2018 SEASON PREVIEW

NEW FACES LIGHT THE SPARK FOR NEW SEASON

The 2017 season was a year of adversity for the Cougars. A combination of youth and inexperience along with 25 members of the two-deep missing time due to injuries contributed to a 4-9 season not often experienced by the program. With last year in the rear-view mirror and a goal to get back to winning, BYU football is working hard to prepare for the 2018 season.

The 2018 season will feature another loaded schedule, with matchups against eight teams that played in a bowl game in 2017. The schedule is highlighted by a Pac-12 heavy lineup of four teams including Arizona, Cal, Washington and Utah. In addition to the Pac-12 slate, BYU will face top-10 Wisconsin of the Big Ten in Madison. The Cougars also take on teams from the Mountain West, including in-state foe Utah State, regional rival Boise State and Hawai'i. Fellow independents UMass and New Mexico State are also on the schedule along with a matchup against the Mid-American Conference's Northern Illinois and FCS power McNeese State.

The season opens against Arizona on the road Sept. 1. Last season the Wildcats finished 7-6 and third in the Pac-12 conference. Arizona hired Kevin Sumlin as its new head coach, bringing with him a successful track record of high-powered offenses from his days at Houston and Texas A&M. Sumlin has also produced some of the country's top quarterbacks in the nation, including Case Keenum at Houston and Heisman winner Johnny Manziel at Texas A&M. Sumlin will have another good one at Arizona with dual-threat quarterback Khalil Tate. Tate averaged 272.9 yards of total offense per game last season.

The Cougars return to LaVell Edwards Stadium to face Cal in the home opener the next week. They defeated Cal in the last matchup in a shootout 42-35 in 2014.

BYU then hits the road again for a date with top-10 power Wisconsin. The Badgers finished last season 13-1 and No. 7 in final rankings. Wisconsin handled the Cougars in Provo last season so BYU will look to answer in Madison this year.

A first-time matchup with McNeese State at home on Sept. 22 comes before another Pac-12 contest at Washington the following week. The Huskies won 10 games last season and finished at No. 15 in the coaches poll. It will be the Cougars' first trip to Seattle since defeating Jake Locker and the Huskies 28-27 in 2008.

Following the Washington game, BYU gets three straight at home. The stretch begins with a Friday night contest with Utah State, before an old rival, Hawai'i, comes to Provo looking to avenge a loss to the Cougars in Honolulu last year. After a bye week, the Huskies of Northern Illinois will make their first trip to LaVell Edwards Stadium.

After the three-game homestand, the Cougars will visit the blue turf in another regional matchup against Boise State. The Broncos finished in the top 25 again last season and defeated BYU in Provo 24-7.

The Cougars make their longest trip of the year the following week with a game against UMass at Gillette Stadium, home of the New England Patriots on Nov. 10.

BYU's last home game of the year will be on Nov. 17 against New Mexico State. The Aggies have seen a resurgence recently, making a bowl game for the first time since the 1960s last season.

An old tradition returns to conclude the 2018 season, with the Deseret First Duel against Utah resuming its place as the final regular season game on Nov. 24. BYU will visit Rice-Eccles Stadium to try and break the streak of seven straight losses to the Utes.

All eyes will be fixated on the Cougars' new offense, designed by new offensive coordinator Jeff Grimes. Grimes, BYU's offensive line coach from 2004-06, returned to BYU after successful runs at Colorado, Virginia Tech, Auburn and most recently, LSU. The seasoned coaching veteran has more than 25 years of experience with some of the most talented offensive minds in the game.

Grimes assembled a new offensive staff that includes three former offensive coordinators in Aaron Roderick (passing game coordinator, quarterbacks), Fesi Sitake (wide receivers) and returning tight ends coach Steve Clark. Rounding out the new staff is Ryan Pugh (offensive line), a Grimes protege that spent time with him at Auburn and LSU, and AJ Steward (running backs) out of Rice.

The cupboard has plenty of options for Grimes and Co. to get things going while the defensive unit returns plenty of talent as well. Both sides of the ball experimented in spring with some position changes in hopes to get the best 11 players on the field.

Defensively, Ilaisa Tuiaki added one new face to his staff in former Cougar defensive back Preston Hadley with the departure of longtime coach Steve Kaufusi. Hadley will coach the safeties now as Ed Lamb moved over to coach the linebackers and Tuiaki will continue to coach the defensive line. Jernaro Gilford continues his work with the cornerbacks while Kalani Sitake will also take a more active role on the defensive side of the ball this season.

Lamb will also remain the special teams coordinator, an area where BYU has been stout the past two seasons, ranking in the top 10 each year in punt or kick coverage units.

Check out pages 8-11 for position and personnel breakdowns for the 2018 squad.

OFFENSE

Coordinator: Jeff Grimes

The offense returns a lot of experience and talent for new coordinator Jeff Grimes. In the spring, Coach Grimes instilled a workman-like attitude with accountability and a focus on details and effort. The BYU offense will feature a multiple look with varying formations from under center and shotgun to maximize the team's current talent and build a successful system for years to come based on the Cougar program's strengths.

QUARTERBACK

Coach: Aaron Roderick (Passing game coordinator)

The quarterback position is has talent and experience. Senior Tanner Mangum is back and despite being limited in spring as he fully recovers from a 2017 injury, the 21-game starter for BYU is the most experienced signal caller in the mix. Junior Beau Hoge and sophomore Joe Critchlow both started games last season and have impressed in the spring. Leading the newcomers is Zach Wilson, the Corner Canyon High School star who enrolled early to participate in spring football. In addition to Wilson, freshmen Stacy Conner and Baylor Romney enrolled in January and also took reps in spring and add depth in the quarterback room. Another new face is Hayden Griffiths, the twin brother of fullback Kyle Griffiths, while Jaren Hall, joins the team in the summer after returning home from a mission. A talented dual-threat player, Hall is the brother of running back KJ Hall and son of former Cougar Kalin Hall.

QUARTERBACKS

Tanner Mangum	6-3	215	SR	Eagle, Idaho / Eagle HS
Beau Hoge	6-1	215	R-JR.	Fort Thomas, Kentucky / Highlands HS
Joe Critchlow	6-4	210	SO.	Franklin, Tenn. / Franklin HS
Hayden Griffiths	6-2	195	SO.	Windermere, FL / West Orange HS
Zach Wilson	6-3	200	FR.	Draper, Utah / Corner Canyon HS
Stacy Conner	6-5	185	FR.	Wylie, Texas / Wylie HS
Baylor Romney	6-2	190	FR.	El Paso, Texas / Franklin HS
Jaren Hall	6-1	205	FR.	Spanish Fork, UT / Maple Mountain HS

2017 QBs LOST: Koy Detmer Jr. (transfer), Kody Wilstead (transfer)

RUNNING BACK

Coach: AJ Steward

There are plenty of options at running back for new coach AJ Steward. Squally Canada and several other talented backs return for 2018. The California native ran 120 times last season for 710 yards and six touchdowns. After leading the scout team in 2017, redshirt freshman Zach Katoa showcased his skillset during spring and is expected to be a factor in the fall. Riley Burt, a junior, also made strides in spring and proved to be a powerful and speedy option. Working his way back from injury is KJ Hall, a versatile junior with 390 career rushing yards and 189 receiving yards. Kavika Fonua is another back that adds depth but is also recovering from a spring injury. The fullbacks both return with Brayden El-Bakri heading into his senior year as the primary blocker with sophomore Kyle Griffiths getting some action as well.

RUNNING BACKS

Squally Canada	5-11	210	R-SR.	East Palo Alto, Calif. / Washington State
KJ Hall	5-10	180	R-JR.	Mapleton, Utah / Maple Mountain HS
Riley Burt	6-1	210	R-JR.	Mantua, Utah / Box Elder HS
Kavika Fonua	6-0	212	R-JR.	Syracuse, Utah / Syracuse HS
Zach Katoa	6-1	205	R-FR.	American Fork, Utah / American Fork HS
Sione Finau	5-11	175	FR.	Kearns, Utah / Kearns HS
Brayden El-Bakri (FB)	6-0	240	R-SR.	Salt Lake City, Utah / Brighton HS
Kyle Griffiths (FB)	6-3	230	R-SO.	Windermere, Florida / West Orange HS
Johnny Tapusoa (FB)	5-10	225	JR.	Laie, Hawaii / Kahuku HS

2017 RBs LOST: Austin Kafentzis (moved to defensive back), Ula Toluta'u

WIDE RECEIVER

Coach: Fesi Sitake

The wide receiver group will look to take another step forward in 2018 and have a few playmakers emerge. Junior Micah Simon took on the leadership role in spring and is one of the top targets returning. He picked up 386 yards, three touchdowns and 27 receptions in 2017. Aleva Hifo, after producing, the top marks from the 2017 crew with 37 receptions, 437 yards and two touchdowns, is back for his junior season. Talented junior Talon Shumway returns along with Akile Davis with an eye toward earning a spot in the rotation. Sophomore Neil Pau'u is back after seeing action last season. Trey Dye, who spent last season with the running backs, is also returning to the receiver group for his senior season. A familiar face, Dylan Collie, returns to BYU after his career at Hawai'i as a graduate transfer to bolster the receivers. Newcomers such as Gunner Romney and Brayden Cosper are also expected to compete in fall.

WIDE RECEIVER

Trey Dye	5-9	190	R-SR.	Abilene, Texas / Cooper HS
Dylan Collie	5-10	175	R-SR.	El Dorado Hills, Calif. / Hawai'i
Micah Simon	6-1	192	R-JR.	Dallas, Texas / Bishop Dunne HS
Aleva Hifo	5-10	187	JR.	Menifee, Calif. / Heritage HS
Talon Shumway	6-3	205	R-JR.	South Jordan, Utah / Lone Peak HS
Akile Davis	6-2	200	R-JR.	DeSoto, Texas / DeSoto HS
Neil Pau'u	6-4	215	SO.	Santa Ana, Calif. / Servite HS
Gunner Romney	6-3	200	FR.	Chandler, Arizona / Chandler HS
Brayden Cosper	6-3	195	FR.	South Jordan, Utah / Bingham HS

2017 WRs LOST: Jonah Trinnaman, Rickey Shumway, Beau Tanner, Tariq Buchanan

TIGHT END

Coach: Steve Clark

Another position of strength has to be the tight ends. The headliner is sophomore Matt Bushman, returning after his All-American freshman season where he led all FBS freshman tight ends with 49 receptions, 520 yards and three touchdowns. Of all the 2017 tight ends in college football, Bushman is the top returning statistical leader. Bushman will have some more running mates this season with the emergence of senior JJ Nwigwe in spring football and Moroni Laulu-Pututau in good health. Redshirt freshman Nate Heaps had a solid spring and could contribute while freshman Tanner Leishman impressed in his first year of football after being a top high school basketball player. Hank Tuipulotu and Dallin Holker also join the group in the fall.

TIGHT END

JJ Nwigwe	6-5	260	SR.	Rockwall, Texas / Rockwall-Heath HS
Moroni Laulu-Pututau	6-4	240	R-JR.	Hyrum, Utah / Mountain Crest HS
Matt Bushman	6-5	240	SO.	Tucson, Arizona / Sabino HS
Nate Heaps	6-4	239	R-FR.	American Fork, Utah / American Fork HS
Tanner Leishman	6-6	225	FR.	Las Vegas, Nevada / Desert Hills HS
Hank Tuipulotu	6-3	225	FR.	Fort Mill, South Carolina / Nation Ford HS
Dallin Holker	6-5	225	FR.	Lehi, Utah / Lehi HS

2017 TEs LOST: Tanner Balderree, Hunter Marshall, Nate Sampson (moved to defense), Joe Tukuafu

OFFENSIVE LINE

Coach: Ryan Pugh

Despite losing experience on the interior of the line, a young group of talented linemen are ready to fill the void left by three starters in the middle. Redshirt freshman James Empey trained at the center duties after backing up Tejan Koroma last season while Notre Dame transfer Tristen Hoge should man one of the guard positions. With former freshman All-American Thomas Shoaf having a handle on the tackle position, he cross trained at guard in spring. On the outside, senior Austin Hoyt returns after starting every game at right tackle last season while redshirt freshman Brady Christensen looks promising at the left tackle spot if Shoaf moves inside. Sophomores Kieffer Longson and Austin Chambers also have experience and will be in the mix, along with junior Jacob Jimenez back to compete at center after missing last season with an injury. Talented sophomore Chandon Herring has game experience along with Addison Pulsipher. Senior Ului Lapuaho participated in spring and is still getting back up to speed after missing most of the last two seasons with injuries. If the senior with 18 starts can get healthy he would bolster an already deep group. Harris LaChance, a 6-foot-8 recruit had a good spring and could also be a factor in the fall while newcomers Clark Barrington, JT Gentry and Jacob Smith are also expected to be with the team in fall.

OFFENSIVE LINEMAN

Austin Hoyt	6-8	305	R-SR.	Ione, California / Argonaut HS
Ului Lapuaho	6-7	340	R-SR.	West Valley City, Utah / Hunter HS
Thomas Shoaf	6-5	290	R-JR.	Columbus, Indiana / Columbus North HS
Jacob Jimenez	6-5	300	R-JR.	Pflugerville, Texas / Pflugerville HS
Addison Pulsipher	6-5	285	R-JR.	Temecula, California / Temecula Valley HS
Tristen Hoge	6-5	305	R-SO.	Pocatello, Idaho / Notre Dame
Chandon Herring	6-7	295	R-SO.	Gilbert, Arizona / Perry HS
Austin Chambers	6-5	307	R-SO.	Shawnee Mission, Kansas / Shawnee Mission West HS
Kieffer Longson	6-5	305	R-SO.	San Ramon, California / Dougherty Valley HS
James Empey	6-4	290	R-FR.	American Fork, Utah / American Fork HS
Brady Christensen	6-5	285	R-FR.	Bountiful, Utah / Bountiful HS
Harris LaChance	6-8	300	FR.	Herriman, Utah / Herriman HS
Ethan Atagi	6-5	300	FR.	Ogden, Utah / Bonneville HS
Clark Barrington	6-6	275	FR.	Spokane Valley, Washington / University HS
JT Gentry	6-5	285	FR.	Littleton, Colorado / Columbine HS
Jacob Smith	6-6	305	FR.	Farmington, Minnesota / Rosemount HS

2017 OLs LOST: Tejan Koroma, Keyan Norman, Tunii Kanuch

DEFENSE

Coordinator: 'Ilaisa Tuiaki

The defense returns a lot of talent for 2018. Up front, the defensive line returns Corbin Kaufusi and Khyiris Tonga and could have more than a dozen capable linemen in the rotation. The leader of the defense is senior Butch Pau'u in the middle while speed rush specialist Sione Takitaki returns to his natural position at linebacker. Coaches used spring football as an opportunity to move some positions and experiment with ways to get the best 11 players on the field. As a result, starting safety Zayne Anderson was asked to put on weight and move up to flash linebacker to help fill the void left by third-round NFL draft pick Fred Warner. Dayan Ghanwoloku also moved over from starting corner to one of the safety spots.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Coach: 'Ilaisa Tuiaki (Defensive coordinator)

The Cougars look to have a lot of bodies to use up front with an influx of younger players now ready to contribute. On the edges, Corbin Kaufusi returns along with Trajan Pili. Uriah Leiataua was productive in spring along with the newest Kaufusi, Devin, the youngest in a long line of Kaufusi brothers. Langi Tuifua also returns as a sophomore after having a role as a freshman. In the middle, Khyiris Tonga, Merrill Taliauli and Tevita Mo'unga have power and experience to clog the gaps. Lorenzo Fautea was granted a medical hardship for last year's campaign while Keanu Saleapaga looks to finally make an impact after redshirting last season. Additional members of the incoming recruiting class and returned missionaries will add more depth in camp.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Corbin Kaufusi	6-9	280	R-SR.	Provo, Utah / Timpview HS
Merrill Taliauli	6-2	305	SR.	Salt Lake City, Utah / East HS

2017 DLs LOST: Handsome Tanielu, Kesni Tausinga, Kainoa Fuiava, Kamalani Kaluhiokalani, Solomon Wolfgramm

LINEBACKERS

Coach: Ed Lamb (Assistant head coach/Special teams coordinator)

Filling the shoes of Fred Warner will be no easy task in 2018. Matt Hadley returns after being granted an extra year after a medical hardship. The redshirt-senior can play any of the linebacker spots. Zayne Anderson has the speed and the frame to add some weight so the former starting safety and looks to be the heir apparent after spending spring there to get settled. Morgan Unga, Riggs Powell and Isaiah Kaufusi should provide additional depth at the flash spot. In the middle, Butch Pau'u is healthy and ready to put his final stamp on the linebacker spot for 2018 while Christian Folau looks to be a star in the making in the middle. Sione Takitaki is back at linebacker, his natural fit, to provide a pass rush and athleticism to the group while AJ Lolohea impressed in spring along with Hirkley Latu. Adam Pulsipher is a savvy veteran with loads of experience that can play every linebacker spot.

2017 LBs LOST: Chaz Ah You, Phillip Amon, Garrett England, Rylee Gautavai, Grant Jones, Va'a Niumatalolo, Will Sedgwick, Johnny Tapusoa (moved positions), Fred Warner

CORNERBACKS

Coach: Jernaro Gilford

The corner position features several talented athletes that are back with more experience in 2018. With starters Dayan Ghanwoloku and Troy Warner both likely moving to safety, four players have emerged in the competition for a starting position. Chris Wilcox and Michael Shelton look to secure one of the spots. In addition Keenan Ellis made a strong case for time on the field during spring football while Trevion Greene also impressed. The Cougars also expect Austin McChesney back in the fall after an injury. A pair of new corners in Malik Moore and Isaiah Herron are also expected in fall.

CORNERBACK

SAFETIES

Coach: Preston Hadley

New coach Preston Hadley will work with the safeties to find replacements for Micah Hannemann and likely Zayne Anderson, who moved to linebacker in the spring. Dayan Ghanwoloku shifted over from corner pretty seamlessly in spring while Austin Lee took command of the other safety spot. Isaiah Armstrong also moved from corner after redshirting last year and Tanner Jacobson has plenty of game experience. Gavin Fowler is another returning veteran while the defense also snagged a play-making athlete from the offense when running back Austin Kafentzis moved to safety during spring. Working back from injury, Troy Warner is expected to compete for a safety role as well after starting at corner the last two years.

SAFETY

Gavin Fowler	6-0	191	R-SR.	Kaysville, Utah / Davis HS
Sawyer Powell	6-1	187	R-SR.	West Richland, Washington / Richland HS
Tanner Jacobson	5-10	185	SR.	Southlake, Texas / Texas Tech
Dayan Ghanwoloku	5-11	190	R-JR.	Layton, Utah / Northridge HS
Isaiah Armstrong	6-2	195	R-JR.	Redlands, California / Riverside City College
Austin Lee	6-0	202	R-JR.	Draper, Utah / Salt Lake Community College
Austin Kafentzis	6-1	195	R-JR.	Sandy, Utah / Arizona Western College
Matthew Criddle	6-1	195	R-FR.	Highland, Utah / Snow College
Drew Jensen	6-2	195	FR.	Sandy, Utah / Brighton HS

2017 Safs LOST: Kamel Greene, Micah Hannemann, Sam Baldwin

SPECIAL TEAMS

Coach: Ed Lamb

The kicking game brings back veterans Rhett Almond and Andrew Mikkelsen. Almond took the bulk of the work last season while Mikkelsen was more of a kickoff specialist, though both can placekick. Almond was also the backup punter last year and looks to compete for the punting duties in 2018. Both long snappers, Mitch Harris and Matt Foley, return while newcomers. The fall will bring in Australian rules football player Danny Jones into the punter competition and four-star high school prospect Skyler Southam to the placekicking group.

SPECIALIST HT.

Rhett Almond (P, PK)	6-4	200	R-SR.	Valencia, California / Hart HS
Andrew Mikkelsen (PK)	6-0	200	R-SR.	Canby, Oregon / Oregon State
Matt Foley (LS)	6-1	210	SR.	Temecula, California / Temecula Valley HS
Mitch Harris (LS)	6-4	215	SR.	Gilbert, Arizona / Perry HS
Skyler Southam (PK)	6-0	185	FR.	Heber City, Utah / Wasatch HS
Danny Jones (P)	6-4	223	FR.	Essendon, Australia / La Trobe University

2017 Specs LOST: Jonny Linehan (P), Corey Edwards (PK)

In 2018 BYU enters its eighth season of independence as the only school with an exclusive television partnership with ESPN. After making the announcement on Sept. 1, 2010, BYU started competing as an independent in 2011 while also beginning a new partnership with ESPN to televise Cougar football home games on the sports leader's family of networks.

No. 17 FOR MOST NATIONAL TV GAMES SINCE 2011

73 PERCENT of BYU's games have been featured on national television since 2011

68 GAMES in past seven seasons on an ESPN network

9 GAMES in 2017 on one of the ESPN networks

"BYU is nationally recognized as an outstanding university and for the history and tradition of its premier athletic programs," said Burke Magnus, ESPN executive vice president, programming and scheduling. "Once BYU decided to chart an independent course for football, we both recognized it is a good opportunity to build and grow our strong 30-year relationship. With this agreement, college football fans around the country will see the quality and pageantry of BYU as well as the passion and enthusiasm of its supporters."

One of the most important goals in becoming an independent was the opportunity for more national exposure for the university and football program. As an independent, BYU has had 68 games over the past seven seasons on one of the ESPN networks. Last season BYU had nine games on one of the ESPN networks, including three games featured on both ESPN and ESPN2, one on ABC and two carried on ESPN3 as well as BYUtv.

Overall, BYU is tied for 17th in the country for the most national TV games since going independent in 2011. In that span, 73 percent of BYU's games have been featured on a national TV channel (70+ million households).

BYU has also sought better access for the Cougars' national fan base and the opportunity to schedule high-profile opponents. Since 2011, BYU has played teams from the SEC, Big 12, Big Ten, Pac-12, ACC, American, Conference USA, Mid-American, Mountain West, Western Athletic Conference, and fellow independents Notre Dame and UMass and boasts upcoming games scheduled with Power 5 programs such as Tennessee, Missouri, Michigan State, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Baylor, Virginia, Virginia Tech, NC State, USC, Oregon, Stanford, Cal, Washington, Washington State, Arizona, Arizona State and Utah among others.

