COUGAR FOOTBALL

2014 BYU FOOTBALL PREVIEW

OFFENSE

Status: Up and coming

Last year, Robert Anae and the BYU staff morphed the offense to a fast-paced system that produced the No. 14 total offense in the nation and the 10th-best rushing offense, including two 1,000-yard rushers in QB Taysom Hill and RB Jamaal Williams. One of the nation's top talents, Hill is poised to have a strong junior season leading the Cougars' up-tempo attack.

The fast-paced system took time to develop but could be firing on all cylinders in 2014 with a year's worth of experience for the returning offensive corps. Hill and Williams are among eight returning starters, including the entire backfield and offensive line. The offense needs to replace starters at receiver and tight end.

The Cougars have to replace their all-time leading receiver Cody Hoffman but boast a talented corps of candidates. In addition to those returning, transfers Nick Kurtz, Jordan Leslie, Devon Blackmon and Keanu Nelson will make for strong competition.

DEFENSE

Status: New faces, same defense

Four BYU players from 2013 participated at the NFL combine this February — only three college programs had more defensive players invited. Among those players are the BYU current-era single-season leading tackler in Uani 'Unga and one of the most versatile defensive players in Cougar history in Kyle Van Noy.

Although the Cougars need to replace those high-caliber players, head coach Bronco Mendenhall has a proven record of keeping up a nationally ranked defense, with the players who suit up on Saturdays. His teams especially excel at keeping opponents out of the end zone, averaging a No. 20 scoring-defense ranking over the past eight seasons. Seniors Craig Bills (safety) and Alani Fua (linebacker) lead a group of six returning starters from last year and a seventh, corner back Jordan Johnson, who missed last season due to injury. With the 12th-ranked yards-per-play defense in 2013, Mendenhall should keep the Cougars in the national conversation as a dominant defense.

QUARTERBACK

Status: Star potential

With 4,282 yards of total offense and 29 touchdowns (10 rush, 19 pass), Taysom Hill was one of the most dynamic players in college football last year. He started in every game of 2013 and has already been touted among the best players in the country entering his junior season.

Others in spring: Senior Christian Stewart enters 2014 with a year of BYU experience. and is the clear-cut backup to Hill. Freshman Hunter Moore joined the competition mid-year.

Looking ahead to fall: McCoy Hill adds his 6-foot-5 frame to the mix after returning from a mission.

RUNNING BACK

Status: Locked and loaded

BYU returns one of the most productive running backs in school history in Jamaal Williams. The junior amassed 1,233 rushing yards last season despite missing nearly two full games and is the clear leader at the running back position.

Others in spring: Senior Paul Lasike and sophomore Algie Brown are big backs expected to again make big contributions. Nate Carter received more experience in spring.

Looking ahead to fall: Junior Adam Hine and sophomore AJ Moore missed spring rehabbing from injuries but are expected to contribute to a strong running back corps.

WIDE RECEIVER

Status: New and old

After losing the best statistical receiver in BYU history in Cody Hoffman, the Cougars look to improve at receiver with better depth and overall talent. Highly touted JC transfer Nick Kurtz (6-6) and sophomore speedster Michael Davis, who returned to receiver after playing defensive back last season, both added their talents to the offense in spring.

Others in spring: Junior Kurt Henderson, who saw game action for the Cougars last year, along with sophomore Colby Pearson, received a lot of reps at receiver this spring.

Looking ahead to fall: Senior Ross Apo and junior Mitch Mathews return after rehabbing injuries during the spring, bringing starting experience to the receiving corps. The duo accounted for seven touchdowns in 2013 despite neither playing in all 13 games. Both will challenge for starting roles and are expected to be strong contributors in 2014.

Also joining the team will be transfers Devon Blackmon, Jordan Leslie and Keanu Nelson, and recruit Trey Dye. Blackmon, a speedster, comes via the JC route after a stop at Oregon, while Nelson, from Stanford and Leslie, an all-conference wideout from UTEP, come to BYU for their final season in 2014. Leslie was recently named one of the 14 most explosive athletes in college football by NFL.com

TIGHT END/INSIDE RECEIVER

Status: Up for grabs

Devin Mahina has the most experience at the tight end position and looks to be the starter at after spring. Junior Terenn Houk impressed at inside receiver in spring.

Others in spring: Sophomores Mitchell Jurgens, Trevis Frey and junior Chase Frei improved their stock during spring. At tight end, sophomore Bryan Sampson Looking ahead to fall: Senior Brett Thompson started two games in 2013 at inside receiver but missed most of spring practices. Matt Sumsion was also rehabbing after returning from his mission while returning missionary Colby Jorgensen will join the tight ends in the fall. Leslie could also see time at inside receiver.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Status: Returning and improving

Eleven different players started on the offensive line last season and 10 are returning. Seniors Edward Fusi, De'Ondre Wesley, Michael Yeck, Solomon Kafu and Brock Stringham provide a strong base of experience in the up-tempo system which should serve the Cougars well in 2014.

Others in spring: Redshirt freshman Tuni Kanuch, Utah's Mr. Football as OL at Bingham HS, had a strong spring on offense after missing last year following a fall camp injury while playing defensive tackle. Returned missionary Ului Lapuaho also impressed in spring.

Looking ahead to fall: Junior Ryker Mathews and sophomore Brayden Kearsley both missed most of spring but are expected to contribute in the fall. Returning missionaries Corbin Kaufusi and Manu Mulitalo join the mix along with new recruit Tejan Koroma.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Status: Better depth

With Bronson Kaufusi moving to linebacker junior Remington Peck is the lone starter returning, but several experienced returners will add significant depth.

ADAM HINE

MITCH

PAUL LASIKE

MICHAEL

ROB DANIEL

Others in spring: Experienced returned missionaries Graham Rowley and Travis Tuiloma along with Kesni Tausinga impressed in spring and showed they could earn starting nods. Also competing are RM freshman Tanner Baldersee, sophomore Theodore King and converted offensive lineman senior Josh Carter.

Looking ahead to fall: Senior Marques Johnson, who saw a lot of time at backup nose tackle last year but missed spring is another experienced returning lineman from the 2013 squad. Logan Taele and Tomasi Laulile return from injury while freshman recruit Jaterrius Gulley also arrives in the fall.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKER

Status: Talented fresh faces
BYU has the tough task of replacing two-time All-American Kyle Van Noy. Alani Fua, a 6-5, 228-pound athlete who had 63 tackles, three sacks, two interceptions and 10 pass break-ups in 2013 moves to the strong-side backer position. Bronson Kaufusi, last year's starting right end on the defensive line, will move to the Will to help fill the void left by Van Noy.

Others in spring: Sophomores Sae Tautu, DJ Doman and Jordan Egbert saw time this spring at linebacker.

Looking ahead to fall: Medical redshirt senior Michael Alisa, who originally played linebacker as a freshman but has been a running back for the past three seasons, will return to the outside backer spot. Highly touted incoming freshmen Fred Warner and Tyler Cook and returning missionary freshman Troy Hinds add their up-and-coming star potential to the competition in the fall.

INSIDE LINEBACKER

Status: Next man up
The Cougars lose Uani 'Unga, who holds the current-era record for most tackles in a single season at BYU, and senior Spencer Hadley. Juniors Manoa Pikula is a proven player and expected starter at Buck. Jherremya Leuta-Douyere saw time at OLB last year and will be counted upon more heavily in 2014.

Others in spring: Zac Stout, returned to the team after a year absence, and Austin Heder, back from a mission, both have the ability to earn a starting role at the Mike position.

Looking ahead to fall: Teu Kautai and Toloai Ho Ching return after rehabbing injuries during spring and Phillip Amone returns from a mission. New recruit Sione Takitaki has the talent to contribute right away.

SCOTT ARELLANO

MARQUES JOHNSON

CORNERBACK

Status: Shuffled and improved
Of the returning cornerbacks, Rob Daniel is the most consistent starter last year with 12 starts at field corner. He moved to boundary corner this spring. Junior Trent Trammel, who hurt his knee in spring last year and missed the entire season, proved this spring he has the ability to be a major contributor.

Others in spring: Junior Trevor Bateman, redshirt freshman Jordan Preator, mid-year freshman Michael Shelton and sophomore Garrett Juergens saw time on the field in spring.

Looking ahead to fall: Jordan Johnson, a 2012 starter, missed 2013 with a knee injury, but is expected to start at field corner again in 2014. Redshirt junior Sam Lee rejoins the mix once finished rehabbing from injuries.

SAFETY

Status: Prepared to lead
Senior free safety starter Craig Bills is back after recording 78 tackles (2nd on the team) and two interceptions (tied for 1st). He only missed one start due to a concussion and will be the anchor for BYU's secondary at either safety position.

Others in spring: Bills seeing time at KAT in spring allowed senior Skye PoVey and sophomore Dallin Leavitt to move from CB to free safety. Sophomore Kai Nacua will be a solid backup for Bills. Notre Dame transfer sophomore Chris Badger and juniors Drew Reilly and Michael Wadsworth will also compete.

Looking ahead to fall: Nebraska transfer Harvey Jackson and new recruit Kavika Fonua join the safety competition in August.

SPECIALISTS

Status: 50/50
In the kicking game, senior starter Scott Arellano returns as the team's punter. Gone is kicker Justin Sorensen, BYU's single-season leader for made field goals. His replacement will likely come from sophomore Moose Bingham, senior Trevor Samson or freshman returned missionary Corey Edwards, who is coming in the fall.

Adam Hine and Paul Lasike shared the load on kick returns last year, helping BYU rank No. 11 in the nation in that category. The duo is back in action again this season.

BYU will need to find a replacement for JD Falslev who handled punt returns for the past few seasons. Twin brothers Garrett and Mitchell Juergens are a couple early candidates from spring practice to fill the void.

WORTH NOTING

EXCLUSIVE COMPANY

- BYU is among the most consistent winners in all of college football over the past four decades. Only three programs have won more games than BYU over the past 40 seasons (Nebraska 389, Oklahoma 368 and Ohio State 362). BYU is tied for fourth with 353 victories over the past 40 seasons along with Michigan and Florida State.
- BYU has a proven record of elite-level success that includes winning the 1984 National Championship. The Cougars boast seven members of the College Football Hall of Fame and 15 major individual national awards, including a Heisman Trophy winner, seven Sammy Baugh Trophy recipients, four Davey O'Brien Award honorees, two Outland Trophy winners and a Doak Walker Award recipient.
- BYU and Penn State are the only schools in the nation to boast winners of the Heisman Trophy, Outland Trophy, Doak Walker Award, Davey O'Brien Award and Sammy Baugh Trophy.
- BYU is one of only six schools in the nation to have a player win the Heisman Trophy for the nation's top player, Outland Trophy for the nation's best interior lineman, Davey O'Brien Award for the nation's best quarterback and Doak Walker Award for the nation's top running back, joining Texas, Ohio State, Penn State, Iowa and Boston College. BYU and Ohio State are the only programs that have had players win all those awards in the past 25 years.

NATIONAL RANKINGS

- BYU's defense under Coach Mendenhall excels at keeping opponents out of the end zone, averaging a No. 20 national ranking in scoring defense over the past eight seasons, including three top-10 ratings.
- BYU has 18 Top-25 finishes while being nationally ranked during 31 of last 40 seasons. BYU has been nationally ranked during seven of nine seasons under Bronco Mendenhall, with five Top-25 finishes.
- BYU is one of 22 programs to finish in the Top 25 at least five times over the past nine seasons. The Cougars are one of 17 programs to be ranked in the final USA Today Coaches Poll in five of last eight seasons.

UNDER BRONCO MENDENHALL

- Head coach Bronco Mendenhall has guided BYU to an 82-34 record in nine years to move BYU from No. 7 in total wins (dating back to the 40-year starting point in 1974) at 277 entering his first season in 2005 to No. 4 in total wins with 353 over the past four decades.
- Head coach Bronco Mendenhall took over the program coming off three straight losing seasons in 2005 and has averaged 9.1 wins per season to achieve an 82-34 record (.707), which ranks 12th in total wins among all FBS programs in that timeframe. Teams in the top 20 in wins in that timeframe that rank below BYU include USC, South Carolina, Oklahoma State, Auburn, Clemson, Nebraska, Missouri, West Virginia and Cincinnati.
- BYU's five 10-win seasons since 2005 ranks No. 10 nationally. Only nine teams have had more 10-win seasons over the past nine years (Ohio State, Alabama, Boise State, LSU, Oklahoma, Oregon, Va. Tech, TCU, USC).
- BYU ranks No. 10 nationally in total wins since 2006 (76-28).

OFF THE FIELD EXCELLENCE

- BYU has received seven Academic All-America citations under Coach Mendenhall (only four programs have had more in that timeframe...Penn State, Nebraska, Notre Dame, Michigan State).
- BYU leads all FBS programs for the most all-time selections to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society, which recognizes starters and significant contributors who finished their eligibility with a 3.2 GPA or better. The Cougars have had 35 honorees since the program began in 2007.

WORTH NOTING

POSTSEASON SUCCESS

• BYU is one of 12 programs to earn a bowl berth each of the past nine seasons and only Florida State has won more bowls (7) than BYU's six postseason triumphs.

[Following are programs that earned a bowl invitation each of the past nine years, including bowl wins each has achieved—Florida State (7 wins), Alabama (6), BYU (6), LSU (6), Boise State (5), Georgia (5), Oklahoma (5), Oregon (5), Clemson (4), Virginia Tech (4), Wisconsin (3), Georgia Tech (1)].

- The Cougars won a program-best four consecutive bowl games from 2009-12.
- BYU has earned nine straight bowl berths under Bronco Mendenhall and is 6-3 in those games, including wins over Oregon, UCLA, Oregon State and San Diego State.

COUGAR NATION

- BYU consistently has one of the top attendance averages in the West. In 2013, BYU's average home attendance of 61,225 (capacity 63,470) ranked No. 5 in the West behind only USC, UCLA, Washington and Arizona State.
- As an independent, BYU fans also provide strong support at road games all across the country.
- Overall BYU ranked 28th in attendance nationally ahead of 38 Power 5 conference schools. BYU averages more fans than all but Texas and Oklahoma in the Big 12, Clemson, Florida State and Virginia Tech from the ACC, and more than half the programs from the Big 10 and Pac-12 and four teams from the SEC.

NATIONAL EXPOSURE

- As an independent program, BYU is the only school with an exclusive ESPN TV contract. BYU has had 29 games on the ESPN networks (ESPN, ESPN2, ABC, ESPNU, ESPNNews) the past three seasons. BYU also ranks 15th with 24 games on one of the major national TV channels (ESPN, ESPN2, ABC, NBC, CBS, Fox) over the past three seasons.
- BYU is the only school in the country to broadcast a live nationally televised 60-minute pregame show and live 30-minute postgame show before and after every game, home and away. BYU's pregame and postgame shows are available nationally to more than 55 million homes on BYUtv.

NFL SUCCESS

- BYU has helped nearly 300 players go to the NFL. All-American Kyle Van Noy was drafted in the second round in 2014. Ziggy Ansah was the No. 5 overall pick in last year's NFL Draft and went on to record the most sacks of any NFL rookie.
- BYU has had five players each season on average sign with the NFL over the past nine seasons.
- BYU has had a player drafted in 46 of the past 50 NFL drafts dating back to 1964.
- Former Cougar Dennis Pitta represented BYU in the 2013 Super Bowl, catching a touchdown to help the Baltimore Ravens become Super Bowl champions. Pitta recently signed a 5-year, $32 million contract with the Ravens. BYU has had 39 former players make 61 Super Bowl appearances as a player or coach.

ESPN, BYUtv PARTNERSHIP

On September 1st, 2010, BYU took a step in a new direction when it announced it would begin competition as a football independent for the 2011 season. The Cougars are heading into their fourth season as an independent in 2014.

BYU also embarked on an eight-year partnership with ESPN to televise Cougar football on the sports leader's family of networks. BYU is the only school with an exclusive television deal with ESPN and played 31 of 39 games on one of the ESPN networks (including two on ESPN3) over the past three seasons.

"BYU is nationally recognized as an outstanding university and for the history and tradition of its premier athletic programs," said Burke Magnus, ESPN senior vice president, college sports programming. "Once BYU decided to chart an independent course for football, we both recognized it is a good opportunity to build and grow our strong 30-year relationship. With this agreement, college football fans around the country will see the quality and pageantry of BYU as well as the passion and enthusiasm of its supporters."

One of the most important goals in becoming an independent was the opportunity for more national exposure for the university and its football program. BYU also sought better access for the Cougars' national fan base and the opportunity to schedule high-profile opponents.

"We've long sought broad, nationwide access to our games for our fans and increased visibility among those who may be less familiar with our university and athletic programs," said BYU President Cecil O. Samuelson. "We've also been looking for ways to take better advantage of our own unique broadcasting resources."

As it was for the past three seasons, every BYU home football game will be televised to a live national audience on the ESPN family of networks or BYUtv. Additionally, BYU fans will be able to view same-day rebroadcasts on BYUtv of every home game and any away game to which ESPN has the rights through conference agreements with the host team.

BYU is the first football program to garner its own exclusive deal with ESPN to broadcast its games. ESPN and ESPN2 are both available in almost 99 million homes, while the 24-hour college sports network ESPN3 is distributed to over 73 million homes. ESPN also produces college football games that are broadcast on ABC and its online network, ESPN3.com.

Each year, a minimum of three home games will be carried on ESPN, ESPN2, or ABC. Additional games are also on ESPN3. At least one game each season will be carried live on BYUtv.

BYUtv is available in more than 53 million North American homes and is growing every month. It's on the basic tier of both Dish and DirectTV and is carried by more than 800 cable systems. The network constructed its own state-of-the-art production building that will allow it to televise every game in HD, along with its HD truck with the capability of broadcasting while on the road. Because of BYUtv, BYU is the only program to feature its own live pre and postgame shows along with other special football related content throughout the year.

Competing as an independent also allows BYU the opportunity to play a unique schedule. Since 2011, BYU played teams from the SEC, Pac-12, Big 12, Big Ten, ACC, American Athletic, Conference USA, Western Athletic Conference, Mountain West and fellow independent Notre Dame. For the upcoming 2014 season, the Cougars will compete against teams from the Pac-12, AAC, ACC, Big 12, Conference USA, MW and M-EAC. BYU has future games announced with Michigan, West Virginia, Nebraska, Notre Dame, Wisconsin, USC, Stanford, Arizona State, Arizona, Boise State, and California among others.

Postseason play has also been a focus with the Cougars going to nine consecutive bowl games under Mendenhall.

BYU continued its success in its first three years as an independent and 2014 will be an exciting time for the school, the program and its worldwide audience.

BALANCE AND PRIORITIES

As a BYU football player, much is expected on the field, in the classroom and in daily life. It is important for athletes to find a balance between all of their various commitments. Another hallmark of Mendenhall's program has been the emphasis on balance and priorities in the many other facets of life outside of football. Reflecting on that emphasis, BYU consistently received the most academic all-conferences honorees each season a conference member, while six Cougars student-athletes have earned seven Academic All-America citations under Mendenhall. Only four programs have had more Academic All-America citations during Mendenhall's tenure. In addition, BYU tops all FBS programs for the most selections to the NFF Hampshire Honor Society (3.2 GPA over college career) since the program began in 2007. Coach Mendenhall encourages his players to structure their lives with emphasis in the following five areas: Faith, Family, Knowledge, Friends and Football.

