2017 BYU FOOTBALL

READY FOR MORE

TALENTED AND EXCITED SQUAD PREPS FOR 2017

Year one for head coach Kalani Sitake was a memorable one. The Cougars won nine games after entering the season facing one of the more daunting schedules in school history. The 2017 season picks up right where 2016 left off with a new set of challenges for the year.

The 2017 football schedule features a 13-game regular-season slate against schools from six conferences—Southeastern, Big Ten, Pac-12, American, Mountain West, Big Sky—and fellow independent UMass. The schedule includes six home games, six road games and a neutral site contest in Houston between the Cougars and the LSU Tigers at NRG Stadium, home of the Houston Texans and the site of the 2017 Super Bowl.

Including LSU, BYU's 2017 schedule includes three teams who finished last season in the top-25 rankings (No. 9 Wisconsin, No. 13 LSU, No. 23 Utah). Six Cougar opponents—LSU, Wisconsin, Mississippi State, Utah, Boise State and Hawai'i—earned bowl bids last year and five finished the year with bowl victories. Overall, opponents on BYU's 2017 schedule represent 11 different states, including California, Hawaii, Idaho, Louisiana, Mississippi, Massachusetts, Nevada, North Carolina, Oregon, Utah and Wisconsin.

Two of the most dynamic offensive players in school history are gone – all-time leading rusher Jamaal Williams and dual-threat quarterback Taysom Hill. Both electric in the ground game, the Cougars will be looking to replace not only the veteran leadership, but also more than 6,700 career rushing yards between the two stars.

Junior signal caller Tanner Mangum will step back into his familiar starting role after running the offense for 13 starts over the past two seasons when Hill was injured. The 2015 National Freshman of the Year, awarded by the Touchdown Club of Columbus, has tallied 3,618 career passing yards and 26 touchdowns.

Replacing Williams looks to be the work of a committee of capable backs. Junior Squally Canada, a Washington State transfer, spelled Williams last year to the tune of 315 yards and two touchdowns on 74 carries. Other backs in the mix for time include KJ Hall, Trey Dye, Riley Burt, Kavika Fonua and newcomer Ula Tolutau.

The Ty Detmer offense in 2016 featured a pro-style under-center attack with multiple looks and a focus on ball control. BYU will look to stretch the field a little more behind senior speedster Jonah Trinnaman in 2017. Along with Trinnaman, Aleva Hifo is back in the slot along with Moroni Lauulu-Pututau, who has bulked up and shifted into a full-time tight end position. Wideouts Talon Shumway, Rickey Shumway and Beau Tanner all return after getting reps last season and will work to produce like the four departed seniors Nick Kurtz, Garrett and Mitchell Juergens and Colby Pearson, who all combined for 125 receptions, 1,294 yards and nine touchdowns in 2016. Redshirts Akile Davis and Micah Simon are standouts from the scout squad last year that will aim to make an impact.

The tight end position is again a focal point and BYU hopes the group can take another step forward after a productive 2016. Tanner Baldersee, Hunter Marshall and Nate Sampson return to a group bolstered by Laulu-Pututau sliding over along with new recruits Matt Bushman and Joe Tukuafu joining the squad in the spring.

Up front, BYU lost just one starter from a cohesive unit that plowed the road for the Cougars in 2016. Senior Rimington Trophy candidate Tejan Koroma is back at center, flanked by senior guards Keyan Norman and Tuni Kanuch. Thomas Shoaf earned Freshman All-America honors from the Football Writers Association in 2016 and is back for his sophomore campaign. Austin Hoyt, who has starting experience, will compete for the other tackle spot vacated by Andrew Eide along with junior college standout Taipe Vaka. Every spot will be pushed with talented players coming off redshirt seasons like Kieffer Longson, Chandon Herring, Austin Chambers and Addison Pulsipher in addition to veterans JJ Nwigwe and LeRoy Sitake-Tanoai.

Defensively, Ilaisa Tuiaki had the Cougar defense rolling in 2016, ranking No. 2 nationally with 31 turnovers gained, No. 4 in interceptions (21), No. 9 in rushing defense (112.85 ypg) and No. 14 in scoring defense (19.5 ppg). BYU returns three starting linebackers in senior Fred Warner and juniors Butch Pau'u and Francis Bernard. Adam Pulsipher, Johnny Tapusoa and Morgan Unga are also part of a talented group of returners at the position along with Isaiah Kaufusi coming off a redshirt season.

Behind them, senior safety Micah Hannemann is back along with both starting corners, sophomores Troy Warner and Dayan Ghanwoloku (Lake). An interception machine, Kai Nacua, graduated to open a safety spot for Matt Hadley, Tanner Jacobson, Zayne Anderson or Sawyer Powell. Newcomers include transfer Austin Lee, freshman Chaz Ah You and Kamel Greene after moving over from corner. Depth at corner is also back with Michael Shelton, Chris Wilcox, Isaiah Armstrong, Austin McChesney, Cody Stewart and Hiva Lee.

The defensive line is talented but unproven. Handsome Tanielu, Merrill Taliauli, Kesni Tausinga, Trajan Pili, Corbin Kaufusi and Tevita Mo'Unga all return and several have starting experience. Additional talents are back from missions or redshirt years and will also compete to contribute in 2017. New to the squad for 2017 include Langi Tuifua, Lorenzo Fauatea, Tanner Baker and Khyiris Tonga.

Special teams was another strength in 2016 and should be in 2017. The Cougars ranked No. 6 in punt return defense, No. 20 in kick return defense and No. 22 in field goals made. Punter Jonny Linehan returns, along with placekicker Rhett Almond and kickoff specialists Corey Edwards and Andrew Mikkelsen. Both Edwards and Mikkelsen can kick field goals too and had experience in 2016. Long snappers Matt Foley and Mitch Harris both return as well.

To read more about each position group, visit the offense, defense and special teams outlooks on pages 8-11.

QUARTERBACK

QUARTERBACK	HT.	WT.	YR	HOMETOWN/PREVIOUS SCHOOL

Kody Wilstead	6-6	215	FR.	St. George, Utah / Pine View HS
Joe Critchlow	6-4	210	FR.	Franklin, Tennessee / Franklin HS

2016 QBs LOST: Taysom Hill

The quarterback position continues to be a strength with Tanner Mangum leading the way under center. The former National Freshman of the Year started 12 games in 2015 and then backed up Taysom Hill during his senior season last year before starting the Poinsettia Bowl and leading the team to a 24-21 win. He is 9-4 as a starter and looks to continue the legacy of BYU quarterbacks as 2017 approaches. Beau Hoge and Koy Detmer Jr. return to compete for the backup spot and Young Tanner returns after a year on the squad. Newcomers include an in-state top prospect in Kody Wilstead out of Pine View High School in St. George, sophomore transfer Austin Kafentzis from Arizona Western College and freshman Joe Critchlow out of Franklin High School in Tennessee.

Kyle Griffiths (FB)	6-3	235	SO.	Windermere, Florida / West Orange HS

2016 RBs LOST: Jamaal Williams, Algernon Brown, Colby Hansen

Replacing the school's all-time leading rusher is never an easy task, but BYU has a talented pool of backs to carry the load. Squally Canada and KJ Hall both return with starting experience while Trey Dye and Riley Burt return after a redshirt year. Both saw time on the field in 2015. Newcomer Ula Toluta'u joins the stable as a big back in the mold of former greats Manase Tonga and Fui Vakapuna. Kavika Fonua, who played linebacker in 2016, is also getting a look in the backfield. Fullbacks include Brayden El-Bakri who was the primary starter in 2016, with Creed Richardson pushing for time at the spot along with Kyle Griffiths.

Bentley Hanshaw	6-5	220	FR.	Moorpark, California / Moorpark HS
Nate Heaps	6-4	235	FR.	American Fork, Utah / American Fork HS

2016 TEs LOST: None

All the tight ends that saw time on the field in 2016 are back for 2017. Tanner Balderree saw the bulk of the work in 2016 and returns to prove himself further in the passing game. Moroni Laulu-Pututau has put on weight and slides over officially from the wide receiver corps to put his hand on the ground as a true tight end. Nate Sampson returns to bolster the group while Troy Hinds continues to battle through injuries to get back on the field. Newcomers home from their LDS missions include Matt Bushman and Joe Tukuafu. Bushman is a two-sport athlete with the baseball team while Tukuafu was a star at East High with over 700 receiving yards his senior year. New recruits include Bentley Hanshaw and Nate Heaps joining the squad in the fall.

2016 WRs LOST: Mitchell Juergens, Garrett Juergens, Colby Pearson, Nick Kurtz

Speedster Jonah Trinnaman is back to lead a talented group anxious to prove itself this season. Aleva Hifo is also back after missing spring recovering from surgery. Talon Shumway returns after seeing time last season in addition to Beau Tanner and Rickey Shumway. Redshirts came off for Akile Davis, Micah Simon and Mack Richards after working with the scout team last year. Inoke Lotulelei returns and freshman Neil Pau'u, brother of Butch Pau'u, also joined the program for the spring. Incoming freshman Tariq Buchanan and Chayce Bolli will add their talents to the group in fall camp.

2016 OLs LOST: Andrew Eide, Parker Dawe, Kyle Johnson, Quin Picklin, Ului Lapuaho, Zac Dawe

The Cougars return several players with starting experience, including senior Tejan Koroma at center, joined by senior guards Tuni Kanuch and Keyan Norman. Freshman All-American Thomas Shoaf returns as a sophomore to give BYU four strong starting options. The open tackle spot vacated by Andrew Eide looks to be filled by Austin Hoyt, who started two games last year, along with experienced junior JJ Nwigwe and redshirt freshman Kieffer Longson who impressed on the scout team last year. Junior college transfer Taipe Vaka is also in the mix for time at the position. Jacob Jimenez was injured in the offseason and will miss 2017 but Addison Pulsipher and LeRoy Sitake-Tanoai offer more options. Several players are expected to compete for time after redshirting last year including Chandon Herring and Austin Chambers. Other newcomers include Mango Finau from Hawaii, Brady Christensen, James Empey and Notre Dame transfer Tristen Hoge.

Several talented linemen return for 2017, including Kesni Tausinga, Merrill Taliauli, Handsome Tanielu, Tevita Mo'unga and Corbin Kaufusi who all have starting experience. Other contributors include Trajan Pili, Rhett Sandlin and Solomone Wolfgramm. Cody Savage and Scott Huntsman are back in the mix. Uriah Leiataua and Kainoa Fuiava will compete after redshirt seasons in 2016 while previous signees home from missions include Earl Tuioti-Mariner, A.J. Lolohea, Motekiāi Langi and David Lui, who are all home from missions. Keanu Saleapaga has joined the team in addition to Oregon transfer Wayne Tei-Kirby. Kirby is likely to have to sit out the 2017 season due to NCAA transfer rules. Other newcomers include Khyiris Tonga, Langi Tuifua, Lorenzo Fauatea and Tanner Baker.

The majority of the linebacking corps return in 2017, highlighted by three returning starters Fred Warner, Butch Pau'u and Francis Bernard. The three were BYU's top tacklers in 2016 and look to continue to lead the defense again. Adam Pulsipher, Morgan Unga and Johnny Tapusoa return after seeing significant time in 2016. Phillip Amone and Va'a Niumatalolo also add depth and experience while Isaiah Kaufusi is ready to contribute after a redshirt year along with return missionary Garrett England. Newcomer Sia'anga Moala participated in spring ball while Will Sedgwick will join the team for fall camp.

2016 Safeties LOST: Kai Nacua, Chris Badger, Eric Takenaka

BYU will get Micah Hannemann back as a senior in 2017 but will need to fill the other safety spot vacated by Kai Nacua. Matt Hadley and Tanner Jacobson both saw extensive action in 2016 and are primed to make a run at a starting position. Zayne Anderson and Sam Baldwin also had reps last year and will compete along with Sawyer Powell, another returner with game experience. Kamel Greene moved in from corner and newcomers Marvin Hifo and Utah transfer Austin Lee will also look to step in and play along with newcomer four-star recruit Chaz Ah You.

2016 CBs LOST: Michael Davis, Trevor Brent

The Cougars return starters Dayan Ghanwoloku (Lake) and Troy Warner at the corner spots. Just freshmen last year, each started eight games. Chris Wilcox started two games in 2016, and Michael Shelton started two in 2015. Isaiah Armstrong and Austin McChesney both saw significant reps at the corner position as well and all return. Cody Stewart and Hiva Lee are back after strong special teams showings last season, along with Caden Dortch. Newcomers include junior college transfer Trevion Greene, along with freshmen D'Angelo Gunter and Keenan Ellis.

2016 Specialists LOST: Jake Oldroyd (K) - mission

Punter Jonny Linehan returns for his senior season after handling the punt duties for the last two seasons. The Kiwi rugby player averaged 42.5 yards per punt with 30 punts dropped inside the 20 last season. Rhett Almond backed up Linehan but also moved into the primary placekicker role in 2016 and returns this season. Almond connected on 17 of 21 field goals and 39 of 40 PAT attempts. He knocked in the 19-yard game-winner against Toledo. Corey Edwards was the featured kickoff specialist with Andrew Mikkelsen also seeing some time in the position. The long snapper, Matt Foley, returns after rehabbing from injury in spring. Mitch Harris handled the snapping in spring and made an impression.

In 2017 BYU enters its seventh season of independence as the only school with an exclusive television partnership with ESPN. After making the announcement on Sept. 1, 2010, BYU started competing as an independent in 2011 while also beginning a new partnership with ESPN to televise Cougar football home games on the sports leader's family of networks.

"BYU is nationally recognized as an outstanding university and for the history and tradition of its premier athletic programs," said Burke Magnus, ESPN executive vice president, programming and scheduling. "Once BYU decided to chart an independent course for football, we both recognized it is a good opportunity to build and grow our strong 30-year relationship. With this agreement, college football fans around the country will see the quality and pageantry of BYU as well as the passion and enthusiasm of its supporters."

One of the most important goals in becoming an independent was the opportunity for more national exposure for the university and its football program. As an independent, BYU has had 59 of its 78 games over the past five seasons appear on one of the ESPN networks. Last season BYU played 10 games on one of the ESPN networks, including three games featured on both ESPN and ESPN2, one on ABC, one on ESPNU and two carried on ESPN3 as well as BYUtv.

BYU has had 76 percent of its games broadcast on a national TV network channel (70+ million households) since going independent. Only 15 programs in the nation have had more national TV games than BYU since 2011.

BYU has also sought better access for the Cougars' national fan base and the opportunity to schedule high-profile opponents. Since 2011, BYU has played teams from the SEC, Big 12, Big Ten, Pac-12, ACC, American, Conference USA, Mid-American, Mountain West, Western Athletic Conference, and fellow independents Notre Dame and UMass and boasts upcoming games scheduled with programs such as LSU, Tennessee, Mississippi State, Missouri, Michigan State, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Baylor, Virginia, USC, Oregon, Stanford, Cal, Washington, Washington State, Arizona, Arizona State, Utah and Boise State among others.

Every BYU home football game will be televised to a live national audience on the ESPN family of networks or BYUtv. Each year, a minimum of three home games will be carried on ESPN, ESPN2, or ABC while additional games can also be televised on those networks or on ESPNU. At least one game each season will be carried live on BYUtv. Additionally, BYU fans are able to view same-day rebroadcasts on BYUtv of every home game and any away game to which ESPN has the rights through conference agreements with the host team.

ADDITIONAL BYU FOOTBALL PROGRAMMING ON BYUtv

BYU is the only school in the country with nationally televised live 60-minute pregame and 30-60-minute postgame shows before and after every game—home or away. BYUtv also produces daily and weekly BYU-centric sports shows as well as additional BYU football specials throughout the year to highlight events such as National Letter of Intent Day, BYU spring football and the annual BYU Football National Media Day in late June, which also includes live programming on ESPN3.

BYUtv and BYU Radio/Sirius XM 143 simulcast a daily news show—BYU Sports Nation—that airs live each weekday from noon-1 p.m. ET/10-11 a.m. MT from Studio B at the BYU Broadcasting Building in Provo with an additional airing the same day at 6 p.m. ET/4 p.m. MT. The latest news and information about BYU sports are discussed each day by hosts Jarom Jordan and Spencer Linton. During the football season BYUtv also features a weekly one-hour show—After Further Review—where host Dave McCann and a panel of experts provide in-depth analysis of the tactics, plays, and touchdowns of every BYU football game.

BYUtv is available in more than 55 million North American homes and is growing every month. It's on the basic tier of both Dish and DirectTV and is carried by more than 500 cable systems. The network constructed its own state-of-the-art production building that will allow it to televise every game in HD, along with its HD truck with the capability of broadcasting while on the road.

KALANI SITAKE

BYU HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Kalani Sitake (pronounced kah-lah-nee see-tah-kay) was named head coach overseeing the BYU football program on December 19, 2015, by director of athletics Tom Holmoe.

In his first season, Sitake led the Cougars to a 9-4 record and extended BYU's bowl appearance streak to 12 seasons. The Cougars beat Wyoming 24-21 in the Poinsettia Bowl to give Sitake his first bowl victory in his inaugural season.

Sitake is the 14th head coach in BYU history. He came to BYU from Oregon State, where he served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator.

A former Cougar running back (1994, 1997-2000), Sitake returned to his alma mater with 15 years of coaching experience, including seven years as a defensive coordinator and four seasons as an assistant head coach.

Prior to serving as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Oregon State in 2015, Sitake spent 10 seasons at the University of Utah. He started at Utah in 2005 as the linebackers coach and was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2009 before also being named assistant head coach in 2012.

Sitake has coached several Pac-12 and Mountain West Conference honorees, including Morris Trophy winners Star Lotulelei (2011) and Nate Orchard (2014). He also helped mentor 14 NFL Draft picks during his time at Utah, including 12 all-league players and three freshmen All-Americans. He helped the Utes win seven of eight bowl games during his tenure.

Sitake began his coaching career in 2001 as the defensive backs and special teams coach at Eastern Arizona before becoming a defensive graduate assistant at BYU in 2002. Sitake then joined the staff at Southern Utah where he coached running backs, tight ends and offensive line during the 2003 and 2004 seasons.

Born in Nuku'alofa, Tonga, and raised in Laie, Hawai'i and Provo, Utah, Sitake becomes the first FBS head football coach of Tongan descent. He is the 14th head coach in BYU history, and just the fourth since 1972, when Hall of Fame coach LaVell Edwards took over the program.

Sitake began his BYU playing career in 1994 prior to serving a two-year mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to Oakland, California. After returning and redshirting in 1997, Sitake was a three-year starter at fullback for the Cougars from 1998-2000 under Edwards.

He was named BYU's Football Scholar Athlete of the Year in 1998, Impact Player of the Year in 1999, along with team captain and the most valuable running back in 2000. He signed a free agent contract with the Cincinnati Bengals in 2001, but was forced to retire due to an injury.

Sitake graduated from BYU in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in English. He and his wife Timberly have three children, Skye, Sadie and Kelaokalani (KK).

TOM HOLMOE

Director of Athletics

Tom Holmoe was named Director of Athletics at Brigham Young University on March 1, 2005. He oversees a nationally recognized program with 21 intercollegiate sports, involving more than 600 student-athletes and a staff of 190 people.

Since Holmoe's appointment, BYU has captured more than 100 conference regular-season or postseason championships, and over 200 student-athletes have earned All-America status. Under his tutelage, both the football and men's basketball teams have enjoyed tremendous success. BYU earned a bowl invitation 12 years running, while the men's basketball program put together a string of 12 consecutive 20-win seasons and has made the postseason every year, including a NCAA Sweet-16 run in 2011.

A former Cougar defensive back from 1978-82, Holmoe returned to BYU in July 2001 as Associate Athletics Director for Development. As part of his responsibilities, he supervised the Cougar Club, served as the department's liaison with the LDS Foundation, served on the BYU Alumni Association Board of Directors and worked on the capital campaign to raise funds for the university's new athletic facilities. Holmoe served on the NCAA Division I men's basketball selection committee from 2014-2017.

A native of La Crescenta, Calif., Holmoe came to BYU on a football scholarship in 1978. He earned first-team All-WAC honors as a senior in 1982 and was selected in the fourth round of the 1983 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers. Over a seven-year NFL career, he played on three Super Bowl championship teams with the 49ers in 1984, 1988 and 1989.

After retiring from professional football, Holmoe returned to BYU to serve as a graduate assistant under LaVell Edwards from 1990-91 and later accepted an offer from Bill Walsh to become the Stanford secondary coach in 1992, where he remained for two seasons. In 1994, he returned to the 49ers as defensive backfield coach for two seasons, where he earned a fourth Super Bowl ring. Two years later Holmoe joined the University of California staff as defensive coordinator and later became the head coach from 1997-2001.

Holmoe graduated from BYU with a degree in Zoology in 1983 and received a master's degree from BYU in Athletic Administration in 1995. He and his wife, Lori, have four children and four grandchildren.