Every BYU home football game will be televised to a live national audience on the ESPN family of networks or BYUtv. Each year, a minimum of three home games will be carried on ESPN, ESPN2, or ABC while additional games can also be televised on those networks or on ESPNU. At least one game each season will be carried live on BYUtv. Additionally, BYU fans are able to view same-day rebroadcasts on BYUtv of every home game and any away game to which ESPN has the rights through conference agreements with the host team.

ADDITIONAL BYU FOOTBALL PROGRAMMING ON BYUtv

BYU is the only school in the country with nationally televised live 60-minute pregame and 30-60-minute postgame shows before and after every game—home or away. BYUtv also produces daily and weekly BYU-centric sports shows, including the Kalani Sitake Coach's Show, as well as additional BYU football specials throughout the year to highlight events such as National Letter of Intent Day, BYU spring football, BYU Pro Day and the annual BYU Football National Media Day in late June, which also includes live programming on ESPN3.

BYUtv and BYU Radio/Sirius XM 143 simulcast a daily news show—BYU Sports Nation—that airs live each weekday from noon-1 p.m. ET/10-11 a.m. MT from Studio B at the BYU Broadcasting Building in Provo with an additional airing the same day at 6 p.m. ET/4 p.m. MT. The latest news and information about BYU sports are discussed each day by hosts Jarom Jordan and Spencer Linton. During the football season BYUtv also features a weekly one-hour show—After Further Review—where host Dave McCann and a panel of experts provide in-depth analysis of the tactics, plays, and touchdowns of every BYU football game.

BYUtv is available in 60 million North American homes and is growing every month. It's on the basic tier of both Dish and DirectTV and is carried by more than 800 cable systems. The network constructed its own state-of-the-art production building that will allow it to televise every game in HD, along with its HD truck with the capability of broadcasting while on the road.

KALANI SITAKE

BYU HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Kalani Sitake (pronounced kah-lah-nee see-tah-kay) was named head coach overseeing the BYU football program on December 19, 2015, by director of athletics Tom Holmoe.

A former Cougar running back (1994, 1997-2000), Sitake returned to his alma mater with 15 years of coaching experience, including seven years as a defensive coordinator and four seasons as an assistant head coach.

Entering his third season leading the BYU program, Sitake helped the Cougars win the 2016 Poinsettia Bowl and has had a player taken in the NFL draft in each of his first two years at the helm, including 2018 third-round pick, linebacker Fred Warner.

He came to BYU from Oregon State, where he served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator in 2015. Prior to OSU, Sitake spent 10 seasons at the University of Utah. He started at Utah in 2005 as the linebackers coach and was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2009 before also being named assistant head coach in 2012.

Sitake coached several Pac-12 and Mountain West Conference honorees, including Morris Trophy winners Star Lotulelei (2011) and Nate Orchard (2014). He also helped mentor 14 NFL Draft picks during his time at Utah, including 12 all-league players and three freshmen All-Americans. He helped the Utes win seven of eight bowl games during his tenure.

Sitake began his coaching career in 2001 as the defensive backs and special teams coach at Eastern Arizona before becoming a defensive graduate assistant at BYU in 2002. Sitake then joined the staff at Southern Utah where he coached running backs, tight ends and offensive line during the 2003 and 2004 seasons.

Born in Nuku'alofa, Tonga, and raised in Laie, Hawai'i and Provo, Utah, Sitake became the first FBS head football coach of Tongan descent. He is the 14th head coach in BYU history, and just the fourth since 1972, when Hall of Fame coach LaVell Edwards took over the program.

Sitake began his BYU playing career in 1994 prior to serving a two-year mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to Oakland, California. After returning and redshirting in 1997, Sitake was a three-year starter at fullback for the Cougars from 1998-2000 under Edwards.

He was named BYU's Football Scholar Athlete of the Year in 1998, Impact Player of the Year in 1999, along with team captain and the most valuable running back in 2000. He signed a free agent contract with the Cincinnati Bengals in 2001, but was forced to retire due to an injury.

Sitake graduated from BYU in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in English. He and his wife Timberly have three children, Skye, Sadie and Kelaokalani (KK).

TOM HOLMOE

Director of Athletics

Tom Holmoe was named Director of Athletics at Brigham Young University on March 1, 2005. He oversees a nationally recognized program with 21 intercollegiate sports, involving more than 600 student-athletes and a staff of nearly 200 people.

Since Holmoe's appointment, BYU has captured more than 100 conference regular-season or postseason championships and over 200 student-athletes have earned All-America status. Under his tutelage, both the football and men's basketball teams have enjoyed tremendous success. BYU earned a bowl invitation 12 of 13 years, while the men's basketball program put together a string of 13 consecutive 20-win seasons and has made the postseason every year, including a NCAA Sweet-16 run in 2011.

A former Cougar defensive back from 1978-82, Holmoe returned to BYU in July 2001 as Associate Athletics Director for Development. As part of his responsibilities, he supervised the Cougar Club, served as the department's liaison with the LDS Foundation, served on the BYU Alumni Association Board of Directors and worked on the capital campaign to raise funds for the university's new athletic facilities. Holmoe has served on the NCAA Division I men's basketball selection committee since 2014.

A native of La Crescenta, Calif., Holmoe came to BYU on a football scholarship in 1978. He earned first-team All-WAC honors as a senior in 1982 and was selected in the fourth round of the 1983 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers. Over a seven-year NFL career, he played on three Super Bowl championship teams with the 49ers in 1984, 1988 and 1989.

After retiring from professional football, Holmoe returned to BYU to serve as a graduate assistant under LaVell Edwards from 1990-91 and later accepted an offer from Bill Walsh to become the Stanford secondary coach in 1992, where he remained for two seasons. In 1994, he returned to the 49ers as defensive backfield coach for two seasons, where he earned a fourth Super Bowl ring. Two years later, Holmoe joined the University of California staff as defensive coordinator and later became the head coach from 1997-2001.

Holmoe graduated from BYU with a degree in Zoology in 1983 and received a master's degree from BYU in Athletic Administration in 1995. He and his wife, Lori, have four children and six grandchildren.

BYU'S HISTORY

The 1875 establishment of the Brigham Young Academy offered an academically stimulating and gospel-oriented education to 29 students. The one-acre school grounds presided over by Karl G. Maeser have since developed into nearly 600 acres and more than 300 buildings. The foundation of the University thrives with the fourfold focus of being:

1) spiritually strengthening, 2) intellectually enlarging, 3) character building, leading to 4) lifelong learning and service.

Brigham Young University provides an outstanding education in an atmosphere consistent with the standards and principles of its sponsor, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

BYU MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Brigham Young University — founded, supported, and guided by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints — is to assist individuals in their quest for perfection and eternal life. That assistance should provide a period of intensive learning in a stimulating setting where a commitment to excellence is expected and the full realization of human potential is pursued.

All instruction, programs, and services at BYU, including a wide variety of extracurricular experiences, should make their own contribution toward the balanced development of the total person. Such a broadly prepared individual will not only be capable of meeting personal challenge and change but will also bring strength to others in the tasks of home and family life, social relationships, civic duty, and service to mankind.

To succeed in this mission the university must provide an environment enlightened by living prophets and sustained by those moral virtues which characterize the life and teachings of the Son of God. In that environment these four major educational goals should prevail:

- All students at BYU should be taught the truths of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Any education is inadequate which does not emphasize that His is the only name given under heaven whereby mankind can be saved. Certainly all relationships within the BYU community should reflect devout love of God and a loving, genuine concern for the welfare of our neighbor.
- Because the gospel encourages the pursuit of all truth, students at BYU should receive a broad university education. The arts, letters, and sciences provide the core of such an education, which will help students think clearly, communicate effectively, understand important ideas in their own cultural tradition as well as that of others, and establish clear standards of intellectual integrity.
- In addition to a strong general education, students should also receive instruction in the special fields of their choice. The university cannot provide programs in all possible areas of professional or vocational work, but in those it does provide the preparation must be excellent. Students who graduate from BYU should be capable of competing with the best in their fields.
- Scholarly research and creative endeavor among both faculty and students, including those in selected graduate programs of real consequence, are essential and will be encouraged.

In meeting these objectives BYU's faculty, staff, students, and administrators should also be anxious to make their service and scholarship available to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in furthering its work worldwide. In an era of limited enrollments, BYU can continue to expand its influence both by encouraging programs that are central to the Church's purposes and by making its resources available to the Church when called upon to do so.

We believe the earnest pursuit of this institutional mission can have a strong effect on the course of higher education and will greatly enlarge Brigham Young University's influence in a world we wish to improve.

KEVIN J. WORTHEN University President

Kevin J. Worthen began serving as the 13th president of Brigham Young University on May 1, 2014. He previously served as BYU's advancement vice president and as dean of its J. Reuben Clark Law School.

MATTHEW O. RICHARDSON Advancement Vice President

Matthew O. Richardson was appointed on May 14, 2014. He oversees athletics, University Communications, BYU Broadcasting, alumni, external relations and philanthropy.

DISTINGUISHED FACULTY

Faculty members hold advanced degrees from universities around the world. Their achievements are compelling and wide-ranging as they pursue consequential research work that is making a real difference. Alleviating hunger worldwide through more efficient agriculture, finding low-pollution energy alternatives and making significant contributions to the strengthening of families are among their many pursuits. Faculty members are regularly called upon to head national and international professional organizations and to consult with corporate and governmental entities. Above all, these high-principled men and women share an unmatched devotion to bringing the best possible education to their students.

PREPARATION FOR THE FUTURE

A strong curriculum delivered by outstanding faculty is key to the academic excellence of BYU graduates. From business management to nursing, from the humanities to engineering, the University's 11 colleges -- supported by comprehensive offerings from religious education -- continue to be internationally recognized for the quality of their education and the professional preparation they provide. In addition to the challenging course work and hands-on research, numerous programs offer academic and service outreach opportunities. Study abroad centers, distance-learning courses and worldwide performing arts tours are a few of the offerings that enrich BYU's academic experience.

- 177 undergraduate majors
- 107 undergraduate minors
- 68 master's programs
- 26 doctorate programs

HONOR CODE

BYU's Honor Code helps maintain this learning environment. Initiated by students in 1949, the Honor Code emphasizes being honest, living a chaste and virtuous life, abstaining from alcohol and tobacco, using clean language, and following other values in line with the doctrines of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

MISSIONARY-SERVICE

Brigham Young University is owned and operated by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The missionary emphasis of the Church is perhaps one of its most recognized characteristics. Since the organization of the Church in 1830, over one million missionaries have served.

The Church operates more than 400 missions around the world in over 150 nations, speaking over 160 languages. A mission covers a geographic area and has a central headquarters. Each is presided over by a mission president, who is called from the ranks of the Church membership to serve for a period of three years. The mission president directs the work of the missionaries assigned to his mission.

Approximately 65 percent of the current team has served an LDS mission. Members of the team have served in 28 different countries and six of the seven continents around the globe. BYU currently has about 30 members of the team (previous signees or on roster) that are currently serving in the mission field.

More than 67,000 missionaries representing The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints are currently serving proselytizing missions. Most missionaries are young people under the age of 25. Senior couples also have opportunities to serve missions.

Missionaries work with a companion of the same gender during their mission, with the exception of couples, who work with their spouse. Single men serve missions for two years and single women serve missions for 18 months. Missionaries work long hours—seven days a week—teaching the gospel of Jesus Christ and participating in community service.

Missionaries receive their assignment from Church headquarters and are sent only to countries where governments allow the Church to operate. Missionaries do not request their area of assignment and do not know beforehand whether they will be required to learn a language.

Prior to going to their assigned area, missionaries spend a short period of time at one of 15 missionary training centers throughout the world. There they learn how to teach the gospel in an orderly and clear way and, if necessary, they begin to learn the language of the people they will be teaching. The largest training center is in Provo, Utah, with additional centers in Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Dominican Republic, England, Ghana, Guatemala, Mexico, New Zealand, Peru, the Philippines, South Africa and Spain.

In addition, more than 31,000 individuals (including couples) are given special service assignments and considered Church-service missionaries. Health specialists and doctors go to developing countries where the Church's health services program teaches preventive care. Craftsmen, artisans and construction supervisors train members in local building projects. Agricultural experts train people to produce food more effectively and economically. Other mission assignments include education, family history research and leadership training.

The missionaries pay their own way, occasionally with assistance from friends and family who donate money to the Church to pay for their personal expenses. Contacts with family and friends during this time of service are limited to letters and occasional phone calls to family at special times. Missionaries avoid entertainment, parties or other activities common to this age-group as long as they are on their missions, so they can focus entirely on the work of serving and of teaching others the gospel of Jesus Christ.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was officially organized on April 6, 1830 with six members. Today, congregations of the Church total over 30,500. With more than 16 million members, it is one of the fastest growing religions in the world and one of the largest Christian churches in the United States.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is Christian, but is neither Catholic nor Protestant. Rather, it is a restoration of the original church established by Jesus Christ. For more information on the beliefs of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, visit www.lds.org.

Former quarterback Taysom Hill served two years in Australia before enrolling at BYU. With the age requirement being 19 until 2012, many players in the past had played or redshirted a freshman season and then served. In October of 2012 the church announced the age requirement would be 18, so many players now choose to serve before enrolling, allowing them to have four or five consecutive seasons with the program.

COUGAR CLUB

WELCOME TO THE CLUB!

With the donations and support of nearly 7,000 members nationwide, the Cougar Club supports BYU's 631 Student Athletes who represent the University in 21 NCAA sports. Through its fund-raising and promotional mission, the Cougar Club is enhancing the future success of BYU Athletics.

BYU Athletics depends on loyal Cougar Club Members for funding critical to the athletic department's success. The changing nature of collegiate athletics means that to compete at the highest levels, BYU must raise more money every year. The costs associated with being one of the nation's top programs continue to rise dramatically. With that challenge in mind, the support of the Cougar Club and its members becomes an even more important key to the future achievements of BYU Athletics.

"BYU's donors and fans make all the difference," says Cougar Club Director Michael Middleton. "For our teams to continue to achieve national prominence, the Cougar Club needs to continue to grow."

FUNDING

Cougar Club donations are used for many vital athletic priorities, including:

- Funding athletic scholarships
- Building and maintaining state-of-the-art facilities
- Supporting the Student Athlete Academic Center
- Sponsoring outreach to the elementary schools and the community by BYU Student Athletes
- Providing recruiting expenses to help BYU coaches to attract some of the world's premier athletes
- Funding the Nutrition Center and the Student Athlete Fuel Card

CONTRIBUTION LEVELS

There is a Cougar Club membership level for every fan who wants to help BYU continue to build a strong athletic tradition. Annual Members make tax-deductible Cougar Club contributions of between $60 and $2,500 each year, based on their financial ability to give and the athletic benefits they want to receive. Legacy Members make an initial contribution of $10,000 or more and continue their involvement with sustaining annual gifts of $1,250 or more. To acknowledge the generosity of Club Members, the athletic department makes a number of benefits available to Club Members, including priority seating, parking passes, and Club events. However, the greatest benefit of membership is knowing that the Cougar Club is helping BYU Athletics continue to be one of the nation's top collegiate athletic programs and making a difference in the lives of more than 600 BYU Student Athletes.

COUGAR CLUB BENEFITS

- Seating priority for home and away events, bowl games, and postseason tournaments
- Parking passes
- Cougar Club Newsletter and athletic publications
- Monthly luncheons with BYU coaches and athletes
- Privileges and invitations for Club events and Club travel
- Discounts on exclusive BYU merchandise and commemorative memorabilia
- Cougar Club nights at Olympic sporting events

For more information about the Cougar Club, call 801-422-2583 or visit www.cougarclub.com.

LAVELL EDWARDS STADIUM

"YOU GUYS WILL AGREE THAT [LAVELL EDWARDS] STADIUM IS ONE OF THE PRETTIEST SETTINGS OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL. THIS STADIUM IS JUST UNBELIEVABLE."

— KIRK HERBSTREIT

ESPN COLLEGE FOOTBALL ANALYST

LAVELL EDWARDS STADIUM

CAPACITY: 63,470

CONSTRUCTED: 1960 (COUGAR STADIUM)

EXPANDED: 1982

RENAMED: 2000

PLAYING SURFACE: NATURAL GRASS

ELEVATION: 4,338

PICTURE PERFECT

With its 63,470-seat capacity, new video walls and immaculate press boxes, LaVell Edwards Stadium is home to legendary BYU football. Since its expansion in 1982, the stadium has consistently ranked among the nation's top 30 in attendance every year. Some of the stadium's well-known features include a box-bowl seating configuration, a grass playing surface and a four-level press box.

THE FIELD

The field is covered with a sand-based natural turf capable of draining eight inches of rain per hour. The well-kept grass field is consistently deemed one of the best in the country.

EXPANSION/SEATING CAPACITY

As a result of increased seating demands, BYU made yet another renovation in 1982, adding stands to the north and south end zones, lowering the field eight feet and removing the track surrounding the field (which hosted the 1967 and 1975 NCAA Track and Field Championships). The stadium expansion increased the seating capacity to over 65,000. The crowd of 64,253 that gathered for BYU's first game in the expanded stadium on September 25, 1982 was reportedly "the largest gathering ever in Utah history" at the time. In 2003, BYU added a luxury "Club Seating" area to the east stands taking the capacity of Edwards Stadium down to 64,045. In 2010 and 2011 BYU created additional wheelchair access inside the stadium, which reduced the capacity by 575 seats to 63,470.

EQUIPMENT AND LOCKER ROOMS

The 75-yard-long locker room is patterned after the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles. There is also a special locker room for former BYU players who want to train in Provo during the offseason.

TRAINING FACILITIES

BYU's training facilities include a newly renovated hydro therapy room with the largest, state-of-the-art aquatic therapy treadmill and two large hot and cold whirlpool therapy pools. BYU's HydroWorx 2000 series underwater treadmill allows up to four people at once with adjustable floor range up to 6 feet, resistance jets speeds up to 10 mph and running speeds up to 8.5 mph. BYU athletes can do full sprinting, unload their body weight for faster recoveries, and watch their body mechanics on monitors thanks to multiple underwater cameras from both front and lateral views. Doctor's offices are on site in the training facilities where bikes, treadmills and the latest equipment are also utilized as trainers and doctors assist and treat BYU athletes.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING CENTER/ PLAYERS' LOUNGE

The football team's Strength and Conditioning Center is conveniently located with easy access from the football locker room in the Student Athlete Building and to the team's practice fields. Most of the equipment was custom built by Free Motion and is sponsored by Icon Health and Fitness. With a new 2,500 square foot addition completed for the 2017 season, the facility features 20 full power racks with platforms as well as reverse hypers, Tomahawk spinning bikes and TVs, Nordic Track incline trainers, Versaclimbers, Scifit upper body bikes, Woodway force treadmills, H/P Cosmos treadmills with Pneu Weight devices, vibratory boards, a step mill, dumbbell areas and a medicine ball wall. Another new addition perched above the Strength and Conditioning Center from a second-floor overlook is the new players' lounge for the team. The lounge features several flat screen television and gaming consoles, along with other game tables and areas to relax.

STUDENT ATHLETE LIFE & LEARNING CENTER

The SALLC is a comprehensive support area for student-athletes. Services in the SALLC include academic advisors, learning specialists, tutors, mentors, a financial aid counselor, a student wellness and career advisor, multicultural counselor, a sport performance psychologist, and a mental health psychologist. The purpose of the Center is to provide comprehensive support for overall wellbeing of each student-athlete with the purpose of helping them achieve their academic, athletic and career goals. The SALLC also acts as a liaison with Campus Housing and BYU Admission Services regarding housing and initial BYU application questions.

LEGENDS GRILLE

Fans, coaches and athletes can view TV screens, a ticker tape with world wide sports scores or view specialty events on a projection screen while catching a bite to eat.

INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

The IPF is 106,000 square feet and had new turf put in during the summer of 2017. The building has retractable goalposts, a sideline staging facility for offensive linemen and serves as a practice facility for football in all forms of weather. The indoor surface is brand new field turf and the building features four video platforms located 40 feet above the playing surface. The IPF also serves as an indoor practice area for soccer, golf, baseball and softball teams and a variety of other sports programs, including extramurals and intramurals.

Entering the 2018 season, BYU will look to start a new streak after missing out last year, snapping a 12-year streak of consecutive bowl games. The Cougars do not have a direct tie-in to one specific bowl game, but would be selected to a bowl as part of an agreement with ESPN. BYU is also eligible for consideration in the the College Football Playoff or a New Year's Six bowl game.

2017 FALLS SHORT OF BOWL GAME

BYU came into the 2017 season looking to build on the inaugural success of head coach Kalani Sitake's first year. A record number of injuries and other setbacks derailed the campaign and the Cougars missed a bowl game for the first time in 13 seasons, finishing with a record of 4-9.

The injury bug bit early and often for BYU and at times proved too much to handle. The Cougars had 37 different players miss significant time with an injury in 2017. Of those 37, 25 were members of the two-deep and 13 were projected starters before the season began.

There were some bright spots in the season, first with tight end Matt Bushman on offense, leading the team with 49 receptions, 520 yards and three touchdowns en route to being named a Freshman All-American by USA Today Sports, Chat Sports and 247Sports. His marks were the best among FBS true freshman tight ends and were the best by any BYU tight end since consensus All-American Dennis Pitta in 2009.

Tejan Koroma was named a Pro Football Focus Second Team All-American after completing his fourth-consecutive year as a starter, finishing with 51 starts in his career.

Defensively, Fred Warner was a star, leading the team in tackles to showcase his talent for the next level. The linebacker was taken in the third round by the San Francisco 49ers in the NFL Draft with a 70th overall pick.

The injuries, combined with youth and another strong independent schedule proved daunting. BYU suffered a seven-game losing skid during the season before finishing the year 3-2 to close the final five games.

On the bright side, the Cougars were able to identify depth in new places with so many contributors missing time. Five different players took snaps with Tanner Mangum, Beau Hoge, Joe Critchlow all starting games in addition to Koy Detmer Jr. seeing time on the field. Austin Kafentzis also took several snaps at quarterback, mostly as a situational runner.