1. FAITH

With BYU being a faith-based institution, players and coaches alike can unite under similar beliefs and backgrounds. Athletes can find strength and comfort in relying on their faith in difficult situations. Their faith allows them to see the larger picture beyond the football field.

2. FAMILY

BYU places a strong emphasis on the importance of family and the strength that comes from building relationships with them. BYU football has always been unique with its family relationships, including married players, sibling teammates and continuing generations of athletes. The team itself has created an atmosphere of family with a brotherhood of teammates, a band of brothers, who care for one another as family.

3. KNOWLEDGE

As student-athletes, gaining all of the knowledge available will always be an important principle for success. BYU football encourages athletes to reach high academic achievement in the classroom. After graduation and throughout their lifetime, student-athletes should continue to learn and grow in knowledge.

4. FRIENDS

Choosing the people you associate with can shape the person that you become. The importance of good friends and associating with people of high character and moral standards will always be a constant principle for BYU football. The team encourages players to be good friends and make lasting friendships while encouraging all to be good examples.

5. FOOTBALL

Some people will wonder why football is placed fifth on this list. At BYU, football and winning are very important, yet after understanding what a BYU football player is supposed to be and what he is supposed to represent, it becomes clear. Year-in and year-out, BYU football will seek to not only win at the highest level but also forever strive to produce successful young men of exceptional moral character.

TRADITION SPIRIT HONOR

Playing football at BYU is a unique experience unlike any other in college athletics. With a heritage that runs deep in on-and-off the field success, members of the team are expected to do all things at a high level, in every aspect of life. The program is guided by three distinct values: tradition, spirit and honor.

TRADITION

BYU's football history is packed full of championships, bowl games and national honors. This tradition is something every player that passes through the program will become a part of and appreciate. Since 1974 BYU has played in 32 bowl games, won a National Championship, claimed 23 conference titles and earned 18 national top-25 finishes, including four top-10 finishes. Under head coach Bronco Mendenhall, BYU has posted a record of 82-34, won at least 10 games five of the last eight years and gone to nine straight bowl games. Since the 1970s, BYU has established itself as one of the top football programs in the West.

- 1984 National Champions
- No. 4 in total wins (353) since 1974
- 23 Conference Championships
- 32 Bowl Games
- Top 5 nationally in passing offense 19 times
- Top 25 defense last three seasons (No. 3 in 2012)
- 18 National Top-25 NCAA Finishes
- Ranked in the Top 25 during seven of the past eight seasons and 31 of the last 40 years
- One of only two schools with a National Championship and a Heisman, Outland, Doak Walker, Davey O'Brien and Sammy Baugh Trophy

SPIRIT

As a school operated by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, BYU provides an opportunity for student-athletes to grow mentally, physically and spiritually. BYU seeks to develop students of faith, intellect, and character who have the skills and the desire to continue learning and to serve others throughout their lives. Over 70 percent of BYU's team has served a two-year Church mission. All of BYU's players take part in service opportunities throughout the community. This principle is a large factor in BYU's recruiting approach. Coaches evaluate not only the playing ability and academic achievement of possible recruits but also their moral character. BYU makes it a priority to develop a player's faith, and help make men of strength, courage, fortitude, and service.

- 312 missionaries that have served or are currently serving have been coached or recruited by Bronco Mendenhall

- 52 players currently serving full-time missions
- 74 players who participated in 2013 served full-time missions in over 30 different countries
- Players and coaches participate in "firesides" or hour-long devotionals the night prior to select games intended to help those attend strengthen or gain a knowledge of our purpose here on earth
- All BYU students must complete at least 14 credit-hours in religion-related coursework
- Players participate weekly in the "Thursday's Heroes" program, inviting families and individuals with special needs to practice to be honored and recognized for their faith, courage and strength

HONOR

All BYU students, including student-athletes, are required to follow the University Honor Code, which is a code of conduct and living that helps improve the lives of university students. Coach Mendenhall has worked hard to instill the principles outlined in the honor code. Members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and non-members are expected to maintain the same standards of conduct. All who represent BYU are to maintain the highest standards of honor, integrity, morality, and consideration of others in personal behavior. The basics of BYU's honor code are as follows:

- Be honest
- Live a chaste and virtuous life
- Obey the law and all campus policies
- Use clean language
- Respect others
- Abstain from alcoholic beverages, tobacco, tea, coffee, and substance abuse
- Participate regularly in church services
- Observe the dress and grooming standards
- Encourage others in their commitment to comply with the Honor Code

BRONCO MENDENHALL

BYU FOOTBALL HEAD COACH
10th year as head coach, 12th at BYU

Entering his 10th season as head coach at Brigham Young University, Bronco Mendenhall has restored the Cougars' reputation as one of the nation's top college football programs. Taking over a BYU team that in 2005 was coming off three consecutive losing seasons, Mendenhall has guided his teams to nine straight bowl appearances, two outright conference championships before football independence in 2011, and regular national top-25 rankings.

Under Mendenhall's leadership, BYU has earned an 82-34 record to rank 12th in total wins among all FBS teams since 2005. Mendenhall also ranks 12th in winning percentage at .707 among active coaches with at least five years of FBS experience.

The Cougars finished the 2013 season with an 8-5 record after playing one of the toughest schedules in school history. BYU earned six of its eight wins over bowl teams, including a 40-21 victory against the then-No. 15 Texas Longhorns, and faced nine bowl teams overall.

Under Mendenhall BYU is one of only 12 programs to earn a bowl invitation each of the past nine years. Only Florida State (7) has achieved more than BYU's six bowl victories over that timeframe.

The Cougars set a program record with four consecutive bowl wins from 2009-12, helping Mendenhall become the first BYU head coach to win six bowls in a seven-year span. The Cougars received nine straight bowl invitations for the first time since a string of 17 consecutive bowl bids under Hall of Fame coach LaVell Edwards from 1978 through 1994. Mendenhall is the only coach in BYU football history to take his first nine teams to a bowl game, and is winning at the same pace as the legendary Edwards. Through his 116 games as BYU head coach, Mendenhall has a record of 82-34—almost identical to Edwards' 116-game mark of 83-32-1. As a program, BYU has averaged 8.8 wins per season over the last 40 years to tie for fourth nationally in total victories with 353. Mendenhall's teams have improved upon that standard, having won 10 or more games five times while averaging 9.1 victories per year.

In 2006, Mendenhall was named the American Football Coaches Association Region IV Coach of the Year following an 11-2 season. In addition, the Football Writers Association of America named Mendenhall one of nine finalists for the prestigious Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award.

He has also served as the defensive coordinator for much of his tenure as the head coach. BYU has consistently fielded one of the nation's strongest defenses under Mendenhall's direction.

WINNING PERCENTAGE OF ACTIVE FBS HEAD COACHES (MIN. 5 YEARS)

Name, School	FBS Years	FBS Record	Win %
Chris Petersen, Washington	8	92-12	.885
Urban Meyer, Ohio State	12	128-25	.836
Bob Stoops, Oklahoma	15	160-39	.804

Kevin Sumlin, Texas A&M	6	55-23	.705
Dabo Swinney, Clemson	5	51-23	.689

Mendenhall's defense excels at keeping opponents out of the end zone, averaging a No. 20 national ranking in scoring defense over the past eight seasons, including three top-10 ratings. In 2012, the Cougars featured one of the greatest defenses in school history, allowing just 266.1 yards, including 86.9 rushing yards, and 14.0 points per game. Ranked No. 3 in total defense, No. 3 in scoring defense and No. 2 in rushing defense, the Mendenhall-coached unit held its first six opponents under 300 total yards (part of a streak of 12 consecutive such games dating back to 2011) and kept opposing offenses without a touchdown six times during the year. Adjusting to the team's up-tempo offense in 2013, BYU's defense ranked No. 12 in yards per play allowed despite defending more plays than all but four teams nationally. Only two teams that defended as many plays ranked better than the Cougars at defending their turf.

BYU's success under Mendenhall is evident in the national rankings and NCAA statistics. BYU has been ranked in the top 25 in the various national statistical categories 135 times in his nine seasons (50 offense, 61 defense, 22 special teams, 2 misc.). The Cougars have achieved 83 top-15 statistical rankings, 60 top-10 rankings and 27 top-5 rankings in that span.

BYU recruits have earned Freshman All-America recognition during seven of Mendenhall's seasons as the Cougars continue to demonstrate through their recruiting efforts how they are strengthening the program with talented players and quality individuals. More than 50 BYU players have signed with the NFL since Mendenhall arrived in Provo, including tight end Dennis Pitta, a starter on the 2013 Super Bowl Champion Baltimore Ravens, and defensive end Ezekiel Ansah, the No. 5 overall pick by the Detroit Lions in the 2013 NFL Draft.

Another hallmark of Mendenhall's program has been the emphasis on balance and priorities in the many other facets of life outside of football. Reflecting that emphasis, BYU consistently received the most academic all-conference honorees each season as a conference member, while six Cougar student-athletes have earned seven Academic All-America citations under Mendenhall. Only four programs have had more Academic All-America citations during Mendenhall's tenure. In addition, BYU tops all FBS programs for the most selections to the NFF Hampshire Honor Society (3.2 GPA over college career) since the program began in 2007.

The success of Mendenhall's leadership approach in running the BYU football program has been highlighted in a management book, Running Into the Wind: Bronco Mendenhall—5 Strategies for Building a Successful Team, written by Alyson Von Feldt and Paul Gustavson, a leading management consultant specializing in leadership development and organization design.

Mendenhall was elected in 2013 to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees as the District 8 Representative and also serves on the Ethics Committee. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Oregon State. He later coached at Snow College, Northern Arizona, became the youngest defensive coordinator in the Pac-10 at Oregon State, then went to Louisiana Tech and New Mexico before coming to BYU as a defensive coordinator in 2003.

PERSONAL/FAMILY

JAY OMER

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

BYU's head strength and conditioning coach, Jay Omer, is entering his 15th season at BYU and his 31st overall. Omer came to BYU after spending eight seasons at Georgia Tech as the Director of Player Development, responsible for overseeing the strength and conditioning program for Tech's 16-sport athletics program.

Omer is responsible for implementing and directing team weight training and conditioning programs for each of the University's 21 intercollegiate sports. In 1997, Omer was honored by the National Strength and Conditioning Association as the Strength and Conditioning Professional of the Year for the Atlantic Coast Conference. Omer joined the Yellow Jacket staff in January of 1993 after three years as the strength and conditioning coach at Washington State in Pullman, Wash. He previously served as Director of Strength and Conditioning at East Carolina University from 1987-90. Omer also worked as an assistant strength coach at Tulane University from 1985-87 and as a graduate assistant at Auburn University from 1984-85. From 1976-84, Omer was the head football coach and athletic director for the Duchesne School District in Roosevelt, Utah for Union High School. Omer is a graduate of Orem High School.

In 1969, Omer was an all-conference offensive lineman for Snow College. He later graduated from Southern Utah in 1972, and in 1985 he earned a master's degree in education with an emphasis in exercise physiology and strength training from Auburn University.

He is married to the former Vicki Reynolds and has two daughters, Nissa and Keely, and two sons, Joe and Travis.

TOM HOLMOE

Director of Athletics

Tom Holmoe was named Director of Athletics at Brigham Young University on March 1, 2005. He oversees a nationally recognized program with 21 intercollegiate sports, involving more than 600 student-athletes and a 150-person staff.

Since Holmoe's appointment, BYU has captured 83 conference regular-season or post-season championships, and more than 190 student-athletes have earned All-America status. Under his tutelage, both the football and men's basketball teams have enjoyed tremendous success. BYU has won 10 or more football games in five of the eight seasons and has received a bowl invitation nine years running; while the men's basketball program put together a string of six consecutive 25-win seasons and has made the postseason every year, including a NCAA Sweet-16 run in 2011.

A former Cougar defensive back from 1978-82, Holmoe returned to BYU in July 2001 as Associate Athletics Director for Development. As part of his responsibilities, he supervised the Cougar Club, served as the department's liaison with the LDS Foundation, served on the BYU Alumni Association Board of Directors and worked on the capital campaign to raise funds for the university's new athletic facilities. Holmoe currently serves on the BCS Athletics Directors Advisory Committee.

A native of La Crescenta, Calif., Holmoe came to BYU on a football scholarship in 1978. He earned first-team All-WAC honors as a senior in 1982 and was selected in the fourth round of the 1983 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers. Over a seven-year NFL career, he played on three Super Bowl championship teams with the 49ers in 1984, 1988 and 1989.

After retiring from professional football, Holmoe returned to BYU to serve as a graduate assistant under LaVell Edwards from 1990-91 and later accepted an offer from Bill Walsh to become the Stanford secondary coach in 1992, where he remained for two seasons. In 1994, he returned to the 49ers as defensive backfield coach for two seasons, where he earned a fourth Super Bowl ring. Two years later Holmoe joined the University of California staff as defensive coordinator and later became the head coach from 1997-2001.

Holmoe graduated from BYU with a degree in Zoology in 1983 and received a master's degree from BYU in Athletic Administration in 1995. He and his wife, Lori, have four children and two grandchildren.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY

THE BYU HISTORY

The 1875 establishment of the Brigham Young Academy offered an academically stimulating and gospel-oriented education to 29 students. The one-acre school grounds presided over by Karl G. Maeser have since developed into 560 acres and about 300 buildings. The foundation of the University thrives with the fourfold focus of being 1) spiritually strengthening, 2) intellectually enlarging, 3) character building, leading to 4) lifelong learning and service.

Brigham Young University provides an outstanding education in an atmosphere consistent with the standards and principles of its sponsor, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

BYU has a full-time enrollment of 30,243. Students come to BYU from all 50 states and more than 120 countries.

BYU MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Brigham Young University--founded, supported and guided by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints--is to assist individuals in their quest for perfection and eternal life. That assistance should provide a period of intensive learning in a stimulating setting where a commitment to excellence is expected and the full realization of human potential is pursued.

All instruction, programs and services at BYU, including a wide variety of extracurricular experiences, should make their own contribution toward the balanced development of the total person. Such a broadly prepared individual will not only be capable of meeting personal challenges and change but will also bring strength to others in the tasks of home and family life, social relationships, civic duty and service to mankind.

BYU's faculty, staff, students and administrators should be anxious to make their service and scholarship available to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in furthering its work worldwide. In an era of limited enrollments, BYU can continue to expand its influence both by encouraging programs that are central to the Church's purposes and by making its resources available to the Church when called upon to do so.

We believe the earnest pursuit of this institutional mission can have a strong effect on the course of higher education and will greatly enlarge Brigham Young University's influence in a world we wish to improve.

KEVIN J. WORTHEN
University President

Kevin J. Worthen began serving as the 13th president of Brigham Young University on May 1, 2014. He previously served as BYU's advancement vice president and as dean of its J. Reuben Clark Law School, where he was the Hugh W. Colton Professor of Law.

DISTINGUISHED FACULTY

Faculty members hold advanced degrees from universities around the world. Their achievements are compelling and wide-ranging as they pursue consequential research work that is making a real difference. Alleviating hunger worldwide through more efficient agriculture, finding low-pollution energy alternatives and making significant contributions to the strengthening of families are among their many pursuits. Faculty members are regularly called upon to head national and international professional organizations and to consult with corporate and governmental entities. Above all, these high-principled men and women share an unmatched devotion to bringing the best possible education to their students.

PREPARATION FOR THE FUTURE

A strong curriculum delivered by outstanding faculty is key to the academic excellence of BYU graduates. From business management to nursing, from the humanities to engineering, the University's 11 colleges -- supported by comprehensive offerings from religious education -- continue to be internationally recognized for the quality of their education and the professional preparation they provide. In addition to the challenging course work and hands-on research, numerous programs offer academic and service outreach opportunities. Study abroad centers, distance-learning courses and worldwide performing arts tours are a few of the offerings that enrich BYU's academic experience.

BYU is in Provo, Utah, a city of approximately 115,000 located 45 miles south of Salt Lake City and 4,560 feet above sea level at the western base of the Wasatch Mountains. Provo sits in the Utah Valley, which offers a beautiful setting with 23-mile-long Utah Lake on the west and 11,750-foot Mount Timpanogos on the east. The university's approximately 560-acre main campus includes about 300 buildings. Of its buildings, 80 are for academic programs, 64 for administrative and auxiliary services and 150 for student housing.

COUGARS ON MISSIONS

One of the first questions Bronco Mendenhall was asked after becoming the head coach at BYU was what he thought about the missionary program and if he felt it helped or hurt the BYU football program.

"Serving missions is what makes this team, this university and the Church unique," Mendenhall said. "These unique characteristics are based upon sound principles and values. Why would we not embrace them?"

Since Mendenhall has taken over the program, more than 300 of BYU's players have served or are currently serving missions.

Brigham Young University is owned and operated by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The missionary emphasis of the Church is perhaps one of its most recognized characteristics. Since the organization of the Church in 1830, over one million missionaries have served.

The Church operates 405 missions around the world in 145 nations, speaking 164 languages. A mission covers a geographic area and has a central headquarters. Each is presided over by a mission president, who is called from the ranks of the Church membership to serve for a period of three years. The mission president directs the work of the missionaries assigned to his mission.

Nearly 83,000 missionaries representing The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints are currently serving proselytizing missions. Most of the Church's proselytizing missionaries are young men and women between the ages of 18 and 26. Senior couples also have opportunities to serve missions.

Missionaries work long hours—seven days a week for two years (18 months for women) and other extended periods of time for couples—teaching the gospel of Jesus Christ and participating in community service.

In addition, almost 23,000 individuals (including couples) are given special service assignments and considered Church-service missionaries. Health specialists and doctors go to developing countries where the Church's health services program teaches preventive care. Craftsmen, artisans and construction supervisors train members in local building projects. Agricultural experts train people to produce food more effectively and economically. Other mission assignments include education, family history research and leadership training.

TRUE SERVICE: Before starting his college football career, highly-recruited tight end Devin Mahina (center above) took two years away from the game to serve an LDS Church mission to Madagascar.

The missionaries pay their own way, occasionally with assistance from friends and family who donate money to the Church to pay for their personal expenses. When his or her assignment is completed, the missionary returns home to pursue vocational, academic or other personal goals. Aside from their brief orientation at a missionary training center, missionaries receive little formal training for their ministry. Missionary preparation comes primarily from personal study and, in many cases, from examples taught in the home from childhood.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was officially organized on April 6, 1830 with six members. Today, congregations of the Church are found in more than 160 nations and territories. With nearly 15 million members, it is one of the fastest growing religions in the world and one of the largest Christian churches in the United States.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is Christian, but is neither Catholic nor Protestant. Rather, it is a restoration of the original church established by Jesus Christ. For more information on the beliefs of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, visit www.lds.org.

With the donations and support of nearly 5,000 members nationwide, the Cougar Club has helped BYU build one of America's strongest collegiate athletic programs. Through its fund-raising and promotional mission, the Cougar Club is ensuring the future success of BYU athletics.