BYU'S HISTORY

The 1875 establishment of the Brigham Young Academy offered an academically stimulating and gospel-oriented education to 29 students. The one-acre school grounds presided over by Karl G. Maeser have since developed into 560 acres and about 300 buildings. The foundation of the University thrives with the fourfold focus of being 1) spiritually strengthening, 2) intellectually enlarging, 3) character building, leading to 4) lifelong learning and service.

Brigham Young University provides an outstanding education in an atmosphere consistent with the standards and principles of its sponsor, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

BYU MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Brigham Young University — founded, supported, and guided by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints — is to assist individuals in their quest for perfection and eternal life. That assistance should provide a period of intensive learning in a stimulating setting where a commitment to excellence is expected and the full realization of human potential is pursued.

All instruction, programs, and services at BYU, including a wide variety of extracurricular experiences, should make their own contribution toward the balanced development of the total person. Such a broadly prepared individual will not only be capable of meeting personal challenge and change but will also bring strength to others in the tasks of home and family life, social relationships, civic duty, and service to mankind.

To succeed in this mission the university must provide an environment enlightened by living prophets and sustained by those moral virtues which characterize the life and teachings of the Son of God. In that environment these four major educational goals should prevail:

- All students at BYU should be taught the truths of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Any education is inadequate which does not emphasize that His is the only name given under heaven whereby mankind can be saved. Certainly all relationships within the BYU community should reflect devout love of God and a loving, genuine concern for the welfare of our neighbor.
- Because the gospel encourages the pursuit of all truth, students at BYU should receive a broad university education. The arts, letters, and sciences provide the core of such an education, which will help students think clearly, communicate effectively, understand important ideas in their own cultural tradition as well as that of others, and establish clear standards of intellectual integrity.
- In addition to a strong general education, students should also receive instruction in the special fields of their choice. The university cannot provide programs in all possible areas of professional or vocational work, but in those it does provide the preparation must be excellent. Students who graduate from BYU should be capable of competing with the best in their fields.
- Scholarly research and creative endeavor among both faculty and students, including those in selected graduate programs of real consequence, are essential and will be encouraged.

In meeting these objectives BYU's faculty, staff, students, and administrators should also be anxious to make their service and scholarship available to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in furthering its work worldwide. In an era of limited enrollments, BYU can continue to expand its influence both by encouraging programs that are central to the Church's purposes and by making its resources available to the Church when called upon to do so.

We believe the earnest pursuit of this institutional mission can have a strong effect on the course of higher education and will greatly enlarge Brigham Young University's influence in a world we wish to improve.

KEVIN J. WORTHEN

University President

Kevin J. Worthen began serving as the 13th president of Brigham Young University on May 1, 2014. He previously served as BYU's advancement vice president and as dean of its J. Reuben Clark Law School.

MATTHEW O. RICHARDSON

Advancement Vice President

Matthew O. Richardson was appointed on May 14, 2014. He oversees athletics, University Communications, BYU Broadcasting, alumni, external relations and philanthropy.

DISTINGUISHED FACULTY

Faculty members hold advanced degrees from universities around the world. Their achievements are compelling and wide-ranging as they pursue consequential research work that is making a real difference. Alleviating hunger worldwide through more efficient agriculture, finding low-pollution energy alternatives and making significant contributions to the strengthening of families are among their many pursuits. Faculty members are regularly called upon to head national and international professional organizations and to consult with corporate and governmental entities. Above all, these high-principled men and women share an unmatched devotion to bringing the best possible education to their students.

PREPARATION FOR THE FUTURE

A strong curriculum delivered by outstanding faculty is key to the academic excellence of BYU graduates. From business management to nursing, from the humanities to engineering, the University's 11 colleges -- supported by comprehensive offerings from religious education -- continue to be internationally recognized for the quality of their education and the professional preparation they provide. In addition to the challenging course work and hands-on research, numerous programs offer academic and service outreach opportunities. Study abroad centers, distance-learning courses and worldwide performing arts tours are a few of the offerings that enrich BYU's academic experience.

- 178 undergraduate majors
- 109 undergraduate minors
- 68 master's programs
- 26 doctorate programs

HONOR CODE

BYU's Honor Code helps maintain this learning environment. Initiated by students in 1949, the Honor Code emphasizes being honest, living a chaste and virtuous life, abstaining from alcohol and tobacco, using clean language, and following other values in line with the doctrines of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

MISSIONARY SERVICE

Brigham Young University is owned and operated by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The missionary emphasis of the Church is perhaps one of its most recognized characteristics. Since the organization of the Church in 1830, over one million missionaries have served.

The Church operates 422 missions around the world in over 150 nations, speaking over 160 languages. A mission covers a geographic area and has a central headquarters. Each is presided over by a mission president, who is called from the ranks of the Church membership to serve for a period of three years. The mission president directs the work of the missionaries assigned to his mission.

More than 70,000 missionaries representing The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints are currently serving proselytizing missions. Most missionaries are young people under the age of 25. Senior couples also have opportunities to serve missions.

Missionaries work with a companion of the same gender during their mission, with the exception of couples, who work with their spouse. Single men serve missions for two years and single women serve missions for 18 months. Missionaries work long hours—seven days a week—teaching the gospel of Jesus Christ and participating in community service.

Missionaries receive their assignment from Church headquarters and are sent only to countries where governments allow the Church to operate. Missionaries do not request their area of assignment and do not know beforehand whether they will be required to learn a language.

Prior to going to their assigned area, missionaries spend a short period of time at one of 15 missionary training centers throughout the world. There they learn how to teach the gospel in an orderly and clear way and, if necessary, they begin to learn the language of the people they will be teaching. The largest training center is in Provo, Utah, with additional centers in Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Dominican Republic, England, Ghana, Guatemala, Mexico, New Zealand, Peru, the Philippines, South Africa and Spain.

In addition, over 31,000 individuals (including couples) are given special service assignments and considered Church-service missionaries. Health specialists and doctors go to developing countries where the Church's health services program teaches preventive care. Craftsmen, artisans and construction supervisors train members in local building projects. Agricultural experts train people to produce food more effectively and economically. Other mission assignments include education, family history research and leadership training.

The missionaries pay their own way, occasionally with assistance from friends and family who donate money to the Church to pay for their personal expenses. Contacts with family and friends during this time of service are limited to letters and occasional phone calls to family at special times. Missionaries avoid entertainment, parties or other activities common to this age-group as long as they are on their missions, so they can focus entirely on the work of serving and of teaching others the gospel of Jesus Christ.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was officially organized on April 6, 1830 with six members. Today, congregations of the Church total over 30,000. With nearly 16 million members, it is one of the fastest growing religions in the world and one of the largest Christian churches in the United States.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is Christian, but is neither Catholic nor Protestant. Rather, it is a restoration of the original church established by Jesus Christ. For more information on the beliefs of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, visit www.lds.org.

Former quarterback Taysom Hill served two years in Australia before enrolling at BYU. With the age requirement being 19 until 2012, many players in the past had played or redshirted a freshman season and then served. In October of 2012 the church announced the age requirement would now be 18, so many players now choose to serve before enrolling, allowing them to have four or five consecutive seasons with the program.

COUGAR CLUB

WELCOME TO THE CLUB!

With the donations and support of nearly 7,000 members nationwide, the Cougar Club has helped BYU build one of America's strongest collegiate athletic programs. Through its fund-raising and promotional mission, the Cougar Club is ensuring the future success of BYU Athletics.

Loyal Cougar Club members across America are building the foundation for BYU's future athletic victories. The changing nature of collegiate athletics means that to compete at the highest levels, BYU must raise more money every year. The costs associated with being one of the nation's top programs continue to rise dramatically. With that challenge in mind, the support of the Cougar Club and its members becomes an even more important key to the future growth of BYU Athletics.

"BYU's donors and fans make all the difference," says Cougar Club Director Michael Middleton. "For our teams to continue to achieve national prominence, the Cougar Club needs to continue to grow."

FUNDING

Cougar Club donations are used for many vital projects, including:

- Funding athletic scholarships for student athletes who represent the University in 21 different sports.
- Providing recruiting expenses to help BYU coaches to attract some of the world's premier athletes to Provo, Utah.
- Building athletics facilities including the new Football Weight Room, the new Marriott Center Annex, the Indoor Practice Facility, and the Student Athlete Building.
- Supporting the Student Athlete Academic Center, including sponsoring academic tutoring for student athletes and funds to provide spring/summer and post-eligibility scholarships that assist current and former athletes to finish their degrees.

CONTRIBUTION LEVELS

There is a Cougar Club membership level for every fan who wants to help BYU continue to build a strong athletic tradition. Annual Members make tax-deductible Cougar Club contributions of between $60 and $2,500 each year, based on their financial ability to give and the athletic benefits they want to receive. Legacy Members make an initial contribution of $10,000 and an annual sustaining gift of $1,250 or more. To acknowledge the generosity of Club Members, the athletic department makes a number of benefits available to Club Members, including priority seating, parking passes, and Club events. However, the greatest benefit of membership is knowing that the Cougar Club is helping BYU Athletics continue to be one of the nation's top collegiate athletic programs and making a difference in the lives of more than 600 BYU student athletes.

COUGAR CLUB BENEFITS

- Seating priority for home and away sporting events, bowl games and postseason tournaments
- Tax deduction
- Parking passes
- Cougar Club Newsletter and athletic publications
- Monthly luncheons with BYU coaches and athletes
- Invitation to annual Y-Awards Banquet
- Privileges and invitations for Club events and Club travel
- Discounts on exclusive BYU merchandise and commemorative memorabilia
- Cougar Club nights at Olympic sporting events

For more information about the Cougar Club, call 801-422-2583 or visit www.cougarclub.com.

LAVELL EDWARDS STADIUM

— KIRK HERBSTREIT

ESPN COLLEGE FOOTBALL ANALYST

LAVELL EDWARDS STADIUM

CAPACITY: 63,470

CONSTRUCTED: 1960 (COUGAR STADIUM)

EXPANDED: 1982

RENAMED: 2000

PLAYING SURFACE: NATURAL GRASS

ELEVATION: 4,338

PICTURE PERFECT

With its 63,470-seat capacity, new video walls and immaculate press boxes, LaVell Edwards Stadium is home to legendary BYU football. Since its expansion in 1982, the stadium has consistently ranked among the nation's top 30 in attendance every year. Some of the stadium's well-known features include a box-bowl seating configuration, a grass playing surface and a four-level press box.

THE FIELD

The field is covered with a sand-based natural turf capable of draining eight inches of rain per hour. The well-kept grass field is consistently deemed one of the best in the country.

EXPANSION/SEATING CAPACITY

As a result of increased seating demands, BYU made yet another renovation in 1982, adding stands to the north and south end zones, lowering the field eight feet and removing the track surrounding the field (which hosted the 1967 and 1975 NCAA Track and Field Championships). The stadium expansion increased the seating capacity to over 65,000. The crowd of 64,253 that gathered for BYU's first game in the expanded stadium on September 25, 1982 was reportedly "the largest gathering ever in Utah history" at the time. In 2003 BYU added a luxury "Club Seating" area to the east stands taking the capacity of Edwards Stadium down to 64,045. In 2010 and 2011 BYU created additional wheelchair access inside the stadium, which reduced the capacity by 575 seats to 63,470.

EQUIPMENT AND LOCKER ROOMS

The 75-yard-long locker room is patterned after the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles. There is also a special locker room for former BYU players who want to train in Provo during the offseason.

TRAINING FACILITIES

Sponsored by Dynatronics, this area features a rehabilitation room and a hydro area with a cold pool, a hot tub with power jets, a treadmill pool with two cameras and a doctor's office. Trainers provide electrical stimulation and ultra sound treatments as well as bikes, treadmills and Cybex machines.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING CENTER/ PLAYERS' LOUNGE

The football team's Strength and Conditioning Center is conveniently located with easy access from the football locker room in the Student Athlete Building and to the team's practice fields. Most of the equipment was custom built by Free Motion and is sponsored by Icon Health and Fitness. With a new 2,500 square foot addition completed for the 2017 season, the facility features 20 full power racks with platforms as well as reverse hypers, Tomahawk spinning bikes and TVs, Nordic Track incline trainers, Versaclimbers, Scifit upper body bikes, Woodway force treadmills, H/P Cosmos treadmills with Pneu Weight devices, vibratory boards, a step mill, dumbbell areas and a medicine ball wall. Another new addition perched above the Strength and Conditioning Center from a second-floor overlook is the new players' lounge for the team. The lounge features several flat screen television and gaming consoles, along with other game tables and areas to relax.

STUDENT ATHLETE ACADEMIC CENTER

Tutors and mentors work through these offices. Athletes have access to computers, an interactive classroom, multiple study areas and a large quiet room. Also on staff are a sports psychologist and a nutritionist.

LEGENDS GRILLE

Fans, coaches and athletes can view TV screens, a ticker tape with world wide sports scores or view specialty events on a projection screen while catching a bite to eat.

INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

The IPF is 106,000 square feet and had new turf put in during the summer of 2017. The building has retractable goalposts, a sideline staging facility for offensive linemen and serves as a practice facility for football in all forms of weather. The indoor surface is brand new field turf and the building features four video platforms located 40 feet above the playing surface. The IPF also serves as an indoor practice area for soccer, golf, baseball and softball teams and a variety of other sports programs, including extramurals and intramurals.

New staff continues BYU winning tradition in year one

BYU came into the 2016 season with a brand new head coach in former Cougar fullback Kalani Sitake. The Cougars navigated through one of the most difficult and diverse schedules in program history and came away with an 9-4 season. Coach Sitake was one of just four new FBS head coaches in their first full season to garner a winning record.

The Cougars won the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl 24-21 over former conference foe Wyoming to rank No. 31 in ESPN's Football Power Index of FBS teams.

Playing a strong national schedule that included games against the SEC, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-12, American, Mountain West and the MAC, the Cougars proved to be an always-competitive team under the direction of first-time head coach Kalani Sitake and first-time coordinators Ty Detmer (offense) and Ilaisa Tuiaki (defense). BYU's new coaching staff took the Cougars into a top-10 early schedule that put BYU on the road for six of the team's first nine games, including three of the first four.

Sitake's new staff and his team rose up to the challenge as the Cougars had the opportunity to win every game this season, each loss coming down to the final moments, if not the final play. BYU suffered its four defeats by a combined eight points with one-point road losses at Utah and Boise State and three-point setbacks on the road against West Virginia and at home against the then Josh Rosen-led UCLA Bruins. West Virginia, Utah and Boise State were fixtures in the national rankings during the season. BYU set a new NCAA standard for the fewest points separating a four-loss team from an undefeated season.

Among BYU's nine victories, the Cougars defeated an eight-win Wyoming squad (24-21) and another bowl team in 9-4 Toledo (55-53) of the MAC. BYU beat another bowl team, Mississippi State (28-21) of the SEC at LaVell Edwards Stadium along with the Big Sky's Southern Utah (37-7), fellow independent UMass (51-9) and the MW's Utah State (28-10). BYU picked up wins away from Provo against the Big Ten's Michigan State (31-14), Arizona (18-16) of the Pac-12 and Cincinnati (20-3) of the American Conference (see the following pages for game-by-game recaps).

The Cougars boasted one of the nation's top running backs in Jamaal Williams, who ranked No. 5 in the nation at 137.5 rushing yards per game. Williams, who was among the Heisman Trophy contenders officially recognized by the Heisman Trophy Trust, missed three full games due to injury, including BYU's one point setback at then No. 14 Boise State. In addition to those three games, Williams also missed parts of BYU's close losses at Utah and vs. UCLA. Williams became BYU's career rushing leader this season against Mississippi State and set the school's single-game mark with 286 yards in BYU's win over Toledo. He finished 2017 with 1,375 rushing yards as part of his school-record 3,901 career rushing yards.

Senior quarterback Taysom Hill started every game for BYU before suffering a season-ending elbow injury early in the fourth quarter of BYU's win over in-state rival Utah State. The three-year team captain won 23 games as a starting quarterback at BYU and accounted for 9,744 total yards of offense, which ranks No. 4 in school history, just ahead of Jim McMahon. He finished his career with 6,929 passing yards and 2,815 rushing yards, the most rushing yards by any BYU quarterback, while ranking fifth among all players. He also accounted for 75 total touchdowns (43 passing, 32 rushing), No. 5 all-time at BYU, surpassing Steve Young in BYU's last game. Sophomore Tanner Mangum, the 2015 Touchdown Club of Columbus National Freshman of the Year, quarterbacked the Cougars in the bowl game.

Defensively, BYU ranked 34th in total defense while excelling at creating turnovers and stopping the run. The Cougars finished No. 2 nationally in forced turnovers (31), including No. 4 in interceptions (21) and No. 6 in defensive touchdowns scored (4), while also ranked No. 9 against the run (112.85) and No. 14 in scoring defense (19.5). Safety Kai Nacua ranked No. 7 nationally with six interceptions while defensive back Dayan Lake and linebackers Fred Warner and Francis

Bernard each had three picks. All three boast pick-six touchdowns. The Cougars had four players with at least three interceptions. Warner led the team with 86 tackles, Butch Pau'u (83), who missed three games due to injury, was close behind and Bernard posted 80. Four players scored touchdowns on defense on three pick sixes and one fumble recovery.

BYU's special teams were also strong, ranking in the top 25 statistically in six different categories. Corbin Kaufusi, who also plays on the basketball team at BYU, has used his 6-foot-9 frame to block two kicks, which tied for No. 4 nationally. BYU ranked 13th as a team with four total blocks.

The 12th consecutive bowl appearance for the Cougars saw them pitted against a familiar foe as they faced Wyoming and played in the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl.

In an unusual rainy and wet game, it was up to Williams, the ground game and the defense to grind out a win. Williams delivered with 210 rushing yards and one touchdown while the defense forced two turnovers, including a Kai Nacua interception in the final minute to seal BYU's 24-21 victory over the Cowboys.

Offensive lineman Thomas Shoaf was named a Freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America. BYU also landed 15 players on Phil Steele's Postseason All-Independent Teams. On offense, Williams and offensive lineman Tejan Koroma garnered first-team honors. Hill, wideout Nick Kurtz and offensive linemen Keyan Norman and Tuni Kanuch earned a place on the second team. Defensively, defensive linemen Sae Tautu, Logan Taele and Kai Nacua all made the first team. Second team selections included linebackers Francis Bernard, Fred Warner and defensive back Dayan Lake (Ghanwoloku). Punter Jonny Linehan landed on the first team while kicker Rhett Almond earned second-team honors along with returner Garrett Juergens.

Hill was honored as a William V. Campbell Trophy Finalist (one of 12 in FBS) and was named a Scholar-Athlete honoree by the National Football Foundation, earning an $18,000 post-graduate scholarship. He was also named a 2017 NCAA DI Men's HERO of the Year honorable mention.

Following the season, Williams was drafted in the fourth round by the Green Bay Packers with the 134th overall pick. After the draft, nine other Cougars received NFL opportunities. Hill signed as a free agent with Green Bay, reuniting with Williams. Langi was signed by the New England Patriots and Tautu inked a deal with the New Orleans Saints. Fullback Algernon Brown also signed a deal with the Seattle Seahawks. Nacua signed with Cleveland and defensive back Michael Davis agreed to a contract with the Los Angeles Chargers. Kurtz was invited to minicamp with the Oakland Raiders while wideout Colby Pearson was invited to camp with the Chicago Bears but then signed with the Green Bay Packers. Lineman Andrew Eide also received minicamp invites to San Francisco and Indianapolis.

FIELD GOAL GIVES BYU 18-16 WIN IN FIRST GAME OF SITAKE ERA

GLENDALE, Ariz. – True freshman Jake Oldroyd made a game-winning 33-yard field goal to give the BYU football team an 18-16 win over Arizona in its first game under head coach Kalani Sitake Saturday night at University of Phoenix Stadium in the Cactus Kickoff.

BYU was led by senior running back Jamaal Williams, who had 29 carries for 162 yards. It was his 11th career 100-yard rushing game. Senior quarterback Tayson Hill completed 21 of 29 passes for 202 yards and a touchdown while adding 37 yards on the ground.

The Cougars (1-0) held the Wildcats (0-1) to 328 total yards and no first-half points en route to the win. It was Arizona's fewest total yards since a 55-17 loss at Stanford in 2015. BYU forced the Wildcats into two turnovers. BYU's new-look offense recorded 415 total yards, balanced with 213 rushing and 202 passing.

Sophomore linebacker Butch Pau'u led the defense with nine total tackles including seven solo, 2.5 tackles for loss, one sack and one forced fumble. Senior safety Kai Nacua had an interception and running back turned linebacker Francis Bernard recorded an interception and a sack in his defensive debut.

BYU claimed a 9-0 first-half advantage after a 24-yard field goal by Rhett Almond and a one-yard touchdown run by fullback Brayden El-Bakri in the second quarter.

More than half of the third quarter went by without either team scoring before Arizona kicker Josh Pollack hit a 46-yard field goal. That trimmed the Cougars' lead to 9-3 with 5:59 remaining in the third quarter.

Senior receiver Colby Pearson capped off the drive that Williams sparked by reeling in a 6-yard touchdown pass from Hill. A failed two-point attempt left the Cougars up 15-3 with 11:36 left in the game.

