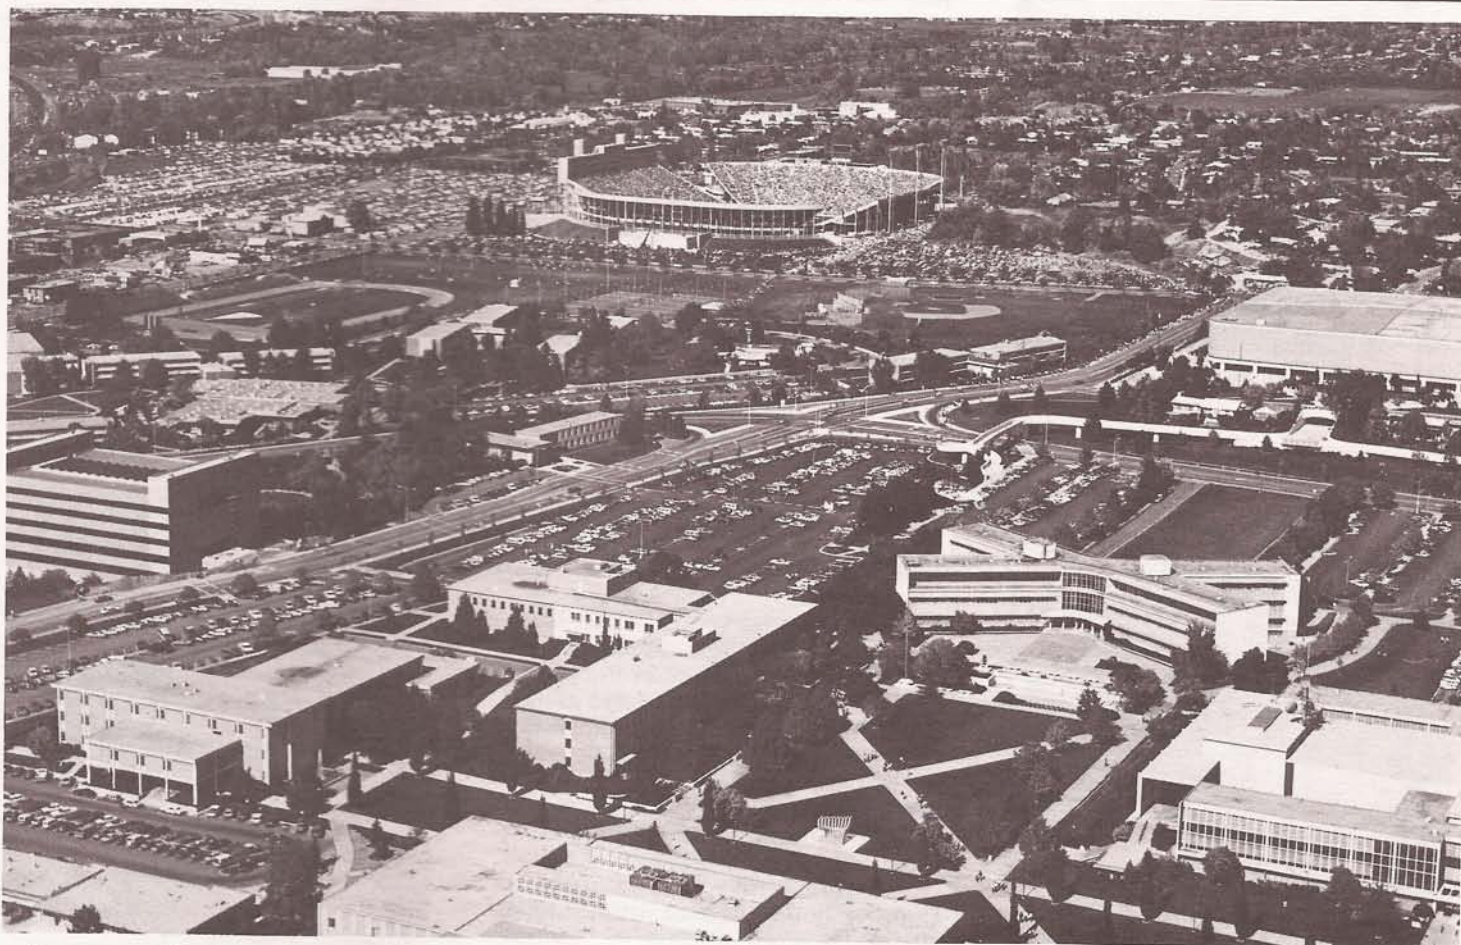

He began his coaching career as an assistant at Granite High School (1964-68). Later, he was named head coach at Skyline High School (Salt Lake City), where his teams posted a 105-24-1 record and won five state championships during his stay (1968-79). In 1980, he was named head coach at Ricks College (Rexburg, Ida.). The Vikings won the conference championship both his years there and posted a 17-3 record. In 1981, Ricks defeated Arizona Western 28-21 in the Valley of the Sun Bowl.

Ken and his wife, the former Yvonne Youngberg of Murray, have five children: Ryan, 17; Craig, 16; Jason, 13; Shauna, 12; and Chad, 5.

BYU—The School

For more than 100 years, Brigham Young University has been preparing students for successful professional careers and personal lives. To do this, the University attempts to provide proper balance between academia and religious instruction.

BYU is sponsored by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon) and, with its enrollment of 26,000 students, is the largest privately owned university in the country.

Although 98 percent of the studentbody is Mormon, admission is open to those of any race, color, creed or national origin, provided they meet the university's academic requirements and their conduct conforms to the standards of the LDS Church.

Non-Mormons come from over 25 other denominations, and about 22 percent of the studentbody is married. The campus, located in Provo, Utah, is very cosmopolitan. Students come from every state (32 percent from Utah). And the 1,500 foreign students come from more than 70 countries. Over 8,000 students are bilingual, having learned a foreign language while serving a mission for the Mormon Church in another country.

Of the ethnic groups on campus, the American Indians have the largest representation, numbering more than 300 and coming from many tribes. There are also Chicanos, Blacks, Orientals and many others, all applying their own particular perspective of life to their academic programs and providing a rich intercultural learning atmosphere for all students.

More than 1,200 full-time faculty, 75 percent of whom hold doctorates, from colleges throughout the United States and several foreign countries, instruct in 150 subject areas in the University's 13 colleges and graduate schools.

BYU is on a three-semester system (4-4-2-2) with fall and winter semesters each being four months long, and the summer semester being divided into spring and summer terms.

In addition to the regular student body on the Provo campus, BYU serves other students at the BYU-Hawaii campus in Laie, Hawaii, through the Study Abroad programs supervised by BYU faculty members in Austria, England, Israel and Hawaii and through the BYU Division of Continuing Education, which enrolls more than 350,000 in its courses each year.

The University is supported from funds appropriated by the LDS Church and from tuitions and gifts.

President Jeffrey R. Holland

In his four years as president of Brigham Young University, Dr. Jeffrey R. Holland has made "excellence" his byword for all areas of the University.

Early in his tenure as ninth president of BYU, Dr. Holland initiated a $100 million, five-year fund-raising campaign entitled "Excellence in the '80s." It is designed to strengthen all areas of the University. At the halfway point of the campaign earlier this year, half of the $100 million had been raised.

"We cannot do everything at BYU," President Holland has said. "Perhaps we will not even continue to pursue all of the things we've tried to do in the past. But what we choose to do, we intend to do superbly well."

That same philosophy carries over to athletics at BYU. "It (athletics) has a legitimate place, and, like everything else in the college experience, if it's going to be done, it should be done well," he says.

A St. George, Utah, native, Dr. Holland was a standout performer on the Dixie High School basketball and football teams. He later became captain of the conference-champion Dixie College basketball team.

After serving a two-year mission in Great Britain for the LDS Church (1960-62), President Holland enrolled at BYU, where he obtained a bachelor's degree in English with highest honors and a master's degree in religious education, graduating with distinction. While at BYU, he was designated an E.S. Hinckley Scholar and was elected to Phi Kappa Phi honor society. More recently, he was honored as a recipient of the University's Distinguished Alumni Service Award.

Dr. Holland obtained a second master's degree and a doctorate in American Studies at Yale University in 1973, where he was a Yale University Fellow. He wrote his dissertation on "Mark Twain's Religious Sense: The Viable Years—1835 to 1883."

