BYU EMBARKS ON EXCITING 2016 SCHEDULE

With a new coaching staff, a talented squad and an ambitious 2016 schedule, the upcoming BYU football season is more exciting than ever before.

2016 SCHEDULE

9.3	vs. Arizona
9.10	at Utah
9.17	UCLA
9.24	vs. West Virginia
9.30	Toledo
10.8	at Michigan State
10.14	Mississippi State
10.20	at Boise State
11.5	at Cincinnati
11.12	Southern Utah
11.19	UMass
11.26	Utah State

Following spring ball, head coach Kalani Sitake and his new coaching staff have continued preparations for the upcoming season. Beginning his tenure as BYU's 14th head coach in program history, the former Cougar fullback returns to his alma mater with a staff rich in BYU tradition. Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer is back as the offensive coordinator and will look to implement more pro-style elements into the offensive schemes. 'Ilaisa Tuiaki, a Provo native, is the new defensive coordinator and will help the team utilize its current personnel into his defensive style. Former Cougar linebacker Ed Lamb joins the staff as the assistant head coach and special teams coordinator after a successful run as head coach turning around Southern Utah's football program.

BYU returns 63 lettermen in 2016, with an arsenal of offensive weapons. Two decorated quarterbacks return in sophomore Tanner Mangum who was the Touchdown Club of Columbus Freshman of the Year, and dual-threat senior Taysom Hill, who announced his return this winter after a season-ending injury in the 2015 opener at Nebraska.

A stable of running backs looks to pace the Cougars as the school's No. 6 all-time rusher Jamaal Williams returns in hopes of capping off a stellar career by becoming the school's career rushing leader. The team's 2015 leading ball carrier Algermon Brown provides a solid big back option after leading the team in touchdowns last season.

Wideouts Nick Kurtz, Mitchell Juergens, Colby Pearson and Moroni Lauulu-Pututau along with five offensive linemen with starting experience look to contribute to a passing offense that in 2015 was ranked No. 21 in the nation and a red zone offense that finished No. 4 overall.

Defensively, the Cougars return several playmakers including Travis Tuiloma up front, linebackers Fred Warner and Harvey Langi and defensive backs Michael Davis, Kai Nacua and Micah Hannemann. BYU ranked in the top 25 nationally in 2015 in blocked kicks (1st), blocked punts (2nd), sacks (6th), tackles for loss (9th), pass efficiency defense (19th), total defense (23rd), interceptions (23rd), red zone defense (23rd) and defensive TDs (25th).

Newcomers this fall who also participated in spring ball include four-star defensive back Troy Warner, who is the younger brother of Fred Warner, along with returned missionaries Inoke Lotulelei, Rylee Gautavai, Addison Pulsipher, Jonny Tapusoa, Thomas Shoaf and Merrill Taliauli. Also new after enrolling mid-year are defensive backs Austin McChesney and Texas Tech transfer Tanner Jacobson.

A pair of Snow College transfers in four-star defensive lineman Handsome Tanielu and speedster All-American receiver Jonah Trinnaman are among the newcomers who join BYU in the fall, bringing their experience from the JC ranks to bolster the Cougar roster. Two offensive linemen in Keyan Norman and Andrew Eide, both graduate transfers from Southern Utah also join the team in the fall.

Other scholarship returned missionaries expected to return in the fall are Trajan Pili (LB/DL), Uriah Leiataua (DL) and Zac Dawe (OL/DL), Austin Chambers (OL) and defensive back Isaiah Kaufusi. A host of new signees from the 2016 recruiting class also join the team for fall camp.

BYU will play the seventh-toughest schedule in 2016 according to Phil Steele. The schedule sets up a banner year for the program, with 10 games against FBS teams that played in bowl games last year along with one 2015 FCS playoff team for a combined opponent 2015 record of 90-51 (.638).

September begins with a neutral site game against Arizona at the University of Phoenix Stadium, followed by a road trip to Utah, back home with UCLA and another neutral site game against West Virginia at FedEx Field in Maryland. A September week-five matchup against Toledo, a 10-2 team from the MAC, rounds out the first month.

BYU then takes on 2015 Big Ten champion Michigan State in East Lansing, before returning home for SEC opponent Mississippi State. The Cougars will play back-to-back road games against Boise State and Cincinnati before starting a three-game homestand to finish the year. BYU hosts Big Sky champ Southern Utah, UMass and Utah State to close the regular season. The Cougars are slated to play in the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl on Dec. 21 if bowl eligible and not selected to participate in the College Football Playoff or a New Year's Six bowl game.

Koy Detmer Jr.

RETURNING: Taysom Hill (SR), Tanner Mangum (SO), Beau Hoge (SO), Koy Detmer Jr. (SO)

NEWCOMERS: Hayden Livingston (FR)

2015 QBs LOST: McCoy Hill

BYU may have one of the best quarterback situations in the country for the 2016 season with the return of Heisman Trophy candidate Taysom Hill back for a fifth year along with the 2015 Freshman of the Year Tanner Mangum. Hill is coming off of a Lisfranc injury suffered in the season opener against Nebraska in 2015. In just over one half, Hill threw for 268 yards and ran for another 72 for three combined touchdowns. He put the Cougars in a position to win when freshman Tanner Mangum came in. Mangum went 7 of 11 in relief for 111 yards and wrote his name in the BYU history books with a 42-yard Hail Mary toss to Mitch Mathews for the game-winning touchdown over the Cornhuskers. Hill is looking to return to his 2013 season and early 2014 and 2015 form. In a full season in 2013, Hill passed for 2,938 yards and rushed for another 1,344, accounting for 29 total touchdowns. He is BYU's career leader in quarterback rushing yards with 2,212 and is No. 10 overall among BYU players. A true dual-threat, Hill also has 4,606 career passing yards, good for No. 13 in BYU history. Mangum finished 2015 with just about every BYU freshman quarterback record, leading BYU to a 9-win season and passing for 3,337 yards and 23 touchdowns. Mangum was named the Freshman of the Year by the Touchdown Club of Columbus. Beau Hoge and Koy Detmer Jr. were solid in relief of Mangum last year, going a combined 13 of 20 for 194 yards and one touchdown, with another two scores on the ground. Newcomer Hayden Livingston joins the group for fall.

RUNNING BACK

Jamaal Williams

Algernon Brown

Squally Canada

Riley Burt

RETURNING: Jamaal Williams (SR), Algernon Brown (SR), Squally Canada (SO), Riley Burt (SO), Brayden El-Bakri (SO)

NEWCOMERS: Trey Dye (JR) - moved from WR, Creed Richardson (JR) - moved from LB, KJ Hall (FR) - moved from WR

2015 RBs LOST: Nate Carter, Adam Hiné, Francis Bernard (moved to LB), Toloa'i Ho Ching, Colby Hansen

The stable of running backs will be one of the most competitive in recent seasons with the return of redshirt senior and Doak Walker hopeful Jamaal Williams along with big back Algernon Brown. Brown led the ground attack in 2015 with 709 yards on 127 carries with 11 touchdowns - the most for a running back since Williams had 12 in 2012. A three-year starter, Williams adds a threat to take it to the house with his consistency and speed, having averaged 4.8 yards per carry in 2014 before missing the second half of the season due to a knee injury. He returns to the team after sitting out the 2015 season and needs 929 yards to become BYU's all-time leading rusher, currently sitting at 2,526 yards. Squally Canada, a Washington State sophomore transfer, will add depth to the backfield after sitting out last season prior to playing in the bowl game after becoming eligible. Sophomore Riley Burt switched from cornerback to running back during fall camp of 2015. He had 14 carries for 86 yards, including a 41-yard burst in the win over Cincinnati. Junior special teamer Trey Dye moves over from wideout and saw a lot of action in spring along with KJ Hall and big back Creed Richardson.

RETURNING: Nick Kurtz (SR), Mitchell Juergens (SR), Colby Pearson (SR), Jake Ziolkowski (SR), Moroni Lauuli-Pututau (SR), Rickey Shumway (SO), Talon Shumway (SO)

NEWCOMERS: Inoke Lotulelei (FR), Micah Simon (SO) - moved from DB in spring, Garrett Juergens (SR) - moved from DB in spring, Jonah Trinnaman (JR), Mack Richards (FR), Aleva Hifo (FR), Young Tanner (SO), Beau Tanner (FR)

2015 WRs LOST: Mitch Mathews, Terenn Houk, Devon Blackmon, Kurt Henderson, Akile Davis - moved to DB

The receiving corps will look for increased production after the departures of three starters. In 2015, the ball was spread around evenly as five different receivers had at least 450 receiving yards in a season for the first time since 2006 including Mitch Mathews (737), Devon Blackmon (669), Nick Kurtz (578), Terenn Houk (490) and Mitchell Juergens (471). Kurtz, a 6-foot-6 senior, is the leading returning receiver with 39 receptions and three scores in 2015 while Juergens is second with 37 catches and two touchdowns during his junior season. Senior Colby Pearson adds depth with 22 receptions for 210 yards and a touchdown last season, while sophomore Moroni Lauuli-Pututau will continue to emerge as another tall target. Senior Jake Ziolkowski and redshirt freshmen Talon Shumway and Rickey Shumway return to the team. Inoke Lotulelei is among the newcomers after returning from a mission and Micah Simon and Garrett Juergens switched over from the defense. The Cougars will also look forward to 2016 signees Mack Richards, Aleva Hifo and four-star JC recruit Jonah Trinnaman joining the team in the fall.

OFFENSIVE LINE

RETURNING: Brad Wilcox (SR), Kyle Johnson (SR), Parker Dawe (SR), Ului Lapuaho (JR), Tejan Koroma (JR), Tuni Kanuch (JR), Austin Hoyt (SO), JJ Nwigwe (SO), Jacob Jimenez (SO), LeRoy Tanoai (FR)

NEWCOMERS: Thomas Shoaf (FR), Addison Pulsipher (FR), Andrew Eide (SR), Keyan Norman (JR), Austin Chambers (FR), Zac Dawe (FR)

2015 OLs LOST: Ryker Mathews, Jaterrius Gulley, Darren Denucci, Demetrius Davis

The offensive line returns three players who started at least seven games in 2015. Senior Kyle Johnson (LT) comes in with 29 career starts to lead the team, followed by junior Tejan Koroma (C) with 25, Ului Lapuaho (G) with 18. Senior Brad Wilcox (G) has started 13 games in his career with 12 in 2015 while junior Tuni Kanuch (RG) had seven starts last season with a total of 11 for his first two seasons. Austin Hoyt (RT) and Parker Dawe (C) added depth as they made their first starts in 2015. Sophomores JJ Nwigwe (T) and Jacob Jimenez (G) both saw time last season. Sophomore Quin Ficklin and redshirt freshman LeRoy Tanoai (G) will compete along with returned missionaries Thomas Shoaf (T) and Addison Pulsipher (T). Graduate transfers Andrew Eide (G/T) and Keyan Norman (C) join in the fall from Southern Utah.

TIGHT END

RETURNING: Bryan Sampson (SR), Tanner Balderree (JR), Steven Richards (FR), Nate Sampson (SO)

NEWCOMERS: Solomone Wolfgramm, Troy Hinds, Corbin Kaufusi, Hunter Marshall

2015 TEs LOST: Remington Peck, Theodore King

The tight end position will be revamped this season under new offensive coordinator Ty Detmer. Senior Bryan Sampson was injured during spring and may return during the season but junior Tanner Balderree comes back after his first season, appearing in 10 games. Junior Steven Richards looks to make it back after suffering an ACL injury in last year's fall camp. Nate Sampson moved from linebacker to tight end in spring. Troy Hinds is also moving over from the defense. Cougar hoopster Corbin Kaufusi returns to football and could play tight end and defensive line. Kaufusi originally came to BYU on a football scholarship before switching to basketball. Another basketball player, BYU-Hawaii's Solomone Wolfgramm, a 6-foot-5 athletic speedster was added to the group during the summer along with transfer Hunter Marshall.

FOOTBALL OUTLOOK - DEFENSE

DEFENSIVE LINE

RETURNING: Travis Tuiloma (SR), Logan Taele (SR), Tomasi Laulile (JR), Kesni Tausinga (JR), Tevita Mo'unga (SO), Moses Kaumatule (SO), Roman Andrus (SO)
NEWCOMERS: Handsome Tanielu (JR), Merrill Taliauli (SO), Uriah Leiataua (FR), Kainoa Fuiava (FR)

2015 DLs LOST: Bronson Kaufusi, Graham Rowley

With the graduation of Bronson Kaufusi, the defensive line will attempt to step up to fill the void. Senior Travis Tuiloma had 25 tackles and 2.5 sacks and a blocked kick while anchoring the defense from the nose tackle position. Fellow senior Logan Taele returns for his final season as a major contributor in the defensive trenches, recording 27 tackles, 6.5 tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks and a blocked kick in 2015. Junior Tomasi Laulile hopes to keep improving after he came on strong toward the end of 2015, totaling 3.0 sacks and 5.5 tackles for loss with a 37-yard fumble recovery return for a touchdown. Junior Kesni Tausinga returns with a host of sophomores in Tevita Mo'unga, Moses Kaumatule and Merrill Taliauli, who returns after serving a mission in Washington. Newcomers in the fall include the No. 18-JuCo prospect in the country in Handsome Tanielu, returned missionary Uriah Leiataua and new signee Kainoa Fuiava.

RETURNING: Harvey Langi (SR), Austin Heder (SR), Sae Tautu (SR), Fred Warner (JR), Lene Lesatele (JR), Va'a Niumatalolo, Rhett Sandlin (SO), Scott Huntsman (SO), Morgan Unga (SO), Butch Pau'u (SO), Adam Pulsipher (SO), Sam Morell (FR), Phillip Amone (FR)

NEWCOMERS: Francis Bernard (SO) - moved from RB, Rylee Gautavai (FR), Johnny Tapusoa (FR), Trajan Pili (FR), Isaiah Kaufusi (FR), Alema Pilimai, Keenan Pili (FR)

2015 LBs LOST: Manoa Pikula, Teu Kautai, Tyler Cook, Nathan DeBeikes

Senior Harvey Langi will carry a strong leadership role as the lone returning starter at inside linebacker. Second on the team in total tackles in 2015, Langi recorded 68 total stops, 6.5 tackles for loss, two interceptions and 4.5 sacks, also second on the team. Junior Fred Warner returns as the third-leading tackler from last season with 67 tackles, 4.0 sacks and 11.5 tackles for loss, which was second for BYU in 2015. He also was tied for No. 2 in the nation with four fumble recoveries. Senior Sae Tautu recorded 4.0 sacks and 9.0 tackles for loss as a run-stopper on the outside and could move up to the line of scrimmage as well. Returning with the team this spring is junior Sione Takitaki, who had 7.0 tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks and one fumble recovery as a pass-rusher in six games in 2015. Senior Austin Heder adds depth having played at inside linebacker, playing in 23 games with four starts over the past two seasons. Sophomores Scott Huntsman and Rhett Sandlin both provided help on the outside and both return after rehabbing season-ending injuries in 2015. Phillip Amone (So.), Adam Pulsipher (So.), Butch Pau'u (So.), Va'a Niumatalolo (Jr.), Lene Lesatele (Jr.) add depth and sophomore Francis Bernard came over from the offense in the spring to provide more competition at the linebacker spot. Newcomers returning from missions include Johnny Tapusoa, Rylee Gautavai, Trajan Pili and Isaiah Kaufusi while 2016 signees Alema Pilimai and Keenan Pili will join the team in time for fall camp. Several of the outside backers may also move to defensive line in a new 4-3 scheme.

NEWCOMERS: Troy Warner (FR), Tanner Jacobson (SO), Kavika Fonua (SO), Chris Wilcox (FR)

2015 DBs LOST: Michael Wadsworth, Jordan Preator

Three out of BYU's four starting defensive backs return in senior safety Kai Nacua, senior cornerback Michael Davis and junior cornerback Micah Hannemann. Nacua was a ball hawk in the secondary, tying for No. 7 in the nation in interceptions with six. In addition to his 66 total tackles, he set a BYU single-season record for interception return yards with 137 while returning two for touchdowns. Davis returns as a three-year starter after having 10 pass breakups as a sophomore, playing the boundary side. In his first season back from his mission, Hannemann filled the role of field corner with 46 tackles, two interceptions, one sack and seven pass breakups but in spring switched to a more natural position at safety. Another returning contributor is Michael Shelton, who recorded two tackles for loss and one interception in 12 games with two starts, mostly playing in nickel situations. Matt Hadley (Jr.), Chris Badger (Sr.), Eric Takenaka (Sr.), Zayne Anderson (So.), Dayan Lake (r-Fr.), Trevor Brent (r-Fr.), Sawyer Powell (Jr.), Troy Warner (Fr.) and Texas Tech transfer Tanner Jacobson (So.) all add to a solid group. RETURNING: Jonny Linehan (SR), Garrett Juergens (SR), Mitchell Juergens (SR), Andrew Mikkelsen (JR), Rhett Almond (SO), Matt Foley (SO), Trey Dye (JR), Micah Hannemann (JR), Michael Shelton (SO)

NEWCOMERS: Inoke Lotulelei (KR), Troy Warner (KR), James Baird (K)

2015 SPECIALISTS LOST: Trevor Samson (K), Adam Hine (KR), Austin Brasher (K), Corey Edwards (K)

Punter Jonny Linehan returns for his second season, hoping to improve upon his production. He averaged 42.7 yards per punt and recorded 20 kicks inside the 20-yard line with 10 that went 50 or more yards, including a 77-yarder. Michael Shelton emerged as a reliable punt returner, averaging 11 yards per return on 10 returns with a long of 40. Sophomore Riley Burt saw his contributions increase as a kick returner as Adam Hiné was called upon to fill more of a primary running back role. Burt led the team in kickoff return yards with 318 on 13 returns for a 24.5-yard average. Sophomore Matt Foley should continue in his role on special teams after winning the long snapping duties last season. Junior Micah Hannemann could see action at punt returner again as well as freshmen Inoke Lotulelei and Troy Warner. Junior Trey Dye could contribute after taking the top spot on the team in kickoff return average with 32.5 yards per return and a long of 46 yards in 2015. The twins, Garrett and Mitchell Juergens could also factor in to the return game. Andrew Mikkelsen returns from a mission after handling kickoff duties for the 2014 season. Newcomer James Baird, Rhett Almond and the other punters and kickers will compete for placekicking duties.

ESPN, BYUtv PARTNERSHIP

In 2016 BYU enters its sixth season of independence as the only school with an exclusive television partnership with ESPN. After making the announcement on Sept. 1, 2010, BYU started competing as an independent in 2011 while also beginning an eight-year agreement with ESPN to televise Cougar football home games on the sports leader's family of networks.

"BYU is nationally recognized as an outstanding university and for the history and tradition of its premier athletic programs," said Burke Magnus, ESPN executive vice president, programming and scheduling. "Once BYU decided to chart an independent course for football, we both recognized it is a good opportunity to build and grow our strong 30-year relationship. With this agreement, college football fans around the country will see the quality and pageantry of BYU as well as the passion and enthusiasm of its supporters."

One of the most important goals in becoming an independent was the opportunity for more national exposure for the university and its football program. As an independent, BYU has had 49 of its 65 games over the past five seasons appear on one of the ESPN networks. Last season BYU played nine games on one of the ESPN networks, including three games featured on ABC, one on ESPN and two on ESPN2. Over the past five seasons, only 19 teams in the nation have had more than BYU's 38 game broadcasts on one of the major national television channels (ESPN, ESPN2, ABC, NBC, CBS, FOX).

BYU has also sought better access for the Cougars' national fan base and the opportunity to schedule high-profile opponents. Since 2011, BYU has played teams from the SEC, Big 12, Big Ten, Pac-12, ACC, American, Conference USA, Mountain West, Western Athletic Conference, and fellow independent Notre Dame and boasts upcoming games scheduled with programs such as LSU, Mississippi State, Michigan State, Wisconsin, West Virginia, Virginia, USC, UCLA, Stanford, Cal, Washington, Washington State, Arizona, Arizona State, Utah and Boise State among others. In 2016, the Cougars will compete against teams from the SEC, Big 12, Big Ten, Pac-12, American, Mountain West, Mid-American and Big Sky conferences as well as independent UMass.

Every BYU home football game will be televised to a live national audience on the ESPN family of networks or BYUtv. Each year, a minimum of three home games will be carried on ESPN, ESPN2, or ABC while additional games can also be televised on those networks or on ESPNU. At least one game each season will be carried live on BYUtv. Additionally, BYU fans are able to view same-day rebroadcasts on BYUtv of every home game and any away game to which ESPN has the rights through conference agreements with the host team.

ADDITIONAL BYU FOOTBALL PROGRAMMING ON BYUtv

BYUtv offers family oriented programming that encourages viewers to "see the good in the world." Whether it's un-sketchy sketch-comedy on Studio C, insider commentary on BYU Sports Nation, or kindhearted hijinks on Random Acts, BYUtv has something for everyone. And with over 125 live sporting events each year, BYUtv is the place to watch BYU football, basketball, and all the other Cougar sports.