Arizona put together a pair of drives for touchdowns, finding the end zone for the first time just two minutes after BYU. A failed two-point attempt after the second touchdown had the Wildcats up 16-15 with the clock showing 1:26.

Matt Hadley returned the ensuing kickoff to the BYU 31-yard line. Hill marched the Cougars down the field to set up Oldroyd with the 33-yard attempt that went right down the middle with four seconds left to lift BYU to victory.

TURNOVERS PLAGUE BOTH TEAMS AS BYU FALLS 20-19 AT UTAH

SALT LAKE CITY – In a game that saw nine total turnovers, BYU football's comeback fell short on a failed two-point conversion to drop the game 20-19 at Utah in the Deseret First Duel on Saturday night at Rice-Eccles Stadium.

In the Cougars' final drive, Taysom Hill marched down the field with big receptions from Jonah Trinnaman, Nick Kurtz and Mitchell Juergens. With 18 seconds left, Hill rushed 7-yards for the touchdown. BYU went for two to try to secure a win, but Hill and the comeback was stopped short after Hill slipped one tackle but not the next and was dropped shy of the goal line.

Despite forcing the Utes to turn the ball over six times, the Cougars were only able to score 13 points off of turnovers. Utah managed just seven point off of three BYU interceptions.

Hill completed 21 of 39 passes for 176 yards with two interceptions. He also rushed for 87 yards to lead the Cougars and both of BYU's touchdowns. Juergens led the receiving core with eight catches for 52 yards.

On defense, Butch Pau'u led BYU in total tackles with nine, including four solo. Kai Nacua had two interceptions to go along with his two tackles before he was ejected in the third quarter on a targeting call. Francis Bernard filled out the stat sheet with eight tackles, one interception, one pass breakup and one forced fumble.

In the second quarter, after faking a handoff to Williams, Hill rushed out to the left, found space and rushed 39 yards along the sideline for the touchdown and the lead. With 4:06 left in the half, the Cougars were up 13-7 following the PAT.

Utah took back the lead with 17 seconds left in the first half after a 21-yard reception by Tim Patrick scored the touchdown. BYU was down by just one, 14-13, heading into the locker room at halftime.

Utah added two field goals to make it 20-13 before BYU's final possession with 2:47 to play.

The Cougars' final drive resulted in a touchdown, but the team's attempted two-point conversion failed. BYU fell on the road 20-19.

BYU DROPS HOME OPENER TO UCLA, 17-14

PROVO, Utah – Despite rallying late, BYU came up short in its home opener against UCLA Saturday night at LaVell Edwards Stadium, falling 17-14.

Jamaal Williams and Nick Kurtz both scored their first touchdowns of the season for the Cougars. In addition to finding the end zone, Kurtz wound up with 83 receiving yards on eight receptions. Butch Pau'u tied the BYU record (since 2000) for tackles in a single game with 19.

BYU also picked up its longest pass player earlier in the first quarter with a 39-yard pass completion from Taysom Hill to Williams. Hill finished the game completing 26 of 48 passes for 250 yards, one touchdown and one interception.

The Bruins connected on a six-yard touchdown pass from Rosen to fullback Cameron Griffin early in the second quarter and made the PAT for a 7-0 lead. A UCLA interception halfway through the second quarter led to a Bruin field goal. With 6:57 left in the half, UCLA led 10-0.

The Bruins opened the second half scoring with 7:24 remaining in the third quarter. Rosen completed a 33-yard touchdown pass to Darren Andrews, who did most of the work after the catch to cushion UCLA's lead. A successful PAT attempt put the Bruins up 17-0.

BYU responded with a touchdown on the subsequent drive. The Cougars used 10 plays for 75 yards to get into the end zone, with Williams punctuating the drive with a one-yard carry for his first touchdown of the year. After Rhett Almond's PAT, BYU trailed 17-7 with 3:07 left in the third quarter.

After BYU punted with 7:34 left in the game, the UCLA offense ate up more than five minutes before punting back to the Cougars.

Hill and BYU used a series of passes to move down the field and score a touchdown with 37 seconds left on the clock. The nine-play, 91-yard scoring drive finished with a 23-yard touchdown pass from Hill to Nick Kurtz. Another successful PAT cut the Bruins' lead to 17-14.

The Cougars were unable to recover an onside kick and UCLA melted the rest of the clock to secure the win.

BYU FALLS 35-32 TO WEST VIRGINIA

LANDOVER, Md. — In another close battle, BYU football lost to 35-32, to West Virginia at FedEx Field on Saturday despite having another chance at late-game rally.

With less than five minutes left in the game, the BYU offense had two different chances to drive down the field to take the lead. However, turnovers proved to be costly for the Cougars. An interception with over four minutes to go looked to doom any chances but West Virginia coughed it up at the goal line on a fumble to give BYU one more shot.

After driving to the Mountaineer 28-yard line, BYU went for it all with just over a minute on the clock on a long pass for the end zone and the ball was tipped up just in front of the goal line and intercepted. West Virginia was able to run out the clock to hold on to the win.

BYU (1-3) out-gained West Virginia (3-0) 521 to 481 yards, but struggled with turnovers. The Cougars had three interceptions and one lost fumble. The Mountaineers capitalized on those, scoring 14 points off of turnovers. For BYU, every game this season has been decided by three points or less, with three losses coming by a combined seven points.

Both Jamaal Williams and Taysom Hill rushed for over 100 yards. Williams totaled 169 on 24 attempts with two touchdowns. Hill completed 23 of 35 passes for 241 yards with two touchdowns and three interceptions to go with his 105 rushing yards. On the defense, Fred Warner totaled 14 tackles, nine solo. Butch Pau'u recorded his first career interception in addition to his five tackles.

WILLIAMS HAS RECORD NIGHT IN 55-53 WIN OVER TOLEDO

PROVO, Utah – Rhett Almond kicked a 19-yard field goal as time expired and Jamaal Williams had a career night to give BYU a 55-53 win over Toledo Friday night at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

Williams broke the BYU (2-3) single-game rushing record with 286 yards on the ground and had five rushing touchdowns to tie a school record. The previous single-game rushing record, held by Eldon Fortie, was set in 1962.

A Toledo (3-1) touchdown and two-point conversion with 1:11 on the game clock gave the Rockets a 53-52 lead and set up Taysom Hill. Williams and the Cougar offense up for its game-winning drive. Almond's kick went right down the middle to give BYU the win.

Both teams were knotted at 21-21 heading into halftime. The third quarter was similar to the first, as both teams scored multiple times. The Rockets connected on two touchdown passes and made a field goal. BYU found the end zone twice, as Williams rumbled for touchdowns from 48 and 62 yards out. Three quarters through, Williams had his first career game with four rushing touchdowns. The Cougars trailed 38-35 heading into the fourth quarter.

Early in the fourth quarter, Squally Canada scored his first BYU touchdown on a 17-yard rush. That gave the Cougars a 42-38 lead with 13:20 on the clock. Toledo responded with a 75-yard touchdown pass from Woodside to Cody Thompson. With 10:57 left, it put the Rockets up 45-42.

Rhett Almond squared the score at 45-45 with a 32-yard field goal for BYU with 5:21 left in the game. On the following drive, Kai Nacua intercepted a pass from Woodside returned it 20 yards to the Rocket 21-yard line.

Williams completed his fifth touchdown of the night and broke Fortie's record with three minutes left in the game. His 14-yard carry gave BYU a 52-45 lead.

That set up the Toledo drive, with Woodside connecting with Kareem Hunt for a seven-yard touchdown and Michael Roberts for the two-point conversion to make it 53-52 with just over a minute to go.

On the Cougars' final drive Hill completed a 33-yard pass to Colby Pearson and ran for 11 yards as part of eight plays and 71 yards that set up Almond's game-winner.

DOMINANT SECOND HALF PUSHES BYU TO 31-14 WIN

EAST LANSING, Mich. — Seniors Taysom Hill and Jamaal Williams led BYU football to a 31-14 win over Michigan State on the road on Saturday with a big second-half effort.

The Cougars (3-3) outgained the Spartans (2-3) 398 to 206 in total yards. The BYU defense held Michigan State to its lowest output since 187 against No. 13 Nebraska in 2011. The rushing attack churned up 260 yards on the ground, the fourth time this season with 200-plus rushing yards.

After being down 7-3 at the half, BYU scored touchdowns on its first four possessions of the second half and held the Spartans to one late score in the fourth quarter.

Taysom Hill completed 18 of 27 passes for 138 yards and one touchdown along with rushing 47 yards and one touchdown. Jamaal Williams tallied 163 rushing yards and two touchdowns in the win.

Michigan State marched down the field on its first possession. Draining the clock, the Spartans scored on an 8-yard rush with 4:10 left in the first quarter to take the early 7-0 lead.

To end the first half, the Cougars had the ball to try to get on the board. After Hill rushed 11 yards to convert on third down, Rhett Almond kicked a 35-yard field goal to make it 7-3 heading into the break.

In BYU's ensuing possession, the offense drained 7:29 from the clock as it methodically moved down the field. Colby Pearson caught a 4-yard pass from Hill for the Cougars' first touchdown. BYU took the 10-7 lead with 4:52 left in the third quarter.

Later, on 4th and 1, Hill found Quin Ficklin rolling out from being an extra blocker for a gain of 2 yards and the first down. Hill then found an opening and rushed 12 yards into the end zone to push the lead to 17-7 with 12:43 to play.

Following a fourth down conversion by Michigan State, Michael Davis picked off backup quarterback Damion Terry. Davis returned it for 40 yards to put the offense in a good position with 9:29 on the clock. Williams cashed in on the turnover, carrying the ball 8 yards for another touchdown. The Cougars' lead extended to 24-7 with eight minutes to play.

Michigan State was able to score after allowing 24-unanswered points from BYU. The Spartans capped off a 75-yard drive with a 1-yard rush to make it 24-14 with 4:59 on the clock.

After a 62-yard rush by Williams to get into the blue zone, Hill handed it off to Williams again for a 1-yard rush for his second touchdown on the day. With 1:59 to play, BYU was up 31-14, which would hold as the final score.

WILLIAMS BREAKS ALL-TIME RUSHING MARK IN 2OT WIN

PROVO, Utah – Jamaal Williams became BYU's all-time career rusher as the Cougars beat Mississippi State 28-21 in two overtimes Friday night at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

Taysom Hill rolled right and found tight end Tanner Balderree who did most of the work after catch to give BYU a 28-21 lead after the Cougars' second overtime possession. BYU linebacker Fred Warner broke up a fourth-down pass in the end zone on the Bulldogs' possession to seal BYU's win.

Williams rushed for 76 yards in the game to increase his career rushing total to 3,468 yards, which broke Harvey Unga's career mark. Unga, whose last year was in 2009, had 3,455 career rushing yards as a Cougar.

Mississippi State got on the board first with a 44-yard touchdown pass from Nick Fitzgerald to Keith Mixon. BYU responded by going on a 15-play, 75-yard drive for a touchdown. On fourth and goal from the one yardline, Hill found Hunter Marshall in the back left corner of the end zone with 48 seconds left in the quarter for a 7-7 tie.

Fitzgerald punched in a touchdown on the ground to cap off a 15-play, 75-yard touchdown drive to put Mississippi State back on top, 14-7, with 3:54 left in the first half. The two teams took that score into halftime.

After penalties by both teams, BYU capitalized, as Hill threw a laser through two defenders for a touchdown to Moroni Lauulu-Pututau, who made a diving catch between the defenders in the end zone. The PAT tied things up at 14-14 with 13:15 left to play and neither team scored at the end of regulation.

The Bulldogs started in overtime and scored a touchdown via a two-yard rushing touchdown. The Cougars trailed 21-14 as they took over on offense.

On BYU's first play, Williams carried the ball for nine yards to break Unga's record. Several plays later, Hill punched in a quarterback sneak for a touchdown. Andrew Mikkelsen made the PAT to send the game to a second overtime.

The Cougars needed just one play to score a touchdown in the second extra period with the connection between Hill and Balderree for the touchdown.

BYU kept Mississippi State from scoring on their second overtime possession. The final play was an incomplete pass with Corbin Kaufusi hurrying Fitzgerald and Warner tipping it away in the end zone.

TURNOVERS NOT ENOUGH FOR BYU TO OVERCOME NO. 14 BOISE ST.

BOISE, Idaho – Despite the defense forcing five turnovers, BYU football's comeback effort fell short 28-27 at No. 14 Boise State on Thursday night.

In the final drive of the game, BYU attempted a 44-yard field goal for the win but Rhett Almond's attempt on second down was blocked. The Cougars recovered the block and had a chance at a Hail Mary but couldn't complete it.

The Cougar defense forced five turnovers, including two pick-sixes in the contest, but the offense was able to score just three points when the possession was returned to them. Boise State had 571 total yards to BYU's 322.

Fred Warner and Dayan Lake each recorded an interception for a touchdown. Warner filled out the stat sheet with seven total tackles and a forced fumble to go along with the interception.

Hill completed 21 of 41 passes for 187 yards. He also rushed for 48 yards and a touchdown. Sophomore running back Squally Canada rushed a career-high 88 yards on 21 carries. Nine different BYU receivers caught a pass in the game, led by Mitchell Juergens' four catches for 57 yards.

Trailing 14-3, Fred Warner picked off the Broncos' quarterback Brett Rypien, returning it 59 yards for a pick-six, the first of the season for the Cougars. With 14:22 to play until the half, BYU made it a four-point game, 14-10.

BYU's defense came up with another big play with less than five minutes to go in the half. Off a tipped pass, Lake snagged it and returned a second interception 50 yards for a touchdown, making it 17-14, BYU.

With 35 seconds until the break, the Broncos scored on a 36-yard pass to head into the locker room back on top, 21-17.

In the fourth, Hill found Juergens for a 33-yard diving catch just short of the end zone. The 1-yard rushing touchdown from Hill put the Cougars up 24-21 with 6:55 on the clock.

In the following series, the Broncos fumbled the ball again. Fred Warner forced the ball loose and Troy Warner recovered it, bringing the offense back out to start the fourth quarter. The Cougars were held to just a field goal, a 37-yarder from Almond, allowing Boise State to comeback with a score and hold on 28-27.

DEFENSE LEADS BYU TO 20-3 WIN AT CINCINNATI

CINCINNATI – BYU football took down Cincinnati 20-3 on the road on Saturday with a stout defensive effort and a strong run game.

BYU outgained Cincinnati 338 to 286. The Cougars were successful on third down in the game, converting 10 of 16 attempts and holding the Bearcats to just 4 of 13 on third down and 0 for 2 on fourth.

The Cougar defense held Cincinnati without a touchdown, marking the first time BYU has kept an opponent out of the end zone since 2014 against Savannah State and first FBS opponent since SDSU in the 2012 Poinsettia Bowl. It was the fewest points the Bearcats have scored since a 10-3 loss to Rutgers in 2012.

Taysom Hill led the offense, completing 15 of 25 passes for 130 yards and one interception along with rushing 75 yards for a touchdown. Jamaal Williams had 25 carries for 92 yards while Squally Canada spelled him with nine carries, 41 yards and one touchdown.

On defense, Francis Bernard led the team with nine total tackles along with one pass breakup. Corbin Kaufusi had notched three tackles and one sack while Troy Warner logged three pass breakups in the first half.

After giving up a field goal on Cincinnati's first possession, BYU kicked a 28-yard field goal to tie the game 3-3 with 38 seconds left in the first quarter.

To spark the team, Hill threw 43-yard flea flicker to Jonah Trinnaman, setting up a touchdown. Hill rushed 8 yards into the end zone for the first touchdown of the game, taking the 10-3 lead heading into the break.

Williams rushed 13 yards to get just short of the end zone, setting up the score. Canada punched in that last yard for his second touchdown of the year, pushing BYU's lead to 17-3 with 8:26 left in the third quarter.

Draining 9:41 off the clock in the fourth quarter, the Cougars took their time marching down the field on their final scoring drive Williams converted on fourth down with a 2-yard rush. But on the second fourth down BYU faced, the team settled for a 19-yard field goal, pushing the lead to 20-3 with just 1:39 left in the game.

BYU GETS BOWL ELIGIBLE WITH 37-7 WIN OVER SOUTHERN UTAH

PROVO, Utah – BYU beat Southern Utah 37-7 on Saturday at LaVell Edwards Stadium to become bowl eligible for a 12th-consecutive season.

The Cougars tallied 596 total yards, 441 of which were through the air.

Taysom Hill played for most of the first three quarters, and passed for 320 yards and two touchdowns while rushing for 59 yards and another trip to the end zone.

Tanner Mangum played several series behind center, and threw for 121 yards with 42 rushing yards. Freshman running back KJ Hall rushed for 59 yards and a touchdown, with 68 receiving yards.

BYU used just two plays on its first drive to find the end zone. After forcing a turnover on downs on the Southern Utah 47 yardline, Hill connected with Mitchell Juergens for a 31-yard pass and followed it up with a 16-yard touchdown run for a 7-0 lead.

As the first quarter neared its end, Hill hooked up with Nick Kurtz for a 31-yard touchdown pass. The Cougars held a 14-0 lead as the first quarter ended.

About five minutes into the second quarter, BYU drove 29 yards before Rhett Almond made a 28-yard field goal to put the Cougars up 17-0.

With 3:56 left in the first half, Hill connected with Colby Pearson on a 21-yard touchdown pass. That punctuated a seven-play, 62-yard drive to put BYU up 24-0 after Almond's PAT.

The Thunderbirds got on the board with 2:02 left in the first half, via a 17-yard touchdown pass from Patrick Tyler to Logan Parker. The ensuing PAT cut the Cougars' lead to 24-7.

Hall scored his first BYU touchdown 46 seconds before halftime, finishing a six-play, 82 yard drive with a two-yard run. BYU increased its advantage to 31-7 going into halftime.

Almond hit a pair of field goals to finish off the scoring in a 37-7 victory.

SECOND-HALF SURGE HELPS BYU DEFEAT UMASS

PROVO, Utah – Behind a strong rushing attack and second half takeaways on defense and special teams, BYU defeated Massachusetts 51-9 on Saturday at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

The Cougars were dominant on the ground, rushing for 247 yards and amassing 437 yards of total offense, while holding the Minutemen to just 40 rushing yards on 20 attempts.

KJ Hall rushed for 101 yards on 18 carries and senior Harvey Langi gained 56 yards on 14 carries on his first game on offense this season. Senior quarterback Taysom Hill passed for 165 yards and rushed for 81 yards and a touchdown on 13 carries.

On the defensive side of the ball, sophomore Francis Bernard recorded seven tackles and returned an interception for a touchdown.

BYU's special teams forced two fumbles with Hiva Lee and Eric Takenaka each recovering fumbles to set up BYU scores.

Despite falling behind early in the first half, the Cougars scored 44 unanswered points and dominated in the second half thanks to four turnovers and a blocked punt.

BYU led 20-9 after two field goals in the second half. Then the Cougars opened up the game with four straight touchdowns including a pair in the third quarter and another pair in the fourth to make it 48-9 with just over five minutes remaining.

The following kickoff after BYU's last touchdown bounced off the hands of the UMass returner and Lee recovered the ball on the UMass 8-yard line. Almond added a 21-yard field goal with 3:05 remaining in the game and BYU held on to win by a final score of 51-9.

COUGARS TOP UTAH STATE 28-10 TO END REGULAR-SEASON PLAY

PROVO, Utah – BYU beat Utah State 28-10 Saturday night at LaVell Edwards Stadium in the regular-season finale, claiming the Old Wagon Wheel for the second-consecutive season.

The Cougars (8-4) collected 355 total yards in the game, including 249 rushing yards, while holding Utah State (3-9) to a season-low 200 total yards.

Taysom Hill went 10 for 21 with 101 yards and a touchdown and Jamaal Williams had 131 rushing yards on 18 attempts, averaging 7.3 yards per carry. Fred Warner and Francis Bernard anchored the defense with six total tackles each and Michael Shelton returned a fumble 52-yards for a score.

Utah State marched down the field on the first drive of the game, getting on the board with a 28-yard field goal, capping off the 12 play, 64 yard drive.

Hill completed a 35-yard pass to Nick Kurtz on BYU's next drive to set his team up at the Utah State 28-yard line. A 2-yard touchdown run from Williams then helped give BYU a 7-3 lead early in the second quarter.

With just under three minutes left in the half, the Aggies went for it on 4th-and-1, converting before Logan Taelle forced a fumble. Shelton quickly recovered the turnover, running 52 yards to score the defensive touchdown and give the Cougars a 14-3 advantage.

Near the end of the second quarter, the Aggies' Jalen Davis picked off Hill, returning the ball 37 yards to the BYU 6-yard line. Two plays later, Utah State scored a 2-yard rushing touchdown to get back within four, trailing 14-10 at halftime.

Hill threw a 10-yard strike to Mitchell Juergens in the end zone with 2:19 left in the third quarter. The Cougars led 21-10 following the Rhett Almond PAT.