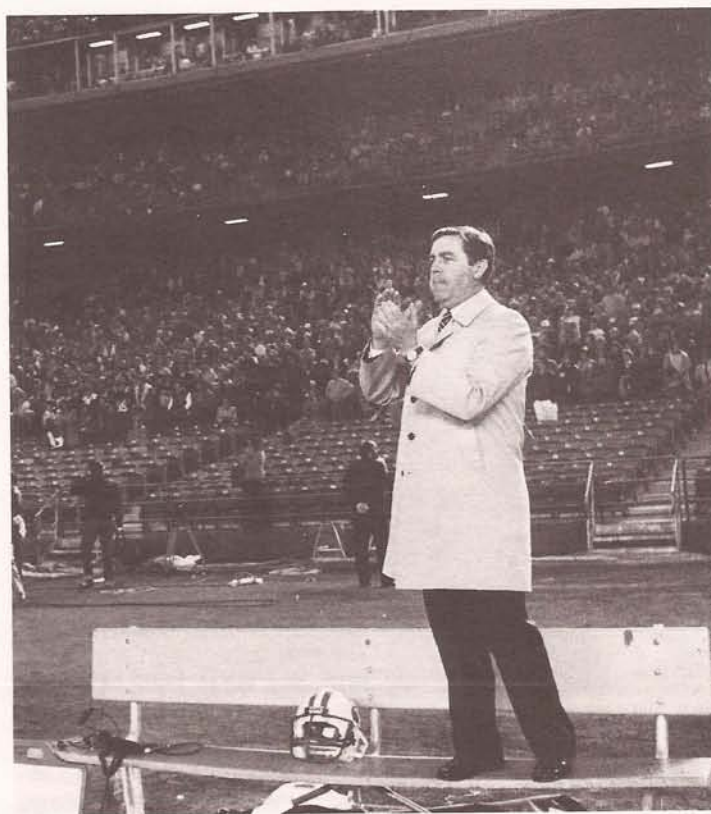

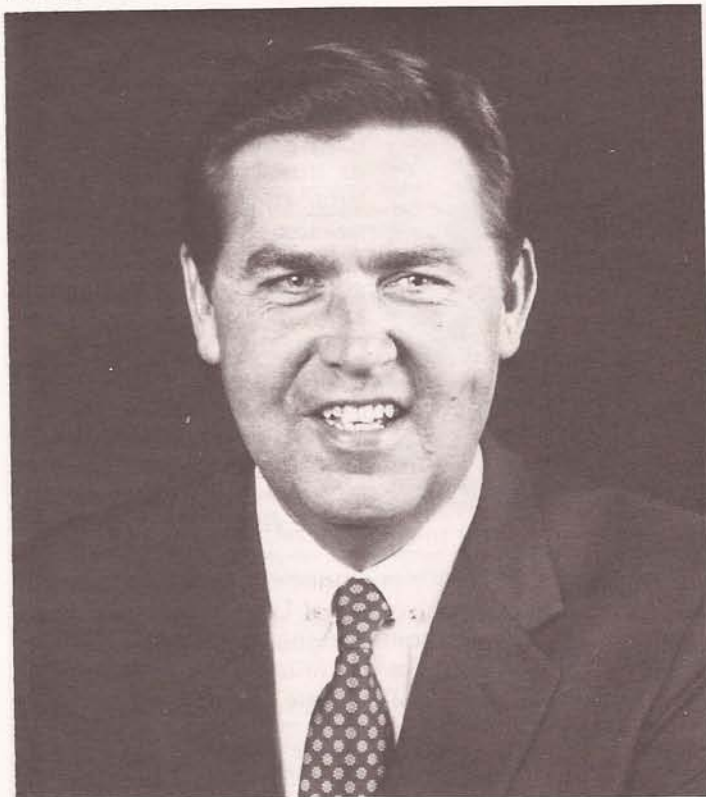

Preceding his appointment as president of BYU, Dr. Holland served more than four years as Commissioner of Education for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, with responsibilities for all of the Church's educational programs which reached more than 750,000 students worldwide. Prior to that, he was dean of Religious Instruction at BYU, and he has served as instructor or director at several LDS Institutes of Religion.

A popular speaker and writer, President Holland is noted for his keen sense of humor. He has had more than 50 articles and addresses published in both LDS and professional journals, including "Vital Speeches of the Day."

In the LDS Church, he has been a high councilor, a bishop, and a counselor in three stake presidencies. He also served as director of the Melchizedek Priesthood MIA program and as chairman of the Church's Young Adult Committee.

President Holland serves on the governing boards of the Deseret News Publishing Company, Commercial Security Bancorporation, Intermountain Health Care, Inc., all in Salt Lake City, and the Polynesian Cultural Center in Laie, Hawaii. He also serves as a director of the American Association of Presidents of Independent Colleges and Universities (AAPICU).

He and his wife, Patricia Terry Holland, also of St. George, have three children: Matthew, Mary Alice and David.

Dean, Athletic Director

Dr. Clayne R. Jensen, Dean and Faculty Representative

Dr. Clayne Jensen is beginning his 11th year as dean of the College of Physical Education, which encompasses BYU athletics. A respected and experienced administrator, Dr. Jensen served in the capacity of professor and assistant dean for six years before becoming dean. He has served as BYU faculty representative since 1976 and is a member of BYU's Special Events and Athletics in track and field. He was a faculty member at Utah State (1956-64), member of Phi Kappa Phi and recipient of Briethbard Athletic Foundation Award (1955). He is author or co-author of 16 books currently in print, and used in over 700 colleges and universities. He is member and chairman of several professional boards and special committees dealing with physical education, athletics and related fields. He holds membership in five professional groups and has traveled in 44 states and 24 countries. Several summers ago he served as a U.S. delegate to the International Olympic Academy in Olympia, Greece.

He has been included in 17 national and international biographies, including Who's Who in the World, Who's Who in America, Who's Who in American Education, Outstanding Educators of America and Noteworthy Americans.

Dr. Jensen is married to the former Elouise Henrie and they have four sons: Craig, Mike and Blake (all former members of BYU's football team) and Chris.

Advisory Board.

Born March 17, 1930, in Gunnison, Utah, Dr. Jensen graduated from the University of Utah in 1956 and obtained his doctorate from Indiana University in 1963. From 1953-55 he was a captain in the U.S. Marine Corps, and coached two all-Marine championship teams

Glen Tuckett, Athletic Director

Most of the large strides made in BYU's athletic program have come during Glen Tuckett's tenure as athletic director. Since he assumed the directorship in July, 1976, the Cougars have claimed eight athletic supremacy titles in the Western Conference. In 1983, he was given the Dale Rex award, the highest athletic honor given by BYU. He has also been inducted into the BYU Hall of Fame for his successful coaching of the baseball team for 17 years, during which time his teams won 13 division baseball titles, three WAC championships and two NCAA District 7 crowns. Twice his teams went to the College World Series.

Tuckett was president of the 1977 American Association of Baseball Coaches, and was inducted into the Collegiate Baseball Hall of Fame in 1979. He was, at the time of his retirement, the ninth winningest baseball coach in the NCAA.

Raised in Murray, Utah, Tuckett was an all-around athlete at Murray High School. He played professional baseball after graduation but obtained a B.S. degree from the University of Utah in 1953. He came to BYU in 1959, serving as assistant football coach for six years and baseball coach for 17 years. He obtained a master's degree from BYU in 1962 and a doctorate in 1978. He was voted an outstanding teacher at BYU.

Tuckett is a counselor in the Edgemont Stake Presidency. He is married to the former Josephine Whittaker of Stockport, England, and they have four daughters: Alison, Shannon, Kendall and Erin.

Cougar Stadium

When BYU expanded its football stadium to 65,000 seats in 1982, it marked the beginning of a new era for the football program.

In each of its first two seasons, the stadium was sold out for every home game. Last year, a record 323,858 fans watched the Cougars' five home games. The per-game average of 64,771 ranked near the top 20 in the country in attendance.

The fan support has helped BYU schedule non-league home games with teams like UCLA, Pittsburgh, Baylor, Tulsa, Washington and others in future years.

The facility has been applauded by fans, players and the media as one of the best in the entire country. Among its many features are a box-bowl configuration, a natural-turf playing surface and a four-level press box.

Prior to the expansion, Cougar Stadium seated 35,000 comfortably, but as many as 47,000 crammed into the facility to see a game. Expansion efforts included lowering the field eight feet, adding end zone seating, constructing the press box and adding box seating.

More than 15,000 yards of concrete were used in the expansion effort. Each end zone contains about 4.3 million pounds of steel and seats about 15,000 people.

The playing field has a special drainage system capable of draining up to 13 inches of rainfall per hour.

Perhaps the most impressive feature of the stadium is the new press box, which runs the entire length of the west stands and sits over 10 stories high. It contains 42 loges (glass-enclosed booths capable of seating up to 12 people) on the first two levels. The third level is reserved for working media, and the fourth level is the TV deck. Three elevators transport guests to the press box.

The Football Writers Association of America cited BYU for its "Outstanding Press Box Working Area."

The single-game attendance record is 65,215, set last year against Utah. Cougar Stadium is the 24th largest on-campus football facility in the country and is the fourth-largest university-owned stadium in the West (Stanford, California and ASU).