Founded in 2001, BYUtv has grown from a relatively unknown cable channel on a single satellite TV provider to coverage in more than 55 million households on Dish Network, DirecTV, and over 800 cable systems in the United States. The network's state-of-the-art production building allows it to televise every game in HD, along with its HD truck with the capability of broadcasting while on the road.

BYU is the only school in the country with nationally televised live 60-minute pregame and 30-60-minute postgame shows before and after every game—home or away. BYUtv also produces daily and weekly BYU-centric sports shows as well as additional BYU football specials throughout the year to highlight events such as National Letter of Intent Day, BYU spring football and the annual BYU Football National Media Day in late June, which also includes live programming on ESPN3.

BYUtv and BYU Radio/Sirius XM 143 simulcast a daily news show—BYU Sports Nation—that airs live each weekday from noon-1 p.m. ET/10-11 a.m. MT from Studio B at the BYU Broadcasting Building in Provo with an additional airing the same day at 6 p.m. ET/4 p.m. MT. The latest news and information about BYU sports are discussed each day by hosts Jarom Jordan and Spencer Linton. During the football season BYUtv also features a weekly one-hour show—After Further Review—where host Dave McCann and a panel of experts provide in-depth analysis of the tactics, plays, and touchdowns of every BYU football game.

KALANI SITAKE

BYU HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Kalani Sitake (pronounced kah-lah-nee see-tah-kay) was named head coach overseeing the BYU football program on December 19, 2015, by director of athletics Tom Holmoe.

Sitake is the 14th head coach in BYU history. He comes to BYU from Oregon State, where he served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator.

A former Cougar running back (1994, 1997-2000), Sitake returns to his alma mater with 15 years of coaching experience, including seven years as a defensive coordinator and four seasons as an assistant head coach.

Prior to serving as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Oregon State in 2015, Sitake spent 10 seasons at the University of Utah. He started at Utah in 2005 as the linebackers coach and was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2009 before also being named assistant head coach in 2012.

Sitake has coached several Pac-12 and Mountain West Conference honorees, including Morris Trophy winners Star Lotulelei (2011) and Nate Orchard (2014). He also helped mentor 14 NFL Draft picks during his time at Utah, including 12 all-league players and three freshmen All-Americans. He helped the Utes win seven of eight bowl games during his tenure.

Sitake began his coaching career in 2001 as the defensive backs and special teams coach at Eastern Arizona before becoming a defensive graduate assistant at BYU in 2002. Sitake then joined the staff at Southern Utah where he coached running backs, tight ends and offensive line during the 2003 and 2004 seasons.

Born in Nuku'alofa, Tonga, and raised in Laie, Hawai'i and Provo, Utah, Sitake becomes the first FBS head football coach of Tongan descent. He is the 14th head coach in BYU history, and just the fourth since 1972, when Hall of Fame coach LaVell Edwards took over the program.

Sitake began his BYU playing career in 1994 prior to serving a two-year mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to Oakland, California. After returning and redshirting in 1997, Sitake was a three-year starter at fullback for the Cougars from 1998-2000 under Edwards.

He was named BYU's Football Scholar Athlete of the Year in 1998, Impact Player of the Year in 1999, along with team captain and the most valuable running back in 2000. He signed a free agent contract with the Cincinnati Bengals in 2001, but was forced to retire due to an injury.

Sitake graduated from BYU in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in English. He and his wife Timberly have three children, Skye, Sadie and Kelaokalani (KK).

"I'm honored, excited and humbled by the opportunity to lead the BYU football program. I'm grateful for everything BYU gave me as a player. It's a dream come true for me to return home."

-Kalani Sitake

“I think it’s very special. It really is, especially a guy like Kalani. He’s just a great choice.”

*-LaVell Edwards,
former BYU head coach
on Sitake hiring*

2016 ADMINISTRATION

TOM HOLMOE

Director of Athletics

Tom Holmoe was named Director of Athletics at Brigham Young University on March 1, 2005. He oversees a nationally recognized program with 21 intercollegiate sports, involving more than 600 student-athletes and a 150-person staff.

Since Holmoe's appointment, BYU has captured 99 conference regular-season or post-season championships, and over 200 student-athletes have earned All-America status. Under his tutelage, both the football and men's basketball teams have enjoyed tremendous success. BYU earned a bowl invitation 11 years running, while the men's basketball program put together a string of 11 consecutive 20-win seasons and has made the postseason every year, including a NCAA Sweet-16 run in 2011.

A former Cougar defensive back from 1978-82, Holmoe returned to BYU in July 2001 as Associate Athletics Director for Development. As part of his responsibilities, he supervised the Cougar Club, served as the department's liaison with the LDS Foundation, served on the BYU Alumni Association Board of Directors and worked on the capital campaign to raise funds for the university's new athletic facilities. Holmoe was appointed to the NCAA Division I men's basketball selection committee in 2014.

A native of La Crescenta, Calif., Holmoe came to BYU on a football scholarship in 1978. He earned first-team All-WAC honors as a senior in 1982 and was selected in the fourth round of the 1983 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers. Over a seven-year NFL career, he played on three Super Bowl championship teams with the 49ers in 1984, 1988 and 1989.

After retiring from professional football, Holmoe returned to BYU to serve as a graduate assistant under LaVell Edwards from 1990-91 and later accepted an offer from Bill Walsh to become the Stanford secondary coach in 1992, where he remained for two seasons. In 1994, he returned to the 49ers as defensive backfield coach for two seasons, where he earned a fourth Super Bowl ring. Two years later Holmoe joined the University of California staff as defensive coordinator and later became the head coach from 1997-2001.

Holmoe graduated from BYU with a degree in Zoology in 1983 and received a master's degree from BYU in Athletic Administration in 1995. He and his wife, Lori, have four children and three grandchildren.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY

BYU'S HISTORY

The 1875 establishment of the Brigham Young Academy offered an academically stimulating and gospel-oriented education to 29 students. The one-acre school grounds presided over by Karl G. Maeser have since developed into 560 acres and about 300 buildings. The foundation of the University thrives with the fourfold focus of being 1) spiritually strengthening, 2) intellectually enlarging, 3) character building, leading to 4) lifelong learning and service.

Brigham Young University provides an outstanding education in an atmosphere consistent with the standards and principles of its sponsor, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

BYU MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Brigham Young University--founded, supported and guided by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints--is to assist individuals in their quest for perfection and eternal life. That assistance should provide a period of intensive learning in a stimulating setting where a commitment to excellence is expected and the full realization of human potential is pursued.

All instruction, programs and services at BYU, including a wide variety of extra-curricular experiences, should make their own contribution toward the balanced development of the total person. Such a broadly prepared individual will not only be capable of meeting personal challenges and change but will also bring strength to others in the tasks of home and family life, social relationships, civic duty and service to mankind.

BYU's faculty, staff, students and administrators should be anxious to make their service and scholarship available to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in furthering its work worldwide. In an era of limited enrollments, BYU can continue to expand its influence both by encouraging programs that are central to the Church's purposes and by making its resources available to the Church when called upon to do so.

We believe the earnest pursuit of this institutional mission can have a strong effect on the course of higher education and will greatly enlarge Brigham Young University's influence in a world we wish to improve.

KEVIN J. WORTHEN
University President

Kevin J. Worthen began serving as the 13th president of Brigham Young University on May 1, 2014. He previously served as BYU's advancement vice president and as dean of its J. Reuben Clark Law School, where he was the Hugh W. Colton Professor of Law.

MATTHEW O. RICHARDSON
Advancement Vice President

Matthew O. Richardson was appointed on May 14, 2014. He will oversee athletics, University Communications, BYU Broadcasting, alumni, external relations and philanthropy.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY

DISTINGUISHED FACULTY

Faculty members hold advanced degrees from universities around the world. Their achievements are compelling and wide-ranging as they pursue consequential research work that is making a real difference. Alleviating hunger worldwide through more efficient agriculture, finding low-pollution energy alternatives and making significant contributions to the strengthening of families are among their many pursuits. Faculty members are regularly called upon to head national and international professional organizations and to consult with corporate and governmental entities. Above all, these high-principled men and women share an unmatched devotion to bringing the best possible education to their students.

PREPARATION FOR THE FUTURE

A strong curriculum delivered by outstanding faculty is key to the academic excellence of BYU graduates. From business management to nursing, from the humanities to engineering, the University's 11 colleges -- supported by comprehensive offerings from religious education -- continue to be internationally recognized for the quality of their education and the professional preparation they provide. In addition to the challenging course work and hands-on research, numerous programs offer academic and service outreach opportunities. Study abroad centers, distance-learning courses and worldwide performing arts tours are a few of the offerings that enrich BYU's academic experience.

MISSIONARY SERVICE

Brigham Young University is owned and operated by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The missionary emphasis of the Church is perhaps one of its most recognized characteristics. Since the organization of the Church in 1830, over one million missionaries have served.

The Church operates 418 missions around the world in over 150 nations, speaking over 160 languages. A mission covers a geographic area and has a central headquarters. Each is presided over by a mission president, who is called from the ranks of the Church membership to serve for a period of three years. The mission president directs the work of the missionaries assigned to his mission.

Over 74,000 missionaries representing The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints are currently serving proselytizing missions. Most of the Church's proselytizing missionaries are young men and women between the ages of 18 and 26. Senior couples also have opportunities to serve missions.

Missionaries work long hours—seven days a week for two years (18 months for women) and other extended periods of time for couples—teaching the gospel of Jesus Christ and participating in community service.

In addition, over 31,000 individuals (including couples) are given special service assignments and considered Church-service missionaries. Health specialists and doctors go to developing countries where the Church's health services program teaches preventive care. Craftsmen, artisans and construction supervisors train members in local building projects. Agricultural experts train people to produce food more effectively and economically. Other mission assignments include education, family history research and leadership training.

The missionaries pay their own way, occasionally with assistance from friends and family who donate money to the Church to pay for their personal expenses. When his or her assignment is completed, the missionary returns home to pursue vocational, academic or other personal goals. Aside from their brief orientation at a missionary training center, missionaries receive little formal training for their ministry. Missionary preparation comes primarily from personal study and, in many cases, from examples taught in the home from childhood.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was officially organized on April 6, 1830 with six members. Today, congregations of the Church are found in more than 160 nations and territories. With more than 15.6 million members, it is one of the fastest growing religions in the world and one of the largest Christian churches in the United States.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is Christian, but is neither Catholic nor Protestant. Rather, it is a restoration of the original church established by Jesus Christ. For more information on the beliefs of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, visit www.lds.org.

Quarterback Taysom Hill served two years in Australia before enrolling at BYU. With the age requirement being 19 until 2012, many players in the past had played or redshirted a freshman season and then served. In October of 2012 the church announced the age requirement would now be 18, so many players now choose to serve before enrolling, allowing them to have four or five consecutive seasons with the program.

COUGAR CLUB

WELCOME TO THE CLUB

With the donations and support of nearly 5,000 members nationwide, the Cougar Club has helped BYU build one of America's strongest collegiate athletic programs. Through its fund-raising and promotional mission, the Cougar Club is ensuring the future success of BYU athletics.

Loyal Cougar Club members across America are building the foundation for BYU's future athletic victories. The changing nature of collegiate athletics means that to compete at the highest levels, BYU must raise more money every year. The costs associated with being one of the nation's top programs continue to rise dramatically. With that challenge in mind, the support of the Cougar Club and its members becomes an even more important key to the future growth of BYU athletics.

"The BYU donors and fans make all the difference," says Cougar Club Director Michael Middleton. "For our teams to continue to achieve national prominence, the Cougar Club needs to continue to grow."

FUNDING

Cougar Club donations are used for many vital projects, including:

- Funding the entire athletic program's recruiting expenses, helping BYU coaches to attract some of the world's premier athletes to Provo, Utah.
- Building new facilities including the Indoor Practice Facility, Student Athlete Building and Miller Baseball/Softball complex.
- Supporting the Student Athlete Academic Center, which includes sponsoring academic tutoring for student athletes, providing laptop computers for the athletes to use when traveling and sustaining an endowment that provides spring/summer and post-eligibility scholarships that assist current and former athletes to finish their degrees.

MEMBER BENEFITS

There is a Cougar Club membership level for every fan who wants to help BYU continue to build a strong athletic tradition. Individuals and businesses annually make tax-deductible Cougar Club contributions of between $60 and $2,500 or more based on their financial ability to give and the athletic benefits they want to receive. To acknowledge the generosity of Club members, the athletic department makes a number of benefits available to Club members, including priority seating, parking passes and Club events. However, the greatest benefit of membership is knowing that the Cougar Club is helping BYU athletics continue to be one of the nation's top collegiate athletic programs.

COUGAR CLUB BENEFITS

- Seating priority for home and away sporting events, bowl games and postseason tournaments
- Tax deduction
- Parking passes
- Cougar Club Newsletter and athletic publications
- Monthly luncheons with BYU coaches and athletes
- Invitation to annual Y-Awards Banquet
- Privileges for Club events and Club travel
- Annual "Meet the Team" football event
- Discounts on exclusive BYU merchandise and commemorative memorabilia
- Cougar Club nights at Olympic sporting events
- Pregame event at home football games in Cougar Room at LaVell Edwards Stadium

LAVELL EDWARDS STADIUM

CAPACITY: 63,470

CONSTRUCTED: 1960 (COUGAR STADIUM)

EXPANDED: 1982

RENAMED: 2000, AFTER HALL OF FAME COACH LAVELL EDWARDS' RETIREMENT

PLAYING SURFACE: NATURAL GRASS

ELEVATION: 4,338

PICTURE PERFECT

With its 63,470-seat capacity, new video walls and immaculate press boxes, LaVell Edwards Stadium is home to legendary BYU football. Since its expansion in 1982, the stadium has consistently ranked among the nation's top 30 in attendance every year. Some of the stadium's well-known features include a box-bowl seating configuration, a grass playing surface and a four-level press box.

THE FIELD

The field is covered with a sand-based natural turf capable of draining eight inches of rain per hour. The well-kept grass field is consistently deemed one of the best in the country.

EXPANSION/SEATING CAPACITY

As a result of increased seating demands, BYU made yet another renovation in 1982, adding stands to the north and south end zones, lowering the field eight feet and removing the track surrounding the field (which hosted the 1967 and 1975 NCAA Track and Field Championships). The stadium expansion increased the seating capacity to over 65,000. The crowd of 64,253 that gathered for BYU's first game in the expanded stadium on September 25, 1982 was reportedly "the largest gathering ever in Utah history" at the time. In 2003 BYU added a luxury "Club Seating" area to the east stands taking the capacity of Edwards Stadium down to 64,045. In 2010 and 2011 BYU created additional wheelchair access inside the stadium, which reduced the capacity by 575 seats to 63,470.

FOOTBALL FACILITIES

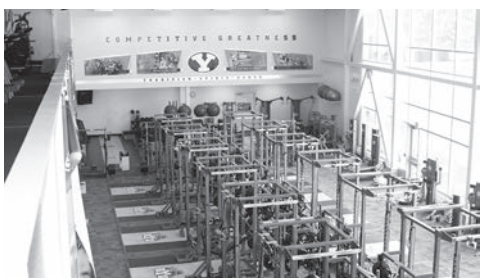

EQUIPMENT AND LOCKER ROOMS

The 75-yard-long locker room is patterned after the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles. There is also a special locker room for former BYU players who want to train in Provo during the offseason.

TRAINING FACILITIES

Sponsored by Dynatronics, this area features a rehabilitation room and a hydro area with a cold pool, a hot tub with power jets, a treadmill pool with two cameras and a doctor's office. Trainers provide electrical stimulation and ultra sound treatments as well as bikes, treadmills and Cybex machines.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING CENTER

The football team's Strength and Conditioning Center is conveniently located with easy access from the football locker room in the Student Athlete Building and to the team's practice fields. Most of the equipment was custom built by Free Motion and is sponsored by Icon Health and Fitness. With a new 2,500 square foot addition under construction in the summer of 2016, the facility features 20 full power racks with platforms as well as reverse hypers, Tomahawk spinning bikes and TVs, Nordic Track incline trainers, VerscACLIMBERS, Scifit upper body bikes, Woodway force treadmills, H/P Cosmos treadmills with Pneu Weight devices, vibratory boards, a step mill, dumbbell areas and a medicine ball wall. Another new addition perched above the Strength and Conditioning Center from a second-floor overlook will be a new players' lounge for the team.

STUDENT ATHLETE ACADEMIC CENTER

Tutors and mentors work through these offices. Athletes have access to computers, an interactive classroom, multiple study areas and a large quiet room. Also on staff are a sports psychologist and a nutritionist.

LEGENDS GRILLE

Fans, coaches and athletes can view TV screens, a ticker tape with world wide sports scores or view specialty events on a projection screen while catching a bite to eat.

INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

The IPF is 106,000 square feet and among its features are two artificial turf fields (55 yards & 65 yards), retractable goalposts on each end, a sideline staging facility for offensive linemen and four batting cages. The indoor surface is field turf and the building features four video platforms located 40 feet above the playing surface. The IPF serves as an indoor practice arena for the football, soccer, golf, baseball and softball teams and a variety of other sports programs, including extramurals and intramurals.

2016 POSTSEASON

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

BYU AND 2016 THE POSTSEASON

BYU is looking to make the postseason for the 12th consecutive season. If eligible for postseason play BYU will play in the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl, and not selected by the College Football Playoff or one of the New Year's Six bowl games.

The Cougars will face a member of the Mountain West Conference in the Poinsettia Bowl at Qualcomm Stadium, scheduled for December 21 at 6 p.m. PT. The game will be televised live on ESPN.

BYU has visited the Poinsettia Bowl once before, winning the 2012 game 23-6 against San Diego State. Despite the final score, the game was a defensive battle, with neither team scoring a touchdown until the fourth quarter.

SDSU held a 6-3 lead before the Kyle Van Noy show began.

Van Noy came off the edge to hit quarterback Adam Dingwell and force a fumble in the end zone, fell on the ball and accounted for his first of two defensive touchdowns in the fourth quarter.

Dingwell fumbled again on the next possession and BYU punched it in the end zone on the first play from scrimmage by Jamaal Williams on a 14-yard scamper to go up 17-6.

Van Noy wasn't done yet, intercepting Dingwell with just over six minutes to play and returning it 17 yards for another score to make it 23-6.

Despite just one Poinsettia Bowl appearance, BYU has been a mainstay in San Diego bowl games, appearing in 11 Holiday Bowls, including memorable wins with the 1980 "Miracle Bowl," Steve Young catching a halfback pass against Missouri in 1983 and Robbie Bosco limping back on the field to win the 1984 National Championship against Michigan.

2015 SEASON REVIEW

BYU creates iconic moments during 2015 season

BYU football had one of the most intriguing seasons in school history in 2015. Entering the campaign with a Heisman hopeful senior quarterback in Taysom Hill, a senior running back in Jamaal Williams poised to break the all-time rushing record, a talented roster and veteran head coach Bronco Mendenhall, the 2015 squad faced the toughest schedule in program history locked and loaded.

Just days before fall camp, senior running back Jamaal Williams withdrew from school for personal reasons and in the first half of the season opener against Nebraska, quarterback Taysom Hill suffered a season-ending Lisfranc injury. Following the conclusion of the regular season, head coach Bronco Mendenhall announced he had accepted the head coaching position at the University of Virginia. In between these unlikely bookends of the season, BYU produced some of the most memorable and exciting moments in BYU football history.

After Hill went down at Nebraska, true freshman Tanner Mangum stepped in just three months removed from an LDS mission to Chile to try and lead the Cougars back from a 28-24 deficit. A field goal in the fourth quarter put BYU within one, and with 48 seconds to go, the Cougars had a final chance to end the Huskers' 29-year winning streak in home openers.

On the last play of the game, Mangum heaved a Hail Mary to Mitch Mathews into the wind. Mathews got in front of the Nebraska defense and came down with it, falling into the end zone to beat Nebraska 33-28, vaulting young Mangum into BYU folklore forever.

Mangum's heroics continued a week later when he connected with Mitchell Juergens for a 35-yard go-ahead touchdown with 45 seconds remaining on fourth down to lead Boise State 28-24. Safety Kai Nacua sealed the win with a pick-six on Boise State's next drive. Mangum finished with 365 passing yards against the Broncos, the most ever by a true freshman quarterback at BYU. He became just the second true freshman to win his first start at BYU, joining teammate Taysom Hill. The Cougars continued their September-loaded schedule with trips to No. 10 UCLA and Michigan. Despite shutting down another freshman phenom in UCLA's quarterback Josh Rosen, Bruin running back Paul Perkins led UCLA to a fourth-quarter comeback of its own, downing BYU 24-23. Michigan's defense was dominant and blanked the Cougars for a 31-0 shutout, the first at BYU in 143 games.

BYU bounced back with five consecutive wins, topping UConn, East Carolina, Cincinnati, Wagner and San Jose State. The Cougars were tied or trailed in the fourth quarter against UConn, East Carolina and Cincinnati.

BYU scored 20-plus points in the fourth against UConn and Cincinnati, making it three times, including Boise State, that the Cougars topped the 20-point mark in the fourth quarter during the season. The team had never previously hit that mark under Mendenhall and did so for the first time since the 1988 season.