Warner picked off the Aggies' quarterback at the Utah State 40 to set up BYU's ensuing touchdown drive. After an injured Hill left the game, Mangum threw a five-yard touchdown pass to Colby Pearson to increase the BYU lead at 28-10 with 12:55 left in the game.

Neither team scored in the remaining time as the Cougars ran out the clock to end the game 28-10.

BYU HOLDS OFF WYOMING FOR 24-21 POINSETTIA BOWL WIN

The Cougar ground game and defense stay strong in tough weather conditions for Kalani Sitake's first bowl in as a head coach

SAN DIEGO – On a rare wet and rainy night at Qualcomm Stadium, BYU capped off its 2016 season with a wild 24-21 win over Wyoming in the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl on Wednesday.

BYU (9-4) led 24-7 in the fourth quarter, but a furious Cowboy (8-6) comeback made it a thriller in the final minutes. Wyoming cut the advantage to 24-21 and had the ball at the Cougar 32-yard line with 1:22 to play before senior Kai Nacua picked off a pass heading near the end zone to end the final threat of a comeback.

The win was BYU's first bowl win since its last trip to the Poinsettia Bowl in 2012 when the Cougars defeated San Diego State 23-6.

Senior running back Jamaal Williams put on a show in his final game at BYU, running for 210 yards and one touchdown on 26 carries. He finished his career with the most rushing yards in school history with 3,901 and the most games of 100 rushing yards or more with 16.

Nacua's interception was his sixth of the year and 14th of his career. Dayan Lake also had a takeaway, giving BYU 21 interceptions in 2016, tied for No. 2 nationally after the game. Harvey Langi led the team with 16 tackles, a career high, while Butch Pau'u and Fred Warner had 11 and 10 tackles, respectively.

Wyoming's punter fumbled the snap near the end of the first quarter at the Cowboy 3-yard line. Quarterback Tanner Mangum scrambled and punched it in for a rushing score to put BYU up 7-0 with 38 seconds to play after a slow and soggy first quarter.

Mangum threw an interception on the next Cougar possession and Wyoming ran it back to the BYU 39-yard line. The Cougar defense forced a field goal attempt and a fake was snuffed out as Langi batted down a pass attempt. BYU took over at its own 25-yard line midway through the second frame.

BYU was able to get three points on the next possession at the 3:08 mark in the second quarter with a 27-yard field goal from Rhett Almond. The Cougars took a 10-0 lead into halftime.

Out of the break, Wyoming went 60 yards on its first drive, capped by a 4-yard touchdown run to cut BYU's lead to 10-7 after a drive over eight minutes long.

BYU answered in its first possession of the half. Mangum completed 4 of 5 passes on the drive, capped off with a completion on a desperation throw on to the end zone that bounced off of multiple players' hands before falling into Tanner Balderree's arms for a 5-yard touchdown. Nick Kurtz had a 39-yard reception to set up the score. With 2:42 left in the third quarter, BYU had a 17-7 lead.

On the first play following a targeting call that ejected defensive back Micah Hannemann near the end of the third quarter, Lake stepped in front of a pass and intercepted it for his third pick of the year, returning it 14 yards to the BYU 45-yard line. The Cougars cashed in five plays later when a Jonah Trinnaman block helped spring Williams for a 36-yard touchdown scamper to make it 24-7 less than a minute into the fourth quarter.

The back and forth scoring continued when Wyoming made it 24-14 after a 9-yard touchdown pass with 7:35 left in the game.

The Cowboys continued to fight with another touchdown from Wyoming wide receiver Tanner Gentry (his second of the game) with 2:11 to go to make things interesting at 24-21.

BYU failed to convert on the next drive and had to punt it back to Wyoming with 1:52 remaining. The Cowboys took over at midfield. After getting to the 32-yard line, Wyoming's quarterback tried to extend the play and threw across his body for the end zone, but Nacua jumped in front and picked it off to seal BYU's victory.

BYU finished the season 9-4 with a bowl victory in head coach Kalani Sitake's first season at the helm.

BYU: THE PAST 40 SEASONS

NO.5

IN TOTAL WINS OVER
LAST 40 YEARS

BYU ranks No. 5 in total wins among all FBS programs over the past 40 seasons with 357 victories. (1977-2016)

- | | |

| 6. Georgia | 351 |
| 7. Michigan | 350 |

BYU football is No. 5 in total wins over the past 40 years stretching from 1977 through 2016. The outstanding tradition was built upon the consistent and collective effort of former players and coaches every year. Excellent team and individual performances have provided the trajectory for rich tradition with the Cougars amassing a 357-149-2 (.705) record over the past 40 seasons along with 20 conference titles, 33 bowl invitations, 14 bowl wins and 31 8-win seasons including 16 seasons of at least 10 wins. In that time frame, BYU football finished the season 18 times ranked in the top 25 with 54 victories over current Power 5 opponents.

Marc Wilson stepped in at quarterback after Gifford Nielsen went down with injury in 1977. The duo led BYU to a 9-2 season and tied for the WAC championship.

Down 20 points in the with four minutes remaining to SMU in the 1980 Holiday Bowl, BYU rallied to score three times with a touchdown pass, recovered on onside kick and scored again then blocked a punt with 13 seconds to go. Jim McMahon launched a Hail Mary 41 yards as time expired and Clay Brown came up with it despite having four Mustangs piled on top. Kurt Gunther kicked the extra point and BYU won 46-45 in one of the greatest college football comebacks of all time.

The Cougars won the 1984 National Championship, finishing the major polls ranked No. 1 after going a perfect 13-0. BYU defeated No. 3 Pitt on the road to open the season and took down Michigan in the Holiday Bowl to cap off the undefeated season.

BYU pumped out quarterbacks like a factory year after year after year. From 1976-1984, BYU produced a string of quarterbacks the likes of Gifford Nielsen, Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon, Steve Young and Robbie Bosco. All of them earned All-America honors.

Hosting the defending national champs, the No. 1 Miami Hurricanes in the first home game in Provo of the 1990 season, BYU and Ty Detmer took down the champs, 28-21 in one of the most electrifying games ever in Provo. Detmer threw for 406 yards and three touchdowns.

Detmer had one of the greatest seasons ever by a college quarterback in 1990. He threw for 5,188 yards and 41 touchdowns. He set 42 NCAA records and tied five more and won the Heisman Trophy. Detmer also won the Maxwell Award that year, in addition to the Davey O'Brien Award in 1990 and 1991. He also won the Sammy Baugh Trophy in 1991.

The 1996 team is regarded as one of the most talented in BYU history and went on to win an NCAA-record 14 games. The Cougars won a WAC Championship game over nationally ranked Wyoming and went on to play No. 14 Kansas State in the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day. BYU beat the Wildcats 19-15 in another terrific postseason game in the Cougars storied history and propelled the team to a No. 5 final ranking.

Following Hall of Fame head coach LaVell Edwards retirement in 2000, new head coach Gary Crowton continued the tradition in 2001 with an offensive juggernaut of a squad that went 12-2 and led the NCAA with 542.9 yards per game of total offense and 46.8 points per game. Running back Luke Staley won the Doak Walker award and led the NCAA in yards per carry (8.1) and in scoring with 28 total touchdowns.

Bronco Mendenhall restored not just the traditional look of BYU football, but also brought back much of its winning tradition. Mendenhall's teams went 99-43 in his 11 seasons, reaching a bowl game each year and were ranked nationally in 9 of 11 years.

Beloved head coach, LaVell Edwards, passed away at the age of 86, at home surrounded by his family on Dec. 29, 2016. He was able to see one more victory on Dec. 21 as BYU beat Wyoming 24-21 in the Poinsettia Bowl.

Kalani Sitake was hired as the head coach following the 2015 season. He was one of just four first-time FBS head coaches to finish 2016 with a winning record at 9-4.

In 2010, BYU announced a move to football independence and left the Mountain West. In six seasons, BYU has played a national schedule and gone 52-26.

The Cougars were named No. 1 by the Associated Press, the United Press International, Sports Illustrated, CNN-USA Today and the Football Writers of America after finishing the season with a perfect 13-0 record. LaVell Edwards was selected as the NCAA National Coach of the Year and was invited to visit President Ronald Reagan at the White House.

The season featured several game-saving plays as the Cougars moved their way up the rankings. Quarterback Robbie Bosco connected with wide receiver Adam Haysbert for a 50-yard touchdown pass with 1:37 left to play to take the lead in the season-opening win at No. 3 Pittsburgh.

Safety Kyle Morrell's timed leap over the center to stop a quarterback sneak short of the goal line gave BYU the momentum they needed to foil Hawaii's upset attempt. Tight end David Mills was poked in the eye, but came through with a leaping grab in the end zone to help BYU overcome Wyoming 41-38 in the homecoming game.

The Cougars ascended to the No. 1 spot on Nov. 17 following a 24-14 victory at Utah combined with a Nebraska loss to Oklahoma and a Navy upset over unbeaten and then No. 2 South Carolina. The Cougars maintained their No. 1 ranking heading into the bowl game after defeating Utah State 38-13 in the final contest of the regular season.

With a TV blimp in the sky over Jack Murphy Stadium, Bosco left the Holiday Bowl in the first quarter with an ankle injury, but returned late in the second taped up and played in the shotgun to finish the game. BYU trailed 17-10 after Michigan hit a field goal to begin the fourth quarter. The Cougars then took over the game, Bosco completed seven pass attempts to five different receivers and hit wide receiver Glen Kozlowski between two Michigan defenders for the game-tying touchdown.

Michigan threatened to score again, but linebacker Kurt Gouveia sacked the Wolverine quarterback for a 16-yard loss to force a punt. BYU moved the ball 70 yards to the Michigan 13-yard line when Bosco scrambled up the middle, keeping his eyes down field, and drilled the ball into running back Kelly Smith for the game-winning touchdown.

Controversy was abundant as many of the so-called experts such as NBC announcer Bryant Gumbell and Oklahoma head coach Barry Switzer accused BYU of playing a "Bo-Diddley Tech" schedule. However, at the end of the season BYU was the only team unscathed with a loss.

REMEMBERING COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME HEAD COACH LAVELL EDWARDS

257 CAREER VICTORIES • 19 CONFERENCE TITLES • 1 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

October 11, 1930 - December 29, 2016

Legendary BYU head football coach LaVell Edwards passed away Dec. 29, 2016 at the age of 86 surrounded by his wife Patti and his family.

Edwards, a coaching icon in college football, led the Cougars for 29 seasons from 1972 to 2000. He amassed 257 victories, which ranks seventh in NCAA Division I history. In addition, Edwards led BYU to the 1984 National Championship and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

"I love LaVell Edwards. He came into my life, and the life of many others, at just the right time," BYU director of athletics Tom Holmoe said. "I had the influence of a great coach, a wonderful person, a disciple of Christ, a loyal family man and a true friend, from the day I met him until the day he passed away. LaVell had a pure heart. He was the dream coach of every parent. His example will forever be with me and I will strive to live a life of love as he always did."

Known for his stoic sideline demeanor and quick-witted humor, Edwards was once labeled by USA Today as a "national coaching treasure." Beloved not only in coaching circles and all of Cougar Nation, but especially by the many hundreds of players under his tutelage, including current head coach Kalani Sitake who was a fullback and team captain for the Cougars.

In 1972, Edwards assumed command of a BYU program that had won just 173 games over 49 seasons, including just 14 winning seasons. The Cougars had never been to a bowl game and had just one conference championship prior to Edwards' promotion to head coach.

Undaunted by the formidable rebuilding task that lay ahead, Edwards wasted little time in transforming BYU into a national power, pioneering an aggressive and innovative passing attack that led BYU to conference titles in 19 of 29 seasons and an overall record of 257-101-3.

In his first season as the head coach, he gave BYU fans a glimpse of the future. Edwards led the Cougars to a 7-4 overall record, including a 16-7 win over in-state rival Utah. Just two seasons later, Edwards had the team rolling. The Cougars won the WAC Championship after a 48-20 victory over the Utes and accepted an invitation to the Fiesta Bowl -- the team's first-ever bowl appearance, starting a run of 22 bowls in 29 years. The 1974 season turned out to be the first of 27 straight non-losing seasons.

After recording an 11-1 record in 1979, a 12-1 record in 1980 another 11-win season in 1981, eight more wins in '82, and 11 additional wins in 1983, Edwards led BYU to a perfect 13-0 season in 1984. Following a 24-17 win over Michigan in the Holiday Bowl, the Cougars were crowned national champions. Not surprisingly, Edwards was named the National Coach of the Year for the second time in his career.

1972
Named BYU football head coach. BYU went 7-4 in his inaugural season and Pete Van Valkenburg won the NCAA rushing title

1974
BYU wins first Western Athletic Conference championship under Edwards with a 7-4-1 overall record, earning first bowl berth in school history (Fiesta Bowl). Quarterback Gary Sheide wins Sammy Baugh Trophy (First of 7 BYU winners)

1977
BYU leads the nation in passing yards for the second consecutive year (341.6 ypg). Marc Wilson quarterback team to second-consecutive 9-win season.

1979
BYU wins 11 games, reaching double digits for the first time in school history and Edwards named Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year. Marc Wilson named BYU's first Consensus All-American quarterback and wins Sammy Baugh Trophy.

1981
Jim McMahon named Consensus All-American and wins the Sammy Baugh and Davey O'Brien Awards and quarterbackbacks BYU to 11-2 season, winning back-to-back bowl games with a win over Washington State. Edwards coaches the West to a victory in the Hula Bowl

1962
Hired by BYU head football coach Hal Mitchell to coach the defensive line, eventually promoted to defensive coordinator

1973
Went 5-6 in second season, BYU's only losing season in his 29-year tenure

1976
BYU wins 9 games, most in school history to date. QB Gifford Nielson named First Team All-American and BYU leads nation in passing offense for first time (307.8 ypg)

1978
Edwards earns doctorate in education from BYU. The Cougars played in their first Holiday Bowl, starting a span of 17 consecutive bowl appearances.

1980
BYU wins first bowl game, nicknamed the "Miracle Bowl" after coming back to beat SMU 46-45 after Jim McMahon completed a Hal Mary to Clay Brown to cap the 21-point four-minute comeback and a 12-1 season.

1983
After losing first game, BYU wins 11 straight and finishes season ranked No. 7 in the polls, the best finish to date in school history. Edwards wins 100th game (SDSU). Steve Young named Consensus All-American and wins Sammy Baugh, Davey O'Brien and finishes second in Heisman voting.

Under his direction, BYU recorded 10 straight WAC championships from 1976 through 1985. The Cougars also played in 17 consecutive bowl games from 1978 until 1994.

On New Year's Day in 1997, BYU set an NCAA record with 14 victories after winning the Cotton Bowl to cap the 1996 season in a thrilling 19-15 victory over No. 14 Kansas State. BYU finished ranked No. 5 nationally – its highest finish since the 1984 title.

The Cougars won 18 WAC championships under Edwards and the inaugural Mountain West Conference title in 1999.

Edwards announced his retirement prior to the 2000 season but BYU would honor him by renaming Cougar Stadium to LaVell Edwards Stadium prior to the final home game of the year on Nov. 18. A banner bearing the new name was unveiled in a pre-game ceremony conducted by President Gordon B. Hinckley, president of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

A week later BYU sent Edwards into retirement with one more magical moment. Trailing Utah 27-26 in Salt Lake City with 23 seconds left, quarterback Brandon Doman kept it and ran up the right side for a 7-yard touchdown to send Edwards out a winner in his final game. Edwards was carried off the field by his players in a touching moment to end his Cougar career.

Edwards coached one Heisman Trophy winner, two Outland Trophy recipients, four Davey O'Brien awardees, seven Sammy Baugh Trophy Winners, 31 All-Americans and four College Football Hall of Famers. BYU's success didn't come without personal reward for Edwards either. He was named NCAA District 8 Coach of the Year eight times, Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year in 1979 and AFCA National Coach of the Year in 1984.

Following his coaching career, Edwards continued his life of service with a full-time LDS mission with his wife Patti to New York City from 2002-2003. He also served on several committees and boards for various college football awards and governing bodies since his retirement.

The eighth of 14 children, Edwards graduated from Lincoln High School in Orem. He attended Utah State University, where he was an all-conference lineman before serving a two-year commitment in the Army. He and his wife Patti recently celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary. The Edwards have three children, Ann [Cannon], John and Jim.

1985 Bosco led the Cougars to another 11-win season and won the National Championship. BYU finished No. 16 in the AP poll and Bosco was a third-round NFL draft pick.	1989 BYU wins WAC for the first time in three years behind the arm of sophomore Ty Detmer. Detmer throws for 4,560 yards, the third 4,000-yard season for a BYU quarterback under Edwards (McMahon '80, Bosco '84). Offensive lineman Mo Elewonibi wins Outland Trophy.	1994 Edwards and BYU defeat New Mexico 49-47 for his 200th victory. BYU also defeated Notre Dame during the regular season and Oklahoma in the postseason.	2000 Prior to the 2000 season, Edwards announces it will be his last. BYU finishes just 6-6 and does not get invited to a bowl game for just the fifth time in his 29 year career as head coach. In a ceremony following BYU's last regular season game at home, President Gordon B. Hinckley of the LDS Church officially renamed Cougar Stadium LaVell Edwards Stadium. The Cougars went on to defeat Utah in dramatic fashion to close the regular season on the road with a 34-27, last-minute victory for his 257th win (No. 6 all-time). Edwards is carried off the field.	2016 On Dec. 29, surrounded by his wife Patti and his family, LaVell Edwards passed away at his home in Provo at the age of 86. Hundreds of former players and coaches reunited at the stadium bearing LaVell's name following the memorial service to honor and remember their coach.

1984 BYU goes 13-0 and wins the National Championship. Edwards earns Kodak Coach of the Year. Quarterback Robbie Bosco wins Sammy Baugh. Five total players, including Bosco are named to All-American teams.	1986 Edwards passes Arizona State's Frank Kush as the winningest coach in WAC history. Defensive lineman Jason Buck wins the Outland Trophy.	1990 Ty Detmer leads BYU to 28-21 win against No. 1 ranked Miami in Provo. Detmer wins the Heisman Trophy. BYU's only Heisman winner with 5,188 yards and 41 touchdowns.	1996 BYU sets an NCAA record with 14 victories, going 14-1 and defeating No. 14 Kansas State in the Cotton Bowl - BYU's only New Year's Day bowl in school history. Team finishes ranked No. 5 in the polls. QB Steve Sarkisian wins Sammy Baugh and Davey O'Brien Awards.	2004 Edwards is inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. BYU claimed 20 of 29 regular-season conference titles under Edwards and led BYU to 22 bowl games. A two-time national Coach of the Year winner, Edwards coached one national championship team and 32 All-Americans.

BYU QUARTERBACK ALL-AMERICA SELECTIONS

Since the days of Virgil Carter and Gary Sheide in the 1960s and early 1970s, BYU has produced an assembly line of outstanding quarterbacks in Provo that have earned unprecedented success in the market of college and professional football. Eleven BYU quarterbacks have earned at least an honorable mention All-America citation or Academic All-America honors.

Volumes have been written about BYU's passing game and great quarterback tradition. BYU quarterbacks have owned the NCAA record books and have won the Sammy Baugh trophy seven times and the Davey O'Brien four times. BYU's quarterback factory has also produced a Heisman Trophy winner in Ty Detmer and many other Heisman Trophy candidates.

Quarterbacks Gifford Nielsen, Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon, Steve Young and Ty Detmer have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

On seven different occasions, BYU quarterbacks have finished as the NCAA total offense leaders. Three of the top-15 career passing efficiency leaders are from BYU. In the 29 years LaVell Edwards coached at BYU, the Cougars led the nation in passing eight times and finished in the top five 17 times.

When Edwards was named head coach at BYU in 1972, he realized he couldn't compete initially with the big schools for the big-time athletes. So he installed a passing attack that would change the future of college football.

The offense worked, and the Cougars began passing the competition. BYU became one of the first universities to use the forward pass consistently and effectively in a time when throwing the football was a mere alternative to running the ball.

The pass has been good to BYU. Prior to Edwards, the program had won a total of 171 games and had only 16 winning seasons since 1922. Since 1972, BYU is No. 8 in total wins with 382. BYU has won or tied for a conference championship 23 times, played in 34 bowl games and won the national championship in 1984.

VIRGIL CARTER

Provo, Utah (1964-66)

Carter led the NCAA in touchdown passes and total offense in 1966. He set an NCAA record in 1966 with 599 yards of total offense at UTEP. He was an Academic All-American and finished 11th in the 1966 Heisman voting.

GARY SHEIDE

Provo, Utah (1964-66)

Sheide won the Sammy Baugh trophy in 1974 and was second in the NCAA in passing in both 1973 and 1974. He was the 1974 WAC Offensive Player of the Year and finished eighth in the 1974 Heisman ballot while earning All-American Honorable Mention from UPI.

GIFFORD NIELSEN

Provo, Utah (1975-77)

A First Team All-American in 1976, Nielsen led the NCAA in TD passes and passing yards and was second in total offense in 1976. He finished sixth in the 1976 Heisman voting and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1994.