Cougar Club, KSL

Cougar Club

Celebrating its 20th year of service to BYU athletic teams and coaches, the BYU Cougar Club is one of the nation's most prestigious and effective booster organizations. Its membership of over 2,500 also makes Cougar Club one of the nation's largest booster clubs.

"Most of our members are avid sports fans and die-hard Cougar supporters," explains Dale R. McCann, Cougar Club executive director, "however, all our members agree that affecting the lives of young male and female athletes in a positive way is our first priority."

One of the ways Club members provide support for BYU athletes is through the freshman sponsor program. In this program, new freshmen and junior college transfer athletes are welcomed into the homes of local Cougar Club members. The idea is to give the athletes a "home-away-from-home," and to help them feel comfortable in Provo and at BYU.

Other Cougar Club services include funding recruiting trips and honoring present and past athletes at the annual Awards Banquet and through the BYU Athletic Hall of Fame.

Cougar Club members donate annually to the BYU athletic program. There are numerous donor levels, ranging from $50 to $15,000 (given over three years). In return, contributors receive parking passes for home games, football and basketball press guides, the satisfaction of helping to build athletic excellence at BYU, and other benefits.

Interested persons are invited to visit the Cougar Club room (West side of Cougar Stadium), where they can view the Athletic Hall of Fame, and meet Cougar Club officials. They may also write or call: BYU Cougar Club, Alumni House, Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah 84602, (801) 378-2717.

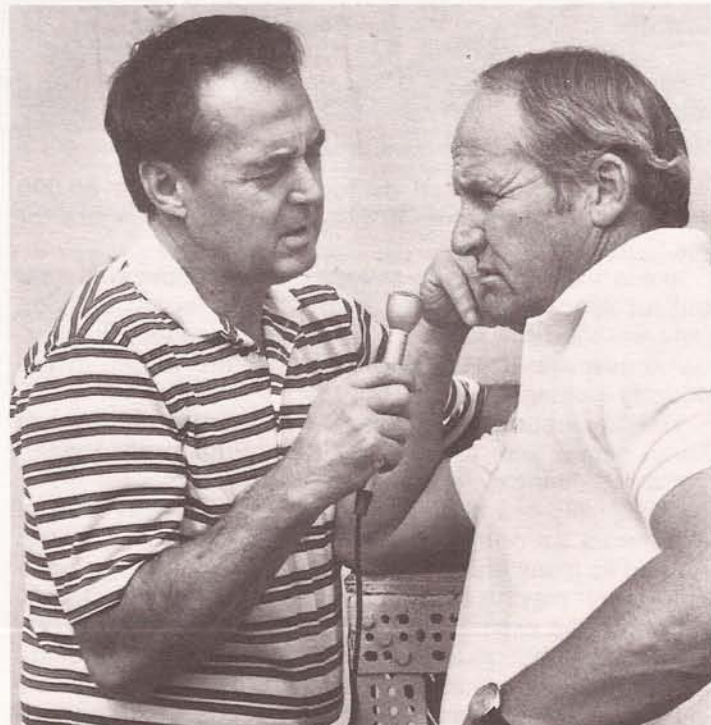

KSL Radio

For more than a quarter of a century, BYU fans in the intermountain west and other parts of the country have been following Cougar athletics via 50,000-watt KSL Radio (1160 on the AM dial), located in Salt Lake City.

"The Voice" of the Cougars has been play-by-play man Paul James, a veteran broadcaster with 32 years' experience behind him. A University of Utah graduate, James entered broadcasting in 1950. For six years, he broadcast Utah basketball and football games before joining the staff at KSL Radio and Television in July of 1965. James has been at the microphone calling BYU games for the past 16 years.

Live broadcasts of football games can be heard on the following Cougar Network: KID (590 AM), Idaho Falls, Idaho; KBAR (1230 AM), Burley, Idaho; KART (1400 AM), Jerome, Idaho; KXTC (1340 AM), Nampa-Boise, Idaho; KUTA (790 AM), Blanding, Utah, daytime games only; KZEZ (93.5 FM), St. George, Utah; KKBK, Farmington, New Mexico; KLAV (1230 AM), Las Vegas, Nevada; KMMZ, Greyball, Wyoming; KRFM (96.5 FM), Showlow, Arizona; KGAA, Seattle, Washington; KCGL (1210 AM), Washington, Utah; KWNK, Simi Valley, California; KOPA, Phoenix, Arizona; KRDR, Gresham, Oregon; KCKY, Coolidge, Arizona.

With an FM sideband, games can be picked up in the following areas: WRFM (105 FM), New York, New York; WCLR (101.9 FM), Chicago, Illinois; KBIG (104.3 FM), Los Angeles, California (note: Cox Cable subscribers in San Diego can tune in on 99.3 FM for KBIG's signal); KOIT (96.5 FM), San Francisco, California; KSEA (100.7 FM), Seattle, Washington; KMBR (99.7 FM), Kansas City; KAFM (92.5 FM), Dallas, Texas.

Paul James has been "The Voice" of the Cougars since 1965.

Western Athletic Conference

As the Western Athletic Conference enters its 22nd year, it is enjoying increased national attention as a result of the successful athletic programs of its member institutions. Last year, for the second year in a row, two WAC teams were victorious in post-season bowl games and finished the season ranked in the top 20. Brigham Young defeated Missouri in the Holiday Bowl, and Air Force topped Ole' Miss in the Independence Bowl.

The league is the most geographically diverse in the country, spreading from the 7,000-foot heights of Laramie, Wyo., to the sea-level sprawls of Hawaii and San Diego. Each of the league's nine members adds to the flavor of the conference with its distinct personality.

Founded July 1, 1962, the charter members included Arizona, Arizona State, Brigham Young, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming. In September, 1967, Colorado State and Texas-El Paso were added to make the WAC an eight-team league.

A major change occurred in July, 1978, when Arizona and Arizona State left for the Pac-10. But on the same day, San Diego State made its official entry into the conference. Hawaii became the eighth member the following year, and the Air Force Academy entered in 1980.

One of the rewards of WAC membership is the league's affiliation with the Holiday Bowl in San Diego. The conference's football champion receives an automatic bid to the post-season bowl game against a ranking at-large team.

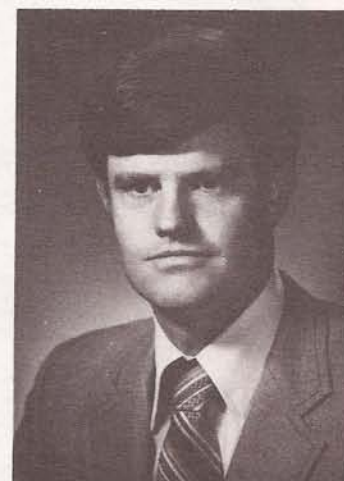

Based in Denver, Colorado, the WAC is led by Commissioner Joe Kearney, who assumed the post in 1980. Kearney, former athletic director at Arizona State, Washington and Michigan State, is the fourth conference commissioner since the formation of the league.

Nordy Jensen serves as director of information for the WAC and is assisted by Dee Menzies.

The office is located at 14 West Dry Creek Circle, Littleton, Colorado 80120. Phone number for the WAC office is (303) 795-1962.

Series Record With BYU: First meeting

1983 Record: 8-3-1

1984 Outlook: Pittsburgh will have one of the toughest schedules in the country this year, but the Panthers are optimistic about the year thanks to a veteran squad that many feel will challenge for the national championship. The Panthers return 45 lettermen from last season's 8-3-1 team, including 15 starters, nine on offense and six on defense. Three All-American candidates return, including Bill Fralic and defensive performers Troy Benson and Chris Doleman. Fralic was a finalist for the Outland and Lombardi trophies last season. He also finished eighth in the Heisman Trophy balloting and is vying to become the first interior lineman to win the award. Junior John Congemi returns in the quarterback position. Last year he completed 170 of 286 passes for 1,940 yards and 16 touchdowns. In the Fiesta Bowl, Congemi completed 31 passes for 361 yards.

Series Record With BYU: 1-0, Baylor

1983 Record: 7-4-1

League Record, Standing: 4-3-1

1984 Outlook: On the surface, it would appear that Baylor enters the 1984 football season with few major concerns. Only 16 lettermen were lost from last year's 7-4-1 team that wound up in the Bluebonnet Bowl. But, as is often the case in football, things aren't always as they appear to be. Among those lettermen lost were runningbacks Alfred Anderson and Allen Rice and receivers Gerald McNeil and Bruce Davis. Those four were responsible for 72 percent of BU's offensive yardage a year ago. They will all need to be replaced, as will both offensive guards. Those are the biggest concerns on offense. The biggest plus on that side is the return of quarterbacks Cody Carlson and Tom Muecke. The defense is returning virtually intact. Only two starters graduated, and 13 players who started on a part-time basis because of injuries are back to go with the nine regular starters. All-SWC performer Ervin Randle returns to anchor the defense from his end position. All of Baylor's kickers return, so that phase of the game should not be a major concern.