Against San Jose State, the Spartans gave the Cougars all they could handle. After scoring with 45 seconds to go, San Jose went for two, trailing 17-16, but BYU safety Michael Wadsworth broke up the pass to secure BYU's win.

Next up was a date with the SEC's Missouri at Arrowhead Stadium. Mizzou's offense re-emerged after an emotional week of off-campus issues, including the announcement of their head coach's retirement. After struggling for four-straight games, the Tigers capitalized on too many BYU mistakes to edge the Cougars 20-16.

Returning home for senior day, BYU got back on track with a dominating 52-10 victory over Fresno State. The game was highlighted by senior defensive end-turned-tight end Remington Peck tossing a touchdown pass to senior wide receiver Terren Houk on a gadget play.

2015 SEASON REVIEW

BYU then traveled to Logan for a cold and snowy matchup with in-state foe Utah State to close the season. After trailing early, a fumble by Chuckie Keaton, followed by a scoop and score by defensive lineman Tomasi Laulile as the first half closed, dramatically changed the momentum to give BYU a 24-21 halftime advantage. The Cougars got two blocked kicks at the hands of Bronson Kaufusi and scored two more touchdowns in the third quarter and controlled the game the rest of the way, winning it 51-28 to close the regular season with a 9-3 record.

The 11th consecutive bowl appearance for the Cougars saw them pitted against a familiar foe in a familiar venue as they faced Utah and played in the Las Vegas Bowl for a sixth time.

Despite finding itself in an incredible 35-0 hole 10 minutes into the game, BYU did not fold. But five turnovers on its first five possessions proved to be too much to overcome as the Cougars were denied a chance to pull off one of the biggest comebacks in BYU history. BYU ultimately fell short to the University of Utah 35-28 in the Royal Purple Las Vegas Bowl and finishing the season 9-4 in outgoing coach Bronco Mendenhall's BYU finale.

The Cougars played 30 freshmen in 2015, tied for No. 2 in the nation, including 16 true freshmen. Tanner Mangum set every freshman quarterback record at BYU and was named the 2015 Freshman of the Year by the Touchdown Club of Columbus. He also became the first 3,000-yard passer at BYU since Max Hall in 2009. The Cougars were one of the best in the nation at spreading the ball with 19 different players recording a reception and six players posting at least 20 receptions. Five different players had over 400 receiving yards, the first time since 2006 BYU had accomplished the feat.

On defense, BYU recorded 40 sacks as a team, the most since 38 in 1999 (including bowl game) and the most under head coach Bronco Mendenhall. Bronson Kaufusi led the group with 11 sacks and 20 tackles for loss. He also blocked four kicks to lead the nation, and the team blocked eight, to lead all FBS teams. Kai Nacua was a ball hawk, nabbing six interceptions to tie for No. 7 in the nation.

Several players from the 2015 team received opportunities to take their careers to the next level, headlined by the defensive end Kaufusi, who was selected by the Baltimore Ravens in the third round with the 70th overall pick of the 2016 NFL Draft.

BYU wide receiver Mitch Mathews signed as a free agent with the Kansas City Chiefs, while offensive lineman Ryker Mathews inked a deal with the New Orleans Saints and linebacker Manoa Pikula reached an agreement with the Green Bay Packers. Defensive lineman Graham Rowley was invited to participate in a minicamp with the Green Bay Packers, while inside receiver Terenn Houk received minicamp invitations from the Chicago Bears and San Francisco 49ers.

MANGUM TO MATHEWS MIRACLE

BYU completes comeback on Hail Mary

LINCOLN, Neb. – In miraculous fashion, freshman quarterback Tanner Mangum made his collegiate debut, connecting with receiver Mitch Mathews on a 42-yard Hail Mary touchdown as BYU stunned Nebraska 33-28 on the road at Memorial Stadium in Lincoln.

With the Cougars facing a 28-27 deficit on fourth down with one second left on the game clock, Mangum notched his first career touchdown on the Hail Mary to help the Cougars (1-0) to beat the Cornhuskers (0-1, 0-0 Big 10). It is the first time in 30 years that Nebraska has fallen in its season opener.

With 48 seconds to go and no timeouts, the BYU offense took over at the 24-yard line after Nebraska missed a 41-yarder.

On second down and 10, Mangum converted an 11-yard run for a first down prior to Adam Hine's 16-yard rush up the middle. Two plays later another Mangum run pushed the Cougars to the 42-yard line, setting the stage for the eventual last-second pass. Prior to leaving the game with an injury, senior quarterback Taysom Hill had 268 yards through the air on 21-of-34 passing with one touchdown in addition to 72 yards and two touchdowns on the ground. Mangum completed 7 for 11 for 111 yards along with five rushes for 26 yards.

Junior receiver Nick Kurtz led all receivers with 123 yards on five catches in his first career BYU game. Mathews had 69 yards on three receptions in addition to the Hail Mary score. Hine added 37 yards rushing on four carries for the offense.

Defensively, the Cougars had seven tackles for loss, three sacks four quarterback hurries and two turnovers, forcing an interception and fumble recovery. Senior linebacker Manoa Pikula led BYU with seven tackles while a host of Cougars chipped in on the defensive effort. Defensive lineman Logan Taelle had six tackles, including 2.5 tackles for loss and one sack.

JUERGENS LATE TD, NACUA PICK EDGE BRONCOS

Mangum connects on another fourth-quarter, fourth-down touchdown for win

PROVO, Utah – Late-game heroics won the game for BYU football for the second time in as many games with a late touchdown pass and pick-six to seal a 35-24 win over No. 20/22 Boise State on Saturday night at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

With 45 seconds left, down 24-21, freshman Tanner Mangum scrambled on fourth down from the Boise State (1-1, 0-0) 35-yard line and threw to a leaping Mitchell Juergens for the go-ahead touchdown for BYU (2-0).

Playing with a 28-24 lead inside of 40 seconds to go, Kai Nacua recorded his third interception of the night and returned it 50 yards for a touchdown, securing the 35-24 victory over the Broncos.

Mangum finished the game 17 of 28 for 309 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions. He became just the second BYU true freshman quarterback to win his first start. Taysom Hill is the only other player to win his first start as a true freshman (vs. Hawaii, 2012).

Senior running back Adam Hine rushed for 93 yards and one touchdown on 19 carries. Juergens had a career night with 172 receiving yards and two touchdowns on just four receptions. Devon Blackmon also eclipsed the 100-yard receiving mark with six catches and 105 yards.

Nacua had three interceptions, which ties a BYU record, and Michael Wadsworth had 11 total tackles. Harvey Langi recorded two sacks.

BYU trailed 24-14 in the fourth quarter before the run-game for the Cougars picked up and the defense pulled the reins back on the Broncos.

After Nacua's second pick, BYU pounded the ball inside and Mangum's quarterback keeper made it a three-point game with 10:22 remaining in the game. The Cougar defense forced back-to-back punts for set up another comeback.

NO. 19 BYU FALLS TO NO. 10 UCLA AT THE ROSE BOWL

BYU's comeback effort falls just short in upset bid at UCLA

PASADENA, Calif. — Despite leading for much of the game, No. 19 BYU fell 24-23 to No. 10 UCLA on the road at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena.

The Cougars (2-1) led for all but the final 3:21 of the game as the Bruins (3-0) found the end zone twice in the final quarter of the game.

Pacing the offense for BYU was senior running back Adam Hiné who carried the ball 23 times for a career-best 149 yards and one touchdown. Quarterback Tanner Mangum went 30 of 47 for 244 yards, one touchdown and one interception. Wide receiver Mitch Mathews led the team with 84 yards on nine catches and one score.

Junior linebacker Harvey Langi led the defensive effort for BYU with two interceptions, one pass breakup and eight tackles, including seven solo stops. His two picks were the first of his career. He also carried the ball two times for eight yards. Junior defensive back Kai Nacua contributed with one interception, two pass breakups and four tackles.

BYU extended its lead to 20-10 with 13:21 left in the game on Trevor Samson's second field goal, but the UCLA offense answered with a quick 65-yard drive that ended with a touchdown pass from Josh Rosen to Jordan Payton, cutting the margin to 20-17 with 12:16 on the clock.

Mangum then led the Cougars down the field, burning 6:37 off the clock with a 16-play, 61-yard scoring drive that culminated in Samson's third field goal of the game. He converted a 32-yarder to put BYU up 23-17 with 5:39 left in the game.

The Bruins took the lead late in the game after an 80-yard drive when Nate Starks found the end zone on a 3-yard run, putting the Bruins up 24-23.

BYU SHUT OUT BY MICHIGAN 31-0

The Cougar offense was stymied against the Wolverines

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — No. 22 BYU football concluded its September schedule with a 31-0 loss against Michigan at Michigan Stadium Saturday afternoon.

The Cougars (2-2) had just 105 total yards compared to 448 by the Wolverines (3-1, 0-0 Big 10). It is the first time BYU has been shut out since a 3-0 loss to Utah in 2003, snapping a streak of 143 games of getting on the board.

BYU freshman quarterback Tanner Mangum completed 12 of 28 passes for 55 yards. Running back Francis Bernard saw his first action as a Cougar, rushing four times for 30 yards. Michigan's Jake Rudock threw 14 of 25 for 194 yards and one touchdown with two rushing scores.

Defensive backs Micah Hanneman and Michael Wadsworth led the defense, each posting 10 tackles each. Defensive lineman Logan Taelle added two tackles for loss while Remington Peck and Harvey Langi each posted sacks.

The first quarter of the game saw just one completed pass for the Cougars, a 14-yarder to Devon Blackmon that was tipped by a defender. With 6:52 left in the first quarter, Michigan scored the first points of the game on Rudock's 3-yard rushing touchdown to go up 7-0.

The Wolverine offense scored three touchdowns and kicked one field goal in the second quarter to lead 31-0 at the half, including a 60-yard touchdown run with 11:37 left.

The second half was scoreless for both sides as Michigan used its ground game to run the clock, pacing the game for the eventual final tally.

MANGUM'S 365 YARDS LEAD BYU TO 30-13 WIN OVER UCONN

Offensive comes alive in fourth quarter to top Huskies

PROVO, Utah – Led by Tanner Mangum's record-breaking night, BYU football defeated Connecticut 30-13 at home on Friday night.

BYU (3-2) had 539 total yards in the win compared with 230 from UConn (3-2, 0-1 AAC). The Cougar defense had four sacks in the game and allowed just one touchdown.

Mangum completed 35 of 53 passes for 365 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions, breaking the record for passing yards in a single game by a freshman quarterback at BYU.

Terenn Houk led the receivers with career-high 129 yards and Mitchell Juergens led the team with a career-high 10 receptions. Mitch Mathews caught two touchdown passes in the fourth quarter, totaling 78 receiving yards in the game. Running backs Algernon Brown and Francis Bernard rushed for 95 and 69 yards, respectively. Bernard had one touchdown.

Defensively, linebacker Sae Tautu led the team with six total tackles to go along with three tackles for loss and a sack. Bronson Kaufusi had three tackles, one sack, two tackles for loss and one interception.

In BYU's first series of the game, a miscommunication caused the first lost fumble of the season for the Cougars. However, the defense held strong and a sack from Sae Tautu forced the Huskies to punt.

BYU marched down the field 87 yards on 12 plays to get into the end zone on its second drive of the game with 2:44 remaining in the first quarter. Houk grabbed a 34-yard reception for the longest play of the drive, and Bernard rushed the ball at the 1-yard line to score his first career touchdown to put BYU up 7-0.

BROWN RUNS BYU TO 45-38 WIN OVER EAST CAROLINA

PROVO, Utah — Algernon Brown's career performance, including the game-winning touchdown on the final drive, led BYU to a 45-38 win over East Carolina in the homecoming game Saturday night.

When BYU's offense went cold in the fourth quarter, the Pirates (3-3, 1-1 American Athletic Conference) rallied with 17 points to tie BYU (4-2), 38-38.

Quarterback Tanner Mangum left the game during the third quarter after hobbling following a run but returned on BYU's final drive. Mangum went 3 for 4 on the drive for 27 yards and Brown rushed nine yards for his fourth touchdown for the game-winner with 19 seconds remaining.

The Cougars had 508 yards of total offense, just shy of the Pirates' 518 total yards. Mangum completed 24 of 33 passes for 341 yards, his third game throwing over 300 yards. He threw three touchdowns and had no interceptions.

Brown rushed for 134 yards on 24 carries for three touchdowns, all career highs. He also had one receiving touchdown. Devon Blackmon had a game-high 142 yards on nine catches. Mitch Mathews and Terenn Houk both caught touchdowns in the win.

Michael Wadsworth led the team in tackles with 10, followed closely by Kai Nacua's nine. Sione Takitaki had five tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss, two sacks and recovered a fumble. Fred Warner recorded an interception and a fumble recovery.

ECU jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter after two costly turnovers by BYU. After a Pirate fumble recovery, ECU quarterback James Summers held the ball on fourth down and rushed for 34 yards to get the touchdown and an early 7-0 lead with 7:21 remaining in the quarter. Just two minutes later, ECU blocked a punt and recovered it in the end zone to extend the lead to 14-0. touchdown catch by Brown with 1:36 left in the first quarter.

BYU DEFEATS CINCINNATI 38-24 AFTER DEFENSE SPARKS FOURTH-QUARTER COMEBACK

PROVO, Utah – Facing another deficit, Tanner Mangum led the offense to three touchdowns in the fourth quarter and BYU's defense put the clamps down to come back and defeat Cincinnati 38-24 on Friday night at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

After a rough first half of offense, BYU (5-2) finished the game with 449 total yards to Cincinnati's (3-3, 0-2 American Athletic Conference) 341 yards. Led by Bronson Kaufusi's three sacks, the Cougar defense had eight sacks in the game for the first time since 1997 as it stymied the Bearcat offense over the final three quarters. The defense also had 12 tackles for loss.

Stone Taktaki led the Cougars with a career high of nine tackles to go along with two tackles for loss while Fred Warner and Sae Tautu each had two stops behind the line as well.

Mangum ended the game throwing 19 of 32 for two touchdowns and one interception. Nick Kurtz led the BYU receivers with 119 yards and two touchdowns on six catches. The running backs split up the load with Algernon Brown running for 88 yards and two touchdowns on 20 carries. Freshman Francis Bernard scored one touchdown and rushed for 60 yards on just four carries.

BYU was unable to connect on offense in the first quarter, allowing Cincinnati to jump out to an early 10-0 lead. Kaufusi came up big with a blocked field goal attempt at the start of the second quarter to set up the offense, but despite a 38-yard reception from Mitch Mathews, the Cougars settled for a 29-yard field goal by Trevor Samson to make it 10-3 with 13:29 until the half.

An interception on the BYU 20-yard line put Cincinnati in a position to score. The defense almost held on with the stop on third down, but a holding penalty gave the Bearcats the first down. Mike Boone rushed five yards to score with 6:50 until the break to push their lead to 17-3.

COUGARS CRUISE PAST SEAHAWKS 70-6

PROVO, Utah – BYU football scored the most points in Bronco Mendenhall's time as head coach in a 70-6 win over Wagner Saturday afternoon at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

BYU (6-2) totaled 741 yards of offense (330 rushing yards) in the win while holding Wagner (0-7, 0-3 Northeast Conference) to 129 yards. The Cougars tallied six rushing and four passing touchdowns.

Tanner Mangum went 12 of 13 for 237 yards and three touchdowns at quarterback before being relieved in the second quarter. Beau Hoge took over, going 8 of 11 for 117 yards and one touchdown. Koy Detmer Jr. also took a turn at quarterback for BYU, throwing 3 of 3 for 57 yards.

Two Cougars rushed for over 100 yards in the victory. Algernon Brown rushed for 109 yards and two touchdowns on just six attempts. Nate Carter notched 102 yards and one touchdown on 10 carries. The receiving yards were spread out among the team. Eight players totaled 20 or more receiving yards. David Kessler led the team with 78 yards and one touchdown.

Manoa Pikula led the team in tackles with six, while Fred Warner totaled four tackles, two sacks and one quarterback hurry. Trevor Samson was a perfect 7 for 7 on PATs attempts.

The Cougar offense got going right from the start, jumping out to a 28-0 lead after the first quarter. Colby Pearson scored his first touchdown of the season and the first touchdown of the game on a 16-yard reception from Mangum just 1:13 into the game.

With 11:28 left in the quarter, Mitch Mathews also caught a touchdown pass, a 20-yard reception, to extend the lead. The last two scores of the quarter for BYU were rushing touchdowns from Brown, 42-yard and 37-yard rush. The defense held Wagner to just one first down in the quarter.

DEFENSE HOLDS OFF SAN JOSE STATE IN 17-16 WIN

SAN JOSE, Calif. – Defensive back Michael Wadsworth prevented a two-point conversion to shut down a San Jose State comeback and give BYU football a 17-16 win on Friday night at Spartan Stadium.

With 0:45 seconds left in the game, SJSU quarterback Kenny Potter rushed six yards to the pylon for six to make it a one-point game. San Jose State went for the win and attempted the two-point conversion with a halfback pass. Wadsworth read the play and was able to get a hand up to disrupt the pass and the ball fell to the turf to preserve the lead.

The Spartans tried for the onside kick and 6-foot-6 BYU wide receiver Mitch Mathews out-jumped San Jose State's hands team and knocked the ball out of bounds, giving possession to the Cougars to seal the win.

BYU (7-2) tallied 329 total yards, outgaining San Jose's (4-5, 3-2 Mountain West Conference) 269 yards. The teams were equal in sacks and turnovers with three and one apiece on a night that saw its up's and down's. The Cougars dominated the pass game with 293 compared to the Spartans' 147.

Wadsworth led the defense with 10 total tackles in the win. Fred Warner had two sacks to go along with his eight tackles.

Tanner Mangum went 23 of 37 for 293 yards, one touchdown and one interception. Devon Blackmon notched 102 yards on six catches, his third 100-yard receiving game. Mitch Mathews caught the lone receiving touchdown in the game as one of four receptions totaling 62 yards.

BYU FALLS 20-16 TO MISSOURI

BYU's offense slowed by stingy Missouri defense.

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – The fourth-quarter comeback fell short for BYU football, falling 20-16 to Missouri at Arrowhead Stadium on Saturday night.

Francis Bernard scored a touchdown with 7:19 left in the game to put the Cougars within striking distance. Despite one more chance on offense, BYU could not find the end zone again. The Cougar defense was unable to get a stop on the other end and time ran out on the Cougars.

The loss snaps a five-game win streak for BYU (7-3) and ends a four-game losing streak for Missouri (5-5, 1-5 SEC). The Tigers outgained the Cougars in yards 434 to 290. Penalties played a major role in this game as BYU had six for 42 yards while Missouri had eight for 91 yards, with both sides benefitting from extended drives due to penalties.

Tanner Mangum went 23 of 41 for 244 yards and one touchdown. Mangum became the school's freshman record holder in passing yards and touchdown passes with 2,442 yards and 16 touchdown passes on the season.

Wide receiver Nick Kurtz led the Cougars with 67 yards on three catches. Freshman running back Bernard added 56 receiving yards and one touchdown. The other Cougar touchdown scored came from Algernon Brown, who led the team with 42 rushing yards.

Bronson Kaufusi led the defense in the game with a career-high 10 tackles, three tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. Harvey Langi also had a career-high 10 tackles in the game while Jherremiya Leuta-Douyere tied a career high with nine.

BYU ROLLS FRESNO STATE 52-10 FOR UNDEFEATED HOME SEASON

PROVO, Utah – BYU football won its final home game of the season against Fresno State 52-10 on Senior Day to finish the season undefeated at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

BYU (8-3) outgained Fresno State (3-8, 2-5 Mountain West) 520 yards to 275. The Cougars were a perfect 5 for 5 on blue-zone attempts in the win and forced three turnovers leading to 21 points.

Tanner Mangum went 24 of 37 for 336 yards and one touchdown. Moroni Lau-Lu-Pututau led the Cougars with 95 receiving yards and one touchdown. In rushing yards, Algernon Brown led the team with 97 yards and one touchdown. Francis Bernard had two touchdowns with 45 total yards.

For the defense, Bronson Kaufusi filled out the stat sheet. He had a team-high five total tackles, four tackles for loss, one pass breakup and three sacks. Kai Nacua had two interceptions, one of which was returned for a touchdown, his second pick-six of the season. Fred Warner also had an interception to go along with his four total tackles.

Offense started off sluggish for both teams in the first quarter with three and outs for both teams' first series. The Cougars attempted a fake punt on fourth down, but the Bulldogs stopped it and put themselves in good field position. The BYU defense held Fresno State to a 28-yard field goal to take the early 3-0 lead with 5:11 remaining in the quarter.

In the Cougars' next series, they answered back. Receptions by Mitchell Juergens, Colby Pearson and Bernard put BYU in position for Trevor Samson to kick a 40-yard field goal and tie it up with four minutes to go in the first quarter.

Mitch Mathews caught a 45-yard pass from Mangum in the first play of the second quarter to put the Cougars in the scoring position. With 13:25 on the clock, Bernard leaped over the defense into the end zone to score the first touchdown of the game and take the 10-3 lead.