MARC WILSON

Provo, Utah (1975-77)

Wilson won the Sammy Baugh in 1979 along with being named a Consensus All-American and third in the Heisman Trophy vote. He led the nation in total offense and set 19 NCAA records in his career. He was a first-round draft pick of the Oakland Raiders (15th overall) and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1996.

JIM MCMAHON

Provo, Utah (1975-77)

McMahon won the Davey O'Brien, Sammy Baugh and was named a Consensus All-American in 1981. He set 75 NCAA records in his career and led the NCAA in total offense passing in both 1980 and 1981. McMahon finished third (1981) and fifth (1980) in the Heisman voting. He went on to be a first round pick of the Chicago Bears in 1982 and quarterbacked them to a Super Bowl win in 1986 and got another ring with Green Bay in 1996 as a backup, playing in the NFL for 16 years. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1998.

STEVE YOUNG

Provo, Utah (1975-77)

Young also won both the Davey O'Brien and the Sammy Baugh in 1983 along with earning Consensus All-American status. He led the NCAA in total offense, passing and pass efficiency in 1983 and was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy. He set 15 NCAA records in his career. Young played 14 years in the NFL and won the NFL MVP in both 1992 and 1994. He set the NFL single-season passer rating record with 112.8 in 1994 and won a Super Bowl with San Francisco the same year, earning MVP honors with six touchdown passes in the game. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001.

ROBBIE BOSCO

Bosco led the Cougars to the 1984 National Championship and won the Sammy Baugh Trophy that season. He was a second-team All-American and runner-up for the Davey O'Brien while finishing third for the Heisman in both 1984 and 1985. He led the NCAA in total offense in 1984 and was drafted by Green Bay 1985. He has since coached at BYU and currently serves in an administrative role in the athletic department.

TY DETMER

Detmer won the Heisman Trophy in 1990 and is a two-time Davey O'Brien winner and Maxwell Award recipient. He set 63 NCAA records and was a two-time Consensus All-American. He is BYU's career leader with 15,031 passing yards and ranks No. 5 in NCAA history. He led the NCAA in passing yards in 1990 and total offense in 1991. He played 14 years in the NFL and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2012. He recently returned to BYU as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

STEVE SARKISIAN

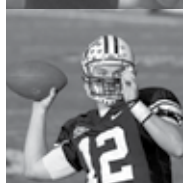

In two seasons at BYU, Sarkisian won the Sammy Baugh Trophy, earned second team All-American honors and led the nation in passing efficiency in 1996. He was named the 1996 WAC Offensive Player of the Year and led BYU to an NCAA-record 14 victories in 1996, including a win in the Cotton Bowl over Kansas State. He has been a head coach at Washington and USC.

JOHN BECK

Beck was named a second team All-American in 2006 and was named the MWC Offensive Player of the Year. He was a finalist for the Johnny Unitas award and semi-finalist for the Davey O'Brien. His 11,021 career passing yards ranks No. 3 at BYU. He was drafted in the second round of the 2007 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins and played six years in the NFL.

MAX HALL

Hall won more games at BYU than any other starting quarterback, with 32 victories. He was a two-time honorable mention All-American and a three-time All-MWC player. He is second in BYU history in passing yards, touchdowns, completions and total offense in his three seasons. He played in six games for the Arizona Cardinals in 2010 after signing as a free agent. He won his first career NFL start.

3,000 PASSING YARDS

Passing for 3,000 yards has been a benchmark in college football since BYU was one of the early pioneers engineering an effective air attack. Since 1976, 13 different individual BYU quarterbacks have accomplished the feat 23 times. As a team, BYU has passed for at least 3,000 yards in 33 of the past 40 seasons, including 14 seasons with at least 4,000 yards and one season in 1990 with over 5,000 yards.

BYU AND THE HEISMAN TROPHY

1990 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER TY DETMER

On December 1, 1990, Ty Detmer and his teammates gathered pool-side at the Princess Kaiulani Hotel just hours prior to kickoff with Hawai'i. Via satellite hookup with national TV, Detmer and the BYU faithful waited patiently and listened as Downtown Athletic Club President C. Peter Lambos announced, "Ty Detmer, Ty Detmer of BYU," — soon Ty was doused in the pool.

Detmer, a junior, became the first collegian from the Rockies to win the Heisman Trophy. Named in honor of John Heisman, the coveted 25-pound honor has been awarded annually to the outstanding college football player of the year since 1935.

A 28-21 upset over No. 1-ranked Miami in Provo vaulted Detmer to the forefront in the Heisman race his junior season. Combined with a massive public relations "necktie" campaign for Ty, the 6-foot, 175-pound, gunslinger from San Antonio, Texas, guided BYU to a Holiday Bowl berth that season and a 10-3 record with 41 touchdowns and 5,188 yards passing.

Detmer polled 1,482 points to beat out Notre Dame's Raghib "Rocket" Ismail at 1,177 and finished first in all six regions. Detmer finished third in the Heisman balloting in 1991.

"Winning the Heisman was a great honor," said Detmer. "There have been a lot of great players, like my teammates and previous BYU quarterbacks, that contributed to it. They opened the door. It shows the strength of the program at BYU."

Detmer's portrait hangs alongside other recipients on the third floor of the DAC of New York City. A duplicate portrait of Detmer also hangs on display in the Cougar Room of LaVell Edwards Stadium. The trophy is on display in the lobby of Legacy Hall, located in the Student Athlete Building.

7 SAMMY BAUGH WINNERS

The Sammy Baugh Trophy is awarded to the nation's top passer by the Touchdown Club of Columbus each year since 1959. The award is named after College and Pro Football Hall of Famer Samuel "Slingin' Sammy" Baugh. He was a two-time All-American at TCU and went on to play with the Washington Redskins from 1937-1952. He was a six-time All-Pro selection and NFL Player of the Year in 1947 and 1948. Baugh is credited for making the forward pass an integral part of offensive play in the NFL.

BYU has produced a record seven Sammy Baugh winners including Gary Sheide, Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon, Steve Young, Robbie Bosco, Ty Detmer and Steve Sarkisian. No other school has more than four winners.

THE DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD

In 1981, the Davey O'Brien Educational and Charitable Trust of Fort Worth, Texas, named Jim McMahon the first recipient of the annual Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award — honoring the nation's best quarterback, after previously honoring any position player beginning in 1977. BYU quarterbacks have won the Davey O'Brien Award four times — more than any other school. In addition to winners McMahon (1981), Steve Young (1983) and Ty Detmer (1990 & '91), Robbie Bosco finished runner-up in 1984 and Steve Sarkisian finished third in 1996.

1981 JIM MCMAHON

Jim McMahon won the Davey O'Brien Award in its first year as a quarterback-specific award. McMahon's senior season in 1981 capped of his historic career with another 3,555 yards and 30 touchdown passes. He was named to five All-America teams and was the WAC Player of the Year after leading BYU to a WAC Championship.

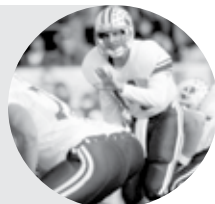

1983 STEVE YOUNG

Steve Young put together a senior season of 3,902 passing yards, 33 touchdowns to go along with a running attack of 444 yards and another eight scores. He led BYU to an 11-1 record, winning another WAC title and leading the Cougars to a 21-17 win in the Holiday Bowl over Missouri after catching the game-winning touchdown on a halfback pass.

1990 TY DETMER

Ty Detmer's 1990 season was one of the best by a quarterback in not just BYU history, but in all of college football. He threw for 5,188 yards and 41 touchdowns in 12 regular season games while setting 42 NCAA records and tying five more. Detmer's Davey O'Brien was added to his hardware collection in 1990 consisting of the Maxwell Award and Heisman Trophy.

1991 TY DETMER

Detmer followed up his historic junior campaign with another stellar season as a senior. He threw for 4,031 yards and 35 touchdowns en route to another Davey O'Brien Award and the Sammy Baugh Trophy. He finished third in the Heisman voting and was named a consensus All-American for the second consecutive year. The Cougars also clinched a third-straight WAC title behind Detmer's arm.

Each year the Maxwell Football Club presents the Maxwell Award for the College Player of the Year. Dating back to 1937, this award is presented in honor of Robert W. (Tiny) Maxwell, legendary college player, official and sports columnist. Voters for the Maxwell College Awards are NCAA Head College Football Coaches, members of the Maxwell Football Club & sportswriters and sportscasters from across the country. Quarterback Ty Detmer took home the Maxwell Award as college football's best player in 1990. Detmer won the Heisman and Davey O'Brien the same year. The Maxwell Award voting - by college coaches, the media and members of the Maxwell Football Club - had the same order of finish as the Heisman. Detmer had 1,993 points; followed by Raghib "Rocket" Ismail of Notre Dame with 1,385; Eric Bieniemy of Colorado with 747, and Shawn Moore of Virginia with 431.

1986 JASON BUCK

Jason Buck, a 6-6, 270-pound senior from St. Anthony, Idaho, started out as a quarterback and linebacker at Ricks College but came to BYU in 1985. Buck led the 1986 Cougars with 218.5 defensive points and registered 26 unassisted tackles, 33 assisted tackles, 13 tackles for losses, 17 quarterback hurries and 12.5 sacks.

Buck rode a publicity campaign of "One Buck" dollar bills in leading BYU to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Freedom Bowl in 1986.

"For me it was just a thrill to be on the field every Saturday at BYU," said Buck. "To win the Outland Trophy was a dream come true."

The Outland Trophy has been awarded annually by the Football Writers Association of America since 1946 to the nation's most outstanding interior lineman. It is named after the late John Outland, an All-America lineman at Pennsylvania in the late 1800s. It is the third oldest player award in major-college football behind the Heisman Trophy and Maxwell Award.

1989 MOHAMMED ELEWONIBI

Mohammed Elewonibi, a 6-5, 290-pound, senior from British Columbia, Canada, spent his childhood in his native Nigeria and didn't play football until after high school, at Snow Junior College. "Mount Mohammed" led BYU to a 10-3 record, a berth in the Holiday Bowl in 1989 and graded out four times with perfect pass protection as a senior. The Outland Trophy honors the outstanding interior lineman in the nation and was first presented in 1946 by the Football Writers Association of America. The award is named for its benefactor, Dr. John H. Outland.

LUKE STALEY

CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICAN • DOAK WALKER AWARD WINNER

BYU running back Luke Staley was named the winner of the 2001 Doak Walker Award. The annual award, which was presented on the ESPN Home Depot College Football Awards Show from Orlando, Fla., is presented to college football's top running back.

"This is a great honor," Staley said. "I can't express how grateful I am for my family, my teammates, my coach - everyone who made this possible."

In addition to winning the Doak Walker Award, Staley was also named as a first-team member of the prestigious Walter Camp Foundation All-America Team. Staley was the first BYU consensus All-American since Ty Detmer was twice selected in 1990 and 1991. In addition to the Walter Camp Foundation All-America team, Staley was named a first-team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, the Associated Press, The Sporting News, Football News and CNN/NI—just to name a few.

"We're very proud of Luke and all his accomplishments," BYU head coach Gary Crowton said. "Since we started this season back in August, we have been telling these guys to work hard, stay focused and great things will happen. This award, although presented to Luke, is a tribute to the hard work and commitment each and every player and coach has made this season. Luke is probably one of the best examples we have had, in terms of working hard and staying focused. This is a great tribute for a great athlete, a great teammate and a great young man. We couldn't be more proud of him."

Staley, from Tualatin, Ore., led the nation in scoring (15.5 p/game), yards per carry (8.1 y/carry) and finished the 2001 season ranked third in the nation in rushing, averaging 143.8 yards per game. He helped pace the Cougars to a 12-2 record on the season, scoring a BYU single-season record 28 touchdowns. Staley also racked up a BYU single-season record 1,582 yards rushing on the season.

The Polynesian Islands have become a hotbed for recruiting in recent years, but BYU has been one of the pioneers in bringing these players from Tonga, Samoa, the Hawaiian Islands and all of Polynesia to the forefront of college football since the early 1950s.

Harry Bray of Hilo, Hawai'i, transferred from Weber College to play for the Cougars in 1951, becoming the first Polynesian to play for the Cougars. Other Pacific Islanders who followed included: Famika Anae (1954-55), John Kapele (1957-59), John Kawaa (1962-1963), John Lupoi (1967-1969) and Henry Nawahine (1964-1965). Some of BYU's most celebrated and decorated players have come from the Pacific islands, including All-Americans, national record holders, players who have gone on to compete in the NFL and now, several members of BYU's current coaching and support staff.

Kalani Sitake was named BYU's 14th head coach on Dec. 19, 2015, becoming the first Tongan head football coach in the NCAA. Sitake was raised in Laie, Hawaii and later moved to the mainland. His staff includes Polynesians Ilaisa Tuiaki, Steve Kaufusi, Reno Mahe, Nu'u Tafisi, Russell Tialavea, Tevita Ofahengaue, Jack Damuni, Jasen Ah You, Sione Kinikini, Vince Feula and Harvey Unga.

Since 1951, hundreds of Polynesian players have suited up for BYU. The Cougars' Polynesian players have come from all over the Pacific including Hawaii, Tonga, Samoa and Fiji. Some of the most notable players include Vai Sikahema, the NCAA's career leader in punt returns, All-American and NFL veteran tight end Itula Mili and BYU's No. 2 career rusher, Harvey Unga. Many former BYU Polynesian have gone on to play in the NFL.

Of the hundreds of Polynesian players, several rank among the top statistical leaders in BYU history. Two of the top-10 career rushers are Polynesian. Two of the top-10 leaders in career receiving yards are also Polynesian. Since 1982, 11 of BYU's season-rushing leaders have been Pacific Islanders.

BYU TIGHT END GREATS

BYU's tight ends have earned unprecedented success as a featured position in the offense for decades. With former Heisman-winning quarterback, Ty Detmer, calling the offense, the tight end will continue to be showcased again, similar to the days when Detmer relied on All-American tight ends Chris Smith and Byron Rex while under center at BYU.

Over the years, Cougar football has emerged as the home of some of the best pass-catching tight ends in NCAA history. Starting with "Miracle Bowl" hero Clay Brown in 1980, nine BYU tight ends have earned All-America recognition. Since 1976, 12 Cougar tight ends have received 20 first-team All-Conference citations. Five former Cougars helped lead their teams to the Super Bowl—Doug Jolley with the Oakland Raiders in 2003, Chad Lewis with the Philadelphia Eagles in 2005, Itula Mili with the Seattle Seahawks in 2006, Gabriel Reid with the Chicago Bears in 2007 and Dennis Pitta with the Baltimore Ravens in 2013.

Two former BYU Cougars, Todd Christensen and Chad Lewis, have been named to several Pro Bowl teams during their successful professional careers as tight ends. A BYU tight end was named first-team all-conference (Jonny Harline in 2005 and 2006 and Dennis Pitta in 2007, 2008 and 2009) in five-straight years. In 2009, BYU became the first team in MWC history to sweep the tight end honors as Andrew George earned All-MWC Second Team accolades while Pitta was a consensus All-American.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

The College Football Hall of Fame was established in 1951. Including the 2016 Hall of Fame class, only 977 players and 211 coaches, have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame from the nearly 5.12 million who have played or coached the game during the past 147 years. In other words, less than two ten-thousandths of one percent (.0002) of the individuals who have played the game have been deemed worthy of this distinction.

BYU has produced seven Hall of Fame members, including six players and head coach LaVell Edwards.

Founded in 1947, The National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame inducted its first class of inductees in 1951. The first class included 32 players and 19 coaches, including Illinois' Red Grange, Notre Dame's Knute Rockne, Amos Alonzo Stagg and Carlisle's Jim Thorpe.

305 schools are represented with at least one College Football Hall of Famer.

The new College Football Hall of Fame, which opened on Aug. 23, 2014, is a 94,256-square-foot attraction located in the heart of Atlanta's sports, entertainment and tourism district.

GIFFORD NIELSEN QUARTERBACK: 1975-77 INDUCTED: 1994

Nicknamed the "Mormon Rifle," Gifford Nielsen became BYU's first Hall of Fame inductee in 1994. His prolific passing career began when he came off the bench in the third game of his sophomore season to lead the Cougars to a 16-15 come-from-behind win over New Mexico by completing 10 of 12 passes. As a junior in 1976, Nielsen really made fans sit up and notice. He passed for 3,192 yards and 29 touchdowns, set 13 WAC records and made All-America. Next season promised even more. He threw five touchdown passes against New Mexico, six against Utah State and was twice named Player of the Week. For the first time, a BYU football team was nationally ranked. "It was like a little dream world," said Nielsen, a product of Provo High School. "The numbers were just mind-boggling. Everything you could ever dream of as a kid in Provo, Utah, was in the palm of my hand." On Oct. 8, 1977, his season and college career ended when he suffered a serious injury. Over three years Nielsen averaged an astounding 243 yards passing per game. Nielsen played six years with the Houston Oilers and was the last quarterback to lead the Oilers to the AFC finals. He and his wife Wendy have six children.

MARC WILSON QUARTERBACK: 1976-79 INDUCTED: 1996

One of the most celebrated quarterbacks in Cougar history, Marc Wilson earned consensus All-America honors in 1979 and was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Dec. 10, 1996. In Wilson's first game as a starter, he was 15 of 25 for 332 yards with seven touchdowns in a 63-17 triumph over Colorado State and was consequently named Sports Illustrated's Offensive Player of the Week. In Wilson's career at BYU, he set 10 NCAA records. The 6-5, 204-pound quarterback ranked fourth in the nation in passing efficiency with a 147.1 rating in 1979. That same year, Wilson finished third in the Heisman balloting, led his team to an undefeated regular season, and was named the Holiday Bowl's Offensive MVP. A true student-athlete, Wilson was the recipient of the NCAA Top Five Award and its post graduate scholarship. A first round draft pick of the Oakland Raiders, Wilson played eight seasons before finishing his career with the New England Patriots. Presently, Wilson is a land developer in the North Seattle area. He and his wife, Colleen, live in Woodinville, Wash. with their four children.

JIM MCMAHON QUARTERBACK: 1978-81 INDUCTED: 1998

McMahon set 75 NCAA records at BYU, was a 1981 first team All-American by Kodak (Coaches), College & Pro Weekly, Associated Press, UPI, FWAA and second team NEA. In 1980 he earned first team All-America from the FWAA. McMahon balloted third place for the Heisman Trophy in 1981 and fifth in 1980. In 1981, he won the Davey O'Brien Trophy, the Sammy Baugh Award, the Utah Sportsman of the Year and the NCAA Co-Offensive Player of the Year with Marcus Allen (Pigskin Club of Wash., D.C.). He led the NCAA in pass efficiency (155.0) and total offense (345.8) in 1981 as well as pass efficiency (176.9) and total offense (385.6) in 1980. He set 29 Western Athletic Conference records and was three-time WAC Player of the Year and first team all-league. He broke 23 BYU records, was MVP of two Holiday Bowls and has been inducted to the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame. McMahon passed for 9,536 yards, threw 84 touchdowns and completed 653 of 1,056 passes at BYU. McMahon played for the Chicago Bears from 1982-88 (1985 Super Bowl Champs, 1985 Pro QB of the Year, and Pro Bowl); San Diego Chargers in 1989; Philadelphia Eagles from 1990-92; Minnesota Vikings in 1993; Arizona Cardinals in 1994; and Green Bay Packers from 1995-96 (1997 Super Bowl Champions).

LAVELL EDWARDS

HEAD COACH: 1972-2000 INDUCTED: 2004

A coaching icon whose success and longevity are paralleled by few, Edwards guided BYU to heights never before reached in the program's history. Edwards posted a record of 257-101-3 (.716) over a span of 29 seasons at BYU. From 1972 until his retirement following the 2000 season, Edwards roamed the sidelines at BYU — a tenure that ranks fifth all-time among coaches at one school. In 20 of those 29 seasons, the Cougars claimed the league title. Guiding BYU to 22 bowl game appearances, including a streak of 17-straight bowl appearances, Edwards reached the pinnacle of coaching success in 1984 by winning the National Championship. His 257 wins rank him seventh in NCAA Division I-A history, and he has more victories than every other coach in BYU history combined. At the helm, Edwards coached one Heisman Trophy winner, two Outland Trophy recipients, four Davey O'Brien award winners and 32 All-Americans — not to mention countless players who went on to professional careers in the NFL. He was named NCAA District 8 Coach of the Year eight times, the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year in 1979 and AFCA National Coach of the Year in 1984. Named the State of Utah's Coach of the Century, Edwards is a member of the State of Utah Sports Hall of Fame. "A spectacular choice," Steve Young said. "When you think of the Hall of Fame, you think of longevity, excellence, leadership and quality. In my book, Hall of Fame and LaVell Edwards go hand in hand. He is definitely a worthy recipient of this honor."