Loyal Cougar Club members across America are building the foundation for BYU's future athletic victories. The changing nature of collegiate athletics means that to compete at the highest levels, BYU must raise more money every year. The costs associated with being one of the nation's top programs continue to rise dramatically. With that challenge in mind, the support of the Cougar Club and its members becomes an even more important key to the future growth of BYU athletics.

"The BYU donors and fans make all the difference," says Cougar Club Director Michael Middleton. "For our teams to continue to achieve national prominence, the Cougar Club needs to continue to grow."

FUNDING

Cougar Club donations are used for many vital projects, including:

- Funding the entire athletic program's recruiting expenses, helping BYU coaches to attract some of the world's premier athletes to Provo, Utah.
- Building new facilities including the Indoor Practice Facility, Student Athlete Building and Miller Baseball/Softball complex.
- Supporting the Student Athlete Academic Center, which includes sponsoring academic tutoring for student athletes, providing laptop computers for the athletes to use when traveling and sustaining an endowment that provides spring/summer and post-eligibility scholarships that assist current and former athletes to finish their degrees.

MEMBER BENEFITS

There is a Cougar Club membership level for every fan who wants to help BYU continue to build a strong athletic tradition. Individuals and businesses annually make tax-deductible Cougar Club contributions of between $50 and $1,000 based on their financial ability to give and the athletic benefits they want to receive. To acknowledge the generosity of Club members, the athletic department makes a number of benefits available to Club members, including priority seating, parking passes and Club events. However, the greatest benefit of membership is knowing that the Cougar Club is helping BYU athletics continue to be one of the nation's top collegiate athletic programs.

COUGAR CLUB BENEFITS

- Seating priority for home and away sporting events, bowl games and postseason tournaments
- Tax deduction
- Parking passes
- Cougar Club Newsletter and athletic publications
- Monthly luncheons with BYU coaches and athletes
- Invitation to annual Y-Awards Banquet
- Privileges for Club events and Club travel
- Annual "Meet the Team" football event
- Discounts on exclusive BYU merchandise and commemorative memorabilia
- Cougar Club nights at Olympic sporting events
- Pregame event at home football games in Cougar Room at LaVell Edwards Stadium

STUDENT ATHLETE BUILDING

EQUIPMENT AND LOCKER ROOMS

The 75-yard-long locker room is patterned after the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles. There is also a special locker room for former BYU players who want to train in Provo during the offseason.

TRAINING FACILITIES

Sponsored by Dynatronics, this area features a rehabilitation room and a hydro area with a cold pool, a hot tub with power jets, a treadmill pool with two cameras and a doctor's office. Trainers provide electrical stimulation and ultra sound treatments as well as bikes, treadmills and Cybex machines.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING CENTER

Most of the Strength and Conditioning Center's equipment was custom built by Free Motion and is sponsored by Icon Health and Fitness. Among the features are 12 full power racks with platforms, seven half racks, three jerk racks, Sorinex hurricane racks, reverse hypers, Agaton Fitness Systems, an outdoor mondo plyometric warmup area, two super leg drive sleds, two different dumbbell areas and a medicine ball wall. The first floor also has a nutrition area sponsored by Pharmanex. The second floor is the speed development area and has Tomahawk spinning bikes and TVs, five Nordic Track incline trainers, three Versaclimbers, two Scifit upper body bikes, Woodway force treadmills, H/P Cosmos treadmills with Pneu Weight devices, vibratory boards, a step mill, a turf agility drill area with resistance and a testing area.

STUDENT ATHLETE ACADEMIC CENTER

Tutors and mentors work through these offices. Athletes have access to 42 computer stations, an interactive classroom, 10 small study areas and one large quiet room. Also on staff are a sports psychologist and a nutritionist.

LEGENDS GRILLE

Fans, coaches and athletes can view 11 plasma TV screens, a ticker tape with world wide sports scores or view specialty events on a projection screen while catching a bite to eat.

INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

The IPF is 106,000 square feet and among its features are two artificial turf fields (55 yards & 65 yards), retractable goalposts on each end, a sideline staging facility for offensive linemen and four batting cages. The indoor surface is field turf and the building features four video platforms located 40 feet above the playing surface. The IPF serves as an indoor practice arena for the football, soccer, golf, baseball and softball teams and a variety of other sports programs, including extramurals and intramurals.

PICTURE PERFECT

With its 63,470-seat capacity, new video walls and immaculate press boxes, LaVell Edwards Stadium is home to legendary BYU football. Since its expansion in 1982, the stadium has consistently ranked among the nation's top 30 in attendance every year. Some of the stadium's well-known features include a box-bowl seating configuration, a grass playing surface and a four-level press box.

THE FIELD

The field is covered with a sand-based natural turf capable of draining eight inches of rain per hour. The well-kept grass field is consistently deemed one of the best in the country.

EXPANSION/SEATING CAPACITY

As a result of increased seating demands, BYU made yet another renovation in 1982, adding stands to the north and south end zones, lowering the field eight feet and removing the track surrounding the field (which hosted the 1967 and 1975 NCAA Track and Field Championships). The stadium expansion increased the seating capacity to over 65,000. The crowd of 64,253 that gathered for BYU's first game in the expanded stadium on September 25, 1982 was reportedly "the largest gathering ever in Utah history" at the time. In 2003 BYU added a luxury "Club Seating" area to the east stands taking the capacity of Edwards Stadium down to 64,045. In 2010 and 2011 BYU created additional wheelchair access inside the stadium, which reduced the capacity by 575 seats to 63,470.

"YOU GUYS WILL AGREE THAT [LAVELL EDWARDS] STADIUM IS ONE OF THE PRETTIEST SETTINGS OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL. THIS STADIUM IS JUST UNBELIEVABLE."

MIAMI BEACH BOWL

Miami, FL • Marlins Park (34,000) • TBA

BYU VS. AAC

If bowl eligible, BYU will participate in the Miami Beach Bowl in December, unless selected to participate in the college football playoff or one of the New Year's Eve or New Year's Day bowl games. In addition to the Miami Beach Bowl matchup, BYU will face three AAC teams during the 2014 regular season. UConn hosts the Cougars on Aug. 29 to open the season. Houston visits Provo Sept. 11, while UCF will entertain BYU Oct. 9.

BYU finished the 2013 season with an 8-5 record that included wins over Texas, Georgia Tech, Boise State and Houston. The Cougars earned bowl eligibility for the ninth consecutive season under head coach Bronco Mendenhall, tied for the nation's 10th-longest current bowl streak. BYU has previously played two bowl games in the state of Florida — the 1976 Tangerine Bowl and the 1985 Citrus Bowl, both in Orlando.

The Miami Beach Bowl staff is based in Marlins Park, which opened in 2012 and serves as the home of Major League Baseball's Miami Marlins. The state-of-the-art facility will seat 34,000 for football and has 50 luxury suites, a retractable roof, climate controlled temperatures and a natural grass surface.

The American Athletic Conference enjoyed a highly successful debut season in 2013 as the conference placed two teams in the top 15 of the final national polls. UCF, which won the inaugural American Athletic Conference title, finished the season ranked No. 10 nationally after a win against Big 12 champion Baylor in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

LOOKING BACK AT THE 2013 SEASON

The Cougars finished the 2013 season with an 8-5 record after playing one of the toughest schedules in school history, advancing to a ninth straight bowl game at the Fight Hunger Bowl in San Francisco. BYU earned six of its eight wins over bowl teams, including a 40-21 victory against the then-No. 15 Texas Longhorns, and faced nine bowl teams overall.

The following pages provide a review of the 2013 season with game-by-game results and recaps as well as team and individual statistics.

Below are the BYU records that were set or tied during 2013 as well as players that earned a top 10 ranking in a specific category.

VIRGINIA

08.31.13 CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA. (ESPNU) ATT: 53,110

BYU	0	7	0	9	16
UVA	0	3	9	7	19

BYU took a late lead in the fourth quarter before falling to the University of Virginia 19-16 in a defensive battle in Charlottesville, Va.

Virginia took the final lead of the game, 19-16, on a 13-yard run with 2:36 left in the fourth quarter. The Cavaliers took only one play to score after an interception following a tipped ball. The game was a defensive struggle that saw a combined 24 punts.

In the fourth quarter, the Cougars took a late lead after the offense went on an 11-play, 92-yard drive that was capped by a 1-yard keeper by Hill for a 13-12 advantage. On the drive, Hill went 3 for 5 for 32 yards, and Williams added four rushes for 31 yards.

BYU increased its lead on the following kickoff, when linebacker Austen Jorgensen forced a fumble that was recovered by Blake Morgan. Kicker Justin Sorensen nailed a 36-yard field goal to increase the lead to 16-12 with just over five minutes left in the game.

The first quarter proved to be a defensive stalemate with seven combined punts between the two teams. The stout BYU defense picked up where it left off last season, holding the Cavaliers to just 1 for 6 on third down. In 2012, the defense ranked No. 1 in the country in third-down defense.

In between the first and second quarters, there was a lightning delay that stalled the game for two hours and nine minutes as the teams were asked to leave the field and fans had to evacuate from their seats in Scott Stadium.

After BYU was forced to punt in its first possession following the weather delay, Van Noy hit the UVA quarterback to induce a bad pass which led to an interception by safety Craig Bills.

Captain JD Falslev sparked the Cougars on their first scoring drive of the game in the second quarter. The senior returned a punt for 17 yards to set BYU up on the Virginia 32-yard line. Falslev caught a pass from Hill and snuck up the sideline for 24 yards before grabbing a four-yard touchdown pass to put BYU up 7-0.

Virginia hit a 53-yard field goal as time expired in the first half to bring the score to 7-3 in favor of BYU.

With 12:28 left in the third quarter, Virginia increased its lead following a blocked a punt, scoring three plays later on an 11-yard touchdown pass for a 10-7 advantage. The Cavaliers increased their lead again to 12-7 after a botched snap by the Cougars was recovered in the end zone by Hill for a safety with 2:38 left in the third quarter.

NO. 15 TEXAS

09.7.13 PROVO, UTAH (ESPN) ATT: 63,197

Taysom Hill rushed for 259 yards and three touchdowns to lead BYU to a 40-21 victory over No. 15 Texas at LaVell Edwards Stadium Saturday night. The Cougars rushed for a school-record 550 yards in the win.

Hill's 259 yards are a career high and are the most rushing yards by a quarterback in the nation since 2005 when Vince Young ran for 265 yards for Texas against Oklahoma State. That mark is the highest by a BYU player since 1962 when Eldon Fortie ran for 272 yards.

The Cougars received the opening kickoff and engineered an 11 play, 60-yard drive that culminated in a 34-yard field goal by Justin Sorensen to take an early 3-0 lead with just over 12 minutes left in the first quarter.

After being held to a three-and-out in their first three drives of the game, the Longhorns (1-1) took a 7-3 lead on a 57-yard pass from David Ash to Mike Davis.

Hill and the Cougars responded with a big play of their own to jump back ahead 10-7 with just over 2 minutes left in the first quarter. On the read-option, Hill kept the ball, ran off the left tackle and out-sprinted the Texas defense for a 68-yard touchdown. The 68-yard run ties the school record for the longest run by a quarterback that he set last year against Hawai'i.

On the ensuing Longhorn possession, Texas drove 76 yards on nine plays before Joe Bergeron ran it in from two yards out to take a 14-10 lead.

BYU responded with three consecutive scoring drives to take a 27-14 lead into halftime.

The drive following the Texas score for the 14-10 lead, Hill scored on a 20-yard rushing touchdown to put BYU up 17-14 with just under eight minutes left in the second quarter. The Cougars' drive was kept alive thanks to a roughing the kicker penalty on Texas. On the drive, Hill finished with three rushes for 43 yards.

Following a Longhorn punt, the Cougars put together a nine-play, 59-yard drive that culminated with a 10-yard Paul Lasike touchdown run. On the drive, Lasike carried the ball six times for a total of 45 yards.

For the last drive in the half, BYU drove 77 yards on nine plays before Sorensen nailed a 32-yard field goal with four seconds left in the half.

Hill scored his third rushing touchdown in the game on the Cougars' first drive of the second half from 26 yards out to put BYU up 34-14 with 10 minutes left in the third quarter. The drive took 1:51 off the clock and covered 79 yards in eight plays.

BYU football's second-half rally came up short as the Cougars fell 20-13 to the University of Utah Saturday in the Deseret First Duel at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

Utah (3-1) scored with 12:44 left in the fourth quarter to go up 20-6 before the BYU (1-2) defense held the Utes to a three-and-out on their final four drives of the game to set up the rally.

BYU	TD	05:13	Michael Alisa 1 Yd Rush (Justin Sorensen Kick)		20	13

Senior Michael Alisa scored his first touchdown since the Weber State game in 2012 to bring the Cougars within seven points at 20-13 with just over five minutes left in the final quarter. An incomplete pass on third down looked to end the drive, but Utah was called for unsportsmanlike conduct to keep the drive alive. Two straight completions to JD Falslev and Cody Hoffman put the ball on the 1-yard line to set up the scoring run by Alisa.

The BYU offense had two drives in the final three minutes of the game but was unable to score to tie the game.

Utah got on the board first, hitting a 36-yard field goal to go up 3-0 with 1:30 left in the first quarter. A 65-yard run helped put the Utes on the 25-yard line before the Cougar defense held tough to limit the scoring to a field goal.

Utah added a second field goal and a touchdown in the second quarter to go up 13-0 at halftime. The last time BYU was shut out in the first half was last season when the score was 0-0 against Boise State at halftime.

BYU received the opening kick of the second half and drove 68 yards on nine plays to set up Justin Sorensen with a 32-yard field goal to bring the score to 13-3. On the drive, Hill hit Mitch Mathews for an 18-yard gain before busting off a 41-yard run to set up Sorensen's kick. Mathews finished with a career-high 54 yards receiving.

After holding Utah to a three-and-out on its first drive of the second half, the Cougars put together a 13-play, 61-yard drive that culminated with a 31-yard field goal by Sorensen to narrow the margin at 13-6. During the drive, running back Jamaal Williams was injured and was carted off the field. He was taken to the local hospital for further evaluation.

For the game, BYU totaled 443 yards of total offense while holding Utah to 402 yards of total offense. Senior Tyler Beck recorded a career-high 10 tackles with two tackles for loss. Kyle Van Noy and Daniel Sorensen each contributed eight tackles in the game.

Justin Sorensen missed a 33-yard field goal in the second quarter. That miss marked the first miss of the season for Sorensen.

MIDDLE TENNESSEE

09.27.13 PROVO, UTAH (ESPN) ATT: 58,763

Taysom Hill and Michael Alisa ran for two touchdowns apiece to lead BYU football to a 37-10 win over Middle Tennessee Friday night at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

The Cougar defense held the Blue Raiders to 212 yards of total offense for the game. Austen Jorgensen recorded nine tackles while Craig Bills each recorded seven tackles and Kyle Van Noy added six more, including five solo. Daniel Sorensen recorded an interception in the fourth quarter.

Following a Middle Tennessee field goal on the opening drive of the game, Adam Hine took the following kickoff 90 yards to the opposing 10-yard line. Three plays later, Hill ran it in from 12 yards out to put the Cougars up 7-3 with just under 11 minutes left in the first quarter.

The BYU defense forced the Blue Raiders to punt, but a fumble on the return set the visitors up with the ball on the Cougars 24-yard line. Just before the end of the first quarter, Logan Kilgore hit Marcus Henry for a 16-yard touchdown pass to give Middle Tennessee a 10-7 lead.

Paul Lasike returned the ensuing kickoff 33 yards to BYU's 46-yard line. With the offense clicking the Cougars drove down the field to the Blue Raider 5-yard line before a lost fumble gave the ball to Middle Tennessee on the 2-yard line.

On the next play, Van Noy tackled Jordan Parker before he left the end zone to force a safety and cut the deficit to 10-9. The safety was the first for BYU since 2011 against San Jose State. Van Noy fought off a block and tripped up Parker, and Remington Peck kept him from leaving the end zone.

Middle Tennessee elected to punt the ball following the safety, and the Cougars drove the length of the field again before a fumble by Alisa went into the end zone untouched for a touchback.

Again the defense held strong and forced another punt by the Blue Raiders. A pass to Apo put BYU at midfield. Two plays later, Hill went 50 yards on a keeper off the right tackle for his second touchdown of the game to give the Cougars a 16-10 lead with 7:30 left in the second quarter.

Both teams traded punts before BYU got the ball back with 1:33 left in the quarter on its 33-yard line. After two rushes by Lasike for two yards, Hill had three straight completions to move the offense to the Middle Tennessee 14-yard line. A five-yard rush by Hill and a pass interference call on the defense put BYU on the 2-yard line. Alisa ran it in on the next play for his second touchdown of the season to give the Cougars a 23-10 lead with 15 seconds left in the half.

Mitch Mathews had three touchdown receptions to lead BYU football to a 31-14 victory against Utah State at Romney Stadium Friday night.

On the first play of the game, Kyle Van Noy intercepted Chuckie Keeton and ran it back for a touchdown to give the Cougars an early 7-0 lead. With the ball on the 18-yard line, Van Noy read the play, jumped up at the line of scrimmage and snatched the ball out of the air, beating everyone to the goal line.

After forcing a Hill fumble on the Cougars' 15-yard line, Utah State scored to tie the game at 7-7 with just under 11 minutes left in the first quarter.

On the following drive, BYU drove methodically down the field to set up a 27-yard field goal by Justin Sorensen to take the lead again at 10-7 with seven minutes left in the opening quarter. On the drive, Hill went four for five including a 28-yard pass to Mathews before the field goal.

Utah State quarterback Keeton was injured in the first quarter of the game on a scramble play. Keaton finished 4 for 10 for 26 yards and a touchdown.

The Cougars extended their lead in the second quarter when Hill found Mathews on a post for a 30-yard touchdown to bring the advantage to 17-7. With the BYU offense facing a third down on its own 26-yard line, Jamaal Williams busted off a 44-yard run to keep the drive alive. On the next play, Hill hit Mathews for the score.

With its next possession, Utah State drove the ball 45 yards to set up a 47-yard field goal. Daniel Sorensen cut through on the left side and blocked the kick.

Hill found Mathews in the end zone for the second time of the game to increase the BYU lead to 24-7 with just over 12 minutes left in the third quarter. Hill completed passes to three different receivers on the drive, including a 20-yard strike to Cody Hoffman on the right sideline. With the catch, Hoffman has caught a pass in 35-straight games.

Six minutes later, Hill and Mathews hooked up for the third time in the game to push the Cougars' lead to 31-7. The 43-yard bomb culminated a four-play, 71-yard drive in which the offense scored in just over a minute.

Late in the fourth quarter, Utah State added a touchdown pass for the final score of the game, 31-14.

GEORGIA TECH

10.12.13 PROVO, UTAH (ESPN) ATT: 60,320

Taysom Hill, Jamaal Williams and Algernon Brown each scored rushing touchdowns to lead the Cougars past Georgia Tech's rushing attack 38-20 Saturday night at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

BYU (4-2) opened the scoring in the first quarter as Taysom Hill hit Cody Hoffman down the middle of the field for a 45-yard touchdown pass. Hoffman made the grab over his shoulder, while going down to his knees.

The catch tied Hoffman for second in career touchdown receptions at BYU. Right before half, Hoffman moved into a tie with All-American Dennis Pitta for the career lead in receptions at BYU with 221.