BYU BEATS UTAH STATE 51-28 TO TAKE BACK OLD WAGON WHEEL

LOGAN, Utah – BYU football scored 28 unanswered points to beat Utah State 51-28 on the road at Maverik Stadium on Saturday.

Despite being outgained in total yards 358 to 445, BYU (9-3) recovered two fumbles and blocked two kicks to secure the win over Utah State (6-6, 5-3 Mountain West).

Tanner Mangum went 16 of 30 for 284 yards and four touchdowns—his third multi-touchdown game of the year. Mitch Mathews led the receivers with 158 yards and two touchdowns on six catches, including a 72-yard touchdown in the second quarter. Algernon Brown rushed 68 yards for one touchdown in the win while Francis Bernard had on rushing and one receiving score.

On the defensive side, Michael Wadsworth led the team with 10 total tackles. Fred Warner added nine total tackles along with one tackle for loss and one fumble recovery. Travis Tuiloma also had a career-high nine tackles and one sack in the win while Tomasí Laulile had a 37-yard fumble return for a touchdown. On special teams, Riley Burt had four kick returns for 107 yards. Bronson Kaufusi added a sack and two blocked field goals. He now has four blocked kicks this season.

Utah State jumped out to the early 7-0 lead after its first series when senior quarterback Chuckie Keeton rushed 52 yards into the end zone. BYU answered back in its first possession by marching down the field into blue zone. Mathews caught a 32-yard reception to set up Brown to rush eight yards for the touchdown, tying it at 7-7 with 10:08 left in the first quarter.

The Cougar defense came up big when Bronson Kaufusi blocked the Aggies' field goal attempt, keeping the game tied. Kurt Henderson caught a 38-yard pass to put Trevor Samson in position to kick a 41-yard field goal, taking the 10-7 lead right before the end of the quarter.

2015 ROYAL PURPLE LAS VEGAS BOWL

NO. 22 UTAH 35 BYU 28

12.19.15 LAS VEGAS, NV - SAM BOYD STADIUM (BYUtv) ATT: 57,515

BYU HEARTBREAK IN 35-28 LOSS

BYU nearly put together one of the greatest comebacks in BYU history after digging a 35-0 hole in the first quarter but came up short in the final minutes

LAS VEGAS – The BYU football team was denied a chance to pull off one of the biggest comebacks in Cougar history and fell short to the University of Utah 35-28 in the Royal Purple Las Vegas Bowl.

After surrendering five turnovers on its first five possessions, BYU (9-4) found itself in a 35-0 hole after the first 10 minutes of the game. The Cougars would not fold in the game, however.

BYU rallied for a touchdown on its last possession of the first half to trail 35-7. Out of the break, the Cougars strung together three more touchdowns and held the Utes (10-3) scoreless to make it 35-28 with 3:23 remaining in the game. Utah converted two first downs on its final drive to get into the victory formation and prevent the Cougars from having another chance.

After a forgettable first quarter, BYU dominated the statistics, outgaining Utah 386 to 197 in total yards and 315 to 71 in the throwing game. The Cougars averaged 4.8 yards per play to Utah's 3.0, but 35 points off five turnovers was too much to overcome.

Despite throwing three interceptions and fumbling in the first quarter, true freshman Tanner Mangum stayed composed to finish the game 25 of 56 for 315 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed for a 4-yard touchdown. He finished his true freshman season with 3,377 passing yards and 23 touchdowns.

Devon Blackmon caught three passes for 97 yards while Nick Kurtz and Remington Peck each caught a touchdown pass. Francis Bernard added one rushing touchdown as part of his seven carries for 58 yards. He added a pair of receptions.

Defensively, Bronson Kaufusi led BYU in tackles in his final game of a Cougar with nine and had three tackles for loss. Laulile posted a pair of sacks while Micah Hannemann had one of his own.

Trying to escape pressure, Mangum fumbled at the 25-yard line on BYU's first possession. The Utes took advantage on a short field, punching it in from a yard out to take an early 7-0 lead with 10:59 remaining.

On BYU's next possession a tipped pass fell into the hands of Utah's Tevin Carter and returned for a score, putting BYU in a 14-point hole just 17 seconds later.

2015 ROYAL PURPLE LAS VEGAS BOWL

It didn't get better for the Cougars on the next two possessions. Back-to-back picks for Mangum resulted in another 14 points for Utah. A return to the 1-yard line on the first pick ended in a 1-yard touchdown and the second was a pick-six.

A fifth BYU turnover in five opening possessions set up Utah's fifth touchdown of the first quarter, making it 35-0 with 4:38 left in first quarter.

The Cougar defense shined after the barrage of turnovers, forcing four consecutive punts for Utah, including three 3-and-outs. BYU finally capitalized on its last drive of the half. Despite being pinned at their own 3-yard line, BYU executed a 97-yard drive to make it 35-7 at half.

Peck caught a 3-yard pass from Mangum to cap the drive. Mangum was 5 of 6 for 83 yards on the drive. Peck's touchdown reception was the first by a BYU tight end this year.

Not ready to quit, BYU scored on its opening drive out of the half. Mangum hit Bernard on a swing pass in the backfield at the 10-yard line and Bernard rumbled into the end zone for a 10-yard rushing touchdown to make it 35-14 with 10:02 to go in the third quarter.

BYU was driving on its next possession but suffered a sack on third down forcing a punt. Utah put together a five-minute drive but turned the ball over on downs at the BYU 35-yard line one minute into the fourth quarter.

Facing a fourth and 13, Blackmon got loose behind the defense and Mangum found him for a 44-yard gain to keep the drive alive. On another fourth down at the Utah 4-yard line, Mangum rocketed a pass over the middle to Kurtz for a touchdown to get the Cougars within two scores with 10:33 to go.

With 5:05 to go, Utah went for a short 4th-and-1 and the BYU defense stuffed Joe Williams for no gain to get the ball back at the Cougar 40-yard line.

Mangum continued to find open receivers down the field, hitting Blackmon for 45 yards to get BYU inside the Utah 4-yard line. Mangum called his own number and rushed four yards for the score to make it 35-28 with 3:23 on the clock.

The Ute offense did just enough to get two first downs on the ensuing drive and never gave the Cougars a chance to complete an incredible come-back.

BYU finished the season 9-4 and Mendenhall left BYU as the second winningest coach in school history with a 99-43 record.

BYU: THE PAST 40 SEASONS

NO.5

IN TOTAL WINS OVER
LAST 40 YEARS

BYU ranks No. 5 in total wins among all FBS programs over the past 40 seasons with 357 victories. (1976-2015)

1. Nebraska	385
2. Florida State	372
3. Ohio State	367
4. Oklahoma	365
5. BYU	357
6. Michigan	350
7. Georgia	345
7. Penn State	345

BYU football is No. 5 in total wins over the past 40 years stretching from 1976 through 2015. The outstanding tradition was built upon the consistent and collective effort of former players and coaches every year. Excellent team and individual performances have provided the trajectory for rich tradition with the Cougars amassing a 357-148-2 (.706) record over the past 40 seasons along with 21 conference titles, 33 bowl invitations, 13 bowl wins and 31 8-win seasons including 16 seasons of at least 10 wins. In that time frame, BYU football finished the season 18 times ranked in the top 25 with 54 victories over current Power 5 opponents.

Gifford Nielsen led BYU to a program-best 9-win season in 1976, winning the school's third conference championship and earning a second bowl-game invitation.

Down 20 points in the with four minutes remaining to SMU in the 1980 Holiday Bowl, BYU rallied to score three times with a touchdown pass, recovered on onside kick and scored again then blocked a punt with 13 seconds to go. Jim McMahon launched a Hail Mary 41 yards as time expired and Clay Brown came up with it despite having four Mustangs piled on top. Kurt Gunther kicked the extra point and BYU won 46-45 in one of the greatest college football comebacks of all time.

The Cougars won the 1984 National Championship, finishing the major polls ranked No. 1 after going a perfect 13-0. BYU defeated No. 3 Pitt on the road to open the season and took down Michigan in the Holiday Bowl to cap off the undefeated season.

BYU pumped out quarterbacks like a factory year after year after year. From 1976-1984, BYU produced a string of quarterbacks the likes of Gifford Nielsen, Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon, Steve Young and Robbie Bosco. All of them earned All-America honors.

BYU: THE PAST 40 SEASONS

Hosting the defending national champs, the No. 1 Miami Hurricanes in the first home game in Provo of the 1990 season, BYU and Ty Detmer took down the champs, 28-21 in one of the most electrifying games ever in Provo. Detmer threw for 406 yards and three touchdowns.

Detmer had one of the greatest seasons ever by a college quarterback in 1990. He threw for 5,188 yards and 41 touchdowns. He set 42 NCAA records and tied five more and won the Heisman Trophy. Detmer also won the Maxwell Award that year, in addition to the Davey O'Brien Award in 1990 and 1991 along with the Sammy Baugh Trophy in 1991.

The 1996 team is regarded as one of the most talented in BYU history and went on to win an NCAA-record 14 games. The Cougars won a WAC Championship game over nationally ranked Wyoming and went on to play No. 14 Kansas State in the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day. BYU beat the Wildcats 19-15 in another terrific postseason game in the Cougars storied history and propelled the team to a No. 5 final ranking.

Following Hall of Fame head coach LaVell Edwards retirement in 2000, new head coach Gary Crowton continued the tradition in 2001 with an offensive juggernaut of a squad that went 12-2 and led the NCAA with 542.9 yards per game of total offense and 46.8 points per game. Running back Luke Staley won the Doak Walker award and led the NCAA in yards per carry (8.1) and in scoring with 28 total touchdowns.

Bronco Mendenhall restored not just the traditional look of BYU football, but also brought back much of its winning tradition. BYU won the Mountain West Conference in 2006 and 2007 with 11-2 seasons.

Kalani Sitake was announced as the head coach on Dec. 19, 2015. Sitake, a former BYU fullback, played for the Cougars from 1994, 97-2000.

Mendenhall's teams went 99-43 in his 11 seasons, reaching a bowl game every season, one of only 11 teams to do so. His teams were ranked nationally in 9 of 11 seasons and picked up wins over No. 3 Oklahoma, No. 15 TCU and No. 16 Oregon State.

The Cougars were named No. 1 by the Associated Press, the United Press International, Sports Illustrated, CNN-USA Today and the Football Writers of America after finishing the season with a perfect 13-0 record. LaVell Edwards was selected as the NCAA National Coach of the Year and was invited to visit President Ronald Reagan at the White House.

The season featured several game-saving plays as the Cougars moved their way up the rankings. Quarterback Robbie Bosco connected with wide receiver Adam Haysbert for a 50-yard touchdown pass with 1:37 left to play to take the lead in the season-opening win at No. 3 Pittsburgh.

Safety Kyle Morrell's timed leap over the center to stop a quarterback sneak short of the goal line gave BYU the momentum they needed to foil Hawaii's upset attempt. Tight end David Mills was poked in the eye, but came through with a leaping grab in the end zone to help BYU overcome Wyoming 41-38 in the homecoming game.

The Cougars ascended to the No. 1 spot on Nov. 17 following a 24-14 victory at Utah combined with a Nebraska loss to Oklahoma and a Navy upset over unbeaten and then No. 2 South Carolina. The Cougars maintained their No. 1 ranking heading into the bowl game after defeating Utah State 38-13 in the final contest of the regular season.

With a TV blimp in the sky over Jack Murphy Stadium, Bosco left the Holiday Bowl in the first quarter with an ankle injury, but returned late in the second taped up and played in the shotgun to finish the game. BYU trailed 17-10 after Michigan hit a field goal to begin the fourth quarter. The Cougars then took over the game, Bosco completed seven pass attempts to five different receivers and hit wide receiver Glen Kozlowski between two Michigan defenders for the game-tying touchdown.

Michigan threatened to score again, but linebacker Kurt Gouveia sacked the Wolverine quarterback for a 16-yard loss to force a punt. BYU moved the ball 70 yards to the Michigan 13-yard line when Bosco scrambled up the middle, keeping his eyes down field, and drilled the ball into running back Kelly Smith for the game-winning touchdown.

Controversy was abundant as many of the so-called experts such as NBC announcer Bryant Gumbel and Oklahoma head coach Barry Switzer accused BYU of playing a "Bo-Diddley Tech" schedule. However, at the end of the season BYU was the only team unscathed with a loss.

Polls Crown Cougars 'Number One'

By Graham Dixon
Special Sports Editor

Against all odds, Brigham Young University was named the nation's premier football college program Wednesday night, ranked No. 1 by the United Press International News of College Football, and Associated Press' Board of Sports Editors and Coaches.

BYU also received the highest rating, "Division of America for 1984," by the Associated Press in its 1984 National Football Championship final, a three-team poll.

In addition, BYU was ranked No. 1 for all four years of the United Press' Board of Sports Editors and Coaches poll.

BYU's triumph over the other two teams in the final poll, the United Press' Board of Sports Editors and Coaches poll, was the first time a team has won the poll since 1956.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME HEAD COACH LAVELL EDWARDS

257 CAREER VICTORIES • 19 CONFERENCE TITLES • 1 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Legendary Cougar coach LaVell Edwards has twice been recognized as one the greatest coaches in college football. The seventh-winningest coach in NCAA football history earned the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award in 1979 and the Kodak Coach of the Year Award in 1984.

Along with his teams' successes during his coaching tenure, LaVell Edwards accumulated many personal accolades to match. Edwards' first national recognition for his coaching prowess came in 1979 when he was honored with the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award. A panel of 11 former college football coaches selected the BYU coach. On the heels of BYU's first national championship five years later, Edwards' coaching peers honored him with what he then called his greatest personal accolade, the Kodak Coach of the Year Award.

As successful as his teams were on the field, Edwards' coaching philosophy did not reflect a win-at-all-costs mentality. He didn't bark orders or rule the sideline with an iron fist. Generally, the assistant coaches were delegated the duty of handling the X's and O's while he saw to the administrative tasks of the program. His personal demeanor also gave him the ability to relate well with his players whether teaching them about football or other more personal matters.

"Just seeing how he handles himself with the media and with people in general ... he's always genuine with them. He treats everybody well," former BYU quarterback and current BYU athletic administrator Robbie Bosco said. "Those are the things he'll leave with me, more than winning football games."

1985
Bosco led the Cougars to another 11-win season and another WAC Championship. BYU finished No. 16 in the AP poll and Bosco was a third-round NFL draft pick.

1989
BYU wins WAC for the first time in three years behind the arm of sophomore Ty Detmer. Detmer throws for 4,560 yards, the third 4,000 yard season for a BYU quarterback under Edwards (McMahon '80, Bosco '84). Offensive lineman Mo Elewonibi wins Outland Trophy.

1994
Edwards and BYU defeats New Mexico 49-47 for his 200th victory. BYU also defeated Notre Dame during the regular season and Oklahoma in the postseason.

2000
Prior to the 2000 season, Edwards announces it will be his last. BYU finishes just 6-6 and does not get invited to a bowl game for just the fifth time in his 29 year career as head coach. In a ceremony following BYU's last regular season game at home, President Gordon B. Hinckley of the LDS Church officially renamed Cougar Stadium LaVell Edwards Stadium. The Cougars went on to defeat Utah in dramatic fashion to close the regular season on the road with a 34-27, last-minute victory for his 257th win (No. 6 all-time). Edwards is carried off the field.

1984
BYU goes 13-0 and wins the National Championship. Edwards earns Kodak Coach of the Year. Quarterback Robbie Bosco wins Sammy Baugh. Five total players, including Bosco are named to All-America teams.

1986
Edwards passes Arizona State's Frank Kush as the winningest coach in WAC history. Defensive lineman Jason Buck wins the Outland Trophy.

1990
Ty Detmer leads BYU to 28-21 win against No. 1 ranked Miami in Provo. Detmer wins the Heisman Trophy. BYU's only Heisman winner with 5,188 yards and 41 touchdowns.

1996
BYU sets an NCAA record with 14 victories, going 14-1 and defeating No. 14 Kansas State in the Cotton Bowl - BYU's only New Year's Day bowl in school history. Team finishes ranked No. 5 in the polls. QB Steve Sarkisian wins Sammy Baugh and Davey O'Brien Awards.

2004
Edwards is inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. BYU claimed 20 of 29 regular-season conference titles under Edwards and led BYU to 22 bowl games. A two-time national Coach of the Year winner, Edwards coached one national championship team and 32 All-Americans.

BYU QUARTERBACK ALL-AMERICA SELECTIONS

Since the days of Virgil Carter and Gary Sheide in the 1960s and early 1970s, BYU has produced an assembly line of outstanding quarterbacks in Provo that have earned unprecedented success in the market of college and professional football. Eleven BYU quarterbacks have earned at least an honorable mention All-America citation or Academic All-America honors.

Volumes have been written about BYU's passing game and great quarterback tradition. BYU quarterbacks have owned the NCAA record books and have won the Sammy Baugh trophy seven times and the Davey O'Brien four times. BYU's quarterback factory has also produced a Heisman Trophy winner in Ty Detmer and many other Heisman Trophy candidates. Quarterbacks Gifford Nielsen, Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon, Steve Young and Ty Detmer have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

On seven different occasions, BYU quarterbacks have finished as the NCAA total offense leaders. Three of the top-15 career passing efficiency leaders are from BYU. In the 29 years LaVell Edwards coached at BYU, the Cougars led the nation in passing eight times and finished in the top five 17 times.

When Edwards was named head coach at BYU in 1972, he realized he couldn't compete initially with the big schools for the big-time athletes. So he installed a passing attack that would change the future of college football.

The offense worked, and the Cougars began passing the competition. BYU became one of the first universities to use the forward pass consistently and effectively in a time when throwing the football was a mere alternative to running the ball.

The pass has been good to BYU. Prior to Edwards, the program had won a total of 171 games and had only 16 winning seasons since 1922. Since 1972, BYU is No. 8 in total wins with 382. BYU has won or tied for a conference championship 23 times, played in 34 bowl games and won the national championship in 1984.

VIRGIL CARTER

Provo, Utah (1964-66)

Carter led the NCAA in touchdown passes and total offense in 1966. He set an NCAA record in 1966 with 599 yards of total offense at UTEP. He was an Academic All-American and finished 11th in the 1966 Heisman voting.

GARY SHEIDE

Provo, Utah (1964-66)

Sheide won the Sammy Baugh trophy in 1974 and was second in the NCAA in passing in both 1973 and 1974. He was the 1974 WAC Offensive Player of the Year and finished eighth in the 1974 Heisman ballot while earning All-American Honorable Mention from UPI.

GIFFORD NIELSEN

Provo, Utah (1975-77)

A First Team All-American in 1976, Nielsen led the NCAA in TD passes and passing yards and was second in total offense in 1976. He finished sixth in the 1976 Heisman voting and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1994.

MARC WILSON

Provo, Utah (1975-77)

Wilson won the Sammy Baugh in 1979 along with being named a Consensus All-American and third in the Heisman Trophy vote. He led the nation in total offense and set 19 NCAA records in his career. He was a first-round draft pick of the Oakland Raiders (15th overall) and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1996.

JIM MCMAHON

Provo, Utah (1975-77)

McMahon won the Davey O'Brien, Sammy Baugh and was named a Consensus All-American in 1981. He set 75 NCAA records in his career and led the NCAA in total offense passing in both 1980 and 1981. McMahon finished third (1981) and fifth (1980) in the Heisman voting. He went on to be a first round pick of the Chicago Bears in 1982 and quarterbacked them to a Super Bowl win in 1986 and got another ring with Green Bay in 1996 as a backup, playing in the NFL for 16 years. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1998.

STEVE YOUNG

Provo, Utah (1975-77)

Young also won both the Davey O'Brien and the Sammy Baugh in 1983 along with earning Consensus All-American status. He led the NCAA in total offense, passing and pass efficiency in 1983 and was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy. He set 15 NCAA records in his career. Young played 14 years in the NFL and won the NFL MVP in both 1992 and 1994. He set the NFL single-season passer rating record with 112.8 in 1994 and won a Super Bowl with San Francisco the same year, earning MVP honors with six touchdown passes in the game. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001.

ROBBIE BOSCO

Bosco led the Cougars to the 1984 National Championship and won the Sammy Baugh Trophy that season. He was a second-team All-American and runner-up for the Davey O'Brien while finishing third for the Heisman in both 1984 and 1985. He led the NCAA in total offense in 1984 and was drafted by Green Bay 1985. He has since coached at BYU and currently serves in an administrative role in the athletic department.

TY DETMER

Detmer won the Heisman Trophy in 1990 and is a two-time Davey O'Brien winner and Maxwell Award recipient. He set 63 NCAA records and was a two-time Consensus All-American. He is BYU's career leader with 15,031 passing yards and ranks No. 5 in NCAA history. He led the NCAA in passing yards in 1990 and total offense in 1991. He played 14 years in the NFL and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2012. He recently returned to BYU as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

STEVE SARKISIAN

In two seasons at BYU, Sarkisian won the Sammy Baugh Trophy, earned second team All-American honors and led the nation in passing efficiency in 1996. He was named the 1996 WAC Offensive Player of the Year and led BYU to an NCAA-record 14 victories in 1996, including a win in the Cotton Bowl over Kansas State. He has been a head coach at Washington and USC.