STEVE YOUNG

INDUCTED: 1994

One of the greatest collegiate quarterbacks of all time, Young set 13 NCAA records. As a junior, he averaged 318.8 yards per game of total offense, earning All-Western Athletic Conference recognition and Conference Player of the Year honors. In his senior season, he repeated as a first-team All-WAC selection, completed 306 of 429 pass attempts for an impressive .713 percentage and led BYU to its second-straight Holiday Bowl. His .713 completion percentage, 3,902 yards passing, 4,346 yards of total offense and 33 touchdowns all led the nation. He completed 592 of 907 attempts for a .653 average, threw for 7,733 yards and 56 touchdowns and had 8,817 yards of total offense in only 31 games. A unanimous All-American and academic All-WAC selection, Young was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy and received a National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award in recognition for his excellence on the field, in the classroom and in the community. Young retired after 15 seasons in the NFL, where he earned two MVP awards, seven trips to the Pro Bowl and led the San Francisco 49ers to win the Super Bowl in 1995, earning MVP honors.

GORDON HUDSON

TIGHT END: 1980-83
INDUCTED: 2009

Hudson is the first non-quarterback to represent BYU as a player in the Hall. A consensus All-America First Team pick in 1982 and 1983, Hudson is still the NCAA FBS record holder for most passes caught per game by a tight end (5.4) in a career, most career yards per game by a tight end (75.3) and most yards in a single game by a tight end (259). Hudson helped BYU win four conference championships (WAC) and earn four Holiday Bowl invitations during his career from 1980-83. He totaled 2,484 receiving yards and 22 touchdowns during his All-American career.

TY DETMER

INDUCTED: 2012

BYU's only Heisman Trophy Winner, Detmer is BYU's seventh inductee into the Hall of Fame. Detmer also won the Maxwell Award, two Davey O'Brien Awards and set 63 NCAA records in his tenure. Twice named a consensus All-American, Detmer won national player of the year awards from organizations such as UPI, CBS, Scripps Howard and the U.S. Sports Academy. His 15,031 career passing yards and 121 touchdowns were NCAA bests at the time, and the gunslinger still holds three records. A three-time first team All-WAC performer, Detmer led College Football Hall of Fame coach LaVell Edwards' teams to three conference titles, four bowl games, three AP Top-25 finishes and a 28-21 win over top-ranked and defending national champion Miami on Sept. 8, 1990. The NCAA Today's Top VI Award recipient was a ninth round selection of the 1992 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers and played 14 seasons in the NFL. A 2000 inductee of the BYU Athletics Hall of Fame, Detmer is entering his second year as BYU's offensive coordinator.

BYU'S CONFERENCE HISTORY

INDEPENDENT (2011- PRESENT)

On September 1, 2010, BYU announced its football program would compete in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision as an independent beginning with the 2011 season. Since the university instituted a football program in 1922, BYU had been a member of five different conferences, including the Rocky Mountain (1922-37), Mountain States/Skyline (1938-61), Western Athletic (1962-98) and Mountain West (1999-2010). The Cougars claimed their first conference championship in program history in 1965, going 4-2 in the WAC under head coach Tom Hudspeeth and have won 23 conference championships in their history. BYU won its next title, the first of 19 under legendary coach LaVell Edwards, in 1974. During its time in the MWC, the Cougars won four championships, including back-to-back undefeated conference seasons in 2006 and 2007.

MOUNTAIN WEST (1999-10)

- For the third time in program history, BYU chartered the creation of a new conference, this time joined by New Mexico, Utah, Air Force, Colorado St., San Diego State, UNLV and Wyoming. TCU joined in 2005.
- BYU football posted a 64-26 (.711) conference record in its 12 years in the conference.
- The Cougars' four MWC titles, 64 wins and 54 All-MWC First Team selections equal or surpass any MWC team since the league's inception.
- BYU won four MWC titles, including back-to-back championships in 2006-07. In three of its championship seasons, BYU went undefeated in conference play.

WESTERN ATHLETIC (1962-98)

- BYU was a charter member of the conference along with Arizona, Arizona State, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming.
- The WAC eventually expanded to as many as 16 schools in 1996.
- BYU football posted a 187-69-2 (.729) conference record in its 37 years in the conference.
- While in the WAC, the Cougars won the 1984 National Championship, finishing 13-0.
- BYU won a total of 19 titles in the WAC, including its first-ever football championship in 1965 and 10-straight from 1976-85.
- BYU's 19 WAC titles, 187 conference wins and 199 All-WAC First Team selections are all still the most by far of any WAC team.

MOUNTAIN STATES/SKYLINE (1938-61)

- BYU was a charter member of the conference, leaving with Colorado, Colorado State, Denver, Utah, Utah State and Wyoming when the RMFAC was deemed too large. Montana and New Mexico joined in 1951.
- After Colorado left in 1947, the conference became popularly known as the Skyline Conference.
- Football posted a 41-75-12 (.367) conference record in its 24 years in the conference.
- The conference dissolved in early 1962 after BYU, Utah, Wyoming and New Mexico left to form the WAC.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN FACULTY ATHLETIC (1922-37)

- BYU joined the RMFAC in 1918 with football participation beginning four years later.
- BYU football posted a 46-52-4 (.471) conference record in its 16 years in the conference.
- When BYU joined, other RMFAC schools included Colorado, Colorado A&M (now Colorado State), Colorado College, Colorado School of Mines, Denver, Utah, Utah State and Montana State. Wyoming, Western St. and Colorado Teacher's College (now Northern Colorado) joined two years later.
- Known today as the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (RMAC), it is now a Division II conference with 14 members.

BYU currently has 18 players under NFL contract. Running back Jamaal Williams was drafted in the 2017 NFL Draft in the fourth round by the Green Bay Packers. The Baltimore Ravens have three BYU players on the roster, including De'Ondre Wesley, Bronson Kaufusi and Robertson Daniel. John Denney is the longest tenured BYU player in the NFL, entering his 13 NFL season as the long-snapper for the Miami Dolphins. Former defensive end Ezekiel Ansah is one of the most notable current NFL Cougars. Ansah was drafted No. 5 overall in 2013 by the Detroit Lions and was named to the Pro Bowl in 2015. He led the NFC with 14.5 sacks in 2015 and has totaled 32 for his career. Linebacker Kyle Van Noy helped the New England Patriots win Super Bowl LI last season.

BYU has had 140 players drafted by the NFL and another 182 undrafted players receive NFL opportunities. BYU has had 11 first round picks, the most recent being Ghana native Ezekiel Ansah, who was drafted No. 5 overall to the Detroit Lions in 2013. BYU's most recent draft pick was running back Jamaal Williams, going in the fourth round to the Green Bay Packers in the 2017 NFL Draft.

The average player coming from BYU spends nearly four and a half years in the NFL, about one year longer than the average NFL career.

Punter Lee Johnson had the longest NFL career, spanning 18 seasons and six teams. He was a fifth-round draft pick by the Houston Oilers (1985-87). He went on to play for the Cleveland Browns (1987-1988), Cincinnati Bengals (1988-1998), New England Patriots (1999-2001), Minnesota Vikings (2001) and Philadelphia Eagles (2002). At the time of his retirement, his 51,979 punting yards were the third most in NFL history.

There have been 41 players from BYU in the Super Bowl, bringing home 40 total championship rings. Former defensive back and current, athletic director Tom Holmoe has the most with four rings, including three as a player and one as a coach, all with the 49ers. From 1980-1992 the Cougars had at least one representative in the Super Bowl each year.

John Denney is the longest tenured active BYU player in the NFL, heading into his 13th season with the Miami Dolphins. He was a free agent signee.

Several of BYU's coaches spent time in the NFL. Ty Detmer spent 14 years in the NFL while Reno Mahe spent five seasons as a return specialist with the Philadelphia Eagles. Kalani Sitake, Mike Empey, Steve Kaufusi and Jernaro Gifford spent time with NFL teams. Ben Cahoon played 13 years in the Canadian Football League and is the all-time receptions leader and a member of the CFL Hall of Fame. His jersey was retired by Montreal last year.

Steve Young is arguably BYU's best known NFL player, spending 15 seasons in the league, 13 with the 49ers. Young won Super Bowl XXIX 49-26 over the Chargers with a Super Bowl-record six touchdown passes, winning the game's MVP award. He was also the league's MVP in 1992 and 1994. In '94, he set an NFL-record 112.8 passer rating. He was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 2005.

BYU has had 41 players in the Super Bowl, including current director of athletics Tom Holmoe and quarterback Steve Young who each won three rings playing for the San Francisco 49ers. Holmoe won an additional ring as a coach with 49ers after his playing career was over. Offensive lineman Bart Oates also has three Super Bowl rings, winning two with the New York Giants and one with the 49ers. Quarterback Jim McMahon led the Chicago Bears to a Super Bowl XX victory in 1986 and then won a second ring with the Green Bay Packers in 1997 at Super Bowl XXXI. Defensive linemen Brett Keisel and Chris Hoke both have a pair of rings while playing together for the Pittsburgh Steelers. Tight end Dennis Pitta in 2013 won with the Ravens. Pitta had four catches for 26 yards including a 1-yard touchdown reception in the Super Bowl XLVII win over the 49ers. Most recently, linebacker Kyle Van Noy won Super Bowl LI last season with the New England Patriots. Van Noy combined for a sack in the game as the Patriots came back from down 28-3 to beat the Falcons 34-28 in overtime.

Ezekiel "Ziggy" Ansah tied Jim McMahon as BYU's highest draft pick in history, going at No. 5 to the Detroit Lions in the 2013 NFL Draft.

BYU'S NFL DRAFT FACTS

- The Cougars have had 11 different players drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft, and one player selected in the first round of the USFL Draft (Steve Young).
- Three members of the BYU staff were drafted including Ty Detmer, Steve Kaufusi and Tevita Ofahengae. Several others had NFL opportunities as free agents including Kalani Sitake, Reno Mahe, Jernaro Gifford and Mike Empey. Ben Cahoon was also a long-time veteran of the CFL had his jersey retired in Montreal last year.
- Ezekiel "Ziggy" Ansah was drafted 5th overall by the Detroit Lions in 2013 NFL Draft, tying Jim McMahon for the highest NFL Draft pick out of BYU in the regular NFL Draft. Ansah, who went on to lead all NFL rookies in sacks in 2013, is the highest defensive pick for the Cougars. The highest all-time pick is Steve Young, who was picked first overall in the special 1984 NFL Supplemental Draft of USFL and CFL players.
- Running back Jamaal Williams was the most recent Cougar drafted, going in the fourth round to the Green Bay Packers in 2017.
- In 2016, Bronson Kaufusi was drafted, getting picked in the third round with the 70th overall pick by the Baltimore Ravens.
- Dennis Pitta became the 10th BYU tight end picked in the NFL Draft and the fourth since 2001. The consensus All-American was the 16th pick in the fourth round of the 2010 draft, 114th overall by the Baltimore Ravens. Pitta was the first Cougar to be selected by the Ravens.
- Defensive line coach Steve Kaufusi was drafted in 1988 by the Philadelphia Eagles. Additionally, three BYU athletic department administrators were also selected in the NFL Draft, including Robbie Bosco (1986, Green Bay Packers), Lee Johnson (1985, Houston Oilers) and Tom Holmoe (1983, San Francisco 49ers).
- Over the past 31 professional drafts, 68 players have been drafted, including 38 offensive players, 29 defensive players and one special teams player from BYU.
- BYU's receiver Austin Collie was drafted by the Indianapolis Colts in the fourth round of the 2009 NFL Draft. A 6-foot-2, 206-pound wide receiver, Collie was the 27th pick of the fourth round and the 127th overall selection. In his rookie year, Collie was named to the All-Rookie team, catching 60 receptions for 676 yards and seven touchdowns including 6 catches for 66 yards in Super Bowl XLIV.

YEAY-BY-YEAR RESULTS

BYU has a record of 564-406-26 (.581). The Cougars have had just 14 head coaches in nearly a century of football as they enter the 92nd season of play. (BYU did not play football for three years (1943-45) during World War II.) Over the past 40 seasons, the Cougars have had the fifth-most wins of any team in college football to date.

Linebacker Kyle Van Noy essentially took over for BYU in the 2012 Poinsettia Bowl, forcing and recovering a fumble for the go-ahead touchdown and minutes later returning an interception for his second-defensive score of the 4th quarter en route to a 23-6 victory over SDSU.

LaVell Edwards celebrates BYU's 19-15 Cotton Bowl victory over Kansas State in 1997. It has been the Cougars' only New Year's Day bowl game.

In one of the greatest bowls games in NCAA history, BYU overcame a 45-25 deficit with 4:07 left in the game to win 46-45 in the 1980 Holiday Bowl over SMU, nicknamed the "Miracle Bowl." With 4:07 remaining in the game, SMU scored to go ahead, 45-25. From there the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an on-side kick, scored on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips, and blocked a punt. Finally, with three seconds left on the clock, Jim McMahon connected on a "Hail Mary" pass of 41 yards to Clay Brown, who is located somewhere at the bottom of the pile.

Quarterback Steve Young actually caught the game-winning touchdown from running back Eddie Stinnett with under one minute to play vs. Missouri to win the 1983 Holiday Bowl 21-17.

Robbie Bosco led BYU to a 24-17 over Michigan to secure BYU's 1984 National Championship in the Holiday Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY:

Competing in its first post-season bowl game ever, BYU played Western Athletic Conference host to the Oklahoma State Cowboys before a crowd of 50,878. The Cougars got off to a quick start with two field goals during the first quarter before All-WAC quarterback Gary Sheide suffered a dislocated shoulder in the last moments of the quarter. He was replaced by junior reserve Mark Giles. The Cowboys took the scoring lead during the second quarter on a touchdown run around left end, giving Oklahoma State a 7-6 halftime advantage. OSU regained possession of the ball on the Cougars' 17-yard line after intercepting Giles, but the Cowboys were unable to convert on the turnover. A field goal from 32 yards out put the Cowboys in front 10-6 at the end of the third quarter. With 1:14 remaining in the game, Oklahoma State scored another touchdown on a 40-yard halfback pass to complete the scoring. The Cougars out-gained Oklahoma State in total yardage, 301-224. Giles was 11 of 26 for 138 yards. After three losses and a tie to open the season, the Cougars reeled off seven straight victories prior to the bowl game.

GAME SUMMARY:

Powerful Oklahoma State, sparked by All-American Terry Miller (173 yards rushing on 23 carries), used four pass interceptions and a fumble recovery to capture the 31st annual Tangerine Bowl contest. Defensively, the Cowboys yielded only 46 yards rushing. The Cougars, however, stayed close in the first half, which ended 28-14. Dave Lowry returned the second-half kickoff 102 yards (a Tangerine Bowl record) to move the Cougars to within seven at 28-21. From there, it was all Cowboys. BYU's Gifford Nielsen completed 23 of 34 passes for 209 yards and one touchdown, but the Cougars could only roll up 255 yards to Oklahoma State's 402. BYU entered the game with a 9-2 record, while Oklahoma State came in after tying for the Big 8 title. The Cowboys missed out on the Orange Bowl because of the conference tie-breaking formula. Later, the stadium was expanded and the name changed to the Florida Citrus Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY:

The inaugural Holiday Bowl pitted two teams with local drawing power, the Naval Academy and Brigham Young University. Despite chilly temperatures, the two teams engaged in a hard-hitting battle. Defense dominated the first two quarters. Brent Johnson put the Cougars on the scoreboard first with a 33-yard field goal with 8:26 left in the first quarter. But Navy's Bob Tata boomed a 40-yard field goal to tie the score at 3-3. Jim McMahon sent the Cougars ahead with a 10-yard pass to Mike Chronister, but Johnson missed the PAT. McMahon ran another in from two yards out in the third period for a 16-3 BYU lead. Navy cut the lead to 16-10 after three quarters and then tied the game on two field goals in the fourth quarter, but it was a 65-yard pass to Phil McConkey that did the Cougars in. Some 52,500 witnessed the game in person. McConkey was named Best Offensive Player and BYU's Tom Enlow won Best Defensive Player honors. Navy finished the year at 9-3, BYU at 9-4.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 1979 season ended with BYU leading the nation in scoring, passing and total offense. At 11-0, the Cougars were one of the few undefeated, untied teams in the nation. Those kinds of credentials, along with its No. 9 national ranking in the UPI and AP polls made BYU the favorite over the at-large entry, Indiana. The opportunistic Hoosiers played the Cougars tough, holding a 21-17 lead at the half. BYU jumped ahead in the third quarter, 24-21, on a 13-yard pass from All-American Marc Wilson to Homer Jones. The Cougars fell behind, 31-24, but regained the lead at 34-31 on a 15-yard pass to Eric Lane. With 12:14 left to play, BYU padded the lead on the third field goal of the game by Brent Johnson. But midway through the fourth quarter, Indiana's Tim Wilbur returned a punt 62 yards to push the Hoosiers ahead 38-37. With 2:06 remaining, the Cougars moved the ball 69 yards to the Indiana 10. Then, with 11 seconds left, Johnson missed a 27-yard field goal that would have won the game. Wilson was voted the MVP on offense (28 of 43 for 380 yards) and Indiana's Wilbur won the honor for defense. Clay Brown caught nine passes for 142 yards. Lane grabbed nine passes for 79 yards and also scored a rushing touchdown. Jones scored a touchdown and had 126 yards on seven kickoff returns.

GAME SUMMARY:

One observer said the 1980 Holiday Bowl was actually two ball games--a contest which lasted most of four quarters and another of four minutes duration. SMU controlled the "first game," leaving the Cougars behind 20 points with only minutes remaining. Unfortunately, many fans either turned off their TV sets or left the stadium in San Diego before the "second game" began. In the final four minutes, BYU surged to a stunning 46-45 win. For 56 minutes the Mustangs taught the Cougars a lesson in running the football. The Mustangs' two great running backs, Craig James and Eric Dickerson, rushed for a combined total of 335 yards. With 4:07 remaining in the game, SMU scored to go ahead, 45-25. From there the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an on-side kick, scored on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips, and blocked a punt. Finally, with three seconds left on the clock, Jim McMahon connected on a "Hail Mary" pass of 41 yards to Clay Brown. With the score tied, Kurt Gunther kicked the extra point to send BYU fans streaming onto the field. McMahon was 32 of 49 passes for 446 yards. It may have been the most exciting bowl game ever, with the Cougars getting 21 points in the final 2:33. Ironically, four passes on conversion attempts had failed before McMahon hit Phillips after the next-to-last touchdown to cut a 45-31 deficit to 45-39 and put the Cougars in a position to win the game with one more score. The 50-yard drive was set up when Todd Shell recovered a Brent Johnson on-side-kick at midfield. SMU got the ball back with 1:57 but had to punt. The kick was blocked by defensive back Bill Schoepflin and recovered by the SMU punter, Eric Kaifes, with 13 seconds left. McMahon threw one incomplete pass intended for Brown and another for Lloyd Jones before unleashing the famous pass to Brown in the end zone with no time left on the clock.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 1981 edition of the Holiday Bowl fit the mold of its predecessors. This time it was the Cougars of BYU versus the Cougars of Washington State, playing before a crowd of 52,419. BYU held a 24-7 lead at halftime, then pushed the score to 31-7 as Tom Holmoe intercepted a pass and returned it 35 yards to give the WAC champions a comfortable edge. As the second half progressed, it appeared BYU would be the come-from-behind victim in this one. With only 59 seconds left in the third quarter, Washington State scored to make it 31-28. But Jim McMahon took over moving BYU 82 yards for a score to stretch the lead to 38-28. Statistically, it was a typical McMahon game, 27 of 43 with no interceptions and three touchdowns. Tight end Gordon Hudson had an excellent game, collecting seven catches for 126 yards and a touchdown. Dan Plater also caught a touchdown pass and Waymon Hamilton scored on the ground. Washington State quarterbacks Clete Casper and Ricky Turner completed only eight passes for 106 yards but Turner had 82 yards rushing while Don LaBomme had 79. Each team scored five touchdowns, so the difference actually came midway through the second quarter when Kurt Gunther connected on a 20-yard field goal after a BYU drive stalled on the Washington State three.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars had their two-game Holiday Bowl win streak snapped by Ohio State, 47-17. BYU's bubble burst at the outset of the third quarter, when the Buckeyes reeled off 17 unanswered points. Tim Spencer blew through the Cougar defense for 167 yards, including a record-setting 61-yard touchdown run in the second quarter that put Ohio State up, 10-7. Steve Young completed 27 of 45 passes for 341 yards, but BYU had a tough time getting into the end zone. The Cougars turned the ball over to Ohio State three times inside the 30 and saw the Buckeyes convert each turnover into a score. The Cougars took the lead early in the second quarter with a seven-yard strike to Neil Balholm. But Spencer's long gallop and a blocked punt put the Buckeyes up, 17-10, at halftime. Big fullback Vaughn Broadnax scored on the opening drive of the second half, and on the next play, Young was intercepted and Spencer ran 18 yards to put Ohio State in control for good. BYU's only other score came midway through the fourth quarter when Gordon Hudson caught a 13-yard pass. Ohio State quarterback Mike Tomzak had only 132 yards passing and no touchdowns, but his fleet of running backs scored six times on the ground. Ten different BYU players caught passes, led by Hudson with seven receptions for 81 yards and Balholm with 58 yards receiving.