Georgia Tech (3-3, 2-2 ACC) answered back on its next possession, taking six plays to go 70 yards. Yellow Jacket quarterback Vad Lee scored from the 2-yard line. Jamaal Williams and the Cougars took back the lead on a two-yard rush of their own with 5:47 left in the first quarter. Williams finished the game with 86 yards on 17 carries and another 11 yards on two receptions.

The teams traded field goals, before Taysom Hill led an eight-play, 55-yard drive to add to the lead. Hill dove in from the 1-yard line for his first rushing touchdown of the game. Hill entered halftime having thrown for 226 yards on 16-of-20 passing, plus another 72 yards rushing. Hill finished 19-of-27 for 244 yards and the one touchdown. He ran for 65 yards on 15 carries and the one rushing touchdown.

In the fourth quarter, Alani Fua put points on the board for the Cougars as he returned an interception 51 yards to make it 30-13. It was his second career interception and the second straight game where BYU returned an interception for a touchdown.

BYU added to its lead with a 15-yard touchdown run by Algernon Brown with 3:11 left in the game. It was his first career touchdown.

With 53 seconds left in the game, Georgia Tech's backup quarterback Justin Thomas found Deon Hill for a five-yard touchdown reception for the Yellow Jackets' only points in the second half.

The BYU defense kept Georgia Tech out of the end zone for 51 minutes between touchdowns. Austen Jorgensen, Blake Morgan and Uani ' Unga each finished in double digits in tackles, while Kyle Van Noy recorded six tackles, two sacks and three tackles for loss. In Spencer Hadley's return from a three-game suspension, he recorded three tackles, a sack, 1.5 tackles for loss and a fumble recovery.

Taysom Hill hit Skyler Ridley for a touchdown with just over a minute left in the fourth quarter to give BYU a 47-46 win over Houston at Reliant Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

BYU received the ball with 1:50 left at midfield. Hill hit Skyler Ridley for 28 yards down the left sideline on the first play of the drive. After two rushing plays, Hill hit Ridley again for an 11-yard touchdown to put BYU up 47-46 with 1:08 left in the fourth quarter. The blue Cougars tried a two-point conversion, but were stopped short of the goal line.

Alani Fua sealed the win with an interception in his second straight game. Hill ran for a first down to run the clock out to preserve the win.

BYU (5-2) gained 683 yards of total offense and set school records with 41 first downs and 115 total plays. The 115 plays tie an FBS single game record as well. Houston (5-1) lost for the first time this season.

Hill finished 29 for 44 for a career-high 417 yards passing and a career-high four touchdowns. He also added 128 yards rushing on 34 attempts to be the first player to rush for 100 yards against Houston this season.

Cody Hoffman moved into first place for BYU career receptions (228) with his seven-catch, 156-yard performance. He tied the school record for career touchdown receptions of 30 with his TD grab in the fourth quarter. This marks the 16th career 100-yard receiving game.

The game turned into a track meet in the first half as Houston led 38-34. Both teams combined for 102 plays, 701 yards and 38 first downs.

For the second straight game, BYU intercepted its opponent's first pass of the game. Making his first start since the second game

BOISE STATE

10.25.13 PROVO, UTAH (ESPN) ATT: 62,954

Cody Hoffman became the all-time career touchdown receptions leader to lead BYU to a 37-20 victory against Boise State Friday night at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

BYU stopped the Boise State for the sixth-straight time (including the game last season) on fourth down on Boise State's opening drive of the game to get the ball. BYU drove the length of the field before a missed 37-yard field goal kept the score tied at 0-0.

A three-and-out by the Cougar defense gave the ball back to BYU. Both Kyle Van Noy and Fua had pass breakups to keep the Broncos from moving more than two yards.

The Cougar offense took over on its own 16-yard line, and Hill scampered in from 20 yards out for his 12th rushing touchdown of his career to put BYU up 7-0 with just under seven minutes left in the first quarter. On the drive, Hill hit JD Falslev twice for 25 yards and Kaneakua Friel once for 22 yards to put the Cougars deep into Boise State territory and set up the TD run by Hill.

After a second three-and-out in the first quarter by Boise State, Justin Sorensen nailed a 28-yard field goal as the first play of the second quarter to put BYU up 10-0.

Two drives later, Boise State scored its first point of the game on a 33-yard field goal to bring the score to 10-3 with just under five minutes left in the second quarter.

Four plays later, BYU increased its lead to 17-3 when Hill hit Ross Apo for a 37-yard scoring strike. A play earlier, Hill hit Hoffman for a 35-yard pass on 3rd-and-5 to move the ball into Boise State territory.

The Cougar defense responded the same way as the offense did, recording a big stop four plays later as junior safety Craig Bills forced a fumble that Peck jumped on to give BYU the ball on the Boise State 47-yard line.

It only took six plays for the offense to capitalize on the turnover. Hill hit Hoffman in the back corner of the end zone to put BYU up 24-3. On the play, Hoffman ripped the ball away from the corner for his 31st career touchdown reception to become the all-time TD reception leader at BYU.

BYU (6-3) was led by Hoffman's seven receptions for 113 yards and two touchdowns. Hoffman also tied Austin Collie's record of 17 100-yard receiving games. Quarterback Taysom Hill was 19-41 for 207 yards and two touchdowns.

BYU looked to gain momentum after Hill hit Hoffman on a 34-yard touchdown reception to put the score at 20-10 with 9:04 left in the third quarter. With the reception, Hoffman became BYU's career leader in receiving yards. The defense forced Wisconsin off the field on its next series, but BYU was unable to capitalize to bring the score any closer.

Wisconsin never relinquished the lead after scoring on its first drive of the day behind its strong running game, going 76 yards in 11 plays.

After a BYU interception, sophomore linebacker Jherremya Leuta-Douyere, who came in for an injured Spencer Hadley, made his presence felt by forcing a fumble that was recovered by safety Craig Bills. The Cougar offense took advantage, using a good mix of passes and runs to get on the board on a 31-yard field goal from kicker Justin Sorensen to put the score at 7-3.

After a BYU punt on its next possession, Van Noy had an interception fall into his lap after a big hit from safety Daniel Sorensen separated the ball from the Wisconsin tight end. BYU was unable to capitalize on the turnover, and Wisconsin drove down and hit a 38-yard field goal to go back up by seven in the second quarter.

After another BYU three-and-out, Wisconsin ended the half with a short touchdown throw to James White to go up 17-3.

A big punt return by Wisconsin at the start of the second half set up a 26-yard field goal to give the Badgers a 20-3 lead.

At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Wisconsin crossed into the end zone to go up 27-10. BYU scored the final touchdown of the game on a five-yard slant in the back of the end zone to Hoffman with 3:12 remaining in the fourth. Any comeback hopes were ended when Wisconsin recovered the ensuing onside kick.

IDAHO STATE

11.16.13 PROVO, UTAH (BYUTV) ATT: 58,645

Jamaal Williams and Adam Hine combined for 272 yards and four touchdowns to lead BYU football to a 59-13 win over Idaho State at LaVell Edwards Stadium on senior night.

BYU (7-3) amassed 578 yards of total offense, including 421 yards on the ground, and held Idaho State (3-8, 1-6 Big Sky) to 287 yards of total offense.

BYU received the opening kickoff and drove 60 yards over 12 plays to take an early 7-0 lead on a two-yard run by Williams. On the drive, the Cougars registered four first downs, and Hill opened the game hitting his first four passes and spreading the ball out to three different receivers.

Idaho State intercepted Hill on BYU's next drive and used a series of run and pass plays to get the ball down to the 5-yard line. A pass interference penalty on third down gave the Bengals first-and-goal from the 2-yard line before having to settle for a field goal.

Williams increased the Cougar lead 14-3 on a career-long 70-yard touchdown the next time BYU had the ball. The long run came on fourth-and-1 and Williams took the ball up the middle and ran almost untouched into the end zone.

BYU forced Idaho State to punt for the third time in the first quarter and took over on offense from the Bengals' 49-yard line. Four plays later, Hill found senior Skyler Ridley for a 36-yard touchdown pass to increase the lead to 21-3 just 30 seconds into the second quarter. The touchdown grab was a career-long for Ridley.

The Cougars scored two touchdowns in 52 seconds to take a 35-3 lead with just over nine minutes left in the second quarter. Williams tied his career-high with his third rushing touchdown of the game, and Bronson Kaufusi returned an interception 12 yards for his first career interception and touchdown.

Hill found senior Richard Wilson alone in the back of the end zone for a 15-yard touchdown pass, and freshman Algernon Brown ran it in from 23 yards out to give BYU a 49-3 lead just before the end of the first half.

On the first play of the second half for BYU, Hine went off the right tackles and ran 64 yards to the end zone for his first career touchdown to put the Cougars up 56-3.

Senior Justin Sorensen added a 26-yard field goal in the third quarter, and Idaho State scored a touchdown and kicked a field goal for the final score of 59-13.

Taysom Hill finished the game with 168 yards and one touchdown through the air and 101 yards on the ground. Hill became the first quarterback in BYU history to run and throw for more than 1,000 yards in the same season. Running back Paul Lasike ran for a career-high 101 yards on four carries and Jamaal Williams added 43 yards on the ground.

Uani 'Unga finished the game with a career-high 19 tackles. That gives Unga a school-record (since 2000) 125 tackles on the season and the 19 tackles are a BYU record for tackles in a game. Craig Bills also had a career-high 15 tackles.

Notre Dame got on the board first 7-0 on a 61-yard pass from Tommy Rees to DaVaris Daniels on the opening drive of the game for the Irish.

The BYU offense responded with a scoring drive of its own to tie the game at 7-7. The Cougars used an array of passes and runs to march down the field and went 4-for-4 on third downs to keep the drive alive. Senior JD Falslev returned to action after breaking his hand in October to catch a seven-yard pass from Hill for the score.

On its next two drives, Notre Dame scored a touchdown and kicked a field goal to increase its lead to 17-7 with just over 7:30 left in the second quarter.

After Notre Dame opened the second half with a 43-yard run to the BYU 18-yardline, the Cougar defense held tough and forced the Irish to kick a field goal. The 26-yarder put Notre Dame up 20-7.

After a long kickoff return was called back due to a penalty, the BYU offense took over from its own 8-yard line and drove down to kick a field goal, making it a two-possession game at 20-10. On the drive, Lasike busted off a 40-yard run up the middle for BYU's longest play of the game up to that point.

A big stop on fourth down gave the ball and momentum back to the Cougars. Hill led the offense down the field while running for 22 yards on three carries and 32 yards passing on three completions to get the ball down to the Irish's 9-yard line. Justin Sorensen nailed his second field goal of the game to make it a one-possession game at 20-13.

Notre Dame moved down the field and was threatening to score before Craig Bills made a one-handed interception in the end zone to keep the Irish from scoring and the score 20-13.

The Cougars were unable to capitalize on the turnover and had to punt the ball after five plays, and Notre Dame pushed it back to a two-possession game on a 51-yard field goal

GAME 12

NEVADA

11.30.13 RENO, NEV. (CBSSPORTS) ATT: 21,540

Jamaal Williams ran for a career-high 219 yards and one touchdown to lead BYU to a 28-23 win over Nevada on the road Saturday afternoon.

The Cougars (8-4) were held to just 150 yards of offense and zero points in the first half but exploded for 342 yards and 28 points to hold on for the win. Nevada (4-8, 3-5 MW) made it a five-point game with just under three minutes left in the fourth quarter but was unable to get any closer.

After both teams combined to punt on the final five drives of the first half, BYU and Nevada scored on the opening three drives of the second half.

Williams got BYU on the board on the second play of the second half to even the score at 7-7. Williams ran untouched for 66 yards off the left tackle and down the middle of the field for his second-longest run of the season.

On its next possession, Nevada scored and jumped ahead 14-7. The drive was kept alive when BYU was assessed a penalty on fourth down that gave the Wolf Pack an automatic first down.

BYU responded with a nine-play, 80-yard drive that was capped off by a 10-yard touchdown pass from Hill to Kaneakua Friel to tie the game at 14-14 with just over six minutes left in the third quarter. The offense hit its stride in the third quarter as the unit recorded three first downs and ran for 57 yards on seven carries.

Hill found JD Falslev in the left corner of the end zone to give the Cougars their first lead of the game at 21-14 just 10 seconds into the fourth quarter. BYU converted four first downs on the drive and had four plays of over seven yards, including a 15-yard run by Williams.

The Cougars extended their lead to 28-17 on a 35-yard touchdown run by Hill with six and a half minutes left in the game. On the play, Hill dropped back to pass, but found a seam down the left sideline and ran through a couple of arm tackles on his way to his ninth touchdown of the season.

Nevada took the opening kickoff, drove the length of the field and punched it in from two yards out on a Kendall Brock rush to take a 7-0 lead.

BYU stopped the Wolf Pack on three downs but gave the ball right back to Nevada on a muffed punt. The Cougars defense held strong and forced the home team to settle for a field goal. Logan Taelle broke through the line and blocked the kick to keep the score at 7-0.

BYU fell to Washington 31-16 in the Fight Hunger Bowl at AT&T Park on Friday night.

Washington (9-4, 5-4 Pac-12) scored touchdowns on three of its four trips inside the red zone as BYU (8-5) scored one touchdown and three field goals on its three blue zone trips that contributed to the final margin. The Cougars scored all 16 of their points in the second quarter.

Taysom Hill finished the game throwing for 293 yards and rushing for 133 yards. Cody Hoffman had 12 catches for 167 yards for his 18th 100-yard receiving game in his career to break the record held by Austin Collie. He also broke the BYU record for career all-purpose yards, ending his career with 5,015 and passing Curtis Brown.

Washington got inside the BYU 20-yard line on two of its first three drives of the game, but the Cougar defense held the Huskies to just one touchdown on their opening possession.

After a muffed punt gave Washington the ball on the BYU 22-yard line, the Huskies converted a fourth down and faced another fourth down from the 3-yard line. Kyle Van Noy broke through the line and tackled the Huskies' running back for a nine-yard loss to hold the score at 7-0.

BYU responded by driving the ball 88 yards to tie the game at 7-7

1984 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

In a perfect 13-0 season, the Cougars defeated Michigan 24-17 in the Holiday Bowl to win the 1984 National Championship

The Cougars were named No. 1 by the Associated Press, the United Press International, Sports Illustrated, CNN-USA Today and the Football Writers of America after finishing the season with a perfect 13-0 record. LaVell Edwards was selected as the NCAA National Coach of the Year and was invited to visit President Ronald Reagan at the White House.

The season featured several game-saving plays as the Cougars moved their way up the rankings. Quarterback Robbie Bosco connected with wide receiver Adam Haysbert for a 50-yard touchdown pass with 1:37 left to play to take the lead in the season-opening win at No. 3 Pittsburgh.

Safety Kyle Morrell's timed leap over the center to stop a quarterback sneak short of the goal line gave BYU the momentum they needed to foil Hawai'i's upset attempt. Tight end David Mills was poked in the eye, but came through with a leaping grab in the end zone to help BYU overcome Wyoming 41-38 in the homecoming game.

The Cougars ascended to the No. 1 spot on Nov. 17 following a 24-14 victory at Utah combined with a Nebraska loss to Oklahoma and a Navy upset over unbeaten and then No. 2 South Carolina. The Cougars maintained their No. 1 ranking heading into the bowl game after defeating Utah State 38-13 in the final contest of the regular season.

With a TV blimp in the sky over Jack Murphy Stadium, Bosco left the Holiday Bowl in the first quarter with an ankle injury, but returned late in the second taped up and played in the shotgun to finish the game. BYU trailed 17-10 after Michigan hit a field goal to begin the fourth quarter. The Cougars then took over the game, Bosco completed seven pass attempts to five different receivers and hit leaping wide receiver Glen Kozlowski between two Michigan defenders for the game-tying touchdown.

Michigan threatened to score again, but linebacker Kurt Gouveia sacked the Wolverine quarterback for a 16-yard loss to force a punt. BYU moved the ball 70 yards to the Michigan 13-yard line when Bosco scrambled up the middle, keeping his eyes down field, and drilled the ball into running back Kelly Smith for the game-winning touchdown.

Controversy was abundant as many of the so-called experts such as NBC announcer Bryant Gumbell and Oklahoma head coach Barry Switzer accused BYU of playing a "Bo-Diddley Tech" schedule. However, at the end of the season BYU was the only team unscathed with a loss.

LAVELL EDWARDS

TWO-TIME NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

257 Victories • 19 Conference Titles • 1 National Title

Legendary Cougar coach LaVell Edwards has twice been recognized as one the greatest coaches in college football. The seventh-winningest coach in NCAA football history earned the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award in 1979 and the Kodak Coach of the Year Award in 1984.

Along with his teams' successes during his coaching tenure, LaVell Edwards accumulated many personal accolades to match. Edwards' first national recognition for his coaching prowess came in 1979 when he was honored with the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award. A panel of 11 former college football coaches selected the BYU coach. On the heels of BYU's first national championship five years later, Edwards' coaching peers honored him with what he then called his greatest personal accolade, the Kodak Coach of the Year Award.

As successful as his teams were on the field, Edwards' coaching philosophy did not reflect a win-at-all-costs mentality. He didn't bark orders or rule the sideline with an iron fist. Generally, the assistant coaches were delegated the duty of handling the X's and O's while he saw to the administrative tasks of the program. His personal demeanor also gave him the ability to relate well with his players whether teaching them about football or other more personal matters.

"Just seeing how he handles himself with the media and with people in general ... he's always genuine with them. He treats everybody well," former BYU quarterback and current BYU athletic administrator Robbie Bosco said. "Those are the things he'll leave with me, more than winning football games."

"In the South there's Bear Bryant, Daryl Royal and Frank Boyles, in the East there's Joe Paterno, in the Midwest there's Bo Schembechler, Woody Hayes and Tom Osborne and in the West there's John McKay and LaVell Edwards. He's a legend. And as good a football coach as he was, he's a better man and he did it the right way. He's known throughout the country as a legend."

TY DETMER: 1990 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

On December 1, 1990, Ty Detmer and his teammates gathered pool-side at the Princess Kaiulani Hotel just hours prior to kickoff with Hawai'i. Via satellite hookup with national TV, Detmer and the BYU faithful waited patiently and listened as Downtown Athletic Club President C. Peter Lambos announced, "Ty Detmer, Ty Detmer of BYU," — soon Ty was doused in the pool.

Detmer, a junior, became the first collegian from the Rockies to win the Heisman Trophy. Named in honor of John Heisman, the coveted 25-pound honor has been awarded annually to the outstanding college football player of the year since 1935.

A 28-21 upset over No. 1-ranked Miami in Provo vaulted Detmer to the forefront in the Heisman race his junior season. Combined with a massive public relations "necktie" campaign for Ty, the 6-foot, 175-pound, gunslinger from San Antonio, Texas, guided BYU to a Holiday Bowl berth that season and a 10-3 record with 41 touchdowns and 5,188 yards passing.

Detmer polled 1,482 points to beat out Notre Dame's Raghib "Rocket" Ismail at 1,177 and finished first in all six regions. Detmer finished third in the Heisman balloting in 1991.

"Winning the Heisman was a great honor," said Detmer. "There have been a lot of great players, like my teammates and previous BYU quarterbacks, that contributed to it. They opened the door. It shows the strength of the program at BYU."