JOHN BECK

Beck was named a second team All-American in 2006 and was named the MWC Offensive Player of the Year.

He was a finalist for the Johnny Unitas award and semi-finalist for the Davey O'Brien. His 11,021 career passing yards ranks No. 3 at BYU. He was drafted in the second round of the 2007 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins and played six years in the NFL.

MAX HALL

Hall won more games at BYU than any other starting quarterback, with 32 victories. He was a two-time honorable mention All-American and a three-time All-MWC player. He is second in BYU history in passing yards, touchdowns, completions and total offense in his three seasons. He played in six games for the Arizona Cardinals in 2010 after signing as a free agent. He won his first career NFL start.

3,000 PASSING YARDS

Passing for 3,000 yards has been a benchmark in college football since BYU was one of the early pioneers engineering an effective air attack. Since 1976, 13 different individual BYU quarterbacks have accomplished the feat 23 times. As a team, BYU has passed for at least 3,000 yards in 34 of the past 40 seasons, including 14 seasons with at least 4,000 yards and one season in 1990 with over 5,000 yards.

1990 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

TY DETMER

On December 1, 1990, Ty Detmer and his teammates gathered pool-side at the Princess Kaiulani Hotel just hours prior to kickoff with Hawai'i. Via satellite hookup with national TV, Detmer and the BYU faithful waited patiently and listened as Downtown Athletic Club President C. Peter Lambos announced, "Ty Detmer, Ty Detmer of BYU," — soon Ty was doused in the pool.

Detmer, a junior, became the first collegian from the Rockies to win the Heisman Trophy. Named in honor of John Heisman, the coveted 25-pound honor has been awarded annually to the outstanding college football player of the year since 1935.

A 28-21 upset over No. 1-ranked Miami in Provo vaulted Detmer to the forefront in the Heisman race his junior season. Combined with a massive public relations "necktie" campaign for Ty, the 6-foot, 175-pound, gunslinger from San Antonio, Texas, guided BYU to a Holiday Bowl berth that season and a 10-3 record with 41 touchdowns and 5,188 yards passing.

Detmer polled 1,482 points to beat out Notre Dame's Raghib "Rocket" Ismail at 1,177 and finished first in all six regions. Detmer finished third in the Heisman balloting in 1991.

"Winning the Heisman was a great honor," said Detmer. "There have been a lot of great players, like my teammates and previous BYU quarterbacks, that contributed to it. They opened the door. It shows the strength of the program at BYU."

Detmer's portrait hangs alongside other recipients on the third floor of the DAC of New York City. A duplicate portrait of Detmer also hangs on display in the Cougar Room of LaVell Edwards Stadium.

BYU'S SAMMY BAUGH TROPHY WINNERS

7 SAMMY BAUGH WINNERS

The Sammy Baugh Trophy is awarded to the nation's top passer by the Touchdown Club of Columbus each year since 1959. The award is named after College and Pro Football Hall of Famer Samuel "Slingin' Sammy" Baugh. He was a two-time All-American at TCU and went on to play with the Washington Redskins from 1937-1952. He was a six-time All-Pro selection and NFL Player of the Year in 1947 and 1948. Baugh is credited for making the forward pass an integral part of offensive play in the NFL.

BYU has produced a record seven Sammy Baugh winners including Gary Sheide, Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon, Steve Young, Robbie Bosco, Ty Detmer and Steve Sarkisian. No other school has more than four winners.

THE DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD

In 1981, the Davey O'Brien Educational and Charitable Trust of Fort Worth, Texas, named Jim McMahon the first recipient of the annual Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award — honoring the nation's best quarterback, after previously honoring any position player beginning in 1977. BYU quarterbacks have won the Davey O'Brien Award four times — more than any other school. In addition to winners McMahon (1981), Steve Young (1983) and Ty Detmer (1990 & '91), Robbie Bosco finished runner-up in 1984 and Steve Sarkisian finished third in 1996.

1981 JIM MCMAHON

Jim McMahon won the Davey O'Brien Award in its first year as a quarterback-specific award. McMahon's senior season in 1981 capped off his historic career with another 3,555 yards and 30 touchdown passes. He was named to five All-America teams and was the WAC Player of the Year after leading BYU to another WAC Championship.

1983 STEVE YOUNG

Steve Young put together a senior season of 3,902 passing yards, 33 touchdowns to go along with a running attack of 444 yards and another eight scores. He led BYU to an 11-1 record, winning another WAC title and leading the Cougars to a 21-17 win in the Holiday Bowl over Missouri after catching the game-winning touchdown on a halfback pass.

1990 TY DETMER

Ty Detmer's 1990 season was one of the best by a quarterback in not just BYU history, but in all of college football. He threw for 5,188 yards and 41 touchdowns in 12 regular season games while setting 42 NCAA records and tying five more. Detmer's Davey O'Brien Award was added to his hardware collection in 1990 consisting of the Maxwell Award and Heisman Trophy.

1991 TY DETMER

Detmer followed up his historic junior campaign with another stellar season as a senior. He threw for 4,031 yards and 35 touchdowns en route to another Davey O'Brien Award and the Sammy Baugh Trophy. He finished third in the Heisman voting and was named a consensus All-American for the second consecutive year. The Cougars also clinched a third-straight WAC title behind Detmer's arm.

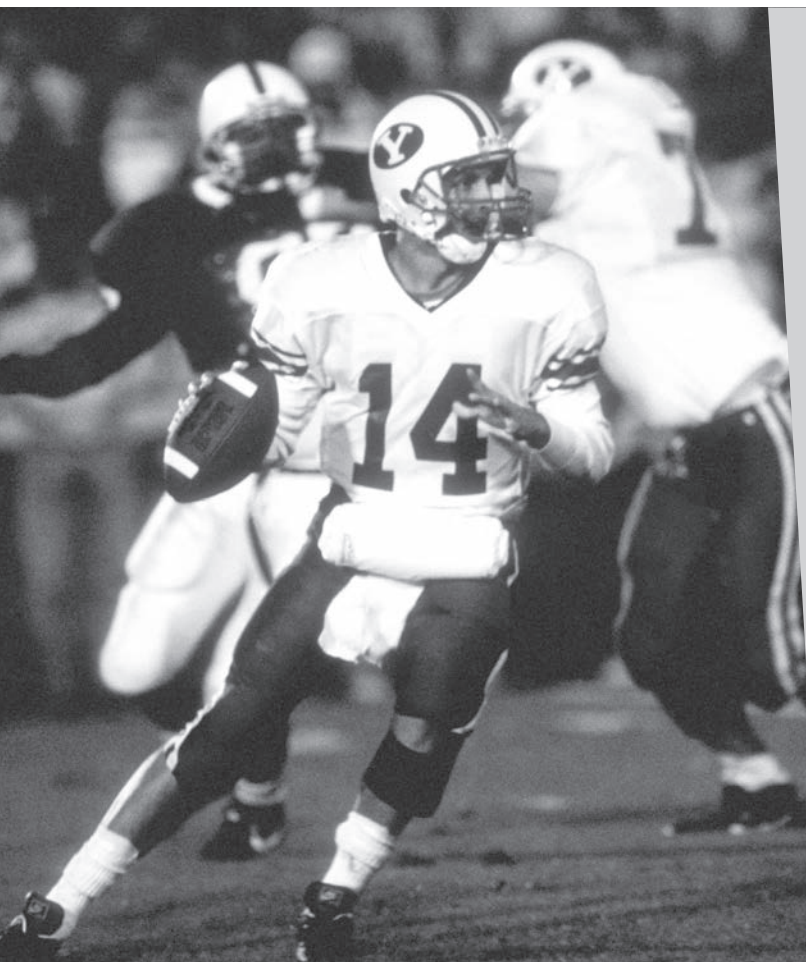

TY DETMER WINS THE MAXWELL AWARD

Each year the Maxwell Football Club presents the Maxwell Award for the College Player of the Year. Dating back to 1937, this award is presented in honor of Robert W. (Tiny) Maxwell, legendary college player, official and sports columnist. Voters for the Maxwell College Awards are NCAA Head College Football Coaches, members of the Maxwell Football Club & sportswriters and sportscasters from across the country. Quarterback Ty Detmer took home the Maxwell Award as college football's best player in 1990. Detmer won the Heisman and Davey O'Brien the same year. The Maxwell Award voting - by college coaches, the media and members of the Maxwell Football Club - had the same order of finish as the Heisman. Detmer had 1,993 points; followed by Raghib "Rocket" Ismail of Notre Dame with 1,385; Eric Bienenmeyer of Colorado with 747, and Shawn Moore of Virginia with 431.

THE OUTLAND TROPHY WINNERS*1986
JASON BUCK

Jason Buck, a 6-6, 270-pound senior from St. Anthony, Idaho, was a quarterback going into junior college at Ricks College. Buck led the 1986 Cougars with 218.5 defensive points and registered 26 unassisted tackles, 33 assisted tackles, 13 tackles for losses, 17 quarterback hurries and 12.5 sacks.

Buck rode a publicity campaign of "One Buck" dollar bills in leading BYU to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Freedom Bowl in 1986.

"For me it was just a thrill to be on the field every Saturday at BYU," said Buck. "To win the Outland Trophy was a dream come true."

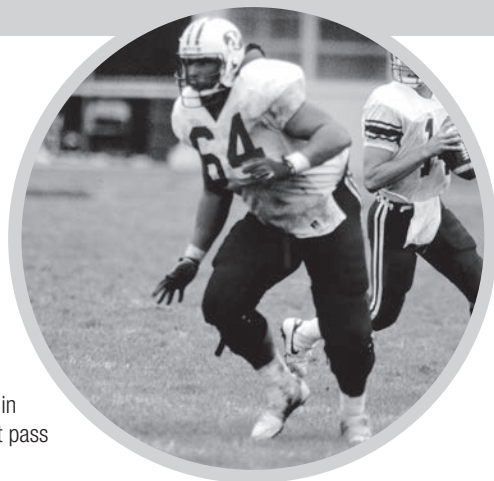

The Outland Trophy has been awarded annually by the Football Writers Association of America since 1946 to the nation's most outstanding interior lineman. It is named after the late John Outland, an All-America lineman at Pennsylvania in the late 1800s. It is the third oldest player award in major-college football behind the Heisman Trophy and Maxwell Award.

MOHAMMED ELEWONIBI

Mohammed Elewonibi, a 6-5, 290-pound, senior from British Columbia, Canada, spent his childhood in his native Nigeria and didn't play football until after high school, at Snow Junior College. "Mount Mohammed" led BYU to a 10-3 record, a berth in the Holiday Bowl in 1989 and graded out four times with perfect pass protection as a senior.

The Outland Trophy honors the outstanding interior lineman in the nation and was first presented in 1946 by the Football Writers Association of America.

The award is named for its benefactor, Dr. John H. Outland.

"This is a great honor," Staley said. "I can't express how grateful I am for my family, my teammates, my coach - everyone who made this possible."

In addition to winning the Doak Walker Award, Staley was also named as a first-team member of the prestigious Walter Camp Foundation All-America Team. Staley was the first BYU consensus All-American since Ty Detmer was twice selected in 1990 and 1991. In addition to the Walter Camp Foundation All-America team, Staley was named a first-team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, the Associated Press, The Sporting News, Football News and CNN/ISI—just to name a few.

"We're very proud of Luke and all his accomplishments," BYU head coach Gary Crowton said. "Since we started this season back in August, we have been telling these guys to work hard, stay focused and great things will happen. This award, although presented to Luke, is a tribute to the hard work and commitment each and every player and coach has made this season. Luke is probably one of the best examples we have had, in terms of working hard and staying focused. This is a great tribute for a great athlete, a great teammate and a great young man. We couldn't be more proud of him."

Staley, from Tualatin, Ore., led the nation in scoring (15.5 p/game), yards per carry (8.1 y/carry) and finished the 2001 season ranked third in the nation in rushing, averaging 143.8 yards per game. He helped pace the Cougars to a 12-2 record on the season, scoring a BYU single-season record 28 touchdowns. Staley also racked up a BYU single-season record 1,582 yards rushing on the season.

THE POLYNESIAN PIPELINE

The Polynesian Islands have become a hotbed for recruiting in recent years, but BYU has been one of the pioneers in bringing these players from Tonga, Samoa, the Hawaiian Islands and all of Polynesia to the forefront of college football since the early 1950s.

Harry Bray of Hilo, Hawai'i, transferred from Weber College to play for the Cougars in 1951, becoming the first Polynesian to play for the Cougars. Other Pacific Islanders who followed included: Famika Anae (1954-55), John Kapele (1957-59), John Kawaa (1962-1963), John Lupoi (1967-1969) and Henry Nawahine (1964-1965). Some of BYU's most celebrated and decorated players have come from the Pacific islands, including All-Americans, national record holders, players who have gone on to compete in the NFL and now, several members of BYU's current coaching and support staff.

Kalani Sitake was named BYU's 14th head coach on Dec. 19, 2015, becoming the first Tongan head football coach in the NCAA. Sitake was raised in Laie, Hawaii and later moved to the mainland. His staff includes Polynesians Ilaisa Tuiaki, Steve Kaufusi, Reno Mahe, Nu'u Tafisi, Russell Tialavea, Tevita Ofahengaue, Jack Damuni, Jasen Ah You, Sione Kinikini, Vince Feula and Harvey Unga.

Since 1951, hundreds of Polynesian players have suited up for BYU. The Cougars' Polynesian players have come from all over the Pacific including Hawaii, Tonga, Samoa and Fiji. Some of the most notable players include Vai Sikahema, the NCAA's career leader in punt returns, All-American and NFL veteran tight end Itula Mili and BYU's all-time leading rusher, Harvey Unga. Many former BYU Polynesian have gone on to play in the NFL.

Of the hundreds of Polynesian players, several rank among the top statistical leaders in BYU history. Two of the top-10 career rushers are Polynesian. Two of the top-10 leaders in career receiving yards are also Polynesian. Since 1982, 11 of BYU's season-rushing leaders have been Pacific Islanders.

BYU'S TIGHT END TRADITION

BYU TIGHT END GREATS

BYU's tight ends have earned unprecedented success as a featured position in the offense for decades. With former Heisman-winning quarterback taking over the offensive playcalling duties, many expect the tight end to be showcased again, similar to the days when Detmer relied on All-American tight ends Chris Smith and Byron Rex while under center at BYU. Over the years, Cougar football has emerged as the home of some of the best pass-catching tight ends in NCAA history. Starting with "Miracle Bowl" hero Clay Brown in 1980, nine BYU tight ends have earned All-America recognition. Since 1976, 12 Cougar tight ends have received 20 first-team All-Conference citations. Five former Cougars helped lead their teams to the Super Bowl—Doug Jolley with the Oakland Raiders in 2003, Chad Lewis with the Philadelphia Eagles in 2005, Itula Mili with the Seattle Seahawks in 2006, Gabriel Reid with the Chicago Bears in 2007 and Dennis Pitta with the Baltimore Ravens in 2013. Two former BYU Cougars, Todd Christensen and Chad Lewis, have been named to several Pro Bowl teams during their successful professional careers as tight ends. A BYU tight end was named first-team all-conference (Jonny Harline in 2005 and 2006 and Dennis Pitta in 2007, 2008 and 2009) in five-straight years. In 2009, BYU became the first team in MWC history to sweep the tight end honors as Andrew George earned All-MWC Second Team accolades while Pitta was a consensus All-American.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

The College Football Hall of Fame was established in 1951. Including the 2016 Hall of Fame class, only 977 players and 211 coaches, have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame from the nearly 5.12 million who have played or coached the game during the past 147 years. In other words, less than two ten-thousandths of one percent (.0002) of the individuals who have played the game have been deemed worthy of this distinction.

BYU has produced seven Hall of Fame members, including six players and head coach LaVell Edwards.

Founded in 1947, The National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame inducted its first class of inductees in 1951. The first class included 32 players and 19 coaches, including Illinois' Red Grange, Notre Dame's Knute Rockne, Amos Alonzo Stagg and Carlisle's Jim Thorpe.

305 schools are represented with at least one College Football Hall of Famer.

The new College Football Hall of Fame, which opened on Aug. 23, 2014, is a 94,256-square-foot attraction located in the heart of Atlanta's sports, entertainment and tourism district.

GIFFORD NIELSEN QUARTERBACK: 1975-77 INDUCTED: 1994

Nicknamed the "Mormon Rifle," Gifford Nielsen became BYU's first Hall of Fame inductee in 1994. His prolific passing career began when he came off the bench in the third game of his sophomore season to lead the Cougars to a 16-15 come-from-behind win over New Mexico by completing 10 of 12 passes. As a junior in 1976, Nielsen really made fans sit up and notice. He passed for 3,192 yards and 29 touchdowns, set 13 WAC records and made All-America. Next season promised even more. He threw five touchdown passes against New Mexico, six against Utah State and was twice named Player of the Week. For the first time, a BYU football team was nationally ranked. "It was like a little dream world," said Nielsen, a product of Provo High School. "The numbers were just mind-boggling. Everything you could ever dream of as a kid in Provo, Utah, was in the palm of my hand." On Oct. 8, 1977, his season and college career ended when he suffered a serious injury. Over three years Nielsen averaged an astounding 243 yards passing per game. Nielsen played six years with the Houston Oilers and was the last quarterback to lead the Oilers to the AFC finals. He and his wife Wendy have six children.

MARC WILSON QUARTERBACK: 1976-79 INDUCTED: 1996

One of the most celebrated quarterbacks in Cougar history, Marc Wilson earned consensus All-America honors in 1979 and was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Dec. 10, 1996. In Wilson's first game as a starter, he was 15 of 25 for 332 yards with seven touchdowns in a 63-17 triumph over Colorado State and was consequently named Sports Illustrated's Offensive Player of the Week. In Wilson's career at BYU, he set 10 NCAA records. The 6-5, 204-pound quarterback ranked fourth in the nation in passing efficiency with a 147.1 rating in 1979. That same year, Wilson finished third in the Heisman balloting, led his team to an undefeated regular season, and was named the Holiday Bowl's Offensive MVP. A true student-athlete, Wilson was the recipient of the NCAA Top Five Award and its post graduate scholarship. A first round draft pick of the Oakland Raiders, Wilson played eight seasons before finishing his career with the New England Patriots. Presently, Wilson is a land developer in the North Seattle area. He and his wife, Colleen, live in Woodinville, Wash. with their four children.

JIM MCMAHON QUARTERBACK: 1978-81 INDUCTED: 1998

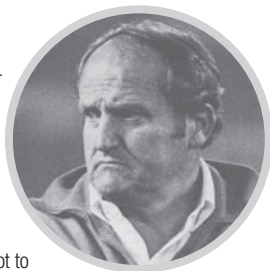

McMahon set 75 NCAA records at BYU, was a 1981 first team All-American by Kodak (Coaches), College & Pro Weekly, Associated Press, UPI, FWAA, and second team NEA. In 1980 he earned first team All-America from the FWAA. McMahon balloted third place for the Heisman Trophy in 1981 and fifth in 1980. In 1981, he won the Davey O'Brien Trophy, the Sammy Baugh Award, the Utah Sportsman of the Year and the NCAA Co-Offensive Player of the Year with Marcus Allen (Pigskin Club of Wash., D.C.). He led the NCAA in pass efficiency (155.0) and total offense (345.8) in 1981 as well as pass efficiency (176.9) and total offense (385.6) in 1980. He set 29 Western Athletic Conference records and was three-time WAC Player of the Year and first team all-league. He broke 23 BYU records, was MVP of two Holiday Bowls and has been inducted to the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame. McMahon passed for 9,536 yards, threw 84 touchdowns and completed 653 of 1,056 passes at BYU. McMahon played for the Chicago Bears from 1982-88 (1985 Super Bowl Champs, 1985 Pro QB of the Year, and Pro Bowl); San Diego Chargers in 1989; Philadelphia Eagles from 1990-92; Minnesota Vikings in 1993; Arizona Cardinals in 1994; and Green Bay Packers from 1995-96 (1997 Super Bowl Champions).

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

LAVELL EDWARDS

HEAD COACH: 1972-2000 INDUCTED: 2004

A coaching icon whose success and longevity are paralleled by few, Edwards guided BYU to heights never before reached in the program's history. Edwards posted a record of 257-101-3 (.716) over a span of 29 seasons at BYU. From 1972 until his retirement following the 2000 season, Edwards roamed the sidelines at BYU—a tenure that ranks fifth all-time among coaches at one school. In 20 of those 29 seasons, the Cougars claimed the league title. Guiding BYU to 22 bowl game appearances, including a streak of 17-straight bowl appearances, Edwards reached the pinnacle of coaching success in 1984 by winning the National Championship. His 257 wins rank him seventh in NCAA Division I-A history, and he has more victories than every other coach in BYU history combined. At the helm, Edwards coached one Heisman Trophy winner, two Outland Trophy recipients, four Davey O'Brien award winners and 32 All-Americans—not to mention countless players who went on to professional careers in the NFL. He was named NCAA District 8 Coach of the Year eight times, the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year in 1979 and AFCA National Coach of the Year in 1984. Named the State of Utah's Coach of the Century, Edwards is a member of the State of Utah Sports Hall of Fame. "A spectacular choice," Steve Young said. "When you think of the Hall of Fame, you think of longevity, excellence, leadership and quality. In my book, Hall of Fame and LaVell Edwards go hand in hand. He is definitely a worthy recipient of this honor."