Head Coach: John Cooper (Iowa State '62) 9th year, 51-26

Series Record With BYU: 1-0, BYU

1983 Record: 8-3

League Record, Standing: 5-0, 1st

1984 Outlook: After six straight winning seasons and four consecutive Missouri Valley Conference championships, there is an air of optimism about the 1984 Tulsa football team. Thirty-eight lettermen return to defend the title. However, graduation hit the Golden Hurricanes hard. Seven all-conference performers have graduated, including the school's all-time leading rusher, Michael Gunter. On offense, the bright spot is quarterback Steve Gage, who was voted MVC newcomer-of-the-year last year. The offensive line is strong, as are the running backs. Rodney Young returns as starting fullback. Defensively, Tulsa looks solid. The defensive line is headed by All-MVC defensive end Byron Jones. Seniors Nate Harris and Timmy Gibbs are a couple of starters returning in the secondary. The Hurricanes' schedule is tough again in '84 with games against Southern Illinois, BYU, Arkansas, Oklahoma State and East Carolina.

Head Coach: Dick Tomey (DePauw, '61) 8th year, 45-31-1

Series Record With BYU: 6-4, BYU

1983 Record: 5-5-1

League Record, Standing: 3-3-1, 5th

1984 Outlook: This year Hawaii hopes to improve its .500 showing in 1983, and with 14 starters returning, the odds of the Rainbows doing that are fairly good. Leading the veterans is quarterback Raphael Cherry, who set 22 school records, finished seventh nationally in total offense and 10th in pass efficiency. No other quarterback in the country returns this year who was responsible for more touchdowns (26). His favorite receiver, Walter Murray, also returns to complete the "Cherry Bomb" combination. On the offensive line, there are seven players who have started at one time or another during the past two years. The running back slot is up for grabs at this point. Defensively, the Rainbows are led by strong safety Rich Miano, who led the team in tackles last year and was first team All-WAC. He is joined by five other starters from last year. The schedule should help the Rainbows. All but two games will be played in Aloha Stadium.

1983 Record: 5-7

League Record, Standing: 4-4, 6th (tie)

1984 Outlook: Despite losing record-setting quarterback Terry Nugent, the Rams have enough key players returning to be a factor in the WAC race. Fullback Steve Bartalo returns for his sophomore year after being named second-team All-WAC last year. He rushed for a school-record 1,113 yards his freshman year. At H-back the Rams have All-American candidate Keli McGregor returning. He caught a school-record 69 passes last year for 717 yards. Another All-America candidate is tight end Harper LaBel, who snagged 59 passes for 729 yards last year. At quarterback, senior Tom Thenell and redshirt sophomore Kelly Stouffer head the list of candidates. Along the offensive line, there is enough experience returning to give the Rams optimism. Defensively, the Rams have a host of returning players. Linebacker Dan Fiala and safety Dan Hammerschmidt lead the returnees.

Series Record With BYU: 26-25-3, Wyoming

1983 Record: 7-5

League Record, Standing: 5-3, 3rd

1984 Outlook: If the number of returning lettermen has anything to do with success, Wyoming should be a top contender for the WAC championship. On offense, the Cowboys have nine players returning who started at one time or another during the 1983 season. And the picture is even brighter on defense with 10 starters returning. However, the players who have departed will be difficult to replace. Gone from last year's squad are quarterback Brad Baumberger, tight end Chris Kolodziejewski, runningback Walt Goffigan and linebacker Steve Nighswonger. At the key quarterback position, David Gosnell had the upper hand going into spring ball, although there were four others vying for the spot. The other area of concern is tight end. It appears that Jay Novacek, the second-leading receiver as a split end last year, may be asked to fill that slot. The running back position is especially strong, with last year's top seven rushers returning.

Head Coach: Fisher DeBerry (Wofford '60) First year

Series Record With BYU: 5-1, BYU

1983 Record: 10-2

League Record, Standing: 5-2, 2nd

1984 Outlook: New head coach Fisher DeBerry has 46 lettermen and 10 starters returning from last years 13th-ranked team to form a nucleus for the 1984 season. Offensively, the key to the Falcons' success will likely rest with All-America candidate Mike Brown at halfback. Last fall, he averaged an impressive 8.5 yards per carry—enough to lead the nation in that category. One of the big offensive voids will be at the quarterback slot. Marty Louthan ran the wishbone as well as anyone in the country for the last two years. Also gone is Mike Kirby, one of the leading receivers in the WAC last year. Defensively, All-America candidate Chris Funk anchors what looks to be a solid front line. Other starters returning are Larry Nicklas at nose guard, A.J. Scott at safety, Dwan Wilson at corner and John Ziegler at tackle.

Coach Dunn

Location: Albuquerque, New Mexico
Conference: Western Athletic
Enrollment: 24,000
Colors: Cherry, Silver
Stadium: University Stadium (30,646, Natural turf)
Nickname: Lobos
Offense: Veer
Defense: 5-2
Head Coach: Joe Lee Dunn (Tennessee-Chattanooga '68) 2nd year, 6-6.

Series Record With BYU: 21-11-1, BYU

1983 Record: 6-6

League Record, Standing: 4-3, fourth

1984 Outlook: The Lobos have a nucleus of 14 starters returning from which to shape their 1984 squad, including a couple of All-WAC first team selections of a year ago. Ray Hornfleck, a safety, and Johnny Jackson, a linebacker, both earned post-season honors as members of the New Mexico defense which has been one of the toughest in the WAC in recent years. Another potential headliner will be quarterback Buddy Funck. He completed nearly 54 percent of his passes last year for 1,521 yards and five touchdowns. Returning on offense along with Funck are running backs Willie Turrall and Carl Raven, plus wide receiver Kenneth Whitehead and several offensive linemen. One of the defensive concerns is the lack of depth along the front line. Chuck Best, Lon Nunley, John Avila and Tom Bradford all saw lots of action last year in the trenches, but their backups are a question mark. Another area of potential worry for the coaches is the corner position, where both starters were lost to graduation. The Lobos' schedule is somewhat less demanding this year. Last season, they played Tennessee, Arkansas, Texas Tech and BYU, in addition to their other WAC games.

Conference: Western Athletic
Enrollment: 15,600
Colors: Orange, White and Blue
Stadium: Sun Bowl (53,000, Artificial turf)
Nickname: Miners
Offense: Multiple

Series Record With BYU: 16-5-1, BYU

1983 Record: 2-10

League Record, Standing: 0-8, 9th

1984 Outlook: Depth will be a problem for the Miners as Bill Yung begins his third year at UTEP. The offensive line appears solid but needs some backup help. A rebuilding area is the linebackers, where graduation took the WAC's defensive MVP, Raymond Morris, and Brian Kerr. Several starters return in the secondary, but, again, depth may be a problem. At quarterback there is a battle between Kevin Ward, Jay Cleveland and Sam Barza. Cleveland managed 834 yards passing while guiding the Miner offense last year, while Garza passed for 437 yards and four touchdowns. In all, 11 starters and 36 let-termen return for the Miners in 1984.

Coach Scovil

Location: San Diego, California
Conference: Western Athletic
Enrollment: 32,000
Colors: Scarlet and Black
Stadium: San Diego-Jack Murphy (53,208, Natural turf)
Nickname: Aztecs
Offense: Pro set
Defense: 3-4
Head Coach: Doug Scovil (Pacific '63) 4th year, 15-19-1

Series Record With BYU: 8-2, BYU

1983 Record: 2-9-1

League Record, Standing: 1-6-1, 8th

1984 Outlook: The Aztecs are coming off their poorest finish since 1960. And, although not promising a WAC title, SDSU Head Coach Doug Scovil suspects his team will be greatly improved in 1984. The key will be finding a suitable replacement for Mark McKay, the team's starting quarterback the past two years. Scovil also believes the Aztecs must solidify their defense and improve the consistency of the defensive line. The linebacking position appears to be the strength of the defense. On offense, the largest line in SDSU history could be one of the best by the end of the season. A pair of JC transfers will be counted on heavily at the wide receiver position. Another priority item will be getting the tight ends more involved in the offense with a number of redshirt candidates available there.

Location: Salt Lake City, Utah
Conference: Western Athletic
Enrollment: 24,000
Colors: Crimson and White
Stadium: Rice Stadium (35,000, Artificial turf)
Nickname: Utes

Series Record With BYU: 36-16-4, Utah

1983 Record: 5-6

League Record, Standing: 4-4, 6th (tie)

1984 Outlook: Head Coach Chuck Stobart is hoping the third time will be the charm for his Utes as he prepares for the 1984 season. He has reason for optimism since several of his key starters return. Tops on the list is quarterback Mark Stevens, who finished the 1983 season 12th in total offense (229.1). He can hurt teams passing (1,986 yards) or rushing (534 yards). Stevens will have a top receiver in Danny Huey (41 catches). The Utes feel their offensive line, with three starters returning, will be one of the toughest in the WAC. Eddie Lewis, last year's leading rusher, returns, but he'll be pushed for the job by several newcomers. Defensively, the Utes are strong at linebacker, where Mark Blossch is the anchor.