Detmer's portrait hangs alongside other recipients on the third floor of the DAC of New York City. A duplicate portrait of Detmer also hangs on display in the Cougar Room of LaVell Edwards Stadium.

SAMMY BAUGH TROPHY

On February 21, 1997, Steve Sarkisian became the seventh BYU quarterback to win the prestigious Sammy Baugh Trophy. Presented each year by the Touchdown Club of Columbus, the Sammy Baugh Award recognizes the college passer of the year. In winning, Sarkisian joined Gary Sheide (1974), Marc Wilson (1979), Jim McMahon (1981), Steve Young (1983), Robbie Bosco (1984) and Ty Detmer (1991) as Cougars who have won the award. Other notables who have won the award include Bob Griese (1966), Don Strock (1972), Tommy Krammer (1976), John Elway (1982), Vinny Testaverde (1986), Jeff George (1989), Elvis Grbac (1992), Trent Dilfer (1993), Kerry Collins (1994), Danny Wuerffel (1995), Ryan Leaf (1997), Daunte Culpepper (1998), Chad Pennington (1999), Chris Weinke (2000), David Carr (2001), Matt Leinart (2004), Brady Quinn (2005) and Sam Bradford (2008). BYU's seven Sammy Baugh winners is more than any other university in the nation, three ahead of second-place Stanford's four.

DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD

In 1981, the Davey O'Brien Educational and Charitable Trust of Fort Worth, Texas, named Jim McMahon the first recipient of the annual Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award — honoring the nation's best quarterback. BYU quarterbacks have won the Davey O'Brien Award four times — more than any other school. In addition to winners McMahon (1981), Steve Young (1983) and Ty Detmer (1990 & '91), Robbie Bosco finished runner-up in 1984 and Steve Sarkisian finished third in 1996. Others who have won the award include: Todd Blackledge (1982), Doug Flutie (1984), Chuck Long (1985), Vinny Testaverde (1986), Troy Aikman (1988), Andre Ware (1989), Gino Torretta (1992), Charlie Ward (1993), Kerry Collins (1994), Danny Wuerffel (1995 & '96), Peyton Manning (1997), Chris Weinke (2000), Eric Crouch (2001), Vince Young (2005), Troy Smith (2006), Tim Tebow (2007), Sam Bradford (2008), Colt McCoy (2009), Cam Newton (2010), Robert Griffin III (2011), Johnny Manziel (2012) and Jameis Winston (2013).

BYU'S QUARTERBACK FACTORY

Ever since Gary Sheide in 1973, BYU has produced an assembly line of outstanding quarterbacks in Provo that have earned unprecedented success in the market of college and professional football.

Volumes have been written about BYU's passing game and great quarterback tradition. BYU quarterbacks own the NCAA record books and have won the Davey O'Brien award for best quarterback in the nation four times with one runner-up and one third place finish. BYU's quarterback factory has also produced a Heisman Trophy winner in Ty Detmer and many other Heisman Trophy candidates. Quarterbacks Gifford Nielsen, Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon and Steve Young have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in recent years, and Ty Detmer was inducted in December 2012. Several other BYU quarterbacks will likely be added to the list in the future.

On seven different occasions, BYU quarterbacks have finished as the NCAA total offense leaders. Three of the top-15 career passing efficiency leaders are from BYU. In the 29 years LaVell Edwards coached at BYU, the Cougars led the nation in passing eight times and finished in the top five 17 times. In 2006, Mountain West Conference Player of the Year quarterback John Beck was the No. 4 passer in the nation as he helped lead a resurrection of the storied BYU offense of old. The tradition continued with quarterback Max Hall who was the nation's top-ranked sophomore quarterback in his first season as the starter and was among the top ten in passing yards and passing efficiency his senior year.

When Edwards was named head coach at BYU in 1972, he realized he couldn't compete initially with the big schools for the big-time athletes. So he installed a passing attack that allowed smaller, less physical-type players to win with finesse rather than muscle.

The offense worked, and the Cougars began passing the competition. BYU became one of the first universities to use the forward pass consistently and effectively in a time when throwing the football was a mere alternative to running the ball. The pass has been good to BYU. Prior to Edwards, the program had won a total of 171 games and had only 16 winning seasons. Since 1972, BYU is No. 5 in total wins with 357. BYU has won or tied for a conference championship 23 times, played in 31 bowl games and won the national championship in 1984.

OUTLAND TROPHY WINNERS

JASON BUCK

JASON BUCK • 1986

Jason Buck, a 6-6, 270-pound senior from St. Anthony, Idaho, was a quarterback going into junior college at Ricks College. Buck led the 1986 Cougars with 218.5 defensive points and registered 26 unassisted tackles, 33 assisted tackles, 13 tackles for losses, 17 quarterback hurries and 12.5 sacks.

Buck rode a publicity campaign of "One Buck" dollar bills in leading BYU to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Freedom Bowl in 1986.

"For me it was just a thrill to be on the field every Saturday at BYU," said Buck. "To win the Outland Trophy was a dream come true."

MOHAMMED

ELEWONIBI • 1989

Mohammed Elewonibi, a 6-5, 290-pound, senior from British Columbia, Canada, spent his childhood in his native Nigeria and didn't play football until after high school, at Snow Junior College. "Mount Mohammed" led BYU to a 10-3 record, a berth in the Holiday Bowl in 1989 and graded out four times with perfect pass protection as a senior.

The Outland Trophy honors the outstanding interior lineman in the nation and was first presented in 1946 by the Football Writers Association of America.

The award is named for its benefactor, Dr. John H. Outland.

Two of BYU's greatest interior linemen, Jason Buck (top), a defensive tackle, and Mohammed Elewonibi (bottom), an offensive guard, earned the Outland Trophy award. In 1986, Buck, an amazing pass rusher, anchored one of BYU's strongest defensive teams ever. Elewonibi won the award in 1989 because of his outstanding protection of future Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer. Both players went on to successful professional careers in the NFL.

LUKE STALEY

2001 DOAK WALKER AWARD

While his teammates and coaches were watching in their hotel rooms from Hawai'i, over 6,000 miles away, BYU running back Luke Staley was named the winner of the 2001 Doak Walker Award. The annual award, which was presented on the ESPN Home Depot College Football Awards Show from Orlando, Fla., is presented to college football's top running back.

"This is a great honor," Staley said. "I can't express how grateful I am for my family, my teammates, my coach - everyone who made this possible."

In addition to winning the Doak Walker Award, Staley was also named as a first-team member of the prestigious Walter Camp Foundation All-America Team. Staley was the first BYU consensus All-American since Ty Detmer was twice selected in 1990 and 1991. In addition to the Walter Camp Foundation All-America team, Staley was named a first-team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, the Associated Press, The Sporting News, Football News and CNN/ISI—just to name a few.

"We're very proud of Luke and all his accomplishments," BYU head coach Gary Crowton said. "Since we started this season back in August, we have been telling these guys to work hard, stay focused and great things will happen. This award, although presented to Luke, is a tribute to the hard work and commitment each and every player and coach has made this season. Luke is probably one of the best examples we have had, in terms of working hard and staying focused.

This is a great tribute for a great athlete, a great teammate and a great young man. We couldn't be more proud of him."

Staley, from Tualatin, Ore., led the nation in scoring (15.5 p/game), yards per carry (8.1 y/carry) and finished the 2001 season ranked third in the nation in rushing, averaging 143.8 yards per game. He helped pace the Cougars to a 12-2 record on the season, scoring a BYU single-season record 28 touchdowns. Staley also racked up a BYU single-season record 1,582 yards rushing on the season.

ESPN's Chris Fowler interviews an injured Luke Staley after he was awarded the 2001 Doak Walker Award at the ESPN Home Depot College Football Awards show.

"This is a great tribute for a great athlete, a great teammate and a great young man. We couldn't be more proud of him."

BYU'S POLYNESIAN TRADITION

BYU's football program has tapped into the Pacific Islands to find players since 1951 when Harry Bray of Hilo, Hawai'i, transferred from Weber College to play for the Cougars. Other Pacific Islanders who followed included: Famika Anae (1954-55), John Kapele (1957-59), John Kawaa (1962-1963), John Lupoi (1967-1969) and Henry Nawahine (1964-1965). Some of BYU's most celebrated and decorated players have come from the Pacific islands, including All-Americans, national record holders and players who have gone on to compete in the NFL.

Since 1951, hundreds of Polynesian players have suited up for BYU. The Cougars' Polynesian players have come from Hawai'i, Tonga, Samoa and Fiji. Some of the most notable players include Vai Sikahema, the NCAA's career leader in punt returns, All-American and NFL veteran tight end Itula Mili and BYU's third all-time rushing leader Lakei Heimuli. Many former BYU Polynesian have gone on to play in the NFL.

Of the hundreds of Polynesian players, several rank among the top statistical leaders in BYU history. Two of the top-10 career rushers are Polynesian, including career leader Harvey Unga. Two of the top-10 leaders in career receiving yards are also Polynesian. Since 1982, 10 of BYU's season-rushing leaders have been Pacific Islanders.

Some of the many standout Polynesian athletes who excelled on the gridiron for BYU include: Mekeli Ieremia (1974-1977), Wally Moliua (1972-1973), Pili Saluone (1970-71), Charles Ah You (1973-74), Keith Uperesa (1974-77), Pisa Finai (1975), Marcus Kanahale (1975-76), Pulusila Filiaga (1979-81), David Aupui (1979-82), Allen Salanoa (1982), Brad Anae (1980-81), Louis Wong (1982-84), Robert Anae (1982-84), Lakei Heimuli (1983-1986), Vai Sikahema (1980-81, 83-85), Kurt Gouveia (1983-85), Ladd Akeo (1984-86), Andy Kato (1984-1987), Steve Kaufusi (1983-86), Thor Salanoa (1985-87), Chris Bisho (1986-1987), Alema Harrington (1986-88), Tau Harrington (1988-1990), Sim Tiatia (1988-90), Tom Tuipulotu (1983-85), Peter Tuipulotu (1989-91), Wayne Faaluafula (1981-1982), Fotu Katooa (1989), Rich Kaufusi (1989-90), Chris Matau (1985-1986), Micah Matsuzaki (1989-1993), Phil Nauahi (1987-1988), Alema Fitsemanu (1985-90), Spencer Reid (1994-97), Gabriel Reid (1999-02), Donny Atuia (1996-1999), Mark Atuia (1991-1996), Justin Ena (1997-2001), Elias Faupula (1994-1995), Setema Gali Jr. (1997-2000), Fred Katooa (1990), Harland Ah You (1995-97), K.O. 2010: BYU'S POLYNESIAN CONTINGENT

TIGHT END TRADITION

Although known as the Quarterback Factory, BYU signal callers wouldn't make the record books without someone on the receiving end of their throws. With BYU's tradition of wide-open offenses, the tight end position has thrived in its offensive scheme.

Tight ends have thrived in the BYU offensive system for years.

Like no other school in the nation, BYU's tight ends have earned unprecedented success as a featured position in BYU's wide-open offense. Over the years, Cougar football has emerged as the home of some of the best pass-catching tight ends in NCAA history. Starting with "Miracle Bowl" hero Clay Brown in 1980, 10 BYU tight ends have earned All-America status. Since 1976, 12 Cougar tight ends have received 20 first-team All-Conference citations. Five former Cougars helped lead their teams to the Super Bowl—Doug Jolley with the Oakland Raiders in 2003, Chad Lewis with the Philadelphia Eagles in 2005, Itula Mili with the Seattle Seahawks in 2006, Gabriel Reid with the Chicago Bears in 2007 and Dennis Pitta with the Baltimore Ravens in 2013. Two former BYU Cougars, Todd Christensen and Chad Lewis, have been named to several Pro Bowl teams during their successful professional careers as tight ends. A BYU tight end was named first-team all-conference (Jonny Harline in 2005 and 2006 and Dennis Pitta in 2007, 2008 and 2009) in five-straight years. In 2009, BYU became the first team in conference history to sweep the MWC tight end honors as Andrew George earned All-MWC Second Team accolades while Pitta was a consensus All-American.

Dennis Pitta, the NCAA's career receiving tight end leader, was an NCAA Consensus All-American in 2009. Now in the NFL, he caught a touchdown pass to help the Baltimore Ravens win the 2013 Super Bowl.

HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

The College Football Hall of Fame, located in South Bend, Indiana, has honored seven of BYU's greats.

TY DETMER

QUARTERBACK: 1988-1991

INDUCTED: DECEMBER 2012

BYU's only Heisman Trophy Winner, Detmer is BYU's seventh inductee into the Hall of Fame. Detmer also won the Maxwell Award, two Davey O'Brien Awards and set 63 NCAA records in his tenure. Twice named a consensus All-American, Detmer won national player of the year awards from organizations such as UPI, CBS, Scripps Howard and the U.S. Sports Academy. His 15,031 career passing yards and 121 touchdowns were NCAA bests at the time, and the gunslinger still holds three records. A three-time first team All-WAC performer, Detmer led College Football Hall of Fame coach LaVell Edwards' teams to three conference titles, four bowl games, three AP top 25 finishes and a 28-21 win over top-ranked and defending national champion Miami on Sept. 8, 1990. The NCAA Today's Top VI Award recipient was a ninth round selection of the 1992 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers and played 14 seasons in the NFL. The founder of the Ty Detmer Charitable Foundation, he regularly holds the Ty Detmer Youth Football League in Grants, N.M. A 2000 inductee of the BYU Athletics Hall of Fame, Detmer is currently the head coach at St. Andrew's Episcopal School in Austin, Texas.

GORDON HUDSON

TIGHT END: 1980-1983

INDUCTED: 2009

Hudson is the first non-quarterback to represent BYU as a player in the Hall. A consensus All-America First Team pick in 1982 and 1983, Hudson is still the NCAA FBS record holder for most passes caught per game by a tight end (5.4) in a career, most career yards per game by a tight end (75.3) and most yards in a single game by a tight end (259). Hudson helped BYU win four conference championships (WAC) and earn four Holiday Bowl invitations during his career from 1980-83. He totaled 2,484 receiving yards and 22 touchdowns during his All-American career.

LAVELL EDWARDS

HEAD COACH: 1972-2000

INDUCTED: 2004

A coaching icon whose success and longevity are paralleled by few, Edwards guided BYU to heights never before reached in the program's history. Edwards posted a record of 257-101-3 (.716) over a span of 29 seasons at BYU. From 1972 until his retirement following the 2000 season, Edwards roamed the sidelines at BYU—a tenure that ranks fifth all-time among coaches at one school. In 20 of those 29 seasons, the Cougars claimed the league title. Guiding BYU to 22 bowl game appearances, including a streak of 17-straight bowl appearances, Edwards reached the pinnacle of coaching success in 1984 by winning the National Championship. His 257 wins rank him seventh in NCAA Division I-A history, and he has more victories than every other coach in BYU history combined. At the helm, Edwards coached one Heisman Trophy winner, two Outland Trophy recipients, four Davey O'Brien award winners and 32 All-Americans—not to mention countless players who went on to professional careers in the NFL. He was named NCAA District 8 Coach of the Year eight times, the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year in 1979 and AFCA National Coach of the Year in 1984. Named the State of Utah's Coach of the Century, Edwards is a member of the State of Utah Sports Hall of Fame. "A spectacular choice," Steve Young said. "When you think of the Hall of Fame, you think of longevity, excellence, leadership and quality. In my book, Hall of Fame and LaVell Edwards go hand in hand. He is definitely a worthy recipient of this honor."

STEVE YOUNG

INDUCTED: 2000

One of the greatest collegiate quarterbacks of all time, Young set 13 NCAA records. As a junior, he averaged 318.8 yards per game of total offense, earning All-Western Athletic Conference recognition and Conference Player of the Year honors. In his senior season, he repeated as a first-team All-WAC selection, completed 306 of 429 pass attempts for an impressive .713 percentage and led BYU to its second straight Holiday Bowl. His .713 completion percentage, 3,902 yards passing, 4,346 yards of total offense and 33 touchdowns all led the nation. He completed 592 of 907 attempts for a .653 average, threw for 7,733 yards and 56 touchdowns and had 8,817 yards of total offense in only 31 games. A unanimous All-American and academic All-WAC selection, Young was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy and received a National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award in recognition for his excellence on the field, in the classroom and in the community. Young retired after 15 seasons in the NFL, where he earned two MVP awards, seven trips to the Pro Bowl and led the San Francisco 49ers to win the Super Bowl in 1995, earning MVP honors.

HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

The College Football Hall of Fame, located in South Bend, Indiana, has honored seven of BYU's greats.

JIM MCMAHON

QUARTERBACK: 1978-81

INDUCTED: 1998

In 1998 Jim McMahon (1977-78, 80-81) joined former BYU quarterbacks Gifford Nielsen and Marc Wilson, who were inducted into the National Football Foundation Collegiate Hall of Fame in 1994 and 1996, respectively. McMahon set 75 NCAA records at BYU, was a 1981 first team All-American by Kodak (Coaches), College & Pro Weekly, Associated Press, UPI, Football Writers Association of America, and second team NEA. In 1980 he earned first team All-America from the FWAA. McMahon balloted third place for the Heisman Trophy in 1981 and fifth in 1980. In 1981, he won the Davey O'Brien Trophy, the Sammy Baugh Award, the Utah Sportsman of the Year and the NCAA Co-Offensive Player of the Year with Marcus Allen (Pigskin Club of Wash., D.C.). He led the NCAA in pass efficiency (155.0) and total offense (345.8) in 1981 as well as pass efficiency (176.9) and total offense (385.6) in 1980. He set 29 Western Athletic Conference records and was three-time WAC Player of the Year and first team all-league. He broke 23 school records, was MVP of the 1980 and 1981 Holiday Bowls and has been inducted to the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame. McMahon passed for 9,536 yards, threw 84 touchdowns and completed 653 of 1,056 passes during his career at BYU. McMahon played for the Chicago Bears from 1982-88 (1985 Super Bowl Champions, 1985 Pro QB of the Year, and Pro Bowl); San Diego Chargers in 1989; Philadelphia Eagles from 1990-92; Minnesota Vikings in 1993; Arizona Cardinals in 1994; and Green Bay Packers from 1995-96 (1997 Super Bowl Champions).

MARC WILSON

QUARTERBACK: 1976-79

INDUCTED: 1996

One of the most celebrated quarterbacks in Cougar history, Marc Wilson earned consensus All-America honors in 1979 and was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Dec. 10, 1996. In Wilson's first game as a starter, he was 15 of 25 for 332 yards with seven touchdowns in a 63-17 triumph over Colorado State and was consequently named Sports Illustrated's Offensive Player of the Week. In Wilson's career at BYU, he set 10 NCAA records. The 6-5, 204-pound quarterback ranked fourth in the nation in passing efficiency with a 147.1 rating in 1979. That same year, Wilson finished third in the Heisman balloting, led his team to an undefeated regular season, and was named the Holiday Bowl's Offensive MVP. A true student-athlete, Wilson was the recipient of the NCAA Top Five Award and its post graduate scholarship. A first round draft pick of the Oakland Raiders, Wilson played eight seasons before finishing his career with the New England Patriots. Presently, Wilson is a land developer in the North Seattle area. He and his wife, Colleen, live in Woodinville, Wash. with their four children.