STEVE YOUNG

INDUCTED: 1994

One of the greatest collegiate quarterbacks of all time, Young set 13 NCAA records. As a junior, he averaged 318.8 yards per game of total offense, earning All-Western Athletic Conference recognition and Conference Player of the Year honors. In his senior season, he repeated as a first-team All-WAC selection, completed 306 of 429 pass attempts for an impressive .713 percentage and led BYU to its second straight Holiday Bowl. His .713 completion percentage, 3,902 yards passing, 4,346 yards of total offense and 33 touchdowns all led the nation. He completed 592 of 907 attempts for a .653 average, threw for 7,733 yards and 56 touchdowns and had 8,817 yards of total offense in only 31 games. A unanimous All-American and academic All-WAC selection, Young was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy and received a National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award in recognition for his excellence on the field, in the classroom and in the community. Young retired after 15 seasons in the NFL, where he earned two MVP awards, seven trips to the Pro Bowl and led the San Francisco 49ers to win the Super Bowl in 1995, earning MVP honors.

GORDON HUDSON

TIGHT END: 1980-83
INDUCTED: 2009

Hudson is the first non-quarterback to represent BYU as a player in the Hall. A consensus All-America First Team pick in 1982 and 1983, Hudson is still the NCAA FBS record holder for most passes caught per game by a tight end (5.4) in a career, most career yards per game by a tight end (75.3) and most yards in a single game by a tight end (259). Hudson helped BYU win four conference championships (WAC) and earn four Holiday Bowl invitations during his career from 1980-83. He totaled 2,484 receiving yards and 22 touchdowns during his All-American career.

TY DETMER

INDUCTED: 2012

BYU's only Heisman Trophy Winner, Detmer is BYU's seventh inductee into the Hall of Fame. Detmer also won the Maxwell Award, two Davey O'Brien Awards and set 63 NCAA records in his tenure. Twice named a consensus All-American, Detmer won national player of the year awards from organizations such as UPI, CBS, Scripps Howard and the U.S. Sports Academy. His 15,031 career passing yards and 121 touchdowns were NCAA bests at the time, and the gunslinger still holds three records. A three-time first team All-WAC performer, Detmer led College Football Hall of Fame coach LaVell Edwards' teams to three conference titles, four bowl games, three AP top 25 finishes and a 28-21 win over top-ranked and defending national champion Miami on Sept. 8, 1990. The NCAA Today's Top VI Award recipient was a ninth round selection of the 1992 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers and played 14 seasons in the NFL. The founder of the Ty Detmer Charitable Foundation, he regularly holds the Ty Detmer Youth Football League in Grants, N.M. A 2000 inductee of the BYU Athletics Hall of Fame, Detmer is currently the head coach at St. Andrew's Episcopal School in Austin, Texas.

BYU'S CONFERENCE HISTORY

INDEPENDENT (2011- PRESENT)

On Aug. 31, 2010, BYU announced its football program will compete in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision as an independent beginning with the 2011 season. Since the university instituted a football program in 1922, BYU had been a member of five different conferences, including the Rocky Mountain (1922-37), Mountain States/Skyline (1938-61), Western Athletic (1962-98) and Mountain West (1999-2010). The Cougars claimed their first conference championship in program history in 1965, going 4-2 in the WAC under head coach Tom Hudspeth and have won 23 conference championships in their history. BYU won its next title, the first of 19 under legendary coach LaVell Edwards, in 1974. During its time in the MWC, the Cougars won four championships, including back-to-back undefeated conference seasons in 2006 and 2007.

MOUNTAIN WEST (1999-10)

- For the third time in program history, BYU chartered the creation of a new conference, this time joined by New Mexico, Utah, Air Force, Colorado St., San Diego State, UNLV and Wyoming. TCU joined in 2005.
- BYU football posted a 64-26 (.711) conference record in its 12 years in the conference.
- The Cougars' four MWC titles, 64 wins and 54 All-MWC First Team selections equal or surpass any MWC team since the league's inception.
- BYU won four MWC titles, including back-to-back championships in 2006-07. In three of its championship seasons, BYU went undefeated in conference play.

WESTERN ATHLETIC (1962-98)

- BYU was a charter member of the conference along with Arizona, Arizona State, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming.
- The WAC eventually expanded to as many as 16 schools in 1996.
- BYU football posted a 187-69-2 (.729) conference record in its 37 years in the conference.
- While in the WAC, the Cougars won the 1984 National Championship, finishing 13-0.
- BYU won a total of 19 titles while in the WAC, including its first-ever football championship in 1965 and 10-straight from 1976-85.
- BYU's 19 WAC titles, 187 conference wins and 199 All-WAC First Team selections are all still the most by far of any WAC team

MOUNTAIN STATES/SKYLINE (1938-61)

- BYU was a charter member of the conference, leaving with Colorado, Colorado State, Denver, Utah, Utah State and Wyoming when the RMFAC was deemed too large. Montana and New Mexico joined in 1951.
- After Colorado left in 1947, the conference became popularly known as the Skyline Conference.
- Football posted a 41-75-12 (.367) conference record in its 24 years in the conference.
- The conference dissolved in early 1962 after BYU, Utah, Wyoming and New Mexico left to form the WAC.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN FACULTY ATHLETIC (1922-37)

- BYU joined the RMFAC in 1918 with football participation beginning four years later.
- BYU football posted a 46-52-4 (.471) conference record in its 16 years in the conference.
- When BYU joined, other RMFAC schools included Colorado, Colorado A&M (now Colorado State), Colorado College, Colorado School of Mines, Denver, Utah, Utah State and Montana State. Wyoming, Western St. and Colorado Teacher's College (now Northern Colorado) joined two years later.
- Known today as the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (RMAC), it is now a Division II conference with 14 members.

BYU PLAYERS CURRENTLY IN THE NFL

BYU currently has 14 players under NFL contract. Bronson Kaufusi was the latest Cougar drafted, going in the third round to the Baltimore Ravens and joining former All-American tight end Dennis Pitta. Pitta is expected to return to action for the Ravens after two hip injuries. He has 138 career receptions, 1,369 yards and 11 touchdowns and is entering his 7th season in the NFL. John Denney is the longest tenured BYU player in the NFL, entering his 12 NFL season as the long-snapper for the Miami Dolphins. Former defensive end Ezekiel Ansah is one of the most notable current NFL Cougars. Ansah was drafted No. 5 overall in 2013 by the Detroit Lions and was named to the Pro Bowl in 2015. He led the NFC with 14.5 sacks in 2015 and has totaled 30 for his career, already the eighth-most in Lions franchise history.

Ezekiel Ansah

Dennis Pitta

BYU has had 141 players drafted by the NFL and another 169 get NFL opportunities as free agents. BYU has had 11 first round picks, the most recent being Ghana native Ezekiel Ansah, who was drafted No. 5 overall to the Detroit Lions in 2013. BYU's most recent draft pick was Bronson Kaufusi, going in the third round to the Baltimore Ravens in the 2016 NFL Draft.

The average player coming from BYU spends nearly four and a half years in the NFL, about one year longer than the average NFL career.

Punter Lee Johnson had the longest NFL career, spanning 18 seasons and six teams. He was a fifth-round draft pick by the Houston Oilers (1985-87). He went on to play for the Cleveland Browns (1987-1988), Cincinnati Bengals (1988-1998), New England Patriots (1999-2001), Minnesota Vikings (2001) and Philadelphia Eagles (2002). At the time of his retirement, his 51,979 punting yards were the third most in NFL history.

Forty players from BYU have played in the Super Bowl, bringing home 39 total championship rings. Former defensive back and current, athletic director Tom Holmoe has the most with four rings, including three as a player and one as a coach, all with the 49ers. From 1980-1992 the Cougars had at least one representative in the Super Bowl each year.

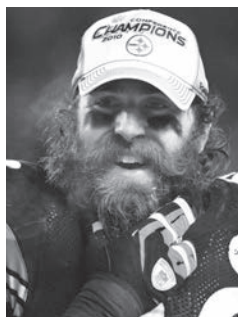

John Denney is the longest tenured active BYU player in the NFL, heading into his 12th season with the Miami Dolphins. He was a free agent signee.

Several of BYU's coaches spent time in the NFL. Ty Detmer spent 14 years in the NFL while Reno Mahe spent five seasons as a return specialist with the Philadelphia Eagles. Kalani Sitake, Mike Empey, Steve Kaufusi and Jernaro Gilford spent time with NFL teams. Ben Cahoon played 13 years in the Canadian Football League and is the all-time receptions leader and a member of the CFL Hall of Fame. His jersey will be retired by Montreal this year.

Steve Young is arguably BYU's best known NFL player, spending 15 seasons in the league, 13 with the 49ers. Young won Super Bowl XXIX 49-26 over the Chargers with a Super Bowl record six touchdown passes, winning the game's MVP award. He was also the league's MVP in 1992 and 1994. In '94, he set an NFL-record 112.8 passer rating. He was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 2005.

SUPER BOWL COUGARS

Forty different BYU players have played in the Super Bowl, including current athletic director Tom Holmoe and quarterback Steve Young who each won three rings playing for the San Francisco 49ers. Holmoe won an additional ring as a coach with 49ers after his playing career was over. Offensive lineman Bart Oates also has three Super Bowl rings, winning two with the New York Giants and one with the 49ers. He won an additional ring as a coach with 49ers after his playing career was over. Quarterback Jim McMahon led the Chicago Bears to a Super Bowl XX victory in 1986 and then won a second ring with the Green Bay Packers in 1997 at Super Bowl XXXI. Defensive linemen Brett Keisel and Chris Hoke both have a pair of rings while playing together for the Pittsburgh Steelers. The most recent former Cougar to win a Super Bowl is tight end Dennis Pitta in 2013 with the Ravens. Pitta had four catches for 26 yards including a 1-yard touchdown reception in the Super Bowl XLVII win over the 49ers.

Ezekiel "Ziggy" Ansah tied Jim McMahon as BYU's highest draft pick in history, going at No. 5 to the Detroit Lions in the 2013 NFL Draft.

BYU'S NFL DRAFT FACTS

- The Cougars have had 11 different players drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft, and one player selected in the first round of the USFL Draft (Steve Young).
- Three members of the BYU staff were drafted including Ty Detmer, Steve Kaufusi and Tevita Ofahengaue. Several others had NFL opportunities as free agents including Kalani Sitake, Reno Mahe, Jernaro Gilford and Mike Empey. Ben Cahoon was also a long-time veteran of the CFL and will have his jersey retired in Montreal this year.
- Ezekiel "Ziggy" Ansah was drafted 5th overall by the Detroit Lions in 2013 NFL Draft, tying Jim McMahon for the highest NFL Draft pick out of BYU in the regular NFL Draft. Ansah, who went on to lead all NFL rookies in sacks in 2013, is the highest defensive pick for the Cougars. The highest all-time pick is Steve Young, who was picked first overall in the special 1984 NFL Supplemental Draft of USFL and CFL players.
- In 2016, Bronson Kaufusi became the latest Cougar drafted into the NFL, getting picked in the third round with the 70th overall pick by the Baltimore Ravens.
- Dennis Pitta became the 10th BYU tight end picked in the NFL Draft and the fourth since 2001. The consensus All-American was the 16th pick in the fourth round of the 2010 draft, 114th overall by the Baltimore Ravens. Pitta was the first Cougar to be selected by the Ravens.
- Defensive line coach Steve Kaufusi was drafted in 1988 by the Philadelphia Eagles. Additionally, three BYU athletic department administrators were also selected in the NFL Draft, including Robbie Bosco (1986, Green Bay Packers), Lee Johnson (1985, Houston Oilers) and Tom Holmoe (1983, San Francisco 49ers).
- Over the past 30 professional drafts, 67 players have been drafted, including 37 offensive players, 29 defensive players and one special teams player from BYU.
- BYU's receiver Austin Collie was drafted by the Indianapolis Colts in the fourth round of the 2009 NFL Draft. A 6-foot-2, 206-pound wide receiver, Collie was the 27th pick of the fourth round and the 127th overall selection. In his rookie year, Collie was named to the All-Rookie team, catching 60 receptions for 676 yards and seven touchdowns including 6 catches for 66 yards in Super Bowl XLIV.

YEAY-BY-YEAR RESULTS

BYU has a record of 546-398-26 (.576). The Cougars have had just 14 head coaches in nearly a century of football as they enter the 91st season of play. (BYU did not play football for three years (1943-45) during World War II.) Since 1972, when LaVell Edwards took the helm of BYU football, the Cougars have had the fifth-most wins of any team in college football to date.

Linebacker Kyle Van Noy essentially took over for BYU in the 2012 Poinsettia Bowl, forcing and recovering a fumble for the go-ahead touchdown and minutes later returning an interception for his second-defensive score of the 4th quarter en route to a 23-6 victory over SDSU.

LaVell Edwards celebrates BYU's 19-15 Cotton Bowl victory over Kansas State in 1997. It has been the Cougars only New Year's Day bowl game.

In one of the greatest bowls games in NCAA history, BYU overcame a 45-25 deficit with 4:07 left in the game to win 46-45 in the 1980 Holiday Bowl over SMU, nicknamed the "Miracle Bowl." With 4:07 remaining in the game, SMU scored to go ahead, 45-25. From there the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an on-side kick, scored on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips, and blocked a punt. Finally, with three seconds left on the clock, Jim McMahon connected on a "Hail Mary" pass of 41 yards to Clay Brown, who is located somewhere at the bottom of the pile.

Quarterback Steve Young actually caught the game-winning touchdown from running back Eddie Stinnett with under one minute to play vs. Missouri to win the 1983 Holiday Bowl 21-17.

Robbie Bosco led BYU to a 24-17 over Michigan to secure BYU's 1984 National Championship in the Holiday Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY:

Competing in its first post-season bowl game ever, BYU played Western Athletic Conference host to the Oklahoma State Cowboys before a crowd of 50,878. The Cougars got off to a quick start with two field goals during the first quarter before All-WAC quarterback Gary Sheide suffered a dislocated shoulder in the last moments of the quarter. He was replaced by junior reserve Mark Giles. The Cowboys took the scoring lead during the second quarter on a touchdown run around left end, giving Oklahoma State a 7-6 halftime advantage. OSU regained possession of the ball on the Cougars' 17-yard line after intercepting Giles, but the Cowboys were unable to convert on the turnover. A field goal from 32 yards out put the Cowboys in front 10-6 at the end of the third quarter. With 1:14 remaining in the game, Oklahoma State scored another touchdown on a 40-yard halfback pass to complete the scoring. The Cougars out-gained Oklahoma State in total yardage, 301-224. Giles was 11 of 26 for 138 yards. After three losses and a tie to open the season, the Cougars reeled off seven straight victories prior to the bowl game.

OSU – Miller 6-yard run (Lisle pass from Weatherbie)
OSU – Miller 1-yard run (Daigle kick)

GAME SUMMARY:

Powerful Oklahoma State, sparked by All-American Terry Miller (173 yards rushing on 23 carries), used four pass interceptions and a fumble recovery to capture the 31st annual Tangerine Bowl contest. Defensively, the Cowboys yielded only 46 yards rushing. The Cougars, however, stayed close in the first half, which ended 28-14. Dave Lowry returned the second-half kickoff 102 yards (a Tangerine Bowl record) to move the Cougars to within seven at 28-21. From there, it was all Cowboys. BYU's Gifford Nielsen completed 23 of 34 passes for 209 yards and one touchdown, but the Cougars could only roll up 255 yards to Oklahoma State's 402. BYU entered the game with a 9-2 record, while Oklahoma State came in after tying for the Big 8 title. The Cowboys missed out on the Orange Bowl because of the conference tie-breaking formula. Later, the stadium was expanded and the name changed to the Florida Citrus Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY:

The inaugural Holiday Bowl pitted two teams with local drawing power, the Naval Academy and Brigham Young University. Despite chilly temperatures, the two teams engaged in a hard-hitting battle. Defense dominated the first two quarters. Brent Johnson put the Cougars on the scoreboard first with a 33-yard field goal with 8:26 left in the first quarter. But Navy's Bob Tata boomed a 40-yard field goal to tie the score at 3-3. Jim McMahon sent the Cougars ahead with a 10-yard pass to Mike Chronister, but Johnson missed the PAT. McMahon ran another in from two yards out in the third period for a 16-3 BYU lead. Navy cut the lead to 16-10 after three quarters and then tied the game on two field goals in the fourth quarter, but it was a 65-yard pass to Phil McConkey that did the Cougars in. Some 52,500 witnessed the game in person. McConkey was named Best Offensive Player and BYU's Tom Enlow won Best Defensive Player honors. Navy finished the year at 9-3, BYU at 9-4.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 1979 season ended with BYU leading the nation in scoring, passing and total offense. At 11-0, the Cougars were one of the few undefeated, untied teams in the nation. Those kinds of credentials, along with its No. 9 national ranking in the UPI and AP polls made BYU the favorite over the at-large entry, Indiana. The opportunistic Hoosiers played the Cougars tough, holding a 21-17 lead at the half. BYU jumped ahead in the third quarter, 24-21, on a 13-yard pass from All-American Marc Wilson to Homer Jones. The Cougars fell behind, 31-24, but regained the lead at 34-31 on a 15-yard pass to Eric Lane. With 12:14 left to play, BYU padded the lead on the third field goal of the game by Brent Johnson. But midway through the fourth quarter, Indiana's Tim Wilbur returned a punt 62 yards to push the Hoosiers ahead 38-37. With 2:06 remaining, the Cougars moved the ball 69 yards to the Indiana 10. Then, with 11 seconds left, Johnson missed a 27-yard field goal that would have won the game. Wilson was voted the MVP on offense (28 of 43 for 380 yards) and Indiana's Wilbur won the honor for defense. Clay Brown caught nine passes for 142 yards. Lane grabbed nine passes for 79 yards and also scored a rushing touchdown. Jones scored a touchdown and had 126 yards on seven kickoff returns.

GAME SUMMARY:

One observer said the 1980 Holiday Bowl was actually two ball games--a contest which lasted most of four quarters and another of four minutes duration. SMU controlled the "first game," leaving the Cougars behind 20 points with only minutes remaining. Unfortunately, many fans either turned off their TV sets or left the stadium in San Diego before the "second game" began. In the final four minutes, BYU surged to a stunning 46-45 win. For 56 minutes the Mustangs taught the Cougars a lesson in running the football. The Mustangs' two great running backs, Craig James and Eric Dickerson, rushed for a combined total of 335 yards. With 4:07 remaining in the game, SMU scored to go ahead, 45-25. From there the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an on-side kick, scored on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips, and blocked a punt. Finally, with three seconds left on the clock, Jim McMahon connected on a "Hail Mary" pass of 41 yards to Clay Brown. With the score tied, Kurt Gunther kicked the extra point to send BYU fans streaming onto the field. McMahon was 32 of 49 passes for 446 yards. It may have been the most exciting bowl game ever, with the Cougars getting 21 points in the final 2:33. Ironically, four passes on conversion attempts had failed before McMahon hit Phillips after the next-to-last touchdown to cut a 45-31 deficit to 45-39 and put the Cougars in a position to win the game with one more score. The 50-yard drive was set up when Todd Shell recovered a Brent Johnson on-side-kick at midfield. SMU got the ball back with 1:57 but had to punt. The kick was blocked by defensive back Bill Schoepflin and recovered by the SMU punter, Eric Kaifes, with 13 seconds left. McMahon threw one incomplete pass intended for Brown and another for Lloyd Jones before unleashing the famous pass to Brown in the end zone with no time left on the clock.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 1981 edition of the Holiday Bowl fit the mold of its predecessors. This time it was the Cougars of BYU versus the Cougars of Washington State, playing before a crowd of 52,419. BYU held a 24-7 lead at halftime, then pushed the score to 31-7 as Tom Holmoe intercepted a pass and returned it 35 yards to give the WAC champions a comfortable edge. As the second half progressed, it appeared BYU would be the come-from-behind victim in this one. With only 59 seconds left in the third quarter, Washington State scored to make it 31-28. But Jim McMahon took over moving BYU 82 yards for a score to stretch the lead to 38-28. Statistically, it was a typical McMahon game, 27 of 43 with no interceptions and three touchdowns. Tight end Gordon Hudson had an excellent game, collecting seven catches for 126 yards and a touchdown. Dan Plater also caught a touchdown pass and Waymon Hamilton scored on the ground. Washington State quarterbacks Clete Casper and Ricky Turner completed only eight passes for 106 yards but Turner had 82 yards rushing while Don LaBomme had 79. Each team scored five touchdowns, so the difference actually came midway through the second quarter when Kurt Gunther connected on a 20-yard field goal after a BYU drive stalled on the Washington State three.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars had their two-game Holiday Bowl win streak snapped by Ohio State, 47-17. BYU's bubble burst at the outset of the third quarter, when the Buckeyes reeled off 17 unanswered points. Tim Spencer blew through the Cougar defense for 167 yards, including a record-setting 61-yard touchdown run in the second quarter that put Ohio State up, 10-7. Steve Young completed 27 of 45 passes for 341 yards, but BYU had a tough time getting into the end zone. The Cougars turned the ball over to Ohio State three times inside the 30 and saw the Buckeyes convert each turnover into a score. The Cougars took the lead early in the second quarter with a seven-yard strike to Neil Balholm. But Spencer's long gallop and a blocked punt put the Buckeyes up, 17-10, at halftime. Big fullback Vaughn Broadnax scored on the opening drive of the second half, and on the next play, Young was intercepted and Spencer ran 18 yards to put Ohio State in control for good. BYU's only other score came midway through the fourth quarter when Gordon Hudson caught a 13-yard pass. Ohio State quarterback Mike Tomzak had only 132 yards passing and no touchdowns, but his fleet of running backs scored six times on the ground. Ten different BYU players caught passes, led by Hudson with seven receptions for 81 yards and Balholm with 58 yards receiving.