BYU won the season opener, improving its game one record to 9-1 over the past 10 seasons. Zayne Anderson secured a late interception to put away a pesky Portland State team with a 20-6 victory at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

The next week, the Cougars were outmatched against SEC power LSU. The Tigers ran past BYU 27-0 in just the third scoreless game for the Cougars in 14 seasons.

The Deseret Duel against Utah came next. A defensive battle ensued and the kicking game was a factor as Utah drilled four field goals in the game and beat BYU for a seventh consecutive season by a score of 19-13. BYU had the ball with a chance to drive the length of the field for the win but Mangum suffered an injury at the end of game that would sideline him for a month.

After Mangum went down, Beau Hoge started two games in his place, performing admirably against Wisconsin on short notice but BYU lost 40-6 against a dominant Badger team. Wisconsin went on to finish the season 13-1, playing in the Big Ten title game and finished ranked No. 7 nationally.

The next week, Hoge also went down with injury against Utah State. Hoge led BYU to a 21-7 lead but in his absence, the Cougars couldn't hold off the comeback and fell to the Aggies in Logan. Detmer took the reins after Hoge to try to hold off the Aggies seven many turnovers doomed BYU in a 40-24 setback.

Despite not being at full health, Mangum returned following the Utah State game but it wasn't enough in the next three as BYU dropped contests against Boise State, Mississippi State and East Carolina.

BYU finally got back on track after two long road trips with a home tilt against San Jose State. Mangum was getting closer to full health and appeared to be his old self again, tossing two touchdowns in the first quarter to give BYU a 14-0 lead and the Cougars never looked back. A 75-yard run from KJ Hall and a third touchdown pass from Mangum later on highlighted a 41-20 drubbing the Cougars desperately needed to snap the seven-game losing streak.

With some momentum and confidence, BYU went on the road to face a surging Fresno State team that was seeking bowl eligibility for the first time in three seasons.

The Bulldogs led 13-6 late in the third quarter when BYU tied it up on a Squally Canada touchdown. After BYU gave up the go-ahead score early in the fourth, Mangum suffered his second injury, this time a season-ender. Hoge entered the game fighting through injuries of his own. A hobbling Hoge did his best but a late turnover ended BYU's hopes of a comeback.

The following week was true freshman Joe Critchlow's chance to start. The youngster shined in his first career start, completing 14 of 22 passes for 160 yards and one touchdown. The game really belonged to Canada, however, with the junior running back running wild to the tune of 213 yards on 25 carries. It was No. 10 in BYU history for rushing yards in a single game. The historic performance took the pressure off Critchlow and BYU won 31-21.

Critchlow started the next game against UMass and this time it was a different story. The Minutemen pressured the youngster every chance they got and sacked him seven times and forced four interceptions. The Cougars fell to UMass 16-10 at LaVell Edwards Stadium, losing on senior night for the first time since 2005.

Determined to end the season on a high note, BYU traveled to Hawai'i during Thanksgiving week, eyeing a win to build momentum for the 2018 season.

The Cougars' ground game was off the races from the get go, with Canada running three times for 68 yards on the opening drive, including a 40-yard touchdown run on just the fifth play of the game. Canada finished with 115 yards in the first half before an injury sidelined him. His jumpstart was enough as BYU stayed ahead the whole game, winning 30-20 to end the season.

In addition to Warner, seven other former players signed NFL deals or received minicamp invitations as undrafted free agents following the draft. Wide receiver Jonah Trinnaman signed with the Arizona Cardinals before going to the Jets, defensive back Micah Hannemann inked a deal with the Browns and former defensive lineman Tomasi Laulile, who was a member of BYU's 2016 team, agreed to a contract with the Indianapolis Colts. All-American center Tejan Koroma accepted minicamp offers from Tennessee and Kansas City to demonstrate his talents before signing a free-agent deal with the Chiefs. Tight end Tanner Baldersee accepted a minicamp invitation from Cleveland, where he joined Hannemann. Defensive lineman Handsome Tanielu and running back Algernon Brown, both joined Koroma with minicamp offers in Kansas City. Brown last played for the Cougars in 2016.

With the book closed on 2017, all eyes turn toward a successful 2018 season.

DEFENSE, RUNNING BACKS CHARGE 20-6 SEASON-OPENING WIN OVER VIKINGS

PROVO, Utah – Effective rushing from Squally Canada and Kavika Fonua, along with stingy defense, gave BYU a 20-6 over Portland State in the 2017 season opener Saturday at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

"It was good to get a win," BYU head coach Kalani Sitake said. "We're thankful to be 1-0 but there's a lot to work on. There's improvement needed in all three phases, but we're looking forward to getting better."

Freshman tight end Matt Bushman led BYU receivers with 56 yards on three receptions. Canada had a career-best 98 rushing yards on 16 attempts with a touchdown, while Fonua had 59 yards on seven carries in his first game at running back. Junior quarterback Tanner Mangum completed 16 of 27 passes for 194 yards and a touchdown.

Fred Warner led the Cougars with 10 tackles. Stone Takitaki had seven tackles, including three for loss and two sacks. Zayne Anderson had a late interception — the first of his collegiate career in his first start.

The Cougars outgained the Vikings 365 yards to 220 yards. BYU had three sacks and eight tackles for loss.

The first points of the game came via a 28-yard touchdown pass from Mangum to wide receiver Neil Pau'u with 2:01 on the clock in the first quarter. A 36-yard connection from Mangum to Bushman keyed the four-play, 64-yard drive. Rhett Almond made good on the PAT for a 7-0 lead, which the Cougars held at the end of the period.

Canada punched in a one-yard touchdown run to cap an eight-play, 66-yard touchdown drive in the middle of the second quarter. A 33-yard pass from Mangum to Talon Shumway put BYU in striking range. BYU's lead extended to 14-0 with 7:57 left in the half.

The Vikings closed out a 17-play, 87-yard touchdown drive with 1:54 left until halftime. Jalani Eason completed a four-yard pass to Darnell Adams to get in the end zone. The PAT was missed to make the score 14-6 in favor of the Cougars, which stood as the teams headed into their locker rooms.

Both defenses pitched shutouts in the third quarter, as the gun sounded with BYU up 14-6. The Cougars were driving, with the ball on the Portland State 48 yardline.

The first play of the fourth quarter was a 34-yard run from Canada that put BYU on the Viking 14 yardline. Almond hit a 27-yard field goal to put the Cougars up 17-6 with 13:22 left in the game.

Anderson picked off a pass for BYU's first defensive takeaway late in the quarter and returned it 27 yards to the Portland State 23 yardline. Almond came on for a 35-yard attempt and kicked it down the middle for the 20-6 lead.

NO. 13 LSU RUNS PAST BYU IN ADVOCARE TEXAS KICKOFF

NEW ORLEANS – No. 13 LSU dominated BYU in a 27-0 shutout in the 2017 AdvoCare Texas Kickoff Saturday night at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

The Tigers smothered BYU's offense and outgained the Cougars 479 to 97 in total yards. The Cougars couldn't ever find a rhythm on offense and were limited to 38 offensive plays while possessing the football for just over 18 minutes.

Freshman tight end Matt Bushman led BYU receivers with 43 yards on four receptions while sophomore wide receiver Micah Simon caught two passes for 28 yards. Junior quarterback Tanner Mangum completed 12 of 24 passes for 102 yards and an interception.

Marvin Hifo led the team with 10 tackles. Troy Warner added nine tackles and four solo stops.

The game remained scoreless through the first quarter. LSU was the first to put points on the board on a 13-play, 66-yard touchdown drive 38 seconds into the second quarter. Running back Derrius Guice rushed for four yards to the end zone and Jack Gonsoulin connected on the PAT to put the Tigers up 7-0.

Andraez Williams intercepted a pass moments later from Mangum on the Cougars' first play of the next drive. DJ Clark caught a 52-yard reception from quarterback Danny Etling to put the Tigers inside the five-yard line. Guice scored his second touchdown of the night on a one-yard run, giving LSU a 14-0 advantage.

LSU marched 65 yards down the field before Gonsoulin missed a 34-yard field goal wide right with just 1:43 left in the half. The Tigers maintained their lead, 14-0, heading into the locker room.

On back-to-back LSU drives, Gonsoulin hit two field goals from 23 and 29 yards out, respectively, to make the score 20-0 in favor of the Tigers with 3:08 left in the third quarter.

The BYU defense held LSU on a critical fourth-and-goal on the three yardline seven minutes into the fourth quarter. The Cougars turned the ball over on downs after a fake punt and Darrel Williams rushed one yard for a touchdown, making it 27-0 for the Tigers.

BYU COMES UP SHORT IN 19-13 LOSS TO UTAH

PROVO, Utah – BYU's late comeback bid fell short in a 19-13 loss to No. 23 Utah Saturday at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

Freshman Ula Tolutau and junior Trey Dye scored their first collegiate touchdowns for the Cougars. Freshman tight end Matt Bushman led BYU with six receptions for 50 yards. Junior quarterback Tanner Mangum completed 21 of 39 passes for 170 yards and a touchdown, with three interceptions.

The Cougar defense allowed Utah to convert on just 3 of 14 third-down attempts. Fred Warner and Corbin Kaufusi forced fumbles, and Fred Warner and Troy Warner had fumble recoveries.

BYU got the ball with a chance to win the game down by six points and 1:34 left in the game, but turned the ball over on downs before the Utes ran the clock out.

Utah opened the scoring with a 21-yard field goal. The Utes returned an interception to the BYU 9-yard line before settling for a 3-0 lead nine minutes into the first quarter.

With 9:36 left in the first half, Rhett Almond missed a 28-yard Cougar field goal to the left.

Primed by a 48-yard pass play, Utah made its second field goal, this time from 25 yards out, to lead 6-0 with 6:02 on the second quarter clock. The Utes hit their third field goal as the first half clock ran out for a 9-0 lead heading into the break.

Following another Utah interception, the Utes scored the game's first touchdown early in the third quarter. Quarterback Tyler Huntley ran five yards to cross the goal line and put Utah up 16-0.

Tolutau gave BYU a touchdown with 9:47 on the third quarter clock. After Fred Warner recovered a fumble on the Utah 22-yard line, Tolutau had four rushes for 22 yards on the drive. The Cougars failed on a two-point conversion attempt to trail 16-6.

The Utes' fourth field goal, a 38-yarder, came with 2:35 left in the third quarter and put Utah up 19-6.

Mangum led BYU on an 11-play, 76-yard touchdown drive late in the fourth quarter. He found Dye in the endzone for a seven-yard touchdown pass with 2:38 on the clock to cut the Cougar deficit to 19-13.

BYU was able to get the ball back with over two minutes to play but failed to get a first down to extend the game.

BYU OVERPOWERED IN 40-6 LOSS TO WISCONSIN

PROVO, Utah – BYU couldn't get in the end zone and dropped Saturday's game 40-6 against No. 10/12 Wisconsin at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

"Congratulations to Wisconsin," BYU head coach Kalani Sitake said. "You can see why they're highly ranked. I was disappointed with the result, obviously. We need to play consistently better on both sides of the ball."

Sophomore quarterback Beau Hoge made his first career start at BYU. He completed 11 of 20 passes for 111 yards with two interceptions. Ula Tolutau led the Cougar ground attack with 58 yards on 13 carries. Micah Simon pulled in three receptions for 60 yards.

Fred Warner, Micah Hannemann and Butch Pau'u each had seven total tackles for the BYU defense. Corbin Kaufusi notched four tackles and a sack.

On the first possession, Hoge was picked off deep in BYU territory. The Cougar defense limited Wisconsin to a 23-yard field goal with 9:42 on the clock for a 3-0 Badger lead.

BYU responded with its own field goal to tie the game at 3-3 with three minutes left in the first quarter. Rhett Almond made a 31-yard field goal after the offense went 61 yards on 14 plays. Tolutau had five carries for 38 yards on the drive.

As the first-quarter clock ran out, Wisconsin found the end zone for the game's first touchdown. Jonathan Taylor's one-yard run crossed the goal line and put Wisconsin up 10-3.

Halfway through the second quarter, the Badgers took a 17-3 lead after a nine-yard touchdown pass from Hornibrook to Quintez Cephus.

Wisconsin scored another touchdown with 25 seconds left in the half. Hornibrook connected with Cephus for 15 yards to make it 24-3 for the Badgers.

A 50-yard pass play from Hoge to Simon set up a field goal attempt for Almond at the end of the first half. He made the 32-yarder for a 24-6 BYU deficit at the half.

An 18-yard touchdown pass from Hornibrook to A.J. Taylor made it 31-6 for Wisconsin with three minutes left in the third quarter. Hornibrook threw his fourth touchdown pass of the game just over halfway through the fourth quarter. He found Troy Fumagalli in the middle of the end zone for a 19-yard pass that gave the Badgers a 38-6 lead.

Hoge was sacked for a safety thirty seconds after Wisconsin's touchdown to extend the Badgers' lead to 40-6, which they held as the game clock ran out.

BYU FALLS TO UTAH STATE ON THE ROAD, 40-24

LOGAN, Utah – Plagued by turnovers, BYU fell to Utah State 40-24 Friday night at Maverik Stadium.

The Cougars had a season-high 210 rushing yards but couldn't overcome seven turnovers. Running back Ula Tolutau recorded his first career 100-yard rushing game with 102 yards on 21 carries.

Beau Hoge completed 5 of 9 for 95 yards and two touchdowns. Koy Detmer Jr. came in midway through the second quarter and was 7 of 20 for 91 yards.

The Aggies scored on their opening drive, marching 75 yards down the field on nine plays. Dax Raymond caught a 32-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Kent Myers.

Micah Hannemann recorded the Cougars' first pick-six of the season and the first of his career, returning it 46 yards with 9:08 left in the quarter. It was his fourth career interception and a career-long interception as well. Rhett Almond's PAT evened the score 7-7.

BYU started off the second quarter with a trick play. Austin Kafentzis took a direct snap and tossed it to Micah Simon, who handed it to Hoge. Hoge then completed a pass to Brayden El-Bakri at the 10-yard line and he took it into the end zone for the 26-yard touchdown.

After the Cougar defense forced the Aggies to punt, Hoge capped a three-play, 55-yard, 53-second drive by connecting with Beau Tanner on a 40-yard touchdown pass. The scoring play was initially ruled incomplete but a review showed that Tanner got one foot down in the end zone before going out of bounds. Following the PAT, BYU took a 21-7 lead.

Utah State had a pick-six of its own as Jalen Davis grabbed the ball after it bounced off the shoulder pad of a teammate. The score came with 11:02 left in the quarter and closed the gap to 21-14. The Aggies found the end zone a third time as Myers threw a 26-yard pass to Ron'quavion Tarver, tying the game 21-21 just before halftime. Utah State intercepted the ball less than a minute later, resulting in a 32-yard field goal to give the Aggies their first lead of the night, 24-21.

Utah State recovered a BYU fumble early in the third quarter en route to a 40-yard field goal to extend its advantage, 27-21. Moments into the fourth, Myers ran 19 yards into the end zone, putting the Aggies up 33-21.

Detmer connected with Jonah Trinnaman on a 39-yard pass to set up a 37-yard field goal from Almond with 12:28 on the clock for a score of 33-24.

Utah State had its second pick-six of the night at the 50-yard line with three minutes left for a final score of 40-24.

BOISE STATE SHUTS DOWN COUGARS 24-7

PROVO, Utah – BYU scored a first-possession touchdown but couldn't find the end zone again in a 24-7 loss against Boise State Friday night at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

"We did some positive things," BYU head coach Kalani Sitake said. "We really don't have a chance to compete if we're unproductive on offense though. We're anxious to get to work and fix things."

Freshman tight end Matt Bushman had career highs of seven receptions and 65 yards against the Broncos. Junior quarterback Tanner Mangum completed 18 of 33 passes for 164 yards on the game, but was picked off twice.

Freshman Joe Critchlow got his first collegiate action behind center, with 2 of 4 passes complete for eight yards. Freshman running back Ula Tolutau carried the ball nine times for 38 yards and a touchdown.

On defense, senior linebacker Grant Jones got his first career interception for the Cougars. Senior linebacker Fred Warner led BYU with 10 tackles.

The Cougars (1-5) were outgained 300 to 238 total yards of offense by the Broncos (3-2).

Jones intercepted the Broncos on the first drive of the game to give the ball to the Cougars.

Mangum marched BYU 48 yards on 10 plays for the first touchdown of the game halfway through the first quarter. Tolutau punched in a three-yard touchdown run, and the Cougars led 7-0.

Boise State tied the game at 7-7 with an early second-quarter touchdown. Alex Mattison crossed the goal line after a 12-yard run to level the score with 11:51 until the half.

The Broncos kicked a field goal with 3:49 left in the third quarter after an interception. Their 10-7 lead was extended just before the half ended, as Brett Rypien connected with Sean Modster for a 24-yard touchdown pass over the middle. Boise State led 17-7 going into the locker room.

Neither team scored in the third quarter, but Boise State had the ball on the BYU 9-yardline as the gun sounded. Three plays into the fourth quarter, Mattison ran into the end zone from two yards out for a touchdown and 24-7 Boise State lead.

BYU DROPS 35-10 ROAD CONTEST AT MISSISSIPPI STATE

STARKVILLE, Miss. -- BYU dropped its road game 35-10 to Mississippi State Saturday at Davis Wade Stadium.

The Bulldogs overpowered the Cougar offense and outgained them 546 to 176 in total yards. BYU was limited to 46 offensive plays and just over 23 minutes of possession time.

Aleva Hifo led BYU receivers with career highs in receptions (5) and yards (77), including a career-long reception of 43 yards and his first career touchdown on a 27-yard strike from Tanner Mangum. Mangum finished 16 of 26 for 145 yards, one touchdown and one interception.

Dayan Ghanwoloku intercepted two passes for 105 yards, his first two-interception game of his career. He intercepted one in the end zone early in the second quarter and returned it 67 yards. Late in the third quarter, Ghanwoloku had his second interception at the five-yard line for 38 yards.

Bulldog quarterback Nick Fitzgerald rushed 15 yards for a touchdown at the conclusion of a 10-play, 89-yard drive with 5:15 left in the first quarter.

Early in the second quarter, BYU's Ghanwoloku intercepted Fitzgerald in the end zone and returned it 67 yards. Moments later, the Bulldogs forced a fumble and recovered it on the Mississippi State 26-yard line with 10:08 on the clock. Eight plays and three minutes later, Donald Gray caught a touchdown pass from Fitzgerald to go up 14-0.

Mangum connected with Hifo on a 43-yard pass to set up kicker Rhett Almond's career-high 38-yard field goal. The seven-play, 54-yard drive put BYU on the board 14-3 with 3:35 left in the half.

Fitzgerald rushed 14 yards for his second touchdown of the game with 22 seconds on the clock, extending the Bulldogs' lead 21-3 going into halftime.

On the opening drive of the second half, Fitzgerald sent a 32-yard touchdown pass to Jamal Couch to take a 28-3 advantage.

Ghanwoloku recorded his second interception of the game at the five-yard line with less than a minute left in the third quarter. Twenty-one seconds later, Mangum found Hifo in the end zone. Almond converted the PAT to close the gap 28-10.

Just before the end of the third quarter, kicker Andrew Mikkelsen forced a fumble on Mississippi State's kickoff return and wide receiver Akile Davis recovered the ball inside the 30-yard line. The Bulldogs later intercepted Mangum in the end zone and returned it 30 yards, not allowing BYU to cash in on the turnover.

Mississippi State went 70 yards down the field en route to a five-yard touchdown rush for a final score of 35-10.

LATE RALLY NOT ENOUGH FOR BYU IN 33-17 LOSS TO ECU

GREENVILLE, N.C. – BYU fell 33-17 to East Carolina Saturday at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium.

Aleva Hifo led BYU receivers with a career-best 148 yards on nine receptions, with a long of 46. Matt Bushman and Micah Simon both recorded their first career touchdowns. Tanner Mangum finished 26 of 41 for 319 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Mangum threw for over 200 yards in the fourth quarter.

BYU had four possessions in the fourth quarter but could only find the end zone once in the final frame. Fred Warner had a season-high 11 tackles and 1.5 tackles for loss while Zayne Anderson tied his season high of nine tackles and forced a fumble.

Midway through the first quarter, Anderson forced a fumble and Adam Pulsipher recovered it. Two and a half minutes later, a 12-yard touchdown pass from Mangum to Simon capped off a five-play, 28-yard scoring drive. Kicker Rhett Almond connected on the extra point to give BYU a 7-0 advantage.

ECU equalized on its next possession as quarterback Thomas Sirk ran one yard into the end zone with 3:09 left in the quarter on fourth down to make it 7-7.

The Pirates took the lead early in the second quarter, 10-7, after Jake Verity's 42-yard field goal attempt bounced off the inside of the upright and in with 10:35 on the clock.

Nine plays and 70 yards later, Almond hit a 21-yard field goal to even the score 10-10 heading into halftime.

ECU extended its lead three minutes into the second half, 13-10, on Verity's second 42-yarder of the night.

BYU's Corbin Kaufusi got a hand on Verity's third field goal attempt, but the 32-yard kick was still good and put the Pirates up 16-10 with 6:17 on the clock.

Near the end of the third quarter, Verity connected on his fourth field goal from 33 yards out to increase ECU's advantage 19-10.

The Pirates went 67 yards down the field en route to a 26-yard touchdown pass for a 26-10 lead less than two minutes into the fourth quarter.

After a defensive stop, ECU intercepted a pass from Mangum on the 12-yard line and scored two plays later, 33-10.

With 3:48 left in the game, Mangum found Bushman in the end zone on a 12-yard pass for Bushman's first career touchdown and a final score of 33-17.

MANGUM, SIMON AND HALL KEY 41-20 WIN OVER SAN JOSÉ STATE

PROVO, Utah – Tanner Mangum, KJ Hall and Micah Simon helped BYU to a 41-20 win over San José State Saturday afternoon at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

Mangum completed 18 of 34 passes for 283 yards and three touchdowns. Hall rushed for 112 yards and a touchdown. He also caught three passes for 44 yards.

On defense, the Cougars forced five turnovers. Brayden El-Bakri, Zayne Anderson, Austin Lee and Langi Tuifua all recovered fumbles, while Michael Shelton picked off a pass.

BYU's first drive went 85 yards on five plays for a touchdown. Jonah Trinnaman caught a 45-yard pass from Mangum on the Cougars' first offensive play. Mangum connected with Simon for 23-yard touchdown four plays later.