GIFFORD NIELSEN

QUARTERBACK: 1975-77

INDUCTED: 1994

Nicknamed the "Mormon Rifle," Gifford Nielsen became BYU's first Hall of Fame inductee in 1994. His prolific passing career began when he came off the bench in the third game of his sophomore season to lead the Cougars to a 16-15 come-from-behind win by completing 10 of 12 passes. "From that point on," Nielsen said, "everything clicked, and it's just amazing what happened." As a junior in 1976, Nielsen really made fans sit up and notice. He passed for 3,192 yards and 29 touchdowns, set 13 WAC records and made All-America. Next season promised even more. He threw five touchdown passes against New Mexico, six against Utah State and was twice named Player of the Week. For the first time, a BYU football team was nationally ranked. "It was like a little dream world," said Nielsen, a product of Provo High School. "The numbers were just mind-boggling. Everything you could ever dream of as a kid in Provo, Utah, was in the palm of my hand." On Oct. 8, 1977, his season and college career ended when he suffered a serious injury. Over three years Nielsen averaged an astounding 243 yards passing per game. Nielsen played six years with the Houston Oilers and was the last quarterback to lead the Oilers to the AFC finals. He and his wife Wendy have six children.

Established in 1947 by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame, Inc., the first class was inducted in 1951. In order to be eligible for the Hall of Fame, a nominated player must be out of college at least ten years and a first team All-America selection by a major selector during his career. The voting is done by a 12-member panel made up of athletic directors, conference and bowl officials and media representatives. The College Football Hall of Fame was located in South Bend, Indiana but is moving to Atlanta, Georgia. For more information visit <http://collegefootball.org/>.

YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS (^ Neutral, (H) Homecoming, (B) Bowl game)

BYU has a record of 538-393-26 (.577). The Cougars have had just 13 head coaches in nearly a century of football as they enter the 90th season of play. (BYU did not play football for three years (1943-45) during World War II.) Since 1972, when LaVell Edwards took the helm of BYU football, the Cougars have have fifth most wins of any team in college football to date.

CONFERENCE HISTORY

On Aug. 31, 2010, BYU announced its football program will compete in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision as an independent beginning with the 2011 season. Since the university instituted a football program in 1922, BYU had been a member of five different conferences, including the Rocky Mountain (1922-37), Mountain States/Skyline (1938-61), Western Athletic (1962-98) and Mountain West (1999-2010). The Cougars claimed their first conference championship in program history in 1965, going 4-2 in the WAC under head coach Tom Hudspeth. BYU won its next title, the first of 18 under legendary coach LaVell Edwards, in 1974. During its time in the MWC, the Cougars won four championships, including back-to-back undefeated conference seasons in 2006 and 2007.

MOUNTAIN WEST (1999-10)

- For the third time in program history, BYU chartered the creation of a new conference, this time joined by New Mexico, Utah, Air Force, Colorado St., San Diego St., UNLV and Wyoming. TCU joined in 2005.
- BYU football posted a 64-26 (.711) conference record in its 12 years in the conference.
- The Cougars' four MWC titles, 64 wins and 54 All-MWC First Team selections equal or surpass any MWC team since the league's inception.
- BYU won four MWC titles, including back-to-back championships in 2006-07. In three of its championship seasons, BYU went undefeated in conference play.

WESTERN ATHLETIC (1962-98)

- BYU was a charter member of the conference along with Arizona, Arizona State, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming.
- The WAC eventually expanded to as many as 16 schools in 1996.
- BYU football posted a 187-69-2 (.729) conference record in its 37 years in the conference.
- While in the WAC, the Cougars won the 1984 National Championship, finishing 13-0.
- BYU won a total of 19 titles while in the WAC, including its first-ever football championship in 1965 and 10-straight from 1976-85.
- BYU's 19 WAC titles, 187 conference wins and 199 All-WAC First Team selections are all still the most by far of any WAC team.

MOUNTAIN STATES/SKYLINE (1938-61)

- BYU was a charter member of the conference, leaving with Colorado, Colorado St., Denver, Utah, Utah State and Wyoming when the RMFAC was deemed too large. Montana and New Mexico joined in 1951.
- After Colorado left in 1947, the conference became popularly known as the Skyline Conference.
- Football posted a 41-75-12 (.367) conference record in its 24 years in the conference.
- The conference dissolved in early 1962 after BYU, Utah, Wyoming and New Mexico left to form the WAC.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN FACULTY ATHLETIC (1922-37)

- BYU joined the RMFAC in 1918 with football participation beginning four years later.
- BYU football posted a 46-52-4 (.471) conference record in its 16 years in the conference.
- When BYU joined, other RMFAC schools included Colorado, Colorado A&M (now Colorado St.), Colorado College, Colorado School of Mines, Denver, Utah, Utah St. and Montana St. Wyoming, Western St. and Colorado Teacher's College (now Northern Colorado) joined two years later.
- Known today as the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (RMAC), it is now a Division II conference with 14 members.

FOUR DECADES OF DOMINANCE

1970s

- The official LaVell Edwards era began in 1972
- A revolutionary passing attack would go on to produce one All-American quarterback after the next
- Despite introducing a pass-heavy attack, in 1972 BYU produced the nation's leading rusher in Pete Van Valkenburg with 1,386 yards
- BYU won five WAC titles behind the arms of Gary Sheide, Gifford Nielsen, Marc Wilson and Jim McMahon.
- The Cougars had 11 All-Americans in the 70s, won 71 games and attended four bowl games, including its first in school history, the 1974 Fiesta Bowl.

1980s

- The 1980s were perhaps some of the most dominant Cougar teams in history, playing in 10 bowl games in 10 years, winning 102 games, seven WAC titles and the 1984 National Championship.
- The Cougars won their first bowl game, the 1980 Holiday Bowl, nicknamed the "Miracle Bowl", scoring 21 points in the final two minutes and 33 seconds to win 46-45 over SMU.
- BYU's quarterback factory was in full force, rolling with Jim McMahon, Steve Young, Robbie Bosco and Ty Detmer. Cougar quarterbacks won three Sammy Baugh Trophies and three Davey O'Brien Awards.
- From 1983 to 1985 BYU put together a program-best 25 consecutive victories
- BYU also had five All-American tight ends in the 80s, including two-time All-American Gordon Hudson, two Outland Trophy winners (Jason Buck and Mo Elewonibi) and produced defensive standouts Kyle Morrell, Leon White, Jason Buck and Bob Davis.

1990s

- The 1990s began with a bang in one of the biggest Cougar victories in history, defeating the No. 1 Miami Hurricanes, the defending national champions, 28-21 in Provo behind quarterback Ty Detmer.
- Detmer, the eventual 1990 Heisman Trophy Winner, passed for 15,031 yards in his career, a school record and currently fourth in NCAA history.
- BYU won seven conference titles in the 90s, went to eight bowl games and won 86 games
- The Cougars played in their only New Year's Day Bowl game in the 1997 Cotton Bowl, defeating the No.14 Kansas State Wildcats 19-15, giving BYU an NCAA record 14th victory of the season and its second top-5 national ranking in school history.

2000s

- The start of the new millennium was an end of an era as Hall of Fame head coach LaVell Edwards retired in 2000 after 29 years at the helm. Edwards led BYU to a 257-101-3 overall record, 19 conference titles and one national championship.
- The next year BYU won 12 games and another conference title. Doak Walker Award winner and consensus All-American running back Luke Staley led BYU with single-season school records of 1,596 yards and 24 touchdowns in just 11 games.
- In 2005 a new head coach, Bronco Mendenhall took the reins of the program to continue the tradition of the success of the past.
- The Cougars won 10 games and finished in the national top 25 polls four straight years from 2006-2009, won three bowl games, two conference titles and a total of 81 games, propelling them into the next decade of success.

GAME SUMMARY:

Competing in its first post-season bowl game ever, BYU played Western Athletic Conference host to the Oklahoma State Cowboys before a crowd of 50,878.

The Cougars got off to a quick start with two field goals during the first quarter before All-WAC quarterback Gary Sheide suffered a dislocated shoulder in the last moments of the quarter. He was replaced by junior reserve Mark Giles. The Cowboys took the scoring lead during the second quarter on a touchdown run around left end, giving Oklahoma State a 7-6 halftime advantage. OSU regained possession of the ball on the Cougars' 17-yard line after intercepting Giles, but the Cowboys were unable to convert on the turnover. A field goal from 32 yards out put the Cowboys in front 10-6 at the end of the third quarter. With 1:14 remaining in the game, Oklahoma State scored another touchdown on a 40-yard halfback pass to complete the scoring. The Cougars out-gained Oklahoma State in total yardage, 301-214. Giles was 11 of 26 for 138 yards. After three losses and a tie to open the season, the Cougars reeled off seven straight victories prior to the bowl game.

GAME SUMMARY:

Powerful Oklahoma State, sparked by All-American Terry Miller (173 yards rushing on 23 carries), used four pass interceptions and a fumble recovery to capture the 31st annual Tangerine Bowl contest. Defensively, the Cowboys yielded only 46 yards rushing. The Cougars, however, stayed close in the first half, which ended 28-14. Dave Lowry returned the second-half kickoff 102 yards (a Tangerine Bowl record) to move the Cougars to within seven at 28-21. From there, it was all Cowboys. BYU's Gifford Nielsen completed 23 of 34 passes for 209 yards and one touchdown, but the Cougars could only roll up 255 yards to Oklahoma State's 402. BYU entered the game with a 9-2 record, while Oklahoma State came in after tying for the Big 8 title. The Cowboys missed out on the Orange Bowl because of the conference tie-breaking formula. Later, the stadium was expanded and the name changed to the Florida Citrus Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY:

The inaugural Holiday Bowl pitted two teams with local drawing power, the Naval Academy and Brigham Young University. Despite chilly temperatures, the two teams engaged in a hard-hitting battle. Defense dominated the first two quarters. Brent Johnson put the Cougars on the scoreboard first with a 33-yard field goal with 8:26 left in the first quarter. But Navy's Bob Tata boomed a 40-yard field goal to tie the score at 3-3. Jim McMahon sent the Cougars ahead with a 10-yard pass to Mike Chronister, but Johnson missed the PAT. McMahon ran another in from two yards out in the third period for a 16-3 BYU lead. Navy cut the lead to 16-10 after three quarters and then tied the game on two field goals in the fourth quarter, but it was a 65-yard pass to Phil McConkey that did the Cougars in. Some 52,500 witnessed the game in person. McConkey was named Best Offensive Player and BYU's Tom Enlow won Best Defensive Player honors. Navy finished the year at 9-3, BYU at 9-4.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 1979 season ended with BYU leading the nation in scoring, passing and total offense. At 11-0, the Cougars were one of the few undefeated, untied teams in the nation. Those kinds of credentials, along with its No. 9 national ranking in the UPI and AP polls made BYU the favorite over the at-large entry, Indiana. The opportunistic Hoosiers played the Cougars tough, holding a 21-17 lead at the half. BYU jumped ahead in the third quarter, 24-21, on a 13-yard pass from All-American Marc Wilson to Homer Jones. The Cougars fell behind, 31-24, but regained the lead at 34-31 on a 15-yard pass to Eric Lane. With 12:14 left to play, BYU padded the lead on the third field goal of the game by Brent Johnson. But midway through the fourth quarter, Indiana's Tim Wilbur returned a punt 62 yards to push the Hoosiers ahead 38-37. With 2:06 remaining, the Cougars moved the ball 69 yards to the Indiana 10. Then, with 11 seconds left, Johnson missed a 27-yard field goal that would have won the game. Wilson was voted the MVP on offense (28 of 43 for 380 yards) and Indiana's Wilbur won the honor for defense. Clay Brown caught nine passes for 142 yards. Lane grabbed nine passes for 79 yards and also scored a rushing touchdown. Jones scored a touchdown and had 126 yards on seven kickoff returns.

GAME SUMMARY:

One observer said the 1980 Holiday Bowl was actually two ball games—a contest which lasted most of four quarters and another of four minutes duration. SMU controlled the “first game,” leaving the Cougars behind 20 points with only minutes remaining. Unfortunately, many fans either turned off their TV sets or left the stadium in San Diego before the “second game” began. In the final four minutes, BYU surged to a stunning 46-45 win. For 56 minutes the Mustangs taught the Cougars a lesson in running the football. The Mustangs' two great running backs, Craig James and Eric Dickerson, rushed for a combined total of 335 yards. With 4:07 remaining in the game, SMU scored to go ahead, 45-25. From there the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an on-side kick, scored on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips, and blocked a punt. Finally, with three seconds left on the clock, Jim McMahon connected on a “Hail Mary” pass of 41 yards to Clay Brown. With the score tied, Kurt Gunther kicked the extra point to send BYU fans streaming onto the field. McMahon was 32 of 49 passes for 446 yards. It may have been the most exciting bowl game ever, with the Cougars getting 21 points in the final 2:33. Ironically, four passes on conversion attempts had failed before McMahon hit Phillips after the next-to-last touchdown to cut a 45-31 deficit to 45-39 and put the Cougars in a position to win the game with one more score. The 50-yard drive was set up when Todd Shell recovered a Brent Johnson on-side-kick at midfield. SMU got the ball back with 1:57 but had to punt. The kick was blocked by defensive back Bill Schoepflin and recovered by the SMU punter, Eric Kaifes, with 13 seconds left. McMahon threw one incomplete pass intended for Brown and another for Lloyd Jones before unleashing the famous pass to Brown in the end zone with no time left on the clock.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 1981 edition of the Holiday Bowl fit the mold of its predecessors. This time it was the Cougars of BYU versus the Cougars of Washington State, playing before a crowd of 52,419. BYU held a 24-7 lead at halftime, then pushed the score to 31-7 as Tom Holmoe intercepted a pass and returned it 35 yards to give the WAC champions a comfortable edge. As the second half progressed, it appeared BYU would be the come-from-behind victim in this one. With only 59 seconds left in the third quarter, Washington State scored to make it 31-28. But Jim McMahon took over moving BYU 82 yards for a score to stretch the lead to 38-28. Statistically, it was a typical McMahon game, 27 of 43 with no interceptions and three touchdowns. Tight end Gordon Hudson had an excellent game, collecting seven catches for 126 yards and a touchdown. Dan Plater also caught a touchdown pass and Waymon Hamilton scored on the ground. Washington State quarterbacks Clete Casper and Ricky Turner completed only eight passes for 106 yards but Turner had 82 yards rushing while Don LaBomme had 79. Each team scored five touchdowns, so the difference actually came midway through the second quarter when Kurt Gunther connected on a 20-yard field goal after a BYU drive stalled on the Washington State three.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars had their two-game Holiday Bowl win streak snapped by Ohio State, 47-17. BYU's bubble burst at the outset of the third quarter, when the Buckeyes reeled off 17 unanswered points. Tim Spencer blew through the Cougar defense for 167 yards, including a record-setting 61-yard touchdown run in the second quarter that put Ohio State up, 10-7. Steve Young completed 27 of 45 passes for 341 yards, but BYU had a tough time getting into the end zone. The Cougars turned the ball over to Ohio State three times inside the 30 and saw the Buckeyes convert each turnover into a score. The Cougars took the lead early in the second quarter with a seven-yard strike to Neil Balholm. But Spencer's long gallop and a blocked punt put the Buckeyes up, 17-10, at halftime. Big fullback Vaughn Broadnax scored on the opening drive of the second half, and on the next play, Young was intercepted and Spencer ran 18 yards to put Ohio State in control for good. BYU's only other score came midway through the fourth quarter when Gordon Hudson caught a 13-yard pass. Ohio State quarterback Mike Tomzak had only 132 yards passing and no touchdowns, but his fleet of running backs scored six times on the ground. Ten different BYU players caught passes, led by Hudson with seven receptions for 81 yards and Balholm with 58 yards receiving.

GAME SUMMARY:

Yet another chapter was added to the saga of impossible, thrilling Holiday Bowl finishes when BYU defeated Missouri, 21-17. The game was billed as a classic matchup between Missouri's stubborn defense and BYU's explosive offense, led by quarterback Steve Young. Missouri held BYU to just 167 yards and seven points in the first half, while BYU's defense allowed the Tigers only 157 yards and 10 points. Missouri got its first-half points on a two-yard run by Eric Drain and a 37-yard field goal by Brad Burditt. BYU's touchdown came on a 10-yard quarterback draw by Young. In the second half, Young hit Eddie Stinnett with a 33-yard touchdown pass. Missouri came right back with another two-yard plunge by Drain. A valiant goal-line stand by BYU gave the Cougars the ball on the six-yard-line with 3:57 left in the game. Led by Young, the Cougars moved down the field to the Missouri 15 with under a minute to play. On first-and-10 at the Tigers' 15, Young handed to Stinnett, who faked a sweep right and threw back across the field to Young. The Stinnett pass barely cleared the outstretched hands of Missouri's Bobby Bell allowing Young to gather it in and scramble 15 yards to the end zone. The PAT gave BYU a 21-17 lead with 23 seconds left. Kyle Morrell intercepted a Missouri desperation pass at the BYU two-yard line and returned it to the 17 to seal the win.

GAME SUMMARY:

Holiday Bowl VII lived up to all the glamour and excitement of the previous six bowls, plus it had a new dimension--national championship luster--thanks to BYU's undefeated, untied season and No. 1 ranking. The 24-17 Cougar victory marked the first time in years that a non-New Year's Day bowl game determined the national championship. The contest was played in typical Holiday Bowl fashion. After a scoreless first quarter in which Cougar quarterback Robbie Bosco was forced to the sideline with an injured knee and ankle, the game began to develop drama. BYU scored first with 8:37 left in the first half on a five-yard run by Kelly Smith. The touchdown was set up when a limping Bosco returned to the lineup and engineered an 80-yard drive. The Wolverines responded by putting together an 80-yard scoring drive of their own, culminating on Rick Rogers' five-yard touchdown run up the middle. The PAT tied the score at seven. The tie was short-lived however, as a 31-yard field goal by Lee Johnson with time running out in the first half gave BYU a 10-7 lead at the break. Midway through the third period, Michigan went on top for the first time at 14-10 on a 10-yard scoring strike from Bob Zurbrugg to Bob Perryman. The Wolverines added to their lead when Bob Bergeron nailed a 32-yard field goal to make the Michigan lead 17-10 with 14:14 to play. The Cougar offense then produced an 80-yard drive that culminated with a seven-yard Bosco-to-Glen Kozlowski touchdown pass to tie the game at 17 with 10:51 to go. Bosco's 13-yard scoring toss to Smith with 1:23 remaining made it 24-17. Two plays later Marv Allen intercepted a pass to clinch a 13-0 season and the Cougars' first-ever national championship. David Mills finished with 11 catches for 103 yards receiving and Smith had 10 for 88. Lakei Heimuli led BYU with 82 yards rushing while Bob Perryman had 110 for Michigan.