GAME SUMMARY:

Yet another chapter was added to the saga of impossible, thrilling Holiday Bowl finishes when BYU defeated Missouri, 21-17. The game was billed as a classic matchup between Missouri's stubborn defense and BYU's explosive offense, led by quarterback Steve Young. Missouri held BYU to just 167 yards and seven points in the first half, while BYU's defense allowed the Tigers only 157 yards and 10 points. Missouri got its first-half points on a two-yard run by Eric Drain and a 37-yard field goal by Brad Burditt. BYU's touchdown came on a 10-yard quarterback draw by Young. In the second half, Young hit Eddie Stinnett with a 33-yard touchdown pass. Missouri came right back with another two-yard plunge by Drain. A valiant goal-line stand by BYU gave the Cougars the ball on the six-yard-line with 3:57 left in the game. Led by Young, the Cougars moved down the field to the Missouri 15 with under a minute to play. On first-and-10 at the Tigers' 15, Young handed to Stinnett, who faked a sweep right and threw back across the field to Young. The Stinnett pass barely cleared the outstretched hands of Missouri's Bobby Bell allowing Young to gather it in and scramble 15 yards to the end zone. The PAT gave BYU a 21-17 lead with 23 seconds left. Kyle Morrell intercepted a Missouri desperation pass at the BYU two-yard line and returned it to the 17 to seal the win.

GAME SUMMARY:

Holiday Bowl VII lived up to all the glamour and excitement of the previous six bowls, plus it had a new dimension--national championship luster--thanks to BYU's undefeated, untied season and No. 1 ranking. The 24-17 Cougar victory marked the first time in years that a non-New Year's Day bowl game determined the national championship. The contest was played in typical Holiday Bowl fashion. After a scoreless first quarter in which Cougar quarterback Robbie Bosco was forced to the sideline with an injured knee and ankle, the game began to develop drama. BYU scored first with 8:37 left in the first half on a five-yard run by Kelly Smith. The touchdown was set up when a limping Bosco returned to the lineup and engineered an 80-yard drive. The Wolverines responded by putting together an 80-yard scoring drive of their own, culminating on Rick Rogers' five-yard touchdown run up the middle. The PAT tied the score at seven. The tie was short-lived however, as a 31-yard field goal by Lee Johnson with time running out in the first half gave BYU a 10-7 lead at the break. Midway through the third period, Michigan went on top for the first time at 14-10 on a 10-yard scoring strike from Bob Zurbrugg to Bob Perryman. The Wolverines added to their lead when Bob Bergeron nailed a 32-yard field goal to make the Michigan lead 17-10 with 14:14 to play. The Cougar offense then produced an 80-yard drive that culminated with a seven-yard Bosco-to-Glen Kozlowski touchdown pass to tie the game at 17 with 10:51 to go. Bosco's 13-yard scoring toss to Smith with 1:23 remaining made it 24-17. Two plays later Mary Allen intercepted a pass to clinch a 13-0 season and the Cougars' first-ever national championship. David Mills finished with 11 catches for 103 yards receiving and Smith had 10 for 88. Lakei Heimuli led BYU with 82 yards rushing while Bob Perryman had 110 for Michigan.

BYU – Miles 38 yard pass from Bosco (Webster kick)
OSU – Kolic 14 pass interception (Spangler kick)

GAME SUMMARY:

In what promised to be an offensive showdown between pass-happy BYU (11-2) and rough and tumble Ohio State (8-3), two of the nation's top defenses took center stage. In fact, the game's only touchdowns were produced by a noseguard on an interception and a reserve wide receiver on a broken play. Buckeye kicker Rich Spangler tallied the first points of the game with a 47-yard field goal early in the second quarter to give Ohio State a 3-0 lead. BYU attempted to answer with a long drive of its own, only to come away empty after Vai Sikahema fumbled on an apparent touchdown plunge. Before the first half ended, quarterback Robbie Bosco rolled left, whirled right and found wide receiver David Miles on a 38-yard strike to give the Cougars a 7-3 halftime lead. In the second half, Ohio State noseguard Larry Kolic intercepted Bosco and took it in for a touchdown to give the Buckeyes a 10-7 lead. Leon White and Kyle Whittingham recovered fumbles but Kolic got another interception and Terry White intercepted two in the end zone to stop BYU threats—one with 3:38 to play and again with three seconds left. Ohio State was the benefactor of six Cougar turnovers, and the Buckeyes went home the victor. Mark Bellini had 89 yards receiving while Lakei Heimuli added 10 receptions for 77 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

Although BYU failed to win the WAC title, the Cougars kept alive an impressive streak of nine bowl appearances in a row by being invited to the third annual Freedom Bowl. There they met familiar foe UCLA. The two teams had met in 1985 when the Bruins came from behind to win a tough game in Provo, 27-24. The Freedom Bowl, however, proved different as UCLA outstanding running back Gaston Green broke open a close game in the third quarter and the Bruins went on to win 31-10. Green finished with 266 yards on 33 carries. The first half was all defense as the two teams punted nine times in the first 30 minutes. BYU struck first when linebacker Andy Katoa recovered a UCLA fumble at the Bruin 47 and Leonard Chitty put the Cougars ahead 3-0 with a 32-yard field goal. UCLA stormed ahead to stay with a 71-yard touchdown drive highlighted by a 49-yard run on a reverse by Bruin receiver Karl Dorrell. From then on, it was UCLA most of the way. Cougar quarterbacks Bob Jensen and Mike Young managed to pass for over 200 yards, but UCLA and Green did most of the damage. Costly injuries to standouts Mark Bellini and Katoa hindered the Cougar effort, but Outland Trophy winner Jason Buck turned in another strong effort.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 11th annual All-American Bowl began with temperatures in the 40s and BYU never warmed up. The Cougars' 10th consecutive bowl appearance included several records, but BYU lost 22-16 in its first-ever meeting with Virginia. Sean Covey attempted 61 passes, David Miles had 188 yards in receptions and Pat Thompson only punted once, but BYU fell short several times. Darren Handley, BYU's leading receiver, dropped a touchdown pass in the first quarter before BYU settled for a 20-yard field goal by Leonard Chitty. However, Chitty, who set a season best for field goals (18) and consecutive PATs (29), missed from 51 and 47 yards as Virginia took a 14-3 lead into the intermission. BYU got to the Virginia two-yard-line midway through the third quarter only to have a fourth-down pass tipped away. Later, Freddie Whittingham scampered eight yards to cut the lead to 14-9 at the end of the third quarter. Virginia, led by quarterback Scott Secules, the game's MVP, made a crucial 76-yard drive to go ahead 22-9 with 11 minutes left. Then, BYU went the same distance to score on a one-yard pass to Whittingham with seven minutes remaining. But that was as close as the Cougars would get. Ironically, nine years earlier on the same date Virginia coach George Welsh was head coach of Navy, which beat BYU 23-16 in the inaugural Holiday Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY:

A star was born in the fifth annual Freedom Bowl when Ty Detmer came off the bench to earn MVP honors while leading the Cougars to an upset victory over Colorado. Cool weather didn't hamper diminutive Eric Bieniemy, who rushed 33 times for 144 yards and two touchdowns. But his heroics couldn't offset Detmer's 11 for 17 and 129 yards in the second half. Scott Peterson made an interception to set up the game-winning field goal. It was an exciting contest for the 35,941 fans (49,694 tickets were sold) in attendance. A fumble at midfield led to the Buffaloes' first score, before Sean Covey found Mike Salido to tie the score. An interception in the end zone stopped a BYU drive early in the second quarter as the Cougars trailed at the half, 14-7. A Detmer to Chuck Cutler pass tied the game in the third quarter but Colorado took a 17-14 lead early in the final quarter. BYU then moved from its own four to the Buffalo 14 and tied the game with 4:11 left on a 31-yarder by Chaffetz. Three plays later, Peterson's interception and a 15-yard penalty put the ball at the Colorado 32. With 2:33 left, Chaffetz booted a 35-yarder for the victory. Halfback Matt Bellini carried eight times for 78 yards and caught four passes for 41 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

Two unusual plays late in the game kept BYU from downing Penn State and offset 576 yards passing by Ty Detmer—the highest total ever in a bowl game. For his effort, and thanks to blocking from Outland Trophy winner Mohammed Elewonibi, Detmer had the rare privilege of sharing MVP honors despite playing on the losing team. BYU trailed 41-26 with nine and a half minutes remaining and scored twice to cut the lead to 41-39 with 2:30 to play. The Cougars went for a two-point conversion to tie the game, but Detmer's pass was intercepted in the end zone by Penn State linebacker Andre Collins and returned 102 yards for two points. Down 43-39, the Cougars, led by Bob Davis, forced the Lions to punt, giving BYU the ball on its own 12 with two minutes left. Passes to Brent Nyberg, Matt Bellini, Chris Smith and Andy Boyce moved the ball to the Penn State 38 with a minute left to play. Then, what appeared to be a sack by Penn State safety Gary Brown turned into a score for the Nittany Lions. Brown stripped the ball from Detmer at the Penn State 47 and raced 53 yards for the score. Penn State finished the season ranked 14th by UPI and 15th by AP and CNN/USA Today. BYU was 18th in the UPI poll and 22nd in the others.

GAME SUMMARY:

Led by quarterback Bucky Richardson and All-America running back Darren Lewis, underdog Texas A&M was out to show it belonged among the nation's elite. The Cougars entered the game beat up. Defensive backs Tony Crutchfield and Norm Dixon weren't able to suit up and Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer was playing with a slight separation in his non-throwing shoulder. The second-largest Holiday Bowl crowd ever (61,441) watched the Aggies march 80 yards in 13 plays to take a 7-0 lead. The Cougars tied the score on an eight-yard Detmer-to-Chris Smith touchdown pass, but after that, the game was all Texas A&M. The Aggies went on to score 23 points in the second quarter en route to a 37-7 halftime lead. With the game out of hand, the big story was William Thomas' crunching sack that separated Detmer's throwing shoulder and put him out of the game early in the third quarter. The Aggies continued to dominate by racking up nearly 200 yards rushing in the second half. Texas A&M's Richardson would go on to be named Offensive Player of the Game by piling up 344 yards in total offense. Thomas was named the top defensive player. BYU finished the season ranked 17th by UPI, 20th by CNN/USA Today and 22nd by AP. BYU had been as high as fourth prior to its first loss.

GAME SUMMARY:

A tipped pass that was picked off in the end zone with less than 30 seconds remaining stifled BYU's hopes of knocking off seventh-ranked Iowa in the 14th annual Holiday Bowl. Ty Detmer turned in another great performance in his last appearance as a Cougar, passing for 350 yards and two touchdowns against a team that led the Big 10 in defense and sacks. Quarterback Matt Rodgers led Iowa on a 74-yard scoring march on the game's opening drive. The Hawkeyes also scored on another long drive in the second quarter. Down 13-0, BYU finally got things rolling. Starting on the BYU 22, Detmer connected on five of six passes to move the Cougars to the Iowa nine. From there, he found fullback Peter Tuipulotu for the touchdown. The PAT failed and the halftime score was 13-6. BYU opened the fourth with an 87-yard drive that culminated with a Detmer-to-Tyler Anderson touchdown from 29 yards out. Earl Kauffman connected on the PAT to tie the score at 13. Each team threatened to score late in the fourth quarter. Iowa missed a 40-yard field goal with 4:19 left. On the game's final drive the Cougars moved inside the Iowa 20 with 33 seconds left to play, but Detmer's pass to tight end Byron Rex was tipped and picked off by Hawkeye safety Carlos James in the end zone to preserve the tie. Josh Arnold of BYU earned defensive MVP honors as BYU finished the season ranked 23rd in the AP and CNN/USA Today polls. Iowa was 10th in both polls.

GAME SUMMARY:

Kansas kicker Dan Eichloff booted a 48-yard field goal with 2:57 left to play, giving the Jayhawks a victory over BYU, the WAC tri-champion. Tom Young, who completed 15 of 31 passes for 262 yards in his first varsity start, was named Most Valuable Player for BYU. Tackle Dana Stubblefield, who had three of the six sacks on Young, won the honor for Kansas. Young had been pressed into action when Ryan Hancock suffered knee ligament damage against Utah in the final regular-season game. The Cougars took an early lead when Hema Heimuli scrambled 94 yards on the opening kickoff for a score. Kansas tied the game two plays later when wide receiver Matt Gay threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to tight end Rodney Harris. BYU took a 14-9 lead in the second quarter when Jamal Willis ran 29 yards for a score. Eichloff then cut the halftime score to 14-12 with a 42-yard field goal. But the kicking game would prove the downfall as the Cougars missed a 36-yard field goal in the first quarter as well as a 31-yarder and misplayed an extra point attempt in the third quarter. Young threw 10 yards to Otis Sterling for the only score of the third quarter. Kansas quarterback Chip Hilleary then tied the game by directing a 75-yard drive in a minute and a half, scoring the touchdown and then running for a two-point conversion.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars took Big 10 Co-Champion Ohio State to the wire at the 16th annual Holiday Bowl and came up just short. BYU had four downs and 32 seconds to tie or win the game from the OSU six-yard line, but four straight John Walsh passes into the end zone fell to the ground and OSU slipped away with the win. BYU got to the Ohio State six, 14, 22-yard lines in the second half without scoring. Meanwhile, Raymont Harris, OSU's senior halfback, battered the BYU defense all night long, scoring three touchdowns on his way to a record 235 yards rushing. Despite Harris' rushing, the Cougars managed to go into the halftime break tied at 21. Chad Lewis made a spectacular one-handed touchdown grab in the corner of the end zone to bail the Cougars out of a fourth-and-eight situation. After Harris' short touchdown run late in the third, BYU and OSU traded possessions until late into the fourth quarter. After forcing a rare Buckeye punt, BYU got the ball back on its own 42 with 43 seconds left. On first down, Walsh hooked up with senior co-captain Eric Drage who ran away from Buckeye defenders and advanced the ball 52 yards to the OSU six-yard line. Walsh had 389 yards and fullback Kalin Hall rushed for 42 yards on 11 carries. Tyler Anderson returned five kicks for 145 yards, including an exciting 45-yarder. Harris and Walsh shared MVP honors.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU fans celebrated the New Year early as the Cougars dominated Oklahoma and ended its five-year winning drought in bowl games. Quarterback John Walsh and the offense clicked on all cylinders and the Cougars' defense was dominating throughout the ESPN telecast. Walsh threw a seven-yard TD pass to Bryce Doman in the first quarter and had a 25-yard pass to Mike Johnston in the second quarter. A four-yard scoring pass to Johnston in the third quarter and a 28-yard touchdown pass to Doman in the fourth quarter vaulted Walsh's stats to 454 yards and four touchdowns on 31 of 45 passes with no interceptions against the Sooner defense which had held national champion Nebraska to 13 points. BYU's defense was dominating as it held Oklahoma to just 72 yards rushing and 163 yards passing—most of those in the last quarter. The Sooners did not cross midfield until their ninth possession on the second-to-last play of the third quarter. Jamal Willis caught seven passes for 103 yards and was chosen Offensive Player of the Game. Walsh was named MVP in what would be his final game at BYU. BYU finished 10th in the CNIV/USA Today poll and 18th in the Associated Press poll.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU assumed the nation's longest winning streak with a come-from-behind 19-15 victory in the 61st annual Cotton Bowl. It was the first New Year's Day appearance for both 14th-ranked Kansas State and fifth-ranked BYU. More than 40,000-purple clad Kansas State supporters out-numbered the 15,000 Cougar patrons as 71,928 fans filled the Cotton Bowl. BYU got on the board first with a safety, then turned the ensuing punt into a field goal to lead 5-0 in the first quarter. The safety came when linebacker Shay Muirbrook, the game's defensive MVP, collected one of his six sacks. Kansas State took a half-time lead with a 41-yard "Hail Mary" pass and a successful two-point conversion with no time left on the clock. The Wildcats increased the lead to 15-5 in the third quarter when offensive co-MVP Kevin Lockett caught a 72-yard TD. Fueled by consecutive controversial interference no-calls, quarterback Steve Sarkisian engineered two fourth-quarter drives capped by touchdown passes of 32-yards to James Dye and 28-yards to K.O. Kealaluhi. Sarkisian, an offensive co-MVP, completed 21 passes to tie a Cotton Bowl record held by Roger Staubach of Navy. KSU drove the length of the field before Cougar cornerback Omar Morgan juggled an interception from a Wildcat slant pattern at the 12 yard line to secure the game.

GAME SUMMARY:

In BYU's first ever appearance at the Liberty Bowl, the Cougars ran into tenth-ranked Tulane that entered the New Year's Eve game with a perfect season record. The Cougars struck first on an 11-yard pass from Kevin Feterik to receiver Ben Horton. Tulane would score 20 unanswered points in the first half. With just 41 seconds remaining in the half, BYU looked to put an end to the Green Wave momentum, but came up short as Feterik was sacked by Phil Henderson for a 10-yard loss to end the half. Things didn't get much better for the Cougars in the second half, as Tulane scored its third touchdown of the game on the opening drive of the half. On its next possession, the Green Wave would strike again on a 13-yard pass from King to Jamaican Dartez to give Tulane a 34-6 lead with just over seven minutes remaining in the third quarter. On its first drive of the final period, BYU scored for the first time since the 8:49 mark in the first half on an Aaron Cupp three-yard run. Trailing by 28 midway through the fourth quarter, BYU finally crossed the Tulane 20-yard line for the first time since the first half and went on to score 14 unanswered points before time expired.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU squared off against Marshall in the first meeting between the two schools at the Cougars' first-ever appearance in the third annual Motor City Bowl. The Cougars scored first on a field goal by Owen Pochman with 1:58 remaining in the first quarter. That score was set up by a pair of 20-plus yard receptions by Donny Atuaia and Jonathan Pittman. In the second quarter, Marshall drove the ball down to the BYU five-yard line, but failed to convert as a 22-yard field goal attempt by Billy Malashevich missed wide to the right. On the Herd's next possession, Chad Pennington put Marshall on the board with a 30-yard touchdown pass to Doug Chapman. On BYU's ensuing drive, Feterik connected with Margin Hooks for a 67-yard pass play that took the Cougars all the way to the nine-yard line. However, the Cougars couldn't capitalize inside the red zone and Feterik suffered a collarbone injury off a blind-side corner blitz. Pochman, who had connected on 18 of 25 attempts in the regular season, missed wide left on his field goal attempt. Feterik attempted to play in the second half, but left the game midway in the third quarter when freshman Bret Engemann took the QB controls. Just before the end of the third quarter, Marshall struck a big play when Chapman rushed 87 yards for a touchdown. To cap off his MVP performance, Chapman scored Marshall's final touchdown. The Cougars missed a final chance to score when Brian Gray had a clear path to the end zone, but dropped a sure interception.

GAME SUMMARY:

The champions of the MWC faced Louisville, the champions of Conference USA. The Cardinals, led by quarterback Dave Ragone, took an early lead, scoring on a one-yard dive by Henry Miller that was set up by Zek Parker's 70-yard return on the opening kickoff. Midway through the second quarter the Cougar offense came alive, driving to the Louisville 10-yard line. Quarterback Brandon Doman dropped back and rolled right as if to pass, then turned to his left and threw the ball to Dustin Rykert on a tackle-eligible play. All 6-foot-7, 305 pounds of offensive tackle outran the Cardinal defense to the corner and rumbled 10 yards to the end zone to tie the game 7-7. Louisville just managed to take a 14-7 lead into the break, scoring with only 14 seconds left. Louisville contained the Cougar attack for the remainder of the game while reaching the end zone two more times. Although Louisville went on to win 28-10, BYU's defense played one of its best games of the season, holding the Cardinals' high-powered offense to 228 yards passing and only 58 yards rushing.