Free safety Reggie Richardson led the Utes in interceptions last year and will lead the secondary again this year. The big area of concern is the defensive line.

1983 Record: 5-6

League Record, Standing: 3-3

1984 Outlook: Head Coach Chris Pella is confident that his Aggies will improve on the 5-6 record of a year ago. He has an All-America candidate in outside linebacker Hall Garner, plus a couple of other honors candidates in defensive tackle Mike Hamby and two-time all-conference guard David Kuresa. Nine starters return on offense. Chico Canales, the starting quarterback, and split end Fred Fernandes have graduated. The quarterback battle will likely be between Doug Samuels, Gym Kimball, Kevin Nitzel and JC transfer Brad Ipsen. Six starters are back on defense. The kicking game will be strong, with Willie Beecher returning. He has hit 48 of 48 PATs and 28 of 40 field goals. The Aggies once again will have a tough schedule. Non-conference opponents include Southern Cal, Texas Christian, Arizona, Utah and BYU.

1983 in Review

1983 Season Summary

Leon White, a junior linebacker, will hold down a starting spot again this year.

At the conclusion of last year's football season, Coach LaVell Edwards set aside his policy of not comparing teams and called his 1983 Cougars the best team he has coached at BYU.

It was truly a season for superlatives. And as Cougar faithfuls look back on it, a number of things stand out.

*An 11-1 record. After losing a close opening game to Baylor in Waco, Texas, the Cougars reeled off 11 straight wins, including victories over top-20 teams UCLA and Air Force on the road.

*A big win in Holiday Bowl VI. The game was billed as Missouri's powerful defense against BYU's potent offense. The Cougars struggled offensively until they put together a 94-yard drive in the closing minutes of the game. Steve Young's catch of a halfback pass with just seconds left gave BYU a 21-17 victory.

*Two consensus All-Americans. For the first time in BYU's history, two players were named to every major All-America squad. Gordon Hudson, despite being injured for the last few games, repeated as All-America tight end. Steve Young was a unanimous pick for the quarterback position. Both players signed with the Los Angeles Express of the United States Football League.

*Top-10 finish. The seventh-place finish in the AP and UPI polls was the highest ever for BYU. The Cougars broke into the polls midway through the season and finally cracked the top 10 at the end of the season. The Holiday Bowl victory cemented the number-seven ranking.

*NCAA leaders. Once again, BYU led the nation in passing (381.2 yards per game) and total offense (584.2 yards per game—an NCAA record). The Cougars also finished second in scoring (44.0 points per game). Individually, Steve Young led the nation in total offense with an NCAA record 395.1 yards per game.

*Comebacks. Twice the Cougars made game-winning drives in the closing seconds of the game to snatch a victory from the claws of defeat. Besides the dramatic Holiday Bowl win, the Cougars squeaked past Utah State 38-34.

*Running game. Passing was not the only weapon in the Cougar arsenal. BYU surprised a lot of opponents with its strong rushing game. The Cougars averaged 203.3 yards per game on the ground.

*Defense. After a slow start in which it gave up a lot of points, BYU's defense stiffened toward the end of the season. No opponent scored more than 17 points the last four games of the season.

*All-WAC players. A total of seven Cougars made first-team All-WAC and another five were placed on the second team.

Listed below is a game-by-game summary of the 1983 season:

BAYLOR 40, BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY 36

Sept 10, 1983—evening game (88 degrees, clear and dry) in Baylor stadium (32,500)

Baylor alternated quarterbacks against BYU all evening, and took the initial lead in the game, 7-0, before the Cougars countered to make it 7-6. While Alfred Andersen rushed for 144 yards to lead the Bears, BYU quarterback Steve Young rushed for 113 yards. Young scored a pair of TDs on the ground as did Cougar running back Waymon Hamilton. Young's 113 yards rushing combined with his 351 yards passing set him off as the nation's total offense leader. Baylor's speed merchant receivers got behind BYU's secondary twice to account for TD strikes, but the Cougars nearly pulled off a coup with less than a minute remaining in the game. Baylor batted down BYU's final three passes with the Cougars on the Bear 30-yard line. Now 0-1 for the season.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY 63, BOWLING GREEN 28

Sept. 17, 1983—afternoon game (83 degrees, clear) in Cougar Stadium (64,659)

The nation's leading passing teams collided in a game which seemed to take forever to play. BYU's Steve Young and the Falcon's Brian McClure completed 30 passes apiece, but Young's tosses went for five touchdowns and 384 yards, while McClure threw two TDs and had 362 yards passing. Another difference: McClure being sacked seven times to three times for Young. Young was tagged with his first interception of the season when a Falcon defender snared a bobbled pass and raced 80 yards for a TD. Although Bowling Green netted 419 yards total offense, the Falcons didn't light up the scoreboard in the fashion of BYU's 592 yards total offense. Cougars are now 1-1.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY 46, AIR FORCE ACADEMY 28

Sept. 24, 1983—afternoon game (74 degrees, partly cloudy) in Falcon Stadium (34,255)

Billed during the pre-season as THE game in the WAC to determine the champion, BYU jumped out to a 6-0 lead on a pair of Lee Johnson field goals before the Cougar offense got rolling. By the end of the game Steve Young and Gordon Hudson tallied the bulk of the Cougar offensive yards. Young connected with Hudson for a 63-yard TD, the longest of the season between the two. Hudson totaled 12 catches for 172 yards and two TDs. Young established two NCAA benchmarks for the '83 season with 39 completions and 486 yards passing. He attempted 49 passes, had three TD passes, no interceptions and netted minus five yards on the ground for his lowest rushing output of the year. Casey Tiumalu netted 119 yards rushing, and BYU is now 2-1 for the season.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY 37, UCLA 35

Oct. 1, 1983—afternoon game (68 degrees, partly cloudy) in the Rose Bowl (50,044)

This was the only time during the '83 regular season when BYU appeared on network television (ESPN) and the Cougars made good of that opportunity. Running back Casey Tiumalu was like a bowling ball on the muddy field as he rambled for 137 yards. UCLA was 0-2-1 coming into the game, but a BYU victory vaulted the Cougars into the nation's top 20 wire service rankings. UCLA QB Steve Bono started for the first time and passed for 399 yards and three TDs, but was sacked eight times by the BYU defense, most notably by Cougar tackle Jim Herrmann, and linebackers Todd Shell and Leon White. The Cougars staved off a late fourth quarter rally by the Bruins, too. BYU's record is now 3-1 for the year.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY 41, WYOMING 10

Oct. 8, 1983—afternoon game (60 degrees, slight wind, fair weather) in War Memorial Stadium (31,084)

Wyoming jumped off to a 7-0 lead before its largest crowd ever, thanks to a 50-yard gallop by tailback Mike Wiedeman who scored on the next play to light up Wyoming's new scoreboard. BYU running back Waymon Hamilton tied a Cougar career touchdown scoring record with two rushing TDs. Gordon Hudson and Lee Johnson also set NCAA records against the Cowboys.

Hudson's 100 yards from seven catches put him over the career yardage mark (NCAA) by a tight end. And Johnson punted five times for a 60.4-yard average—an NCAA record for a single game. His 80-yard punt was a new BYU school record. Wyoming Coach Al Kincaid was quoted saying "To be honest, it was an old fashioned kicking. There is the Big 10, and the Big 8 and the Big One, BYU." BYU is now 4-1 for the season.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY 66, NEW MEXICO 21

Oct. 15, 1983—afternoon game (59 degrees, clear) in Cougar Stadium (64,740)

It didn't take New Mexico long to get a 7-0 lead in the first quarter, but thereafter, the game belonged to the Cougars. On BYU's first possession tailback Eddie Stinnett ran a sweep for 71 yards to tie the score. Wide receiver Kirk Pendleton tied a WAC record with four TD catches, three from Steve Young and one from Stinnett on a halfback pass. Reserve quarterback Robbie Bosco also had a good day, going six-for-six, 128 yards passing and a TD. BYU completed passes to 12 different receivers, had nine different rushers and had three different passers. The 777 offensive yards tallied by the Cougars was a new WAC record. BYU record now stands at 5-1.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY 47, SAN DIEGO STATE 12

Oct. 22, 1983—afternoon game (85 degrees, sunny, light haze) at Jack Murphy Stadium (20,517)