SCORING:

OSU – Spangler 47-yard field goal

BYU – Miles 38 yard pass from Bosco (Webster kick)

OSU – Kolic 14 pass interception (Spangler kick)

GAME SUMMARY:

In what promised to be an offensive showdown between pass-happy BYU (11-2) and rough and tumble Ohio State (8-3), two of the nation's top defenses took center stage. In fact, the game's only touchdowns were produced by a noseguard on an interception and a reserve wide receiver on a broken play. Buckeye kicker Rich Spangler tallied the first points of the game with a 47-yard field goal early in the second quarter to give Ohio State a 3-0 lead. BYU attempted to answer with a long drive of its own, only to come away empty after Vai Sikahema fumbled on an apparent touchdown plunge. Before the first half ended, quarterback Robbie Bosco rolled left, whirled right and found wide receiver David Miles on a 38-yard strike to give the Cougars a 7-3 halftime lead. In the second half, Ohio State nose-guard Larry Kolic intercepted Bosco and took it in for a touchdown to give the Buckeyes a 10-7 lead. Leon White and Kyle Whittingham recovered fumbles but Kolic got another interception and Terry White intercepted two in the end zone to stop BYU threats—one with 3:38 to play and again with three seconds left. Ohio State was the benefactor of six Cougar turnovers, and the Buckeyes went home the victor. Mark Bellini had 89 yards receiving while Lakei Heimuli added 10 receptions for 77 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

Although BYU failed to win the WAC title, the Cougars kept alive an impressive streak of nine bowl appearances in a row by being invited to the third annual Freedom Bowl. There they met familiar foe UCLA. The two teams had met in 1985 when the Bruins came from behind to win a tough game in Provo, 27-24. The Freedom Bowl, however, proved different as UCLA outstanding running back Gaston Green broke open a close game in the third quarter and the Bruins went on to win 31-10. Green finished with 266 yards on 33 carries. The first half was all defense as the two teams punted nine times in the first 30 minutes. BYU struck first when linebacker Andy Katoa recovered a UCLA fumble at the Bruin 47 and Leonard Chitty put the Cougars ahead 3-0 with a 32-yard field goal. UCLA stormed ahead to stay with a 71-yard touchdown drive highlighted by a 49-yard run on a reverse by Bruin receiver Karl Dorrell. From then on, it was UCLA most of the way. Cougar quarterbacks Bob Jensen and Mike Young managed to pass for over 200 yards, but UCLA and Green did most of the damage. Costly injuries to standouts Mark Bellini and Katoa hindered the Cougar effort, but Outland Trophy winner Jason Buck turned in another strong effort.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 11th annual All-American Bowl began with temperatures in the 40s and BYU never warmed up. The Cougars' 10th consecutive bowl appearance included several records, but BYU lost 22-16 in its first-ever meeting with Virginia. Sean Covey attempted 61 passes, David Miles had 188 yards in receptions and Pat Thompson only punted once, but BYU fell short several times. Darren Handley, BYU's leading receiver, dropped a touchdown pass in the first quarter before BYU settled for a 20-yard field goal by Leonard Chitty. However, Chitty, who set a season best for field goals (18) and consecutive PATs (29), missed from 51 and 47 yards as Virginia took a 14-3 lead into the intermission. BYU got to the Virginia two-yard-line midway through the third quarter only to have a fourth-down pass tipped away. Later, Freddie Whittingham scampered eight yards to cut the lead to 14-9 at the end of the third quarter. Virginia, led by quarterback Scott Secules, the game's MVP, made a crucial 76-yard drive to go ahead 22-9 with 11 minutes left. Then, BYU went the same distance to score on a one-yard pass to Whittingham with seven minutes remaining. But that was as close as the Cougars would get. Ironically, nine years earlier on the same date Virginia coach George Welsh was head coach of Navy, which beat BYU 23-16 in the inaugural Holiday Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY:

A star was born in the fifth annual Freedom Bowl when Ty Detmer came off the bench to earn MVP honors while leading the Cougars to an upset victory over Colorado. Cool weather didn't hamper diminutive Eric Bieniemy, who rushed 33 times for 144 yards and two touchdowns. But his heroics couldn't offset Detmer's 11 for 17 and 129 yards in the second half. Scott Peterson made an interception to set up the game-winning field goal. It was an exciting contest for the 35,941 fans (49,694 tickets were sold) in attendance. A fumble at midfield led to the Buffaloes' first score, before Sean Covey found Mike Salido to tie the score. An interception in the end zone stopped a BYU drive early in the second quarter as the Cougars trailed at the half, 14-7. A Detmer to Chuck Cutler pass tied the game in the third quarter but Colorado took a 17-14 lead early in the final quarter. BYU then moved from its own four to the Buffalo 14 and tied the game with 4:11 left on a 31-yarder by Chaffetz. Three plays later, Peterson's interception and a 15-yard penalty put the ball at the Colorado 32. With 2:33 left, Chaffetz booted a 35-yarder for the victory. Halfback Matt Bellini carried eight times for 78 yards and caught four passes for 41 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

Two unusual plays late in the game kept BYU from downing Penn State and offset 576 yards passing by Ty Detmer—the highest total ever in a bowl game. For his effort, and thanks to blocking from Outland Trophy winner Mohammed Elewonibi, Detmer had the rare privilege of sharing MVP honors despite playing on the losing team. BYU trailed 41-26 with nine and a half minutes remaining and scored twice to cut the lead to 41-39 with 2:30 to play. The Cougars went for a two-point conversion to tie the game, but Detmer's pass was intercepted in the end zone by Penn State linebacker Andre Collins and returned 102 yards for two points. Down 43-39, the Cougars, led by Bob Davis, forced the Lions to punt, giving BYU the ball on its own 12 with two minutes left. Passes to Brent Nyberg, Matt Bellini, Chris Smith and Andy Boyce moved the ball to the Penn State 38 with a minute left to play. Then, what appeared to be a sack by Penn State safety Gary Brown turned into a score for the Nitanny Lions. Brown stripped the ball from Detmer at the Penn State 47 and raced 53 yards for the score. Penn State finished the season ranked 14th by UPI and 15th by AP and CNN/USA Today. BYU was 18th in the UPI poll and 22nd in the others.

GAME SUMMARY:

Led by quarterback Bucky Richardson and All-America running back Darren Lewis, underdog Texas A&M was out to show it belonged among the nation's elite. The Cougars entered the game beat up. Defensive backs Tony Crutchfield and Norm Dixon weren't able to suit up and Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer was playing with a slight separation in his non-throwing shoulder. The second-largest Holiday Bowl crowd ever (61,441) watched the Aggies march 80 yards in 13 plays to take a 7-0 lead. The Cougars tied the score on an eight-yard Detmer-to-Chris Smith touchdown pass, but after that, the game was all Texas A&M. The Aggies went on to score 23 points in the second quarter en route to a 37-7 half-time lead. With the game out of hand, the big story was William Thomas' crunching sack that separated Detmer's throwing shoulder and put him out of the game early in the third quarter. The Aggies continued to dominate by racking up nearly 200 yards rushing in the second half. Texas A&M's Richardson would go on to be named Offensive Player of the Game by piling up 344 yards in total offense. Thomas was named the top defensive player. BYU finished the season ranked 17th by UPI, 20th by CNN/USA Today and 22nd by AP. BYU had been as high as fourth prior to its first loss.

GAME SUMMARY:

A tipped pass that was picked off in the end zone with less than 30 seconds remaining stifled BYU's hopes of knocking off seventh-ranked Iowa in the 14th annual Holiday Bowl. Ty Detmer turned in another great performance in his last appearance as a Cougar, passing for 350 yards and two touchdowns against a team that led the Big 10 in defense and sacks. Quarterback Matt Rodgers led Iowa on a 74-yard scoring march on the game's opening drive. The Hawkeyes also scored on another long drive in the second quarter. Down 13-0, BYU finally got things rolling. Starting on the BYU 22, Detmer connected on five of six passes to move the Cougars to the Iowa nine. From there, he found fullback Peter Tuipulotu for the touchdown. The PAT failed and the halftime score was 13-6. BYU opened the fourth with an 87-yard drive that culminated with a Detmer-to-Tyler Anderson touchdown from 29 yards out. Earl Kauffman connected on the PAT to tie the score at 13. Each team threatened to score late in the fourth quarter. Iowa missed a 40-yard field goal with 4:19 left. On the game's final drive the Cougars moved inside the Iowa 20 with 33 seconds left to play, but Detmer's pass to tight end Byron Rex was tipped and picked off by Hawkeye safety Carlos James in the end zone to preserve the tie. Josh Arnold of BYU earned defensive MVP honors as BYU finished the season ranked 23rd in the AP and CNN/USA Today polls. Iowa was 10th in both polls.

GAME SUMMARY:

Kansas kicker Dan Eichloff booted a 48-yard field goal with 2:57 left to play, giving the Jayhawks a victory over BYU, the WAC tri-champion. Tom Young, who completed 15 of 31 passes for 262 yards in his first varsity start, was named Most Valuable Player for BYU. Tackle Dana Stubblefield, who had three of the six sacks on Young, won the honor for Kansas. Young had been pressed into action when Ryan Hancock suffered knee ligament damage against Utah in the final regular-season game. The Cougars took an early lead when Hema Heimuli scrambled 94 yards on the opening kickoff for a score. Kansas tied the game two plays later when wide receiver Matt Gay threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to tight end Rodney Harris. BYU took a 14-9 lead in the second quarter when Jamal Willis ran 29 yards for a score. Eichloff then cut the halftime score to 14-12 with a 42-yard field goal. But the kicking game would prove the downfall as the Cougars missed a 36-yard field goal in the first quarter as well as a 31-yarder and misplayed an extra point attempt in the third quarter. Young threw 10 yards to Otis Sterling for the only score of the third quarter. Kansas quarterback Chip Hilleary then tied the game by directing a 75-yard drive in a minute and a half, scoring the touchdown and then running for a two-point conversion.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars took Big 10 Co-Champion Ohio State to the wire at the 16th annual Holiday Bowl and came up just short. BYU had four downs and 32 seconds to tie or win the game from the OSU six-yard line, but four straight John Walsh passes into the end zone fell to the ground and OSU slipped away with the win. BYU got to the Ohio State six, 14, 22-yard lines in the second half without scoring. Meanwhile, Raymont Harris, OSU's senior halfback, battered the BYU defense all night long, scoring three touchdowns on his way to a record 235 yards rushing. Despite Harris' rushing, the Cougars managed to go into the halftime break tied at 21. Chad Lewis made a spectacular one-handed touchdown grab in the corner of the end zone to bail the Cougars out of a fourth-and-eight situation. After Harris' short touchdown run late in the third, BYU and OSU traded possessions until late into the fourth quarter. After forcing a rare Buckeye punt, BYU got the ball back on its own 42 with 43 seconds left. On first down, Walsh hooked up with senior co-captain Eric Drage who ran away from Buckeye defenders and advanced the ball 52 yards to the OSU six-yard line. Walsh had 389 yards and fullback Kalin Hall rushed for 42 yards on 11 carries. Tyler Anderson returned five kicks for 145 yards, including an exciting 45-yarder. Harris and Walsh shared MVP honors.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU fans celebrated the New Year early as the Cougars dominated Oklahoma and ended its five-year winning drought in bowl games. Quarterback John Walsh and the offense clicked on all cylinders and the Cougars' defense was dominating throughout the ESPN telecast. Walsh threw a seven-yard TD pass to Bryce Doman in the first quarter and had a 25-yard pass to Mike Johnston in the second quarter. A four-yard scoring pass to Johnston in the third quarter and a 28-yard touchdown pass to Doman in the fourth quarter vaulted Walsh's stats to 454 yards and four touchdowns on 31 of 45 passes with no interceptions against the Sooner defense which had held national champion Nebraska to 13 points. BYU's defense was dominating as it held Oklahoma to just 72 yards rushing and 163 yards passing—most of those in the last quarter. The Sooners did not cross midfield until their ninth possession on the second-to-last play of the third quarter. Jamal Willis caught seven passes for 103 yards and was chosen Offensive Player of the Game. Walsh was named MVP in what would be his final game at BYU. BYU finished 10th in the CNN/USA Today poll and 18th in the Associated Press poll.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU assumed the nation's longest winning streak with a come-from-behind 19-15 victory in the 61st annual Cotton Bowl. It was the first New Year's Day appearance for both 14th-ranked Kansas State and fifth-ranked BYU. More than 40,000-purple clad Kansas State supporters out-numbered the 15,000 Cougar patrons as 71,928 fans filled the Cotton Bowl. BYU got on the board first with a safety, then turned the ensuing punt into a field goal to lead 5-0 in the first quarter. The safety came when linebacker Shay Muirbrook, the game's defensive MVP, collected one of his six sacks. Kansas State took a half-time lead with a 41-yard "Hail Mary" pass and a successful two-point conversion with no time left on the clock. The Wildcats increased the lead to 15-5 in the third quarter when offensive co-MVP Kevin Lockett caught a 72-yard TD. Fueled by consecutive controversial interference no-calls, quarterback Steve Sarkisian engineered two fourth-quarter drives capped by touchdown passes of 32-yards to James Dye and 28-yards to K.O. Kealaluhi. Sarkisian, an offensive co-MVP, completed 21 passes to tie a Cotton Bowl record held by Roger Staubach of Navy. KSU drove the length of the field before Cougar cornerback Omarr Morgan juggled an interception from a Wildcat slant pattern at the 12 yard line to secure the game.

GAME SUMMARY:

In BYU's first ever appearance at the Liberty Bowl, the Cougars ran into tenth-ranked Tulane that entered the New Year's Eve game with a perfect season record. The Cougars struck first on an 11-yard pass from Kevin Feterik to receiver Ben Horton. Tulane would score 20 unanswered points in the first half. With just 41 seconds remaining in the half, BYU looked to put an end to the Green Wave momentum, but came up short as Feterik was sacked by Phil Henderson for a 10-yard loss to end the half. Things didn't get much better for the Cougars in the second half, as Tulane scored its third touchdown of the game on the opening drive of the half. On its next possession, the Green Wave would strike again on a 13-yard pass from King to Jamaican Dartez to give Tulane a 34-6 lead with just over seven minutes remaining in the third quarter. On its first drive of the final period, BYU scored for the first time since the 8:49 mark in the first half on an Aaron Cupp three-yard run. Trailing by 28 midway through the fourth quarter, BYU finally crossed the Tulane 20-yard line for the first time since the first half and went on to score 14 unanswered points before time expired.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU squared off against Marshall in the first meeting between the two schools at the Cougars' first-ever appearance in the third annual Motor City Bowl. The Cougars scored first on a field goal by Owen Pochman with 1:58 remaining in the first quarter. That score was set up by a pair of 20-plus yard receptions by Donny Atuaia and Jonathan Pittman. In the second quarter, Marshall drove the ball down to the BYU five-yard line, but failed to convert as a 22-yard field goal attempt by Billy Malashevich missed wide to the right. On the Herd's next possession, Chad Pennington put Marshall on the board with a 30-yard touchdown pass to Doug Chapman. On BYU's ensuing drive, Feterik connected with Margin Hooks for a 67-yard pass play that took the Cougars all the way to the nine-yard line. However, the Cougars couldn't capitalize inside the red zone and Feterik suffered a collarbone injury off a blind-side corner blitz. Pochman, who had connected on 18 of 25 attempts in the regular season, missed wide left on his field goal attempt. Feterik attempted to play in the second half, but left the game midway in the third quarter when freshman Bret Engemann took the QB controls. Just before the end of the third quarter, Marshall struck a big play when Chapman rushed 87 yards for a touchdown. To cap off his MVP performance, Chapman scored Marshall's final touchdown. The Cougars missed a final chance to score when Brian Gray had a clear path to the end zone, but dropped a sure interception.

The champions of the MWC faced Louisville, the champions of Conference USA. The Cardinals, led by quarterback Dave Ragone, took an early lead, scoring on a one-yard dive by Henry Miller that was set up by Zek Parker's 70-yard return on the opening kickoff. Midway through the second quarter the Cougar offense came alive, driving to the Louisville 10-yard line. Quarterback Brandon Doman dropped back and rolled right as if to pass, then turned to his left and threw the ball to Dustin Rykert on a tackle-eligible play. All 6-foot-7, 305 pounds of offensive tackle outran the Cardinal defense to the corner and rumbled 10 yards to the end zone to tie the game 7-7. Louisville just managed to take a 14-7 lead into the break, scoring with only 14 seconds left. Louisville contained the Cougar attack for the remainder of the game while reaching the end zone two more times. Although Louisville went on to win 28-10, BYU's defense played one of its best games of the season, holding the Cardinals' high-powered offense to 228 yards passing and only 58 yards rushing.

 BYU – Watkins 9-yard pass from Beck (McLaughlin kick)

GAME SUMMARY:

Trailing 35-14 in the fourth quarter, BYU stormed back with two touchdowns and had the ball with 2:20 remaining, but John Beck was intercepted after he was hit when releasing the ball, ending the Cougars' comeback hopes. Beck had a record-setting performance, completing 35-of-53 attempts for 352 yards and three touchdowns. The 35 completions, 53 attempts and 352 yards were all Las Vegas Bowl records. Nathan Meikle caught a game-high 12 passes for 95 yards while Jonny Harline had seven receptions for 73 yards and one score and Todd Watkins added five catches for 95 yards and a touchdown. BYU fell behind 7-0 in the first quarter but scored early in the second when Beck found Curtis Brown for a 19-yard touchdown pass. California scored again but Fahu Tahi scored on a three-yard run to tie the game at 14 with 38 seconds left in the second quarter. The Golden Bears struck again before the half, going 58 yards in 27 seconds to take a 21-14 lead into the locker room. In the fourth, Beck engineered a 74-yard drive that ended with Harline scoring and then a 96-yard drive that ended with Watkins catching a nine-yard touchdown pass from Beck. California's ensuing drive ended with a missed field goal and the Cougars had a chance to tie but the drive ended on Beck's interception.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 2006 BYU championship run ended with a Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl championship as the Cougars (11-2) dominated Oregon (7-6), 38-8, to finish the season with a 10-game winning streak in front of a Sam Boyd Stadium record crowd of 44,615. The Mountain West Conference champion BYU team set a school record for margin of victory in a bowl game, beating the Ducks by 30 points. Previously, the largest margin of victory for a BYU team in a bowl game was a 25-point defeat of Oklahoma in the 1994 Copper Bowl. BYU dominated all facets of the game, out-gaining Oregon 548 total yards to 260 total yards. BYU passed for 375 compared to Oregon's 166 and rushed for 173 compared to the Ducks 94. BYU seniors John Beck, Jonny Harline and Curtis Brown finished their careers in style. Beck completed 28-of-46 passes for 375 yards and two touchdowns. Harline, who was named Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl MVP, caught nine passes for a career-best--and Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl record--181 yards and a touchdown. Brown had 17 carries for 120 yards and two touchdowns and also caught seven passes for 55 yards. Brown also became the first BYU runner to rush for over 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons. Beck and Brown became the first quarterback/running back combo to pass for 3,000 yards and rush for 1,000 in the same season twice.