GAME SUMMARY:

Trailing 35-14 in the fourth quarter, BYU stormed back with two touchdowns and had the ball with 2:20 remaining, but John Beck was intercepted after he was hit when releasing the ball, ending the Cougars' comeback hopes. Beck had a record-setting performance, completing 35-of-53 attempts for 352 yards and three touchdowns. The 35 completions, 53 attempts and 352 yards were all Las Vegas Bowl records. Nathan Meikle caught a game-high 12 passes for 95 yards while Jonny Harline had seven receptions for 73 yards and one score and Todd Watkins added five catches for 95 yards and a touchdown. BYU fell behind 7-0 in the first quarter but scored early in the second when Beck found Curtis Brown for a 19-yard touchdown pass. California scored again but Fahu Tahi scored on a three-yard run to tie the game at 14 with 38 seconds left in the second quarter. The Golden Bears struck again before the half, going 58 yards in 27 seconds to take a 21-14 lead into the locker room. In the fourth, Beck engineered a 74-yard drive that ended with Harline scoring and then a 96-yard drive that ended with Watkins catching a nine-yard touchdown pass from Beck. California's ensuing drive ended with a missed field goal and the Cougars had a chance to tie but the drive ended on Beck's interception.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 2006 BYU championship run ended with a Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl championship as the Cougars (11-2) dominated Oregon (7-6), 38-8, to finish the season with a 10-game winning streak in front of a Sam Boyd Stadium record crowd of 44,615. The Mountain West Conference champion BYU team set a school record for margin of victory in a bowl game, beating the Ducks by 30 points. Previously, the largest margin of victory for a BYU team in a bowl game was a 25-point defeat of Oklahoma in the 1994 Copper Bowl. BYU dominated all facets of the game, out-gaining Oregon 548 total yards to 260 total yards. BYU passed for 375 compared to Oregon's 166 and rushed for 173 compared to the Ducks 94. BYU seniors John Beck, Jonny Harline and Curtis Brown finished their careers in style. Beck completed 28-of-46 passes for 375 yards and two touchdowns. Harline, who was named Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl MVP, caught nine passes for a career-best--and Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl record--181 yards and a touchdown. Brown had 17 carries for 120 yards and two touchdowns and also caught seven passes for 55 yards. Brown also became the first BYU runner to rush for over 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons. Beck and Brown became the first quarterback/running back combo to pass for 3,000 yards and rush for 1,000 in the same season twice.

GAME SUMMARY:

No. 17 BYU (11-2) won its second consecutive Las Vegas Bowl, 17-16, against UCLA (6-7) in dramatic fashion -- by blocking the Bruins' potential game-winning field goal attempt as time expired. With only three ticks on the clock, true freshman Eathyn Manumaleuna extended his right hand at the right time to block UCLA's potential game-winning, 28-yard field goal as time expired to create what will be known as one of the most memorable bowl finishes in BYU football history. The victory also avenged an early-season loss to the Bruins -- one of only two losses the Cougars suffered during the season. The Cougars, who finished the 2007 season on a 10-game winning streak, were led by sophomores Max Hall and Austin Collie. Hall threw 21-35 for 231 yards and two touchdowns. Sophomore receiver Austin Collie was named the 2007 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl Most Valuable Player after racking up a game-high 107 yards on six receptions. Collie's 14-yard touchdown reception from Max Hall with 10:32 left in the second quarter gave the Cougars a 10-3 advantage. He was also credited with a game-high 195 all-purpose yards, including three kick returns for a total of 88 yards. The win marked the first time BYU had won back-to-back bowl games since the 1994 Copper Bowl and the 1996 Cotton Bowl. The win over UCLA extended the Cougars' win streak to 10 straight games, which marked the nation's longest active winning streak.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU totaled 444 yards of total offense compared to Arizona's 416, but the No. 16 Cougars fell short of their third-straight bowl victory, falling 31-21 to the Arizona Wildcats in the 2008 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl at Sam Boyd Stadium on Dec. 20. Trailing late in the game, BYU put pressure on Arizona with a comeback attempt when the Cougars followed a touchdown with a successful on-side kick. Wide receiver O'Neill Chambers recovered the ball for BYU, but the ensuing field-goal attempt hit the upright and left the Wildcats with a two-possession lead, enough to hold on for the win. Austin Collie continued to set BYU records in career receptions (215) and single-season receptions (106). The All-American receiver also tied an NCAA single-season record held with Texas Tech's Michael Crabtree with his 11th consecutive 100-yard receiving game. BYU quarterback Max Hall completed 30-of-46 passes for 328 yards and one touchdown pass. The Cougars finished the year 10-3 while the Wildcats improved to 8-5. BYU was one of only seven programs in the nation to win 10 or more games each year from 2006-2008. The Cougars last accomplished the feat from 1983-85.

GAME SUMMARY:

The No. 14 BYU Cougars defeated the Pac-10 second-place Beavers 44-20 at the MAACO Bowl Las Vegas. It was the first-ever Las Vegas Bowl matchup pitting two top-20 teams. BYU's senior class anchored the win as quarterback Max Hall earned MVP honors throwing for 192 yards and three touchdowns. Manase Tonga contributed two touchdowns, while senior tight ends Andrew George and Dennis Pitta led all receivers with 46 and 45 yards, respectively. Defensively, senior linebacker Matt Bauman recovered a key fumble, returning it 34 yards for a touchdown. The score marked the first fumble recovery for a touchdown in BYU bowl history. Fellow team captain Scott Johnson intercepted an Oregon State pass in the fourth quarter and returned it 56 yards to set up BYU's final touchdown of the game. BYU and Oregon State met for the first time in a bowl game and for the first contest since BYU head coach Bronco Mendenhall played for the Beavers in 1986. Wind gusts of 55 mph created some havoc for the passing and kicking games. BYU punter Riley Stephenson kicked a 60-yard low liner with the wind that was the longest kick of his career and tied a BYU bowl record.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU opened the bowl season with its fourth bowl victory in the last five years with a 52-24 triumph over UTEP in the New Mexico Bowl. The Cougars had a record-setting day to finish the season with a 7-6 record and wins in five of their last six games. Offensive MVP Jake Heaps went 25-of-34 for 264 yards and four touchdown passes, passing Ty Detmer's freshman record for most touchdown passes. Heaps also set the BYU bowl record for best completion percentage (.735) in a bowl game. Safety Andrew Rich was awarded the game's Defensive MVP in his final game as a Cougar, finishing with four solo tackles, two interceptions, one tackle-for-loss, one sack and a pass breakup. BYU played well from the start, scoring on its first five possessions to take a 31-3 lead and set a new first-half New Mexico Bowl scoring record. Cody Hoffman set career highs across the board with eight receptions for 137 yards and three touchdowns, tying a BYU bowl game record for most TD receptions in a game. Mitch Payne passed Owen Pochman as the Cougars' all-time scoring leader with 334 points.

With no timeouts left and 11 seconds remaining in the game, Riley Nelson faked spiking the ball to stop the clock and instead threw to an open Cody Hoffman for the game-winning touchdown to give BYU a 24-21 win over Tulsa in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl. BYU faced a 4th-and-9 from the Tulsa 47-yard line with the clock ticking down near three minutes remaining in the game and Nelson scrambled 14 yards to convert the first down and eventually set up the winning score. BYU locked up its fifth 10-win season in the last six years and third bowl victory in a row, a program record. Hoffman, named the Armed Forces Bowl Most Outstanding Player for the Cougars finished with eight catches for 122 yards and a bowl-record three touchdowns. BYU's defense was stout, surrendering just 272 total yards and only 37 yards on the ground to a Golden Hurricane team that came into the game averaging over 200 rushing yards per game. Kyle Van Noy made play after play on defense with 10 tackles to lead the Cougars, including five tackles for loss, two sacks, one forces fumble and one quarterback hurry. Special teams also played a huge role in the game. Punter Riley Stephenson had eight punts for 335 yards, including seven inside the 20-yard line and two punts over 50 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

Linebacker Kyle Van Noy scored two touchdowns on defense in the fourth quarter, one with the team trailing 6-3 and led the BYU football team to a 23-6 win over San Diego State in the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl Thursday night at Qualcomm Stadium. The win extended the Cougars' bowl win streak to four to build on their current school record. BYU (8-5) forced four turnovers in the fourth quarter and outscored San Diego State (9-4) 20-0 to overcome a 6-3 deficit. After the Aztecs intercepted James Lark on 3rd and goal, the No. 3 total defense turned the tables on the next play and ignited BYU as Van Noy sacked San Diego State's Adam Dingwell to cause a fumble, falling on it for the first touchdown of the game to put the Cougars on top 10-6 with 12:32 remaining in the fourth quarter. The Van Noy show continued with a pick-six to finalize the score, 23-6, late in the fourth quarter. Van Noy was named the defensive MVP after finishing the night with two touchdowns, a forced fumble and fumble recovery, one interception, a blocked punt, 3.5 tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks and eight total tackles. Senior Brandon Ogletree led the Cougars in tackles with 10 and added two tackles for loss. All-American Riley Stephenson helped flip the field for BYU with four punts inside the 5-yard line. Junior wide receiver Cody Hoffman grabbed 10 passes for 114 yards to earn offensive MVP.

GAME SUMMARY:

Taysom Hill finished the game throwing for 293 yards and rushing for 133 yards. Cody Hoffman had 12 catches for 167 yards for his 18th 100-yard receiving game in his career to break the record held by Austin Collie. He also broke the BYU record for career all-purpose yards, ending his career with 5,015 and passing Curtis Brown. Washington got inside the BYU 20-yard line on two of its first three drives of the game, but the Cougar defense held the Huskies to just one touchdown on their opening possession. BYU drove the ball 88 yards to tie the game at 7-7 on a one-yard run by Hill. The Cougars grabbed the momentum on a fake punt by Daniel Sorensen, and Hill completed his next four passes to move the offense down the field. Washington returned the following kickoff back for a touchdown to take back the lead at 14-7. Two field goals by Justin Sorensen brought the score within one at 14-13. Sorensen's first field goal was from 45 yards, which is a season long. A long kickoff return by the Huskies set up Washington's second rushing touchdown of the game to take a 21-13 lead with just over two and a half minutes left in the first half. Justin Sorensen nailed his third field goal of the game as time expired in the first half to close the gap at 21-16 going into the locker room but went scoreless in the second half.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU rallied from down 10 in the fourth quarter to take a late lead but a last-minute touchdown from Memphis forced overtime. Each team tacked on three in the first overtime but after giving up a Tiger touchdown, the Cougars were intercepted in the end zone to end the game in a 55-48 loss. Christian Stewart went 23 of 48 for 348 yards and three touchdowns to go along with three interceptions. Stewart spread the ball around, completing passes to 10 different receivers. Mitch Mathews led all pass catchers with nine receptions for 82 yards and a touchdown. Mitchell Juergens caught four balls for 87 yards and a score. Jordan Leslie only caught one pass in his last game as a Cougar, but it went for 23 yards and a touchdown. BYU totaled 425 yards, compared to 480 for Memphis. The Tigers outgained the Cougars on the ground 174-77 and also dominated the time of possession 46:32-28:28. After losing the overtime coin toss, BYU kicker Trevor Samson drilled a career-long 45-yard field goal to put BYU up 48-45. Memphis bested the Cougars' kick with a 55-yard kick from Jake Elliott to send it to double overtime. Memphis opened up the second overtime with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Roderick Proctor, and DeShaughn Terry picked off Stewart at the goal line to end the game.

GAME SUMMARY:

After surrendering five turnovers on its first five possessions, BYU found itself in a 35-0 hole after the first 10 minutes of the game. The Cougars would not fold in the game, however. BYU rallied for a touchdown on its last possession of the first half to trail 35-7. Out of the break, the Cougars strung together three more touchdowns and held the Utes (10-3) scoreless to make it 35-28 with 3:23 remaining in the game. Utah converted two first downs on its final drive to get into the victory formation and prevent the Cougars from having another chance. After a forgettable first quarter, BYU dominated the statistics, outgaining Utah 386 to 197 in total yards and 315 to 71 in the throwing game. The Cougars averaged 4.8 yards per play to Utah's 3.0, but 35 points off five turnovers was too much to overcome. Despite throwing three interceptions and fumbling in the first quarter, true freshman Tanner Mangum stayed composed to finish the game 25 of 56 for 315 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed for a 4-yard touchdown. He finished his true freshman season with 3,377 passing yards and 23 touchdowns. Devon Blackmon caught three passes for 97 yards while Nick Kurtz and Remington Peck each caught a touchdown pass. Francis Bernard added one rushing touchdown as part of his seven carries for 58 yards. He added a pair of receptions. Defensively, Bronson Kaufusi led BYU in tackles in his final game of a Cougar with nine and had three tackles for loss. Laulie posted a pair of sacks while Micah Hannemann had one of his own. Trying to escape pressure, Mangum fumbled at the 25-yard line on BYU's first possession. The Utes took advantage on a short field, punching it in from a yard out to take an early 7-0 lead with 10:59 remaining. On BYU's next possession a tipped pass fell into the hands of Utah's Tevin Carter and returned for a score, putting BYU in a 14-point hole just 17 seconds later. It didn't get better for the Cougars on the next two possessions. Back-to-back picks for Mangum resulted in another 14 points for Utah. A return to the 1-yard line on the first pick ended in a 1-yard touchdown and the second was a pick-six. A fifth BYU turnover in five opening possessions set up Utah's fifth touchdown of the first quarter, making it 35-0 with 4:38 left in first quarter.

MEDIA SERVICES

The 2016 BYU Football Almanac has been designed to provide local, regional and national media with useful information about the BYU football program, its history and tradition. Additional information, including video and feature content and bios on all players, is available online at byucougars.com. Should you require additional information, such as photographs, video or additional media guides, please contact the BYU Athletic Communications office at (801) 422-8948. We appreciate your coverage of BYU football and look forward to working with you this season.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

All requests for credentials to cover BYU football should be sent from the editor or sports director via official company communication to Brett Pyne in the Athletic Communications office (brett_pyne@byu.edu; BYU Athletic Communications, 30 SFH, Provo, UT 84602; Fax 801-422-0633). Credentials shall be issued only to accredited newsgathering media outlets. Fan-based websites will not be issued media access and credentials but are invited to utilize resources provided online at BYUCougars.com to obtain notes, quotes, statistics and other information about BYU football.

All single-game credential requests should be received no later than one week prior to the date of the game to ensure consideration. Credentials for working media are restricted in accordance with BYU and NCAA rules and guidelines. Non-working persons, including spouses, dates and children, will not be credentialed and are not allowed in the working media areas during the game as dictated by NCAA guidelines. It is our intention to ensure proper, professional use is made of the space available for credentialed media.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Sideline credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers and television reporters/camera operators on a specific newsgathering assignment. Television organizations shall be restricted to one camera operator and one reporter on the field at all times, except by prior approval from the BYU Athletic Communications office. Freelance and amateur photographers, not on assignment from a credentialed media outlet, are not eligible for credentials.

Credentials must be displayed prominently. All NCAA rules will be enforced regarding media representatives on the sidelines. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines. Individuals or organizations violating sideline policies may be required to surrender their credentials and be removed from the stadium. For additional questions regarding photography guidelines, please contact University photographer Jaren Wilkey at (801) 422-7322.

MEDIA SERVICES

The working media area is located on the third floor of the press box, situated on the west side of LaVell Edwards Stadium. Access to the press loge may be obtained via either the north or south elevators with media credentials.

The BYU Athletic Communications staff will provide working media with game notes, season stats, depth charts, flip cards, programs, game stats, postgame notes and quotes and media guides for both teams.

With four minutes remaining on the game clock, media are invited to take the south elevator to ground level in preparation for the postgame press conference. BYU head coach Bronco Mendenhall and selected players will be available in the interview room following the mandatory 10-minute cooling-off period. The BYU locker room is closed to the media.

The BYU press box is also equipped with wireless internet access. Wireless passwords will be provided with other game materials to media working in the press box.

MEDIA SERVICES

PARKING

LaVell Edwards Stadium is located on the northwest corner of the BYU campus, just off Canyon Road (200 East) and University Parkway (1650 North) in Provo. Media parking is in Lot No. 2, immediately west of the stadium. Parking passes are required and must be obtained in advance.

INTERVIEWS

All interview and information requests regarding all players, coaches and Athletic Department personnel must be arranged in advance through the Athletic Communications office at (801) 422-8948. BYU provides regular media availability each week. Local media members are responsible for attending after-practice media availability to conduct interviews. Opponent and national media can arrange telephone interviews through the Athletic Communications office. The Athletic Communications office will send an advisory each week detailing the weekly availability opportunities. Any other interview requests must be made at least 24 hours in advance. Interviews with players are not permitted after Wednesday each game week. Player interviews will not be conducted during regular class hours.

Please contact the Athletic Communications office for specific times and other details if requesting access opportunities.

DISCLAIMER

The Brigham Young University Athletic Media Communications department reserves the right to revoke or deny working media credentials and/or access to any individual or organization at any time for any reason. All credentials are the property of Brigham Young University and must be surrendered upon request.

TELEVISION PARTNERS

TELEVISION PARTNERS

On Sept. 1, 2010, Brigham Young University announced a new 8-year deal with ESPN to televise Cougar football on the sports leader's family of networks. BYU is the first program to sign an exclusive deal with ESPN.

ESPN has agreed that any BYU home games it doesn't select may be televised live on BYUtv.

Since 2011, every BYU home football game has been televised to a live national audience on the ESPN family of networks or BYUtv. Additionally, BYU's national fan base is able to view same-day rebroadcasts on BYUtv of every home game and any away game to which ESPN has rights through conference agreements with the host team.

"We've long sought broad, nationwide access to our games for our fans and increased visibility among those who may be less familiar with our university and athletic programs," said then BYU President Cecil O. Samuelson. "We've also been looking for ways to take better advantage of our own unique broadcasting resources."

Founded in 2001, BYUtv has grown from a relatively unknown cable channel on a single satellite TV provider to coverage in more than 55 million households on Dish

Network, DirecTV, and over 800 cable systems in the United States. The network's state-of-the-art production building allows it to televise every game in HD, along with its HD truck with the capability of broadcasting while on the road.

ESPN and ESPN2 are both available in almost 99 million homes, while the 24-hour college sports network ESPN2 is distributed to over 73 million homes. ESPN also produces college football games that are broadcast on ABC.

Each year, a minimum of three games will be carried on ESPN, ESPN2, or ABC and one on ESPN2. At least one game each season will be carried live on BYUtv.

Over the past five seasons, BYU has had 39 broadcasts on a major national television channel (ESPN, ESPN2, ABC, NBC, CBS, FOX). In all, BYU has had 44 games on an ESPN broadcast network the five seasons (ESPN, ESPN2, ESPN2, ESPN2, ESPN2).

ESPN has televised many of the great games in Cougar football history, beginning with the network's first live college football telecast. In that 1984 game, the Cougars defeated No. 3 Pitt at the beginning of BYU's national championship season.

ESPN also carried BYU's defeat of top-ranked Miami in 1990, a contest long rated among the top regular-season college football game on ESPN since that year. BYU's season-opening win over No. 3 Oklahoma was ESPN's ninth-highest rated game of the 2009 regular season.

"BYU is nationally recognized as an outstanding university and for the history and tradition of its premier athletic programs," said Burke Magnus, ESPN senior vice president, college sports programming. "Once BYU decided to chart an independent course for football, we both recognized it is a good opportunity to build and grow our strong 30-year relationship. With this agreement, college football fans around the country will see the quality and pageantry of BYU as well as the passion and enthusiasm of its supporters."

RADIO

BYU football games are heard exclusively on the Nu Skin BYU Sports Network, including flagship radio station KSL Newsradio (102.7 FM/1160 AM) and BYU Radio (SiriusXM 143).

The "Voice of the Cougars" is Greg Wrubell, entering his 16th season as play-by-play commentator. A BYU graduate, Wrubell is in his 25th season on the football broadcast crew, having served as sideline reporter before stepping into the booth.

Wrubell's broadcast partner is former BYU quarterback Marc Lyons, who will be providing analysis and commentary for a 36th season in 2016. Former Cougar receiver and kick returner Nate Meikle returns to the broadcast team in his ninth season reporting from the sidelines.

BYU football broadcasts are heard over-the-air via network affiliates in Utah, Idaho and Nevada. Game coverage is also available online at BYUCougars.com and on the BYU Cougars mobile app, with the audio stream and archives made available to a worldwide listening audience.

COACH'S SHOWS

In addition to comprehensive game-day coverage, the Nu Skin BYU Sports Network produces "BYU Football with Head Coach Kalani Sitake," an hour-long broadcast heard on KSL Newsradio and BYUCougars.com, Tuesday nights at 7 p.m. MT throughout the season. A live audience will join Coach Sitake, a weekly player guest and host Greg Wrubell at LaVell Edwards Stadium. Coach Sitake will also appear on additional weekly programming.

Assistant coaches Ed Lamb, Ty Detmer and Ilaisa Tuiaki will be featured guests on the "Coordinators' Corner" radio show, Mondays from 12:00-1:00 p.m. on ESPN 960 AM. The live broadcast will originate from JCW's in Provo, with fans invited to attend.

CollegePressBox.com

Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for BYU football and all FBS schools. Users may access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for BYU and other FBS schools.