San Diego State took the opening kickoff and drove 80 yards in five minutes to take a 6-0 lead. BYU countered on the next drive when Steve Yong executed a bootleg and scored. Tight end Gordon Hudson missed a lot of playing time because of a concussion and dehydration. The only Cougar miscue was a bobbled field goal attempt in the first half. SDSU's Jim Sandusky did penetrate the Cougar defense for 11 catches, 93 yards and the lone Aztec passing TD. BYU's standout receiver was Glen Kozlowski who caught nine acrobatic catches for 188 yards. The 497 yards by Steve Young was his highest total offensive output of the season. Casey Tiumalu had 105 yards rushing. BYU record now stands at 6-1.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY 38, UTAH STATE 34

Oct. 29, 1983—afternoon game (65 degrees, clear and warm) in Cougar Stadium (64,593)

Perhaps BYU's most rugged contest and most costly, too. Tight end Gordon Hudson (knee) and wide receiver Mike Eddo (broken clavicle) were both injured in the first half and lost for the remainder of the regular season. BYU drew first blood with a 50-yard field goal by Lee Johnson, but the Aggies bounced back to take a 21-17 halftime advantage. Quarterback Steve Young was also injured in the first half with a concussion and reserve Robbie Bosco drove the Cougars to a TD score on the series Young missed. After the Cougar defense forced USU to punt in the fourth quarter, Young drove BYU 67 yards in the game's final two minutes and rushed for the winning TD with 0:11 on the clock. Cougar record is now 7-1.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY 31, UTEP 9

Nov. 5, 1983—evening game (64 degrees, cloudy) in the Sun Bowl (15,487)

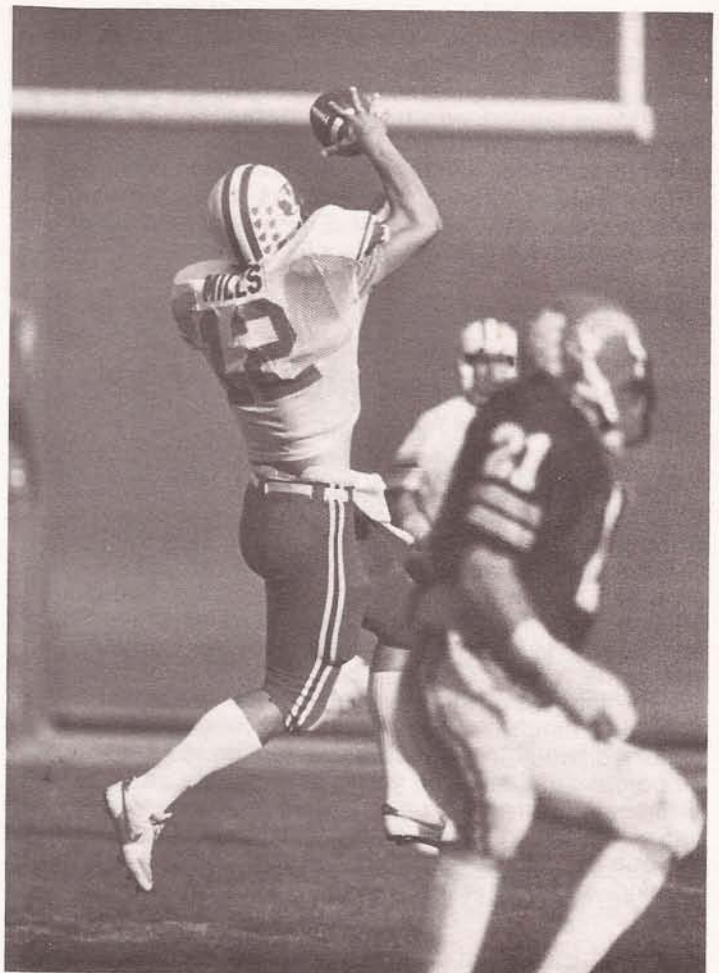

On the opening drive of the game UTEP marched for a touchdown, but missed the extra point to record a 6-0 lead on it's new scoreboard. BYU tied the score two possessions later when Steve Young took a step back from the line and split a seam in the sagging Miner defense with a quick 42-yard TD strike to wide receiver Glen Kozlowski. BYU's kicking game was erratic, going one for four in field goals. Young danced for a 15-yard TD run for the only score of the second half. BYU record is now 8-1.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY 24, COLORADO STATE 6

Nov. 12, 1983—afternoon game (54 degrees, cloudy) in Cougar Stadium (64,651)

BYU sewed up its eighth straight WAC crown by eliminating the last contender, CSU. What was supposed to be an offensive showcase for the two teams turned out to feature the BYU defense that nearly shutout CSU. The Cougar defense picked off three interceptions and recorded five quarterback sacks. Casey Tiumalu had his fourth 100-plus rushing day of the season. BYU's offense sputtered at times, fumbling twice within the 10-yard line and had three of four field goal attempts go awry. Cougars are now 9-1 with one game remaining.

David Mills played in the shadows of Gordon Hudson and Steve Harper but should see lots of action this year.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY 55, UTAH 7

Nov. 19, 1983—afternoon game (39 degrees, cloudy, cool) in Cougar Stadium (65,215)

Before the largest crowd ever to watch a sporting event in Utah, the Cougars took full advantage of Ute mistakes. The first of five interceptions by BYU's defense stopped a Utah first quarter scoring drive to turn the pendulum. Defensive corner Jon Young grabbed that first interception and added a second theft in the third quarter to quell Utah touchdown efforts. Cougar quarterback Steve Young had only three incomplete passes in three quarters of play and left the game with an incredible six touchdown passes for 268 yards and a completion percentage of .880 (22 of 25 passes). Defensive tackle Brandon Flint recovered a pair of fumbles, and running back Casey Tiumalu rushed for 89 yards and caught seven passes. BYU now 10-1 overall and 7-0 in the WAC.

Cougar Bowl History

Holiday Bowl VI

Yet another chapter was added to the saga of impossible, thrilling Holiday Bowl finishes when BYU defeated Missouri 21-17 last year.

The game was billed as a classic matchup between Missouri's stubborn defense and BYU's explosive offense. Steve Young had led BYU to a record-setting offensive output during the '83 season, while Missouri had stifled most of the high-powered offenses of the Big 8.

For most of the game, the defenses were in control. Missouri held BYU to just 167 yards of total offense in the first half and gave up only one touchdown to the Cougars. But BYU's defense wasn't giving up much either, allowing the Tigers only 157 yards of offense and 10 points in the first half.

Missouri got its early points with 7:12 left in the first quarter when Eric Drain scored on a two-yard run. Brad Burditt added the extra point to give the Tigers a 7-0 advantage.

The Cougars evened the score with 11:50 left in the half when Steve Young scored on a 10-yard quarterback draw play and Lee Johnson added the PAT. But the score didn't stay tied long. Burditt kicked a 37-yard field goal with 3:43 left in the half to give the Tigers a 10-7 halftime lead.

BYU struck first in the second half on a scoring pass of 33 yards from Young to Eddie Stinnett. But Missouri countered with another two-yard plunge by Drain.

With Missouri leading 17-14 and time running out, things began to get exciting. The Tigers began a long drive that resulted in a fourth-and-one situation on the six-yard line. BYU's defense dug in and stopped Drain short of the first down.

BYU's offense took over with 3:57 left in the game and 94 yards between them and victory. Young completed several key passes to advance the Cougars to the Missouri 25, but a sack put BYU in a fourth-and-10 situation. The All-American quarterback then hit Waymon Hamilton in the flat for barely enough yardage for the first down.

On the next play, Young pitched the ball to Stinnett, who faked a sweep and lofted the ball back to Young. Missouri's Bobby Bell nearly intercepted the pass, but Young made the grab and raced into the end zone, giving BYU a 21-17 lead with only 23 seconds left in the game.

Missouri's desperation pass was picked off by BYU's Kyle Morrell, and the Cougars evened their Holiday Bowl record at 3-3.

Young ended the game 24 of 36 passing for 314 yards and three interceptions. Casey Tiumalu picked up 57 yards rushing for the Cougars. Missouri's Eric Drain had 115 yards on 27 carries. Marlon Adler, the Tiger quarterback, completed 3 of 9 passes before being injured in the third quarter. Warren Seitz was 4 of 7 for 49 yards as his replacement.

Steve Young's catch of a halfback pass and subsequent touchdown gave BYU another dramatic Holiday Bowl victory.

HOLIDAY BOWL V, 1982

Ohio State 47, BYU 17

Dec. 17, San Diego, Calif.