On the ensuing kickoff, El-Bakri forced and recovered a San Jose State fumble on the Spartan 10-yard line. Mangum found Matt Bushman for an 11-yard touchdown pass over the middle and the Cougars extended their lead to 14-0.

San José State got on the board with six minutes left in the first quarter when Bryce Crawford hit a 48-yard field goal. Crawford provided the game's next points early in the second quarter, with a 25-yard field goal to cut the BYU lead to 14-6.

On just the second play of the Cougars' next drive, Hall made it 21-6 with the 75-yard touchdown run.

Rhett Almond made a 36-yard field goal with 5:09 left in the first half for a 24-6 Cougar lead, which they took into the locker room.

Squally Canada's nine-yard touchdown run 10 minutes into the third quarter gave BYU a 31-6 lead. Mangum completed a 42-yard pass to Aleva Hifo to set up the score.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, Mangum found Simon for a 41-yard touchdown pass down the left sideline. The Cougar lead increased to 38-6, and it was added to three minutes later with a 30-yard Almond field goal.

The Spartans scored their first touchdown halfway through the fourth quarter. Montel Aaron connected with Tre Walker for a 30-yard touchdown pass to put the score at 41-13. With less than a minute to play, San José State scored again, with Aaron hooking up with Tre Hartley for a nine-yard score.

BYU FALLS SHORT IN 20-13 LOSS TO FRESNO STATE

FRESNO, Calif. – BYU couldn't come up with another late comeback and fell to Fresno State 20-13 on Saturday night at Bulldog Stadium.

The Cougars got the ball back down seven with over three minutes to play from their own five. Quarterback Beau Hoge connected with tight end Matt Bushman for a 20-yard gain but a hard hit knocked the ball loose on the play, giving it back to the Bulldogs. Fresno State was able to run out the clock for the win.

Quarterback Tanner Mangum completed 20 of 33 passes for 163 yards but left late in the game with an injury. Hoge was 3 for 10 for 51 yards in relief.

Squally Canada rushed 12 times for 84 yards and one touchdown. Bushman set two career highs with nine catches for 97 yards.

After punting on its opening drive, BYU's defense held the Bulldogs to a 43-yard field goal from Jimmy Camacho on their first possession midway through the first quarter.

Fresno State quarterback Marcus McMaryion connected with receiver Jamire Jordan on a 50-yard pass to set up a two-yard rushing touchdown as the Bulldogs took a 10-0 lead with 2:08 left in the first quarter.

Early in the second quarter, BYU put its first points on the board with a 27-yard field goal from Rhett Almond to make it 10-3. Fourteen plays set up the 78-yard scoring drive, including four passes to Matt Bushman, the longest being 19 yards.

Almond nailed a career-high 46-yard field goal with no time on the clock to close the gap 10-6 at halftime. It was the Cougars' longest made field goal since Justin Sorensen hit a 46-yarder against Utah in 2011.

Fresno State opened the second half with a 10-play, 46-yard scoring drive. Camacho made his second field goal of the night from 42 yards out and extended the lead, 13-6.

Canada rushed four yards into the end zone for BYU's first touchdown of the game on BYU's next drive. He ran 38 yards on five carries during the 11-play, 75-yard drive. Almond hit the extra point to even the score 13-13 with 4:28 left in the quarter.

The Bulldogs responded with a touchdown of their own the following drive to take a 20-13 lead with 12:40 on the clock.

BYU had two more drives but ended them with a punt and a turnover on downs. After another defensive stop, the late fumble on the Cougars' final drive ended any hopes of a comeback. The Bulldogs took possession of the ball with 3:14 left in the game and held onto the victory.

CANADA'S CAREER NIGHT IGNITES BYU IN 31-21 WIN OVER UNLV

LAS VEGAS – Squally Canada's career highs of 213 rushing yards on 25 carries lifted the BYU football team to a 31-21 win over UNLV Friday night at Sam Boyd Stadium.

Canada took the pressure off true freshman quarterback Joe Critchlow in his first career start. Critchlow completed 14 of 22 passes for 160 yards and one touchdown.

Canada's rushing numbers mark the 10-most rushing yards by a BYU player in a single game.

The Cougar defense held the Rebels to 122 rushing yards, less than half of the Rebel average for the season. Micah Hannemann led BYU with nine tackles, including seven solo stops. Zayne Anderson and Fred Warner added one interception apiece.

On UNLV's opening drive, Corbin Kaufusi sacked quarterback Johnny Stanton for a loss of nine yards on a critical third down, forcing the Rebels to take a long field goal attempt which missed.

A mix of personnel helped put the Cougars' first points on the board. Running back Austin Kafentzis saw time in the wildcat package and rushed for 20 yards. Critchlow sent a 30-yard pass to Micah Simon over the middle. Hifo caught a 19-yard pass just shy of a touchdown.

Brayden El-Bakri rushed one yard into the end zone for his second career touchdown to put BYU up 7-0.

The Rebels then marched 78 yards down the field to the one-yard line and the Cougar defense held them there for two downs. Lexington Thomas rushed one yard on the third down to even the score 7-7 with 4:25 in the half.

BYU responded with an 11-play, 74-yard scoring drive for a 14-7 lead heading into halftime. Critchlow completed 5 of 7 on the drive for 50 yards, including a two-yard quarterback sneak on fourth down. Hifo caught an 11-yard pass with 27 seconds left and managed to keep one foot in bounds for the touchdown.

Canada opened the second half with a career-long 54-yard run, sparking a four-play, 68-yard scoring drive in under two minutes. Canada also rushed two yards, extending BYU's lead 21-7.

UNLV capitalized on its following possession with an 18-yard touchdown pass to close the gap, 21-14.

Canada rushed 33 yards on four carries and Critchlow threw a 16-yard pass to Talon Shumway, setting up Kafentzis' first career touchdown on an 11-yard rush from the wildcat. The score gave the Cougars a 28-14 advantage with 1:40 in the quarter.

In the fourth quarter, the Rebels connected on a 13-yard touchdown pass with 10:46 on the clock, 28-21.

Almond hit a 28-yard field goal to make it a two-score game, 31-21, with 5:39 on the clock.

On the Rebels' last drive, Warner intercepted a pass at the UNLV 29-yard line and returned it 26 yards to the three-yard line, sealing BYU's 31-21 victory.

BYU FALLS 16-10 ON SENIOR DAY AGAINST UMASS

PROVO, Utah – BYU's offense stalled in a 16-10 loss against UMass on Saturday afternoon in the last home game of the year at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

"Congratulations to UMass for making enough plays to win the game," BYU head coach Kalani Sitake said. "This season has obviously been disappointing, but we have to find a way to work through it, and spring-board next season with a win next week."

Junior running back Squally Canada had 11 carries for 55 yards. Sophomore Micah Simon led BYU receivers with 66 receiving yards on two catches. In his second career start, freshman quarterback Joe Critchlow completed 21 of 45 passes for 257 yards and one touchdown, but threw four interceptions.

Junior defensive end Sione Takitaki had two tackles for loss, including a sack. Senior linebacker Fred Warner had five tackles with two pass break-ups.

On special teams, junior defensive back Micah Shelton returned six punts for 86 yards, including a 39-yarder.

The game's first quarter ended without either team getting on the scoreboard.

UMass kicker Logan Laurent made a 34-yard field goal to put the Minutemen up 3-0 with five minutes left in the first half. They held that lead going into the half.

Two minutes into the second half, UMass quarterback Andrew Ford connected with Andy Isabella for a 40-yard touchdown pass. The Minutemen led 10-0.

Laurent hit a 28-yard field goal halfway through the third quarter to extend the UMass lead to 13-0. He made it 16-0 on a 35-yard field goal two minutes later.

BYU got on the board with a Rhett Almond 40-yard field goal with 1:35 left in the third quarter. The Cougars trailed 16-3.

With just under a minute to play, Critchlow threw a six-yard touchdown pass to Matt Bushman to cut BYU's deficit to 16-10.

GROUND GAME PROPELS BYU OVER HAWAII 30-20

HONOLULU – A season-high 285 yards rushing propelled BYU football to a 30-20 win over Hawai'i.

BYU had 451 yards of total offense and a season-high 285 yards rushing. Squally Canada ran for 113 yards on 17 carries – all in the first half, including 99 yards in the first quarter. He scored two touchdowns in a game for the first time in his career and had over 100 yards for just the second time. Austin Kafentzis added 98 yards on 18 carries while Riley Burt had 13 carries for 75 yards. True freshman quarterback Joe Critchlow completed 14 of 23 passes for 166 yards and one touchdown.

Corbin Kaufusi led the Cougar defense with six tackles and two tackles for loss. He also had one sack, forced fumble and pass breakup. Zayne Anderson blocked a PAT and had two tackles. Fred Warner finished his BYU career with five tackles.

BYU put points on the board during its first possession, driving 85 yards down the field in 2:33. Canada had three carries for 68 yards on the drive, including a 40-yard touchdown run. Kicker Rhett Almond hit the extra point to give the Cougars a 7-0 lead with 12:27 on the clock.

Late in the first quarter, Critchlow was sacked and fumbled at the 42-yard line. Hawai'i's Solomon Matautia recovered the ball returned it to the end zone as the Rainbow Warriors evened the score, 7-7 with 4:42 left in the quarter.

Critchlow connected with wide receiver Jonah Trinnaman on a critical fourth-and-12 for a gain of 18 yards, setting up Canada's second touchdown of the game. Canada then rushed for two and four yards on separate carries and scored on the latter as BYU regained the lead early in the second quarter, 13-7, but missed the PAT.

Both teams remained scoreless for much of the third quarter. Matt Bushman caught a 37-yard pass, energizing the BYU offense. A few plays later, Critchlow found fellow freshman Neil Pau'u for an 11-yard touchdown pass with 1:39 left in the quarter. Andrew Mikkelsen's extra point was good as the Cougars extended their lead, 20-7.

Hawai'i recovered a fumble on a punt return 25 yards from the end zone to conclude the third quarter. The Rainbow Warriors capitalized on the turnover, scoring on a 15-yard pass with 12:23 in the fourth quarter. BYU's Anderson blocked the extra point, the first blocked kick of his career, maintaining the 20-13 score.

Mikkelsen sent his first career field goal 35 yards through the uprights to put BYU up 23-13 with 6:21 on the clock to give the Cougars a two-score edge.

Riley Burt ran 11 yards untouched into the end zone for his first career touchdown with 3:46 left, increasing the BYU's advantage, 30-13. Burt had two carries during the three-play drive for 32 yards.

Hawai'i responded with a touchdown two minutes later on a three-yard pass to trail 30-20 with 1:48 to go.

BYU recovered the onside kick and was able to run out the clock to secure the victory in the final game.

NO. 6 IN TOTAL WINS OVER LAST 40 YEARS

BYU ranks No. 6 in total wins among all FBS programs over the past 40 seasons with 352 victories. (1978-2017)

1. Nebraska	380
2. Florida State	374
3. Ohio State	372
4. Oklahoma	369
5. Miami	356
6. BYU	352
7. Georgia	351

BYU football is No. 6 in total wins over the past 40 years stretching from 1978 through 2017. The outstanding tradition was built upon the consistent and collective effort of former players and coaches every year. Excellent team and individual performances have provided the trajectory for rich tradition with the Cougars amassing a 352-156-2 (.692) record over the past 40 seasons along with 19 conference titles, 33 bowl invitations, 14 bowl wins and 30 8-win seasons, including 16 seasons of at least 10 wins. In that time frame, BYU football finished the season 17 times ranked in the top 25 with more than 50 victories over current Power 5 opponents.

Marc Wilson started the year but Jim McMahon filled in when Wilson went down injured in 1978. The duo quarterbacked the Cougars to a 9-4 record, WAC title and Holiday Bowl

Down 20 points in the with four minutes remaining to SMU in the 1980 Holiday Bowl, BYU rallied to score three times with a touchdown pass, recovered on onside kick and scored again then blocked a punt with 13 seconds to go. Jim McMahon launched a Hail Mary 41 yards as time expired and Clay Brown came up with it despite having four Mustangs piled on top. Kurt Gunther kicked the extra point and BYU won 46-45 in one of the greatest college football comebacks of all time.

The Cougars won the 1984 National Championship, finishing the major polls ranked No. 1 after going a perfect 13-0. BYU defeated No. 3 Pitt on the road to open the season and took down Michigan in the Holiday Bowl to cap off the undefeated season.

BYU pumped out quarterbacks like a factory year after year after year. From 1976-1984, BYU produced a string of quarterbacks the likes of Gifford Nielsen, Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon, Steve Young and Robbie Bosco. All of them earned All-America honors.

Hosting the defending national champs, the No. 1 Miami Hurricanes in the first home game in Provo of the 1990 season, BYU and Ty Detmer took down the champs, 28-21 in one of the most electrifying games ever in Provo. Detmer threw for 406 yards and three touchdowns.

Detmer had one of the greatest seasons ever by a college quarterback in 1990. He threw for 5,188 yards and 41 touchdowns. He set 42 NCAA records and tied five more and won the Heisman Trophy. Detmer also won the Maxwell Award that year, in addition to the Davey O'Brien Award in 1990 and 1991. He also won the Sammy Baugh Trophy in 1991.

The 1996 team is regarded as one of the most talented in BYU history and went on to win an NCAA-record 14 games. The Cougars won a WAC Championship game over nationally ranked Wyoming and went on to play No. 14 Kansas State in the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day. BYU beat the Wildcats 19-15 in another terrific postseason game in the Cougars storied history and propelled the team to a No. 5 final ranking.

Following Hall of Fame head coach LaVell Edwards retirement in 2000, new head coach Gary Crowton continued the tradition in 2001 with an offensive juggernaut of a squad that went 12-2 and led the NCAA with 542.9 yards per game of total offense and 46.8 points per game. Running back Luke Staley won the Doak Walker award and led the NCAA in yards per carry (8.1) and in scoring with 28 total touchdowns.

Bronco Mendenhall restored not just the traditional look of BYU football, but also brought back much of its winning tradition. Mendenhall's teams went 99-43 in his 11 seasons, reaching a bowl game each year and were ranked nationally in 9 of 11 years.

Beloved head coach, LaVell Edwards, passed away at the age of 86, at home surrounded by his family on Dec. 29, 2016. He was able to see one more victory on Dec. 21 as BYU beat Wyoming 24-21 in the Poinsettia Bowl.

Kalani Sitake was hired as the head coach following the 2015 season. He was one of just five first-time FBS head coaches to finish 2016 with a winning record at 9-4.

In 2010, BYU announced a move to football independence and left the Mountain West. In six seasons, BYU has played a national schedule and gone 56-35.

The Cougars were named No. 1 by the Associated Press, the United Press International, Sports Illustrated, CNN-USA Today and the Football Writers of America after finishing the season with a perfect 13-0 record. LaVell Edwards was selected as the NCAA National Coach of the Year and was invited to visit President Ronald Reagan at the White House.

The season featured several game-saving plays as the Cougars moved their way up the rankings. Quarterback Robbie Bosco connected with wide receiver Adam Haysbert for a 50-yard touchdown pass with 1:37 left to play to take the lead in the season-opening win at No. 3 Pittsburgh.

Safety Kyle Morrell's timed leap over the center to stop a quarterback sneak short of the goal line gave BYU the momentum they needed to foil Hawaii's upset attempt. Tight end David Mills was poked in the eye, but came through with a leaping grab in the end zone to help BYU overcome Wyoming 41-38 in the homecoming game.

The Cougars ascended to the No. 1 spot on Nov. 17 following a 24-14 victory at Utah combined with a Nebraska loss to Oklahoma and a Navy upset over unbeaten and then No. 2 South Carolina. The Cougars maintained their No. 1 ranking heading into the bowl game after defeating Utah State 38-13 in the final contest of the regular season.

With a TV blimp in the sky over Jack Murphy Stadium, Bosco left the Holiday Bowl in the first quarter with an ankle injury, but returned late in the second taped up and played in the shotgun to finish the game. BYU trailed 17-10 after Michigan hit a field goal to begin the fourth quarter. The Cougars then took over the game, Bosco completed seven pass attempts to five different receivers and hit wide receiver Glen Kozlowski between two Michigan defenders for the game-tying touchdown.

Michigan threatened to score again, but linebacker Kurt Gouveia sacked the Wolverine quarterback for a 16-yard loss to force a punt. BYU moved the ball 70 yards to the Michigan 13-yard line when Bosco scrambled up the middle, keeping his eyes down field, and drilled the ball into running back Kelly Smith for the game-winning touchdown.

Controversy was abundant as many of the so-called experts such as NBC announcer Bryant Gumbell and Oklahoma head coach Barry Switzer accused BYU of playing a "Bo-Diddley Tech" schedule. However, at the end of the season BYU was the only team unscathed with a loss.

REMEMBERING COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME HEAD COACH

LAVELL EDWARDS

257 CAREER VICTORIES • 19 CONFERENCE TITLES • 1 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

October 11, 1930 - December 29, 2016

Legendary BYU head football coach LaVell Edwards passed away Dec. 29, 2016 at the age of 86 surrounded by his wife Patti and his family.

Edwards, a coaching icon in college football, led the Cougars for 29 seasons from 1972 to 2000. He amassed 257 victories, which ranks seventh in NCAA Division I history. In addition, Edwards led BYU to the 1984 National Championship and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

"I love LaVell Edwards. He came into my life, and the life of many others, at just the right time," BYU director of athletics Tom Holmoe said. "I had the influence of a great coach, a wonderful person, a disciple of Christ, a loyal family man and a true friend, from the day I met him until the day he passed away. LaVell had a pure heart. He was the dream coach of every parent. His example will forever be with me and I will strive to live a life of love as he always did."

Known for his stoic sideline demeanor and quick-witted humor, Edwards was once labeled by USA Today as a "national coaching treasure." Beloved not only in coaching circles and all of Cougar Nation, but especially by the many hundreds of players under his tutelage, including current head coach Kalani Sitake who was a fullback and team captain for the Cougars.

In 1972, Edwards assumed command of a BYU program that had won just 173 games over 49 seasons, including just 14 winning seasons. The Cougars had never been to a bowl game and had just one conference championship prior to Edwards' promotion to head coach.

Undaunted by the formidable rebuilding task that lay ahead, Edwards wasted little time in transforming BYU into a national power, pioneering an aggressive and innovative passing attack that led BYU to conference titles in 19 of 29 seasons and an overall record of 257-101-3.

In his first season as the head coach, he gave BYU fans a glimpse of the future. Edwards led the Cougars to a 7-4 overall record, including a 16-7 win over in-state rival Utah. Just two seasons later, Edwards had the team rolling. The Cougars won the WAC Championship after a 48-20 victory over the Utes and accepted an invitation to the Fiesta Bowl -- the team's first-ever bowl appearance, starting a run of 22 bowls in 29 years. The 1974 season turned out to be the first of 27 straight non-losing seasons.

After recording an 11-1 record in 1979, a 12-1 record in 1980 another 11-win season in 1981, eight more wins in '82, and 11 additional wins in 1983, Edwards led BYU to a perfect 13-0 season in 1984. Following a 24-17 win over Michigan in the Holiday Bowl, the Cougars were crowned national champions. Not surprisingly, Edwards was named the National Coach of the Year for the second time in his career.

1972
Named BYU football head coach. BYU went 7-4 in his inaugural season and Pete Van Valkenburg won the NCAA rushing title

1974
BYU wins first Western Athletic Conference championship under Edwards with a 7-4-1 overall record, earning first bowl berth in school history (Fiesta Bowl). Quarterback Gary Sheide wins Sammy Baugh Trophy (First of 7 BYU winners)

1977
BYU leads the nation in passing yards for the second consecutive year (341.6 ypg). Marc Wilson quarterback team to second-consecutive 9-win season.

1979
BYU wins 11 games, reaching double digits for the first time in school history and Edwards named Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year. Marc Wilson named BYU's first Consensus All-American quarterback and wins Sammy Baugh Trophy.

1981
Jim McMahon named Consensus All-American and wins the Sammy Baugh and Davey O'Brien Awards and quarterback wins 11-2 season, winning back-to-back bowl games with a win over Washington State. Edwards coaches the West to a victory in the Hula Bowl

1962
Hired by BYU head football coach Hal Mitchell to coach the defensive line, eventually promoted to defensive coordinator

1973
Went 5-6 in second season, BYU's only losing season in his 29-year tenure

1976
BYU wins 9 games, most in school history to date. QB Gifford Nielson named First Team All-American and BYU leads nation in passing offense for first time (307.8 ypg)

1978
Edwards earns doctorate in education from BYU. The Cougars played in their first Holiday Bowl, starting a span of 17 consecutive bowl appearances.

1980
BYU wins first bowl game, nicknamed the "Miracle Bowl" after coming back to beat SMU 46-45 after Jim McMahon completed a Hail Mary to Clay Brown to cap the 21-point four-minute comeback and a 12-1 season.

1983
After losing first game, BYU wins 11 straight and finishes season ranked No. 7 in the polls, the best finish to date in school history. Edwards wins 100th game (SDSU). Steve Young named Consensus All-American and wins Sammy Baugh, Davey O'Brien and finishes second in Heisman voting.

Under his direction, BYU recorded 10 straight WAC championships from 1976 through 1985. The Cougars also played in 17 consecutive bowl games from 1978 until 1994.

On New Year's Day in 1997, BYU set an NCAA record with 14 victories after winning the Cotton Bowl to cap the 1996 season in a thrilling 19-15 victory over No. 14 Kansas State. BYU finished ranked No. 5 nationally – its highest finish since the 1984 title.

The Cougars won 18 WAC championships under Edwards and the inaugural Mountain West Conference title in 1999.

Edwards announced his retirement prior to the 2000 season but BYU would honor him by renaming Cougar Stadium to LaVell Edwards Stadium prior to the final home game of the year on Nov. 18. A banner bearing the new name was unveiled in a pre-game ceremony conducted by President Gordon B. Hinckley, president of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

A week later BYU sent Edwards into retirement with one more magical moment. Trailing Utah 27-26 in Salt Lake City with 23 seconds left, quarterback Brandon Doman kept it and ran up the right side for a 7-yard touchdown to send Edwards out a winner in his final game. Edwards was carried off the field by his players in a touching moment to end his Cougar career.