GAME SUMMARY:

Yet another chapter was added to the saga of impossible, thrilling Holiday Bowl finishes when BYU defeated Missouri, 21-17. The game was billed as a classic matchup between Missouri's stubborn defense and BYU's explosive offense, led by quarterback Steve Young. Missouri held BYU to just 167 yards and seven points in the first half, while BYU's defense allowed the Tigers only 157 yards and 10 points. Missouri got its first-half points on a two-yard run by Eric Drain and a 37-yard field goal by Brad Burditt. BYU's touchdown came on a 10-yard quarterback draw by Young. In the second half, Young hit Eddie Stinnett with a 33-yard touchdown pass. Missouri came right back with another two-yard plunge by Drain. A valiant goal-line stand by BYU gave the Cougars the ball on the six-yard-line with 3:57 left in the game. Led by Young, the Cougars moved down the field to the Missouri 15 with under a minute to play. On first-and-10 at the Tigers' 15, Young handed to Stinnett, who faked a sweep right and threw back across the field to Young. The Stinnett pass barely cleared the outstretched hands of Missouri's Bobby Bell allowing Young to gather it in and scramble 15 yards to the end zone. The PAT gave BYU a 21-17 lead with 23 seconds left. Kyle Morrell intercepted a Missouri desperation pass at the BYU two-yard line and returned it to the 17 to seal the win.

GAME SUMMARY:

Holiday Bowl VII lived up to all the glamour and excitement of the previous six bowls, plus it had a new dimension--national championship luster--thanks to BYU's undefeated, untied season and No. 1 ranking. The 24-17 Cougar victory marked the first time in years that a non-New Year's Day bowl game determined the national championship. The contest was played in typical Holiday Bowl fashion. After a scoreless first quarter in which Cougar quarterback Robbie Bosco was forced to the sideline with an injured knee and ankle, the game began to develop drama. BYU scored first with 8:37 left in the first half on a five-yard run by Kelly Smith. The touchdown was set up when a limping Bosco returned to the lineup and engineered an 80-yard drive. The Wolverines responded by putting together an 80-yard scoring drive of their own, culminating on Rick Rogers' five-yard touchdown run up the middle. The PAT tied the score at seven. The tie was short-lived however, as a 31-yard field goal by Lee Johnson with time running out in the first half gave BYU a 10-7 lead at the break. Midway through the third period, Michigan went on top for the first time at 14-10 on a 10-yard scoring strike from Bob Zurbrugg to Bob Perryman. The Wolverines added to their lead when Bob Bergeron nailed a 32-yard field goal to make the Michigan lead 17-10 with 14:14 to play. The Cougar offense then produced an 80-yard drive that culminated with a seven-yard Bosco-to-Glen Kozłowski touchdown pass to tie the game at 17 with 10:51 to go. Bosco's 13-yard scoring toss to Smith with 1:23 remaining made it 24-17. Two plays later Marv Allen intercepted a pass to clinch a 13-0 season and the Cougars' first-ever national championship. David Mills finished with 11 catches for 103 yards receiving and Smith had 10 for 88. Lakei Heimuli led BYU with 82 yards rushing while Bob Perryman had 110 for Michigan.

SCORING:

OSU – Spangler 47-yard field goal
BYU – Miles 38 yard pass from Bosco (Webster kick)
OSU – Kolic 14 pass interception (Spangeler kick)

GAME SUMMARY:

In what promised to be an offensive showdown between pass-happy BYU (11-2) and rough and tumble Ohio State (8-3), two of the nation's top defenses took center stage. In fact, the game's only touchdowns were produced by a noseguard on an interception and a reserve wide receiver on a broken play. Buckeye kicker Rich Spangler tallied the first points of the game with a 47-yard field goal early in the second quarter to give Ohio State a 3-0 lead. BYU attempted to answer with a long drive of its own, only to come away empty after Vai Sikahema fumbled on an apparent touchdown plunge. Before the first half ended, quarterback Robbie Bosco rolled left, whirled right and found wide receiver David Miles on a 38-yard strike to give the Cougars a 7-3 halftime lead. In the second half, Ohio State noseguard Larry Kolic intercepted Bosco and took it in for a touchdown to give the Buckeyes a 10-7 lead. Leon White and Kyle Whittingham recovered fumbles but Kolic got another interception and Terry White intercepted two in the end zone to stop BYU threats—one with 3:38 to play and again with three seconds left. Ohio State was the benefactor of six Cougar turnovers, and the Buckeyes went home the victor. Mark Bellini had 89 yards receiving while Lakei Heimuli added 10 receptions for 77 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

Although BYU failed to win the WAC title, the Cougars kept alive an impressive streak of nine bowl appearances in a row by being invited to the third annual Freedom Bowl. There they met familiar foe UCLA. The two teams had met in 1985 when the Bruins came from behind to win a tough game in Provo, 27-24. The Freedom Bowl, however, proved different as UCLA outstanding running back Gaston Green broke open a close game in the third quarter and the Bruins went on to win 31-10. Green finished with 266 yards on 33 carries. The first half was all defense as the two teams punted nine times in the first 30 minutes. BYU struck first when linebacker Andy Katoa recovered a UCLA fumble at the Bruin 47 and Leonard Chitty put the Cougars ahead 3-0 with a 32-yard field goal. UCLA stormed ahead to stay with a 71-yard touchdown drive highlighted by a 49-yard run on a reverse by Bruin receiver Karl Dorrell. From then on, it was UCLA most of the way. Cougar quarterbacks Bob Jensen and Mike Young managed to pass for over 200 yards, but UCLA and Green did most of the damage. Costly injuries to standouts Mark Bellini and Katoa hindered the Cougar effort, but Outland Trophy winner Jason Buck turned in another strong effort.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 11th annual All-American Bowl began with temperatures in the 40s and BYU never warmed up. The Cougars' 10th-consecutive bowl appearance included several records, but BYU lost 22-16 in its first-ever meeting with Virginia. Sean Covey attempted 61 passes, David Miles had 188 yards in receptions and Pat Thompson only punted once, but BYU fell short several times. Darren Handley, BYU's leading receiver, dropped a touchdown pass in the first quarter before BYU settled for a 20-yard field goal by Leonard Chitty. However, Chitty, who set a season best for field goals (18) and consecutive PATs (29), missed from 51 and 47 yards as Virginia took a 14-3 lead into the intermission. BYU got to the Virginia two-yard-line midway through the third quarter only to have a fourth-down pass tipped away. Later, Freddie Whittingham scampered eight yards to cut the lead to 14-9 at the end of the third quarter. Virginia, led by quarterback Scott Secules, the game's MVP, made a crucial 76-yard drive to go ahead 22-9 with 11 minutes left. Then, BYU went the same distance to score on a one-yard pass to Whittingham with seven minutes remaining. But that was as close as the Cougars would get. Ironically, nine years earlier on the same date Virginia coach George Welsh was head coach of Navy, which beat BYU 23-16 in the inaugural Holiday Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY:

A star was born in the fifth annual Freedom Bowl when Ty Detmer came off the bench to earn MVP honors while leading the Cougars to an upset victory over Colorado. Cool weather didn't hamper diminutive Eric Bieniemy, who rushed 33 times for 144 yards and two touchdowns. But his heroics couldn't offset Detmer's 11 for 17 and 129 yards in the second half. Scott Peterson made an interception to set up the game-winning field goal. It was an exciting contest for the 35,941 fans (49,694 tickets were sold) in attendance. A fumble at midfield led to the Buffaloes' first score, before Sean Covey found Mike Salido to tie the score. An interception in the end zone stopped a BYU drive early in the second quarter as the Cougars trailed at the half, 14-7. A Detmer to Chuck Cutler pass tied the game in the third quarter but Colorado took a 17-14 lead early in the final quarter. BYU then moved from its own four to the Buffalo 14 and tied the game with 4:11 left on a 31-yarder by Chaffetz. Three plays later, Peterson's interception and a 15-yard penalty put the ball at the Colorado 32. With 2:33 left, Chaffetz booted a 35-yarder for the victory. Halfback Matt Bellini carried eight times for 78 yards and caught four passes for 41 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

Two unusual plays late in the game kept BYU from downing Penn State and offset 576 yards passing by Ty Detmer—the highest total ever in a bowl game. For his effort, and thanks to blocking from Outland Trophy winner Mohammed Elewonibi, Detmer had the rare privilege of sharing MVP honors despite playing on the losing team. BYU trailed 41-26 with nine and a half minutes remaining and scored twice to cut the lead to 41-39 with 2:30 to play. The Cougars went for a two-point conversion to tie the game, but Detmer's pass was intercepted in the end zone by Penn State linebacker Andre Collins and returned 102 yards for two points. Down 43-39, the Cougars, led by Bob Davis, forced the Lions to punt, giving BYU the ball on its own 12 with two minutes left. Passes to Brent Nyberg, Matt Bellini, Chris Smith and Andy Boyce moved the ball to the Penn State 38 with a minute left to play. Then, what appeared to be a sack by Penn State safety Gary Brown turned into a score for the Nittany Lions. Brown stripped the ball from Detmer at the Penn State 47 and raced 53 yards for the score. Penn State finished the season ranked 14th by UPI and 15th by AP and CNN/USA Today. BYU was 18th in the UPI poll and 22nd in the others.

GAME SUMMARY:

Led by quarterback Bucky Richardson and All-American running back Darren Lewis, underdog Texas A&M was out to show it belonged among the nation's elite. The Cougars entered the game beat up. Defensive backs Tony Crutchfield and Norm Dixon weren't able to suit up and Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer was playing with a slight separation in his non-throwing shoulder. The second-largest Holiday Bowl crowd ever (61,441) watched the Aggies march 80 yards in 13 plays to take a 7-0 lead. The Cougars tied the score on an eight-yard Detmer-to-Chris Smith touchdown pass, but after that, the game was all Texas A&M. The Aggies went on to score 23 points in the second quarter en route to a 37-7 halftime lead. With the game out of hand, the big story was William Thomas' crunching sack that separated Detmer's throwing shoulder and put him out of the game early in the third quarter. The Aggies continued to dominate by racking up nearly 200 yards rushing in the second half. Texas A&M's Richardson would go on to be named Offensive Player of the Game by piling up 344 yards in total offense. Thomas was named the top defensive player. BYU finished the season ranked 17th by UPI, 20th by CNN/USA Today and 22nd by AP. BYU had been as high as fourth prior to its first loss.

GAME SUMMARY:

A tipped pass that was picked off in the end zone with less than 30 seconds remaining stifled BYU's hopes of knocking off seventh-ranked Iowa in the 14th annual Holiday Bowl. Ty Detmer turned in another great performance in his last appearance as a Cougar, passing for 350 yards and two touchdowns against a team that led the Big 10 in defense and sacks. Quarterback Matt Rodgers led Iowa on a 74-yard scoring march on the game's opening drive. The Hawkeyes also scored on another long drive in the second quarter. Down 13-0, BYU finally got things rolling. Starting on the BYU 22, Detmer connected on five of six passes to move the Cougars to the Iowa nine. From there, he found fullback Peter Tuipulotu for the touchdown. The PAT failed and the halftime score was 13-6. BYU opened the fourth with an 87-yard drive that culminated with a Detmer-to-Tyler Anderson touchdown from 29 yards out. Earl Kauffman connected on the PAT to tie the score at 13. Each team threatened to score late in the fourth quarter. Iowa missed a 40-yard field goal with 4:19 left. On the game's final drive the Cougars moved inside the Iowa 20 with 33 seconds left to play, but Detmer's pass to tight end Byron Rex was tipped and picked off by Hawkeye safety Carlos James in the end zone to preserve the tie. Josh Arnold of BYU earned defensive MVP honors as BYU finished the season ranked 23rd in the AP and CNN/USA Today polls. Iowa was 10th in both polls.

GAME SUMMARY:

Kansas kicker Dan Eichloff booted a 48-yard field goal with 2:57 left to play, giving the Jayhawks a victory over BYU, the WAC tri-champion. Tom Young, who completed 15 of 31 passes for 262 yards in his first varsity start, was named Most Valuable Player for BYU. Tackle Dana Stubblefield, who had three of the six sacks on Young, won the honor for Kansas. Young had been pressed into action when Ryan Hancock suffered knee ligament damage against Utah in the final regular-season game. The Cougars took an early lead when Hema Heimuli scrambled 94 yards on the opening kickoff for a score. Kansas tied the game two plays later when wide receiver Matt Gay threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to tight end Rodney Harris. BYU took a 14-9 lead in the second quarter when Jamal Willis ran 29 yards for a score. Eichloff then cut the halftime score to 14-12 with a 42-yard field goal. But the kicking game would prove the downfall as the Cougars missed a 36-yard field goal in the first quarter as well as a 31-yarder and misplayed an extra point attempt in the third quarter. Young threw 10 yards to Otis Sterling for the only score of the third quarter. Kansas quarterback Chip Hilleary then tied the game by directing a 75-yard drive in a minute and a half, scoring the touchdown and then running for a two-point conversion.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars took Big 10 Co-Champion Ohio State to the wire at the 16th annual Holiday Bowl and came up just short. BYU had four downs and 32 seconds to tie or win the game from the OSU six-yard line, but four-straight John Walsh passes into the end zone fell to the ground and OSU slipped away with the win. BYU got to the Ohio State six, 14 and 22-yard lines in the second half without scoring. Meanwhile, Raymont Harris, OSU's senior halfback, battered the BYU defense all night long, scoring three touchdowns on his way to a record 235 yards rushing. Despite Harris' rushing, the Cougars managed to go into the halftime break tied at 21. Chad Lewis made a spectacular one-handed touchdown grab in the corner of the end zone to bail the Cougars out of a fourth-and-eight situation. After Harris' short touchdown run late in the third, BYU and OSU traded possessions until late into the fourth quarter. After forcing a rare Buckeye punt, BYU got the ball back on its own 42 with 43 seconds left. On first down, Walsh hooked up with senior co-captain Eric Drage who ran away from Buckeye defenders and advanced the ball 52 yards to the OSU six-yard line. Walsh had 389 yards and fullback Kalin Hall rushed for 42 yards on 11 carries. Tyler Anderson returned five kicks for 145 yards, including an exciting 45-yarder. Harris and Walsh shared MVP honors.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU fans celebrated the New Year early as the Cougars dominated Oklahoma and ended its five-year winning drought in bowl games. Quarterback John Walsh and the offense clicked on all cylinders and the Cougars' defense was dominating throughout the ESPN telecast. Walsh threw a seven-yard TD pass to Bryce Doman in the first quarter and had a 25-yard pass to Mike Johnston in the second quarter. A four-yard scoring pass to Johnston in the third quarter and a 28-yard touchdown pass to Doman in the fourth quarter vaulted Walsh's stats to 454 yards and four touchdowns on 31 of 45 passes with no interceptions against the Sooners defense which had held national champion Nebraska to 13 points. BYU's defense was dominating as it held Oklahoma to just 72 yards rushing and 163 yards passing—most of those in the last quarter. The Sooners did not cross midfield until their ninth possession on the second-to-last play of the third quarter. Jamal Willis caught seven passes for 103 yards and was chosen Offensive Player of the Game. Walsh was named MVP in what would be his final game at BYU. BYU finished 10th in the CNW/USA Today poll and 18th in the Associated Press poll.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU assumed the nation's longest winning streak with a come-from-behind 19-15 victory in the 61st annual Cotton Bowl. It was the first New Year's Day appearance for both 14th-ranked Kansas State and fifth-ranked BYU. More than 40,000-purple clad Kansas State supporters outnumbered the 15,000 Cougar patrons as 71,928 fans filled the Cotton Bowl. BYU got on the board first with a safety, then turned the ensuing punt into a field goal to lead 5-0 in the first quarter. The safety came when linebacker Shay Muirbrook, the game's defensive MVP, collected one of his six sacks. Kansas State took a half-time lead with a 41-yard "Hail Mary" pass and a successful two-point conversion with no time left on the clock. The Wildcats increased the lead to 15-5 in the third quarter when offensive co-MVP Kevin Lockett caught a 72-yard TD. Fueled by consecutive controversial interference no-calls, quarterback Steve Sarkisian engineered two fourth-quarter drives capped by touchdown passes of 32 yards to James Dye and 28 yards to K.O. Kealaluhi. Sarkisian, an offensive co-MVP, completed 21 passes to tie a Cotton Bowl record held by Roger Staubach of Navy. KSU drove the length of the field before Cougar cornerback Omar Morgan juggled an interception from a Wildcat slant pattern at the 12 yard line to secure the game.

GAME SUMMARY:

In BYU's first ever appearance at the Liberty Bowl, the Cougars ran into 10th-ranked Tulane that entered the New Year's Eve game with a perfect season record. The Cougars struck first on an 11-yard pass from Kevin Feterik to receiver Ben Horton. Tulane would score 20 unanswered points in the first half. With just 41 seconds remaining in the half, BYU looked to put an end to the Green Wave momentum, but came up short as Feterik was sacked by Phil Henderson for a 10-yard loss to end the half. Things didn't get much better for the Cougars in the second half, as Tulane scored its third touchdown of the game on the opening drive of the half. On its next possession, the Green Wave would strike again on a 13-yard pass from King to Jamaican Dartez to give Tulane a 34-6 lead with just over seven minutes remaining in the third quarter. On its first drive of the final period, BYU scored for the first time since the 8:49 mark in the first half on an Aaron Cupp three-yard run. Trailing by 28 midway through the fourth quarter, BYU finally crossed the Tulane 20-yard line for the first time since the first half and went on to score 14 unanswered points before time expired.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU squared off against Marshall in the first meeting between the two schools at the Cougars' first-ever appearance in the third annual Motor City Bowl. The Cougars scored first on a field goal by Owen Pochman with 1:58 remaining in the first quarter. That score was set up by a pair of 20-plus yard receptions by Donny Atuala and Jonathan Pittman. In the second quarter, Marshall drove the ball down to the BYU five-yard line, but failed to convert as a 22-yard field goal attempt by Billy Malashevich missed wide to the right. On the Herd's next possession, Chad Pennington put Marshall on the board with a 30-yard touchdown pass to Doug Chapman. On BYU's ensuing drive, Feterik connected with Margin Hooks for a 67-yard pass play that took the Cougars all the way to the nine-yard line. However, the Cougars couldn't capitalize inside the red zone and Feterik suffered a collarbone injury off a blindside corner blitz. Pochman, who had connected on 18 of 25 attempts in the regular season, missed wide left on his field goal attempt. Feterik attempted to play in the second half, but left the game midway in the third quarter when freshman Bret Engemann took the QB controls. Just before the end of the third quarter, Marshall struck a big play when Chapman rushed 87 yards for a touchdown. To cap off his MVP performance, Chapman scored Marshall's final touchdown. The Cougars missed a final chance to score when Brian Gray had a clear path to the end zone, but dropped a sure interception.

GAME SUMMARY:

The champions of the MWC faced Louisville, the champions of Conference USA. The Cardinals, led by quarterback Dave Ragone, took an early lead, scoring on a one-yard dive by Henry Miller that was set up by Zek Parker's 70-yard return on the opening kickoff. Midway through the second quarter the Cougar offense came alive, driving to the Louisville 10-yard line. Quarterback Brandon Doman dropped back and rolled right as if to pass, then turned to his left and threw the ball to Dustin Rykert on a tackle-eligible play. All 6-foot-7, 305 pounds of offensive tackle outran the Cardinal defense to the corner and rumbled 10 yards to the end zone to tie the game 7-7. Louisville just managed to take a 14-7 lead into the break, scoring with only 14 seconds left. Louisville contained the Cougar attack for the remainder of the game while reaching the end zone two more times. Although Louisville went on to win 28-10, BYU's defense played one of its best games of the season, holding the Cardinals' high-powered offense to 228 yards passing and only 58 yards rushing.

GAME SUMMARY:

Trailing 35-14 in the fourth quarter, BYU stormed back with two touchdowns and had the ball with 2:20 remaining, but John Beck was intercepted after being hit when releasing the ball, ending the Cougars' comeback hopes. Beck had a record-setting performance, completing 35 of 53 attempts for 352 yards and three touchdowns. The 35 completions, 53 attempts and 352 yards were all Las Vegas Bowl records. Nathan Meikle caught a game-high 12 passes for 95 yards while Jonny Harline had seven receptions for 73 yards and one score and Todd Watkins added five catches for 95 yards and a touchdown. BYU fell behind 7-0 in the first quarter but scored early in the second when Beck found Curtis Brown for a 19-yard touchdown pass. California scored again but Fahu Tahi scored on a three-yard run to tie the game at 14 with 38 seconds left in the second quarter. The Golden Bears struck again before the half, going 58 yards in 27 seconds to take a 21-14 lead into the locker room. In the fourth, Beck engineered a 74-yard drive that ended with Harline scoring and then a 96-yard drive that ended with Watkins catching a nine-yard touchdown pass from Beck. California's ensuing drive ended with a missed field goal and the Cougars had a chance to tie but the drive ended on Beck's interception.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 2006 BYU championship run ended with a Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl championship as the Cougars (11-2) dominated Oregon (7-6), 38-8, to finish the season with a 10-game winning streak in front of a Sam Boyd Stadium record crowd of 44,615. The Mountain West Conference champion BYU team set a school record for margin of victory in a bowl game, beating the Ducks by 30 points. Previously, the largest margin of victory for a BYU team in a bowl game was a 25-point defeat of Oklahoma in the 1994 Copper Bowl. BYU dominated all facets of the game, out-gaining Oregon 548 total yards to 260 total yards. BYU passed for 375 compared to Oregon's 166 and rushed for 173 compared to the Ducks 94. BYU seniors John Beck, Jonny Harline and Curtis Brown finished their careers in style. Beck completed 28 of 46 passes for 375 yards and two touchdowns. Harline, who was named Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl MVP, caught nine passes for a career-best – and Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl record – 181 yards and a touchdown. Brown had 17 carries for 120 yards and two touchdowns and also caught seven passes for 55 yards. Brown also became the first BYU runner to rush for over 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons. Beck and Brown became the first quarterback/running back combo to pass for 3,000 yards and rush for 1,000 in the same season twice.