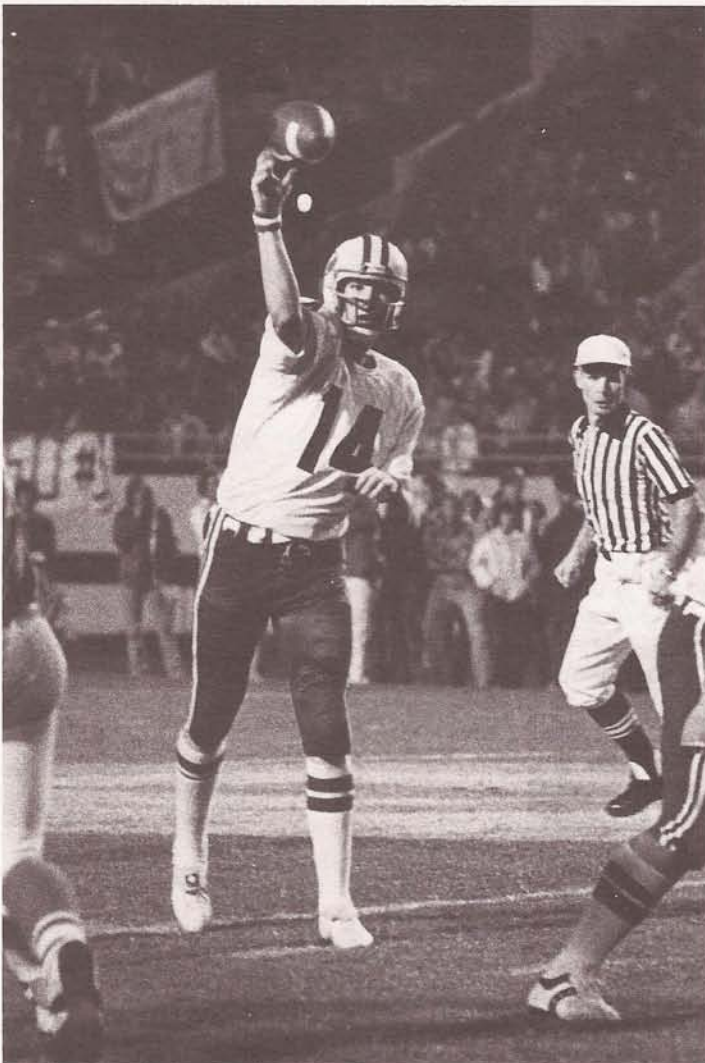

The Cougars had their two-game Holiday Bowl win streak snapped by Ohio State, 47-17, in a game that took the fun out of a usually raucous affair in San Diego. The BYU bubble burst at the outset of the third quarter when the Buckeyes reeled off 17 unanswered points, while BYU only got one snap . . . an interception at that. The OSU damage came mainly on the ground as Buckeye runners rolled up 329 yards en route to their seventh consecutive win. Tim Spencer was the main gun for the Bucks as he blew through the Cougar defense for 167 yards, including a record-setting 61-yard touchdown run in the second quarter that put OSU up 10-7. As usual, the BYU quarterback rolled up impressive marks, but the Cougars had trouble making points out of Steve Young's 341 yards passing on 27 of 45 accuracy. The Cougars turned the ball over to OSU three times inside the 30 and saw the Bucks convert each turnover into a score. The Cougars' two touchdowns were at each end of the game, with the first, a seven-yard strike to Neil Balholm coming in the opening quarter and the final tally a 16-yard Young-to-Hudson connection in the final stanza. In the fifth of an ongoing series of thrillers, BYU gave up the breaks and got a taste of the Big 10 elite.

HOLIDAY BOWL IV, 1981

BYU 38, Washington State 36

Dec. 18, San Diego, Calif.

Has there ever been a dull Holiday Bowl? Well, the 1981 edition fit the mold, and this time it found the two teams with Cougar mascots—BYU of the WAC and Washington State from the Pac-10—clawing away at each other before a crowd of 52,419. Again, it was like two different games. BYU held a 24-7 lead at half-time, then pushed the score to 31-7 as Tom Holmoe intercepted a pass and returned it 35 yards to give the WAC team a comfortable 31-7 edge. But as the second half progressed, it appeared BYU would be the come-from-behind victim in this one. With only 59 seconds left in the third period, WSU brought the score to 31-28, and from there the team from Provo had to hold on for its life. In a crucial third-and-12 situation on BYU's 18 yard line with 30-seconds remaining in the third period, McMahon began completing passes that covered 82 yards and put BYU in the end zone again to stretch the lead to 38-28. Statistically, it was a typical McMahon game: 27 of 43 with no interceptions, 342 yards and three touchdowns. But he will be remembered most, perhaps, for turning a fumbled snap into a carry for a first down. Tight end Gordon Hudson had seven receptions for 126 yards and a TD. WSU's first bowl appearance in over 50 years. BYU finished with an 11-2 overall record.

Gifford Nielsen had a good game in the 1976 Tangerine Bowl, but the Cougars lost 49-21 to Oklahoma State.

HOLIDAY BOWL III, 1980

BYU 46, Southern Methodist 45

Dec. 19, San Diego, Calif.

One pundit said the 1980 Holiday Bowl III was actually two ball games—the first a contest that lasted for most of four quarters, the other that was of four minutes duration. SMU seemed in control the first game, while the Cougars, behind 20 points with only minutes remaining, surged to a stunning 46-45 win. Unfortunately, many fans either turned off their TV sets or left the stadium in San Diego before the "second game" began. For 56 minutes, SMU taught the Cougars a lesson in running the football. In fact, the Mustang's two great runners, Craig James and Eric Dickerson, rushed for a combined total of 335 yards. With 4:07 remaining in the game, the score was 45-25, SMU. From there, the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an onside kick, a one-yard scamper by Scott Phillips, a blocked punt by Bill Schoepflin, and finally (with three seconds left on the clock) the "Hail Mary" pass of 46 yards from Jim McMahon to Clay Brown after time had expired. That tied the score, but Kurt Gunther's extra point sent BYU fans streaming onto the field. Statistically, McMahon completed 32 of 49 attempts for 446 yards. It may have been the most exciting bowl game ever, but one had to be there to feel the impact.

HOLIDAY BOWL II, 1979

Indiana 38, BYU 37

Dec. 21, San Diego, Calif.

The 1979 season ended with BYU leading the nation in three major categories: scoring, passing, and total offense. Moreover, the Cougars were one of the few undefeated, untied teams in the nation with an 11-0 mark. Those kinds of credentials, plus their national ranking in the polls (9th in UPI and AP), made the Mountain Cats favorites over the at-large entry, Indiana. It was BYU's first-ever meeting with a Big Ten school, and the net result was one of the most exciting bowl games of the season. The opportunistic Hoosiers played BYU even in the first quarter, then carried a 21-17 lead at the half. BYU spurred ahead in the third period, 34-31, on a 15-yard pass from All-American Marc Wilson to fullback Eric Lane. But midway through the fourth quarter, Indiana's Tim Wilber returned a punt 62 yards to push the Hoosiers ahead, 38-37. With 2:06 remaining, the Cougars moved the ball 69 yards to the Indiana 10-yard line. Then, with 11 seconds left on the clock, Brent Johnson missed a 27-yard field goal that would have made the score 40-38. Marc Wilson was voted the MVP on offense (28-of-43 for 380 yards), and Indiana's cornerback Tim Wilber won the honor on defense. Attendance: 52,200.

HOLIDAY BOWL, 1978

Navy 23, BYU 16

Dec. 22, San Diego, Calif.

The inaugural game of the Holiday Bowl pitted two teams with local drawing power, the Naval Academy and Brigham Young University. Despite chilly temperatures (for San Diego, that is), the two teams engaged in a hard-hitting battle. The Cougars had a 16-3 lead at one point, even though the score was 9-3 at the end of the first half. Defense dominated the first two quarters. Brent Johnson put the Cougars on the scoreboard first with a 33-yard field goal with 8:26 left in the first quarter. But Navy's Bob Tata boomed through a 40-yard field goal to tie the score at 3-3. Jim McMahon sent the Cougars ahead with a 10-yard pass to Mike Chronister, but Johnson missed the extra point. McMahon ran another in from two yards out in the third period before the Middies took charge. Navy scored two field goals in the fourth quarter, but it was a 65-yard pass to Phil McConkey that did the Cougars in. Some 48,003 witnessed the game in person. McConkey was named Best Offensive Player, BYU's Tom Enlow won Best Defensive Player honors for the game. Navy finished the year with 9-3 record, BYU with 9-4 mark.

TANGERINE BOWL 1976

Oklahoma State 49, BYU 21

Dec. 18, Orlando, Florida

Powerful Oklahoma State, sparked by All-American Terry Miller (173 yards rushing on 23 carries), used four pass interceptions and a fumble recovery to capture the Tangerine Bowl contest. Defensively, the Cowboys yielded only 46 yards rushing. The Cougars, however, stayed close in the first half, which ended 28-14. But Dave Lowry returned the second-half kickoff 102 yards (a Tangerine Bowl record) to bring the score to 21-28. The crowd of 37,812 fans saw the two teams roll up 70 points between them. Quarterback Gifford Nielsen completed 23 of 34 passes for 209 yards and one touchdown, but the Cougars could only roll up 255 total yards to 402 for OSU. BYU's record was 9-2 prior to the Tangerine Bowl game.