Edwards coached one Heisman Trophy winner, two Outland Trophy recipients, four Davey O'Brien awardees, seven Sammy Baugh Trophy Winners, 31 All-Americans and four College Football Hall of Famers. BYU's success didn't come without personal reward for Edwards either. He was named NCAA District 8 Coach of the Year eight times, Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year in 1979 and AFCA National Coach of the Year in 1984.

Following his coaching career, Edwards continued his life of service with a full-time LDS mission with his wife Patti to New York City from 2002-2003. He also served on several committees and boards for various college football awards and governing bodies since his retirement.

The eighth of 14 children, Edwards graduated from Lincoln High School in Orem. He attended Utah State University, where he was an all-conference lineman before serving a two-year commitment in the Army. He and Patti were married for more than 65 years. The Edwards have three children, Ann [Cannon], John and Jim.

1985
Bosco led the Cougars to another 11-win season and another WAC Championship. BYU finished No. 16 in the AP poll and Bosco was a third-round NFL draft pick.

1989
BYU wins WAC for the first time in three years behind the arm of sophomore Ty Detmer. Detmer throws for 4,560 yards, the third 4,000-yard season for a BYU quarterback under Edwards (McMahon '80, Bosco '84). Offensive lineman Mo Elewonibi wins Outland Trophy.

1994
Edwards and BYU defeat New Mexico 49-47 for his 200th victory. BYU also defeated Notre Dame during the regular season and Oklahoma in the postseason.

2000
Prior to the 2000 season, Edwards announces it will be his last. BYU finishes just 6-6 and does not get invited to a bowl game for just the fifth time in his 29 year career as head coach. In a ceremony following BYU's last regular season game at home, President Gordon B. Hinckley of the LDS Church officially renamed Cougar Stadium LaVell Edwards Stadium. The Cougars went on to defeat Utah in dramatic fashion to close the regular season on the road with a 34-27, last-minute victory for his 257th win (No. 6 all-time). Edwards is carried off the field.

2016
On Dec. 29, surrounded by his wife Patti and his family, LaVell Edwards passed away at his home in Provo at the age of 86. Hundreds of former players and coaches reunited at the stadium bearing LaVell's name following the memorial service to honor and remember their coach.

1984
BYU goes 13-0 and wins the National Championship. Edwards earns Kodak Coach of the Year. Quarterback Robbie Bosco wins Sammy Baugh. Five total players, including Bosco, are named to All-American teams.

1986
Edwards passes Arizona State's Frank Kush as the winningest coach in WAC history. Defensive lineman Jason Buck wins the Outland Trophy.

1990
Ty Detmer leads BYU to 28-21 win against No. 1 ranked Miami in Provo. Detmer wins the Heisman Trophy. BYU's only Heisman winner with 5,188 yards and 41 touchdowns.

1996
BYU sets an NCAA record with 14 victories, going 14-1 and defeating No. 14 Kansas State in the Cotton Bowl - BYU's only New Year's Day bowl in school history. Team finishes ranked No. 5 in the polls. QB Steve Sarkisian wins Sammy Baugh and Davey O'Brien Awards.

2004
Edwards is inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. BYU claimed 20 of 29 regular-season conference titles under Edwards and led BYU to 22 bowl games. A two-time national Coach of the Year winner, Edwards coached one national championship team and 32 All-Americans.

Since the days of Virgil Carter and Gary Sheide in the 1960s and early 1970s, BYU has produced an assembly line of outstanding quarterbacks in Provo that have earned unprecedented success in the market of college and professional football. Eleven BYU quarterbacks have earned at least an honorable mention All-America citation or Academic All-America honors.

Volumes have been written about BYU's passing game and great quarterback tradition. BYU quarterbacks have owned the NCAA record books and have won the Sammy Baugh trophy seven times and the Davey O'Brien four times. BYU's quarterback factory has also produced a Heisman Trophy winner in Ty Detmer and many other Heisman Trophy candidates. Quarterbacks Gifford Nielsen, Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon, Steve Young and Ty Detmer have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

On seven different occasions, BYU quarterbacks have finished as the NCAA total offense leaders. Three of the top-15 career passing efficiency leaders are from BYU. In the 29 years LaVell Edwards coached at BYU, the Cougars led the nation in passing eight times and finished in the top five 17 times.

When Edwards was named head coach at BYU in 1972, he realized he couldn't compete initially with the big schools for the big-time athletes. So he installed a passing attack that would change the future of college football. The offense worked, and the Cougars began passing the competition. BYU became one of the first universities to use the forward pass consistently and effectively in a time when throwing the football was a mere alternative to running the ball.

The pass has been good to BYU. Prior to Edwards, the program had won a total of 171 games and had only 16 winning seasons since 1922. Since 1972, BYU is No. 8 in total wins with 382. BYU has won or tied for a conference championship 23 times, played in 34 bowl games and won the national championship in 1984.

VIRGIL CARTER

Carter led the NCAA in touchdown passes and total offense in 1966. He set an NCAA record in 1966 with 599 yards of total offense at UTEP. He was an Academic All-American and finished 11th in the 1966 Heisman voting.

GARY SHEIDE

Sheide won the Sammy Baugh trophy in 1974 and was second in the NCAA in passing in both 1973 and 1974. He was the 1974 WAC Offensive Player of the Year and finished eighth in the 1974 Heisman ballot while earning All-American Honorable Mention from UPI.

GIFFORD NIELSEN

A First Team All-American in 1976, Nielsen led the NCAA in TD passes and passing yards and was second in total offense in 1976. He finished sixth in the 1976 Heisman voting and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1994.

MARC WILSON

Wilson won the Sammy Baugh in 1979 along with being named a Consensus All-American and third in the Heisman Trophy vote. He led the nation in total offense and set 19 NCAA records in his career. He was a first-round draft pick of the Oakland Raiders (15th overall) and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1996.

JIM MCMAHON

McMahon won the Davey O'Brien, Sammy Baugh and was named a Consensus All-American in 1981. He set 75 NCAA records in his career and led the NCAA in total offense passing in both 1980 and 1981. McMahon finished third (1981) and fifth (1980) in the Heisman voting. He went on to be a first round pick of the Chicago Bears in 1982 and quarterbacked them to a Super Bowl win in 1986 and got another ring with Green Bay in 1996 as a backup, playing in the NFL for 16 years. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1998.

STEVE YOUNG

Young also won both the Davey O'Brien and the Sammy Baugh in 1983 along with earning Consensus All-American status. He led the NCAA in total offense, passing and pass efficiency in 1983 and was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy. He set 15 NCAA records in his career. Young played 14 years in the NFL and won the NFL MVP in both 1992 and 1994. He set the NFL single-season passer rating record with 112.8 in 1994 and won a Super Bowl with San Francisco the same year, earning MVP honors with six touchdown passes in the game. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001.

ROBBIE BOSCO

Bosco led the Cougars to the 1984 National Championship and won the Sammy Baugh Trophy that season. He was a second-team All-American and runner-up for the Davey O'Brien while finishing third for the Heisman in both 1984 and 1985. He led the NCAA in total offense in 1984 and was drafted by Green Bay 1985. He has since coached at BYU and currently serves in an administrative role in the athletic department.

TY DETMER

Detmer won the Heisman Trophy in 1990 and is a two-time Davey O'Brien winner and Maxwell Award recipient. He set 63 NCAA records and was a two-time Consensus All-American. He is BYU's career leader with 15,031 passing yards and ranks No. 5 in NCAA history.

He led the NCAA in passing yards in 1990 and total offense in 1991. He played 14 years in the NFL and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2012. He returned to BYU as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2016-2017.

STEVE SARKISIAN

In two seasons at BYU, Sarkisian won the Sammy Baugh Trophy, earned second team All-American honors and led the nation in passing efficiency in 1996. He was named the 1996 WAC Offensive Player of the Year and led BYU to an NCAA-record 14 victories in 1996, including a win in the Cotton Bowl over Kansas State. He has been a head coach at Washington and USC.

JOHN BECK

Beck was named a second team All-American in 2006 and was named the MWC Offensive Player of the Year.

He was a finalist for the Johnny Unitas award and semi-finalist for the Davey O'Brien. His 11,021 career passing yards ranks No. 3 at BYU. He was drafted in the second round of the 2007 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins and played six years in the NFL.

MAX HALL

Hall won more games at BYU than any other starting quarterback, with 32 victories. He was a two-time honorable mention All-American and a three-time All-MWC player. He is second in BYU history in passing yards, touchdowns, completions and total offense in his three seasons. He played in six games for the Arizona Cardinals in 2010 after signing as a free agent. He won his first career NFL start.

3,000 PASSING YARDS

Passing for 3,000 yards has been a benchmark in college football since BYU was one of the early pioneers engineering an effective air attack. Since 1976, 13 different individual BYU quarterbacks have accomplished the feat 23 times. As a team, BYU has passed for at least 3,000 yards in 32 of the past 40 seasons, including 14 seasons with at least 4,000 yards and one season in 1990 with over 5,000 yards.

1990 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER TY DETMER

On December 1, 1990, Ty Detmer and his teammates gathered pool-side at the Princess Kaiulani Hotel just hours prior to kickoff with Hawai'i. Via satellite hookup with national TV, Detmer and the BYU faithful waited patiently and listened as Downtown Athletic Club President C. Peter Lambos announced, "Ty Detmer, Ty Detmer of BYU," — soon Ty was doused in the pool.

Detmer, a junior, became the first collegian from the Rockies to win the Heisman Trophy. Named in honor of John Heisman, the coveted 25-pound honor has been awarded annually to the outstanding college football player of the year since 1935.

A 28-21 upset over No. 1-ranked Miami in Provo vaulted Detmer to the forefront in the Heisman race his junior season. Combined with a massive public relations "necktie" campaign for Ty, the 6-foot, 175-pound, gunslinger from San Antonio, Texas, guided BYU to a Holiday Bowl berth that season and a 10-3 record with 41 touchdowns and 5,188 yards passing.

Detmer polled 1,482 points to beat out Notre Dame's Raghib "Rocket" Ismail at 1,177 and finished first in all six regions. Detmer finished third in the Heisman balloting in 1991.

"Winning the Heisman was a great honor," said Detmer. "There have been a lot of great players, like my teammates and previous BYU quarterbacks, that contributed to it. They opened the door. It shows the strength of the program at BYU."

Detmer's portrait hangs alongside other recipients on the third floor of the DAC of New York City. A duplicate portrait of Detmer also hangs on display in the Cougar Room of LaVell Edwards Stadium. The trophy is on display in the lobby of Legacy Hall, located in the Student Athlete Building.

BYU has had a player finish in the top 10 of Heisman voting in 12 seasons and a finalist seven times. Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon, Steve Young and Robbie Bosco (twice) all earned recognition in the top three of vote getters, along with Detmer's win in 1990 and third-place finish in 1991.

7 SAMMY BAUGH WINNERS

The Sammy Baugh Trophy is awarded to the nation's top passer by the Touchdown Club of Columbus each year since 1959. The award is named after College and Pro Football Hall of Famer Samuel "Slingin' Sammy" Baugh. He was a two-time All-American at TCU and went on to play with the Washington Redskins from 1937-1952. He was a six-time All-Pro selection and NFL Player of the Year in 1947 and 1948. Baugh is credited for making the forward pass an integral part of offensive play in the NFL.

BYU has produced a record seven Sammy Baugh winners including Gary Sheide, Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon, Steve Young, Robbie Bosco, Ty Detmer and Steve Sarkisian. No other school has more than four winners.

In 1981, the Davey O'Brien Educational and Charitable Trust of Fort Worth, Texas, named Jim McMahon the first recipient of the annual Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award — honoring the nation's best quarterback, after previously honoring any position player beginning in 1977. BYU quarterbacks have won the Davey O'Brien Award four times — more than any other school. In addition to winners McMahon (1981), Steve Young (1983) and Ty Detmer (1990 & '91), Robbie Bosco finished runner-up in 1984 and Steve Sarkisian finished third in 1996.

1981 JIM MCMAHON

Jim McMahon won the Davey O'Brien Award in its first year as a quarterback-specific award. McMahon's senior season in 1981 capped of his historic career with another 3,555 yards and 30 touchdown passes. He was named to five All-America teams and was the WAC Player of the Year after leading BYU to a WAC Championship.

1983 STEVE YOUNG

Steve Young put together a senior season of 3,902 passing yards, 33 touchdowns to go along with a running attack of 444 yards and another eight scores. He led BYU to an 11-1 record, winning another WAC title and leading the Cougars to a 21-17 win in the Holiday Bowl over Missouri after catching the game-winning touchdown on a halfback pass.

1990 TY DETMER

Ty Detmer's 1990 season was one of the best by a quarterback in not just BYU history, but in all of college football. The junior threw for 5,188 yards and 41 touchdowns in 12 regular season games while setting 42 NCAA records and tying five more. Detmer's Davey O'Brien was added to his hardware collection in 1990 consisting of the Maxwell Award and Heisman Trophy.

1991 TY DETMER

Detmer followed up his historic junior campaign with another stellar season as a senior. He threw for 4,031 yards and 35 touchdowns en route to another Davey O'Brien Award and the Sammy Baugh Trophy. He finished third in the Heisman voting and was named a consensus All-American for the second consecutive year. The Cougars also clinched a third-straight WAC title behind Detmer's arm.

Each year the Maxwell Football Club presents the Maxwell Award for the College Player of the Year. Dating back to 1937, this award is presented in honor of Robert W. (Tiny) Maxwell, legendary college player, official and sports columnist. Voters for the Maxwell College Awards are NCAA Head College Football Coaches, members of the Maxwell Football Club & sportswriters and sportscasters from across the country. Quarterback Ty Detmer took home the Maxwell Award as college football's best player in 1990. Detmer won the Heisman and Davey O'Brien the same year. The Maxwell Award voting - by college coaches, the media and members of the Maxwell Football Club - had the same order of finish as the Heisman. Detmer had 1,993 points; followed by Raghib "Rocket" Ismail of Notre Dame with 1,385; Eric Bieniemy of Colorado with 747 and Shawn Moore of Virginia with 431.

1986 JASON BUCK

Jason Buck, a 6-6, 270-pound senior from St. Anthony, Idaho, started out as a quarterback and linebacker at Ricks College but came to BYU in 1985. Buck led the 1986 Cougars with 218.5 defensive points and registered 26 unassisted tackles, 33 assisted tackles, 13 tackles for losses, 17 quarterback hurries and 12.5 sacks.

Buck rode a publicity campaign of "One Buck" dollar bills in leading BYU to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Freedom Bowl in 1986.

"For me it was just a thrill to be on the field every Saturday at BYU," said Buck. "To win the Outland Trophy was a dream come true."

The Outland Trophy has been awarded annually by the Football Writers Association of America since 1946 to the nation's most outstanding interior lineman. It is named after the late John Outland, an All-America lineman at Pennsylvania in the late 1800s. It is the third oldest player award in major-college football behind the Heisman Trophy and Maxwell Award.

1989 MOHAMMED ELEWONIBI

Mohammed Elewonibi, a 6-5, 290-pound, senior from British Columbia, Canada, spent his childhood in his native Nigeria and didn't play football until after high school, at Snow Junior College. "Mount Mohammed" led BYU to a 10-3 record, a berth in the Holiday Bowl in 1989 and graded out four times with perfect pass protection as a senior. The Outland Trophy honors the outstanding interior lineman in the nation and was first presented in 1946 by the Football Writers Association of America. The award is named for its benefactor, Dr. John H. Outland.

LUKE STALEY

CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICAN • DOAK WALKER AWARD WINNER

BYU running back Luke Staley was named the winner of the 2001 Doak Walker Award. The annual award, which was presented on the ESPN Home Depot College Football Awards Show from Orlando, Fla., is presented to college football's top running back.

"This is a great honor," Staley said. "I can't express how grateful I am for my family, my teammates, my coach - everyone who made this possible."

In addition to winning the Doak Walker Award, Staley was also named as a first-team member of the prestigious Walter Camp Foundation All-America Team. Staley was the first BYU consensus All-American since Ty Detmer was twice selected in 1990 and 1991. In addition to the Walter Camp Foundation All-America team, Staley was named a first-team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, the Associated Press, The Sporting News, Football News and CNN/NI—just to name a few.

"We're very proud of Luke and all his accomplishments," BYU head coach Gary Crowton said. "Since we started this season back in August, we have been telling these guys to work hard, stay focused and great things will happen. This award, although presented to Luke, is a tribute to the hard work and commitment each and every player and coach has made this season. Luke is probably one of the best examples we have had, in terms of working hard and staying focused. This is a great tribute for a great athlete, a great teammate and a great young man. We couldn't be more proud of him."

Staley, from Tualatin, Ore., led the nation in scoring (15.5 p/game), yards per carry (8.1 y/carry) and finished the 2001 season ranked third in the nation in rushing, averaging 143.8 yards per game. He helped pace the Cougars to a 12-2 record on the season, scoring a BYU single-season record 28 touchdowns. Staley also racked up a BYU single-season record 1,582 yards rushing on the season.

The Polynesian Islands have become a hotbed for recruiting in recent years, but BYU has been one of the pioneers in bringing these players from Tonga, Samoa, the Hawaiian Islands and all of Polynesia to the forefront of college football since the early 1950s.

Harry Bray of Hilo, Hawai'i, transferred from Weber College to play for the Cougars in 1951, becoming the first Polynesian to play for the Cougars. Other Pacific Islanders who followed included: Famika Anae (1954-55), John Kapele (1957-59), John Kawaa (1962-1963), John Lupoi (1967-1969) and Henry Nawahine (1964-1965). Some of BYU's most celebrated and decorated players have come from the Pacific islands, including All-Americans, national record holders, players who have gone on to compete in the NFL and now, several members of BYU's current coaching and support staff.

Kalani Sitake was named BYU's 14th head coach on Dec. 19, 2015, becoming the first Tongan head football coach in the NCAA. Sitake was raised in Laie, Hawaii and later moved to the mainland. His staff includes Polynesians Ilaisa Tuiaki, Fesi Sitake, Nu'u Tafisi, Alema Fitiseanu, Jack Damuni, Jasen Ah You, Manase Tonga, Vince Feula and Harvey Unga.

Since 1951, hundreds of Polynesian players have suited up for BYU. The Cougars' Polynesian players have come from all over the Pacific including Hawaii, Tonga, Samoa and Fiji. Some of the most notable players include Vai Sikahema, the NCAA's career leader in punt returns, All-American and NFL veteran tight end Itula Mili and BYU's No. 2 career rusher, Harvey Unga. Many former BYU Polynesian have gone on to play in the NFL.

Of the hundreds of Polynesian players, several rank among the top statistical leaders in BYU history. Two of the top-10 career rushers are Polynesian. Two of the top-10 leaders in career receiving yards are also Polynesian. Since 1982, 11 of BYU's season-rushing leaders have been Pacific Islanders.

BYU's tight ends have earned unprecedented success as a featured position in the offense for decades. Most recently, true freshman Matt Bushman led all freshman tight ends in college football in 2017 with 49 receptions, 520 yards and three touchdowns to earn Freshman All-America status.

Over the years, Cougar football has emerged as the home of some of the best pass-catching tight ends in NCAA history. Starting with "Miracle Bowl" hero Clay Brown in 1980, nine BYU tight ends have earned All-America recognition. Since 1976, 12 Cougar tight ends have received 20 first-team All-Conference citations. Five former Cougars helped lead their teams to the Super Bowl—Doug Jolley with the Oakland Raiders in 2003, Chad Lewis with the Philadelphia Eagles in 2005, Itula Mili with the Seattle Seahawks in 2006, Gabriel Reid with the Chicago Bears in 2007 and Dennis Pitta with the Baltimore Ravens in 2013.

Two former BYU Cougars, Todd Christensen and Chad Lewis, have been named to several Pro Bowl teams during their successful professional careers as tight ends. A BYU tight end was named first-team all-conference (Jonny Harline in 2005 and 2006 and Dennis Pitta in 2007, 2008 and 2009) in five-straight years. In 2009, BYU became the first team in MWC history to sweep the tight end honors as Andrew George earned All-MWC Second Team accolades while Pitta was a consensus All-American.

The College Football Hall of Fame was established in 1951. Including the 2016 Hall of Fame class, only 977 players and 211 coaches, have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame from the nearly 5.12 million who have played or coached the game during the past 147 years. In other words, less than two ten-thousandths of one percent (.0002) of the individuals who have played the game have been deemed worthy of this distinction.

BYU has produced seven Hall of Fame members, including six players and head coach LaVell Edwards.

Founded in 1947, The National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame inducted its first class of inductees in 1951. The first class included 32 players and 19 coaches, including Illinois' Red Grange, Notre Dame's Knute Rockne, Amos Alonzo Stagg and Carlisle's Jim Thorpe.

305 schools are represented with at least one College Football Hall of Famer.

The new College Football Hall of Fame, which opened on Aug. 23, 2014, is a 94,256-square-foot attraction located in the heart of Atlanta's sports, entertainment and tourism district.

GIFFORD NIELSEN QUARTERBACK: 1975-77 INDUCTED: 1994

Nicknamed the "Mormon Rifle," Gifford Nielsen became BYU's first Hall of Fame inductee in 1994. His prolific passing career began when he came off the bench in the third game of his sophomore season to lead the Cougars to a 16-15 come-from-behind win over New Mexico by completing 10 of 12 passes. As a junior in 1976, Nielsen really made fans sit up and notice. He passed for 3,192 yards and 29 touchdowns, set 13 WAC records and made All-America. Next season promised even more. He threw five touchdown passes against New Mexico, six against Utah State and was twice named Player of the Week. For the first time, a BYU football team was nationally ranked. "It was like a little dream world," said Nielsen, a product of Provo High School. "The numbers were just mind-boggling. Everything you could ever dream of as a kid in Provo, Utah, was in the palm of my hand." On Oct. 8, 1977, his season and college career ended when he suffered a serious injury. Over three years Nielsen averaged an astounding 243 yards passing per game. Nielsen played six years with the Houston Oilers and was the last quarterback to lead the Oilers to the AFC finals. He and his wife Wendy have six children.