GAME SUMMARY:

No. 17 BYU (11-2) won its second consecutive Las Vegas Bowl, 17-16, against UCLA (6-7) in dramatic fashion -- by blocking the Bruins' potential game-winning field goal attempt as time expired. With only three ticks on the clock, true freshman Eathyn Manumaleuna extended his right hand at the right time to block UCLA's potential game-winning, 28-yard field goal as time expired to create what will be known as one of the most memorable bowl finishes in BYU football history. The victory also avenged an early-season loss to the Bruins -- one of only two losses the Cougars suffered during the season. The Cougars, who finished the 2007 season on a 10-game winning streak, were led by sophomores Max Hall and Austin Collie. Hall threw 21-35 for 231 yards and two touchdowns. Sophomore receiver Austin Collie was named the 2007 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl Most Valuable Player after racking up a game-high 107 yards on six receptions. Collie's 14-yard touchdown reception from Max Hall with 10:32 left in the second quarter gave the Cougars a 10-3 advantage. He was also credited with a game-high 195 all-purpose yards, including three kick returns for a total of 88 yards. The win marked the first time BYU had won back-to-back bowl games since the 1994 Copper Bowl and the 1996 Cotton Bowl. The win over UCLA extended the Cougars' win streak to 10 straight games, which marked the nation's longest active winning streak.

BYU – Hall 1-yard run (Payne kick)

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU totaled 444 yards of total offense compared to Arizona's 416, but the No. 16 Cougars fell short of their third-straight bowl victory, falling 31-21 to the Arizona Wildcats in the 2008 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl at Sam Boyd Stadium on Dec. 20. Trailing late in the game, BYU put pressure on Arizona with a comeback attempt when the Cougars followed a touchdown with a successful on-side kick. Wide receiver O'Neill Chambers recovered the ball for BYU, but the ensuing field-goal attempt hit the upright and left the Wildcats with a two-possession lead, enough to hold on for the win. Austin Collie continued to set BYU records in career receptions (215) and single-season receptions (106). The All-American receiver also tied an NCAA single-season record held with Texas Tech's Michael Crabtree with his 11th consecutive 100-yard receiving game. BYU quarterback Max Hall completed 30-of-46 passes for 328 yards and one touchdown pass. The Cougars finished the year 10-3 while the Wildcats improved to 8-5. BYU was one of only seven programs in the nation to win 10 or more games each year from 2006-2008. The Cougars last accomplished the feat from 1983-85.

GAME SUMMARY:

The No. 14 BYU Cougars defeated the Pac-10 second-place Beavers 44-20 at the MAACO Bowl Las Vegas. It was the first-ever Las Vegas Bowl matchup pitting two top-20 teams. BYU's senior class anchored the win as quarterback Max Hall earned MVP honors throwing for 192 yards and three touchdowns. Manase Tonga contributed two touchdowns, while senior tight ends Andrew George and Dennis Pitta led all receivers with 46 and 45 yards, respectively. Defensively, senior linebacker Matt Bauman recovered a key fumble, returning it 34 yards for a touchdown. The score marked the first fumble recovery for a touchdown in BYU bowl history. Fellow team captain Scott Johnson intercepted an Oregon State pass in the fourth quarter and returned it 56 yards to set up BYU's final touchdown of the game. BYU and Oregon State met for the first time in a bowl game and for the first contest since BYU head coach Bronco Mendenhall played for the Beavers in 1986. Wind gusts of 55 mph created some havoc for the passing and kicking games. BYU punter Riley Stephenson kicked a 60-yard low liner with the wind that was the longest kick of his career and tied a BYU bowl record.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU opened the bowl season with its fourth bowl victory in the last five years with a 52-24 triumph over UTEP in the New Mexico Bowl. The Cougars had a record-setting day to finish the season with a 7-6 record and wins in five of their last six games. Offensive MVP Jake Heaps went 25-of-34 for 264 yards and four touchdown passes, passing Ty Detmer's freshman record for most touchdown passes. Heaps also set the BYU bowl record for best completion percentage (.735) in a bowl game. Safety Andrew Rich was awarded the game's Defensive MVP in his final game as a Cougar, finishing with four solo tackles, two interceptions, one tackle-for-loss, one sack and a pass breakup. BYU played well from the start, scoring on its first five possessions to take a 31-3 lead and set a new first-half New Mexico Bowl scoring record. Cody Hoffman set career highs across the board with eight receptions for 137 yards and three touchdowns, tying a BYU bowl game record for most TD receptions in a game. Mitch Payne passed Owen Pochman as the Cougars' all-time scoring leader with 334 points.

GAME SUMMARY:

With no timeouts left and 11 seconds remaining in the game, Riley Nelson faked spiking the ball to stop the clock and instead threw to an open Cody Hoffman for the game-winning touchdown to give BYU a 24-21 win over Tulsa in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl. BYU faced a 4th-and-9 from the Tulsa 47-yard line with the clock ticking down near three minutes remaining in the game and Nelson scrambled 14 yards to convert the first down and eventually set up the winning score. BYU locked up its fifth 10-win season in the last six years and third bowl victory in a row, a program record. Hoffman, named the Armed Forces Bowl Most Outstanding Player for the Cougars, finished with eight catches for 122 yards and a bowl-record three touchdowns. BYU's defense was stout, surrendering just 272 total yards and only 37 yards on the ground to a Golden Hurricane team that came into the game averaging over 200 rushing yards per game. Kyle Van Noy made play after play on defense with 10 tackles to lead the Cougars, including five tackles for loss, two sacks, one forces fumble and one quarterback hurry. Special teams also played a huge role in the game. Punter Riley Stephenson had eight punts for 335 yards, including seven inside the 20-yard line and two punts over 50 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

Linebacker Kyle Van Noy scored two touchdowns on defense in the fourth quarter, one with the team trailing 6-3 and led the BYU football team to a 23-6 win over San Diego State in the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl Thursday night at Qualcomm Stadium. The win extended the Cougars' bowl win streak to four to build on their current school record. BYU (8-5) forced four turnovers in the fourth quarter and outscored San Diego State (9-4) 20-0 to overcome a 6-3 deficit. After the Aztecs intercepted James Lark on 3rd and goal, the No. 3 total defense turned the tables on the next play and ignited BYU as Van Noy sacked San Diego State's Adam Dingwell to cause a fumble, falling on it for the first touchdown of the game to put the Cougars on top 10-6 with 12:32 remaining in the fourth quarter. The Van Noy show continued with a pick-six to finalize the score, 23-6, late in the fourth quarter. Van Noy was named the defensive MVP after finishing the night with two touchdowns, a forced fumble and fumble recovery, one interception, a blocked punt, 3.5 tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks and eight total tackles. Senior Brandon Ogletree led the Cougars in tackles with 10 and added two tackles for loss. All-American Riley Stephenson helped flip the field for BYU with four punts inside the 5-yard line. Junior wide receiver Cody Hoffman grabbed 10 passes for 114 yards to earn offensive MVP.

GAME SUMMARY:

Taysom Hill finished the game throwing for 293 yards and rushing for 133 yards. Cody Hoffman had 12 catches for 167 yards for his 18th 100-yard receiving game in his career to break the record held by Austin Collie. He also broke the BYU record for career all-purpose yards, ending his career with 5,015 and passing Curtis Brown. Washington got inside the BYU 20-yard line on two of its first three drives of the game, but the Cougar defense held the Huskies to just one touchdown on their opening possession. BYU drove the ball 88 yards to tie the game at 7-7 on a one-yard run by Hill. The Cougars grabbed the momentum on a fake punt by Daniel Sorensen, and Hill completed his next four passes to move the offense down the field. Washington returned the following kickoff back for a touchdown to take back the lead at 14-7. Two field goals by Justin Sorensen brought the score within one at 14-13. Sorensen's first field goal was from 45 yards, which is a season long. A long kickoff return by the Huskies set up Washington's second rushing touchdown of the game to take a 21-13 lead with just over two and a half minutes left in the first half. Justin Sorensen nailed his third field goal of the game as time expired in the first half to close the gap at 21-16 going into the locker room but went scoreless in the second half.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU rallied from down 10 in the fourth quarter to take a late lead but a last-minute touchdown from Memphis forced overtime. Each team tacked on three in the first overtime but after giving up a Tiger touchdown, the Cougars were intercepted in the end zone to end the game in a 55-48 loss. Christian Stewart went 23 of 48 for 348 yards and three touchdowns to go along with three interceptions. Stewart spread the ball around, completing passes to 10 different receivers. Mitch Mathews led all pass catchers with nine receptions for 82 yards and a touchdown. Mitchell Juergens caught four balls for 87 yards and a score. Jordan Leslie only caught one pass in his last game as a Cougar, but it went for 23 yards and a touchdown. BYU totaled 425 yards, compared to 480 for Memphis. The Tigers outgained the Cougars on the ground 174-77 and also dominated the time of possession 46:32-28:28. After losing the overtime coin toss, BYU kicker Trevor Samson drilled a career-long 45-yard field goal to put BYU up 48-45. Memphis bested the Cougars' kick with a 55-yard kick from Jake Elliott to send it to double overtime. Memphis opened up the second overtime with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Roderick Proctor, and DeShaughn Terry picked off Stewart at the goal line to end the game.

GAME SUMMARY:

After surrendering five turnovers on its first five possessions, BYU found itself in a 35-0 hole after the first 10 minutes of the game. BYU rallied for a touchdown on its last possession of the first half to trail 35-7. Out of the break, the Cougars strung together three more touchdowns and held the Utes (10-3) scoreless to make it 35-28 with 3:23 remaining in the game. Utah converted two first downs on its final drive to get into the victory formation and prevent the Cougars from having another chance. After a forgettable first quarter, BYU dominated the statistics, outgaining Utah 386 to 197 in total yards and 315 to 71 in the throwing game. Despite throwing three interceptions and fumbling in the first quarter, true freshman Tanner Mangum stayed composed to finish the game 25 of 56 for 315 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed for a 4-yard touchdown. Devon Blackmon caught three passes for 97 yards while Nick Kurtz and Remington Peck each caught a touchdown pass. Francis Bernard added one rushing touchdown as part of his seven carries for 58 yards. Defensively, Bronson Kaufusi led BYU in tackles in his final game of a Cougar with nine and had three tackles for loss. With 5:05 to go, Utah went for a short 4th-and-1 and the BYU defense stuffed Joe Williams for no gain to get the ball back at the Cougar 40-yard line with 5:05 to go. Mangum hit Blackmon for 45 yards to get BYU inside the Utah 4-yard line. Mangum called his own number and rushed four yards for the score to make it 35-28 with 3:23 on the clock. The Ute offense did just enough to get two first downs on the ensuing drive and never gave the Cougars a chance to complete an incredible comeback.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU led 24-7 in the fourth quarter, but a furious Cowboy comeback made it a thriller in the final minutes. Wyoming cut the advantage to 24-21 and had the ball at the Cougar 32-yard line with 1:22 to play before senior Kai Nacua picked off a pass heading near the end zone to end the final threat of a comeback. Senior running back Jamaal Williams put on a show in his final game at BYU, running for 210 yards and one touchdown on 26 carries. Quarterback Tanner Mangum scrambled and punched in the first score to put BYU up 7-0 with 38 seconds to play in first quarter. BYU was able to get three points at the 3:08 mark in the second quarter with a 27-yard field goal from Rhett Almond. Out of the break, Wyoming went 60 yards on its first drive, capped by a 4-yard touchdown run to cut BYU's lead to 10-7 after a drive over eight minutes long. On a desperation throw to the end zone, the ball bounced off of multiple players' hands before falling into Tanner Baldersee's arms for a 5-yard touchdown for a 17-7 lead with 2:42 in the third. Dayan Lake stepped in front of a pass and intercepted it for his third pick of the year. The Cougars cashed in five plays later when a Jonah Trinnaman block helped spring Williams for a 36-yard touchdown run to make it 24-7 to start the fourth quarter. The back and forth scoring continued when Wyoming made it 24-14 after a 9-yard touchdown pass with 7:35 left in the game. The Cowboys continued to fight with another touchdown from Wyoming wide receiver Tanner Gentry (his second of the game) with 2:11 to go to make things interesting at 24-21. BYU had to punt it back to Wyoming with 1:52 remaining. After getting to the 32-yard line, Wyoming's quarterback was intercepted by Nacua as he jumped in front and picked it off to seal BYU's victory.

The 2017 BYU Football Almanac has been designed to provide local, regional and national media with useful information about the BYU football program, its history and tradition. Additional information, including video and feature content and bios on all players, is available online at byucougars.com. Should you require additional information, such as photographs, video or additional media guides, please contact the BYU Athletic Communications office at (801) 422-8948. We appreciate your coverage of BYU football and look forward to working with you this season.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

All requests for credentials to cover BYU football should be sent from the editor or sports director via official company communication to Brett Pyne in the Athletic Communications office (brett_pyne@byu.edu; BYU Athletic Communications, 30 SFH, Provo, UT 84602; Fax 801-422-0633). Credentials shall be issued only to accredited newsgathering media outlets. Fan-based websites will not be issued media access and credentials but are invited to utilize resources provided online at BYUCougars.com to obtain notes, quotes, statistics and other information about BYU football.

All single-game credential requests should be received no later than one week prior to the date of the game to ensure consideration. Credentials for working media are restricted in accordance with BYU and NCAA rules and guidelines. Non-working persons, including spouses, dates and children, will not be credentialed and are not allowed in the working media areas during the game as dictated by NCAA guidelines. It is our intention to ensure proper, professional use is made of the space available for credentialed media.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Sideline credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers and television reporters/camera operators on a specific newsgathering assignment. Television organizations shall be restricted to one camera operator and one reporter on the field at all times, except by prior approval from the BYU Athletic Communications office. Freelance and amateur photographers, not on assignment from a credentialed media outlet, are not eligible for credentials.

Credentials must be displayed prominently. All NCAA rules will be enforced regarding media representatives on the sidelines. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines. Individuals or organizations violating sideline policies may be required to surrender their credentials and be removed from the stadium. For additional questions regarding photography guidelines, please contact University photographer Jaren Wilkey at (801) 422-7322.

MEDIA SERVICES

The working media area is located on the third floor of the press box, situated on the west side of LaVell Edwards Stadium. Access to the press loge may be obtained via either the north or south elevators with media credentials.

The BYU Athletic Communications staff will provide working media with game notes, season stats, depth charts, flip cards, programs, game stats, postgame notes and quotes and media guides for both teams.

With four minutes remaining on the game clock, media are invited to take the south elevator to ground level in preparation for the postgame press conference. BYU head coach Kalani Sitake and selected players will be available in the interview room following the mandatory 10-minute cooling-off period. The BYU locker room is closed to the media.

The BYU press box is also equipped with wireless internet access. Wireless passwords will be provided with other game materials to media working in the press box.

PARKING

LaVell Edwards Stadium is located on the northwest corner of the BYU campus, just off Canyon Road (200 East) and University Parkway (1650 North) in Provo. Media parking is in Lot No. 2, immediately west of the stadium. Parking passes are required and must be obtained in advance.

INTERVIEWS

All interview and information requests regarding all players, coaches and Athletic Department personnel must be arranged in advance through the Athletic Communications office at (801) 422-8948. BYU provides regular media availability each week. Local media members are responsible for attending after-practice media availability to conduct interviews. Opponent and national media can arrange telephone interviews through the Athletic Communications office. The Athletic Communications office will send an advisory each week detailing the weekly availability opportunities. Any other interview requests must be made at least 24 hours in advance. Interviews with players are not permitted after Wednesday each game week. Player interviews will not be conducted during regular class hours.

Please contact the Athletic Communications office for specific times and other details if requesting access opportunities.

DISCLAIMER

The Brigham Young University Athletic Media Communications department reserves the right to revoke or deny working media credentials and/or access to any individual or organization at any time for any reason. All credentials are the property of Brigham Young University and must be surrendered upon request.

TELEVISION PARTNERS

On Sept. 1, 2010, Brigham Young University announced an 8-year deal with ESPN to televise Cougar football on the sports leader's family of networks. BYU is the first program to sign an exclusive deal with ESPN.

ESPN has agreed that any BYU home games it doesn't select may be televised live on BYUtv.

Since 2011, every BYU home football game has been televised to a live national audience on the ESPN family of networks or BYUtv. Additionally, BYU's national fan base is able to view same-day rebroadcasts on BYUtv of every home game and any away game to which ESPN has rights through conference agreements with the host team.

"We've long sought broad, nationwide access to our games for our fans and increased visibility among those who may be less familiar with our university and athletic programs," said then BYU President Cecil O. Samuelson. "We've also been looking for ways to take better advantage of our own unique broadcasting resources."

Founded in 2001, BYUtv has grown from a relatively unknown cable channel on a single satellite TV provider to coverage in more than 55 million households on Dish Network, DirecTV, and over 800 cable systems in the United States. The network's state-of-the-art production building allows it to televise every game in HD, along with its HD truck with the capability of broadcasting while on the road.

ESPN and ESPN2 are both available in almost 99 million homes, while the 24-hour college sports network ESPNU is distributed to to over 73 million homes. ESPN also produces college football games that are broadcast on ABC.

Each year, a minimum of three games will be carried on ESPN, ESPN2, or ABC and one on ESPNU. At least one game each season will be carried live on BYUtv.

ESPN has televised many of the great games in Cougar football history, beginning with the network's first live college football telecast. In that 1984 game, the Cougars defeated No. 3 Pitt at the beginning of BYU's national championship season.

ESPN also carried BYU's defeat of top-ranked Miami in 1990, a contest long rated among the top regular-season college football game on ESPN since that year. BYU's season-opening win over No. 3 Oklahoma was ESPN's ninth-highest rated game of the 2009 regular season.

"BYU is nationally recognized as an outstanding university and for the history and tradition of its premier athletic programs," said Burke Magnus, ESPN senior vice president, college sports programming. "Once BYU decided to chart an independent course for football, we both recognized it is a good opportunity to build and grow our strong 30-year relationship. With this agreement, college football fans around the country will see the quality and pageantry of BYU as well as the passion and enthusiasm of its supporters."

RADIO

BYU football games are heard exclusively on the Nu Skin BYU Sports Network. Nationally, broadcasts air via satellite on BYU Radio (SiriusXM 143), while local flagship coverage is heard on KSL Newsradio (102.7 FM/1160 AM).

The "Voice of the Cougars" is Greg Wrubell, entering his 17th season as play-by-play commentator. A BYU graduate, Wrubell is in his 26th season on the football radio broadcast crew, having served as sideline reporter before stepping into the booth.

Wrubell's broadcast partner is former BYU quarterback Marc Lyons, who will be providing analysis and commentary for a 37th season in 2017. Former Cougar receiver and kick returner Nate Meikle returns to the broadcast team in his 10th season reporting from the sidelines. Studio coverage will be hosted from the BYU Broadcast Building.

BYU football broadcasts are heard over-the-air via network affiliates in Utah, Idaho and Nevada. Game coverage is also available online at BYUCougars.com, BYURadio.org and via the BYU Cougars and BYU Radio mobile apps, with the audio stream and archives made available to a worldwide listening audience.

COACHES' SHOWS

In addition to comprehensive game-day coverage, the Nu Skin BYU Sports Network and BYU Broadcasting produce "BYU Football with Head Coach Kalani Sitake," Tuesday nights at 7 p.m. MT, throughout the season. A live audience will join Coach Sitake, player guests and host Greg Wrubell at the BYUtv studios for an insightful and entertaining weekly look inside Cougar football.

In addition, assistant coaches Ed Lamb, Ty Detmer and Ilaia Tuiaki will be featured guests on the "Coordinators' Corner" radio show, Mondays in-season, from noon-1 p.m. MT. Greg Wrubell hosts the live broadcast, which will air live from JCW's in Provo, and originate on BYU Radio (SiriusXM 143). The show can also be seen via live streaming video on BYU Athletics social media platforms.