FIESTA BOWL 1974

Oklahoma State 16, BYU 6

Dec. 28, Tempe, Arizona

Competing in their first post-season bowl game ever, BYU played Western Athletic Conference host to the Cowboys of Oklahoma State before a crowd of 50,878. The Cougars got off to a quick start with two field goals during the first quarter before All-WAC quarterback Gary Sheide was injured in the last moments of the first quarter. He was replaced by junior reserve Mark Giles. The Cowboys took the scoring lead during the second quarter on a TD run around left end, so the halftime score was OSU 7, BYU 6. OSU regained possession of the ball on the Cougars' 17 yard line after intercepting a Giles-to-Tom Toolson pass, but was unable to convert on the turnover. A field goal from 32 yards out put the Cowboys in front 10-7 at the end of the third quarter. With 1:14 remaining in the game, OSU scored another TD on a 40-yard halfback pass to complete the scoring. The Cougars outgained the Cowboys in total yardage 301 to 214. Giles was 11 out of 26 for 138 yards. BYU's record was 7-3-1 prior to the Fiesta Bowl.

Holiday Bowl VII

After only six years, the Holiday Bowl in San Diego has emerged as one of the most attractive and exciting post-season bowl games in the country, known for its whirlwind offensive attacks and last-second heroics. All of the games to date have featured the BYU Cougars against a powerful at-large team.

Holiday Bowl VII will be played at San Diego's Jack Murphy Stadium on Friday, Dec. 21. Kickoff is set for 6 p.m. Pacific time. The winner of the Western Athletic Conference will play an at-large team selected by a Holiday Bowl committee.

A crowd of 51,480 watched last year's exciting game between the BYU Cougars and the Missouri

Tigers. This year, Jack Murphy Stadium has been expanded to seat 60,000. The increased seating capacity, plus a television contract, should keep team payoffs above the $412,000 received by each of last year's participating schools.

All but one Holiday Bowl game have been decided in the closing moments of the game, prompting the Bowl to adopt the slogan, "The Holiday Bowl: America's Most Exciting Bowl Game."

Only Holiday Bowl V, featuring BYU against powerful Ohio State, was not a cliffhanger. The Buckeyes beat BYU 47-17. In the other five games, the winning margin has been by a total of 15 points.

BYU's record in the Holiday Bowl is even at 3-3.

A Historical View

With all the success BYU's football team has enjoyed in recent years, it is difficult at times to remember the years when the Cougars were struggling to become a football power.

But it hasn't been too many years ago that BYU fans classified a team "great" if it managed a winning season or stayed within a few touchdowns of the in-state rivals. Most of the success has come since 1972, when LaVell Edwards took control of the program.

In the 12 short years Edwards has served as coach, BYU has won 105 games. In the entire pre-LaVell era of BYU football, the Cougars managed only 171 victories and had only 16 winning seasons.

Football at BYU got its beginning in 1922. That first season, BYU won only one game and scored a total of 10 points during the season. Now, sixty-plus years later, BYU is traditionally one of the nation's leaders in scoring and offense.

It was near the turn of the century when football had its origin at BYU, but a fatality prompted its discontinuance. The game returned in 1922, and, minus three years during World War II, the Cougars have played a total of 58 seasons. BYU initially joined ranks with the old Rocky Mountain Conference and later became part of the Mountain States, Skyline and Western Athletic Conferences.

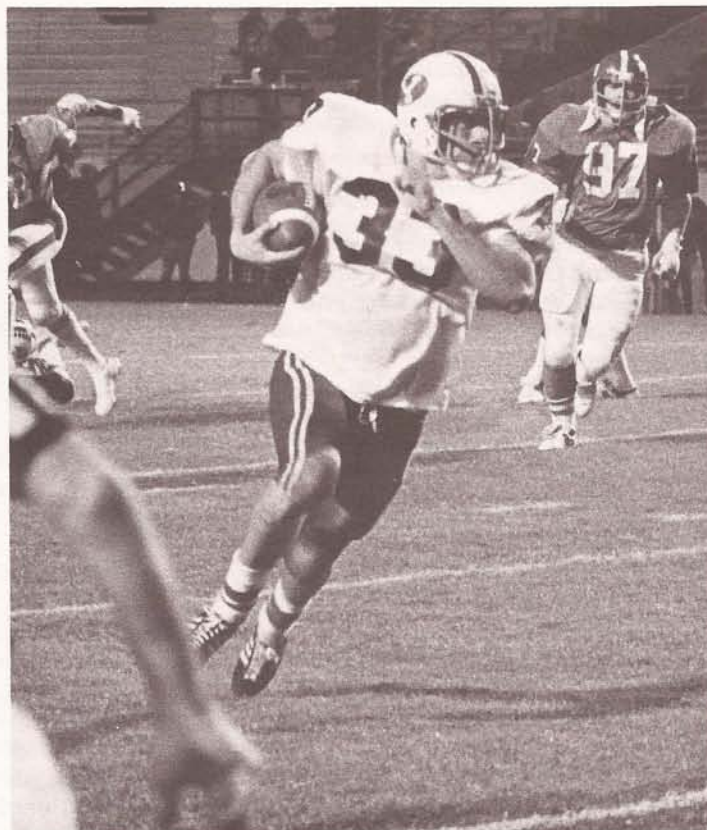

Some of the more noted athletes who have helped propel BYU into the national limelight have been quarterbacks. Virgil Carter (1966), Gary Sheide (1974), Gifford Nielsen (1976), Marc Wilson (1979), Jim McMahon (1981) and Steve Young (1983) have all left their mark on BYU's record books. The last four were named All-American quarterbacks, and each one seemed to erase marks set by his predecessor. McMahon and Wilson were third-place finishers in the Heisman Trophy balloting, while Steve Young finished second. Both Young and McMahon were recipients of the Davey O'Brien Award, given to the outstanding collegiate quarterback.

While passing has been the name of the game at BYU in recent years, there have also been some impressive runningbacks. Eldon "The Phantom" Fortie (1961-62), a single-wing back, won All-America honors in 1962. "Fleet Pete" VanValkenburg (1970-71) led the nation in rushing his senior year and was second-team All-America. Fullback John Ogden (1964-66) was the leading rusher in the WAC for three consecutive years. And fullback Todd Christensen (1975-77) did such a good job running with and catching the football that he later became an all-pro tight end. He was the leading receiver on BYU's team for three years.

A good passing team must have good personnel on the offensive line, and BYU has had its share of honors recipients in that area. Gordon Gravelle (1970), Paul Howard (1972), Brad Oates (1973-75), Orrin Olsen (1972-75), Tom Bell (1974-79) and Bart Oates (1977-82) are just a few standouts.

There also have been several outstanding tight ends at BYU, most recently Clay Brown (1978-80) and Gordon Hudson (1980-83).

Top defensive players include Wayne Baker

Todd Christensen, an all-star fullback at BYU, became an all-pro tight end.

(1972-74), Paul Linford (1972-74), Mekeli Ieremia (1975-77), Glen Titensor (1978-80), Glen Redd (1976-80), Kyle Whittingham (1979-81) and Todd Shell (1980-83).

At various times in the last 15 years, the Cougars have had some great return specialists. Chris Farasopoulos (1968-70), the Galloping Greek, led the nation in punt returns and set two NCAA records. And Golden Richards (1970-71) is still listed as a holder of several NCAA records.

For Home Game Coverage

Requests for press box and photographers credentials should be made no later than a week prior to the game. These credentials will be issued to working members of the media only. Requests should be directed to the SID office, C-275 ASB, Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah, 84602.

Stadium Location, Parking

BYU's Stadium is located on the northwest corner of the campus, just off Canyon Road and University Parkway (1430 North) in Provo. Press parking is in Lot #2, immediately west of the stadium. Parking for the media will also be issued on request.

Press Box

Two elevators (south tower) on the press box side (west) of the stadium are available for those with press credentials. The main press deck (radio, press, etc.) is on the third level, while television and game film crews will be located on level four.

Press Box Services

Several telephones (campus extensions) will be available in the main area of the press box. In the past we have had sufficient telephones to meet the needs of the media. However, if guaranteed availability is desired, visitors may wish to order their own telephones.

One or two telecopiers will also be available on a first-come first-serve basis, and the press box staff will be glad to assist in the transmitting of copy and statistics.

Post-Game and Locker Room Interviews

With five minutes remaining on the game clock, press box representatives from both teams will take the media by elevator to the ground level for post-game interviews with the coaches and players. Locker room passes will be issued before leaving the press box, and there will be the usual mandatory 10-minute cooling off period before entering the dressing room. For those unable to get to the locker room, quotes from both coaches will be available as soon after the game as possible.