MARC WILSON QUARTERBACK: 1976-79 INDUCTED: 1996

One of the most celebrated quarterbacks in Cougar history, Marc Wilson earned consensus All-America honors in 1979 and was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Dec. 10, 1996. In Wilson's first game as a starter, he was 15 of 25 for 332 yards with seven touchdowns in a 63-17 triumph over Colorado State and was consequently named Sports Illustrated's Offensive Player of the Week. In Wilson's career at BYU, he set 15 NCAA records. The 6-5, 204-pound quarterback ranked fourth in the nation in passing efficiency with a 147.1 rating in 1979. That same year, Wilson finished third in the Heisman balloting, led his team to an undefeated regular season and was named the Holiday Bowl's Offensive MVP. A true student-athlete, Wilson was the recipient of the NCAA Top Five Award and its post-graduate scholarship. A first round draft pick of the Oakland Raiders, Wilson played eight seasons before finishing his career with the New England Patriots. Presently, Wilson is a land developer in the North Seattle area. He and his wife, Colleen, live in Woodinville, Wash. with their four children.

JIM MCMAHON QUARTERBACK: 1978-81 INDUCTED: 1998

McMahon set 75 NCAA records at BYU, was a 1981 first team All-American by Kodak (Coaches), College & Pro Weekly, Associated Press, UPI, FWAA and second team NEA. In 1980 he earned first team All-America from the FWAA. McMahon balloted third place for the Heisman Trophy in 1981 and fifth in 1980. In 1981, he won the Davey O'Brien Trophy, the Sammy Baugh Award, the Utah Sportsman of the Year and the NCAA Co-Offensive Player of the Year with Marcus Allen (Pigskin Club of Wash., D.C.). He led the NCAA in pass efficiency (155.0) and total offense (345.8) in 1981 as well as pass efficiency (176.9) and total offense (385.6) in 1980. He set 29 Western Athletic Conference records and was three-time WAC Player of the Year and first team all-league. He broke 23 BYU records, was MVP of two Holiday Bowls and has been inducted to the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame. McMahon passed for 9,536 yards, threw 84 touchdowns and completed 653 of 1,056 passes at BYU. McMahon played for the Chicago Bears from 1982-88 (1985 Super Bowl Champs, 1985 Pro QB of the Year, and Pro Bowl); San Diego Chargers in 1989; Philadelphia Eagles from 1990-92; Minnesota Vikings in 1993; Arizona Cardinals in 1994; and Green Bay Packers from 1995-96 (1997 Super Bowl Champions).

LAVELL EDWARDS

HEAD COACH: 1972-2000 INDUCTED: 2004

A coaching icon whose success and longevity are paralleled by few, Edwards guided BYU to heights never before reached in the program's history. Edwards posted a record of 257-101-3 (.716) over a span of 29 seasons at BYU. From 1972 until his retirement following the 2000 season, Edwards roamed the sidelines at BYU — a tenure that ranks fifth all-time among coaches at one school. In 20 of those 29 seasons, the Cougars claimed the league title. Guiding BYU to 22 bowl game appearances, including a streak of 17-straight bowl appearances, Edwards reached the pinnacle of coaching success in 1984 by winning the National Championship. His 257 wins rank him seventh in NCAA Division I-A history, and he has more victories than every other coach in BYU history combined. At the helm, Edwards coached one Heisman Trophy winner, two Outland Trophy recipients, four Davey O'Brien award winners and 32 All-Americans — not to mention countless players who went on to professional careers in the NFL. He was named NCAA District 8 Coach of the Year eight times, the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year in 1979 and AFCA National Coach of the Year in 1984. Named the State of Utah's Coach of the Century, Edwards is a member of the State of Utah Sports Hall of Fame. "A spectacular choice," Steve Young said. "When you think of the Hall of Fame, you think of longevity, excellence, leadership and quality. In my book, Hall of Fame and LaVell Edwards go hand in hand. He is definitely a worthy recipient of this honor."

STEVE YOUNG

QUARTERBACK: 1975-77
INDUCTED: 1994

One of the greatest collegiate quarterbacks of all time, Young set 13 NCAA records. As a junior, he averaged 318.8 yards per game of total offense, earning All-Western Athletic Conference recognition and Conference Player of the Year honors. In his senior season, he repeated as a first-team All-WAC selection, completed 306 of 429 pass attempts for an impressive .713 percentage and led BYU to its second-straight Holiday Bowl. His .713 completion percentage, 3,902 yards passing, 4,346 yards of total offense and 33 touchdowns all led the nation. He completed 592 of 907 attempts for a .653 average, threw for 7,733 yards and 56 touchdowns and had 8,817 yards of total offense in only 31 games. A unanimous All-American and academic All-WAC selection, Young was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy and received a National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award in recognition for his excellence on the field, in the classroom and in the community. Young retired after 15 seasons in the NFL, where he earned two MVP awards, seven trips to the Pro Bowl and led the San Francisco 49ers to win the Super Bowl in 1995, earning MVP honors.

GORDON HUDSON

TIGHT END: 1980-83
INDUCTED: 2009

Hudson is the first non-quarterback to represent BYU as a player in the Hall. A consensus All-America First Team pick in 1982 and 1983, Hudson is still the NCAA FBS record holder for most passes caught per game by a tight end (5.4) in a career, most career yards per game by a tight end (75.3) and most yards in a single game by a tight end (259). Hudson helped BYU win four conference championships (WAC) and earn four Holiday Bowl invitations during his career from 1980-83. He totaled 2,484 receiving yards and 22 touchdowns during his All-American career.

TY DETMER

QUARTERBACK: 1988-91
INDUCTED: 2012

BYU's only Heisman Trophy Winner, Detmer is BYU's seventh inductee into the Hall of Fame. Detmer also won the Maxwell Award, two Davey O'Brien Awards and set 63 NCAA records in his tenure. Twice named a consensus All-American, Detmer won national player of the year awards from organizations such as UPI, CBS, Scripps Howard and the U.S. Sports Academy. His 15,031 career passing yards and 121 touchdowns were NCAA bests at the time, and the gunslinger still holds three records. A three-time first team All-WAC performer, Detmer led College Football Hall of Fame coach LaVell Edwards' teams to three conference titles, four bowl games, three AP Top-25 finishes and a 28-21 win over top-ranked and defending national champion Miami on Sept. 8, 1990. The NCAA Today's Top VI Award recipient was a ninth round selection of the 1992 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers and played 14 seasons in the NFL. A 2000 inductee of the BYU Athletics Hall of Fame, Detmer returned to BYU as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2016-2017.

*All-Independent

INDEPENDENT (2011- PRESENT)

On September 1, 2010, BYU announced its football program would compete in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision as an independent beginning with the 2011 season. Since the university instituted a football program in 1922, BYU had been a member of five different conferences, including the Rocky Mountain (1922-37), Mountain States/Skyline (1938-61), Western Athletic (1962-98) and Mountain West (1999-2010). The Cougars claimed their first conference championship in program history in 1965, going 4-2 in the WAC under head coach Tom Hudspeeth and have won 23 conference championships the club's history. BYU won its next title, the first of 19 under legendary coach LaVell Edwards, in 1974. During its time in the MWC, the Cougars won four championships, including back-to-back undefeated conference seasons in 2006 and 2007.

MOUNTAIN WEST (1999-10)

- For the third time in program history, BYU chartered the creation of a new conference, this time joined by New Mexico, Utah, Air Force, Colorado St., San Diego State, UNLV and Wyoming. TCU joined in 2005.
- BYU football posted a 64-26 (.711) conference record in its 12 years in the conference.
- The Cougars' four MWC titles, 64 wins and 54 All-MWC First Team selections equal or surpass any MWC team since the league's inception.
- BYU won four MWC titles, including back-to-back championships in 2006-07. In three of its championship seasons, BYU went undefeated in conference play.

WESTERN ATHLETIC (1962-98)

- BYU was a charter member of the conference along with Arizona, Arizona State, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming.
- The WAC eventually expanded to as many as 16 schools in 1996.
- BYU football posted a 187-69-2 (.729) conference record in its 37 years in the conference.
- While in the WAC, the Cougars won the 1984 National Championship, finishing 13-0.
- BYU won a total of 19 titles in the WAC, including its first-ever football championship in 1965 and 10-straight from 1976-85.
- BYU's 19 WAC titles, 187 conference wins and 199 All-WAC First Team selections are all still the most by far of any WAC team.

MOUNTAIN STATES/SKYLINE (1938-61)

- BYU was a charter member of the conference, leaving with Colorado, Colorado State, Denver, Utah, Utah State and Wyoming when the RMFAC was deemed too large. Montana and New Mexico joined in 1951.
- After Colorado left in 1947, the conference became popularly known as the Skyline Conference.
- Football posted a 41-75-12 (.367) conference record in its 24 years in the conference.
- The conference dissolved in early 1962 after BYU, Utah, Wyoming and New Mexico left to form the WAC.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN FACULTY ATHLETIC (1922-37)

- BYU joined the RMFAC in 1918 with football participation beginning four years later.
- BYU football posted a 46-52-4 (.471) conference record in its 16 years in the conference.
- When BYU joined, other RMFAC schools included Colorado, Colorado A&M (now Colorado State), Colorado College, Colorado School of Mines, Denver, Utah, Utah State and Montana State. Wyoming, Western St. and Colorado Teacher's College (now Northern Colorado) joined two years later.
- Known today as the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (RMAC), it is now a Division II conference with 14 members.

BYU currently has 18 players under NFL contract. Linebacker Fred Warner was drafted by the San Francisco 49ers in the third round of the 2018 NFL Draft. John Denney is the longest tenured BYU player in the NFL, entering his 14th NFL season as the long-snapper for the Miami Dolphins. Only Dan Marino has played in more games in a Dolphins uniform. Former defensive end Ezekiel Ansah is one of the most notable current NFL Cougars. Ansah was drafted No. 5 overall in 2013 by the Detroit Lions and was named to the Pro Bowl in 2015. He led the NFC with 14.5 sacks in 2015 and has totaled 32 for his career. In 2018, Ansah signed a franchise tag deal with Detroit, worth $17.1 million for the 2018 season. Linebacker Kyle Van Noy has helped the Patriots to back-to-back Super Bowl appearances in his two years with the club, including a win in Super Bowl LI.

BYU has had 141 players drafted by the NFL and another 189 undrafted players receive NFL opportunities. BYU has had 11 first round picks, the most recent being Ghana native Ezekiel Ansah, who was drafted No. 5 overall to the Detroit Lions in 2013. BYU's most recent draft pick was linebacker Fred Warner, going in the third round to the San Francisco 49ers in the 2018 NFL Draft.

The average player coming from BYU spends nearly four and a half years in the NFL, about one year longer than the average NFL career.

Punter Lee Johnson had the longest NFL career, spanning 18 seasons and six teams. He was a fifth-round draft pick by the Houston Oilers (1985-87). He went on to play for the Cleveland Browns (1987-1988), Cincinnati Bengals (1988-1998), New England Patriots (1999-2001), Minnesota Vikings (2001) and Philadelphia Eagles (2002). At the time of his retirement, his 51,979 punting yards were the third most in NFL history.

There have been 41 players from BYU in the Super Bowl, bringing home 40 total championship rings. Former defensive back and current, athletic director Tom Holmoe has the most with four rings, including three as a player and one as a coach, all with the 49ers. From 1980-1992 the Cougars had at least one representative in the Super Bowl each year.

John Denney is the longest tenured active BYU player in the NFL, heading into his 14th season with the Miami Dolphins. He was a free agent signee. With 208 games played, only Dan Marino has played in more games as a Dolphin.

Steve Young is arguably BYU's best known NFL player, spending 15 seasons in the league, 13 with the 49ers. Young won Super Bowl XXIX 49-26 over the Chargers with a Super Bowl-record six touchdown passes, winning the game's MVP award. He was also the league's MVP in 1992 and 1994. In '94, he set an NFL-record 112.8 passer rating. He was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 2005.

JAMAAL WILLIAMS

STEVE YOUNG

KYLE VAN NOY

BYU has had 41 players in the Super Bowl, including current director of athletics Tom Holmoe and quarterback Steve Young who each won three rings playing for the San Francisco 49ers. Holmoe won an additional ring as a coach with 49ers after his playing career was over. Offensive lineman Bart Oates also has three Super Bowl rings, winning two with the New York Giants and one with the 49ers. Quarterback Jim McMahon led the Chicago Bears to a Super Bowl XX victory in 1986 and then won a second ring with the Green Bay Packers in 1997 at Super Bowl XXXI. Defensive linemen Brett Keisel and Chris Hoke both have a pair of rings while playing together for the Pittsburgh Steelers. Tight end Dennis Pitta won in 2013 with the Ravens. Pitta had four catches for 26 yards including a 1-yard touchdown reception in the Super Bowl XLVII win over the 49ers. Most recently, linebacker Kyle Van Noy has appeared in the last two Super Bowls, winning Super Bowl LI with the New England Patriots. Van Noy combined for a sack in the game as the Patriots came back from down 28-3 to beat the Falcons 34-28 in overtime.

Ezekiel "Ziggy" Ansah tied Jim McMahon as BYU's highest draft pick in history, going at No. 5 to the Detroit Lions in the 2013 NFL Draft.

BYU'S NFL DRAFT FACTS

- The Cougars have had 11 different players drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft and one player selected in the first round of the USFL Draft (Steve Young).
- Ezekiel "Ziggy" Ansah was drafted 5th overall by the Detroit Lions in 2013 NFL Draft, tying Jim McMahon for the highest NFL Draft pick out of BYU in the regular NFL Draft. Ansah, who went on to lead all NFL rookies in sacks in 2013, is the highest defensive pick for the Cougars. The highest all-time pick is Steve Young, who was picked first overall in the special 1984 NFL Supplemental Draft of USFL and CFL players.
- Linebacker Fred Warner was the most recent Cougar drafted, going in the third round to the San Francisco 49ers in 2018.
- Running back Jamaal Williams was drafted in the fourth round to the Green Bay Packers in 2017.
- In 2016, Bronson Kaufusi was drafted, getting picked in the third round with the 70th overall pick by the Baltimore Ravens.
- Dennis Pitta became the 10th BYU tight end picked in the NFL Draft and the fourth since 2001. The consensus All-American was the 16th pick in the fourth round of the 2010 draft, 114th overall by the Baltimore Ravens. Pitta was the first Cougar to be selected by the Ravens.
- Four BYU athletic department administrators were selected in the NFL Draft, including Robbie Bosco (1986, Green Bay Packers), Lee Johnson (1985, Houston Oilers), Tom Holmoe (1983, San Francisco 49ers) and Fui Vakapuna (2009, Cincinnati Bengals)
- Over the past 32 professional drafts, 69 players have been drafted, including 38 offensive players, 30 defensive players and one special teams player from BYU.
- BYU's receiver Austin Collie was drafted by the Indianapolis Colts in the fourth round of the 2009 NFL Draft. A 6-foot-2, 206-pound wide receiver, Collie was the 27th pick of the fourth round and the 127th overall selection. In his rookie year, Collie was named to the All-Rookie team, catching 60 receptions for 676 yards and seven touchdowns including 6 catches for 66 yards in Super Bowl XLIV.

BYU has a record of 568-415-26 (.576). The Cougars have had just 14 head coaches in nearly a century of football as they enter the 94th season of play. (BYU did not play football for three years (1943-45) during World War II.) Over the past 40 seasons, the Cougars have had the sixth-most wins of any team in college football to date.

Linebacker Kyle Van Noy essentially took over for BYU in the 2012 Poinsettia Bowl, where he forced and recovered a fumble for the go-ahead touchdown and minutes later returned an interception for his second-defensive score of the 4th quarter en route to a 23-6 victory over SDSU.

LaVell Edwards celebrates BYU's 19-15 Cotton Bowl victory over Kansas State in 1997. It has been the Cougars' only New Year's Day bowl game.

In one of the greatest bowls games in NCAA history, BYU overcame a 45-25 deficit with 4:07 left in the game to win 46-45 in the 1980 Holiday Bowl over SMU, nicknamed the "Miracle Bowl." With 4:07 remaining in the game, SMU scored to go ahead, 45-25. From there the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an on-side kick, scored on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips, and blocked a punt. Finally, with three seconds left on the clock, Jim McMahon connected on a "Hail Mary" pass of 41 yards to Clay Brown.

Quarterback Steve Young actually caught the game-winning touchdown from running back Eddie Stinnett with under one minute to play vs. Missouri to win the 1983 Holiday Bowl 21-17.

Robbie Bosco led BYU to a 24-17 over Michigan to secure BYU's 1984 National Championship in the Holiday Bowl.

OSU – Bain 40-yard pass from Thompson (kick failed)

GAME SUMMARY:

Competing in its first post-season bowl game ever, BYU played Western Athletic Conference host to the Oklahoma State Cowboys before a crowd of 50,878. The Cougars got off to a quick start with two field goals during the first quarter before All-WAC quarterback Gary Sheide suffered a dislocated shoulder in the last moments of the quarter. He was replaced by junior reserve Mark Giles. The Cowboys took the scoring lead during the second quarter on a touchdown run around left end, giving Oklahoma State a 7-6 halftime advantage. OSU regained possession of the ball on the Cougars' 17-yard line after intercepting Giles, but the Cowboys were unable to convert on the turnover. A field goal from 32 yards out put the Cowboys in front 10-6 at the end of the third quarter. With 1:14 remaining in the game, Oklahoma State scored another touchdown on a 40-yard halfback pass to complete the scoring. The Cougars out-gained Oklahoma State in total yardage, 301-224. Giles was 11 of 26 for 138 yards. After three losses and a tie to open the season, the Cougars reeled off seven straight victories prior to the bowl game.

GAME SUMMARY:

Powerful Oklahoma State, sparked by All-American Terry Miller (173 yards rushing on 23 carries), used four pass interceptions and a fumble recovery to capture the 31st annual Tangerine Bowl contest. Defensively, the Cowboys yielded only 46 yards rushing. The Cougars, however, stayed close in the first half, which ended 28-14. Dave Lowry returned the second-half kickoff 102 yards (a Tangerine Bowl record) to move the Cougars to within seven at 28-21. From there, it was all Cowboys. BYU's Gifford Nielsen completed 23 of 34 passes for 209 yards and one touchdown, but the Cougars could only roll up 255 yards to Oklahoma State's 402. BYU entered the game with a 9-2 record, while Oklahoma State came in after tying for the Big 8 title. The Cowboys missed out on the Orange Bowl because of the conference tie-breaking formula. Later, the stadium was expanded and the name changed to the Florida Citrus Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY:

The inaugural Holiday Bowl pitted two teams with local drawing power, the Naval Academy and Brigham Young University. Despite chilly temperatures, the two teams engaged in a hard-hitting battle. Defense dominated the first two quarters. Brent Johnson put the Cougars on the scoreboard first with a 33-yard field goal with 8:26 left in the first quarter. Navy's Bob Tata boomed a 40-yard field goal to tie the score at 3-3. Jim McMahon sent the Cougars ahead with a 10-yard pass to Mike Chronister, but Johnson missed the PAT. McMahon ran another in from two yards out in the third period for a 16-3 BYU lead. Navy cut the lead to 16-10 after three quarters and then tied the game on two field goals in the fourth quarter, but it was a 65-yard pass to Phil McConkey that did the Cougars in. Some 52,500 witnessed the game in person. McConkey was named Best Offensive Player and BYU's Tom Enlow won Best Defensive Player honors. Navy finished the year at 9-3, BYU at 9-4.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 1979 season ended with BYU leading the nation in scoring, passing and total offense. At 11-0, the Cougars were one of the few undefeated, untied teams in the nation. Those kinds of credentials, along with its No. 9 national ranking in the UPI and AP polls made BYU the favorite over the at-large entry, Indiana. The opportunistic Hoosiers played the Cougars tough, holding a 21-17 lead at the half. BYU jumped ahead in the third quarter, 24-21, on a 13-yard pass from All-American Marc Wilson to Homer Jones. The Cougars fell behind, 31-24, but regained the lead at 34-31 on a 15-yard pass to Eric Lane. With 12:14 left to play, BYU padded the lead on the third field goal of the game by Brent Johnson. But midway through the fourth quarter, Indiana's Tim Wilbur returned a punt 62 yards to push the Hoosiers ahead 38-37. With 2:06 remaining, the Cougars moved the ball 69 yards to the Indiana 10. Then, with 11 seconds left, Johnson missed a 27-yard field goal that would have won the game. Wilson was voted the MVP on offense (28 of 43 for 380 yards) and Indiana's Wilbur won the honor for defense. Clay Brown caught nine passes for 142 yards. Lane grabbed nine passes for 79 yards and also scored a rushing touchdown. Jones scored a touchdown and had 126 yards on seven kickoff returns.