GAME SUMMARY:

No. 17 BYU (11-2) won its second consecutive Las Vegas Bowl, 17-16, against UCLA (6-7) in dramatic fashion -- by blocking the Bruins' potential game-winning field goal attempt as time expired. With only three ticks on the clock, true freshman Eathyn Manumaleuna extended his right hand at the right time to block UCLA's potential game-winning, 28-yard field goal as time expired to create what will be known as one of the most memorable bowl finishes in BYU football history. The victory also avenged an early-season loss to the Bruins -- one of only two losses the Cougars suffered during the season. The Cougars, who finished the 2007 season on a 10-game winning streak, were led by sophomores Max Hall and Austin Collie. Hall threw 21-35 for 231 yards and two touchdowns. Sophomore receiver Austin Collie was named the 2007 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl Most Valuable Player after racking up a game-high 107 yards on six receptions. Collie's 14-yard touchdown reception from Max Hall with 10:32 left in the second quarter gave the Cougars a 10-3 advantage. He was also credited with a game-high 195 all-purpose yards, including three kick returns for a total of 88 yards. The win marked the first time BYU had won back-to-back bowl games since the 1994 Copper Bowl and the 1996 Cotton Bowl. The win over UCLA extended the Cougars' win streak to 10 straight games, which marked the nation's longest active winning streak.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU totaled 444 yards of total offense compared to Arizona's 416, but the No. 16 Cougars fell short of their third-straight bowl victory, falling 31-21 to the Arizona Wildcats in the 2008 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl at Sam Boyd Stadium on Dec. 20. Trailing late in the game, BYU put pressure on Arizona with a comeback attempt when the Cougars followed a touchdown with a successful on-side kick. Wide receiver O'Neill Chambers recovered the ball for BYU, but the ensuing field-goal attempt hit the upright and left the Wildcats with a two-possession lead, enough to hold on for the win. Austin Collie continued to set BYU records in career receptions (215) and single-season receptions (106). The All-American receiver also tied an NCAA single-season record held with Texas Tech's Michael Crabtree with his 11th consecutive 100-yard receiving game. BYU quarterback Max Hall completed 30-of-46 passes for 328 yards and one touchdown pass. The Cougars finished the year 10-3 while the Wildcats improved to 8-5. BYU was one of only seven programs in the nation to win 10 or more games each year from 2006-2008. The Cougars last accomplished the feat from 1983-85.

GAME SUMMARY:

The No. 14 BYU Cougars defeated the Pac-10 second-place Beavers 44-20 at the MAACO Bowl Las Vegas. It was the first-ever Las Vegas Bowl matchup pitting two top-20 teams. BYU's senior class anchored the win as quarterback Max Hall earned MVP honors throwing for 192 yards and three touchdowns. Manase Tonga contributed two touchdowns, while senior tight ends Andrew George and Dennis Pitta led all receivers with 46 and 45 yards, respectively. Defensively, senior linebacker Matt Bauman recovered a key fumble, returning it 34 yards for a touchdown. The score marked the first fumble recovery for a touchdown in BYU bowl history. Fellow team captain Scott Johnson intercepted an Oregon State pass in the fourth quarter and returned it 56 yards to set up BYU's final touchdown of the game. BYU and Oregon State met for the first time in a bowl game and for the first contest since BYU head coach Bronco Mendenhall played for the Beavers in 1986. Wind gusts of 55 mph created some havoc for the passing and kicking games. BYU punter Riley Stephenson kicked a 60-yard low liner with the wind that was the longest kick of his career and tied a BYU bowl record.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU opened the bowl season with its fourth bowl victory in the last five years with a 52-24 triumph over UTEP in the New Mexico Bowl. The Cougars had a record-setting day to finish the season with a 7-6 record and wins in five of their last six games. Offensive MVP Jake Heaps went 25-of-34 for 264 yards and four touchdown passes, passing Ty Detmer's freshman record for most touchdown passes. Heaps also set the BYU bowl record for best completion percentage (.735) in a bowl game. Safety Andrew Rich was awarded the game's Defensive MVP in his final game as a Cougar, finishing with four solo tackles, two interceptions, one tackle-for-loss, one sack and a pass breakup. BYU played well from the start, scoring on its first five possessions to take a 31-3 lead and set a new first-half New Mexico Bowl scoring record. Cody Hoffman set career highs across the board with eight receptions for 137 yards and three touchdowns, tying a BYU bowl game record for most TD receptions in a game. Mitch Payne passed Owen Pochman as the Cougars' all-time scoring leader with 334 points.

GAME SUMMARY:

With no timeouts left and 11 seconds remaining in the game, Riley Nelson faked spiking the ball to stop the clock and instead threw to an open Cody Hoffman for the game-winning touchdown to give BYU a 24-21 win over Tulsa in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl. BYU faced a 4th-and-9 from the Tulsa 47-yard line with the clock ticking down near three minutes remaining in the game and Nelson scrambled 14 yards to convert the first down and eventually set up the winning score. BYU locked up its fifth 10-win season in the last six years and third bowl victory in a row, a program record. Hoffman, named the Armed Forces Bowl Most Outstanding Player for the Cougars finished with eight catches for 122 yards and a bowl-record three touchdowns. BYU's defense was stout, surrendering just 272 total yards and only 37 yards on the ground to a Golden Hurricane team that came into the game averaging over 200 rushing yards per game. Kyle Van Noy made play after play on defense with 10 tackles to lead the Cougars, including five tackles for loss, two sacks, one forces fumble and one quarterback hurry. Special teams also played a huge role in the game. Punter Riley Stephenson had eight punts for 335 yards, including seven inside the 20-yard line and two punts over 50 yards. BYU's special teams also recovered a muffed punt setting up one touchdown in the game.

GAME SUMMARY:

Linebacker Kyle Van Noy scored two touchdowns on defense in the fourth quarter, one with the team trailing 6-3 and led the BYU football team to a 23-6 win over San Diego State in the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl Thursday night at Qualcomm Stadium. The win extended the Cougars' bowl win streak to four to build on their current school record. BYU (8-5) forced four turnovers in the fourth quarter and outscored San Diego State (9-4) 20-0 to overcome a 6-3 deficit. After the Aztecs intercepted James Lark on 3rd and goal, the No. 3 total defense turned the tables on the next play and ignited BYU as Van Noy sacked San Diego State's Adam Dingwell to cause a fumble, falling on it for the first touchdown of the game to put the Cougars on top 10-6 with 12:32 remaining in the fourth quarter. The Van Noy show continued with a pick-six to finalize the score, 23-6, late in the fourth quarter. Van Noy was named the defensive MVP after finishing the night with two touchdowns, a forced fumble and fumble recovery, one interception, a blocked punt, 3.5 tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks and eight total tackles. Senior Brandon Ogletree led the Cougars in tackles with 10 and added two tackles for loss. All-American Riley Stephenson helped flip the field for BYU with four punts inside the 5-yard line. Junior wide receiver Cody Hoffman grabbed 10 passes for 114 yards to earn offensive MVP. Senior quarterback James Lark finished the night completing 23 of 42 attempts for 244 yards and two interceptions.

Wide receiver Cody Hoffman caught three touchdowns including the game-winner with 11 seconds left vs. Tulsa in the 2011 Armed Forces Bowl.

LaVell Edwards celebrates BYU's 19-15 Cotton Bowl victory over Kansas State in 1997. It has been the Cougars only New Year's Day bowl game.

In one of the greatest bowls games in NCAA history, BYU overcame a 45-25 deficit with 4:07 left in the game to win 46-45 in the 1980 Holiday Bowl over SMU, nicknamed the "Miracle Bowl." With 4:07 remaining in the game, SMU scored to go ahead, 45-25. From there the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an on-side kick, scored on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips, and blocked a punt. Finally, with three seconds left on the clock, Jim McMahon connected on a "Hail Mary" pass of 41 yards to Clay Brown, who is located somewhere at the bottom of the pile.

Quarterback Steve Young actually caught the game-winning touchdown from running back Eddie Stinnett with under one minute to play vs. Missouri to win the 1983 Holiday Bowl 21-17.

TOP OF THE CLASS: BYU's rich football tradition has bred some of the top football minds in the country. Former BYU offensive lineman Andy Reid led the resurgent Philadelphia Eagles into the Super Bowl in 2004 and has been the head coach at Kansas City's for one season. Former BYU assistant coach under LaVell Edwards, Mike Holmgren, won a world championship when he led his Green Bay Packers to the 1997 Super Bowl title and was president of the Cleveland Browns.

BYU NFL NOTES

BYU has had 140 players drafted by the NFL and another 155 get NFL opportunities as free agents. BYU has had 11 first round picks, the most recent being Ghana native Ezekiel Ansah, who was drafted No. 5 overall to the Detroit Lions in 2013. BYU's most recent draft pick is All-American linebacker Kyle Van Noy, who was selected in the second round at No. 40 overall by the Lions in 2014.

The average player coming from BYU spends nearly four and a half years in the NFL, about one year longer than the average NFL career.

Punter Lee Johnson had the longest NFL career, spanning 18 seasons and six teams. He was a fifth-round draft pick by the Houston Oilers (1985-87). He went on to play for the Cleveland Browns (1987-1988), Cincinnati Bengals (1988-1998), New England Patriots (1999-2001), Minnesota Vikings (2001) and Philadelphia Eagles (2002). At the time of his retirement, his 51,979 punting yards were the third most in NFL history.

Forty players from BYU have played in the Super Bowl, bringing home 39 total championship rings. Former defensive back and current, athletic director Tom Holmoe has the most with four rings, including three as a player and one as a coach, all with the 49ers. From 1980-1992 the Cougars had at least one representative in the Super Bowl each year.

Brett Keisel is the longest tenured active NFL player from BYU, heading into his 13th year. Keisel was drafted in the 7th round by the Steelers in 2002.

Steve Young is arguably BYU's best known NFL player, spending 15 seasons in the league, 13 with the 49ers. Young won Super Bowl XXIX 49-26 over the Chargers with a Super Bowl record six touchdown passes, winning the game's MVP award. He was also the league's MVP for the '94 season with 3,969 passing yards, 35 touchdowns and an NFL-record 112.8 passer rating. He was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 2005.

Ezekiel "Ziggy" Ansah tied Jim McMahon as BYU's highest draft pick in history, going at No. 5 to the Detroit Lions in the 2013 NFL Draft.

BYU'S NFL DRAFT FACTS

- The Cougars have had 11 different players drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft, and one player selected in the first round of the USFL Draft (Steve Young).
- Ezekiel "Ziggy" Ansah was drafted 5th overall by the Detroit Lions in 2013 NFL Draft, tying Jim McMahon for the highest NFL Draft pick out of BYU in the regular NFL Draft. Ansah, who went on to lead all NFL rookies in sacks in 2013, is the highest defensive pick for the Cougars. The highest all-time pick is Steve Young, who was picked first overall in the special 1984 NFL Supplemental Draft of USFL and CFL players.
- In 2014 Kyle Van Noy became the latest Cougar to be drafted while becoming the ninth BYU player to be picked in the second round and the 20th former Cougar to be taken in one of the annual draft's first two rounds. The two-time All-American outside linebacker became the third Cougar linebacker and eighth BYU defender to be selected in the first or second rounds. Van Noy follows Ansah to mark the sixth time in school history BYU has had players taken in the first or second rounds in back-to-back drafts.
- Dennis Pitta became the 10th BYU tight end picked in the NFL Draft and the fourth since 2001. The consensus All-American was the 16th pick in the fourth round of the 2010 draft, 114th overall by the Baltimore Ravens. Pitta was the first Cougar to be selected by the Ravens.
- Defensive line coach Steve Kaufusi was drafted in 1988 by the Philadelphia Eagles. Additionally, three BYU athletic department administrators were also selected in the NFL Draft, including Robbie Bosco (1986, Green Bay Packers), Lee Johnson (1985, Houston Oilers) and Tom Holmoe (1983, San Francisco 49ers).
- Over the past 27 seasons, 37 offensive players, 29 defensive players and two special teams players from BYU have been drafted.
- BYU's all-time leading receiver Austin Collie was drafted by the Indianapolis Colts in the fourth round of the 2009 NFL Draft. A 6-foot-2, 206-pound wide receiver, Collie was the 27th pick of the fourth round and the 127th overall selection. In his rookie year, Collie was named to the All-Rookie team, catching 60 receptions for 676 yards and seven touchdowns including 6 catches for 66 yards in Super Bowl XLIV.

The 2014 BYU Football Almanac has been designed to provide local, regional and national media with useful information about the BYU football program, its history and tradition. Additional information, including video and feature content and bios on all players, is available online at byucougars.com. Should you require additional information, such as photographs, video or additional media guides, please contact the BYU Athletic Communications office at (801) 422-8948. We appreciate your coverage of BYU football and look forward to working with you this season.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

All requests for credentials to cover BYU football should be sent from the editor or sports director via official company communication provided online at BYUCougars.com to obtain notes, quotes, statistics and other information about BYU football.

All single-game credential requests should be received no later than one week prior to the date of the game to ensure consideration. Credentials for working media are restricted in accordance with BYU and NCAA rules and guidelines. Non-working persons, including spouses, dates and children, will not be credentialed and are not allowed in the working media areas during the game as dictated by NCAA guidelines. It is our intention to ensure proper, professional use is made of the space available for credentialed media.

Sideline credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers and television reporters/camera operators

Credentials must be displayed prominently. All NCAA rules will be enforced regarding media representatives on the sidelines. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines. Individuals or organizations violating sideline policies may be required to surrender their credentials and be removed from the stadium. For additional questions regarding photography guidelines, please contact University photographer Mark Philbrick at (801) 422-7322.

MEDIA SERVICES

The working media area is located on the third floor of the press box, situated on the west side of LaVell Edwards Stadium. Access to the press loge may be obtained via either the north or south elevators with media credentials.

munication to Brett Pyne in the Athletic Communications office (brett_pyne@byu.edu; BYU Athletic Communications, 30 SFH, Provo, UT 84602; Fax 801-422-0633). Credentials shall be issued only to accredited newsgathering media outlets. Fan-based websites will not be issued media access and credentials but are invited to utilize resources on a specific newsgathering assignment. Television organizations shall be restricted to one camera operator and one reporter on the field at all times, except by prior approval from the BYU Athletic Communications office. Freelance and amateur photographers, not on assignment from a credentialed media outlet, are not eligible for credentials.

The BYU Athletic Communications staff will provide working media with game notes, season stats, depth charts, flip cards, programs, game stats, postgame notes and quotes and media guides for both teams.

With four minutes remaining on the game clock, media are invited to take the south elevator to ground level in preparation for the postgame press conference. BYU head coach Bronco Mendenhall and selected players will be available in the interview room following the mandatory 10-minute cooling-off period. The BYU locker room is closed to all media.

The BYU press box is also equipped with wireless internet access. Wireless passwords will be provided with other game materials to media working in the press box.

PARKING

LaVell Edwards Stadium is located on the northwest corner of the BYU campus, just off Canyon Road (200 East) and University Parkway (1650 North) in Provo. Media parking is in Lot No. 2, immediately west of the stadium. Parking passes are required and must be obtained in advance.

INTERVIEWS

All interview and information requests regarding all players, coaches and Athletic Department personnel must be arranged in advance through the Athletic Communications office at (801) 422-8948. BYU provides regular media availability each week. Local media members are responsible for attending after-practice media availability to conduct interviews. Opponent and national media can arrange telephone interviews through the Athletic Communications office. The Athletic Communications office will send an advisory each week detailing the weekly availability opportunities. Any other interview requests must be made at least 24 hours in advance. Interviews with players are not permitted after Wednesday each game week. Players and coaches will not be available for interviews prior to practice. Player interviews will not be conducted during regular class hours.

Please contact the Athletic Communications office for specific times and other details if requesting access opportunities.

DISCLAIMER

The Brigham Young University Athletic Media Communications department reserves the right to revoke or deny working media credentials and/or access to any individual or organization at any time for any reason. All credentials are the property of Brigham Young University and must be surrendered upon request.

TELEVISION PARTNERS

On Sept. 1, 2010, Brigham Young University announced a new 8-year deal with ESPN to televise Cougar football on the sports leader's family of networks. BYU is the first program to sign an exclusive deal with ESPN.

ESPN has agreed that any BYU home games it doesn't select may be televised live on BYUtv.

Since 2011, every BYU home football game has been televised to a live national audience on the ESPN family of networks or BYUtv. Additionally, BYU's national fan base is able to view same-day rebroadcasts on BYUtv of every home game and any away game to which ESPN has rights through conference agreements with the host team.

"We've long sought broad, nationwide access to our games for our fans and increased visibility among those who may be less familiar with our university and athletic programs," said then BYU President Cecil O. Samuelson. "We've also been looking for ways to take better advantage of our own unique broadcasting resources."

BYUtv is available in more than 53 million homes on DirectTV, Dish Network and more than 800 cable systems in the U.S. The network owns a new state-of-the-art production truck that will allow it to televise games in HD.

ESPN and ESPN2 are both available in 98.5 million homes, while the 24-hour college sports network ESPNU is distributed to approximately 75 million homes. ESPN also produces college football games that are broadcast on ABC.

Each year, a minimum of three games will be carried on ESPN, ESPN2, or ABC and one on ESPNU. At least one game each season will be carried live on BYUtv.

Over the past three seasons, BYU has had 24 broadcasts on a major national television channel (ESPN, ESPN2, ABC, NBC, CBS, FOX). In all, BYU has had 29 games on an ESPN broadcast network the past three seasons with two additional road games also picked up online on ESPN3.

ESPN has televised many of the great games in Cougar football history, beginning with the network's first live college football telecast. In that 1984 game, the Cougars defeated No. 3 Pitt at the beginning of BYU's national championship season.

ESPN also carried BYU's defeat of top-ranked Miami in 1990, a contest long rated among the top regular-season college football game on ESPN since that year. BYU's season-opening win over No. 3 Oklahoma was ESPN's ninth-highest rated game of the 2009 regular season.

"BYU is nationally recognized as an outstanding university and for the history and tradition of its premier athletic programs," said Burke Magnus, ESPN senior vice president, college sports programming. "Once BYU decided to chart an independent course for football, we both recognized it is a good opportunity to build and grow our strong 30-year relationship. With this agreement, college football fans around the country will see the quality and pageantry of BYU as well as the passion and enthusiasm of its supporters."

RADIO

BYU football games are heard exclusively on the Nuskin Cougar IMG Sports Network, including flagship radio station KSL Newsradio in Salt Lake City. The "Voice of the Cougars" is Greg Wrubell, entering his 14th season as play-by-play commentator. A BYU graduate, Wrubell is in his 23rd season on the football broadcast crew, having served as sideline reporter before stepping into the booth.

Wrubell's broadcast partner is former BYU quarterback Marc Lyons, who will be providing analysis and commentary for a 34th season in 2014. Former Cougar receiver and kick returner Nate Meikle returns to the broadcast team in his seventh season reporting from the sidelines, while Jason Shepherd serves as gameday studio host for a fourth season.

BYU football broadcasts are heard via network affiliates in Utah, Idaho and Nevada, and via satellite on BYU Radio (SiriusXM 143). Game coverage is also available online at BYUCougars.com and on the BYU Cougars mobile app, with the audio stream and archives made available to a worldwide listening audience.

COACH'S SHOWS

In addition to comprehensive game-day coverage, the Nuskin Cougar IMG Sports Network produces "BYU Football with Head Coach Bronco Mendenhall," an hour-long broadcast heard Wednesday nights at 7 p.m. MT throughout the season, with a live audience joining Coach Mendenhall, a weekly player guest and host Greg Wrubell at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

Weekly video "webisodes" featuring Coach Mendenhall and Wrubell will also be produced and posted at BYUCougars.com.