GAME SUMMARY:

One observer said the 1980 Holiday Bowl was actually two ball games--a contest which lasted most of four quarters and another of four minutes duration. SMU controlled the "first game," leaving the Cougars behind 20 points with only minutes remaining. Unfortunately, many fans either turned off their TV sets or left the stadium in San Diego before the "second game" began. In the final four minutes, BYU surged to a stunning 46-45 win. For 56 minutes the Mustangs taught the Cougars a lesson in running the football. The Mustangs' two great running backs, Craig James and Eric Dickerson, rushed for a combined total of 335 yards. With 4:07 remaining in the game, SMU scored to go ahead, 45-25. From there the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an on-side kick, scored on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips and blocked a punt. Finally, with three seconds left on the clock, Jim McMahon connected on a "Hail Mary" pass of 41 yards to Clay Brown. With the score tied, Kurt Gunther kicked the extra point to send BYU fans streaming onto the field. McMahon was 32 of 49 passes for 446 yards. It may have been the most exciting bowl game ever, with the Cougars getting 21 points in the final 2:33. Ironically, four passes on conversion attempts had failed before McMahon hit Phillips after the next-to-last touchdown to cut a 45-31 deficit to 45-39 and put the Cougars in a position to win the game with one more score. The 50-yard drive was set up when Todd Shell recovered a Brent Johnson on-side-kick at midfield. SMU got the ball back with 1:57 but had to punt. The kick was blocked by defensive back Bill Schoepflin and recovered by the SMU punter, Eric Kaifes, with 13 seconds left. McMahon threw one incomplete pass intended for Brown and another for Lloyd Jones before unleashing the famous pass to Brown in the end zone with no time left on the clock.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 1981 edition of the Holiday Bowl fit the mold of its predecessors. This time it was the Cougars of BYU versus the Cougars of Washington State, playing before a crowd of 52,419. BYU held a 24-7 lead at halftime, then pushed the score to 31-7 as Tom Holmoe intercepted a pass and returned it 35 yards to give the WAC champions a comfortable edge. As the second half progressed, it appeared BYU would be the come-from-behind victim in this one. With only 59 seconds left in the third quarter, Washington State scored to make it 31-28. But Jim McMahon took over moving BYU 82 yards for a score to stretch the lead to 38-28. Statistically, it was a typical McMahon game, 27 of 43 with no interceptions and three touchdowns. Tight end Gordon Hudson had an excellent game, collecting seven catches for 126 yards and a touchdown. Dan Plater also caught a touchdown pass and Waymon Hamilton scored on the ground. Washington State quarterbacks Clete Casper and Ricky Turner completed only eight passes for 106 yards but Turner had 82 yards rushing while Don LaBomme had 79. Each team scored five touchdowns, so the difference actually came midway through the second quarter when Kurt Gunther connected on a 20-yard field goal after a BYU drive stalled on the Washington State three.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars had their two-game Holiday Bowl win streak snapped by Ohio State, 47-17. BYU's bubble burst at the outset of the third quarter, when the Buckeyes reeled off 17 unanswered points. Tim Spencer blew through the Cougar defense for 167 yards, including a record-setting 61-yard touchdown run in the second quarter that put Ohio State up, 10-7. Steve Young completed 27 of 45 passes for 341 yards, but BYU had a tough time getting into the end zone. The Cougars turned the ball over to Ohio State three times inside the 30 and saw the Buckeyes convert each turnover into a score. The Cougars took the lead early in the second quarter with a seven-yard strike to Neil Balholm. But Spencer's long gallop and a blocked punt put the Buckeyes up, 17-10, at halftime. Big fullback Vaughn Broadnax scored on the opening drive of the second half, and on the next play, Young was intercepted and Spencer ran 18 yards to put Ohio State in control for good. BYU's only other score came midway through the fourth quarter when Gordon Hudson caught a 13-yard pass. Ohio State quarterback Mike Tomzak had only 132 yards passing and no touchdowns, but his fleet of running backs scored six times on the ground. Ten different BYU players caught passes, led by Hudson with seven receptions for 81 yards and Balholm with 58 yards receiving.

GAME SUMMARY:

Yet another chapter was added to the saga of impossible, thrilling Holiday Bowl finishes when BYU defeated Missouri, 21-17. The game was billed as a classic matchup between Missouri's stubborn defense and BYU's explosive offense, led by quarterback Steve Young. Missouri held BYU to just 167 yards and seven points in the first half, while BYU's defense allowed the Tigers only 157 yards and 10 points. Missouri got its first-half points on a two-yard run by Eric Drain and a 37-yard field goal by Brad Burditt. BYU's touchdown came on a 10-yard quarterback draw by Young. In the second half, Young hit Eddie Stinnett with a 33-yard touchdown pass. Missouri came right back with another two-yard plunge by Drain. A valiant goal-line stand by BYU gave the Cougars the ball on the six-yard-line with 3:57 left in the game. Led by Young, the Cougars moved down the field to the Missouri 15 with under a minute to play. On first-and-10 at the Tigers' 15, Young handed to Stinnett, who faked a sweep right and threw back across the field to Young. The Stinnett pass barely cleared the outstretched hands of Missouri's Bobby Bell allowing Young to gather it in and scramble 15 yards to the end zone. The PAT gave BYU a 21-17 lead with 23 seconds left. Kyle Morrell intercepted a Missouri desperation pass at the BYU two-yard line and returned it to the 17 to seal the win.

GAME SUMMARY:

Holiday Bowl VII lived up to all the glamour and excitement of the previous six bowls, plus it had a new dimension--national championship luster--thanks to BYU's undefeated, untied season and No. 1 ranking. The 24-17 Cougar victory marked the first time in years that a non-New Year's Day bowl game determined the national championship. The contest was played in typical Holiday Bowl fashion. After a scoreless first quarter in which Cougar quarterback Robbie Bosco was forced to the sideline with an injured knee and ankle, the game began to develop drama. BYU scored first with 8:37 left in the first half on a five-yard run by Kelly Smith. The touchdown was set up when a limping Bosco returned to the lineup and engineered an 80-yard drive. The Wolverines responded by putting together an 80-yard scoring drive of their own, culminating on Rick Rogers' five-yard touchdown run up the middle. The PAT tied the score at seven. The tie was short-lived however, as a 31-yard field goal by Lee Johnson with time running out in the first half gave BYU a 10-7 lead at the break. Midway through the third period, Michigan went on top for the first time at 14-10 on a 10-yard scoring strike from Bob Zurbrugg to Bob Perryman. The Wolverines added to their lead when Bob Bergeron nailed a 32-yard field goal to make the Michigan lead 17-10 with 14:14 to play. The Cougar offense then produced an 80-yard drive that culminated with a seven-yard Bosco-to-Glen Kozłowski touchdown pass to tie the game at 17 with 10:51 to go. Bosco's 13-yard scoring toss to Smith with 1:23 remaining made it 24-17. Two plays later Marv Allen intercepted a pass to clinch a 13-0 season and the Cougars' first-ever national championship. David Mills finished with 11 catches for 103 yards receiving and Smith had 10 for 88. Lakei Heimuli led BYU with 82 yards rushing while Bob Perryman had 110 for Michigan.

OSU – Spangler 47-yard field goal
BYU – Miles 38 yard pass from Bosco (Webster kick)
OSU – Kolic 14 pass interception (Spangelfr kick)

GAME SUMMARY:

In what promised to be an offensive showdown between pass-happy BYU (11-2) and rough and tumble Ohio State (8-3), two of the nation's top defenses took center stage. In fact, the game's only touchdowns were produced by a noseguard on an interception and a reserve wide receiver on a broken play. Buckeye kicker Rich Spangler tallied the first points of the game with a 47-yard field goal early in the second quarter to give Ohio State a 3-0 lead. BYU attempted to answer with a long drive of its own, only to come away empty after Vai Sikahema fumbled on an apparent touchdown plunge. Before the first half ended, quarterback Robbie Bosco rolled left, whirled right and found wide receiver David Miles on a 38-yard strike to give the Cougars a 7-3 halftime lead. In the second half, Ohio State noseguard Larry Kolic intercepted Bosco and took it in for a touchdown to give the Buckeyes a 10-7 lead. Leon White and Kyle Whittingham recovered fumbles but Kolic got another interception and Terry White intercepted two in the end zone to stop BYU threats—one with 3:38 to play and again with three seconds left. Ohio State was the benefactor of six Cougar turnovers, and the Buckeyes went home the victor. Mark Bellini had 89 yards receiving while Lakei Heimuli added 10 receptions for 77 yards.

BYU – Hansen 3-yard run (Chitty kick)

GAME SUMMARY:

Although BYU failed to win the WAC title, the Cougars kept alive an impressive streak of nine bowl appearances in a row by being invited to the third annual Freedom Bowl. There they met familiar foe UCLA. The two teams had met in 1985 when the Bruins came from behind to win a tough game in Provo, 27-24. The Freedom Bowl, however, proved different as UCLA outstanding running back Gaston Green broke open a close game in the third quarter and the Bruins went on to win 31-10. Green finished with 266 yards on 33 carries. The first half was all defense as the two teams punted nine times in the first 30 minutes. BYU struck first when linebacker Andy Katoa recovered a UCLA fumble at the Bruin 47 and Leonard Chitty put the Cougars ahead 3-0 with a 32-yard field goal. UCLA stormed ahead to stay with a 71-yard touchdown drive highlighted by a 49-yard run on a reverse by Bruin receiver Karl Dorrell. From then on, it was UCLA most of the way. Cougar quarterbacks Bob Jensen and Mike Young managed to pass for over 200 yards, but UCLA and Green did most of the damage. Costly injuries to standouts Mark Bellini and Katoa hindered the Cougar effort, but Outland Trophy winner Jason Buck turned in another strong effort.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 11th annual All-American Bowl began with temperatures in the 40s and BYU never warmed up. The Cougars' 10th-consecutive bowl appearance included several records, but BYU lost 22-16 in its first-ever meeting with Virginia. Sean Covey attempted 61 passes, David Miles had 188 yards in receptions and Pat Thompson only punted once, but BYU fell short several times. Darren Handley, BYU's leading receiver, dropped a touchdown pass in the first quarter before BYU settled for a 20-yard field goal by Leonard Chitty. However, Chitty, who set a season best for field goals (18) and consecutive PATs (29), missed from 51 and 47 yards as Virginia took a 14-3 lead into the intermission. BYU got to the Virginia two-yard-line midway through the third quarter only to have a fourth-down pass tipped away. Later, Freddie Whittingham scampered eight yards to cut the lead to 14-9 at the end of the third quarter. Virginia, led by quarterback Scott Secules, the game's MVP, made a crucial 76-yard drive to go ahead 22-9 with 11 minutes left. Then, BYU went the same distance to score on a one-yard pass to Whittingham with seven minutes remaining. But that was as close as the Cougars would get. Ironically, nine years earlier on the same date Virginia coach George Welsh was head coach of Navy, which beat BYU 23-16 in the inaugural Holiday Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY:

A star was born in the fifth annual Freedom Bowl when Ty Detmer came off the bench to earn MVP honors while leading the Cougars to an upset victory over Colorado. Cool weather didn't hamper diminutive Eric Bieniemy, who rushed 33 times for 144 yards and two touchdowns. But his heroics couldn't offset Detmer's 11 for 17 and 129 yards in the second half. Scott Peterson made an interception to set up the game-winning field goal. It was an exciting contest for the 35,941 fans (49,694 tickets were sold) in attendance. A fumble at midfield led to the Buffaloes' first score, before Sean Covey found Mike Salido to tie the score. An interception in the end zone stopped a BYU drive early in the second quarter as the Cougars trailed at the half, 14-7. A Detmer to Chuck Cutler pass tied the game in the third quarter but Colorado took a 17-14 lead early in the final quarter. BYU then moved from its own four to the Buffalo 14 and tied the game with 4:11 left on a 31-yarder by Chaffetz. Three plays later, Peterson's interception and a 15-yard penalty put the ball at the Colorado 32. With 2:33 left, Chaffetz booted a 35-yarder for the victory. Halfback Matt Bellini carried eight times for 78 yards and caught four passes for 41 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

Two unusual plays late in the game kept BYU from downing Penn State and offset 576 yards passing by Ty Detmer—the highest total ever in a bowl game. For his effort, and thanks to blocking from Outland Trophy winner Mohammed Elewonibi, Detmer had the rare privilege of sharing MVP honors despite playing on the losing team. BYU trailed 41-26 with nine and a half minutes remaining and scored twice to cut the lead to 41-39 with 2:30 to play. The Cougars went for a two-point conversion to tie the game, but Detmer's pass was intercepted in the end zone by Penn State linebacker Andre Collins and returned 102 yards for two points. Down 43-39, the Cougars, led by Bob Davis, forced the Lions to punt, giving BYU the ball on its own 12 with two minutes left. Passes to Brent Nyberg, Matt Bellini, Chris Smith and Andy Boyce moved the ball to the Penn State 38 with a minute left to play. Then, what appeared to be a sack by Penn State safety Gary Brown turned into a score for the Nittany Lions. Brown stripped the ball from Detmer at the Penn State 47 and raced 53 yards for the score. Penn State finished the season ranked 14th by UPI and 15th by AP and CNN/USA Today. BYU was 18th in the UPI poll and 22nd in the others.

GAME SUMMARY:

Led by quarterback Bucky Richardson and All-American running back Darren Lewis, underdog Texas A&M was out to show it belonged among the nation's elite. The Cougars entered the game beat up. Defensive backs Tony Crutchfield and Norm Dixon weren't able to suit up and Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer was playing with a slight separation in his non-throwing shoulder. The second-largest Holiday Bowl crowd ever (61,441) watched the Aggies march 80 yards in 13 plays to take a 7-0 lead. The Cougars tied the score on an eight-yard Detmer-to-Chris Smith touchdown pass, but after that, the game was all Texas A&M. The Aggies went on to score 23 points in the second quarter en route to a 37-7 halftime lead. With the game out of hand, the big story was William Thomas' crunching sack that separated Detmer's throwing shoulder and put him out of the game early in the third quarter. The Aggies continued to dominate by racking up nearly 200 yards rushing in the second half. Texas A&M's Richardson would go on to be named Offensive Player of the Game by piling up 344 yards in total offense. Thomas was named the top defensive player. BYU finished the season ranked 17th by UPI, 20th by CNN/USA Today and 22nd by AP. BYU had been as high as fourth prior to its first loss.

GAME SUMMARY:

A tipped pass that was picked off in the end zone with less than 30 seconds remaining stifled BYU's hopes of knocking off seventh-ranked Iowa in the 14th annual Holiday Bowl. Ty Detmer turned in another great performance in his last appearance as a Cougar, passing for 350 yards and two touchdowns against a team that led the Big 10 in defense and sacks. Quarterback Matt Rodgers led Iowa on a 74-yard scoring march on the game's opening drive. The Hawkeyes also scored on another long drive in the second quarter. Down 13-0, BYU finally got things rolling. Starting on the BYU 22, Detmer connected on five of six passes to move the Cougars to the Iowa nine. From there, he found fullback Peter Tuipulotu for the touchdown. The PAT failed and the halftime score was 13-6. BYU opened the fourth with an 87-yard drive that culminated with a Detmer-to-Tyler Anderson touchdown from 29 yards out. Earl Kauffman connected on the PAT to tie the score at 13. Each team threatened to score late in the fourth quarter. Iowa missed a 40-yard field goal with 4:19 left. On the game's final drive the Cougars moved inside the Iowa 20 with 33 seconds left to play, but Detmer's pass to tight end Byron Rex was tipped and picked off by Hawkeye safety Carlos James in the end zone to preserve the tie. Josh Arnold of BYU earned defensive MVP honors as BYU finished the season ranked 23rd in the AP and CNN/USA Today polls. Iowa was 10th in both polls.

KU – Eichloff 42-yard field goal
BYU – Sterling 10-yard pass from Young (pass failed)
KU – Hilleary 1-yard run (Hilleary run)
KU – Eichloff 48-yard field goal

GAME SUMMARY:

Kansas kicker Dan Eichloff booted a 48-yard field goal with 2:57 left to play, giving the Jayhawks a victory over BYU, the WAC tri-champion. Tom Young, who completed 15 of 31 passes for 262 yards in his first varsity start, was named Most Valuable Player for BYU. Tackle Dana Stubblefield, who had three of the six sacks on Young, won the honor for Kansas. Young had been pressed into action when Ryan Hancock suffered knee ligament damage against Utah in the final regular-season game. The Cougars took an early lead when Hema Heimuli scrambled 94 yards on the opening kickoff for a score. Kansas tied the game two plays later when wide receiver Matt Gay threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to tight end Rodney Harris. BYU took a 14-9 lead in the second quarter when Jamal Willis ran 29 yards for a score. Eichloff then cut the halftime score to 14-12 with a 42-yard field goal. But the kicking game would prove the downfall as the Cougars missed a 36-yard field goal in the first quarter as well as a 31-yarder and misplayed an extra point attempt in the third quarter. Young threw 10 yards to Otis Sterling for the only score of the third quarter. Kansas quarterback Chip Hilleary then tied the game by directing a 75-yard drive in a minute and a half, scoring the touchdown and then running for a two-point conversion.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars took Big 10 Co-Champion Ohio State to the wire at the 16th annual Holiday Bowl and came up just short. BYU had four downs and 32 seconds to tie or win the game from the OSU six-yard line, but four-straight John Walsh passes into the end zone fell to the ground and OSU slipped away with the win. BYU got to the Ohio State six, 14 and 22-yard lines in the second half without scoring. Meanwhile, Raymont Harris, OSU's senior halfback, battered the BYU defense all night long, scoring three touchdowns on his way to a record 235 yards rushing. Despite Harris' rushing, the Cougars managed to go into the halftime break tied at 21. Chad Lewis made a spectacular one-handed touchdown grab in the corner of the end zone to bail the Cougars out of a fourth-and-eight situation. After Harris' short touchdown run late in the third, BYU and OSU traded possessions until late into the fourth quarter. After forcing a rare Buckeye punt, BYU got the ball back on its own 42 with 43 seconds left. On first down, Walsh hooked up with senior co-captain Eric Drage who ran away from Buckeye defenders and advanced the ball 52 yards to the OSU six-yard line. Walsh had 389 yards and fullback Kalin Hall rushed for 42 yards on 11 carries. Tyler Anderson returned five kicks for 145 yards, including an exciting 45-yarder. Harris and Walsh shared MVP honors.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU fans celebrated the New Year early as the Cougars dominated Oklahoma and ended its five-year winning drought in bowl games. Quarterback John Walsh and the offense clicked on all cylinders and the Cougars' defense was dominating throughout the ESPN telecast. Walsh threw a seven-yard TD pass to Bryce Dorman in the first quarter and had a 25-yard pass to Mike Johnston in the second quarter. A four-yard scoring pass to Johnston in the third quarter and a 28-yard touchdown pass to Dorman in the fourth quarter vaulted Walsh's stats to 454 yards and four touchdowns on 31 of 45 passes with no interceptions against the Sooners defense which had held national champion Nebraska to 13 points. BYU's defense was dominating as it held Oklahoma to just 72 yards rushing and 163 yards passing—most of those in the last quarter. The Sooners did not cross midfield until their ninth possession on the second-to-last play of the third quarter. Jamal Willis caught seven passes for 103 yards and was chosen Offensive Player of the Game. Walsh was named MVP in what would be his final game at BYU. BYU finished 10th in the CNW/USA Today poll and 18th in the Associated Press poll.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU assumed the nation's longest winning streak with a come-from-behind 19-15 victory in the 61st annual Cotton Bowl. It was the first New Year's Day appearance for both 14th-ranked Kansas State and fifth-ranked BYU. More than 40,000-purple clad Kansas State supporters outnumbered the 15,000 Cougar patrons as 71,928 fans filled the Cotton Bowl. BYU got on the board first with a safety, then turned the ensuing punt into a field goal to lead 5-0 in the first quarter. The safety came when linebacker Shay Muirbrook, the game's defensive MVP, collected one of his six sacks. Kansas State took a half-time lead with a 41-yard "Hail Mary" pass and a successful two-point conversion with no time left on the clock. The Wildcats increased the lead to 15-5 in the third quarter when offensive co-MVP Kevin Lockett caught a 72-yard TD. Fueled by consecutive controversial interference no-calls, quarterback Steve Sarkisian engineered two fourth-quarter drives capped by touchdown passes of 32 yards to James Dye and 28 yards to K.O. Kealaluhi. Sarkisian, an offensive co-MVP, completed 21 passes to tie a Cotton Bowl record held by Roger Staubach of Navy. KSU drove the length of the field before Cougar cornerback Omarr Morgan juggled an interception from a Wildcat slant pattern at the 12 yard line to secure the game.

GAME SUMMARY:

In BYU's first ever appearance at the Liberty Bowl, the Cougars ran into 10th-ranked Tulane that entered the New Year's Eve game with a perfect season record. The Cougars struck first on an 11-yard pass from Kevin Feterik to receiver Ben Horton. Tulane would score 20 unanswered points in the first half. With just 41 seconds remaining in the half, BYU looked to put an end to the Green Wave momentum, but came up short as Feterik was sacked by Phil Henderson for a 10-yard loss to end the half. Things didn't get much better for the Cougars in the second half, as Tulane scored its third touchdown of the game on the opening drive of the half. On its next possession, the Green Wave would strike again on a 13-yard pass from King to Jamaican Dartez to give Tulane a 34-6 lead with just over seven minutes remaining in the third quarter. On its first drive of the final period, BYU scored for the first time since the 8:49 mark in the first half on an Aaron Cupp three-yard run. Trailing by 28 midway through the fourth quarter, BYU finally crossed the Tulane 20-yard line for the first time since the first half and went on to score 14 unanswered points before time expired.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU squared off against Marshall in the first meeting between the two schools at the Cougars' first-ever appearance in the third annual Motor City Bowl. The Cougars scored first on a field goal by Owen Pochman with 1:58 remaining in the first quarter. That score was set up by a pair of 20-plus yard receptions by Donny Atuala and Jonathan Pittman. In the second quarter, Marshall drove the ball down to the BYU five-yard line, but failed to convert as a 22-yard field goal attempt by Billy Malashevich missed wide to the right. On the Herd's next possession, Chad Pennington put Marshall on the board with a 30-yard touchdown pass to Doug Chapman. On BYU's ensuing drive, Feterik connected with Margin Hooks for a 67-yard pass play that took the Cougars all the way to the nine-yard line. However, the Cougars couldn't capitalize inside the red zone and Feterik suffered a collarbone injury off a blindside corner blitz. Pochman, who had connected on 18 of 25 attempts in the regular season, missed wide left on his field goal attempt. Feterik attempted to play in the second half, but left the game midway in the third quarter when freshman Bret Engemann took the QB controls. Just before the end of the third quarter, Marshall struck a big play when Chapman rushed 87 yards for a touchdown. To cap off his MVP performance, Chapman scored Marshall's final touchdown. The Cougars missed a final chance to score when Brian Gray had a clear path to the end zone, but dropped a sure interception.

GAME SUMMARY:

The champions of the MWC faced Louisville, the champions of Conference USA. The Cardinals, led by quarterback Dave Ragone, took an early lead, scoring on a one-yard dive by Henry Miller that was set up by Zek Parker's 70-yard return on the opening kickoff. Midway through the second quarter the Cougar offense came alive, driving to the Louisville 10-yard line. Quarterback Brandon Doman dropped back and rolled right as if to pass, then turned to his left and threw the ball to Dustin Rykert on a tackle-eligible play. All 6-foot-7, 305 pounds of offensive tackle outran the Cardinal defense to the corner and rumbled 10 yards to the end zone to tie the game 7-7. Louisville just managed to take a 14-7 lead into the break, scoring with only 14 seconds left. Louisville contained the Cougar attack for the remainder of the game while reaching the end zone two more times. Although Louisville went on to win 28-10, BYU's defense played one of its best games of the season, holding the Cardinals' high-powered offense to 228 yards passing and only 58 yards rushing.

GAME SUMMARY:

Trailing 35-14 in the fourth quarter, BYU stormed back with two touchdowns and had the ball with 2:20 remaining, but John Beck was intercepted after being hit when releasing the ball, ending the Cougars' comeback hopes. Beck had a record-setting performance, completing 35 of 53 attempts for 352 yards and three touchdowns. The 35 completions, 53 attempts and 352 yards were all Las Vegas Bowl records. Nathan Meikle caught a game-high 12 passes for 95 yards while Jonny Harline had seven receptions for 73 yards and one score and Todd Watkins added five catches for 95 yards and a touchdown. BYU fell behind 7-0 in the first quarter but scored early in the second when Beck found Curtis Brown for a 19-yard touchdown pass. California scored again but Fahu Tahi scored on a three-yard run to tie the game at 14 with 38 seconds left in the second quarter. The Golden Bears struck again before the half, going 58 yards in 27 seconds to take a 21-14 lead into the locker room. In the fourth, Beck engineered a 74-yard drive that ended with Harline scoring and then a 96-yard drive that ended with Watkins catching a nine-yard touchdown pass from Beck. California's ensuing drive ended with a missed field goal and the Cougars had a chance to tie but the drive ended on Beck's interception.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 2006 BYU championship run ended with a Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl championship as the Cougars (11-2) dominated Oregon (7-6), 38-8, to finish the season with a 10-game winning streak in front of a Sam Boyd Stadium record crowd of 44,615. The Mountain West Conference champion BYU team set a school record for margin of victory in a bowl game, beating the Ducks by 30 points. Previously, the largest margin of victory for a BYU team in a bowl game was a 25-point defeat of Oklahoma in the 1994 Copper Bowl. BYU dominated all facets of the game, out-gaining Oregon 548 total yards to 260 total yards. BYU passed for 375 compared to Oregon's 166 and rushed for 173 compared to the Ducks 94. BYU seniors John Beck, Jonny Harline and Curtis Brown finished their careers in style. Beck completed 28 of 46 passes for 375 yards and two touchdowns. Harline, who was named Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl MVP, caught nine passes for a career-best – and Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl record – 181 yards and a touchdown. Brown had 17 carries for 120 yards and two touchdowns and also caught seven passes for 55 yards. Brown also became the first BYU runner to rush for over 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons. Beck and Brown became the first quarterback/running back combo to pass for 3,000 yards and rush for 1,000 in the same season twice.

GAME SUMMARY:

No. 17 BYU (11-2) won its second consecutive Las Vegas Bowl, 17-16, against UCLA (6-7) in dramatic fashion -- by blocking the Bruins' potential game-winning field goal attempt as time expired. With only three ticks on the clock, true freshman Eathyn Manumaleuna extended his right hand at the right time to block UCLA's potential game-winning, 28-yard field goal as time expired to create what will be known as one of the most memorable bowl finishes in BYU football history. The victory also avenged an early-season loss to the Bruins -- one of only two losses the Cougars suffered during the season. The Cougars, who finished the 2007 season on a 10-game winning streak, were led by sophomores Max Hall and Austin Collie. Hall threw 21-35 for 231 yards and two touchdowns. Sophomore receiver Austin Collie was named the 2007 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl Most Valuable Player after racking up a game-high 107 yards on six receptions. Collie's 14-yard touchdown reception from Max Hall with 10:32 left in the second quarter gave the Cougars a 10-3 advantage. He was also credited with a game-high 195 all-purpose yards, including three kick returns for a total of 88 yards. The win marked the first time BYU had won back-to-back bowl games since the 1994 Copper Bowl and the 1996 Cotton Bowl. The win over UCLA extended the Cougars' win streak to 10 straight games, which marked the nation's longest active winning streak.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU totaled 444 yards of total offense compared to Arizona's 416, but the No. 16 Cougars fell short of their third-straight bowl victory, falling 31-21 to the Arizona Wildcats in the 2008 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl at Sam Boyd Stadium on Dec. 20. Trailing late in the game, BYU put pressure on Arizona with a comeback attempt when the Cougars followed a touchdown with a successful on-side kick. Wide receiver O'Neill Chambers recovered the ball for BYU, but the ensuing field-goal attempt hit the upright and left the Wildcats with a two-possession lead, enough to hold on for the win. Austin Collie continued to set BYU records in career receptions (215) and single-season receptions (106). The All-American receiver also tied an NCAA single-season record held with Texas Tech's Michael Crabtree with his 11th consecutive 100-yard receiving game. BYU quarterback Max Hall completed 30-of-46 passes for 328 yards and one touchdown pass. The Cougars finished the year 10-3 while the Wildcats improved to 8-5. BYU was one of only seven programs in the nation to win 10 or more games each year from 2006-2008. The Cougars last accomplished the feat from 1983-85.

GAME SUMMARY:

The No. 14 BYU Cougars defeated the Pac-10 second-place Beavers 44-20 at the MAACO Bowl Las Vegas. It was the first-ever Las Vegas Bowl matchup pitting two top-20 teams. BYU's senior class anchored the win as quarterback Max Hall earned MVP honors throwing for 192 yards and three touchdowns. Manase Tonga contributed two touchdowns, while senior tight ends Andrew George and Dennis Pitta led all receivers with 46 and 45 yards, respectively. Defensively, senior linebacker Matt Bauman recovered a key fumble, returning it 34 yards for a touchdown. The score marked the first fumble recovery for a touchdown in BYU bowl history. Fellow team captain Scott Johnson intercepted an Oregon State pass in the fourth quarter and returned it 56 yards to set up BYU's final touchdown of the game. BYU and Oregon State met for the first time in a bowl game and for the first contest since BYU head coach Bronco Mendenhall played for the Beavers in 1986. Wind gusts of 55 mph created some havoc for the passing and kicking games. BYU punter Riley Stephenson kicked a 60-yard low liner with the wind that was the longest kick of his career and tied a BYU bowl record.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU opened the bowl season with its fourth bowl victory in the last five years with a 52-24 triumph over UTEP in the New Mexico Bowl. The Cougars had a record-setting day to finish the season with a 7-6 record and wins in five of their last six games. Offensive MVP Jake Heaps went 25-of-34 for 264 yards and four touchdown passes, passing Ty Detmer's freshman record for most touchdown passes. Heaps also set the BYU bowl record for best completion percentage (.735) in a bowl game. Safety Andrew Rich was awarded the game's Defensive MVP in his final game as a Cougar, finishing with four solo tackles, two interceptions, one tackle-for-loss, one sack and a pass breakup. BYU played well from the start, scoring on its first five possessions to take a 31-3 lead and set a new first-half New Mexico Bowl scoring record. Cody Hoffman set career highs across the board with eight receptions for 137 yards and three touchdowns, tying a BYU bowl game record for most TD receptions in a game. Mitch Payne passed Owen Pochman as the Cougars' all-time scoring leader with 334 points.

GAME SUMMARY:

With no timeouts left and 11 seconds remaining in the game, Riley Nelson faked spiking the ball to stop the clock and instead threw to an open Cody Hoffman for the game-winning touchdown to give BYU a 24-21 win over Tulsa in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl. BYU faced a 4th-and-9 from the Tulsa 47-yard line with the clock ticking down near three minutes remaining in the game and Nelson scrambled 14 yards to convert the first down and eventually set up the winning score. BYU locked up its fifth 10-win season in the last six years and third bowl victory in a row, a program record. Hoffman, named the Armed Forces Bowl Most Outstanding Player for the Cougars, finished with eight catches for 122 yards and a bowl-record three touchdowns. BYU's defense was stout, surrendering just 272 total yards and only 37 yards on the ground to a Golden Hurricane team that came into the game averaging over 200 rushing yards per game. Kyle Van Noy made play after play on defense with 10 tackles to lead the Cougars, including five tackles for loss, two sacks, one forces fumble and one quarterback hurry. Special teams also played a huge role in the game. Punter Riley Stephenson had eight punts for 335 yards, including seven inside the 20-yard line and two punts over 50 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

Linebacker Kyle Van Noy scored two touchdowns on defense in the fourth quarter, one with the team trailing 6-3 and led the BYU football team to a 23-6 win over San Diego State in the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl Thursday night at Qualcomm Stadium. The win extended the Cougars' bowl win streak to four to build on their current school record. BYU (8-5) forced four turnovers in the fourth quarter and outscored San Diego State (9-4) 20-0 to overcome a 6-3 deficit. After the Aztecs intercepted James Lark on 3rd and goal, the No. 3 total defense turned the tables on the next play and ignited BYU as Van Noy sacked San Diego State's Adam Dingwell to cause a fumble, falling on it for the first touchdown of the game to put the Cougars on top 10-6 with 12:32 remaining in the fourth quarter. The Van Noy show continued with a pick-six to finalize the score, 23-6, late in the fourth quarter. Van Noy was named the defensive MVP after finishing the night with two touchdowns, a forced fumble and fumble recovery, one interception, a blocked punt, 3.5 tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks and eight total tackles. Senior Brandon Ogletree led the Cougars in tackles with 10 and added two tackles for loss. All-American Riley Stephenson helped flip the field for BYU with four punts inside the 5-yard line. Junior wide receiver Cody Hoffman grabbed 10 passes for 114 yards to earn offensive MVP.

GAME SUMMARY:

Taysom Hill finished the game throwing for 293 yards and rushing for 133 yards. Cody Hoffman had 12 catches for 167 yards for his 18th 100-yard receiving game in his career to break the record held by Austin Collie. He also broke the BYU record for career all-purpose yards, ending his career with 5,015 and passing Curtis Brown. Washington got inside the BYU 20-yard line on two of its first three drives of the game, but the Cougar defense held the Huskies to just one touchdown on their opening possession. BYU drove the ball 88 yards to tie the game at 7-7 on a one-yard run by Hill. The Cougars grabbed the momentum on a fake punt by Daniel Sorensen, and Hill completed his next four passes to move the offense down the field. Washington returned the following kickoff back for a touchdown to take back the lead at 14-7. Two field goals by Justin Sorensen brought the score within one at 14-13. Sorensen's first field goal was from 45 yards, which is a season long. A long kickoff return by the Huskies set up Washington's second rushing touchdown of the game to take a 21-13 lead with just over two and a half minutes left in the first half. Justin Sorensen nailed his third field goal of the game as time expired in the first half to close the gap at 21-16 going into the locker room but went scoreless in the second half.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU rallied from down 10 in the fourth quarter to take a late lead but a last-minute touchdown from Memphis forced overtime. Each team tacked on three in the first overtime but after giving up a Tiger touchdown, the Cougars were intercepted in the end zone to end the game in a 55-48 loss. Christian Stewart went 23 of 48 for 348 yards and three touchdowns to go along with three interceptions. Stewart spread the ball around, completing passes to 10 different receivers. Mitch Mathews led all pass catchers with nine receptions for 82 yards and a touchdown. Mitchell Juergens caught four balls for 87 yards and a score. Jordan Leslie only caught one pass in his last game as a Cougar, but it went for 23 yards and a touchdown. BYU totaled 425 yards, compared to 480 for Memphis. The Tigers outgained the Cougars on the ground 174-77 and also dominated the time of possession 46:32-28:28. After losing the overtime coin toss, BYU kicker Trevor Samson drilled a career-long 45-yard field goal to put BYU up 48-45. Memphis bested the Cougars' kick with a 55-yard kick from Jake Elliott to send it to double overtime. Memphis opened up the second overtime with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Roderick Proctor, and DeShaughn Terry picked off Stewart at the goal line to end the game.

GAME SUMMARY:

After surrendering five turnovers on its first five possessions, BYU found itself in a 35-0 hole after the first 10 minutes of the game. BYU rallied for a touchdown on its last possession of the first half to trail 35-7. Out of the break, the Cougars strung together three more touchdowns and held the Utes (10-3) scoreless to make it 35-28 with 3:23 remaining in the game. Utah converted two first downs on its final drive to get into the victory formation and prevent the Cougars from having another chance. After a forgettable first quarter, BYU dominated the statistics, outgaining Utah 386 to 197 in total yards and 315 to 71 in the throwing game. Despite throwing three interceptions and fumbling in the first quarter, true freshman Tanner Mangum stayed composed to finish the game 25 of 56 for 315 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed for a 4-yard touchdown. Devon Blackmon caught three passes for 97 yards while Nick Kurtz and Remington Peck each caught a touchdown pass. Francis Bernard added one rushing touchdown as part of his seven carries for 58 yards. Defensively, Bronson Kaufusi led BYU in tackles in his final game of a Cougar with nine and had three tackles for loss. With 5:05 to go, Utah went for a short 4th-and-1 and the BYU defense stuffed Joe Williams for no gain to get the ball back at the Cougar 40-yard line with 5:05 to go. Mangum hit Blackmon for 45 yards to get BYU inside the Utah 4-yard line. Mangum called his own number and rushed four yards for the score to make it 35-28 with 3:23 on the clock. The Ute offense did just enough to get two first downs on the ensuing drive and never gave the Cougars a chance to complete an incredible comeback.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU led 24-7 in the fourth quarter, but a furious Cowboy comeback made it a thriller in the final minutes. Wyoming cut the advantage to 24-21 and had the ball at the Cougar 32-yard line with 1:22 to play before senior Kai Nacua picked off a pass heading near the end zone to end the final threat of a comeback. Senior running back Jamaal Williams put on a show in his final game at BYU, running for 210 yards and one touchdown on 26 carries. Quarterback Tanner Mangum scrambled and punched in the first score to put BYU up 7-0 with 38 seconds to play in first quarter. BYU was able to get three points at the 3:08 mark in the second quarter with a 27-yard field goal from Rhett Almond. Out of the break, Wyoming went 60 yards on its first drive, capped by a 4-yard touchdown run to cut BYU's lead to 10-7 after a drive over eight minutes long. On a desperation throw to the end zone, the ball bounced off of multiple players' hands before falling into Tanner Baldersee's arms for a 5-yard touchdown for a 17-7 lead with 2:42 in the third. Dayan Lake stepped in front of a pass and intercepted it for his third pick of the year. The Cougars cashed in five plays later when a Jonah Trinnaman block helped spring Williams for a 36-yard touchdown run to make it 24-7 to start the fourth quarter. The back and forth scoring continued when Wyoming made it 24-14 after a 9-yard touchdown pass with 7:35 left in the game. The Cowboys continued to fight with another touchdown from Wyoming wide receiver Tanner Gentry (his second of the game) with 2:11 to go to make things interesting at 24-21. BYU had to punt it back to Wyoming with 1:52 remaining. After getting to the 32-yard line, Wyoming's quarterback was intercepted by Nacua as he jumped in front and picked it off to seal BYU's victory.

The 2018 BYU Football Almanac has been designed to provide local, regional and national media with useful information about the BYU football program, its history and tradition. Additional information, including video and feature content and bios on all players, is available online at BYUcougars.com. Should you require additional information, such as photographs, video or additional media guides, please contact the BYU Athletic Communications office at (801) 422-8948. We appreciate your coverage of BYU football and look forward to working with you this season.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

All requests for credentials to cover BYU football should be sent from the editor or sports director via official company communication to Brett Pyne in the Athletic Communications office (brett_pyne@byu.edu; BYU Athletic Communications, 30 SFH, Provo, UT 84602; Fax 801-422-0633). Credentials shall be issued only to accredited newsgathering media outlets. Fan-based websites will not be issued media access and credentials but are invited to utilize resources provided online at BYUcougars.com to obtain notes, quotes, statistics and other information about BYU football.

All single-game credential requests should be received no later than one week prior to the date of the game to ensure consideration. Credentials for working media are restricted in accordance with BYU and NCAA rules and guidelines. Non-working persons, including spouses, dates and children, will not be credentialed and are not allowed in the working media areas during the game as dictated by NCAA guidelines. It is our intention to ensure proper, professional use is made of the space available for credentialed media.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Sideline credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers and television reporters/camera operators on a specific newsgathering assignment. Television organizations shall be restricted to one camera operator and one reporter on the field at all times, except by prior approval from the BYU Athletic Communications office. Freelance and amateur photographers, not on assignment from a credentialed media outlet, are not eligible for credentials.

Credentials must be displayed prominently. All NCAA rules will be enforced regarding media representatives on the sidelines. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines. Individuals or organizations violating sideline policies may be required to surrender their credentials and be removed from the stadium. For additional questions regarding photography guidelines, please contact University photographer Jaren Wilkey at (801) 422-7322.

MEDIA SERVICES

The working media area is located on the third floor of the press box, situated on the west side of LaVell Edwards Stadium. Access to the press loge may be obtained via either the north or south elevators with media credentials.

The BYU Athletic Communications staff will provide working media with game notes, season stats, depth charts, flip cards, programs, game stats, in-game notes via the @BYUgamenotes Twitter feed, post-game notes and quotes and media guides for both teams.

With four minutes remaining on the game clock, media are invited to take the south elevator to ground level in preparation for the postgame press conference. BYU head coach Kalani Sitake and selected players will be available in the interview room following the mandatory 10-minute cool-off period. The BYU locker room is closed to the media.

The BYU press box is also equipped with wireless internet access. Wireless passwords will be provided with other game materials to media working in the press box.

PARKING

LaVell Edwards Stadium is located on the northwest corner of the BYU campus, just off Canyon Road (200 East) and University Parkway (1650 North) in Provo. Media parking is in Lot No. 2, immediately west of the stadium. Parking passes are required and must be obtained in advance.

INTERVIEWS

All interview and information requests regarding all players, coaches and Athletic Department personnel must be arranged in advance through the Athletic Communications office (see contact information below). BYU provides regular media availability each week. Local media members are responsible for attending media availability to conduct interviews. Opponent and national media can arrange telephone interviews through the Athletic Communications office. The Athletic Communications office will send an advisory each week detailing the weekly availability opportunities. Any other interview requests must be made at least 24 hours in advance. Interviews with players are not permitted after Wednesday each game week. Player interviews will not be conducted during regular class hours.

Please contact the Athletic Communications office for specific times and other details if requesting access opportunities.

DISCLAIMER

The Brigham Young University Athletic Communications department reserves the right to revoke or deny working media credentials and/or access to any individual or organization at any time for any reason. All credentials are the property of Brigham Young University and must be surrendered upon request.

TELEVISION PARTNERS

On Sept. 1, 2010, Brigham Young University announced a partnership with ESPN to televise Cougar football on the sports leader's family of networks. BYU is the first program to sign an exclusive deal with ESPN.

ESPN has agreed that any BYU home games it doesn't select may be televised live on BYUtv.

Since 2011, every BYU home football game has been televised to a live national audience on the ESPN family of networks or BYUtv. Additionally, BYU's national fan base is able to view same-day rebroadcasts on BYUtv of every home game and any away game to which ESPN has rights through conference agreements with the host team.

ESPN

"We've long sought broad, nationalwide access to our games for our fans and increased visibility among those who may be less familiar with our university and athletic programs," said then BYU President Cecil O. Samuelson. "We've also been looking for ways to take better advantage of our own unique broadcasting resources."

Founded in 2001, BYUtv has grown from a relatively unknown cable channel on a single satellite TV provider to coverage available in 60 million North American homes and is growing every month. It's on the basic tier of both Dish and DirectTV and is carried by more than 800 cable systems.

The network constructed its own state-of-the-art production building that will allow it to televise every game in HD, along with its HD truck with the capability of broadcasting while on the road.

ESPN and ESPN2 are both available in some 90 million homes, while the 24-hour college sports network ESPNU is distributed to more than 70 million homes. ESPN also produces college football games that are broadcast on ABC.

Each year, a minimum of three BYU home games will be carried on ESPN, ESPN2, or ABC and one on ESPNU. At least one game each season will be carried live on BYUtv and simulcast on ESPN3.

ESPN has televised many of the great games in Cougar football history, beginning with the network's first live college football telecast. In that 1984 game, the Cougars defeated No. 3 Pitt at the beginning of BYU's national championship season.

ESPN also carried BYU's defeat of top-ranked Miami in 1990, a contest long rated among the top regular-season college football games on ESPN since that year. BYU's season-opening win over No. 3 Oklahoma was ESPN's ninth-highest rated game of the 2009 regular season.

"BYU is nationally recognized as an outstanding university and for the history and tradition of its premier athletic programs," said Burke Magnus, ESPN executive vice president of programming and scheduling. "Once BYU decided to chart an independent course for football, we both recognized it is a good opportunity to build and grow our strong 30-year relationship. With this agreement, college football fans around the country will see the quality and pageantry of BYU as well as the passion and enthusiasm of its supporters."

RADIO

BYU football games are heard exclusively on the Nu Skin BYU Sports Network. Broadcasts air on network flagship station KSL Newsradio (102.7 FM/1160 AM) and are produced by BYU Radio, which carries the games on SiriusXM 143 and 107.9 FM.

The "Voice of the Cougars" is Greg Wrubell, entering his 18th season as play-by-play commentator. A BYU graduate, Wrubell is in his 27th season on the football radio broadcast crew, having served as sideline reporter before stepping into the booth.

Wrubell's broadcast partner is former BYU quarterback Marc Lyons, who will be providing analysis and commentary for a 38th season in 2018. Former Cougar receiver Mitchell Juergens makes his debut as the newest member of the broadcast team, reporting from the sidelines. Jason Shepherd returns as the host of pregame, halftime and postgame coverage.

BYU football broadcasts are heard over-the-air via network affiliates in Utah, Idaho and Nevada. Game coverage is also available online at BYUCougars.com, BYURadio.org and via BYU Athletics and BYU Radio mobile apps, with the live audio stream and archives made available to a worldwide listening audience. You can also listen to BYU football on your Alexa smart speakers by asking for "BYU Radio."

COACHES' SHOWS

In addition to comprehensive game-day coverage, the Nu Skin BYU Sports Network and BYU Broadcasting produce "BYU Football with Head Coach Kalani Sitake," Tuesday nights at 6 p.m. MT, throughout the season. A live audience joins Coach Sitake, player guests and host Greg Wrubell at the BYUtv studios for an insightful and entertaining weekly look inside Cougar football.

In addition, assistant coaches Ed Lamb, Jeff Grimes and Ilaisa Tuiaki will be featured guests on the weekly "Coordinators' Corner" broadcast, airing Mondays in-season, from noon-1 p.m. MT. Greg Wrubell hosts the program, which will air live from the BYU Broadcasting studios and be simulcast on BYU Radio and BYUtv.
